BARLEY—Was quiet For low grade malting the market was very dull and heavy. A kind a little too good to let go as feed and yet poor for malting was almost entirely neglected Demand was very tame generally. Some maltsters were not on the market at all Weakness of Oats curtailed demand from mixers Offerings were smaller than any time this week This fact alone it seems kept prices from going lower High grade to choice Barley scarce; nothing material developed in this kind. Inspected in to-day 59 cars. Screenings were quotable at 32@41c for poor to fancy; the best would hardly bring late outside quotations Barley, feed or mixing quotable at 33@40c local; some best cars sold at 41c; closed with good offered at 39c and 38c bid. Malting, low grade, 41@43c, common, 43@44c. Fair was about 45@47c; good, 48@52c; choice, 53@55c; fancy nominally higher, possibly 56@57c if just the right kind.

SEEDS The markets were all quiet and about steady Cash offerings of Timothy, Clover and Flax were light

Timothy Cash offerings were smaller, which caused a firmer feeling in the market. March sold at $3 05 which was 5c higher than the close of yesterday May sold at $3 15 and for September $3 05 was bid. Country lots were steady and quotable at $2 25@3 00 for poor to fancy; fair to good at $2 50@2 60; choice $2 70@2 85, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 35@2 45.

Flax—Ruled steady to a shade lower. Offerings of cash Seed were small and there was little or no interest taken in future deliveries Local receipts were 7 cars or 5,900 bu there was no output Receipts in the Northwest were 41 cars at Minneapolis and 58 cars at Duluth No 1 Northwestern or No 1 from the Northwest quotable at $1 11½ bid, and No. 1 at $1 09 Rejected nominally $1 05@1 09, outside for choice Northwestern. March quotable at $1 09; May sold at $1 11.

Clover—Remains firm and quiet. Cash offerings small and future deliveries not mentioned Contract spot and March delivery quotable at $11 65. Country lots, common to choice, $8 25@11 40; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $8 50@9 50; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Main run of such lots as come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $9 50@10 75.

Other Seeds—Were nominally unchanged. There were no offerings of any kind, consequently there was nothing done. Hungarian quotable, common and light color to choice, dark at $1 60@1 90. Common Millet $1 00@1 50 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 40 Siberian, 85c@$1 05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05 Buckwheat, good milling, salable at $1 30@1 40.

HOG PRODUCTS—Trade was fair in the market for Hog Products, and the feeling was somewhat unsettled Outside orders were fair, and local trading was moderately active. Hogs were in lighter supply than generally anticipated, and prices were higher early, while the Grain markets were stronger at the opening. These features encouraged a little buying in a general way and prices ruled higher. Later, there was considerable weakness manifested in the Hog and Grain markets, and there was some pressure to sell. Prices declined sharply on all the leading articles, but rallied slightly from inside figures, and closed steady. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 49 300, compared with 55,800 for corresponding time one year ago. Foreign markets exhibited a little more steadiness, and prices were advanced 6d on Backs and 3d on Lard, while Cumberland Sides were 6d lower. Domestic markets quiet. Returns of the packing of the West, compared with those of the corresponding week in 1903, exhibited an increase of 140,000 Hogs Receipts of Products were good—of Lard and Meats about 29 cars. Shipments were light—of Lard and Meats about 98 cars. Shipping demand was moderate, and offerings were fair. Sales were a trifle larger, but still on a limited scale.

Mess Pork—Quite a good business was reported in Mess Pork and the feeling was unsettled. Offerings were rather free, and the demand was moderately active. Prices were irregular Early the feeling was rather firm, and prices were 10c higher. Later, a weaker feeling was manifested and prices receded 12½@15c At the decline the demand improved, and prices rallied again 10@15c This advance encouraged rather free offerings, and a weak feeling was developed. Prices on the whole range declined 70@72½c Toward the close the feeling was a trifle steadier, and prices rallied 10@15c, and the market closed steady. Shipping demand was light, and offerings were moderate Cash lots were quotable at $14 12½@14 25

MAY—Offerings were moderately free, and the demand was only fair. Sales were made at $14 07½@14 82½. Opened at $14 82½, sold to $14 65, to $14 72½, to $14 67½, to $14 80, to $14 60, to $14 62½, to $14 60, to $14 70, to $14 47½, to $14 50, to $14 47½, to $14 40, to $14 30, to $14 35, to $14 07½, to $14 25, to $14 30, to $14 15, to $14 22½, to $14 10, to $14 17½, and closed steady

JULY—In rather good request and offerings were fairly liberal. Sales were made at $14 17½@14 92½. Opened at $14 92½, sold to $14 80, to $14 85, to $14 80, to $14 87½, to $14 70, to $14 82½, to $14 52½, to $14 55, to $14 37½, to $14 40, to $14 17½ to $14 42½, to $14 35, to $14 12½, to $14 20, to $14 30, and closed steady.

Lard—A fairly good trade was reported in Lard Offerings were moderately free, and the demand was fair. Foreign advices unfavorable At the opening, the feeling was stronger, and prices ruled 2½@5c higher, with moderate trading Later, there was considerable pressure to sell, while the demand slackened, and a weak feeling was developed. Prices receded 32½@35c, but rallied again 2½@5c, and the market closed steady around inside figures. Demand on shipping account was light and offerings were moderate Cash lots were quotable at $7 05@7 10 Loose lots called for sparingly and offerings were rather light. Prices were steady at about 70c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in fair request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably lower at $8 75. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably lower at $8 25@8 37½ for No. 1 and $7 87½@8 00 for No. 2.

MAY Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderately active. Sales were made at $7 20@7 55. Opened at $7 52½ to $7 55 sold to $7 50@7 52½, to $7 55 to $7 42½, to $7 45, to $7 20, to $7 27½, to $7 22½, to $7 25, and closed steady.

JULY—In rather good demand, and the offerings were fairly liberal. Sales were made at $7 37½@7 70. Opened at $7 67½ to $7 70, sold to $7 67½, to $7 70, to $7 60, to $7 62½, to $7 65, to $7 40 to $7 42½, to $7 37½, to $7 37½@7 40, and closed steady

Short Rib Sides—Quite an active business was transacted in Short Rib Sides and the feeling was unsettled Offerings were rather free, and the demand was fairly active. Prices ruled irregular. Market opened rather firm, and prices 7½@10c higher Later a weaker feeling was developed and prices declined 32½@35c. Toward the close, the feeling was steadier, and prices rallied 2½@5c, and the market closed steady. Shipping demand was light, and offerings were moderate. Cash lots quotable at $7 00@7 25 according to weight.

MAY—Offerings were quite free, and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $7 20@7 55. Opened at $7 50 to $7 55, sold to $7 47½, to $7 52½, to $7 40, to $7 45, to $7 25, to $7 27½, to $7 22½@7 25, to $7 35, to $7 20, to $7 30, to $7 25, to $7 30, to $7 22½, to $7 25, and closed steady

JULY—Demand was rather active, and offerings were fairly liberal. Sales were made at $7 25@7 62½. Opened at $7 62½ sold to $7 57, to $7 60@7 62½, to $7 50, to $7 55, to $7 32½, to $7 35, to $7 25, to $7 30, to $7 27½, to $7 37½, to $7 32½@7 35 to $7 37½, to $7 35, and closed steady

Other Meats—Trade was a trifle larger and the feeling rather steady. Offerings were only fair. Demand was moderate for the home trade Export inquiry very limited Green Meats in moderate supply and rather light demand, and prices favored buyers Pickled Meats were in fair request to fill moderate orders and prices were unchanged Dry Salted Meats were in fair demand in a quiet way and prices ruled steady. Smoked Meats called for in fair quantities, especially in a jobbing way, and prices were steady Closing range t as follows:

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL NEWS.

HOWARD, BARTELS & CO., Publishers, 28 Sherman St.

Chicago, Thursday, March 3, 1904.

☞ Communications addressed to the publishers of the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN will not receive attention unless postage is enclosed for reply.

Important Notice.

In March, 1884, when it was alleged that certain market circulars compiled for the use and benefit of members of the Chicago Board of Trade, were being furnished daily to alleged "bucket shops," the following resolution was passed by the Board of Directors:

Resolved, That the President of this Board notify the above mentioned firms that such action on their part is detrimental to the interests of this Board, and that they are requested to discontinue sale of said circulars to such "bucket shops."

Foreign demand for Hog Products extremely light.

⁂

Australia and Argentina are shipping Wheat quite freely.

⁂

Packing of the West was materially enlarged during February.

⁂

Trade in Barley quite good, especially for the better grades.

⁂

Receipts of all kinds of Live Stock were liberal during the past month.

⁂

Grass Seeds in moderate request and prices were more favorable to sellers.

⁂

Stocks of the speculative articles of Provisions are gradually enlarging.

⁂

Course of the Grain markets aptly expressed —one day, action; next day, reaction.

⁂

Quite a good inquiry from foreign markets for Neutral during the past two weeks.

⁂

Rather more interest than usual in the Rye market, and prices have advanced materially.

⁂

The exports of Breadstuffs from the United States during February were unusually light.

⁂

Interior packers have not been quite as free sellers of Hog Products since war has been declared.

⁂

If prices of Wheat are maintained, there is little doubt but the area of Spring Wheat will be increased.

⁂

Hogs were in liberal supply during February, but prices were advanced. Quality was not very good.

⁂

Supplies of Flour are quite liberal, and buyers for both home and foreign markets are more conservative.

⁂

There is sufficient "action" now in all the leading speculative markets to suit the most energetic speculator.

⁂

Flax Seed attracted fair speculative attention during the past month, and prices were without material change.

⁂

Manufacturers of Cooperage are experiencing quite a "boom," and prices have followed the advance in Hogs.

⁂

The demand for Hay has been quite good recently, but the offerings were sufficiently large to meet the demand.

⁂

Millers were rather free purchasers of Wheat during the early part of February, but were a little backward at the close, when prices advanced.

⁂

The report of the Department of Agriculture on the quantity of Grain in farmers' hands on March 1 will be awaited with more than usual interest.

⁂

Indications point to a fair increase in the movement of all kinds of farm products. Farmers will be inclined to accept the recently advanced prices.

⁂

Under the rules of the Chicago Board of Trade No. 2 Hard Winter Wheat will be deliverable on regular contracts on and after July 1 at 2c discount.

⁂

If Russia needs money, she will probably not curtail her shipments of farm products, but if she needs men for the army, it may interfere with work on the farms.

⁂

The excitement in the Grain and Provision markets has increased the demand for Board of Trade memberships, and they have advanced to $3,750 net to the seller.

⁂

The outlook for the growing Wheat throughout the world is only fair—barely as good as that of one year ago, and decidedly less favorable than reported two years ago.

⁂

While the world's exports of Wheat since July 1 are about 19,000,000 bu more than for the corresponding time in 1902-3, the exports from America are 49,000,000 bu less.

⁂

There is little doubt but packers in the West have sold liberal quantities of Beef Products to Russia and Japan, but it is regarded good policy not to make the details public.

⁂

The Chicago Board of Trade receives more complete and reliable reports of the exports of Breadstuffs and Corn from leading countries, than any other commercial organization in the United States.

⁂

An unusually large speculative trade was reported in Provisions during the past month. Operators anticipate that prices of Beef and Hog Products will be influenced more by the war than prices of other articles.

⁂

Reports regarding the condition of Winter Wheat are somewhat conflicting. Taken as a whole, the outlook is not as favorable as last year—in fact, the majority of the reports so far are not very favorable for an average yield.

⁂

Chicago Commission Merchants are considerably interested in the rate cutting of the railroads by which Grain is being diverted from this city. It is evident that some of the railroads are working against the interests of Chicago.

⁂

Remember this fact—the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN gives the most complete detailed reports of the Chicago markets of any publication issued. Fluctuations in the prices of future deliveries of all the leading articles are specifically given.

⁂

It may be well for outside speculators to be guarded as to the amount of business credited to leading operators in Grain and Provisions. Parties frequently are credited with large trading on either side of the market, who claim ignorance of such business.

⁂

The President of the National Board of Trade has appointed a standing Committee of Conference with the Department of Commerce and Labor, with a view of consultation in matters which may come before the different bureaus of that Department.

⁂

Little interest is manifested in Railroad Stocks and Securities at present. The heavy losses of the insurance companies by recent fires, the prospects of a call on the banks for money to pay for the Panama Canal, and the unsettled feeling in Europe on account of the war, all tend to check business.

THE HOP SITUATION.

[New York Producers' Price Current, Feb. 27.]

It is almost phenomenal that with a continued absence of important demand for a period covering four weeks there has been so little weakness developed. Remaining stocks both here and on the coast are certainly light and holders have shown little disposition to give away any of the advantages gained, and choice Hops could not be bought to-day at more than 1c below the highest point, though buyers possibly might obtain a better grade at the same money. Rumors of Hops offering cheaper have upon investigation generally been found to be off in quality. It has been and remains simply a waiting market, holders hoping that with advent of warmer weather the increase in the consumption of beer will compel brewers to purchase more Hops. The long spell of cold weather has materially curtailed the consumption of beer and brewers naturally have not felt lik taking on fresh supplies. The Revenue Department at Washington reports that the number of barrels of beer on which the stamp tax was paid during January, 1904, amounted to 2,781,118 brls, against 2,802,407 brls in January, 1903, and 2,822,052 brls same month 1902. The increase in the acreage on the coast promises to be very heavy. California reports an increase of 3,000 to 3,500 acres, of which 1,000 acres alone in Sonoma. Oregon's estimated increase will be 3,500 acres, and Washington from 2,500 to 3,500 acres, principally in Yakima.

HUNGARIAN GRAIN TRADE OF 1903.

[From Dornbusch]

The year 1903 saw a great increase of trade here, as shown by the arrivals at Buda Pesth, which exceeded by 8,832,000 bu those of 1902, and from Aug. 1 to Dec. 31 amounted to 17,296,000 bu. The Wheat ground by millers in 1903 reached a total of 28,704,000 bu, of which nearly 16,000,000 bu were used between Aug. 1 and Dec. 31. It is during the last few weeks of the year that this increase was chiefly effected. In former years this period has usually ushered in a quiet time principally due to the accumulations of stocks of Flour, but the end of 1903 saw such activity as is only equalled in the very heighth of the season. This large buying tendency on the part of millers led to an appreciable rise in prices, and the advance in America, together with the high prices ruling there, naturally helped to strengthen this rise. Dealers found no difficulty in disposing of the inferior qualities which in previous years at this time had been practically unsalable, and the high prices ruling encouraged owners of Servian Wheat to dispose of some here. The firm tone continued right to the end of the year. This period of activity was doubly welcome in view of the depressed state of the trade during the past year.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET.

BOSTON, Feb. 26.—The Commercial Bulletin says: "There has been a more active market, with several big transactions in Montana staple and Oregon Wools at full prices. Leading mills have been on the market, which, however, is generally quiet, as the large transactions were quietly closed. Prices are practically the same as last week, the tone being firm. One-quarter blood is scarce and wanted. For that grade 25c is still the inside price, with most sales at 25@25½c. Montana staple fine and medium, sold at 19c. Foreign markets hold firm. Boston buyers have been unable to fill orders at London at private sale on the basis of last auction prices

"The shipments of Wool from Boston to date from Dec 31, 1903, are 37,731,126 lbs, against 42,509,903 lbs at the same date last year. The receipts to date are 24,028,814 lbs, against 27,730,271 lbs for the same period last year."

HAY FOR RUSSIA.

[From the Santa Maria Record.]

Three agents of the Russian government are in Nevada buying Hay to be shipped to San Francisco and from thence to the Orient, to be used in the event of war with Japan.

Hay in Washoe County that was $5 00 a ton in the stack last fall is now $15 00, and having secured all the available Hay at that price along the Truckee Meadows, the agents are in Lovelocks and along the Humboldt River buying Alfalfa in thousand-ton lots. They pay the price asked with certified checks on San Francisco.

The Hay is to be sent to Port Arthur. In consequence, Hay all over the State has trebled in value. More than a month ago agents made their appearance in the Carson Valley and purchased thousands of tons for January delivery. It was not until a few days ago that it was positively known that the Russian government was behind the buyers.

CHICAGO BANK CLEARINGS.

February recovered the loss made by January in clearings by the Chicago banks, the figures of 1904 being compared with those of the preceding year. The decrease in January was $30,000,000, while the gain in February was $40,000,000, making a gain of $10,000,000 for the year. Following are the comparative figures:

	1904.	1903.	Increase.
January	$ 729,587,789	$ 759,923,061	*$30,335,272
February	670,190,802	629,460,544	40,730,258
Total	$1,399,778,591	$1,389,383,605	$10,394,986

Here is another expert estimate of the earnings of the United States Steel Corporation: "The Steel Company has completed practically two months of the current quarter. Enough is known as to the earnings of those two months to make it clear that, failing some great change in conditions next month, either as to price or volume, the net earnings for the quarter will not largely exceed $10,000,000. The company is doing a good volume of business, but it must be remembered that its export business is being done on an 'ex-tariff' basis, which necessarily means that it is being done quite largely 'ex-profit.'"

*Minnesota and Dakota mills outside of Minneapolis and Duluth.

†Flour made by mills outside of St. Louis, but controlled in that city.

Surprising as it may seem, the Minneapolis output last week decreased 12,000 brls. The water power is poor and this prevents some mills, though they may possess steam plants, from running at normal capacity. With the mild spring-like weather now prevailing, however, the water power should soon improve. To-day (Tuesday) 18 mills were in operation and for the week they are likely to turn out 340,000 brls. if not a greater quantity of Flour.

Most Minneapolis mills last week experienced a very dull Flour market. At best sales averaged much under the output. The only business done was in domestic markets. Some mills could have sold more Flour, but they did not feel that it was policy to do so. However, as a rule, buyers lacked confidence in the prevailing high prices, and they were slow to place additional orders. Business in the last two days, with the decline in Wheat, has continued very quiet.

Foreign conditions were extremely unfavorable. There was only limited bidding on Patent, and importers' views as to values were 1s 6d@1s out of line. Some First Clear was worked in Holland early in the week, but since then there has been no opportunity to make sales. Millers ask about 20c per brl advance on this grade.

The mills are well sold ahead and with plenty of shipping directions there is reason for them to run fairly strong.

During the week, the flighty Wheat market induced millers to quite generally advance Patent 20@25c per barrel. In the last two days, prices of that grade have been reduced 15@20c. This leaves the range of quotations at $4 90@5 15 per 196 lbs in wood f. o. b. Minneapolis.

The range of Eastern prices to-day, March 1, asked by Minneapolis mills for Patent in wood was Boston, $5 75@6 00; New York rate points, $5 70@5 90; Pittsburg points, $5 50@5 75; Baltimore, $5 60@5 85; Philadelphia, $5 65@5 85; Albany, $5 70@5 90; Buffalo, $5 50@5 75; Michigan, $5 25@5 50; Iowa, Illinois and Wisconsin, $5 20@5 40.

NORTHWESTERN WHEAT CONSUMPTION.

[From the Northwestern Miller, March 2.]

The attached table shows the output of Flour and approximate consumption of Wheat at Minneapolis and Duluth, together with that of 38 "outside mills" with a daily capacity of 29 635 brls, from Sept 1, 1903, to Feb 29, 1904:

	1903-4 Flour, brls.	1903-4 Wheat, bu.	1902-3 Flour, brls.	1902-3 Wheat, bu.
Minneapolis	7,652,170	34,569,600	8,619,125	38,921,000
Duluth	605,200	2,732,400	873,565	3,931,000
38 "outside mills"	3,616,665	16,275,000	3,232,380	14,545,700
Totals	11,904,035	53,568,000	12,755,070	57,397,700

These figures represent the consumption of 3,829,700 bu less Wheat this year than in 1902-3. This has occurred from the mills of Minneapolis and Duluth turning out 1,235,320 brls less Flour, equal to 5 559,000 bu of Wheat, than last year. In contrast, the outside mills increased their Flour output to the extent of 384,285 brls, or equal to 1,729,300 bu of Wheat. The mill operatives' strike in the fall of course cut down the Minneapolis output.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows light snows in Minnesota and Dakotas, traces of snow in Nebraska and Iowa, good rains or snows in Eastern Missouri, Illinois, Ohio, Indiana and Tennessee. From the Mississippi River Eastward there is a good deal of precipitation. There is no precipitation in Kansas or Oklahoma. Temperatures are lower—under zero in Northwest and as low as 6 above at Dodge City, Kan. The feature is the continued lack of moisture in Kansas and the Southwest and the prospect of cold weather there.

Indications are for fair weather. Temperatures will fall in this section, but will moderate in Northwest and in this district Friday.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The Baltimore Daily Produce Report has resumed publication.

Rock Island system net earnings for January, $3,621,858, decrease, $2,061,767.

The Janesville, Wis., Sugar Company has been formed with a capital stock of $600,000.

Pennsylvania Railway net earnings for lines directly operated in January decreased $1,223,000.

Kansas City, Tuesday, reported dry and high winds prevailing in Western Kansas, injuring the Wheat.

Cambria Iron Company has declared a dividend 2 per cent, payable April 2 to holders of record March 15.

American Can Company for year ending March 31 is expected to show 5 per cent earned on preferred stock.

It is reported that the Southern Pacific's report for January will show a substantial increase in net earnings.

The Montreal Steel Company has passed its common dividend, but declared its regular preferred dividend.

February incorporations were only $53,750,000 the smallest for the month in years. Last year they were $ 77,000,000.

A fire which caused $125,000 damage occurred in the plant of the New York Mills Cotton Company at Utica, N. Y., Monday.

The net earnings of the American Cigar Company for the year ended Dec. 31, 1903, after deducting all charges, were $807,012.

The Utah Fuel Company has applied to the New York Stock Exchange to list $580,000 5 per cent sinking fund first mortgage bonds of 1931.

Commercial Cable Company has declared a regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent, payable April 1. Books close March 30 and reopen April 5.

Fire, Tuesday, entirely destroyed the large plant of the Waterloo, Iowa Wagon and Omnibus Company and several adjoining buildings. The loss is $60,000.

A semi-annual dividend of $3 50 per share has been declared on Wolverine Copper stock, payable April 1 to stockholders of record March 6. The last dividend was $3 00.

Reports of decreasing railroad earnings continue to appear. The Rock Island system shows for January $704,000 net income, or less than half of the amount in January last year.

South Side Elevated, Chicago, traffic in February averaged 90,350 passengers daily, an increase of 2 per cent over last year. Metropolitan Elevated averaged 119,073 passengers, an increase of 2½ per cent over last year.

The United States District Court at Pittsburg has dismissed the bill of the Pressed Steel Car Company against the Standard Steel Company and decided that John M. Hansen need not transfer his patents to complainants.

Interborough Rapid Transit Company of New York has declared quarterly rental of 1½ per cent under the Manhattan Railway lease and an extra dividend of 1 per cent, payable April 1. Books close March 11 and reopen March 21.

A director of the Otis Elevator Company expresses the belief that dividends on the common stock will be maintained. The company paid 2 per cent on junior shares last March and may take similar action at the meeting next month.

Valuation of Live Stock received at Chicago last month was $25,472 400, against $25 698,000 in January, or at the rate of over $300,000,000 for the entire year. Combined receipts last month were 1,649 598 head, the largest February total on record.

The Metropolitan Sugar Refining Company, with a capital of $5,000,000, has filed articles of incorporation at Camden, N. J. It is said that the Metropolitan Sugar Refining Company will work in harmony with the American Sugar Refining Company.

It was learned, Tuesday, that the control of the Des Moines and Fort Dodge Railroad had passed to the syndicate which some time ago made an offer to stockholders. The road is under an eighteen-year lease to the Rock Island, the lease expiring Jan. 1 next.

The American Sugar Refining Company has declared a dividend of 1¾ per cent on common stock for the quarter. Also the regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on preferred stock. The dividends are payable April 2. Books close March 5 and reopen April 4.

Arrivals in Belgium during the month of January last included 4,112,000 bu Wheat, and the outgoings 581,000 bu Wheat. The net import of the premier cereal in the six months ending January was 26,400,000 bu. compared with 22,400,000 bu in the first six months of last season.

Reports of five hard Coal carrying roads, viz., the Reading, Lehigh Valley, Erie, New York, Susquehanna and Western, and Central of New Jersey, for January show gross earnings $9,214,401; decrease, $2,239 956. Expenses, $7,018,176; decrease, $268,694. Net, $2,226,225, decrease, $1,971,262.

The Virginia State Corporation Commission has granted a charter to the Tidewater Railway Company, which proposes to practically parallel the Norfolk and Western and come in sharp competition with this road and the Chesapeake and Ohio in moving soft Coal from West Virginia to deep water.

Union Pacific records for January show an increase of 7 per cent in gross and of 29 per cent in net. For the seven months gross increased 12 per cent and net 11½ per cent. The increase in net for the seven months, $1,616,093, amounts to 1.4 per cent on the common stock, or at the rate of 2.4 per cent for the year.

Figuring the Baltimore fire losses at $60,000,000 and Rochester losses at $4,000,000, insurance losses for February were $82,000 000 bu, much more than half the entire loss for 1903, with the general burning rate still increasing. A few companies have been objecting to the proposed increases of rates, but it is thought the Rochester conflagration, in which they were involved for large amounts, has changed their ideas.

The counsel for the reorganization committee of the United States Shipbuilding Company, Wednesday, made the following statement in reference to the recent publications of proposed modifications of the original plan and agreement of reorganization and to the right of withdrawal which expired March 2: The modification of the original plan of May 25, 1903, has been assented to by the holders of over $12,000,000 of the first mortgage bonds and by $10,000,000 of the collateral mortgage Bethlehem bonds."

By authorities in the Tobacco trade it is stated that the falling off in the output of cigars in the entire country for January amounted to 36,114 493. The output of manufactured Tobacco decreased 4,345,649 lbs. The production of snuff decreased 234,491 lbs. The output of cigarettes and little cigars, however, showed substantial increases. These figures tend to substantiate the assertions that the sales of the United Cigar Stores Company, which is controlled by the Tobacco combine, have fallen off between 30 and 40 per cent in the recent past.

The Farmers' Exchange Bank at Cleveland, N. Y., and the Parish Exchange Bank at Parish, Oswego County, both operated by Potter & Marsden, have suspended business. The Farmers' Bank was established in 1882, and capitalized at $10,000. According to a recent statement it owed depositors $31,000. The Parish bank was established in 1892. It is not believed that it did a large business. The Cleveland bank had $30,000 on deposit, and the Parish bank $11,000. Many farmers are losers, and $3 300 town money was on deposit in the Parish bank.

The Corn Trade News of Feb. 13 says: "We hear from Berlin that the duty question is again being generally discussed and that the same has influenced the market. It may be remembered that the German Reichstag has voted much higher duties than those now in force (that on Wheat being increased by 4s 6d to 9s, Corn by 5s to 7s per 180 lbs. and other articles similarly raised), which will probably be put into force when the present commercial treaties expire, and we believe they run out at the end of this year, unless special arrangements are made for their extension."

The net earnings of the United States Envelope Company for the six months ended Dec. 31, 1903, were $261,972, or about 2 per cent on the $1,000,000 common stock, after allowing for interest, sinking fund requirements, and preferred stock dividend. The $4,000,000 preferred stock, though 7 per cent cumulative, is at present receiving only 5 per cent, and the surplus earnings to the extent of $112,000 a year are being placed in a sinking fund to retire the debenture bonds and $75,000 is being set aside for reducing the mortgage. On June 30, 1903, the company had outstanding $3,000,000 first mortgage and $225,000 debenture bonds.

The United States Glass Company of Pittsburg has declared a dividend of 1 per cent, payable April 10, on its common stock. This is the first dividend declared since 1892. It is said that the earnings of the company are sufficient to make a higher dividend rate possible, but conservatism was manifested by the declaration of 1 per cent dividend without any announcement as to whether it is to be a quarterly rate or not. The preferred stock of the company was all retired last year by a bond issue, and the common stock is now next the profits after the bond interest. The last dividend on the common stock was 3 per cent.

Stockholders of the Strowger Automatic Telephone Exchange held their annual meeting, Tuesday, at Chicago. No financial statement was made public. President Washburne called attention to the improved financial condition of the company and the outlook for a more prosperous future. Last year the company resumed dividends, and paid 1 per cent on the stock, in two dividends of 50c each, on July 1 and Jan. 1. It was stated that the increased business of the Automatic Electric Company, and its plans for extensions, assured the doubling of this dividend rate this year, and gave hope that 4 per cent would be reached before very long.

A strong appeal has been sent to the president of every railroad east of Buffalo and Pittsburg for the abolition of all differential rates, freight and passenger. Special stress is laid on the great injury that has been and is still being done the trade of New York through the operation of differential freight rates in effect against that city and in favor of Philadelphia, Baltimore, and other Atlantic ports. The presidents are urged to abolish differentials and adopt measures which will have the effect of securing for New York as favorable rates as those enjoyed by any other city. The matter is being fought out by the roads, as they did not wait for the merchants' association to take the initiative in the matter.

Charters of 1,030 corporations doing business in Chicago have been cancelled by the Secretary of State for failure to comply with the law which requires annual statements. Monday was the last day on which reports could be filed, and a large number have defaulted. About 200 reports were received Tuesday, but whether they will be recorded has yet to be determined. The law demanding annual reports from all corporations in the State has been in question for some time. The Illinois Supreme Court, in a recent opinion, upheld its validity, and there has since been a rush on the part of various corporations to get their reports to Springfield in time. The majority of charters cancelled are those of Chicago corporations.

The St. Louis National Live Stock Reporter says that Cotton growing in the South this year has been having such a boom as it has not experienced in years. The abnormal height to which the price of the staple went during the present winter stimulated planters to put every possible acre into cultivation. This fact was evidenced by the enormous number of mules bought during the month of January, notwithstanding the high prices at which they were selling. Since the Cotton market took a tumble this activity has been modified to a considerable extent, but the affects of the high price of Cotton this year will remain, and opinions of those familiar with the situation are that we may expect to see the biggest Cotton acreage in years.

After long and tedious negotiations the German Steel syndicate has finally been organized, whereby twenty-six of the largest concerns in the country are amalgamated. The smaller manufacturers, whose output ranges from 1,000,000 to 1,500,000 tons annually, were excluded. The demands of the Krupp company, which were regarded as excessive, presented one of the greatest difficulties to the negotiators of the syndicate. The interested companies, however, reached a compromise with the Krupp company Tuesday, the allotment made it on an increasing scale reaching 700,000 tons on April 1, 1907. The syndicate extends to June 30, 1907. The head office will probably be either at Cologne or Dusseldorf. The operations will cover railroad material, half-rolled goods, and all forms of commercial Steel. There is evidence that it intends later to broaden its scope.

The Chicago Drovers' Journal says: "Car loads of Live Stock received here the first two months of this year, 55,563, or 12,521 more than arrived the first two months of 1899, showing an average gain of over 2,500 cars per year. The total the first two months of the present year increased 4,753 cars compared with a year ago, and 20,015 cars increase compared with sixteen years ago. The first two months of 1891, thirteen years ago, Chicago received 58 691 cars, the banner run for the first two months of the year. Last month's record-breaking February receipts of cars were divided as follows: Northwestern Road, 6,526; Milwaukee, 5,483; Burlington, 4 588; Rock Island, 3,860; Illinois Central, 2,472; Great Western, 1,065; Santa Fe, 775; Chicago and Alton, 903; Wabash, 639; Eastern Illinois, 438, and twelve other roads, 586, making a total of 27,235 cars, against 23,717 for February, 1903, and 24,650 two years ago."

Following the recent decision of the court upsetting the sale of the National Salt Company assets, Pomroy Bros. and other Stock Exchange houses in New York, who have joined in the suit against the International Salt Company, state that the way has been cleared to attack the methods of formation of the International Salt Company, and if possible they hope to have that company declared illegal. With regard to the decision of the court in the National Salt case, the International Salt Company interests state that the decision will affect their company in so far as it is a creditor and stockholder of the National Salt Company. They declare that the next step, so far as they are concerned, will be a resale of the assets of the National Salt Company. At the sale which was adjudged illegal, and which aroused the ire of the court, the assets of National Salt Company were sold for $337 000. "I don't know whether any one will bid more than that price for the assets of the National Salt Company," said one of the New York directors of the International Salt Company. "If a higher price is obtained, of course it will benefit the International Company, for it is a creditor of the National Company. Personally, I do not think that a greater price will be obtained. The decision handed down will not disrupt our company."

At the meeting of the directors of the Railway Steel Spring Company, March 10, it is said the question of declaring an initial dividend on the common stock will be taken up. There is an inclination to believe that 1 per cent will be declared then, which will be made quarterly, at the rate of 4 per cent per annum. The company controls about 95 per cent of the country's output. It is said the year has been highly prosperous, and that prospects for an enlarged business are decidedly encouraging.

Chicago Bank Clearings to day, $32,761,111.

A Board of Trade membership sold at $3,800 net to the seller.

Ohio report makes condition of Winter Wheat 69, compared with 77 in January, and 94 in March, 1903.

Estimated receipts for to-morrow are: Wheat, 25 cars; Corn, 260 cars; Oats 255 cars; Hogs, 18,000.

Ten packers purchased 12,100 Hogs to-day; shippers, 6,000; left over, 10,000. Market closed weak.

Reported that 192,000 bu Wheat, 264,000 bu Corn and 150,000 bu Oats were taken at seaboard to-day for export.

The receipts of Hogs at Chicago for the week will be about 169,000, compared with 128,014 for the corresponding week last year.

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago, Thursday, was $5 30, against $5 21 Wednesday, $5 46 a week ago, and $7 32 a year ago.

A London cable says: "The Seoul correspondent of the Times says that the Korean minister at St. Petersburg has been recalled".

The receipts of Wheat at Liverpool during the past three days were 336,000 bu, of which 48,000 were American. Receipts of Corn, 224,000 bu, of which 144,000 bu were American.

Argentine Wheat visible is 4,672,000 bu, against 5,336,000 bu the previous week, and 2,576,000 bu last year. Argentine Corn visible is 591,000 bu, against 788,000 bu the previous week, and 120,000 bu last year.

Cotton in New York was active. Cables were strong and the "bull" leaders bought July freely. The quantity brought into sight during the week was 142,000 bales. Closing prices were 7@10 points lower.

Shipments of Wheat from Argentina this week were 3,584,000 bu, against 3,568,000 bu the previous week, and 2,912,000 bu for corresponding week last year. Shipments since Jan. 1 reported at 20,120,000 bu, against 12,018,000 bu same time in 1903.

Shipments of Corn from Argentina this week were 751,000 bu, against 451,000 bu the previous week and 65,000 bu for the corresponding week last year. Shipments since Jan. 1 reported at 6,274,000 bu, against 502,000 bu for same time last year.

Local Securities were unsettled, with fair trading. Biscuit common and Metropolitan Elevated preferred furnished most of the business. The former advanced 1¼ and the latter lost 1 point. Carbon common declined ¾ and Can preferred advanced ½.

Stocks in New York were extremely slow, but prices averaged higher. London sold, but Stocks were well taken, and the closing sales were at gains of ⅛ to ⅝ on Railway shares, 1¼ lower to 2½ higher on Industrials, and ⅛@2½ better on Tractions. Money, 1¾ per cent.

The shipments of Flax Seed from Argentina this week were reported at 1,352,000 bu, compared with 1,592,000 bu last week and 1,458,000 bu for the corresponding week in 1903. Shipments since Jan. 1 reported at 10,408,000 bu, compared with 7,896,000 bu for the corresponding time last year.

Bradstreet's reports the exports of Corn from the Atlantic and Gulf ports the past week at 1,691,000 bu, against 1,487,000 bu for the previous week and 3,817,000 bu for the corresponding week last year. Exports from July 1 reported at 34,589,000 bu, compared with 32,547,000 bu for corresponding time last year.

The $5,000,000 of 5 per cent notes of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company issued about July 1 last will mature March 15. It is authoritatively stated that the company has borrowed $5,000,000 for about nine months at 5 per cent from a Chicago banking institution to take up the notes when they mature.

Bradstreet's reports the exports of Wheat and Flour from the United States and Canada for the past week at 1,643,000 bu, against 2,691,000 bu for the previous week, and 3,491,000 bu for the corresponding week last year. Exports from July 1 reported at 112,131,000 bu, compared with 162,703,000 bu for the corresponding time in 1902-03.

Net earnings of the American Radiator Company for the year 1903 were $840,517, a decrease of $160,577 over the net earnings of the previous year. After the preferred stock dividends of 7 per cent were paid there was $330,517 applicable to the common stock, or 6.75 per cent on the $4,893,000 issue. The previous year there was $491,094, or 10.03 per cent, earned on the common stock.

Broomhall cables: Weakness at Liverpool was on American break. Later, there was some recovery on the prospect of Argentine strike being prolonged, and because Argentine visible is already drawn on for export. Toward noon prices eased off on the small cargo demand. Corn opened weak on American weakness and large arrivals of American Corn. Later, prices improved on a big spot demand at the decline.

The Modern Miller says: "Excepting the northern portion of the Winter Wheat belt where Winter Wheat snow protection was ample, the Wheat crop is in poor condition to withstand the freezing and thawing weather during March. The top growth is unusually small and thin, yet the plant appears to be well rooted in most sections. There is need of plenty of moisture to bring the plant to full development."

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Was easy, with prices off about 15c from yesterday. Demand slow.

WINTER WHEAT—Met with a moderate demand and prices about 1c lower. Choice Wheat moved all right, but some poor Wheat was offered which was dull and suffered a greater decline than noted. No. 2 Red in store quotable at 99c@$1 01 and fresh arrivals free on board sold at $1 04 and ranged at $1 00@1 04. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals free on board sold at $1 00@1 02 and ranged down to 98c for ordinary. No. 4 Red sold at 85c. No. 2 Hard at the river quotable at 91@95c. No. 3 Hard local sold at 87½@94c and ranged at the river at 86@92c. No. 4 Hard local sold at 80c and at the river at 70c.

SPRING WHEAT—Ruled quiet and quotably about 1c lower. For choice Wheat a moderate demand existed, but poor Wheat was dull. No. 1 Northern in store quotable 95@96c and fresh arrivals free on board quotable 98@99c. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals quotable at 92@96c. No. 3 Spring sold at 92c, and quotable at 80@90c. No. 4 local sold at 65@80c for common to fair and at 80@85c for choice to fancy, with a sale at the river at 75c.

REGULAR WHEAT—This market was nervous and sensitive, ruling quite erratic all day, with the close unchanged for May, while July gained ⅛@¼c and the September ⅜c. The liberal Argentine shipments and sharp decline in the Northwestern markets tended to weaken values at the start, but was only temporary. A quick recovery followed, the strength being due partially to the fact that foreign markets did not decline in proportion to the break here yesterday. Reports of damage to the Russian crop, lack of moisture in the Southwest and reports of prairie fires in Oklahoma all combined to create a more "bullish" feeling. Receipts, too, were moderate; still they were 64,000 bu ahead of last year. St. Louis reported the receipt of damage claims from Tennessee and Illinois. Realizing by "longs" caused the late reaction. Liverpool quoted spot steady to 1d lower and futures ½@⅜d lower. Receipts there 336,000 bu past three days; 48,000 bu from America. London came steady to ½d lower. Paris was ⅛c higher to ⅛c lower. Antwerp unchanged. Argentina shipped 3,584,000 bu, making 20,120,000 bu since Jan. 1, against 12,018,000 bu in 1903. Visible there 4,672,000 bu, last week, 5,336,000 bu, and 2,576,000 bu one year ago. Primary receipts July 1 to Feb. 29, 185,716,000 bu; in 1902-3, 212,975,000 bu; in 1900-1, 190,501,000 bu. Exports for the week, 1,643,000 bu, against 3,491,000 bu same week in 1903. Modern Miller was construed as "bullish." Seaboard reported 24 boat loads accepted. The comparatively steady tone at Liverpool was said to be due to fears that the Argentine strike would be prolonged. India shipments this week (unofficial) were reported 872,000 bu. St. Louis and Kansas City received 118,000 bu; last year 83,000 bu. Shipments were 215,000 bu. Minneapolis stocks are expected to increase 185,000 bu. It was reported London was up sharply on the late curb. A cargo of 125,000 bu No. 2 Hard was reported loading at the Gulf, destined for New York. Ohio report was one of the early "bull" factors, the condition of Winter Wheat being 69 per cent, against 94 one year ago. Condition in January was 77 per cent. There were rumors via New York that the import duty of Flour and Wheat into Spain would likely be reduced very shortly. Receipts at Duluth 6 cars and at Minneapolis 252 cars, a total of 258 against 228 cars yesterday, 221 cars a week ago, and 270 cars last year. Local receipts included 12 cars Winter, 5 cars Spring and none mixed, a total of 17 cars, against 21 cars last year. Included in the above was none of contract grade. There were 9 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 25 cars. Withdrawals were 1,075 bu. Receipts at Western points were 401,896 bu, against 401,014 bu last year. At Eastern points 40,474 bu, against 129,582 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 314,192 bu, against 130,750 bu last year, and from Eastern points 32,620 bu, against 105,403 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 18,159 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 114,495 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Good trade at irregular prices.

MARCH—Entirely nominal; closed at about 94c.

MAY—Sold at 96@99c. Opened with sales at 96c to 97c; sold to 99c, to 96½c, to 98c, to 97c, to 98c, to 96½c, to 97c, and closed at 97c.

JULY—Old Style—Sold at 92⅞@94¼c. Opened at 93⅛c to 92½c, sold to 93¼c, to 94c, to 93¼c, to 93½c, to 92⅞c, to 93⅝c, to 93¼c, to 94c, to 93⅝c, to 94¼c, to 93⅜c, to 93¾c, to 92⅞c, to 93¼c, to 93c, to 93⅜c, and closed at 93⅜c sellers.

JULY—New Style—Sold at 91½@93¼c. Opened with sales at 92¼c to 91¾c, sold to 93c, to 92⅞c, to 93c, to 91½c, to 91¾c, to 91⅝c, to 93¼c, to 92½c, to 92¾c, to 91⅞c, to 92¼c, to 91⅞c, to 92⅜c, and closed at 92⅜c.

SEPTEMBER—Old Style—Sold at 86½@88c. Opened at 86½c to 87c; sold to 88c, to 86½c, to 87¼c, to 87c, to 87⅞c, to 87¼c, to 87¾c, to 87c, to 87⅜c, and closed at 87⅜c. Old September sold yesterday down to 86⅛c.

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 85⅜@87¼c. Opened with sales at 86c to 85⅝c; sold to 85¾c, to 87¼c, to 87c, to 87¼c, to 86¾c, to 86⅞c, to 85½c, to 86½c, to 86c, to 86⅞c, to 86½c, to 87¼c, to 86⅝c, to 86⅞c, to 86c, to 85¼c, and closed at 86¼c.

CORN—There was a good trade and very nervous, sensitive market, with the close ⅞c higher for May, full 1c better for July and ⅞c higher for September. Commission houses were good buyers and part of the same was credited to prominent local warehouse interests. There was, however, plenty of "long" Corn for sale on the bulges. Cables were weak, the weather favorable for the grading and movement, and Argentine shipments larger at 751,000 bu, making 6,274,000 bu since January 1, against 502,000 bu for the same time in 1903. Visible there 591,000 bu, against 788,000 bu last week, and 120,000 bu one year ago. Liverpool spot was 1d and futures ⅝d lower. Receipts there past three days 224,000 bu. Local arrivals 179 cars, making 1,522 cars this week, with 69½ per cent low grades, against 2,045 cars in 1903, when 64½ per cent was off grades. Exports 109,000 bu and for the week 1,091,000 bu, against 887,110 bu one year ago. Transfers from private to public elevators 15,260 bu and 255 cars. Cloudy, rainy weather was predicted for Illinois and Iowa and warmer, cloudy weather for Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri. Western receipts were 461,000 bu, against 577,000 bu last year. Shipments were 256,000 bu and 456,000 bu, respectively. Kansas City steady and St. Louis firm. Seaboard reported 33 boat loads accepted. Local arrivals 198,000 bu and shipments 111,000 bu. Estimated receipts for to-morrow 260 cars. Shipping demand moderate and sales small. Car lots were in fair request and moderate supply. Prices were firmer. No. 2 closed about 50½c and No. 2 Yellow sold at 51½c. No. 3 White sold at 42½c. No. 3 closed at 42@50c. No. 3 Yellow closed at 44@51c. No Grade sold at 31c.

Corn by sample—Offerings were moderate and the demand fair. Low grades were steady and choice Corn was unchanged to ½c higher. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 29@35c. No. 4 at 31@43c. No. 3 at 42@49c. No. 3 White 42½@49½c. Ears at 39@40½c. Billed through No Grade at 31@38½c. No. 4 at 37½@41½c. No. 3 at 41½@44c. No. 3 Yellow at 42@45c. No. 3 White at 41@42½c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Active and very irregular all the session, the closing gains of ⅞@1c.

MARCH—Inactive. Sold at 50¼c and closed at 50¾c nominally.

MAY—Sold at 52½@53⅞c. Opened at 52¾c to 53¼c, sold to 51½@53¾c, to 53¼@53⅜c to 53⅝c, to 53½c, to 53⅝c, to 52⅞c, to 53¼c, to 52½c, to 53¼c, to 52⅞c, to 53½@53⅝c, to 53¼@53⅜c, to 53½c, to 53⅜c, to 53⅞c, to 52⅞c, to 53½c, and closed at 53½c.

JULY—Sold at 51¼@52½c. Opened at 51¾c to 51⅞c, sold at 51⅞c, to 51⅝c, to 52¼c, to 52⅜c, to 51½c, to 51¾c, to 51⅝c, to 52¼c, to 51⅞c, to 52½c, to 51⅝c, to 52¼c and closed at 52¼c.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 50⅝@51⅝c. Opened at 50⅝c to 50¾c, sold to 51¼c, to 50⅞c, to 50⅝c, to 50⅞c, to 50¾c, to 51¼c, to 51⅜c, to 50⅜c, to 51⅛c, and closed at 51⅛c.

OATS—There was an excited market and an irregular range of prices. There was but few Oats on the market at the start and the buying of 250,000 bu by one house sent prices for May up 1c. The selling increased on the advance and there was a break of 1½c, and a later rally, the close being at a net gain of ⅛c. A feature of the market was the buying of July by operators who have been the largest holders of May of late. This stimulated general buying and covering by "shorts," and the price was advanced 1⅜c, and the close was at a net gain of ⅞c. The September gained ⅛c. The selling pressure of the distant months decreased toward the last and the market had a steady tone at the finish. A fair shipping demand developed and sales here were 75,000 bu, and New York reported 150,000 bu sold for export. Arrivals were 203 cars and 6 cars and 52,100 bu Standard were changed from private to public elevators. Estimates for to-morrow were 255 cars. Seaboard clearances were 28,000 bu. Car lots to go to store were ⅛c higher. No. 4 White sold at 40c. Standard in store closed at 40@40¼c.

Oats by sample were in fair request and prices advanced ½c. There were better offerings and they did not all clean up. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 at 35@36½c. No. 4 White at 37@41¼c. No. 3 at 39¼@40c. No. 3 White at 40@43¾c. Standard at 44c. No. 2 at 40c. No. 2 White at 43c. Billed through. No. 4 White at 40½c. No. 3 White at 41½@43c. Standard at 43@43½c. At the river No. 4 White at 35@39c. No. 3 White at 38½c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were nervous, with good trading, and closed higher.

MARCH—Were neglected. Closed at 40c.

MAY—Active and unsettled. Sold at 40⅜@41⅞c. Opened unsettled, with sales at 40¼c to 41½c, sold to 41⅞c, declined to 40⅜c, rallied and closed at 41¼c.

JULY—Active. Sold at 38⅛@40c. Opened at 38⅛c to 38⅜c; sold to 40c, and closed at 39¾c.

SEPTEMBER—Fair trading. Sold at 33½c and at 34½@34⅝c. Opened at 33½c to 34¼c, sold to 34½@34⅝c, closed at 34¼c.

RYE—Was dull and easier. Yesterday's prices were asked, but buyers indifferent and made lower bids. The receipts were six cars. Two cars were withdrawn from private warehouse. No export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store nominally 72½c, and fresh arrivals to go to store sold at 74½c, and free on board a choice car sold at 76c. No. 3 nominally 60@70c for ordinary to good.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Nothing doing. May 75c asked and 74½c bid. July 75c asked.

BARLEY—Nothing of interest developed. A very quiet market was experienced, and the trade was soon over. Offerings were light, the smallest of the week. Maltsters bought only sparingly. They were indifferent, said to be well supplied and getting Barley on previous purchases. Feed and mixing sold at figures asked at the close yesterday, such grades apparently were steady. Fifty cars were inspected in. Screenings were quotable at 32@40c for poor to fancy, sales made at 35@40c. Barley, feed or mixing quotable at 37@40c local; some best cars sold over. Malting, low grade, 41@43c, common 44@46c. Fair was about 45@47c, good, 48@52c, choice, 53@55c, fancy nominally higher, possibly 56@57c if just the right kind.

SEEDS—Grass seeds of the different kinds were without essential change, but Flax was a shade weaker again. Not so much Timothy offered as there has been, and of the other lines the supply was small.

Timothy—Cash market ruled about steady. There were moderate offerings. Consignments met with a fair demand and sales were over a range of $2 40@2 85, depending on quality. Values were quotably without essential change. Country lots quotable at $2 25@3 00 for poor to fancy; fair to good at $2 50@2 60; choice $2 70@2 85, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 35@2 45. Nothing was done in futures and little interest in them was shown. For March $3 00 was bid and $3 15 asked. For May $3 00 bid and no offerings.

Flax—Was dull. No trading. Bids in some cases reduced ½c. There were at the same time no sellers. It was an inactive, easy market, with local receipts of 7 cars or 5,950 bu and none taken out. Minneapolis got 14 cars and Duluth 5 cars. No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest quotable at $1 11½ bid, or unchanged, and No. 1 at $1 08½ bid. Rejected nominally $1 06@1 07½, outside for choice Northwestern. March quotable at $1 09½ bid. May met with $1 10½ bid.

Clover—Was quotably steady and firm. Market inactive for lack of sellers. Full former prices obtainable. Market for contract spot and March delivery nominally $11 65. Country lots, common to choice, $8 25@11 40; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $5 50@9 50, poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Main run of such lots as come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $9 50@10 75.

Other Seeds—Were quotably steady and firm. Full late prices obtainable. There were no offerings. Hungarian quotable, common and light color to choice, dark at $1 00@1 90. Common Millet $1 00@1 50 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 40. Siberian, 85c@$1 05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat in some demand; good milling, salable at $1 35@1 40.

HOG PRODUCTS—Quite an active business was transacted in Hog Products, and the feeling was unsettled. Outside orders were liberal, and local trading was fairly active. Hogs were in only moderate supply, and prices lower. Receipts at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 44,200, compared with 48,000 one year ago. Foreign markets were slow and easy. Liverpool quotations were reduced 1s on Lard and 6d on Backs. Domestic markets quiet and dull. Speculative market opened rather steadier owing to the moderate Hog supply, and prices were slightly higher all around. At the advance, there was some inclination to realize, and as the Grain markets were easy, a weak feeling was developed, and prices declined sharply, reaching the lowest figures in one month—with good trading at the receding scale. At the reduction, the demand improved and prices rallied to medium figures, but near the close receded again, and the market closed rather steady. Receipts of Products were fair—of Lard and Meats about 24 cars. Shipments were very light of Lard and Meats about 8 cars. Demand on shipping account was limited, and offerings were moderate. Sales were quite small and prices favored buyers.

Mess Pork—Rather an active business was reported in the market for Mess Pork and the feeling was considerably unsettled. Offerings were rather free, and the demand was fairly active. Prices ruled irregular. Early the feeling was firm with fair buying orders, and prices ruled 10@12½c higher. Later, there was considerable depression with free offerings and prices declined sharply 45@50c. At the reduction, the demand improved and prices rallied 25@30c, but settled back again 15@20c, and the market closed steady. Demand on shipping account was limited and offerings were small. Cash lots quotable at $13 87½@14 00.

MAY—Offerings were rather free, and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $13 80@14 30. Opened at $14 20 to $14 27½, sold to $14 20, to $14 30, to $13 80, to $13 90, to $14 05, to $14 05, to $14 00 to $14 15, to $14 12½, to $14 10, to $14 20, to $14 07½, to $13 95, to $13 92½, and closed steady.

PORK PACKING AND PROVISIONS.

[From the Cincinnati Price Current, March 3.]

There is a continued fairly liberal supply of Hogs finding the markets. Total Western packing for the week 560,000, compared with 585,000 the preceding week, and 585,000 two weeks ago. For corresponding time last year the number was 425,000, and two years ago 415,000. The quality is good in most instances. Prices have been well maintained throughout the week, at the close averaging about $5.30 per 100 lbs, compared with $5.35 a week ago $5.15 two weeks ago, $7.10 a year ago, $6.05 two year ago, $4.50 three years ago, $4.80 four years ago.

The winter packing season has now reached its close and a careful survey of the returns and reliable figures leads to a total of about 5,250,000 Hogs for the Western killing for the four months from November 1 to March 1. This implies an increase of 440,000 or 9 in numbers, or 9% per cent, compared with last year. Definite statistics for the season will be presented as early as the information can be secured.

Returns from four of the five large Western centres furnishing monthly stocks of Provisions show an increase of about 4,000,000 lbs of Meats and 50,000 lbs of Lard, for the past month, and a comparison with a year ago a gain of 48,000,000 lbs of Meats and 69,000 lbs of Lard.

The speculative Provision market was quite active the past week with wide fluctuations in prices. Under the influence of the Eastern war situation and the high prices made in the Grain markets in the early part of the week, Provision quotations were materially advanced, but before the close of the week Grain markets were easier. Provisions sympathized, and a heavy selling movement brought values down. The closing prices were lower than a week ago for all the leading articles. The fluctuations show that the market as a whole is under the influence of the speculative spirit, and not governed by real demand conditions are almost ignored. Liberal receipts of Hogs as compared with last year seemed to have no effect on the market; in fact, Hog values ruled higher than a year ago. Packers were willing sellers of the futures, as the advance carried prices to a point where there was a profit in manufacturing, and this stimulated the liberal marketing of the Hogs. The real conditions of Product were quite moderate, showing a decrease as compared with the preceding week and a falling off as compared with the corresponding week last year.

The week's export clearances of Hog Products compared with corresponding time last year:

	Past week	Last year
Pork, pounds	885,000	258,000
Bacon, pounds	9,840,000	10,876,000

FEWER ANIMALS IMPORTED.

[From the Chicago Drovers' Journal, March 2.]

With the decrease in market values there has been a corresponding decrease in the number of Cattle imported. This was not unexpected, since the shrinkage is the fundamental principle upon which the improvement of Cattle depends. Horses are for a different purpose, but they are generally affected with any material decline in the products of the farm. With the decreasing value in this country there has been a corresponding decline in the number of Live Stock imported from abroad for breeding purposes.

For the seven months of the present fiscal year ending with January there were 1,725 Cattle landed in this country 414 head of nondutiable Cattle, as compared with 1,030 for the same period in 1903, and 7,015 head in 1902. However, January shows a better ending, with 122 head being reported, as compared with 11 for the prize ding January.

Sheep show a more uniform decline. Thus far for the past seven months there have been imported 11 head of Sheep against 1,605 for the corresponding period in 1903, and 1,601 for 1902. Last January American importers brought in 9 head, against 27 for the same month one year before.

On the whole horses have declined. In 1901 we have for seven months brought in 1,918 head, whereas for the same periods in 1903 and 1902 the numbers were 2,151 and 1,920 respectively. In January there were imported 47 head, against 108 head for January, 1903.

Notwithstanding this drop the market is in a healthy condition. Probably the prevailing conditions are due in a measure to this decrease in high priced importations. The importers have unthoughtfully stocked up with Horses which they have where cost indicated that at present it is unadvisable to put up the market costly individuals that would give the purchaser still lower and probably actually sell at a loss.

GRAIN TRADE AND CROPS.

[From the Cincinnati Price Current, March 3.]

Mild, spring-like weather has prevailed over the Winter Wheat section of the country, driving out rapidly the frost in the ground. The season is not but enough warm weather to start the plant to growing to the principal Wheat States, and the correspondence of the past week reflects the uncertainty of the prospect, which uncertainty will continue until there has been enough warm weather to give the plant a good start. While the present top appearance of the fields is not very unpromising, there is very little positive indication that it will not come out favorably with the right kind of weather. That is why there is much difference of opinion as to the probable future of the crop. The next few weeks will be watched with little ease. At present there is sufficient moisture except in Nebraska, Kansas and Oklahoma, but even there no actual suffering exists. There has been less complaint than usual of injury by alternate freezing and thawing, and winter killing, but rather more than usual complaint of ice covered fields.

Preparations for spring crops have begun, and present indications are that the acreage of spring seeding will be large. The recent high price for Wheat has induced some to sell who were holding it for $1.00, but the aggregate movement is moderate. The interior movement usually increases somewhat in March, and the present year will not likely be an exception. Corn movement is moderate, many holding for higher price. Not much Oats left for market.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather forecast for 36 hours: Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri, rain or snow; warmer. Illinois and Iowa, rain; warmer. Minnesota and Wisconsin, rain or snow; warmer. Dakotas, snow; colder Saturday.

The Minnesota State Treasurer was notified, Wednesday, that the Le Sueur, Minn., County Bank, a private institution, had closed its doors. The liabilities are said to be about $100,000.

The Wabash gross earnings for February increased $6 000, and from July 1 increased $1,256,0 9. The January net of the Kansas City Southern increased $29,571, and for seven months increased $68,176.

The Ohio Supreme Court has declared unconstitutional the law which provides a $100 fine and six months imprisonment for any employer who discharges a workman because he is a member of a labor union.

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued his call for the return by the banks of $30,000,000 of government deposits to meet the Panama Canal payments, the money to be deposited in New York by March 15.

The United States Rubber Company is said to have paid the $1,000,000 of its 5 per cent notes, due March 1, 1903, last Monday. This shows the strong financial position of the company, and the transaction saves the company a year's interest.

It is reported that the New York, New Haven and Hartford will issue, in addition to the $6,000,-000 debentures to take up the stock of a trolley line in Connecticut recently purchased, $7,000,000 in 2½ per cent bonds for terminal improvements.

The St. Joseph South Bend and Southern Railway Company has declared a semi-annual dividend of 2½ per cent on it preferred stock and a dividend of 1 per cent on its common stock, both payable March 15. Books close March 10 and reopen March 16.

Both branches of the Maryland Legislature will pass without amendment bills to facilitate the consummation of extensions in Maryland of the Wabash Railway. The most important bill gives the Wabash the right of condemning land along the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal.

The New York Central lines, the New York Central, West Shore, Erie, and Lackawanna announced, Thursday, that, effective March 9, they will meet the recent cut in Grain freights of the Philadelphia lines. This will bring the rates down to the basis of 1.1c per bushel to all ports from Buffalo.

It was reported, Thursday, that the executive committee of the American Can Company will meet some time during the last half of the present month to act on dividend matters. A member of the committee was quoted as saying that dividends would be resumed paid, presumably at the rate of 2½ per cent.

Twenty-three railroads reporting for January show a decrease of 6 per cent in aggregate gross earnings and a decrease of 9.4 per cent in net, as compared with the earnings of the month in 1903. For seven months of the fiscal year the same roads show an increase of 3 per cent in gross and an increase of 10.7 per cent in net.

A Boston dispatch says: "Prices are firm in the Wool market; domestics quiet in the Wool market, foreign market is very actively active. The demand is for medium and low Wools, with a fair demand for fine grades. Territory Wools tend to be active. Pulled and foreign Wools are both firm and steady."

C. N. Bell, secretary of the Winnipeg Board of Trade, and also of the Grain Exchange, is in Ottawa and has taken advantage of an opportunity to confer with the Government. He says the people of Manitoba Wheat is due to scarcity of the article. He estimates that there are about 15,000,000 but still in the country for milling or export.

A petition was presented to the Chicago Board of Trade directors, Tuesday, asking that the rules be changed to have No. 3 Corn and No 3 White Oats delivered on future contracts. It provided for a penalty of 1c per bushel. However, it was disapproved by the directors. They assigned as their reason that it would be detrimental to the trade

The Baltimore City authorities have decided to float a loan of $6,0 0,000 for the widening of streets and other extensive improvements in the burned district, including the purchase of the water front properties. A bill for the purpose of the loan was introduced in the Legislature, Tuesday, and there is said to be no doubt as to the approval of the plan.

The directors of the American Steel Foundries Company will meet some time this month to take action on the preferred dividend. The call for the meeting has been delayed beyond the usual time. It is understood, on account of the fact that an inventory was being taken of the company's plants, and it is desired to have it completed before the meeting.

A St. Louisdale, Pa., dispatch says: "The Coke trade is badly hampered by a car shortage, the production for the past week being over 12,000 tons in excess of the shipping facilities. As a result a number of stacks are being blown out and added to a five day run and one or two plants cut down to half time, causing a drop in production of over 10,000 tons."

Earnings of the Corn Products Company for the last fiscal year are reported as making the following showing: From Feb. 28, 1903, to Feb. 29, 1904, they totaled roughly $4,0 0,000. There was carried over from the previous fiscal year a surplus of $1,532,240. The dividend on the preferred shares amounted to $1,4 6,166, thus leaving a handsome sum available for common dividends or surplus.

The rate on farm stocks of Grain will be made by the Government March 10. Last year farm stocks of Wheat were 149,000,000 bu, or 74.5 per cent, of Corn, 1,050,000,000 bu, or 41.9 per cent, of the crop, and Oats 395,000,000 bu, or 36.9 per cent. The percentage a year ago applied to the past crop would give reserves of 140,000,000 bu Wheat, 948,000,000 bu Corn, and 370,000,000 bu Oats.

When H O Havemeyer's attention was drawn to the statement of Adolph Segal of the Metropolitan Sugar Refining Company to the effect that the Sugar Refining Company, which is incorporated in New Jersey, would work in harmony with the American Sugar Refining Company, he replied: "That is ridiculous. We extend harmony only to our immediate neighbors. We will know no such word in our relations to competitors."

The new interests in Republic Iron and steel may cause complications in the pooling scheme of the recent organization of the Republic Iron and Steel Company should put in its properties in the Southern district. Reports have been current for some time that the new interests are said to want to put the entire plant into the comb nation at a fancy figure.

Announcement of a further cut of 4 mills in exlake Grain rates, to take effect March 9, was sent out, Thursday, by the Pennsylvania Railroad. This cut was made to meet a similar reduction made by the roads whose lines run from New York and to maintain the differential in favor of Philadelphia. The rates of Grain for export from New York to Philadelphia will be: Wheat and Rye, Seed, 1.4c. Corn and Rye, 1.1c; Barley, 9 mills, and Oats, 4 mills.

The Winnipeg correspondent of the Northwestern Miller writes under date of Feb 29: "Reports of the large Winnipeg elevator companies will combine to build a terminal elevator at Fort William in time for this year's crop. They have already secured a site and the contract will be let at once. The capacity of the proposed elevator will be 1,500,0 0 bu. It will be of Steel and modern in all respects. The Canadian Pacific Railway will not build any more elevators in the immediate future.

The Panama transactions will affect the Chicago United States depositories only to the extent of about $400,000. As about all the Chicago banks now have larger balances in New York than they desire, it is probable no money or credit will be transferred by them on account of the payments, the amount being so small, and hence New York exchange rates will probably not be affected. The transfers of credit for country institutions will be made by the Chicago banks, but most of the work has already been done.

The Portland correspondent of the Northwestern Miller writes as follows under date of Feb 28: "Despite all the increase in capacity it is daily becoming more apparent that there will be an insufficient amount of Wheat in the three states Oregon, Washington and Idaho, to keep the mills running until new crop Wheat is available. The reason why many advance in the local market does not let the exporters into the field again and within the past ten days six ships with an aggregate carrying capacity of 750,0 0 bu have been taken for Portland loading."

The St. Louis correspondent of the Northwestern Miller, writing under date of Feb. 29, says: "The Winter Wheat crop the week was satisfactory for the growing crop, and no unfavorable reports came to hand. It is the general opinion that the crop has not suffered from severe weather during the winter, as during the extreme cold it was well protected by snow. At other times the cold weather has been so steady, which is preferable to violent changes in temperature. Providing no unfavorable weather occurs through the month of March, the prospects for a good crop are excellent."

The terms on which the International Packing Company is disposing of its packing house were given out yesterday. The plant brought $2,000,000. The committee has had more than ever bids before. The committee has deposited $2,048,000 of bonds, leaving $300,000 outstanding. The stockholders are to get 25 per cent in cash and the balance in a share for the common, and the bondholders 25c. The bondholders receive in all $58,000 and the bondholders $12,000 on a capitalization of $2,500,000 bonds and $2,500,000 stock. It was said most of the bonds have been picked up by a few people who were formerly interested in the company.

The Union Pacific's report for January is remarkable in comparison with the reports submitted for other big systems for the month. The company increased its gross earnings 7 per cent during the month and its net earnings 50 per cent, while most of the roads showed a decrease or loss in both those items. For seven months of the fiscal year beginning July 1 the gross increased 12 per cent and the net 14½ per cent. A feature of the January report is the large sum charged to expenses, which indicates that the road is meeting the end of its heavy drain on earnings on account of extraordinary betterment expenditures

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Moderate demand and prices steady as quoted on the second page.

WINTER WHEAT—Soft Winter Wheat was unchanged and Hard Winter easy and quotably a trifle lower. Demand moderate. No. 2 Red in store quotable at 94½c@$1 00⅜, and fresh arrivals free on board quotably $1 00@1 01. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals quotably 96c@$1 02, with a sale at $1 02. No Grade Red sold at 73c. No. 2 Hard fresh arrivals at the river quotable at 90@92c. No. 3 Hard local sold at 85@95c, and at the river quotable at 80@90c. No. 4 Hard at the river sold at 75c. No. 3 White sold at $1 02.

SPRING WHEAT—Quiet, with a firm feeling for choice Wheat and easy feeling for common and ordinary Wheat. Demand fair, but is for choice Wheat. No. 1 Northern in store quotable at 94½@95¾c and fresh arrivals free on board at 96@99c. No 3 Spring local sold at 91c and was quotable at 85@97c. No. 4 Spring local sold at 82@86c and ranged at 65@90c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—There was a fair trade and rather nervous feeling prevalent most of the session, the close showing May ⅜c lower, while July declined ⅛c and the September ⅛c. The dry weather in the Southwest, stronger cables and advance in outside markets were among the early "bull" helps. Commission houses were good buyers, while the offerings were not very free, local temper leaning to the "long" side of the market. Liverpool was up ⅜@½d on futures and steady for spot. London came unchanged to ¼d lower. Paris was steady to ⅛c lower. Antwerp was unchanged. At the advance the selling became more pronounced, the prediction of rain or snow for the West and Southwest being something of a factor. Later, rains were reported in Kansas. Stocks of Breadstuffs in Europe and afloat and in Argentina were reported March 1 at 81,346,000 bu, against 80,160,000 bu Feb 1 and 65,330,000 bu March 1, 1903. Broomhall cabled the surplus in Argentina would be 110,000,000 bu and the quality of the crop the finest ever threshed. Antwerp cabled that interior Wheat stocks in Argentina are ample, but that shipments are likely to decrease next week owing to the strike. Odessa cabled the market there was sensitive and prospect for new crop bad. Reduced acreage of Spring Wheat feared, owing to laborers in war service. Local weekly receipts 380,000 bu; shipments 267,000 bu. Primary receipts 3, 87100 bu; last week 3,161 000 bu; year ago 2,616,000 bu. Northwestern receipts this week 2,093 cars; previous week 1,703 cars; year ago 1,847 cars. The English visible decreased 101 000 bu, against 264,000 bu decrease same week in 1903. English farmers' deliveries were 268 000 bu and the price, 86¼c, was ½c higher than last week. Broomhall estimated the world's shipments this week 10,000,000 bu and a fair increase on passage is indicated. Local "bull" interests were credited with selling May, and the Southwest new July. Australian shipments this week 872,000 bu. Exports were moderate and no boat loads were accepted at the seaboard to day. Receipts at Duluth 25 cars and at Minneapolis 284 cars, a total of 309, against 258 cars yesterday, 303 cars a week ago, and 262 cars last year. Local receipts included 22 cars Winter, 9 cars Spring and 4 cars mixed, a total of 35 cars, against 31 cars last year. Included in the above was 3 cars of contract grade. There were 4 cars and 50 bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for Monday are 25 cars. Withdrawals were 14,800 bu. Receipts at Western points were 545,185 bu, against 413 039 bu last year. At Eastern points 45,060 bu, against 36,285 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 304,194 bu, against 161,352 bu last year, and from Eastern points 38,817 bu, against 136,596 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 26,747 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 159,178 bu.

CORN—Was only moderately active, with the trade of smaller volume than of late. Sentiment at the same time was rather mixed and the close ⅛@¼c higher for May, while the July gained ¼c. Market at the start was firm, with commission houses and warehouse interests buying, the strength in Wheat being the principal influence. Later on the offerings increased, "long" Corn coming out and prices receded, but rallied again toward the last of the session. Liverpool was weak and ¼@⅝d lower for futures, while spot was unchanged to ¼d lower. The weather was mild through the Corn belt and rain or snow predicted. Receipts were 209 cars, with 143 cars of the same low grades, against 378 cars and 137 cars respectively one year ago. Estimates for Monday 195 cars. Local weekly receipts 1,462 000 bu and shipments 797,000 bu. Receipts at primary markets this week 3,504,000 bu, against 3,847 000 bu one week ago and 4 034,000 bu one year ago. Exports were very fair at 470,000 bu and 9 boat loads were accepted at the seaboard. Shippers reported the demand for round lots moderate and sales 150,000 bu. Transfers from private to public elevators 15,400 bu and 177 cars. Local arrivals were 174,000 bu and the shipments 84,000 bu. Car lots were in fair demand and moderate supply. Feeling was firm and prices were stronger. No 2 closed about 50¾c and No 2 Yellow 51¾c. No 3 sold at 41c for yellow and closed about 42½@50¼c. No. 3 White sold at 42½c. No. 3 Yellow closed at 41@51¼c. No. 4 sold at 39½c. No Grade sold at 37c.

Corn by sample—Was steady to 1c higher. Offerings were moderate and the demand was somewhat better, more particularly the low grades. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 34@34 No. 4 at 34@42c No 3 at 40½c No 2 Yellow at 54½@55½c No 3 White at 42½@43c Billed through: No Grade at 32@35c. SEPTEMBER—Sold at 50⅝@51¾c. Opened at 51¼c, and sold at 51¾c to 51⅜c, to 51½c, to 50⅝c, to 51c, to 50⅞c, and closed at 50⅞c.

OATS—Were advanced ¼@½c early with other Grains and on fair local buying but receded and closed at the low point at the same as yesterday on May and ⅛@¼c lower on other months. There was a good trade and liberal selling on the advance. The range was narrow—⅝c. Cash demand was moderate, the scarcity of cars checking business with the East. Arrivals were 272 cars with 270 cars estimated for Monday. There was 4 cars and 31,000 bu Standard transferred from private and public elevators. Withdrawn for shipment 6,160 bu. Seaboard clearances 13 700 bu. Car lots to go to store closed ½@1c lower. Standard in store offered at 1c under May; closed at 40¼c.

Oats by sample opened steady, but declined and closed easy at ½@1c lower. Trading was moderate and offerings larger. Sales on track and free on board: No 4 at 37c No 4 White at 38@40c. No. 3 at 38½@39½c. No. 3 White at 39½@43½c. Standard at 41c No. 2 at 39½@40c Billed through: No 4 White at 40½c. No. 3 White at 41½@43c. Standard at 42½c At the river: No. 4 at 36@37c. No. 4 White at 30@39½c. No. 3 White at 38@40½c. No. 2 at 37½c for Corn mixed.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were higher early and lost the advance.

MARCH—Offered at 1c under May; closed at 40¼c.

MAY—Fair trading. Sold at 41⅛@41¾c. Opened at 41½c to 41⅝c, sold to 41¾c, to 41⅛, to 41¼c at close.

JULY—Active. Sold at 39⅞@40c. Opened at 39¾c, sold to 40c, to 39½c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 34⅛c and at 34½@34⅝c. Opened at 34⅛c to 34½c sold to 34½@34⅝c, to 34⅛c at close.

RYE—The market was weak, especially for the deferred or new crop future. Prices 1@3c lower. Offerings fair, and the demand light. There was but little disposition to buy in view of the general weakness. There were eight cars received. No withdrawals and no export clearances. No. 2 in store nominally 72c, and fresh arrivals free on board sold 74c. No. 3 fresh receipts free on board sold at 68c and No. 4 at 58c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet and weak. March nominally 72c. May sold at 74c and closed at 74c sellers or 1c lower than yesterday. July sold at 72c and closed at 72c sellers, or about 3c lower than yesterday.

BARLEY—Ruled about steady. Nothing new especially developed. The offerings were no more than fair, and no really choice to fancy on sale. Demand for several grades offered about equal to offerings, at the same time no anxiety by buyers was shown. Posted received 41 cars. Sales of Screenings reported at 35@42c for ordinary to fancy. Barley, feed or mixing, quotable at 38@41c local, depending on soundness and color, and at 37@40c river billed. Malting, low grade 41@43c; common, 43@44c. Fair was about 45@47c good, 48@50c; choice, 53@55c; fancy nominally higher, possibly 56@60c if just the right kind not offered.

SEEDS—There was not much news. The short Saturday tended to make it a little more difficult to do business. A fair quantity of cash Timothy was offered. Other kinds in very moderate supply.

Timothy—Several cars and some bag lots were offered. Some not buying claiming Seed was held above their views. In some cases again the market was called easy. Sales were made at $2 40@2 80 for common, rough Seed to choice, with tailings lower. Country lots quotable over a range of $2 25@3 05 for poor to fancy; fair to good at $2 5 @2 65; choice $2 70@2 85 and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 45; tailings lower. Futures inactive, neglected. March was called nominally $3 05 and May about $3 15.

Flax—Was entirely unchanged so far as prices go. The market also ruled exceedingly quiet. Movement small. Little Flax on sale either for present or future delivery. No 1 Northwestern or No 1 from the Northwest remained quotable at $1 14½; a sale made. No. 1 was $1 08½ bid. Rejected nominally $1 06@1 08, outside for choice Northwestern. March quotable at $1 08½ bid; May sold at $1 10½ and that bid. Receipts 5 cars or 4,250 bu and output 2 cars or 2,161 bu. Minneapolis got 36 cars and Duluth 34 cars.

Clover—Steady and firm. It was wanted and full late prices could be obtained. Offerings comprised lots of very irregular quality. Contract spot and March delivery nominally $11 65. Country lots, common to choice, $8 25@11 40; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $8 50@9 50; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Main run of such lots as come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $9 50 @10 75

Other Seeds—Some Hungarian and Millet appeared and were sold, but prices not made known. All lines under this head firm and salable. Quotable as below: Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark at $1 60@1 90. Common Millet $1 00@1 50 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00 @1 40. Siberian 85c@$1 05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat, good milling, salable at $1 35@1 40.

HOG PRODUCTS—Trade quite active for the closing day of the week, feeling greatly unsettled, and prices irregular. Outside orders were fair, and local trading rather active. Hogs in very small supply, and prices higher. Moderate supply expected next week. Receipts at the leading Western pack points were estimated at 22 200, compared with 29,600 one year ago. Foreign markets quiet, and Cumberland Sides quoted 6d lower. Domestic markets quiet. Receipts of Products were fair—of Lard and Meats about 22 cars. Shipments were fair—of Lard and Meats about 11 cars. Speculative market opened rather steady in sympathy with the Hog market, and the advance in Grain, and prices ruled higher all around. Later there was considerable realizing, and the market weakened. Prices receded to inside figures. Toward the close more strength was manifested, and prices rallied to outside figures, and closed steady. Shipping demand light and offerings small. Sales limited at about former figures.

Mess Pork—Quite an active trade was reported in Mess Pork. Market unsettled and prices irregular. Offerings were moderately free, and the demand was good. Market opened rather firm, and prices were about 15@25c higher. Later, a weaker feeling was manifested and prices settled back 15@20c. Toward the close a firmer feeling was developed and prices raised 20@22½c, and the market closed comparatively steady. Shipping demand was small, and offerings were light. Cash lots quotable at $14 12½@14 25

MAY—In rather good demand with fair offerings. Sales were made at $13 95@14 20. Opened at $14 05 to $14 12½, sold to $14 10, to $14 15, to $14 07½, to $14 20 to $13 95, to $14 07½, to $14 05, to $14 1 , to $14 05, to $14 10, to $14 07½, to $14 17½, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderately active. Sales were made at $14 10@14 32½. Opened at $14 22½ to $14 27½, sold to $14 25, to $14 37½, to $14 10, to $14 1 ½, to $14 10, to $14 25, to $14 20, to $14 30, to $14 22½, to $14 32½, and closed steady.

Lard—A good business was reported in the Lard market, but the feeling was unsettled. Prices ruled irregular. Market opened rather firm, and prices ruled 10@15c higher. Later, the feeling was not so firm, and prices receded 7½@10c. Toward the close the feeling was steadier, and prices rallied 7½@10c, and closed comparatively steady. Demand on shipping account was light and offerings were moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $7 15@7 25. Loose lots called for sparingly and offerings were rather light. Prices were steady at about 40c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in light request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably steady at $6 75. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $8 25@8 37½ for No. 1 and $7 87½@8 00 for No. 2

MAY—In rather good request and offerings were fair. Sales were made at $7 30@7 40. Opened at $7 35 to $7 37½, sold to $7 40, to $7 35, to $7 37½@7 40, to $7 30, to $7 37½, to $7 35, to $7 40, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were fair and the demand was rather active. Sales were made at $7 45@7 57½. Opened at $7 50 to $7 55, sold to $7 55@7 57½, to $7 50, to $7 55, to $7 45@7 47½, to $7 52½, to $7 50, to $7 55, and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—Trade was active and prices irregular. Offerings were fairly liberal, and the demand was rather active. Opening trades were made at 12½@25c advance. Later, the feeling was not so firm, and prices receded 15@17½c. Toward the close, rallied again 10@12½c with fair buying and the market closed steady. Shipping demand was light, and offerings were limited. Cash lots quotable at $7 00@7 25, according to weight.

MAY—Offerings were fair, and the demand was quite active. Sales were made at $7 12½@7 32½. Opened at $7 20 to $7 32½, sold to $7 27½, to $7 30, to $7 25, to $7 27½, to $7 22½, to $7 20, to $7 27½, and closed steady.

JULY—In rather good request and offerings were fair. Sales were made at $7 27½@7 42½. Opened at $7 30 to $7 40, sold to $7 42½, to $7 35, to $7 40, to $7 37½, to $7 35, to $7 32½, to $7 37½, to $7 35, to $7 40, to $7 37½, and closed rather steady.

Other Meats—Trade was rather small and the feeling rather easy. Offerings were only fair. Demand was moderate for the home trade. Export inquiry very limited. Green Meats in moderate supply and rather light demand, and prices favored buyers. Pickled Meats were in fair request to fill moderate orders and prices were unchanged. Dry Salted Meats were in fair demand in a quiet way, and prices ruled steady. Smoked Meats called for in fair quantities, especially in a jobbing way, and prices were steady. Closing ranged as follows.

WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW.

MONEY AND STOCKS.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY EVENING, March 4, 1904.

The money market holds strong with a good general demand for funds and with rates mainly 5 per cent on call. The mercantile and manufacturing interest has taken a great deal of money of late and the advanced price of Grains has caused the use of increased amounts as margins and enlarged shipments of currency to the country. The time money market was firm with loans up to 6 per cent. In New York the market was steady with call rates in the Stock Exchange 1¾ to 2¼ per cent. Lenders were not disposed to force loans on time and rates were 4 to 4½ per cent. A steady market is anticipated for the next week or two with a disposition to firmness the latter part of the month. This is independent of developments in the canal payments.

New York exchange was easy and 10c to 30c discount, closing at 30c discount.

Foreign exchange was stronger and shippers' sixty-day documentary sterling bills on London ranged at 482¾ to 483¼, and closed at the outside.

Cotton in New York was influenced by stronger markets abroad, "bullish" statistics, a better spot demand from manufacturers and active covering by "shorts." The "bull" interest was more aggressive on the buying side and assisted in making a good advance. The public was not a large buyer and efforts on the part of leading holders to realize profits resulted in several large breaks. Closing sales were at net gains of 85@113 points as compared with a week ago.

Local Securities were more actively traded in. Can shares were bought freely during the early days of the week on orders from insiders. It is said that the annual statement for the year ending March 31 would make a favorable showing. Prices advanced materially but sold off on realizing sales and it was said that the earnings were only 3 per cent on the stock. Box Board and Quaker Oats were liquidated liberally at a lower range. Biscuit and Diamond Match shares were well supported. Radiator weakened as its statement showed a loss of $160,000 in net earnings for 1903. Traffic on the elevated roads during February made normal increases over January and as compared with February last year. Traction shares were slow and weak, with North Chicago Railway selling down to 65. Bond business was light and the largest bond dealers say business in January and February has been unsatisfactory.

Stocks in New York were excessively dull. The professionals did most of the trading. Daily changes for the most part were small and net results for the week were moderate net advances as compared with the previous week. It was a narrow market throughout. Railway shares were affected by reports of decreased earnings due largely to increased operating expenses. January and February being unfavorable months owing to extreme cold weather cutting down earning capacity of the engines and cars, and increasing operating expenses. Pennsylvania was sold on unfavorable report of earnings, which led the selling of shares by other roads. The United States Steel Company made large purchases of pig Iron, but an optimistic view of the Iron and Steel situation is not taken by the best informed people. All the Industrial shares were irregular. Bonds were slow. Total sales on the New York Stock Exchange for the week were 898,000 shares, compared with 1,820,000 shares the previous week, and 3,861,000 shares last year.

The principal Stocks traded in on the New York Stock Exchange and the number of shares disposed of during the week was as follows:

The mercantile trade was more active with a change to somewhat better weather. The buying in all lines, however, displayed caution, particularly in Cotton goods. Firmness prevailed in the latter, as prices for raw material showed a further advance. Woolens and Silks are having a large movement and shipments of merchandise on sales made early in the season were increased. The market for finished products of Iron and Steel was more active, particularly in Steel bars and Iron bars, the latter advancing $1 00 a ton. Pig Iron was easy with trading the largest in a month. The closing day of last week the United States Steel Corporation bought 100,000 tons in the Central West. This will start up the furnaces that are out of blast in the Mahoning and Shenango Valleys. This will give employment to a large number of men. Wire Nails were bought actively at the recent advance. Shipments of light Hardware are increasing. The movement of building material and Lumber are still delayed by unfavorable weather, but prospects are for a good business, as the country is believed to be moderately supplied. Prices of Sugars were advanced 5 points and Coffee reduced ¼c per lb. Gum Camphor has made a sharp advance owing to the war with Japan. An increased movement of Paints and Oils are reported. Collections are fair.

COMMERCIAL.

Business on the Chicago Board of Trade was of large volume and quite satisfactory during the week just closed. Outside orders were numerous and local operators traded with considerable freedom. Many opportunities were offered parties with capital to invest the same in the leading cereals owing to the wide and sudden fluctuations. Profit-taking and realizing by prominent "longs" and "short" selling by professionals caused a sharp reduction in values all round, when a partial recovery occurred, many operators reinstating lines sold out at higher prices. Less attention was paid to the war situation in the far East, domestic and foreign crop conditions, prospective supplies and the Grain movement being influential factors in shaping the trend of values. The Hog supply and the stocks of Product on hand as reported March 1 were important features in the Provision market. As yet there is no indication of any decrease in the volume of the speculative trade in the near future, as is indicated by the better demand and higher prices ruling for memberships on the Exchange, which are now quoted $3,750 net to the seller.

The crop outlook abroad is only fair to medium compared with this time last year. In Russia the prospects are unchanged and the outlook about the same as a year ago at this time. Considerable snow fell in Roumania recently and the crops are well protected. Rather too much rain was reported in Spain and Italy, while sudden changes in climatic conditions of late has caused considerable anxiety among growers. In India the Wheat harvest has commenced and the exportable surplus is reckoned at 64,000,000 bu, that of Australia 40,000,000 bu and Argentine 112,000,000 bu. Rains in Australia have softened the ground which is now in good condition for plowing. Conditions in the United Kingdom are poor, good in Italy, medium in Germany and Austria-Hungary, and fair in France.

Weather conditions the past week in the United States varied and unseasonable, freezing conditions prevailing in Winter Wheat belt. Rains occurred on the Pacific Coast and through the States of the Central West and Ohio Valley and were of great benefit to growing crops. There was, however, but little precipitation in the Southwest where much needed. Reports regarding the condition of Winter Wheat indicate that the outlook is not altogether promising over a considerable portion of the area. Advices from sections in Kansas, Oklahoma and Missouri were conflicting and in some instances the top of the plant is reported killed, but is supposed to be well rooted. In Nebraska the plant is said to have wintered well. Reports from Ohio and Illinois were mixed. Farm work is progressing well through the South, and Corn planting is under way in Texas. Some Spring Wheat seeding has been done in Kansas and Oklahoma.

The movement of Grain from the farms and interior elevators showed some increase the past week. The milder weather and late reduction in rail rates was chiefly responsible for the enlargement at the start, the blizzard checking same later. In the Northwest there was a noticeable enlargement in the receipts at distributing centers and the offerings at country stations were also more liberal. Stocks of Wheat in interior elevators of the Northwest were reported at 5,188,000 bu on March 1, compared with 5,936,000 bu on February 1, and 4,587,000 bu on March 1, 1903. Coarse Grains, too, were marketed with a little more freedom through the West, but storms and bad condition of country roads in some sections tended to retard the movement. Through the Southwest the marketing of Wheat was free and largely in excess of a year ago. Some increase, too, was noted through the Central West. On the Pacific Coast and through the South the movement of Grain was limited. The movement toward the seaboard was moderate. Shipments are still restricted and is mainly due to the congested condition of the Eastern roads. Exports of Wheat and Flour were very moderate and fair of Corn. Bookings for future shipment were rather disappointing considering the war and political conditions in Europe. According to the weekly report of the visible supply of Grain in the United States and Canada, as compiled by the Secretary of the Chicago Board of Trade, there was a decrease in the stocks of Wheat and Barley, and an increase of Corn, Oats and Rye.

Speculative operations were on a large scale and fluctuations sharp and frequent in all the leading markets on 'Change the past week. The feeling was decidedly nervous and unsettled and the general tone weak the opening days. Liquidation was heavy in all lines of Grain and Provisions and sharp declines were recorded. Wheat, Corn and Oats broke badly and stop-loss limits were reached in numerous instances. "Long" property came out in immense quantities, "bear" interests being aggressive on the selling side. At the declines established "shorts" covered freely and investment buying became more general, and a fair recovery in prices was established, which, however were not well maintained. The early decline in Wheat was attributed chiefly to increased movement, and "bearish" statistics and foreign advices. Corn and Oats declined in sympathy. Unfavorable crop advices, the severe freeze following the thaw started the reaction. Receipts of Hogs were moderate. Stocks of Provisions March 1 were reported larger than generally expected, but at the same time are not heavy. Pork showed an addition of 19,258 brls, Lard 41,601 tcs and an increase in Ribs of 2,163,000 lbs. Total stocks are 52,406,000 brls larger than in 1903. Packing of the West for the season was reported at 9,120,000 Hogs, against 8,605,000 in 1902-3, an increase of 515,000 Hogs.

The trade in cash Grain was moderate the past week, and the prices secured by receivers and shippers varied greatly owing to the violent fluctuations in futures. The demand for Wheat was not as urgent as noted of late owing to the unsettled conditions prevalent. Prices averaged lower and there was less doing in round lots for outside account. Corn, too, was less ready sale and the low grades ruled decidedly weak. Eastern shipments curtailed by the car situation. Oats were heavy, the demand not being quite as urgent as lately noted. Rye was quiet and lower. Seeds were dull and easy. The demand for Hay was light and market very dull. Offerings large. Rather a slow shipping inquiry was reported in Hog Products. Sales somewhat limited and offerings moderate. Stocks on hand increasing. Cattle were in fair supply and prices firm. Sheep were marketed with moderate freedom and prices were well maintained.

FREIGHTS—Milder weather has benefitted the railroads east and west of Chicago and more cars were moved the past week. In New York and Pennsylvania thousands of cars are tied up and it has been impossible to get empties. Business here has been restricted by the car scarcity. Rates at and east of Buffalo are lower and so are through Grain rates from Omaha to Chicago. The Eastbound tariff is as follows:

To—	From Chicago. Domestic.	From Chicago. Export.	From Miss. River. Domestic.	From Miss. River. Export.
Boston	22	15	25	17½
New York	20	15	22	17½
Philadelphia	18	14	20	16½
Baltimore	17	13½	19	16
Newport News	17	13½	19	..
Buffalo	13	..	15	..

Flour rates are 20c domestic and 16½c for export. Provision rates are 30c per 100 lbs, Chicago to New York.

Rail rates at and east of Buffalo are steady on Grain now there at 2.2c per bu on Wheat, 1.95c on Corn, and 1.2c on Oats, with the usual differentials to other points.

Ocean rates on Grain easy with a limited demand. Rates on Grain are ⅞@1d per bu from New York and ¾d from Boston. Through rate on Wheat from Chicago to Liverpool is 11¾c per bu and Corn 11½c. Flour 24.91c per 100 lbs and Provisions 44.06c per 100 lbs.

FLOUR—This market was somewhat unsettled the past week, millers as well as jobbers and dealers in Flour being considerably at sea owing to the wild fluctuations in Wheat values. Most buyers in consequence of the reactionary tendency of Wheat kept out of the market and confined their purchases to actual needs. Millers at the same time were reluctant in granting concessions, many still working on the basis of last week's prices of cash Wheat. Prices on the week are about 15c lower. The sales effected were chiefly to the local and domestic trade, foreign bids still being too far below the views of millers. In some instances the sales of Winter Wheat Flours were at the best prices on the crop. The agents of the leading outside mills report the market quiet. Many are busy delivering Flour on old contracts, one concern having about seventy-five teams in use. Supplies in second hands are said to be moderate. Public stocks March 1 were reported 34,250 brls, as against 20,250 brls February 1 and 37,295 brls March 1, 1903. Local mills are all running full time and the output at the leading Northwestern points the past week was 503,000 brls, against 449,000 brls same week last year. Stocks at Liverpool March 1 were reported at 103,000 brls, as compared with 97,000 brls February 1 and 108,000 brls March 1, 1903. The week closed comparatively easy at the following prices:

MILLSTUFFS—The market has ruled firm during the past week, and what little was received was taken up readily. The receipts have been small and the demand fair. Bran in bulk quotable at $17 50@18 00 per ton and at $19 00 per ton in sacks sacks included.

WINTER WHEAT—An easier feeling existed during the past week, and prices declined some 9c for regular in store grade, and 7@10c for fresh arrivals. There has been a very irregular decline, but later a steadier feeling developed and part of the early decline was recovered, but again weakened, and closed near the lowest. There has been a fair demand all the time, but, of course, when the big break occurred the regular cash buyers held back for a day or so to allow the market to get a little more settled. Millers have been the principal buyers for the fresh arrivals, and as the receipts have been light of Soft Red Winter this description did not decline quite as severely as the regular in store lots and Hard Winter varieties. Millers particularly wanted the bright, yellow Western Wheat. Hard Winter met with fair sale, but not wanted as much as the soft variety. Poor Wheat sold slowly, and among the receipts were a number of cars for which receivers had to make rather larger concessions than for the more desirable lots. The grade Wheat or the contract grade in store followed the fluctuations of the speculative market and held at fair premium over the Spring Wheat. No round lots reported sold. Receipts for the week aggregated 125 cars, against 95 cars the previous week. There were withdrawn from public elevators 21,900 bu and from private warehouses 75 cars. No. 2 Red in store ranged from 1c under to 2c over May prices, and ranged at $1 00½@1 07¼ down to 95½c@$1 02, and later at 95c @$1 01. Fresh arrivals free on board sold at $1 04 @1 10. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals sold at $1 05@1 10 down to 98c@$1 02. No. 2 Hard local sold at 95@97c and quotable at 95c@$1 00 and sold at the river at 96@99c. No. 3 Hard local ranged at 92c@$1 00 down to 85@95c, with sales at the river at 90@98c down 77@92c. No. 4 Hard local sold at 77@80c, and at the river at 70@72c. No Grade Hard sold at 60c. No. 3 White sold at $1 03¾.

SPRING WHEAT—The market ruled 6@9c lower than last week, and closed steadier. With the exception of a day or two when the speculative market was panicky, there has been a good demand for fresh arrivals, and some demand for the regular grade Wheat in store, but the demand has not been so urgent as last week. On account of the unsettled condition in the speculative market, buyers naturally have been more guarded in their purchases. The receipts have been small and this prevented a larger business being done. Scarcely enough of the fresh arrivals offered to make a market, and the quotations for the most part have been nominal. The hard variety of Wheat was mostly wanted. The regular grade of Wheat in store followed the fluctuations in futures. Of the poor Wheat there have been a number of cars received, and while ordinary Wheat was salable there has been no special call for it, and low prices had to be accepted to make sales. The receipts of the week aggregated 71 cars, against 78 cars the previous week. There were withdrawn from public elevators 22,675 bu, and only 54 cars were taken from private warehouses. No. 1 Northern in store ruled about 3c under May prices and ranged from 98¾c@$1 02¼, down to 93@96c. Fresh arrivals free on board were quoted nominally at $1 03@1 06 down to 96c@$1 01. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals range 97c@$1 04, down to 92c@$1 00. No. 3 Spring fresh arrivals were quotable at 90c@1 02, down to 85@97c, No. 4 Spring were quotable at 60@90c for poor to choice, and at 95c for fancy.

REGULAR WHEAT—After a steady advance for some weeks this market has finally turned downward, and the week closes with the May 7⅞c lower than on last Friday, while the old July has lost just 1c and the September about 4⅝c. "Bear" interests were more confident and aggressive in their operations and the heavy liquidation caught many "stop loss orders," the execution of which added to the general demoralized condition of the market. May sold off to 93c, July to 92¼c and September to 86½c. These figures show a drop of 7½@12½c from the top prices of last week. This break was the kind of a reaction professional operators were expecting. The impression prevailed that the "bull" party in May had liquidated freely on the late advance and was well out of its line. The news at hand was more encouraging to the "bear" interests and less favorable to holders. The declines abroad, increased movement on this side and let-up in the cash demand were among the depressing influences. The rains in California and generally more favorable crop advices, too, were indirect "bear" factors. There was buying on the break by "shorts" and elevator interests, selling May and buying July, narrowing the spread at one time to about 4c, as against 10@11c difference the corresponding time one week ago. There was also investment buying by interests which still expect a large public market and look for the war, cash situation and domestic and foreign crop uncertainty to keep the price up to the present level for some time to come. Receipts at primary markets were larger than a year ago and arrivals at country stations were reported more liberal, particularly in the Northwest. Receipts at distributing centers July 1 to Feb 29 aggregate 185,716,000 bu, compared with 212,975,000 bu in 1902-3, and 139,501,000 bu in 1901-2. The general run of routine statistics were construed as "bearish." Local receipts during February were 693 cars, compared with 627 cars in 1903, 478 cars in 1902, and 1,147 cars in 1901. There was an increase in the quantity on ocean passage of 3,338,000 bu to 57,392,000 bu, which is 6,016,000 bu larger than in 1903. World's shipments exceeded expectations at 10,800,000 bu, against 10,008,000 bu last year. Russia contributed 2,424,000 bu, against 1,648,000 bu same week last year. The visible decreased 1,248,000 bu, compared with 1,147,000 bu decrease last year. Total now 35,509,000 bu; last year 47,507,000 bu; in 1902 54,093,000 bu. Local stocks increased 82,000 bu to 2,915,000 bu, compared with 7,749,000 bu in 1903. The only point gaining over 50,000 bu the last week was Duluth, 100,000 bu. Points losing: Buffalo, 543,000 bu; Minneapolis, 316,000 bu; New York, 237,000 bu; Kansas City, 91,000 bu, and Galveston 84,000 bu. Stocks here in all positions were reported 5,677,000 bu, an increase of 165,000 bu, and are 5,540,000 bu smaller than a year ago. Contract stocks increased 27,440 bu, to 1,724,372 bu, compared with 8,680,500 bu in 1903. Bradstreet's world's available supply decreased 2,703,000 bu, as against a decrease of 1,902,000 bu same week in 1903. Northwest interior elevator stocks decreased 748,000 bu during February and are now 5,188,000 bu, compared with 4,587,000 bu one year ago. Stocks at Liverpool March 1 were reported 1,104,000 bu, a decrease during February of 968,000 bu. Stock a year ago 1,776,000 bu. Broomhall cabled this season's exportable surplus in Argentina was reckoned at 112,000,000 bu; Australia, 40,000,000 bu, and India, 64,000,000 bu. Weather conditions through the Winter Wheat belt were more unsettled than of late and the weekly snow map showed no snow covering south of the northern portion of Nebraska and Iowa; no snow covering in Southern Nebraska, Southern Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma or southward. Very little snow covering except in Northwestern States. Foreign crops were summarized in the following cable from Broomhall: "United Kingdom, France—Weather continues to improve. Russia—Weather now mild and navigation on rivers is reopening. Crop situation about unchanged. Roumania—Great deal of snow has fallen and crop well protected. Italy, Spain—There still continues too much rain for development of plant. Germany—Sharp changes in temperature during the past week caused some anxiety as to effect on crops. India—Harvesting commenced and so far no complaints of any kind. Australia—Rains have softened the ground, which is now in good condition for plowing." Dornbusch of Feb. 13 had the following: "The Indian Wheat crop this season is of good promise, and expectations are for 25 per cent increase on last year's yield. In 1903 the crop harvested was 292,000,000 bu; in 1902, 228,000,000 bu; in 1901, 254,400,000 bu; in 1900, 183,200,000 bu, and in 1899, 238,400,000 bu." Beerbohm of Feb. 16 said: "The Argentine Wheat crop of 1902-3, which was officially estimated early in the season at 3,102,500 tons, is now definitely put at 100,000,000 bu on 8,700,000 acres, thus giving an average yield of 11½ bu per acre, or about 40 per cent above the average yield in 1901-2, and 5 per cent below that of 1900-1. The area under the crop of 1903-4 is now definitely given at 10,480,000 acres, and the average yield is estimated at about 12 bu per acre, giving thus a total crop of about 125,000,000 bu, and a surplus of about 92,000,000 bu, against 65,600,000 bu last year." The Liverpool Corn Trade News gives the condition of the Wheat crop in the different countries on February 9, as follows, compared with previous two seasons:

United States	Medium	Good	Good
Russia	Medium	Medium	Good
France	Fair	Poor	Good
Germany	Medium	Medium	Good
Austria-Hungary	Medium	Poor	Good
Italy	Good	Good	Good
United Kingdom	Poor	Fair	Good

Exports the past week were moderate at 1,643,000 bu, and total since July 1, 112,531,000 bu, as compared with 162,703,000 bu for the same period in 1902-03. Bookings for forward shipment were likewise small. The following table exhibits the exports of Breadstuffs from the following countries from July 1, 1903, to February 27, 1904, compared with the corresponding period in 1902-3:

Countries—	1903-4, bu.	1902-3, bu.
America	122,616,000	171,919,000
Russia	97,280,000	82,280,000
Danubian	45,768,000	41,160,000
India	32,176,000	12,416,000
Argentina	33,136,000	11,200,000
Australasia	10,728,000	....
Austria-Hungary	4,558,000	2,128,000
Chili, North Africa	7,078,000	13,652,000
Totals	353,340,000	334,755,000

The railroad strike in Argentine where some 10,000 railway employes have gone out, caused some apprehension in the English markets. Shipments from there the past week were 3,584,000 bu, and the total since January 1 now aggregates 20,120,000 bu, as against 12,018,000 bu for the corresponding period in 1903. The visible supply was reported 4,672,000 bu as compared with 5,336,000 bu last week and 2,576,000 bu one year ago. Farmers' deliveries in the Northwest were larger this week and an enlarged movement is anticipated in the near future.

CORN—The week closes with the May 3¼c lower, the last trades being at 53½c. July lost 3⅛c resting at 52¼c, and the September 3¼c, the last quotation being 51⅛c bid. The trade was of very large volume and the market was unsettled and nervous the entire week. Fluctuations covered 4⅝@5⅛c range, the close showing the results noted above. Liquidation and profit-taking by "longs" was the principal feature of the week, immense quantities coming on the market, and the decline which followed caught many stop-loss orders. The sharp break in Wheat and Provisions, coupled with the declines abroad and increasing supplies, were among the "bear" influences. The week started out comparatively firm, the strength being attributable chiefly to the thawing weather through the Corn belt, which it was figured, would break up the country roads and curtail the movement. The continued poor grading, too, was a factor, and May touched 57½@57⅝c and July 55⅞c before the demand was satisfied. Liquidation became general later on and May sold off to 52½c and the July to 51⅛c, September touching 50⅛c. "Bear" interests were more confident in their position and the selling was on the aggressive order. The 12½c break in Wheat was one of the main governing influences. Statistics were in the main, construed as "bearish." World's shipments, however, were small at 2,473,000 bu, compared with 4,477,000 bu last year, and the quantity on ocean passage decreased 1,852,000 bu to 9,428,000 bu, as against 11,375,000 bu same date in 1903. The visible supply at the same time increased 81,000 bu and is now 9,793,000 bu; in 1903, 10,219,000 bu; in 1902, 10,333,000 bu. Local stocks increased 86,000 bu to 2,777,030 bu, compared with 3,723,000 bu in 1903. The points gaining over 50,000 bu were: St. Louis, 187,000 bu; Boston, 122,000 bu; Kansas City, 87,000 bu; Chicago, 86,000 bu, and Philadelphia, 66,000 bu. Points losing: Baltimore, 211,000 bu; Galveston, 224,000 bu, and New York, 63,000 bu. Stocks here in all positions were reported at 7,167,000 bu, an increase last week of 531,000 bu, and are 276,000 bu larger than a year ago. Contract stocks increased 67,985 bu to 2,324,680 bu, compared with 2,357,746 bu in 1903. Bradstreet's world's available supply increased 586,000 bu, as against a decrease of 797,000 bu the same period in 1903. Receipts at Liverpool were moderate this week and the stock there March 1 10,540,000 bu, an increase during February of 163,000 bu. Stock one year ago was reported 585,000 bu. Receipts for the week were 1,592 cars and 69½ per cent low grades, against 1,859 cars last week, when 70 per cent were off grades. A year ago the arrivals were 2,045 cars and 44½ per cent were low grades. Receipts for the month of February were 7,465 cars, compared with 7,267 cars same month in 1903 and 2,071 cars in February 1902. The movement at distributing centers through the Corn belt compared very favorably with that of a year ago, while shipments were not as large. "Shorts" covered quite freely around 52¾c for May, and the price rallied to 53⅞c, the July selling to 52½c, and the September selling to 51⅝c. The Corn dryers are still busy turning out contract Corn and the transfers from private to public elevators were liberal. Exports were fair, but the new business booked at the seaboard was only moderate. Clearings for the week were 1,601,000 bu and the total from July 1 to March 4 aggregate 39,569,000 bu, compared with 32,547,000 bu during the corresponding period in 1902-3. Crop advices from Argentine were favorable, but the strike on the railroads there is interfering with the movement. Shipments in consequence were moderate at 751,000 bu making the total since Jan 1 6,274,000 bu, as against 502,000 bu same time in 1903. The visible there is now 591,000 bu, against 120,000 bu same date one year ago. The sharp decline in cash values this week was one of the "bear" arguments in the speculative market. Many of the usual buyers were out of the market and prices declined anywhere from 4@7c. Shipping operations are still curtailed owing to car situation. The Eastern roads are still blockaded, but in some instances are in better shape than a week ago.

OATS—The market for Oats was excited, with a wide range. Liquidation led by the largest holder, who sold over 5,000,000 bu, and forced prices down for May nearly 4c, and 41¼c was touched. A rally to 42¾c followed, and prices again broke, selling to 40¼c, and closed at 41¼c, a net loss of 4¼c. July declined from 42¼c to 38c, sold to 40c, and closed at 39¾c, a net loss of 2⅜c. September at the low point was off to 33½c, a drop of 3¾c from the recent high figures. The break was assisted by the decline in other Grains and the rally on covering by "shorts" and a reinstatement of part of the lines sold out by the leading "longs." On the decline, traders who had been "bearish" changed and took the "long" side, it being a cash proposition, samples selling free on board at a better price than May. An enlarged shipping business developed on the break, with more sales than for several weeks past. The sample market was demoralized by the break in futures, and prices declined 3@4c, and made a slight recovery. Arrivals for the week were 1,429 cars, compared with 1,138 cars the previous week, and 1,165 cars last year. Export clearances were 116,000 bu, compared with 91,000 bu the previous week and 170,771 bu last year. The visible supply increased 567,000 bu, and was 9,813,000 bu, against 6,798,000 bu last year. Local stock in public elevators increased 274,000 bu, and were 2,256,000 bu, against 721,000 bu last year. Stocks in public and private houses were 4,691,000 bu. Stocks of contract are 2,165,000 bu.

RYE—Influenced by the decline in other Grains, the market ruled weaker and prices declined about 3c below the closing figures a week ago. Trade has been of a moderate character and there has been less activity in the market. Speculative operators were more indifferent and "shorts" less anxious to cover their outstanding contracts. At the same time there has been more disposition to sell, and while the offerings have not been large and there has been no special pressure to realize, still buyers were favored and found it easier to purchase. There has been no shipping demand and round lots in store have been entirely nominal. The cash business was confined to the few car lots of fresh arrivals, part of which were taken for manufacturing purposes and some on speculative account, evidently for mixing. The poor Rye ruled dull, it was only the good to choice lots which were wanted. The receipts were a little larger than last week, and aggregated 40 cars, against 24 cars the previous week. There were no withdrawals from public elevators and 10 cars from private warehouses. Export clearances from the seaboard none. The visible supply increased 70,000 bu and was reported at 1,153,000 bu, against 1,093,000 bu the previous week and 1,080,000 bu one year ago. The local stock in store was 239,000 bu and a year ago was 413,000 bu. No. 2 in store was quotably about 73@73½c; fresh arrivals to go to store sold at 74¼c and free on board at 77@78c, down to 75@76c, with a sale at the the river at 73½c. No. 3 fresh arrivals sold 65@71c for ordinary to choice. No. 4 fresh receipts sold at 58c to go to store, and at 50@64c free on board—outside for choice. Future deliveries of No. 2 Rye lower. May sold at 77¾c, down to 75c, and closed at 75c. July sold at 77½c, down to 75c, and closed at 75c.

BARLEY—There was an increased supply on the cash market. An easier feeling prevailed, and prices sustained 2@3c decline on the general run of grades or on the main part of the supply. The weather at the opening of the week was so cloudy and dark that little business could be done. This was followed by continued free arrivals, and accumulation of consignments amounted to considerable. A break in Oats prices influenced the lower grades to becoming easier and slow. Maltsters reported ample supplies on hand and good deliveries to them on previous purchases in view of the accumulations on the market, these buyers became indifferent. They were further influenced by a change in the leading Grain markets from buoyancy to weakness, and anticipating that advantages could be gained by holding back, they took that course, resulting in weakness and a decline, such as noted. Receipts were 394 cars, compared with 122 cars the previous week, and 272 cars two weeks ago. Only 900 bu withdrawn. A week ago 6,500 bu were taken out and two weeks ago 7,875 bu. No exports reported. Visible supply decreased 25,000 bu, leaving 4,311,000 bu, compared with 1,836,000 bu the same time last year. Local stock decreased 3,000 bu with 339,436 bu on hand, against a stock of 1,223 bu the same time last year. After a reduction of 2@3c, values covered a range as follows: Screenings quotable at 32@40c for poor to choice. Barley, feed or mixing, quotable at 38@40c local. Malting, low grade about 41@43c; common, 44@45c. Fair was about 46@48c; good, 50@52c; choice, 54@68c; fancy nominally higher.

SEEDS—There were some variations in the market. A considerable quantity of Timothy came on sale, and under this pressure prices receded somewhat. The deliveries on March delivery also were productive of weakness. In the case of Clover it was different, this line being favored with a firm feeling and an upward tendency. Late sowing Seeds were firm with quotations for Millet advanced some and Hungarian holding steady at the improvement of a week ago. Arrivals were increased more or less of all lines, but only Timothy showed good open market offerings. Flax was quiet with a lower range of prices.

Timothy—There was a liberal run of consignments the past week. Arrivals exceeded those of the past few weeks. They were larger also than a year ago. Open weather was favorable for trade and did bring some improvement. Shipments showed a gain and exceeded those of the corresponding week a year ago. There were moderate deliveries on March contracts and some cars were changed over to May at 5@10c premium for latter. This done, the speculative market became very quiet. Contract Seed sustained 10c decline in value. February and March became the same in price, $3 10 early and March later receded to $3 00. Cash Seed, under considerable of a pressure, also became heavy, finally weak and 5@10c easier. Country lots had a quotable range of $2 25@3 25 early for poor to fancy, while finally $3 00 would be about as high as could be obtained. Fair to good ranged at $2 50@2 70 to $2 50@2 60 and rough lots were usually around $2 35@2 45. On Thursday May delivery sold at $3 15. Receipts and shipments with comparisions were as follows:

Receipts the past week, lbs	1,336,666
The previous week	1,180,205
Two weeks ago	769,498
Same time last year	1,172,744
Shipments the past week, lbs	863,084
The previous week	542,875
Two weeks ago	233,430
Same time last year	873,000

Flax—An easy feeling prevailed the past week. Prices tended downward. There was 3@3½c decline, and the market closed at inside prices. Advices from the Northwest were of a weak tenor. It was this influence mainly which caused prices to go lower here. The trade remained of a small order. Early in the week a little business in May delivery transpired. Cash transactions were limited to sales of a car or two a day. Arrivals were increased fairly. As has been the case for some time, cars arriving did not as a rule come on sale. There was a small output. Local stock showed no change, but Northwestern stocks increased about 60,000 bu. Minneapolis decreased 23,383 bu, and Duluth gained 65,172 bu. There were reported stocks as follows:

	1904.	1903.
Chicago, bu	18,722	13,003
Duluth, bu	6,196,471	3,493,836
Minneapolis, bu	1,608,748	1,367,851
Total	7,823,941	4,874,690

Receipts during the week were 108 cars, compared with 46 cars last week, and 29 cars two weeks ago. Taken out of store 5,138 bu, the previous week 4050 bu, and two weeks ago 10,817 bu. No. 1 cash opening at $1 12, declined to $1 08½, and No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest fell from $1 18 to $1 14½. For Rejected there was a nominal range of $1 09@1 12 early, to $1 06@1 08 later, outside for choice Northwestern. Current month delivery was nominally the same as No. 1 cash. May delivery was held early at $1 14½, with $1 13½ bid, it sold later at $1 13½, and declined to $1 10½, closing at latter figure.

Clover—A firm feeling prevailed. Prices were advanced 25c all around. Consignment offerings were small, though receipts were larger than for several weeks. Output did not make so good a showing, still the feeling was firmer here and also at other points. There was open weather and it may have been this to a considerable extent which influenced values. Contract grade was quoted early at $11 25 and later at $11 50. There was none of this offered, and there was little of any grade on the regular market for that matter. After the changes referred to quotations for the different qualities were given as follows: Country lots, common to choice, $8 25@11 25; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $8 50@9 50; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Main run of such lots as come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $9 00@10 50.

Receipts the past week, lbs	342,658
The previous week	270,989
Two weeks ago	210,896
Same time last year	323,790
Shipments the past week, lbs	239,090
The previous week	318,790
Two weeks ago	239,825
Corresponding week last year	510,790

Other Seeds—There has been nothing to enliven the market from its late quietness, for the one condition which is necessary to bring about trade, supply, was not present in the way of fresh offerings to a degree requisite for important trading. Buyers were in evidence and their views suggested a firm feeling; in fact, without trading quotations for several kinds of Millet were raised a trifle and Hungarian remained quoted at the advance of a week ago. Quotations given during the week appear elsewhere.

Receipts—The past week, lbs	678,965
A week ago	663,710
Two weeks ago	448,073
Same time last year	858,610
Shipments—The past week, lbs	1,406,310
A week ago	1,372,028
Two weeks ago	1,448,625

HAY—The receipts for the week were 5,712 tons, against 6,674 tons for the previous week. Shipments for the week were 263 tons, against 234 tons for the previous week. A very dull and depressed market was experienced for both Timothy and Prairie Hay during the past week. The arrivals were heavy and largely in excess of requirements. Only a moderate local demand existed and receivers found great difficulty in disposing of consignments and some lots had to be carried over from day to day. There was no inquiry for shipment. Prices declined about 50c per ton and the market closed weak. Quotations as the close ranged as follows: Choice Timothy, $11 50@12 00; No. 1 Timothy, $10 50@11 00; No. 2 Timothy, $9 00@9 50; No. 3 Timothy, $7 50@8 50; Choice Prairie, $10 00@10 50; No. 1 Prairie, $9 00@9 50; No. 2 Prairie, $8 00@8 50; No. 3 Prairie, $6 00@7 00; No. 4 Prairie, $5 00@5 50. Inside prices on Prairie Hay are for State and outside are for Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa Hay. Sales ranged at $6 00@12 00 for poor to choice; $7 50@8 00 for Clover Hay; $5 50 for Threshed Timothy, $3 00@7 00 for State, and $6 00@10 00 for Iowa Kansas and Nebraska Prairie Hay. Rye Straw sold at $9 00@9 50, Wheat Straw at $7 00, and Oat Straw at $7 00.

COOPERAGE—Only a moderate trade was reported in Cooperage during the past week. Early, the feeling was rather firm, and prices ruled slightly higher for some descriptions. Toward the close, the feeling was not so firm, and prices declined, and the demand slackened. Packers credited with buying in their "shorts" in preference to manufacturing Products. Ash Pork Barrels were in fair request and steady at $1 20@1 22½. Oak Pork Barrels were in fair demand and steadier, with sales at $1 62½@1 65 early, but receded to $1 50@1 55. Lard Tierces were in moderate request and changed hands at $1 82½@1 85 early, but settled back to $1 75@1 80. Iron-bound Lard Tierces were quiet and quotable at $1 50@1 55 for six-hoop and $1 60@1 65 for eight-hoop.

HOGS—The supply of Hogs during the past week was fairly liberal, but not as large as generally anticipated. The quality was not very good—too many light and thin lots for the general wants of the trade. Market in a general way was rather active, but packers were cautious in their purchases in view of the unsettled feeling in Provisions, while shippers provided for fair orders from the Eastern markets. Prices were on the declining scale during the early part of the week—setting back 20@25c on the whole range. Toward the close the feeling was steadier, owing to moderate receipts, and prices rallied 10@15c, but declined suddenly again to inside figures, and the market closed rather easy. Sales during the week were made at $4 70@5 60 for light, $5 05@5 55 for rough packing, $5 00@5 75 for mixed, and $5 25@5 80 for heavy packing and shipping lots, with the bulk of the trading within the range of $5 05@5 65 for fair to good averages. At the close about 10,000 Hogs remained in the pens unsold. Pigs were in good supply and demand was fair. Sales were made at $4 00@5 15, according to size and quality. The receipts of Hogs at the other large Western packing points were fair and quality not very good.

PACKING—A fairly good business was reported in packing circles during the past week. The supply of Hogs was not as large as anticipated and prices ruled lower, with packers inclined to purchase. Fair quantities of Products were manufactured. Mess Pork made moderately. Other cuts of Pork made in fair quantities. Lard produced rather freely, but the average yield was only fair. Bulk of the production placed in tierces. Domestic cuts of Hams made rather freely and only a small proportion sold from the block. Skinned Hams made only moderately and chiefly packed by manufacturers. Foreign cuts of Hams were made sparingly. Shoulders cut in moderate quantities. Picnic Hams made in fair quantities and only a small proportion sold from the block. Long Clear Sides and Extra Long Clear Sides were neglected. Short Clear Sides made in limited quantities. Extra Short Clear Sides made sparingly. Short Rib Sides made moderately by the larger quantities. Extra Short Rib Sides made in limited quantities. Rough Sides cut in fair quantities and chiefly of medium averages. Bellies made moderately. Backs made in fair quantities. Loins cut rather freely to provide for current wants. Foreign fancy and special cuts of Meats made in limited quantities.

PROVISIONS—Another week of unusual activity was developed in the market for Hog Products—the trading being the heaviest witnessed in many months. Offerings were quite liberal and the demand was rather active. Fluctuations in prices were frequent, and while the supply of Hogs and prices therefor had considerable influence on the market in a general way, the changes in the Grain markets and the war news from the East were important factors. The supply on hand at the close of the month was larger than generally anticipated, especially of Lard and Short Rib Sides. In the aggregate the stock of all kinds were enlarged 37,000,000 lbs during February, and are about 62,000,000 lbs more than reported one year ago. Supplies in other large Western markets are considerably larger than returned one year ago. Foreign markets were rather firm, and prices higher early in the week, but toward the close were weaker, and prices in most cases receded again. Domestic markets were rather quiet. Receipts of Products from the interior were fairly liberal, as packers were delivering on March contracts, and the shipments were fairly large and widely distributed. The exports were moderately large, but mainly of goods consigned or previously contracted for. Supply of Hogs in the West were fair, though not as large as generally anticipated. Returns of the packing of the West for the week exhibited an increase of 140,000 Hogs compared with the returns for the corresponding week in 1903. Outside speculative orders were liberal, and local operators and packers traded with more than usual freedom. July attracting more attention than heretofore. "Longs" realized liberally, and the appearance of "stop loss orders" added materially to the depression generally and assisted in reducing prices. Early in the week, the feeling was weak and unsettled, and offerings were liberal, with little output to the market. Prices declined sharply all around. At the decline there was rather more inquiry, mainly from "shorts," and the reduction was partially recovered. Toward the close, the feeling was weaker again, and prices receded to inside figures, and the market in a general way closed steady at nearly inside figures. The demand on shipping account was very light. Buyers for the domestic trade accepted small quantities, and exporters were virtually out of the market. Holders were not forcing much property on the market, and rather slow to grant concessions. Sales were rather light, and prices ruled lower on most descriptions.

Pork—An unusually heavy speculative trade was reported in Mess Pork during the past week. An unsettled feeling prevailed and fluctuations in prices were frequent and quite wide. Trading on behalf of outside parties was very unsatisfactory. Offerings were quite liberal from "longs," professional speculators and packers, while the demand was quite active at times, and mainly from "shorts" or parties who were willing to accept limited profits. Trading confined to May and July contracts, with more interest in the latter. Stocks increased about 19,000 brls during February. Early in the week, the feeling was weak, with considerable pressure to sell, and prices irregularly declined $1 95@2 00 on the whole range. This reduction brought buyers into the market for fair quantities, and a little more steadiness was manifested temporarily. Prices rallied 45@47½c. At the advance, offerings were enlarged again, while the market lacked general support, and prices declined $1 05@1 07½—making a general reduction of $2 55@2 60 for the week. Toward the close, a little more steadiness was manifested, and prices rallied 10@15c, and the market closed comparatively steady. Demand on shipping account was light, and offerings were somewhat limited. Cash lots were generally held at about May figures, and closed steady at $13 87½@14 00. Other cuts of Pork were in moderate request, and offerings were not very large. Prices ruled 25@50c lower on most descriptions.

Lard—Trading in a speculative way was quite active in the Lard market during the past week, and the feeling was considerably unsettled. Prices fluctuated frequently. Foreign advices were a little more favorable to holders early, but lower quotations were reported toward the close. Local supplies were increased about 47,000 tcs during February—much larger than expected—and the world's visible supply was enlarged 50,000 to 60,000 tcs. Offerings were rather free, and the demand was quite active, but somewhat spasmodic.

"Longs" were disposed to realize, and there was quite free selling by professional speculators. "Shorts" accepted fair quantities on the receding scale. Trading chiefly in May and July contracts, with considerable business in the way of transferring contracts. Early in the week, the feeling was rather easy, with considerable pressure to sell from miscellaneous sources, and a weak and unsettled feeling prevailed. Prices irregularly receded 70@75c. At the decline the demand improved temporarily, and prices rallied 20@22½c. At the advance, there was some inclination to realize, and the market lacked support. Prices declined 30@35c on the whole range—making 85@87½c for the week. Toward the close, the feeling was steadier, and prices rallied 2½@5c, and the market closed steady. Demand on shipping account was limited, and offerings were moderate, as holders have generally sold ahead. A few lots were accepted at 17½@20c discount on May, and prices closed at $7 05@7 10. Refined in moderate request in small packages, and offerings not very large. Prices entirely nominal. Loose lots were in light request and offerings were moderate. A few trades were made at 70c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard was in fair request with fair offerings, and prices ruled lower. Sales were made at $6 75@7 37½, and closed at $6 75. Neutral was in fair demand and offerings were rather free. Market easier, and prices lower, closing at $8 25@8 37½ for No. 1, and $7 87½@8 00 for No. 2.

Short Rib Sides—Speculative trading was unusually brisk in the market for Short Rib Sides, and the feeling was unsettled. Prices fluctuated wildly, and within rather wide ranges. Offerings were quite liberal from miscellaneous sources, and the demand was rather active. Trading chiefly in May and July deliveries, with the latter attracting more attention. "Longs" sold freely, and packers favored the selling side to some extent. "Shorts" accepted fair quantities on the receding scale. Stock on hand increased 2,000,000 lbs. during February. Early in the week, the feeling was rather easy, with considerable pressure to sell, and prices declined irregularly 70@72½c. At the reduction there was a fair miscellaneous demand, while the offerings were lighter, and prices rallied 20@22½c. At the advance, there was some pressure to sell, and prices declined 45@50c. Toward the close, the feeling was steadier, and prices rallied 2½@5c, and the market closed comparatively steady. Demand on shipping account was somewhat limited, as buyers were unwilling to meet the views. Holders were slow to grant concessions and offered only moderate quantities. At the close, cash lots were quotable at $7 00@7 12½, according to weight.

Green Meats—Very little business was transacted in Green Meats during the past week. Offerings were somewhat limited, and there was no particular demand from any source. Feeling rather easy, but sellers slow to grant concessions. Buyers and sellers were somewhat apart in views. Local curers not disposed to buy, and outside orders were small. Hams were in small request and prices ruled about ⅛c lower. Skinned Hams were called for very sparingly, and prices quotably ⅛c lower. Shoulders were quiet and prices comparatively steady. Picnic Hams were in light request and prices without material change. Bellies were quiet and prices nearly nominal.

Pickled Meats—Trade in Pickled Meats was on a limited scale during the past week and the undertone to the market was not so firm. Supplies on hand are quite liberal—about 77,000,000 lbs of all kinds compared with 73,000,000 lbs one month ago and 74,000,000 lbs one year ago. Offerings were fair in a quiet way, while the demand was somewhat limited and for moderate quantities. The export demand was extremely light, and the advices from abroad were unfavorable toward the close. Merchants in the domestic trade rather slow to take hold. Hams were in only moderate request and were rather easy at about ⅛c decline. Skinned Hams were in rather light demand with fair offerings, and prices ruled about ⅛c lower. Shoulders were in small request and prices well supported. Picnic Hams were called for moderately and prices inclined in favor of buyers. Bellies were in light request and prices fairly well maintained.

Dry Salted Meats—Rather a light business was transacted in Dry Salted Meats during the past week, and the feeling was easier. Offerings were not very large, and the demand was moderate and for small quantities. Merchants at the leading distributing markets were not inclined to purchase, in view of the uneasiness in the speculative market. Supplies of all kinds were rather large. Holders apparently willing to make slight concessions, but buyers slow to take hold. Foreign markets were quiet and dull, and prices were lower on all descriptions. Foreign cuts of Hams were quiet, and prices favored buyers. Shoulders were in small request and prices ruled slightly lower. Long Clear Sides quiet and prices entirely nominal. Extra Long Clear Sides neglected. Short Clear Sides quiet, and prices inclined in favor of buyers toward the close. Extra Short Clear Sides were called for sparingly, and prices were quotably lower—ranging 15@25c under prices for Short Rib Sides—and closing at about 6⅞@7c. Extra Short Rib Sides were in light request and prices ruled lower—closing at 6⅞@7c. Rough Sides were in moderate request and prices ruled lower—closing at about 6⅝@7⅛c, according to weight. Butts in small demand and prices favored sellers. Bellies were in moderate request and prices ruled rather steady. Backs were in limited demand and prices without material change. Foreign fancy and special cuts of Meats were quiet and prices favored buyers.

Smoked Meats—Trade was fair in the market for Smoked Meats during the past week and the feeling was rather easy. Offerings were not very free and the demand was not very urgent. A few car lots were accepted and the jobbing trade was rather good. Stocks fairly liberal. Orders were chiefly from the Southern markets. Hams were in fair request and prices inclined in favor of buyers. Skinned Hams were in fair request and prices without material change. Picnic Hams in moderate request and prices steady. Shoulders were in small demand and prices unchanged. Sides of all kinds were in moderate demand and prices ⅛@¼c lower. Breakfast Bacon was in fair request and prices favored buyers.

Beef Products—Only a moderate trade was reported in Beef Products during the past week. Offerings were moderate in a quiet way, and the demand was fair. Cattle were in fair supply, and prices well maintained. Manufacture of Products was fair. Foreign markets were steady. Domestic markets rather quiet. Shipments of Dressed Beef were fairly liberal. Beef Hams were in fair request and prices ruled steady. Extra Mess Beef in moderate demand at former figures. Plate Beef quiet and steady. Extra Plate Beef in moderate request, and prices unchanged. Tallow in only fair demand with somewhat limited offerings and prices ruled slightly lower. Oleo-Stearine quiet and steady at former figures—quotable at 7⅛@7¼c.

Greases—Trade was moderate in Greases during the past week. Offerings were not very large, and the demand was fair. Prices ruled steady for all grades.

KANSAS WHEAT CONDITION.

[Kansas City Cor. Northwestern Miller, Feb. 29.]

A summary of reports from the larger Wheat counties in Kansas received Saturday at the office of Secretary Coburn of the Kansas Board of Agriculture, indicates that little of the Wheat has suffered from the prolonged drouth. All of the Wheat is, however, according to these few reports, in real need of rain or snow and is in more or less danger of injury from wind while the ground is in its present dry condition. The crop as a whole is reported in much better condition than is to be expected after the long drouth and a more or less cheerful view is taken of the outlook. Millers who were in town at the meeting Friday all reported much the same condition in fields observed by them and as instanced by reports of farmers. The ground is as dry as possible but with absence of winds while the surface is dry and rain or snow within the next month in liberal quantity, no occasion for alarm is afforded. None of the Wheat is growing.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The dry weather in the Southwest continues. No precipitation shown on the map this morning in Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma or Texas. Map shows very little precipitation anywhere. A few very light snows in Dakotas, Minnesota and Nebraska. Temperatures are mild West and Southwest—above freezing generally over the Corn belt. No cold weather is indicated.

Indications are the storm will advance Eastward with rain or snow. Moderate temperatures will continue.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

Business failures in the United States and Canada for the past week were 263 against 262 the previous week and 245 for the corresponding week last year.

Bank Clearings of the leading financial centers of the United States for the past week aggregated $1,967,687,202, a decrease of 18.2 per cent compared with the corresponding week last year.

The directors of the Railway Steel Spring Company, Thursday, declared a 2 per cent dividend upon the common stock of the company. This is the first dividend ever paid upon this stock.

The Chicago Junction Railway and Union Stock Yards Company has declared the regular quarterly dividends of 1½ per cent on its preferred stock and 2 per cent on its common stock, payable April 1. Books close March 11, reopen April 2.

The Committee on Securities of the New York Stock Exchange has rescinded its action taken last Monday in regard to the Erie voting trust certificates not being a good delivery when dated after Feb. 29. Certificates of any date are now a good delivery.

A director of the American Locomotive Company states that the present winter has been equal to three ordinary winters in the amount of wear and tear done to locomotives of the various railroads. He is also quoted as saying that just the repair work in sight will yield enough profit to pay all the preferred dividends for a full year to come.

The Peoria and Pekin Terminal Railway was declared a bankrupt by Judge Green in the Circuit Court of Peoria County, Ill., Thursday, on a petition filed by Lewis E. Myers. Myers alleged that the sum of $30,000 had been lost by the company in the operating expenses during the last year and alleged that it was indebted to him in the sum of $47,000.

The United States Steel Corporation during the five months ending Feb. 29 failed to make its full 7 per cent dividend on the preferred stock by not less than $4,000,000. For the five months ending Feb. 29 the net earnings of the corporation are estimated below $23,000,000, the most liberal figures from usually reliable sources giving $22,815,012 as the best showing possible.

The securities committee of the Lake Street Elevated Railroad, Chicago, has extended to April 5 the time for receiving deposits of the road's securities with the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank, under the reorganization plan. Good progress has been made in securing deposits, and a very large majority of all the securities of the road are now pledged to the plan.

A telegram from San Francisco, Cal., says: "George M. Pinney, well known in the United States and Europe as a mining broker and stock speculator, filed a petition in bankruptcy Thursday. His liabilities are $92,000, with nominal assets of $1,100 worth of mining stocks. The principal creditors are English brokers who loaned Pinney money on promissory notes."

The public debt, less cash in the treasury at the close of business Feb. 29, was increased by $2,972,-601 in the month of February, according to the monthly statement. The increase is accounted for by a decrease in the amount of cash in the treasury, which was $962,691,859. Less this amount, the debt was $918,031,634. The cash balance on hand amounted to $372,078,505.

Disbursements by industrial corporations for dividends in March will fall short of those in the same month last year, the declarations already made involving about $21,100,000, which compares with $31,283,400 in 1903. This is explained partly by the passing of the United States Steel Corporation's common stock dividend and the reduced payment of the Standard Oil Company.

The Corn Trade News of Feb. 24 says: "The weather in France to-day maintains the improvement noted since the beginning of the week. Our Dieppe correspondent writes that the crop there continues to look well, and he is of opinion that growers hold liberal reserves; however, they are offering little at present, and if they once get busy with seeding work offers are likely to keep small for a time."

A Boston dispatch says: "A petition in bankruptcy was filed here, Thursday, by Richard Sibley, manager of a large molasses importing concern. Mr. Sibley estimates his total liabilities at $151,329, with practically no assets. His embarrassment is said to be due to his connection with the Bay State Distillery Company and its successor, the Great White Spirit Company of Boston, now defunct."

The Government's total receipts for the month of February were $45,895,400 and the expenditures $42,651,772, leaving a surplus for the month of $3,240,634. The surplus for February, 1903, was $5,250,000. Customs receipts showed a decrease of $1,000,000 and internal revenue receipts an increase of $2,100,000. War Department expenditures showed an increase of $1,100,000, and Navy Department expenditures an increase of $2,000,000.

The Review of the River Plate says: "Owing to the want of rain, the Corn crop in the Lincoln district is stated to be nearly a total loss. Advices from Toay, Pampa Central, state that both Wheat and Flax Seed have given excellent results, while recent rains have secured the Corn crop. The district of Santa Rosa, Mendoza, was visited early last week by a cyclone of some violence, followed by a formidable hailstorm, which destroyed the vines and the Corn crops."

The annual report of the Railway Steel Spring Company is said to be an exceptionally good one, showing something like $800,000 added to surplus during the year. The directors claim that the action taken in regard to the common dividend was justified by the showing of the corporation in the matter of earnings. The company was organized in February, 1902, and has a capital stock of $30,000,000, of which $15,000,000 is preferred and $15,-000,000 common.

A Chicago banking firm has purchased $5,000,000 of the new issue of refunding and extension mortgage 5 per cent thirty-year bonds of the Laclede Gas Light Company of St. Louis. The mortgage securing the bonds will authorize a total issue of $20,000,000, of which $10,000,000 will be reserved to refund at maturity the present outstanding bonds. The present capital stock of $11,000,000 will be increased by an authorized issue of $9,000,000 additional, making the total authorized capital stock $20,000,000.

The London Times of Feb. 20 says: "The effects of the war are already beginning to make themselves felt upon Russia's commercial relations with Germany. It is reported from Konigsberg that the importation of Grain from Russia into Germany has come to a standstill. Grain merchants in Eydtkuhnen and other towns are unable to obtain the execution of their orders, as the Russian Government has diverted all the rolling stock of the State railways to its own use. The German export trade is also affected by the war."

While the Lake Street Elevated Railroad, Chicago, carried a larger number of passengers in the month of February than in February a year ago, owing to the larger number of days in the month this year than last, the daily average for last February was a little smaller than in February, 1903. The total passengers carried on the main line during February was 1,238,744, as compared with 1,201,-699 in February, 1903. Including transfers, the total passengers for February were 1,281,890, as compared with 1,242,895 in February, 1904.

Mark Lane Express of Feb. 22 says: "The growing Wheat in England is not only weak and thin but backward also. No real start has yet been made with the sowing of Spring Grain, and threshings have been impeded, or at least rendered very inadvisable, owing to the prevailing humidity of the atmosphere. Since the 18th the difference between the wet and dry bulbs of the hygrometer has increased, but this good sign needs to be continued for a week at least before we can say with confidence that the time favors the drill, or its equivalent."

An officer of the American Steel and Wire Company was quoted, Thursday, as follows: "Business is large and we are several weeks behind in delivery. The recent increase in the price amounting to $1.00 per ton had no appreciable effect so far as curtailing demand was concerned. Our prices are still below those which prevailed at the end of last year, when reductions of from $1.60 to $3.00 per ton were made. While we have not been advised, it would not be surprising if the year-end prices were restored. The trade is in healthy condition and would no doubt stand it without serious effect."

Inside interests estimate the General Electric Company's productive capacity at about $10,000,-000 a year, and they will be very well satisfied if the gross business for the fiscal year ending Jan. 31, 1905, equals that total. The business for the year ended Jan. 31, 1904, was considerably in excess of that amount and the company showed a balance after the deduction of expenses and depreciation equivalent to about 27 per cent upon the outstanding capital of the company. This is on the basis of net earnings of about $10,000,000, but until the directors have decided how much they will charge off for depreciation the actual net showing will be a matter of question.

There is still a difference of opinion among those in authority in the United States Realty Corporation as to the exact form which the plan of the reorganization of the company's finances will take. It is more than probable that the announcement of the plan will be deferred for some time to come. One party holds that 70 per cent in 4½ per cent bonds is a little more than the holders of preferred stock could reasonably expect. The new stock that will be issued, being of one kind only, will be valuable, and the bonds should command a good figure. The original plan was to give 70 per cent in bonds, and the amendment offered to that was to reduce the amount of bonds to 45 per cent. It is probable that a compromise on 50 per cent of bonds will be agreed upon.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS

FLOUR There is little change to note. Buyers still inclined to await more settled conditions and sales very moderate.

WINTER WHEAT—Was 1@2c lower and the demand moderate. Millers not taking hold so readily and the buying was to some extent by speculators. No 2 Red in store quotable at 92@95¾c, and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at $1 00@1 03. No 3 Red sold at $1 01@1 03—outside very choice No. 4 Red sold at 90c. No 2 Hard local sold at 95@97c, and quotable at the river at 90@9 c. No 3 Hard local sold at 83@93c and at the river at 81½c—the latter ranged at 79@91c. No. 4 Hard sold at 79c No 3 White sold at $1 0 @1 02.

SPRING WHEAT The market was quiet and prices 1@2c lower Millers indifferent about buying and none of the buyers particularly anxious. Receipts small. No. 1 Northern in store quotable at 90¼@98¾c and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 94@98c No 3 Spring sold at 81@9 c for poor to good. No 4 Spring sold at 6 @7fe for poor to fair and ranged up to 88c for choice

REGULAR WHEAT—The trade was more moderate in volume but the market nevertheless was rather unsettled, with final figures 2⅝c lower for the May while July lost 2¼c and the September 1⅜c. Foreign markets were weak, the map showed quite general rains through Illinois, Missouri, Indiana and Ohio and statistics generally construed as rather "bearish." World's shipments were 10,112,000 bu against 10 800 000 bu the previous week and 10 232 000 bu one year ago. The quantity on ocean passage increased 2,232,000 bu, and is now 39 6,4,000 bu, or 7 288,000 bu larger than a year ago. Liverpool was steady to ⅛d lower for spot and ¾@⅞d lower for futures. Stocks there 1,928,000 bu, increased 72,000 bu the past week. Private cables stated the Liverpool weakness was on the fine grading of Argentine Wheat supplies. London was ¼@⅜d lower and Paris ¼c lower to ¼c higher. Primary receipts were 260,000 bu larger than a year ago Kansas City and St Louis received 204,000 bu, against 63 000 bu last year Shipments 121,000 bu. Receipts in the Northwest exceeded those of last year by 18 cars. The Orange Judd Farmer reported 157,00 ,000 bu on the farms March 1 compared with 198,000,000 bu last year Private Liverpool cables stated the Argentine strike has been settled, and was considered a "bear" factor. Numerous stop loss orders were executed on the break, which was not checked until the May touched 93¼c and while the July sold to 89⅝c. The visible supply decreased 941 000 bu, against 1,000,000 bu decrease one year ago Total is now 34,6 8, 00 bu, against 46,7 7 00 bu in 1903 and 53,15 ,000 bu in 1902 Local public stocks decreased 17 000 bu, to 2 900,000 bu against 7,641,000 bu one year ago. Clearings were moderate and only 11 boat loads accepted at the seaboard Fair and milder weather was generally predicted. British consols closed ⅛ lower. Private crop reports from the West and Southwest were quite "bullish" Receipts at Duluth 43 cars and at Minneapolis 557 cars, a total of 600, against 306 cars Saturday 577 cars a week ago and 532 cars last year. Local receipts included 20 cars Winter, 13 cars Spring and 1 car mixed, a total of 34 cars, against 36 cars last year Included in the above were none of contract grade. There were 10 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 50 cars Withdrawals were 1,000 bu. Receipts at Western points were 845,274 bu, against 585,548 bu last year. At Eastern points 48,454 bu, against 84,147 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 221,771 bu, against 207,754 bu last year, and from Eastern points 184,371 bu, against 577,094 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 25,869 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 310,081 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Good trade at lower prices

CORN—Was rather nervous and unsettled, the market responding readily to both the buying and selling with last prices showing the May ⅛c higher, July off ⅛@¼c and September ⅛c lower. Buying July and selling May at 1¾@2 spread was a feature. The Orange Judd Farmer report on farm reserves March 1 showed some 846 000,000 bu, or 36.6 per cent, as against 1,033 000,000 bu March 1, 1903, and was looked upon as rather "bullish." Cables, too, were firm, Liverpool quoting futures ⅛@⅜d higher, while spot was unchanged to ½d lower. Stocks there, 711 000 bu, increased 17,000 bu last week. World's shipments larger at 3 937,000 bu, against 2,473,100 bu the previous week and 4,5 1,000 bu one year ago The quantity on ocean passage increased 901,000 bu to 10,329,000 bu, as against 8,488,000 bu same date in 1903. The visible increased 384 000 bu, while a year ago the increase was 1 072,000 bu. Present total 9,177,000 bu, compared with 11,291,000 bu in 1903 and 10,085,000 bu in 1902. Local public stocks increased 25 ,000 bu to 3 019 000 bu, compared with 3,946,000 bu same date in 1903. Receipts were 182 cars, with 1 7 cars low grades, against 339 cars one year ago when 159 cars were low grade Estimates for to-morrow 275 cars. Exports were 202,000 bu, against 1,104,000 bu same date in 1903. Western receipts were 574,000 bu; last year 645,000 bu. Shipments 301 000 bu and 476,000 bu respectively. Local arrivals 254 000 bu or 100,000 bu more than the shipments Seaboard reported 8 boat loads accepted, and cash sales here 50 000 bu. Transfers from private to public elevators 15,400 bu and 126 cars. Fair and warmer weather was generally predicted. Southwestern markets were steady. Car lots were in rather larger supply and fair demand. Prices were firmer. No. 2 sold at 51c and closed about 50¾c, and No. 2 Yellow at 51¾c. No. 3 sold at 51c for old and closed at 42½@50¼c. No. 3 Yellow sold at 52½c for old, and closed at 44½@51¼c. No. 4 sold at 39c and No Grade at 31@34c.

Corn by sample—Offerings were somewhat larger and demand improved. Early sales showed ½c advance but later the gain was lost. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 30@37c. No. 4 at 38@42c. No 3 at 45@45c. No. 3 Yellow at 45@45½c No. 2 Yellow at 53⅝@54c No. 3 White at 43c. No. 2 White at 54c. Ears at 38@40c. Billed through: No Grade at 30@35c. No. 4 at 30@41c. No. 3 at 41½@44c. No. 3 Yellow at 43½@45c. No. 3 White at 41½@42c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Moderately active and prices irregular, closing ⅛c higher to ⅛@¼c lower.

MARCH—Inactive. Sold at 50⅝c and 50¾c and closed about 51c nominally.

MAY—Sold at 53⅜c and 54⅛@54¼c Opened at 53½c to 53¾c, and sold at 53⅝c, to 53⅞@54c, to 53¾c, to 54⅛@54¼c, to 53⅜c, to 54⅛c, to 53⅜c, to 53¾@53⅞c, to 53½@53⅝c, to 54⅛c, to 53⅞c, to 54c, to 53½c, to 54c, to 53¾c, to 53¾@53⅞c, and closed at 53¾@53⅞c

JULY—Sold at 51⅛@52⅜c. Opened at 51¾c to 52c and sold at 5 @52⅛c, to 51⅞c, to 52⅛@52¼c, to 52c, to 52¼c, to 51⅜c, to 52c, to 51⅞c, to 52⅜c, to 51⅝@51¾c, to 52c, to 51¼c, to 51¾@51⅞c, and closed at 51¾@51⅞c

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 50⅝c and 51⅛@51¼c Opened at 50¾c to 51c—only few sales at 50⅝c, and sold at 50⅞c, to 51¼c to 50¾c, to 51⅛@51¼c, to 50⅝c, to 50¾c and closed at 50¾c.

OATS—Were active and unsettled There was good buying, which turned a weak opening into a strong market, and prices advanced ¾@1¾c. The advance was started by the large purchases for several local operators, one going "long" and the other covering "shorts" May took the lead and advanced 1¾c. The advance was also helped by the Orange Judd Farmer's report on farm reserves March 1, which were 258,000,000 bu, against 369,000,000 bu corresponding time last year. The percentage is the smallest in ten years, except 1902 Weakness in other Grains caused a reaction of ¾@⅞c and closing sales were at a net gain of ⅛@⅞c. Local stocks in public houses increased 545,000 bu and are 2 707,000 bu. The visible supply increased 440,000 bu Arrivals were 256 cars, with 3 0 cars expected to-morrow There was 32 cars and 51,05 bu Standard from private to public houses Seaboard clearances 31 000 bu Car lots to go to store ½c higher No 4 White sold at 40c. No. 3 White at 41½@42c Standard in store closed about 41@41½c as to location. Cash sales were 50 000 bu

Oats by sample were in fair request, with supplies liberal and prices steady to ½c higher. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade at 30c. No. 4 at 38@39c No. 4 White at 35½@41½c. No. 3 at 39½@41½c No. 3 White at 40@43c Standard at 43@43¾c No 2 at 39½c Billed through: No 4 at 37c. No 4 White at 40@42c. No 3 White at 41½@42½c. Standard at 42½@43c. No 2 at 39½c. No 2 White at 41½@44c. At the river: No Grade at 34¼c No 4 at 36½c. No. 4 White at 30@39½c. No. 3 White at 36@41c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats Were active and advanced, but reacted although closing higher.

MARCH—Inactive; closed about 41c.

MAY—Active. Sold at 41⅛@42⅞c. Opened at 41⅛c to 41¼c; sold to 42⅞c, to 42⅛c at close

JULY—Active. Sold at 39⅝@40⅜c. Opened at 39½c to 39⅝c, sold to 39⅜c, to 40⅜c, to 39⅝@39¾c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 34@34¾c. Opened at 34c, sold to 34¾c to 34c at close.

RYE The market was a little irregular and prices ½@1c lower Trading light. There were fair offerings and not much demand. The receipts were six cars No withdrawals from store here and no export clearances from the seaboard The visible supply decreased 12,000 bu and local stock increased 1 000 bu No 2 in store nominally 71½c and fresh arrivals to go to store sold at 73@73½c, and free on board at 73@74c No 3 sold at 60c and No 4 at 56c

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye Ruled weaker and May ½@1c lower. March nominally 71½c May sold at 73½c to 73c, to 71c and closed at 73½c sellers and 73c bid July 72c asked

BARLEY Low grades as a rule were heavy Maltsters did not seem to care for them and they bid lower Holders were slow to accept these bids or the bids of mixers Latter, however, did get some cars that often would go for malting. Fair to good qualities remained about steady Offerings of these very moderate and there were buyers for all. No choice or fancy Barley on sale Market for such grades entirely nominal Seventy-nine cars inspected in. There were 223 000 bu decrease in the visible, and about 18,000 bu reduction in local stock. Prices for Screenings quotable at 32@42c for poor to fancy and poor goods slow sale. Barley, feed or mixing quotable at 38@41c local, depending on soundness and color. Inside musty. River billed sold at 38@39½c at 38@38½c mainly Malting, low grade, 41@42c; common 44@46c Fair was about 45@47c; good, 48@50c, choice, 52@55c; fancy nominally higher, possibly 56@60c if just the right kind; not offered.

SEEDS—A shade lower prices prevailed in the Flax market, but Grass Seeds were all steady and unchanged General trade quiet.

Timothy—This market ruled about steady Nothing new developed Cash offerings very moderate and quality uneven, mainly fair to choice but there was some poor, also a little fancy Demand seemed tame, nothing urgent about it. Country lots quotable at $2 25@3 00 for poor to fancy; fair to good at $2 50@2 65, choice $2 70@2 75 and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 10@2 45; tailings lower. Nothing was done in futures March held at $3 12½, but quoted as nominally about $3 05. May was called about $3 15

Flax—An easy feeling prevailed with about ½c decline in prices compared with Saturday. The market was easier up North Little business was done, a few cars and some bag lots were sold no trading in futures Receipts larger, 48 cars or 41,000 bu; only 13 cars inspected one car or 1 000 bu taken out Minneapolis got 72 cars, and Duluth 40 cars No 1 Northwestern or No 1 from the Northwest quotable at $1 14, a couple of cars sold and some bag lots delivered at $1 11. No. 1 was $1 18 bid. Rejected nominally $1 00@1 08, outside for choice Northwestern March quotable at $1 08 bid. May was $1 16 bid

Clover Market quotably steady and firm, with small lots of low grade to good Seed offered and these sold at $ 00@10 25. No change in the general market was quotable Contract spot and March delivery quotable at $11 65. Country lots, common to choice, $8 25@11 40; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $8 00@9 50, poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Main run of such lots as come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $9 50@10 75.

Other Seeds—Were nominally steady and firm and quotable as follows: Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark at $1 60@1 90. Common Millet $1 00@1 60 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 40. Siberian, 85c@$1 05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c Mustard, 85c@$1 65 Buckwheat, good milling, salable at $1 35@1 40.

HOG PRODUCTS—Only a fair business was reported in Hog Products and the feeling was somewhat unsettled and prices irregular. Outside orders were only fair, and trading on local account was not so brisk Offerings in a general way were fair and the demand was moderately active. Hogs were in moderate supply and prices higher, and this feature tended to a little strength early in the day. Receipts at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 48 300, compared with 55,0 0 one year ago. Foreign advices indicated a quiet feeling in that quarter. Quotations were advanced 6d on Lard and reduced 6d on Backs. Domestic markets were quiet and steady. CROPS IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

[From Broomhall's Corn Trade News, Feb. 23.]

United Kingdom—In some districts of the United Kingdom especially in the South of England, the weather of the past week has not been so wet, and locally we have had two or three days with little or no rain. We learn that although seeding has continued to be practically impossible yet on light soils in the South, the plow has been kept at work and much land turned up. Given a week or so of dry weather the drills would soon be busy and, under favorable conditions, they can cover a lot of ground in a short time. The present advance in prices may encourage farmers to increase the small Wheat acreage put in last fall, provided we should get a fine and dry March, but very little is heard of Spring Wheat seeding at present, and there is no doubt that all heavy land must be in a shocking state.

Russia—Latest crop news is varied, but, on the whole, perhaps less pessimistic. The weather is mild and people are looking forward anxiously to the spring. Several of our advices contain mention of the scarcity of railway locomotives and wagons which have been taken from their usual work to transport soldiers and war material over the Siberian line to the far East. This has naturally caused a further reduction in the already meagre supplies, so that estimates of port stocks have been reduced rather sharply. Shipments last week were smaller, but still fair; good quantities have been sold from store on the advance, and these should serve to maintain the shipping movement for a time, after which the quantities should fall off unless water-borne arrivals are then available in good quantities.

Roumania—The Ministry of Domains has reported favorably of crop conditions, and our correspondents at Braila also continue to say that the crops are progressing favorably. Shipments last week showed a fair increase but stocks are light and only small quantities are arriving at the ports; no doubt there will be more material when the lighter traffic gets into full swing again, but that is not expected to be very soon.

Austria-Hungary—Some rather heavy rains fell last week, but, on the whole, the weather was considered favorable for agriculture. Owing to the recent reopening of navigation arrivals have been increased by Grain that had been wintering in various ports, but other arrivals decreased by reason of bad roads.

Argentina—Favorable accounts of the Corn crop continue to be received. The Wheat movement is liberal—good quantities are being shipped and stocks are increasing fast. There is, however, some fear that the movement to ports may be interrupted by a railway strike.

Australasia—There is no fresh news regarding the harvest. Shipments continue on a liberal scale and the total is already well over 8,000,000 bu.

India—Reports concerning the crops continue to say that prospects are favorable. A good business has been done lately and shipments are fair for the time of year.

France—The weather this week has taken a turn for the better, but last week was again very wet, causing further complaints of delay to field work; there are also complaints that the fields are infested with weeds and that insect pests have caused some damage. Offerings on country markets have become smaller and prices have been further raised about 1s per quarter.

Italy—The Ministry of Agriculture has reported that wet weather continued to prevail in the early part of this month, but did not hurt the Wheat crop, except where the heavy rains of December and January had already had a bad influence.

Spain—There have been heavy rains and storms lately, which have caused some floods and given rise to complaints about the crops; however, our Barcelona correspondent thinks that, on the whole, crop conditions are still satisfactory.

Germany—The weather last week was again mild and wet. This weather is not regarded with general favor, but so far there are no serious complaints. Native Wheat is now offered but sparingly. There are rumors that Russia may be induced to negotiate a commercial treaty with Germany, based on much higher Grain duties, in order to secure Germany's moral support in the present war. This has influenced the market, because if such a treaty were negotiated, the trade might find itself with greatly increased import duties at a comparatively early date.

North Africa—Crop reports remain satisfactory.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The Southwest missed the rains and snows which were predicted in the Saturday forecast. There was one light rain in Kansas—Dodge City .04, but this was all the precipitation Kansas had and Oklahoma had none. There were general rains from Missouri Eastward on the Sunday map and the map this morning shows general rains from Eastern Missouri Eastward through Illinois, Ohio, Indiana and Tennessee. There is some rainfall on the eastern edge of Iowa. No rainfall in the Southwest—Kansas or Oklahoma. Temperatures are mild—under freezing West and Southwest.

Indications are for fair weather with moderate temperatures.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

A fire, Friday, at Halifax, N. C., caused a loss of $60,000.

A fire, Sunday, at Elmira, N. Y., caused a loss of $118,000.

The Burkeville, Mass., Woolen Mill was destroyed by fire, Sunday. Loss, $75,000.

A loss of $25,000 was caused by the burning of the Christianson Block at Fargo, N. D., Sunday.

The Lexerd Apartment Building, Chicago, was damaged by fire, Friday, to the extent of $30,000.

The general office building of the New York Central Railroad at Oswego, N. Y., was destroyed by fire, Sunday, with a loss of $100,000.

Fire insurance rates on risks in the congested districts of large cities are to be advanced, according to the New York Journal of Commerce.

Directors of the Corn Exchange National Bank, Chicago, have declared the regular quarterly dividend of 3 per cent, payable April 1 to stockholders of record March 2.

A referee in bankruptcy at Chicago, Friday, entered an order adjudging the American Malleable Iron Company, which was incorporated in 1902 for $200,000, bankrupt.

The United States Shipbuilding Company's first-mortgage bonds have been stricken from the New York Stock Exchange list. Most of these bonds are deposited with the reorganization committee, and are represented by certificates of deposit.

If it is true that the Reading intends to pay off $3,600,000 Reading Coal trust certificates of the Coal and Iron company out of cash on hand without issuing any new obligations, as it is entitled to do, it indicates a strong condition, and speaks well for the prosperity of anthracite companies.

San Francisco correspondent of the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN says: "During February had good rains in Sacramento Valley, fair rains in San Joaquin Valley, especially in northern part, and fair rains in coast counties of Southern California. Crop conditions generally better than on February 1."

The surplus earnings of the Delaware and Hudson for January, after all expenses and the month's proportion of fixed charges, are equal to 1 percent on the outstanding stock. Results for February, while not yet accurately computed, are likely to prove about as good as those for the preceding month.

Imports of Specie at New York this week were $115,910 Gold and $4,247 Silver. Total, $120,157, against $268,357 in same period last year. Exports of Specie from that port to all countries for this week $1,040,013 Silver and $251,355 Gold. Total $1,291,368, against $841,563 Gold and Silver in same week last year.

A number of the Cotton mills in Mexico have announced their intention of temporarily shutting down, owing to the increased price of raw material. The owners say the increase they would have to make in the prices of their goods to work at a profit makes it impossible to continue to manufacture Cotton goods in that country on the present basis.

March 10 is the date set by the reorganization committee of United States Shipbuilding as the extension of time for bondholders to deposit their bonds in favor of the plan. The extension is for the benefit only of first mortgage bondholders, all the $10,000,000 second mortgage bonds having been deposited. There have been 82 per cent of the first mortgage bonds deposited.

The gross earnings of nineteen roads for the third week of February were $1,566,126, against $1,595,513 for the third week of February, 1903, a decrease of $29,387. Ten roads show increases and nine decreases. Since July 1 the roads referred to above earned $147,917,615, an increase of $10,069,943 over the $137,847,672 reported for the corresponding period last year. For the longer period eighteen roads show increases and one a decrease.

The Standard Oil Company, Friday, cut the price of Petroleum 3c a barrel on all high grades and 2c on the lower grades. This is the second reduction of 3c this week, making a total of 6c. The prices are follows: Pennsylvania, $1 74; Tiona, $1 90; Corning, $1 54; Newcastle, $1 59; Cabell, $1 49; North Lima, $1 26; South Lima and Indiana, $1 21; Somerset, $1 20; Raglan, 84c. The Producers and Refiners' Oil Company quotes $1 75 for Pennsylvania crude.

At a meeting of holders of the first mortgage bonds and other securities of the Standard Rope and Twine Company James Talcott was elected chairman of the meeting and Joseph Taylor the secretary. After statements by John L. Cadwalader, counsel for the trustee of the first mortgage bonds, and James Hunt, counsel for the opposing bondholders, it was decided that the chairman should appoint a committee of five to confer with the trustees and devise means to protect the interests of all security holders.

A dispatch from the City of Mexico says: "It is believed that there will be no necessity for increasing or decreasing the import tax on Wheat from the United States this year, as all advices received here indicate that there will be sufficient Wheat raised this year for all needs. Last year Mexico imported 1,200,000 bu of Wheat from the northern republic. The millers have been considering the question of asking the government to remove the duty, but the good crop reports which are coming in will make this unnecessary."

A prominent manufacturer of finished Steel products who is well informed as to Steel matters in general says: "When the United States Steel Corporation was formed it controlled about 85 per cent of the Steel product of the United States, but a $15 per ton profit on Steel was too tempting for capital to withstand, and new Steel plants have sprung up until to-day I am buying Steel billets from twenty-two independent concerns and I figure that the United States Steel Corporation now controls less than 65 per cent of the Steel product of the country." He says many of the Steelmakers who made paper millions in the consolidation have been hit hard by the stock slump, and will be driven back into the Steel business.

FLOUR—Buyers and sellers apart so far as the foreign trade is concerned and only a moderate business doing on domestic account

WINTER WHEAT—Ruled 1@3c lower and at the decline a good demand existed for the fresh arrivals, especially of choice Wheat. No. 2 Red in store quotable at 89¾@95½c and fresh arrivals free on board sold at $1 01 No. 3 Red fresh arrivals free on board quotably 98c@$1 00. No. 4 Red sold at 72c. No. 2 Hard local sold at 90c and ranged at the river at 87@89c. No. 3 Hard local sold at 78@88c and ranged at the river at 78@87c. No. 4 Hard local sold at 72@87c—outside for choice.

SPRING WHEAT—Was quotably 1@3c lower and at this decline there was a fair demand from the usual buyers. Poor Wheat alone was slow sale. No. 1 Northern in store quotably 88¾@91½c and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 90@94c. No. 2 Spring sold at 90c. No 3 Spring local sold at 85@91c, and ranged at 80@92c for poor to choice. No 4 Spring sold at 5.@67c, and was quotable at 5¾@8 c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—Losses of 1¾@2¼c were scored for the day, but there were signs of some reactionary power from the lowest levels reached. The "bears," however, seemed to have the best of the day, the "bulls" showing a disposition in the absence of liberal export takings to allow the market to take its own course for the moment. The seaboard reported 15 loads taken for export. This market showed considerable strength, but less activity, during the early hours of the session, the influences being the continuation of the Argentine strike and the accumulation of vessel tonnage at the ports in that country. The fact that portions of the Southwest are still without moisture was also a help. There were numerous messages from the Southwest telling of damage in some sections, but they were not of a pronounced character and failed to help the market a great deal. Another important influence was the continued small business on outside account and the lack of buying orders when the offerings showed signs of increasing. On the early advance there was "long" Wheat to come out and around the stop-loss orders were uncovered, and the market broke sharply for all descriptions. There was no direct encouragement from markets across the waters. They were all lower. Paris showed a loss of 1c per bu. Antwerp was off equal to ⅝c. London declined ½@1d and Liverpool dropped ⅜d to ¾d. Those who bought on the strength in the coarse Grains were prominent as sellers on the break. The selling was led by one of the large local professionals. Consols closed fractionally lower. A Hamburg cable reported the new crop of Wheat as damaged by rain by day and by frost by night, with the market there quite sensitive. In the United Kingdom the crop conditions continue extremely poor. French Wheat is looking better. Russian crops under snow cover, recent improved weather having again changed to wintry conditions. Outlook in Bulgaria, Roumania and Hungary favorable owing to recent rains and snow. No serious crop complaints in Germany. The world's available supply as compiled by Bradstreet's showed a decrease of 429,000 bu for the week, compared with a decrease of 2,477,000 bu a year ago. There are now in Chicago houses 5,607,000 bu compared with 11,2.5,000 bu a year ago. Contract stocks here are 1,721,428 bu, a decrease of 2,894 bu for the week. The total a week ago was 1,724,322 bu, and a year ago 3,562,047 bu. While primary receipts exceeded those of last year by 117,000 bu, those in the Northwest were 108 cars smaller. Receipts at Duluth 71 cars and at Minneapolis 189 cars, a total of 260, against 600 cars yesterday, 319 cars a week ago, and 368 cars last year. Local receipts included 41 cars Winter, 15 cars Spring and no mixed, a total of 56 cars, against 31 cars last year. Included in the above were 5 cars of contract grade. There were 10 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 30 cars. Withdrawals were 18,250 bu. Receipts at Western points were 631,016 bu against 513,9.3 bu last year. At Eastern points 70,175 bu, against 96,452 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 407,107 bu, against 164,693 bu last year, and from Eastern points 1,600 bu, against 63,371 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 18,079 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 217,055 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Active trade at much lower prices.

MARCH—Entirely nominal, closed about 88¾c.

MAY—Sold at 91¾@94½c. Opened with sales at 93½c to 94½c; sold to 93¾c, to 94½c, to 92c, to 93¼c, to 92½c, to 93¼c, to 91¾c, to 92c, to 91¾c, and closed at 91¾c.

JULY—Old Style—Sold at 88⅞@91¾c. Opened with sales at 91¼c to 91½c, sold to 91⅛c, to 90⅞c, to 91¾c, to 90¼c, to 90½c, to 89½c, to 90c, to 89½c, to 90c, to 89¾c, to 90¼c, to 89¾c, to 90⅛c, to 89⅞@89¼c, to 89⅞c, to 89¼@89⅝c, and closed at 89¼@89⅝c.

JULY—New Style—Sold at 87⅝@90½c. Opened with sales at 89¾c to 90¼c; sold to 89⅞c, to 90½c, to 89c, to 89¼c, to 88⅛c, to 89c, to 88½c, to 89c, to 88¼c, to 88¾c, to 88½c, to 87⅞c, to 87⅝c, to 88⅛c, to 87⅝@87¾c, to 88c, and closed at 88c sellers.

SEPTEMBER—Old Style—Sold at 81⅞@86½c. Opened with sales at 86¼c to 86½c; sold to 86⅜c, to 85⅞c, to 86½c, to 84¾c, to 85c, to 84⅝c, to 85c, to 83⅞c, to 84¼c, and closed at 84@84⅛c.

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 82¾@85½c—only one sale at 82¾c. Opened with sales at 85¼c to 85½c; sold to 84⅞c, to 85⅜c, to 83½c, to 84⅛c, to 83¼c, to 84c, to 83⅝c, to 83⅞c, to 83c, to 83⅛c, to 82¾c, to 83⅛c, and closed at 83⅛c.

CORN—The market closed ¼@¾c lower, showing but very little recovery from the lowest prices reached. One of the noticeable features was the lack of support on the declines established, the "longs" allowing the market to take care of itself. The cash business was small, being confined to 75,000 bu at Chicago and 5 loads at the seaboard. There was a brisk demand from "shorts," with the offerings only moderate and the early prices up sharply. The people in Provisions who have adhered to the "bear" side of Corn for some time were on the buying side in a liberal manner. The room trading element took on Corn in large amounts. The commission trade was quite active and the market more sensitive than at any time in weeks. Liverpool was reported as ¼@⅜d higher for futures, and the spot was up ½d. Bad weather was reported from Argentina and the Corn crop is likely to suffer in consequence. The world's available supply decreased 234,000 bu for the week, compared with an increase of 242,000 bu a year ago. Local inspection was 282 cars, with 8 No. 2, transfers 23,000 bu and 141 cars. Primary receipts 628,000 bu; shipments 469,000 bu, compared with 936,000 bu and 634,000 bu respectively a year ago. Total stocks in Chicago houses 7,638,000 bu, against 7,571,000 bu a year ago. Contract stocks in Chicago increased 209,000 bu for the week and are now 2,784,600 bu, compared with 2,319,000 bu a year ago. Car lots firm to 1c higher. No. 2 sold at 52c, and closed at 51¼c. No. 2 Yellow closed at 51¼c. No. 3 closed at 49@50¾c. No. 3 Yellow closed at 41@51¾c. No. 4 sold at 41@43c. No Grade at 36@37c.

Corn by sample—Was in good demand, with the offerings smaller. Feeling firm and prices unchanged to 1c higher. Sales on track and free on board. No Grade sold at 31½@38c. No. 4 at 37@43c. No. 3 at 45½@45c. No. 3 Yellow at 45½c. No. 2 Yellow at 54c. No. 3 White at 43½@44½c. No. 2 White at 53@53¾c. Billed through: No Grade at 34@38c. No. 4 at 38@42c. No. 3 at 42½c. No. 3 Yellow at 45½c. No. 3 White at 42½c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Following an active and irregular session, the market closed ¼@¾c lower. It was a case of scattered liquidation, with the "bulls" refusing to give the market the needed support.

MARCH—Closed at 51c, nominal.

MAY—Sold at 53½@55⅛c. Opened at 54c to 54¼c, sold to 54⅜c, to 54⅛c, to 54½c, to 55⅛c, to 54⅜c, to 55c, to 53½c, to 53¾c, closing at 53¾c asked.

JULY—Sold at 51@52⅝c. Opened at 52c to 52⅛@52¼c, sold to 52c, to 52⅞c, to 52⅛@52¼c, to 52⅛@52⅜c, to 51⅛c, to 51⅞c, to 51c, to 51¼c, closing at 51¼c asked.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 50@51⅝c. Opened at 51c to 51⅛c, sold to 50⅞c, to 51⅛c, to 51¼c, to 51½c, to 51c, to 51⅜c, to 50c, to 50¼c, closing at 50¼c bid.

OATS—Were actively traded in and prices were unsettled. There was a continuation of the buying of May so pronounced yesterday. Offerings were light at the start and prices advanced ⅜@⅝c. This brought out better selling and the commission house trade increased. As the break in Wheat encouraged selling by local traders who had gone "long" early, and sold out later, precipitating a decline of 1⅛@2c, May leading. May rallied ⅝c, but closed ⅜c lower for the day, and other months lost ½c. Cash sales reported here were 25,000 bu. Seaboard clearances reported as 9,000 bu. The arrivals were 302 cars with 210 cars estimated to-morrow. There was 28 cars and 30,450 bu Standard transferred from private to public houses. Contract stocks increased 290,0 0 bu and are 2,540,000 bu. Stocks in private elevators decreased 76,100 bu and are 5,058,000 bu in all positions, an increase of 365,000 bu. Car lots to go to store were steady for good. No. 4 White sold at 40c. No. 3 White at 41¼c. Standard in store closed at 40¾@41¼c as to location.

Oats by sample were in fair request and steady for good, but slow, weak and ½@1c lower for poor. The latter were in larger supply, a good percentage being badly bin burnt, or mixed with Seeds or Barley. Sales on track and free on board. No 4 at 35½c. No. 4 White at 37½@42c. No. 3 at 39@41c. No. 3 White at 41½@43c. Standard at 43@44c. No 2 at 40¾c. Billed through: No. 4 White at 38@40½c. No. 3 White at 41½@42½c. No. 2 at 39½c. At the river: No. 4 White at 33@39½c. No 3 White at 35@41c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were active and higher early, but reacted and closed lower.

MARCH—Inactive at 1c under May, closed about 40¾c.

MAY—Active. Sold at 41@41⅝c and at 43⅛c. Opened unsettled at 42¼c to 42¾c, sold to 43⅛c, to 41@41⅛c, to 41⅞c, to 41¼c at close.

JULY—Active trading. Sold at 39¼@40⅝c. Opened at 39¾@39⅞c to 40¼c, sold to 40⅜c, to 39¼c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 33¾ and 34½@34⅛c. Opened at 34⅛c and at 34⅜@34½c, sold to 34½@34¼c, to 33⅝c, to 33½c at close.

RYE—Was dull and ½@1½c lower. Cash offerings a little larger, several cars being on sale. Speculative offerings also larger and demand limited. There were 17 cars received and five cars inspected out of private warehouse. No export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store nominally 69c and fresh arrivals free on board about 71c. No. 3 fresh arrivals sold at 62@63c, and No. 4 at 30@62c—outside for choice, with a sale at the river at 54c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Dull and 2@2½c lower. May sold at 71½c and closed nominally 71c. July 70c sellers.

BARLEY—Medium and common grades were weak and easier. Feed and mixing quoted about 1c "off." Oats being easier, demand was slack; there was also a falling off in quantity on sale. Common malting, even fair goods, in some cases, had to be sold for 2c less than previous prices. Maltsters did not seem to care to purchase, and when pressed, in an indifferent way, they bid lower prices. Good to high grade Barley not materially changed, for only occasional cars of such appeared, still market also was without special demand. Ninety-three cars inspected in, but they likely were mostly previous receipts. Screenings were quotable at 32@42c for poor to fancy; poor goods slow sale, sales made at this range. Barley, feed or mixing, quotable at 38@41c local, depending on soundness and color, occasional choice bright cars perhaps a shade over. Malting low grade, 41@42c; common, 43@44c. Fair was about 45@47c; good, 48@50c; choice, 52@55c; fancy possibly higher, but not offered.

SEEDS—Little Seed offered aside from Timothy. Most of that was ordinary to common and ruled easy. Flax, Clover and the rest almost inactive, but as a rule steady.

Timothy—Considerable cash Seed was offered. It was mainly of ordinary to common quality; some of it was fairly good, but none high or choice. Choice and fancy Seed was wanted. This was quotably firm, some advance said to be obtainable; at the same time ordinary and common grades were dull, weak and concessions in some cases necessary to bring about sales. Country lots quotable at $2 35@3 25 for poor to fancy; fair to good at $2 50@2 65; choice $2 75@2 85 and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 45; tailings lower. Futures were neglected, with nominal prices at $3 05 for March delivery and May quotable at $3 15.

Flax—There was no change from yesterday's prices. The market was inactive, aside from the sale of one car. No interest was shown and no feature developed. Sixteen cars or 13,60 0 bu came in; 5 cars inspected. One car or 1,053 bu taken out. Minneapolis got 32 cars, and Duluth 6 cars. No 1 Northwestern or No 1 from the Northwest quotable at $1 14; a sale made. No. 1 was $1 08 bid. Rejected nominally $1 06@1 08, outside for choice Northwestern. March quotable at $1 08 bid; May at $1 10; these prices obtainable.

Clover—Inquiry on order account was said to continue very fair. A steady to firm market was quoted. An absence of consignment offerings caused lack of open-market trading. Quotable prices were as follows: Contract spot and March delivery quotable at $11 65. Country lots, common to choice, $8 25@11 40; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $9 50@9 60, poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $9 50@10 75.

Other Seeds—Steadiness remains. Nothing on sale aside from a car of Buckwheat and that was sold. The market for all lines remains quotably steady. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark at $1 60@1 90. Common Millet, $1 00@1 60 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 40. Siberian, 85c@$1 05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat, good milling, salable at $1 35@1 40.

HOG PRODUCTS—A fair business was transacted in Hog Products, and the feeling manifested was comparatively firm. Outside orders rather more numerous and appeared to favor the "long" side of the market. Offerings in a general way were moderate and chiefly from the professional element. Hogs were in rather light supply, with quality only fair, and prices firm and this feature continues to create a strong undertone. Receipts at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 41,500, compared with 40,300 one year ago. Foreign advices indicated and easier feeling in that quarter. Quotations were lowered 3d on Lard, 6d on Hams and 6d on Backs. Domestic markets were quite steady. Receipts of Products were fair—of Lard and Meats about 32 cars. Shipments were quite liberal—of Lard and Meats about 179 cars. The speculative market opened strong and prices ruled higher on all the leading articles. Realizing and profit taking by local "longs" was a feature at the improvement in prices and values receded all around. Strength of Corn was an indirect factor, but partially offset by break in Wheat. Shipping demand was rather light and offerings rather small. Prices ruled comparatively firm.

Mess Pork—Was somewhat unsettled, with a fair trade. Offerings were only moderate at the start, while the demand was fair from miscellaneous sources and prices were advanced 25c. Later, there was a little more pressure to sell, and values settled back 35c. Toward the close the feeling was steadier and prices recovered 10@12½c, and last prices showed a slight advance. Shipping demand very moderate, and offerings continue small. Cash lots quotable $13 87½@14 00.

MAY—In better demand, with fair offerings. Sales were made at $13 77½@14 21½. Opened at $13 95, sold to $13 87½@13 90, to $13 92½, to $13 85, to $14 12½, to $14 02½, to $14 10, to $13 85, to $13 92½, to $13 77½, to $13 87½, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings fair and demand rather better. Sales were made at $13 97½@14 32½. Opened at $14 10, sold to $14 12½, to $14 07½, to $14 10, to $14 05, to $14 32½, to $14 20, to $14 27½, to $14 02½, to $14 15, to $13 97½, to $14 10, and closed steady.

Lard—Rather a good trade was witnessed in Lard, and the general undertone was firm, the close showing 2½@5c advance. Speculative offerings only fair, while the demand was somewhat improved early in the day and prices advanced 1.c. At the advance "long" property was for sale and prices settled back 10@12½c, when miscellaneous buying caused the price to rally 5c, the close being as noted above. Foreign advices less favorable to holders. Demand on shipping account light and offerings very moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $7 15@7 17½. Loose lots called for sparingly and offerings were rather light. Prices were firm at about 65c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in light request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably steady at $8 75. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $8 25@8 37½ for No. 1 and $7 87½@8 00 for No. 2.

MAY—In fair demand and offerings moderate. Sales were made at $7 27½@7 40. Opened at $7 35, sold to $7 30, to $7 37½, to $7 35, to $7 40, to $7 30@7 32½, to $7 32½, to $7 27½, to $7 32½, and closed steady.

JULY—Better inquiry and offerings just fair. Sales were made at $7 42½@7 55 and $7 55. Opened at $7 45 to $7 50, sold to $7 45, to $7 55, to $7 42½@7 45, to $7 47½@7 50 and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—Quite a fair business was reported in the market for Short Rib Sides and the feeling manifested on the whole was barely steady. Early in the session the tone was firm, the offerings being only moderate and initial trades were at 2½@5c advance. Later, there was more pressure to sell, and prices settled back 10c, but rallied slightly, and closed with 2½c decline. Shipping demand was light and offerings only moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6 97½@7 10 according to weight.

MAY—Demand was fair and offerings rather liberal. Sales were made at $7 15@7 25. Opened at $7 25, sold to $7 15, to $7 25, to $7 22½, to $7 25, to $7 15, to $7 17½, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings fair and demand moderate. Sales were made at $7 27½@7 37½. Opened at $7 35, sold to $7 27½, to $7 37½, to $7 27½, to $7 30, to $7 27½, to $7 30 and closed steady.

Other Meats—Trade was only moderate and the feeling rather steady. Offerings were only fair. Demand was moderate for the home trade. Export inquiry very limited. Green Meats in moderate supply and rather light demand, and prices were unchanged. Pickled Meats were in fair request to fill moderate orders and prices were unchanged. Dry Salted Meats were in fair demand in a quiet way, and prices ruled steady. Smoked Meats called for in fair quantities, especially in a jobbing way, and prices were steady. Closing ranged as follows:

GREEN—Hams av 10@12 lbs, at 7½@8c; 12@14 lbs, 9⅜@9½c; 14@16 lbs 9¼@9⅜c; 18@20 lbs 8¾@9⅛c; Skinned Hams 10⅝@10¾c; Shoulders 6½@6⅝c; Picnic Hams 6¾@7c; Bellies 10@11c. PICKLED—loose—Hams, 10@12 lbs, 8½@8¾c; 12@14 lbs 9⅜@9½c; 14@16 lbs, 9¼@9⅜c cash, 9¼@9⅜c March; 18@20 lbs, 10@10⅛c; Skinned Hams, 11⅛@10¼c cash, 10¼@10½c March; Shoulders 6½@7c; Picnic Hams, 6¾@8¾c, Bellies 10@11½c. THE COAL TRADE.

[From the Coal Trade Journal.]

According to our special advices, there was a vote taken at Indianapolis on the 1st inst. on the readoption of the present scale. As might have been expected, all the operators voted no and all the miners voted yes. This was the first test of the adjourned session, and a general discussion must ensue. As a "feeler" one of the most prominent operators introduced a resolution for a 15 per cent reduction.

There is not, if one may judge surface indications, likely to be any sympathetic strike among the hard Coal workers, but they are ready with cash and "moral" aid to help on the struggle. Concite men may reciprocate, in kind, the aid given them by the soft Coal men during 1902, but further than this we cannot go. Their pledge, written and verbal, is on record for the whole country. At the same time, there would be a very great increase in the demand for and use of anthracite, if it be possible, for this reason, that the coke results are yet in doubt as to the price of anthracite after April 1. It would operate against a resumption of the scale of discounts, and the mine workers being beneficiaries of the price of Coal in market, would feel that no injustice was being done them.

THE HOP SITUATION.

[New York Producers' Price Current, March 5.]

In the Hop market there has been nearly any demand, nothing doing between dealers, while brewers are still holding off. We do not see any indication of weakness on part of holders, who are still taking confidently their position, on the hope that as soon as weather turns warmer consumption of beer will increase and brewers expected to be compelled to take on more Hops. Remaining stocks are certainly light and a little spurt of trade would certainly place the market in healthy condition. It is therefore merely a waiting market with the last week rather more speculative. On the Coast the only feature of interest has been the sale of 180 bales, one of the largest lots left by growers' hands in Sonoma, at 27½c. This lot had been held at 30c all along and the probable reason of the acceptance of a lower price was to avoid the personal tax which is levied on March 1. Otherwise the market is dull and has continued quiet and we do not hear of any general disposition to shade late asking prices.

AGRICULTURE IN GREAT BRITAIN.

[From the London Agricultural Gazette.]

Farmers are still waiting for a favorable change in the weather. Up to Saturday, in some parts of the country, there had been more or less rain on 25 days out of 26 since Jan. 25, although on Sunday there was only a slight shower. Nearly 3½ inches of rain had been measured in February at one Southern station, not usually a particularly rainy one, up to the end of last week. The sowing of Beans and Peas has been necessarily postponed, except possibly in a few specially favored districts in free-working soil, and no thought of putting in Barley or Oats could be entertained. Plowing, too, is still greatly in arrear, and there is every reason to fear that the seeding season, if it ever does come on. Frost is badly wanted at once, with dry weather to follow it. Reports on the condition of the Wheat crop vary greatly. On good mixed soils there are pieces which look surprisingly well, while thin and sickly crops are too common in wet, heavy land districts.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows a continuance of the dry weather in the Southwest. No precipitation in Kansas, Missouri or in any quarter of Southwest. There are light snows in Manitoba and light showers in Ohio Valley. There are very light fall of moisture in these sections and none elsewhere. Temperatures are mild.

Indications are for fair weather in this district; some precipitation in Northwest, and this will extend eastward Wednesday.

Waxahachie, Texas, wires: "A prominent merchant who has been traveling through Wichita Valley, Oklahoma, and Indian Territory, says: 'High winds have blown the Grain out by the roots in Oklahoma, and the Wheat that was planted last winter has never sprouted in the Wichita Valley.'"

The failure of Brendel & Co., a banking house of Berlin, Germany, was announced Monday. The firm was established in 1778. The difficulties of the concern are attributed to the wild speculation and speculation of a cashier, who has absconded. The liabilities are estimated at $50 000, at the utmost, and probably will be less

According to a dispatch from Philadelphia, the first dividend on the new Du Pont International Powder preferred stock will be paid on or about April 15, at the rate of 1¼ per cent. It is expected that the first dividend on the old International Smokeless Powder common stock will be paid about the same time at the rate of 2½ per cent.

The San Francisco Chronicle of Sunday morning March 5 says: "California it is true, has had rains and much-needed ones, but the great Wheat growing sections of the State had had plenty before these late storms, and the overflowing of many thousand acres along the Sacramento River should be a bullish rather than a 'bearish' feature. Taking the State as a whole the crop prospects are about the same as they were a week ago, the improvement in the South being offset by the damage in the North"

The contract between the Delaware and Hudson Company at a special meeting, Monday, approved the increase of $10,000,000 in the capital stock. According to an official circular issued some time ago, $7,000,000 of the new stock is particularly at a price of 135 to the extent of 20 per cent of their present holdings, while the remaining $3,000,000 will be reserved for future issue. The purpose of the stock increase is to finance several large cash payments, and to provide for equipping the Chateaugay division of the road, from Plattsburg to Lake Placid.

The Corn Trade News of Feb 25 says: "Fine weather is again reported in France to-day. The recent heavy rains have caused many rivers to overflow their banks, so that the fields in some parts are under water; speaking generally, however, the autumn seedings still appear to be satisfactory, and there is more days of fine, dry weather growers will be able to commence spring seeding. Recent country markets have ruled very strong and advancing, being influenced not only by the Russo-Japanese war but also by the continued rainy, unfavorable crop weather."

It is understood that a syndicate has been formed to take over the Smith holdings of Union Typewriter stock, amounting to about $1,000,000, principally in the preferred issues. It is also understood that arrangements are being made for the taking over of the opposition plant which Mr. Smith has built at Syracuse, and that a definite announcement on this subject is likely to be forthcoming about the middle of the present month. The two transactions will eliminate Mr Smith as a factor in the Union Typewriter Company's affairs.

The United States Shipbuilding securities have been stricken from the New York Stock Exchange list. This action was in accord with the reorganization p.an. By legal action, the $15,000,000 stock of the collapsed company was wiped out, and the $16 000,000 first mortgage 5 per cent gold bond mortgage will soon be exchanged for securities of the new company Under the reorganized company will apply to the Stock Exchange to list $8,000,000 bonds, $15,000,000 preferred, and $18,000,000 common stock, in lieu of the securities of the failed concern.

A Chicago Hog buyer says everything goes to indicate a much larger stock of Hogs in farmers' hands than at this time last year, and when the marketing for the first two months this year at the leading markets of the country 700,000 less than the corresponding time last year, and in volume that has seldom been equaled, there must be much accumulated product. Hog-carrying are at a close figure, pretty much on a par with piles during the present month, and he believes that it is reasonable to expect that prices will be held well below the high prices paid during March last year.

For seven months the Rock Island reports a surplus of $9 079 854, which is somewhat less than will be needed to pay the final charges for the full year. During the last four months reported this system recorded heavy decreases in expenses, following a nominal increase or a decrease in gross About 75 per cent of the increase in expenses in Jan. and Feb was due to increased liberality in charging to maintenance account, but in January the heaviest increase was due to increased cost of transportation. Rail is declining, however, in the case of Steel. The same conditions have prevailed through February as in January.

The American Cigar Company has issued its first quarterly report since the new deal. It shows as follows: The net earnings of the year from the operation of business after deducting all charges and expenses for management were $807,-726. There have been no dividends for the entire amount of net earnings has been added to the surplus of $1,495,853 existing Jan 1, 1903, making a total surplus Dec 31, 1903, of $2,302,020. There has been no change in either the capital stock or the 4 per cent Gold notes during the year. the total amount now outstanding being $9,975,000 of capital stock and $10,000,000 of notes.

The nine directors of the reorganized United States Shipbuilding Company will soon be announced. Three of them will serve one year, three two years, and three three years. They are to be named jointly by the Sheldon reorganization committee, Receiver James Smith, Jr., and the Morton Trust Company, each to have an equal voice in the selection. The plan was agreed upon that the Schwab interests could not control the board. It is said that among the new directors will probably be Stuyvesant Fish, president of the Illinois Central; George F. Baker, of the First National Bank; Robert Goelet, of the Union Pacific; Max Nathan, of the bondholders' protective committee; George R. Sheldon, chairman of the Sheldon reorganization committee, and J. R. Mellvain, Jr., son of the late Secretary of Iron and Steel Company. The other four members of the board are likely to be selected from the management of the companies absorbed in the shipbuilding company, practical shipbuilders.

The Supreme Court of Illinois has handed down a decision sustaining the principle of reasonable reciprocity between railroad companies. Where one has a line upon goods carried until reasonable storage, demurrage or car service charges have been paid. The decision, which was by Justice Wilkin, was delivered in the case of Brown Shoemaker against the Chicago and Northwestern Railway Company, and reverses a decision under which the railroads have been suffering for nearly a decade. The decision declares that hereafter the effect it will have on future car service by railroads is foreshadowed by the court, which said: "The views above expressed as to the rules pertaining to car service charges will, we think, conduce to the public welfare " Under a former decision by the Supreme Court of the State railroads have been compelled to observe demurrage charges, and therefore the rule in effect requiring consignees to unload cars within forty-eight hours or pay a charge of $1 00 per day has been only partially effective in its giving effect and the public the full benefit of the former's equipment.

E. C. Swift, of Swift & Co., says in regard to the statement that the Cambridge plants of the North Packing and Provision Company and Swift & Co. were formally taken over by Swift & Co. and the Squire plant is now being used as the distributing plant for the Swift product: "There seems to be considerable misapprehension as to the relations between Swift & Co., the North Packing and Provision Company, and J. P. Squire & Co. Swift & Co. are not interested in any way with either of these companies, and do not, nor never did, own a share of their stocks, nor furnish them product to sell, being in no way responsible for New England business. With regard to J. P. Squire & Co., they are an independent corporation, a majority interest in the stock, however, now being owned by interests which are to a greater or less extent associated with the North Packing and Provision Company. J. P. Squire & Co. have shrouded the Boston Packing and Provision Company's plant secured as managers of their business the services of the principal owners and former managers of the Boston Packing and Provision Company."

Cotton in New York was called oversold. Liverpool came strong and higher and Southern buying was good. July advanced above 16c, which was met by realizing sales which forced prices off. The market closed 41@60 points higher.

Stocks in New York were extremely slow and uneven. Changes in Railway shares were insignificant, the most important being a loss of ½ on Rock Island. Corn Products, which have been sold of late by insiders owing to internal dissensions, were strong and closed ⅜ higher. Peoples Gas lost 1⅜. Money 1¾@2 per cent.

It is stated that the decision in the Northern Securities case will be written by hand, no amanuensis being employed. This means is adopted to prevent premature knowledge of the court's opinion. Copy will be given to printers in such shape that, without collusion on their part, it will be impossible for knowledge of its purport to be obtained.

The Boston Herald says there are between 16,500 and 17,000 stockholders of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. The last issue of stock added about 3,000 stockholders, and since the first of this year the list has been added to still further. A trifle over 1,000 shares of stock remained untaken out of the last issue of $21,000,000. The largest stockholder took his full quota of the increased stock.

The Chicago Inter Ocean says: "Another cut of 2c in Grain rates from trans-Missouri territory to Chicago was announced, Tuesday, by the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad. A worse blow to the Great Western than the actual cut in rates was the announcement of the Northwestern that, under its new tariff, effective March 12, Grain may be stopped in Omaha or Council Bluffs and stored in elevators or ground in mills, without any charge for these privileges, if forwarded via the Northwestern road. By this action the Northwestern gives Grain dealers in Omaha the same facilities as are enjoyed by dealers at other Missouri River points, but the Northwestern surrenders no advantage to the Great Western, St. Paul, or any other road. In order to offer as low rates to Grain dealers at Omaha as the Northwestern has just made, the Great Western must make another cut of 2c in the rate from Omaha to Chicago, which would reduce the tariff on Wheat to 2c per 100 lbs and on Corn to 1c per 100 lbs. No railroad can haul Grain at a profit at the rates now made by the Great Western, and to make a further cut of 2c only means a greater loss in revenue. Nevertheless it is expected that the Great Western will make a further reduction, consistently to maintain its position from the first—that the Northwestern's rates on Grain from trans-Missouri territory to Chicago should not exceed the sum of the local rates from the point of shipment to Omaha and from Omaha to Chicago."

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—The market is quiet and sales are small. Prices 5@10c lower on the week.

WINTER WHEAT—Was in good demand, but at irregular prices, the sales to-day showing 2@3c decline for soft, while Hard Winter was steady. No. 2 Red in store quotable at 88¾@94½c and fresh arrivals free on board sold at 95c. No. 2 Red fresh receipts sold at 96@97c, and ranged at 94@97c. No. 2 Hard at the river quotable at 8 @83c. No. 3 Hard local sold at 80@87c and quotable at the river at 78@87c, depending on quality. No. 4 Hard sold at 78c. No. 3 White sold at 95@97c.

SPRING WHEAT—Was steady. There was a better milling demand and some odd lots were reported sold besides the car lots. No. 1 Northern in store ranged at 88¾@1 0c and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 9 @95c. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals quotable at 88@92c. No. 3 Spring local sold at 88c and was quotable at 8 @92c, with a sale at the river at 78c. No. 4 Spring local sold at 79½@70c and a very choice car sold at 8 c, and at the river sold at 71c.

REGULAR WHEAT—There was a good trade and rather an unsettled feeling prevalent in the Wheat market. Fluctuations covered 1⅝@1¾c range, with resting prices ⅜c higher for May, while July gained ⅜@½c, and the September ⅜@½c. Early, sentiment leaned to the "bull" side of the market and local "shorts" covered freely. The comparatively firm cables and lack of moisture in the Southwest were the chief strengthening influences. Topeka and Kansas City advices were "bullish" on the crop outlook, and buying for Southwestern account was an early feature. Locals were the best buyers, but when Corn sold off sharply, Wheat declined in sympathy. Considerable liquidation followed, but on the decline buying by commission houses brought about a very fair upturn. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ⅛d higher and futures unchanged to ⅛d higher in face of the decline on this side yesterday. London ⅛@¼d lower, while loss here yesterday was 1⅛@2¼c. Mark Lane foreign Wheat 3d lower and English unchanged. Paris was steady to ⅛c higher and Antwerp unchanged. Berlin declined ¾c and Buda Pesth lost 1¼c. Primary receipts were 252,000 bu larger than a year ago, those in the Northwest being nearly double. Kansas City and St. Louis received 141,000 bu against 63,000 bu in 1903, and shipments were 222,000 bu. Exports were light and thirty boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Duluth reported 40 boat loads and claimed half the stock there has been sold to go out at opening of navigation. Showers were predicted for Kansas, Illinois, Indiana and Missouri. Rain to-night snow Thursday for Nebraska. Generally colder weather was indicated. Buenos Ayres cabled that the strike in Argentine had collapsed but that the transport of Wheat will be delayed. Topeka wired there was no rain or snow in the Wheat belt, and that the crop was suffering, with most favorable conditions yield will not be over 50 per cent of last year. Minneapolis stocks decreased 110,000 bu so far this week. Local warehouse interests reported buying at Minneapolis. Receipts at Duluth 73 cars and at Minneapolis 327 cars, a total of 400, against 260 cars yesterday, 372 cars a week ago, and 211 cars last year. Local receipts included 14 cars Winter, 9 cars Spring and no mixed, a total of 23 cars, against 20 cars last year. Included in the above were none of contract grade. There were 2 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 30 cars. Withdrawals were 4,900 bu. Receipts at Western points were 602,169 bu against 349,889 bu last year. At Eastern points 59,529 bu, against 72,761 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 338,474 bu, against 107,906 bu last year, and from Eastern points 30,400 bu, against 273,023 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 7,163 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 62,633 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Good trade and, after declining, closed higher than yesterday.

MARCH—Entirely nominal; closed about 90c.

MAY—Sold at 90¾@92½c—sparingly at the inside price. Opened with sales at 92c to 92½c; sold to 91¼c, to 92c, to 91½c, to 92c, to 90¾c, to 92¼c, to 91⅝c, to 92½c, and closed at 92½c sellers.

JULY Old Style—Sold at 88⅜@90c—sparingly at both extremes. Opened at 89⅝c to 89⅞c; sold to 89½c, to 89⅞c, to 89⅛c, to 89¾c, to 89⅛c, to 89⅜c, to 89¾c, to 90c, to 89½c, to 89⅝c, to 89c, to 89¾c, and closed at 89¾c sellers.

JULY—New Style Sold at 87@88⅝c. Opened at 88½c, sold to 88⅝c, to 88c, to 88⅜c, to 87⅝c, to 88c, to 87c, to 88⅛c, to 87¾c to 88½c, to 88c, to 88½c to 87½c, to 88⅜c and closed at 88⅜c sellers.

SEPTEMBER Old Style—Sold at 83½@84¾c. Opened at 84⅝c to 84¾c; sold to 83½c, to 84½c, to 84½c, to 83¾c, to 84½c and closed at 84½c.

SEPTEMBER—New Style Sold at 82½@83⅞c. Opened with sales at 83⅝c to 83⅞c; sold to 83⅜c, to 82½c, to 83½c, to 84½c, to 84⅛c to 83⅞c, to 82¾c, to 83¼c, to 82⅝c, to 83½c, and closed at 83½c.

CORN—An immense trade and exceedingly nervous, unsettled market, with last prices 2¼c lower for the May, the July losing 1¾c and the September 1½c. Selling for "long" as well as "short" account was on a large scale, liquidation being general, and market had indifferent support many stop loss limits being uncovered on the break to 50⅝c for May and 48⅝c for July. Selling May and buying July at 1⅝@1¾c and 2¼@2⅜c spread was one of the principal features of day. Commission houses and interests prominent on the "bull" side for some time back were conspicuous on the selling side of the market. The news at hand was not particularly different from that received of late and no new theories were advanced for the change of front on the part of the "bull" leaders. Liverpool was ¼d higher for spot and unchanged for futures. Mark Lane quoted Danubian Corn 3d lower and American 1½@3d lower. Receipts were small, 112 cars, with 68 cars low grades. Last year 278 cars and 98 cars respectively and 180 cars estimated for to-morrow. A Buenos Ayres cable stated that rains had caused serious injury to the Corn crop but had no influence of consequence on values here. Western receipts—316,000 bu—were less than half those of a year ago, but likewise was indifferently received. Shipments at distributing centers, 305,000 bu, were 255,000 bu smaller than same day in 1903. Exports were 147,000 bu; last year, 548,000 bu. Local arrivals 127,000 bu and shipments 132,000 bu. Transfers from private to public elevators were 22,160 bu and 100 cars. Southwestern markets were weak. Showers were predicted for portions of the Corn belt, with lower temperatures to follow. Shipping demand was moderate and sales 25,000 bu. At the seaboard 20 boat loads were accepted. Car lots steady to 1c lower. No. 2 sold at 50c and closed at 49c. No. 2 Yellow closed at 50c. No. 3 closed at 42½@48½c. No. 3 Yellow closed at 41½@50½c.

Corn by sample—Offerings were small and demand fair. Feeling unsettled. Prices ½@1c lower, with No. 3 Yellow in some instances 2c lower, while No Grade averaged 1c higher. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 34@37c. No. 4 at 38@44c. No. 3 at 40@44c. No. 3 Yellow at 41½@45c. No. 2 Yellow at 51c. No. 3 White at 43½@44c. Billed through: No Grade at 34@37½c. No. 4 at 38½@41c. No. 3 at 41½@47c. No. 3 Yellow at 45c. No. 3 White at 41½c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Heaviest trade in weeks and market most excited, closing 1½@2¼c lower.

MARCH—Inactive and closed at 48¾c.

MAY—Sold at 50⅝@54⅛c. Opened at 54c to 54⅛c and sold at 53¾c, to 54c, to 53¼c, to 53⅜c, to 52½c, to 52⅞c, to 52½c, to 52¾c, to 51⅞c, to 52, to 50⅝c, to 51½c, to 51¼c, to 51⅞c, to 51⅝c, to 52½c, to 51½c, to 51⅞c, to 51½c, to 52c, to 50⅞c, to 51⅝c, to 51⅛c, to 51⅝@51¾c, to 51½c, and closed at 51½c.

JULY—Sold at 48⅝c and 51⅝@51¾c. Opened at 51½c to 51⅝@51¾c, sold at 51⅝@51¾c, to 50⅞c, to 51c, to 50⅝c, to 50⅞c, to 48⅝c, to 49⅝, to 49½, to 50c, to 49¾c, to 50⅛c, to 49½c to 49½c, to 49⅝c, to 49⅝c, to 49½c, and closed at 49½c.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 47¾@50⅝c. Opened at 50½c to 50⅝c, and sold at 49½c, to 49¾c, to 47¾c to 49c, to 48¾c, to 49⅛c, to 48⅞c, to 49⅛c, to 49c, to 49¼c, to 48¾c, to 48¾c, to 48½c, to 48¾c, and closed at 48¾c.

OATS—Were sold freely by "longs" and the market, after starting strong at ⅛@⅜c advance, collapsed in sympathy with the break in Corn and lost ¾@2c May leading. There was poor support until the bottom figures were reached, when the May touched 40@40⅛c, making it below the average price of No. 3 White. At the bottom there was fair commission house buying, and prices rallied ⅛@⅜c from the inside figures, and closed at losses of 1⅛@1⅜c, the latter on May. Cash business was moderate—30,000 bu. Arrivals were 185 cars, with 225 cars expected to-morrow. There was 50,000 bu and 41 cars Standard run in from private to public houses. Seaboard clearances 14,000 bu. Car lots to go to store were weak and ½c lower. No. 4 White sold at 39¼c. Standard in store closed about 38⅜@39¾c, as to location.

Oats by sample were in moderate request and supplies showed an increase. Considerable poor were offered and prices had a wide range. Prices yielded ½@1½c with futures, the latter on poor. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 at 32@35c. No. 4 White at 30@39¾c. No. 3 at 38½@39¾c. No. 3 White at 38¾@42½c. Standard at 42½c. No. 2 at 40¾c. Billed through: No. 4 White at 38½@41c. No. 3 White at 41@42½c. Standard at 42¾@43½c. At the river: No. 4 White at 32@39½c. No. 3 at 38¼c. No. 3 White at 38@41c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were active and higher at the start, but broke and closed lower.

MARCH—Inactive; closed about 39⅜c.

MAY—Active. Sold at 40@40⅛c and at 42c. Opened at 42c, sold to 40@40⅛c to 40⅜c at close.

JULY—Active. Sold at 38¼@39⅜c. Opened at 39⅜c, sold at 38¾c, to 38½c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Good trading. Sold at 33@33⅜c. Opened at 33⅜c to 33⅝c, sold to 33¾c, to 33c, to 33⅜c at close.

RYE—Was dull and prices 2@3c lower. Scarcely any demand and offerings fair. Decline due to lack of demand. The receipts were six cars and there was one car withdrawn from private warehouse. No export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store nominally 66½c, and fresh arrivals free on board sold at 68½@70c. No. 3 sold at 60@62c. No. 4 at 48c for poor.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Dull and 3c lower. March nominally 66½c. May sold at 68½c and closed at 68½c sellers. July closed at 67½c sellers and 65c bid.

BARLEY—Dullness and weakness were again present in this market. Demand from maltsters was slack. Such buyers as did appear were inclined to reduce their bids. When previous prices were paid better goods were obtained, which was equivalent to some further decline. Offerings were moderate of common grades, very small of higher grades with no really choice to fancy. Mixing goods sparingly called for owing to Oats being again easier. Supply fair and offerings not all disposed of, closed lower. Forty-six cars inspected in. Screenings, poor, dirty to choice sold at 35@41c. Barley, feed or mixing, ranged at 38@41c local, depending on soundness and color, occasional choice bright cars a shade over. Closing on ordinary goods 38@38c. Malting—low grade, 41@42c; common, 43@44c. Fair was about 45@46c; good, 48@50c; choice, 52@55c; fancy possibly higher; not offered.

SEEDS—A strong market for Timothy, with high grades possibly a shade higher, was about the only feature to-day. Clover and the rest of Grass Seeds were scarce, inactive and unchanged. Flax steady; hardly any business, and no change to note.

Timothy—Cash market quoted as firm, for high grades especially. They were said to be a shade higher again. In good demand and scarce. Of common to choice there were just moderate offerings. Supply as a whole was rather light. Country lots quotable at $2 25@3 25 for poor to fancy; fair to good at $2 55@2 70, choice $2 75@2 90, unhulled, clean, bright $3 00@3 25, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 50; tailings lower. Futures hardly mentioned. March delivery salable at about $3 05. May nominally $3 15.

Flax—There was no change whatever. Prices were just the same as yesterday and trading also of the most limited order. The market attracted no attention whatever. Local movement unimportant. Only 3 cars or 2,550 bu received and 2 cars or 1,137 bu taken out. Minneapolis got 24 cars and Duluth 51 cars. No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest sold sparingly at $1 14. No. 1 remained $1 08 bid. Rejected nominally $1 06@1 08, outside for choice Northwestern. March quotable at $1 08 bid and May $1 10.

Clover—Very little coming on sale, none to speak of. Market was called steady for good qualities especially. Salable at prices which follow: Contract spot and March delivery $11 65. Country lots, common to choice, $8 25@11 40; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $8 50@9 50; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $9 50@10 75.

Other Seeds—A little under grade Hungarian was offered; nothing else seen. Market in all ways unchanged; almost nominal. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark at $1 60@1 90. Common Millet $1 00@1 50 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 40. Siberian, 85c@$1 05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat, good milling, salable at $1 35@1 40.

HOG PRODUCTS—Trade was fair in the market for Hog Products, and the feeling was unsettled. Offerings were moderately free, and the demand was fair. Receipts of Hogs were moderate, and prices ruled higher, but this feature had little influence on the market. The break in the Grain markets tended to some selling by outside holders of small quantities. Local traders bought moderately. Market in a general way opened steadier, and prices ruled slightly higher on all the leading articles. After the early orders were provided for, there was some pressure to sell, and a weak feeling was developed. Prices declined materially all around. The reduction brought buyers into the market again, and prices rallied moderately, and the market closed rather steady around medium figures. Some business in the way of transferring contracts from May to July at the current differences. BREADSTUFFS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

[From the Portland Commercial Review, Mar. 31]

The trade has passed through a very interesting week and has witnessed frequent and violent fluctuations, especially at Chicago, where at times trading was accompanied by intense excitement. In all markets more or less is taken for granted the revival of prices having encouraged exporters in a general way. Europe has closely watched America and values have appreciated materially. The rise of prices has been so rapid that few know sellers would like to have, yet, considering the depression which has existed for a number of months, it is gratifying to note an improvement in matters though slight. The arrival of Spring wheat is due to the troubles existing in the Far East with the possibility of other countries in Europe being drawn into the present conflict. This has to a certain extent stimulated the foreign markets to act accordingly and increase their prices for cargoes. Since our last, Pacific Coast cargoes have advanced 5s, and are now held 10s above more life, and should the market not react, a still better demand may exist and a number of cargoes be dispatched to that country. In our own markets a fair business has been done, and a great many holders have disposed of their holdings, and stocks in shippers' hands show quite an increase over a month ago. Reports from interior points state that there is considerable Wheat going East no more than usual; every year we ship considerable Wheat for cereal purposes East manufacturers preferring our Wheat to any other, as it is doubtful whether the same wood grade to establish Bishop Creek but there. From an authentic report we see that fully 100,000 tons of our grain has been shipped; also some very large lots from Idaho, where there is plenty of No 1 Wheat. Quotations are firm at 78@79c for club; bluestem, 81c, and valley, 82c bushel.

Flour Market is very dull and the demand is slow. Millers have advanced quotations on the increased cost of Wheat and cables are very unsatisfactory as to prices, and it looks as the same will continue to do so until stocks in the Orient have been decreased to some extent. Supplies on hand are not very large. There is no activity and accumulating surplus stock that was not kept up during the rush of the past five months, and stocks are now lower than for several years. Quotations for export brands are higher and now range from $3.55 to $3.65 per barrel; Patents also were advanced from $4.00 to $4.25@4.50 per barrel.

SURPRISE FOR PIG IRON TRADE.

[From the Iron Age.]

The trade is searching for the motive of the run-base by the United States Steel Corporation of upward of 50,000 tons of unsold Bessemer pig Iron for March and April delivery at $13 00 furnace, or at an advance of 2c per ton.

So large and desirable an advance, in times like these is itself surprising, but it is difficult to understand that the buyer should purchase at all, when it has an abundance of ore in stock, on which the cost of mining and transportation has been paid, ample capacity of coke and the manufacture of coke, a considerable number of idle blast furnaces in the very districts in which those of the sellers are located, and no anxiety as to supply at labor.

The trade is under the belief that there must be indirect though important, considerations. When the movement was started the Steel Corporation was coupled with the pending ore negotiations, and it is hinted that even now this and possibly further purchases are contingent upon a satisfactory issue. It has been suspected that the selling scales with consumers of billets and of rolled products, since they are based on the Bessemer pig Iron quotations, make it desirable to put back ore into the scale, and it is further reflected in other departments of the pig Iron industry, the negotiations over the allotment and over the prices of Lake Erie for the coming season have not yet led to any agreement, and whether any outcome is even more dubious than it was, there is still a chance that the principal interests may get together. Two proposals made look to a reduction in the price of 50c a ton on Old Range Bessemer and 25c a ton on Mesaba Bessemer.

Some very low prices are being made on the whole line of products in the pig Iron and coal consumption, with the exception of Steel rails. Goods are being delivered at far distant points on some of the systems which are lower than the base prices at mill.

THE COAL TRADE.

[From the Wall Street Journal, March 1.]

There has been little change in the anthracite Coal trade situation. The enforced reduction of output at the mines and the difficulties which have existed for weeks in transporting Coal were relieved by warmer weather. The railroad companies, however, have yet the ability to fill their orders for Coal promptly and in some cases buyers of Coal have been put to inconvenience, and all of them are urgent in their demands for an immediate supply of Coal.

In all probability the weather conditions will improve from now on and with the lifting of the embargo of ice and more there will be a very active period in the Coal trade for a week or two. This will practically carry the trade into the new Coal year when the production will vary to a great deal. The situation is extremely favorable, though the producers and carriers still complain that the cost of mining and conducting transportation are out of a proportion to what is proper and remunerative. The miner is still getting maximum wages, but work has been less steady this month than at any time since the end of the great strike in 1902. This is due almost altogether to weather conditions. The restriction of output is not without its compensation for both producer and miner, as it has had the effect of ridding the trade from the incubus of surplus stock.

There has been a marked change in the bituminous Coal trade in the New England States this week by reason of the delivery of Coal that there is grave danger of a strike this spring. It is the universal belief that the operators will insist on a reduction of wages beginning in April and will not only not give way, but will close the mines if the men do not agree to a concession. It is also taken for granted that the men will not accept the position they have taken, which is for an advance. Consumers of Coal were stricken with a sudden and universal desire for Coal, and so anxious were they that they were willing to buy in large quantities and to pay a considerable advance over recent prices.

The sellers of Coal have had great difficulty in filling the light orders of the last few weeks by reason of the railroad blockades and they have been feverish owing to the sudden demand of their customers. The warmer weather a few days ago facilitated deliveries and relieved the congestion to an extent at the mines and at tide water points. It is expected that the activity will continue, and the outlook for the seller of Coal is good for a time at least.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Indications are that the Western storm will advance Eastward, accompanied by rain, turning to snow. Temperature will rise during storm, but colder weather will overspread the trans-Mississippi States the next 24 to 36 hours.

The forecast for a cold wave as far South as Nebraska to night and cold r generally by Thursday.

A Boston dispatch says: "There is a firm tone in the Wool market, with a fairly steady demand in progress. Dealers are convinced that all the Wool here will be wanted before the new clip becomes available. The slow call for Woolens for next fall has caused manufacturers to be conservative in buying raw material. The market for Territory Wools is steady, with values held firm. Pulled Wools are quiet, but firm. Foreign Wools have a large call."

The American Smelting and Refining Company, according to one who is in a position to know, has within its scope all the smelting interests of the United Load Company and the Guggenheim Company The smelting company practically monopolizes the pig Lead business in connection with the Guggenheim Company, and by going into manufacturing finished Lead products on a larger scale, a firmer hold upon the Lead industry as a whole will be secured.

The stockholders of the National Citizens' Bank and of the Central National Bank New York, held meetings, Monday, and the stockholders of both approved the proposition to consolidate with and solidation of the banks. The new bank will be known as the Citizens' Central National Bank of New York. The stockholders of the New York Security and Trust Company and of the Continental Trust Company also favorably considered a proposition to consolidate the two institutions.

The president of the Republic Iron and Steel Company, Monday, said regarding the proposed consolidation of the Southern interests of the Republic Iron and Steel, Tennessee Coal and Iron and Sloss-Sheffield Company: "A new committee is organized for the purpose of appraising the various properties and looking into matters in general will not be able to make a report for several weeks. The consolidation will be the best solution of the difficulties existing in the Birmingham district."

The Standard Trust Company of New York, agent for reorganization of the International Harvesting Company, gives notice that the permanent engraved voting trust certificates for stock are now ready for delivery in exchange for the temporary certificates. Temporary certificates should be indorsed in blank with signature guaranteed by a bank or bankers or acknowledged before a notary public. In case stock is made out to a different name it should be so indorsed.

According to a director, the Diamond Match Company is already selling the product of its large California Timber holdings. The proceeds from these sales are to be used for the payment of revenues, and, with steady development of the new source of earnings, it is expected that the company's income for 1904 will be materially increased. It is understood that the recent rise in matches during January and February were somewhat larger than last year, while the cost of production, if anything, was a little cheaper.

The United States Steel Corporation has advanced the price of Wire and its products 5c per 100 lbs. Prices at Chicago and Pittsburg are said to yet be about $10 00 per ton less than they were at the close of the last calendar year. It is presumed to be the purpose of the trust to restore these figures, and it would not be surprising if another advance were made before the end of the month. Officials of the American Steel and Wire Company say the trade will take the advance, and demand has been so large that independent manufacturers will follow any increase at once.

The common stock of the new Mackey Companies has sold at $25 00 per share. The annual report of the Commercial Cable Company will be published promptly this week. It is expected that it will be possible to estimate the value of the equity that sells with this stock. The equity will be the net surplus after the 4 per cent preferred dividends. For per cent on the new preferred is equal to 8 per cent on the old stock. The amount of old stock outstanding is $15,000,000. The dividend requirements of the new preferred will amount to $2,400,000 per annum.

The box board and paper mills throughout the country controlled by the Paper Products Company resumed business on Monday, after the week's shutdown on account of the floods, with the overproduction going on and reduce the stocks of goods on hand. It is announced that no further shutdowns will be ordered this year by the Paper Products Company. All of the mills will be allowed to run full time and make as large quantities of box board as they are able to turn out, and any surplus which the Paper Products Company has to handle will be sent abroad for sale.

The American Hydraulic Placer Mining Company, capitalized at $10,000,000, has been sued in the Circuit Court in Spokane for $1,000,000 by the Paper is secured by a trust deed covering over 1,000 acres of placer mining claims in Bingham County, Idaho. It is alleged that on Oct. 30, 1895, a note was given, payable to bearer, through the First National Bank, Chicago. Over forty placer mining claims of twenty acres each are described in the deed securing the note. There are also sixty smaller claims described in the deed. There also saw and planing mills, pipe lines, and equipment of the company's mining plants in Idaho.

Germany has an area less than the State of Texas, yet it produces six times as much Potato crop as the United States. The Potato crop is, therefore, about the most important of any raised in the empire, and is the country's chief food product. The intensive system of farming in Europe makes it necessary to farm every foot of land to the best advantage, and therefore Germany's crop could per acre average more than that in this country. The one thing that Germany is short on is Meat, but this deficiency could be pretty well supplied by this country at reasonable cost if Germany would admit our Meats on the same basis.

In spite of the unusually unfavorable weather the earnings of the Chicago and Milwaukee Electric Railroad Company for the month of February showed an increase of nearly $10,000 over those of February of last year. The earnings from the Libertyville extension are responsible for a large part of the gain, since the branch was not put in operation until December of last year. The main line was also much more prosperous than a year ago. The road is making good progress in getting a franchise in Waukegan, and there is reason to expect that before next winter the through trolley connection with Milwaukee will be made.

The North British Agriculturist of Feb. 24 says: "In the North-of-Scotland the plow has been idle for ten weeks on account of frost and snow. South of the Tay, however, field work is progressing favorably, except in the South of England, where the land is still saturated. In many districts of the North of Scotland the disasters of the bad harvest have been greatly added to by the root crops being badly destroyed by the long period of bare frost. In the Midland and Southern districts of Scotland field work is now in a very forward state, and no small part of the red land is ready for the seed drill or scarifier. Potato planting in Ayr and Girvan district. Potato planting is being pushed forward under favorable conditions."

A New York dispatch says: "A gentleman affiliated with the packing-house interest says: 'A packing-house combination is no longer a necessity, for the packers already have a combination to all intents and purposes, which gives them the desired results of improved profits without the public opposition and legal complications. This condition of affairs was brought about through the formation of the National Packing Company. It has a capital of $15,000,000, and it is all owned by the Swift, Armour and Morris families. These directors meet two or three times a week and lay out a policy, and the result is a working combination between these three big packing interests as closely connected as though all the business were done through one big company.'"

St. Petersburg advices of Feb. 22 state that the week opened with intense frost in the North and Northeast regions, but the weather was moderate in the Central Governments, while in the South and Southwest zone a rapid thaw took place with copious rains. Toward the close of the week atmospheric conditions became considerably milder even in the Northeast. The snow cover has still further diminished, particularly in the Western provinces, the whole of Poland and the Valleys of the Dniester, Don and Volga, while the fields are being divested of snow—owing to the frozen state of the rivers are now open. So early an advent of spring, in view of the possibility of the return of very severe weather, inspires serious apprehensions for the safety of the autumn-sown cereals.

Dornbusch's Buda Pesth correspondent, writing under date of Feb 20, says: "The Flour market has suffered from the relative high and the Corn which the millers have felt obliged to resort to in view of the excitement in Grain. Sales have been on a small one s by smaller—but the Flour during but week in the of season. Not only was Flour offered by dealers much below millers' prices, but a number of Austrian and Bohemian merchants have there appeared in the market in order to secure a handsome profit. This seems to confirm the impression that recent heavy purchases were largely of a speculative character, and that the Russo-Japanese crisis has made no difference in the extent of Austro-Hungarian consumption. Business for export has become almost impossible. Deliveries on old contracts have, however, been good, probably owing to the paucity of navigation. Feedingstuffs were firm."

AVAILABLE STOCKS OF BREADSTUFFS.

On the reverse page of this issue of the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN will be found an interesting statement of the Breadstuffs supply in Europe, America and Argentina on March 1. It is very complete. It includes the European and Argentina stocks as collected by Broomhall's Corn Trade News, Liverpool, a portion of the visible supply as compiled by the Secretary of the Chicago Board of Trade, the stocks in the Northwest collected by the Minneapolis Daily Market Record, returns from about forty points (including Denver and Pittsburg), estimated, and Portland, Me., from Bradstreet's, with the balance of the report collected and compiled by the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

New York Exchange 10@20c discount.

Documentary Sterling steady at 4.83¼.

Chicago Bank Clearings to-day, $27,184,264

Consols closed 1-16 higher at 85⅝ money and 85¾ account.

Minimum rate of discount of Bank of England is unchanged at 4 per cent.

Estimated receipts for to-morrow are: Wheat, 15 cars; Corn, 115 cars; Oats 145 cars; Hogs, 32,000

Reported that 144,000 bu Wheat and 640,000 bu Corn were taken at the seaboard to-day for export

Chicago sold choice Cattle at $5.00, Kansas City $5.15, Omaha $5.20 and St. Joseph $4.75, Wednesday.

Eight packers purchased 15,300 Hogs to-day; shippers 8,000, left over, 9,000. Market closed 10@25c lower.

The Bank of England to-day sold $1,225,000 Gold to Argentina. The Bank bought in open market $145,000 bar Gold

Stocks of Hog Products at Chicago estimated at 47,100 brls Mess Pork, 70,000 tcs Lard, and 30,000,000 lbs Short Rib Sides.

The Cincinnati Price Current estimates the packing of the West for the week at 330,000 Hogs, compared with 340,000 for corresponding week in 1903.

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago, Wednesday, was $5.59 against $5.47 Tuesday, $5.41 Monday, $5.35 last Saturday, $5.23 a week ago, and $7.50 a year ago.

Vessel agents are talking 2½c on Wheat from Chicago and Milwaukee to Buffalo for immediate loading and spring shipment. For Corn they ask 2¼c, and Oats 2c.

Local Securities were unsettled, with light trading. Biscuit preferred, Carbon, Box Board preferred and Chicago Telephone made good declines, and Can and Swifts advanced.

Cotton in New York was inclined to be irregular, with trading moderate. Prices averaged higher after receding early. Receipts are running small, and feeling is rather "bullish." Closing sales were at gains of 5@10 points.

Stocks in New York were slow, and although firmer early, closed irregular without changes of significance. Peoples Gas was sold on rumors of an adverse decision from the Supreme Court. Money easy at 1¾ to 2 per cent.

A Wichita, Kan., dispatch says: "The first substantial rain since last October has fallen in this city. It will aid the growing Wheat and put the ground in good condition for plowing for Corn and Oats. The storm extends throughout East Oklahoma."

If 57 Flour mills in the Northwest, outside of Minneapolis and Duluth, have ground 324,000 brls of Flour more since September 1 to date than for the corresponding date in 1902-3, what have the other 489 additional Flour mills been doing? They ground about 52,000,000 bu Wheat of the crop of 1902.

The Cincinnati Price Current in its weekly crop summary says: "The Wheat crop reports a slightly more cheerful situation. It is still one of much uncertainty. The Wheat movement east of the Mississippi River is limited by small supplies. Westward it is above an average, but diminishing. The Corn situation is not materially changed."

The Northwestern Miller says: "As to the new Winter Wheat crop many reports early in the week were to the effect that damage to the young plant was apparent, while high winds with the prevalent drouth over a large part of Kansas were said to have done irreparable injury. Special telegrams from the Southwest received yesterday state, however, that there have been heavy rains, with excellent crop weather, in Missouri, and that the Kansas reports were exaggerated; the plant remains in fair condition to resist the drouth."

The Kansas City Star says: "The case decided by the Kansas City Court of Appeals, Monday, wherein the sale of a 'put' on Wheat was pronounced 'nothing more nor less than gambling,' was one which the Board of Trade itself had refused to recognize. An attempt was made to take the case before the Arbitration Committee of the Board, but the Committee refused to consider it. The Board of Trade has never recognized the legality of privilege trading, and has always refused to arbitrate cases arising from such transactions. A 'put' or a 'call' is merely a contract wherein one party gives to another the privilege to sell or buy at a certain price. It is not a purchase or sale of Grain and has never been recognized as a legitimate transaction by the Board of Trade, though there is more or less trading in them every day."

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—The market is ruling quiet, buyers holding off and awaiting more settled conditions in Wheat.

WINTER WHEAT—Was irregular. Soft Winter was quiet and quotably 1c lower, while Hard Winter was steady and averaged a shade better in some instances. Demand fair, but millers not so anxious for the soft Wheat as of late. No. 2 Red in store ranged at 98¾@99c and fresh arrivals free on board quotably 95@97c. No. 3 Red free on board quotably 93@96c. No. 2 Hard local sold at 87½c and quotable at the river at 86@87c. No. 3 Hard local sold at 84@83½c and at the river ranged at 78@85c. No. 3 White sold at 90c.

SPRING WHEAT—Was stronger and prices 1@2c higher. There was a better demand for No. 1 Northern; it was sought after and ruled firmer. There were sales of about 100,000 bu, the regular grade in store Wheat ruling about 2c under May, and for special bin lots 2½@3½c premium was paid. The demand was on milling and on shipping account. It was claimed some low grades were shipped to Minneapolis. No. 1 Northern in store quotable at 93¼@95, and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 94@95½c. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals, free on board ranged at 86@93c. No. 3 Spring local quotable at 80@93c for poor to choice, with sales at the river at 85@86c. No. 4 local sold at 65@72c and ranged at 58@88c for very poor to choice hard variety.

REGULAR WHEAT—A very fair trade, but mainly on the professional order. The feeling manifested was moderately "bullish" and the tendency of values upward, with closing prices 1½c higher for May, while July gained 1c and September about ⅞c. Cables were relatively firm and crop reports from the Southwest rather "bullish." Reports from Kansas were bad—hot winds and sandstorms and fear of Hessian fly. Wichita, however, reported the first substantial rain since last October. It was reported that half of the State correspondents of Southern Michigan stated Wheat was injured in February, but no damage farther north. Southwestern interests were quite prominent on the "long" side of the market and professionals here helped along the advance. The break in Corn caused a moderate reaction, but with the recovery in the price of that cereal the situation again turned stronger. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ⅛d higher and futures ⅛@⅛d better. London came steady to ⅛d higher. Antwerp declined ⅛c and Buda Pesth lost ⅞c, while Berlin gained ⅜c. Primary receipts were 100,000 bu larger than a year ago. Kansas City and St. Louis received 151,000 bu, against 50,000 bu last year; shipments 237,000 bu. Receipts in the Northwest 36 cars larger than in 1903. Winnipeg had 62 cars, last year 168 cars. Clearings were small, and eighteen boat loads taken at the seaboard. Fair and colder conditions were predicted for Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska, and showers for Illinois and Indiana. Rosario, Argentina, cabled as follows: "Estimate very meager shipments from here; the old stock is all cleared off, arrivals from interior very poor; freights are weak and will probably decline March-April; moderate shipments expected from here this week." Flour output for the week was 535,000 brls, against 463,000 brls same week in 1903. Price Current noted but little change in the crop outlook the past week. The strength at Kansas City was one of the late "bull" helps. Minneapolis stocks estimated to have decreased 160,000 bu past five days. It was predicted interior elevator stocks in the Northwest would decrease about 2,000,000 bu during the month of March. Cash sales here 100,000 bu, part of which is said would go back to Minneapolis. Receipts at Duluth 15 cars and at Minneapolis 299 cars, a total of 341 cars against 400 cars yesterday, 225 cars a week ago, and 398 cars last year. Local receipts included 15 cars Winter 10 cars Spring and 2 cars mixed, a total of 27 cars, against 20 cars last year. Included in the above was 1 car of contract grade. There were 6 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 15 cars. Withdrawals were 22,750 bu. Receipts at Western points were 536,253 bu against 434,845 bu last year. At Eastern points 87,948 bu, against 51,358 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 351,329 bu, against 133,355 bu last year, and from Eastern points 42,045 bu, against 77,115 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 40,358 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 237,151 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Active trade and prices higher.

MARCH—Entirely nominal; closed about 92c.

MAY—Sold at 91¾@94c. Opened with sales at 93c to 92¼c; sold to 92½c, to 92c, to 92¼c, to 91¾c, to 93c, to 92½c, to 93¼c, to 93c, to 94c, to 93⅝c, to 94c, and closed at 94c.

JULY—Old Style—Sold at 89¼@89⅝c and at 91c. Opened with sales at 89⅞c to 90⅛c, sold to 89¾c, to 89⅝@89¾c, to 90⅛c, to 89¼@89⅝c, to 90⅛c, to 90¼c, to 90½c, to 90c, to 90¾c, to 90⅝c, to 91c, to 90⅞c, to 91c, to 90¾c, and closed at 90¾c.

JULY—New Style—Sold at 87¾c and at 89½@89⅝c. Opened with sales at 88½c to 88⅝@88¾c; sold to 88¼c, to 88½c, to 87¾c, to 88c, to 88⅞c, to 88⅝c, to 89¼c, to 89⅛c to 89⅝@89¾c, to 89⅜c, to 89½c to 89¼c, and closed at 89¼c asked.

SEPTEMBER—Old Style—Sold at 84¼@85⅝c. Opened with sales at 84⅞c to 85⅜c, sold to 85⅛c, to 85¼c to 84½c, to 85⅛c, to 84⅝c, to 85⅜c, to 85⅝c to 85⅛c, and closed at 85⅜c sellers.

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 83@84¾c. Opened with sales at 83¾c to 84½c, sold to 84c, to 84½c, to 83¾c, to 83⅞c, to 83⅜c, to 83c, to 83½c, to 83¾c to 84⅛c, to 84⅛c to 84¾c, to 84⅛@84¼c, and closed at 84⅛@84¼c.

CORN—A good trade and active market, with the feeling again very unsettled. Closing prices showed the May ⅝c higher, while the July gained full 1c and the September about ⅞c. Sentiment was "bearish" at the start, and under further liquidation and stop-loss selling May broke to 50c and July to 48⅝c. Houses prominent on the "bear" side yesterday again led in the selling, but around the above figures "shorts" came in and the situation became stronger. May advanced to 52⅜c and the July to 50½c. Warehouse interests gave the market good support and helped along the advance. Liverpool firm and quoted spot steady to ¾d better, while futures were ⅛d lower to ⅜d higher. Liverpool reported the withdrawal of new crop Argentine offerings and good demand for spot. Seaboard claimed a better foreign demand with 80 boat loads accepted and was one of the principal strengthening influences. Receipts were small, 173 cars, and only 145 cars estimated for to-morrow. The map shows generally thawing conditions through the Corn belt, but colder weather generally indicated. Receipts at primary markets were 458,000 bu, against 581,000 bu one year ago and shipments 387,000 bu and 510,000 bu respectively. Local arrivals 179,000 bu and shipments 234,000 bu. Exports were 216,000 bu and transfers from private to public elevators were 15,400 bu and 14 cars. The Government report to come out this afternoon is expected to show about 850,000,000 bu in farmers' hands on March 1. Last year the stock was 1,050,000,000 bu. Shipping demand moderate and sales 40,000 bu. Car lots were steady to 1c lower. Demand fair and offerings lighter. No. 2 closed about 50¾c, and No. 2 Yellow at 51¼c. No. 3 closed at 43½@50¼c, and No. 3 Yellow at 45@50¾c.

Corn by sample—Offerings smaller and demand fair. Feeling weaker and prices unchanged to 1c lower. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 29@37½c. No. 4 at 37@41c. No. 3 at 42¾@41c. No. 3 Yellow at 47c. No. 2 at 49½c. No. 2 Yellow at 51½c. No. 3 White at 42⅝@45½c. No. 2 White at 49½c. Billed through: No Grade at 34@38c. No. 4 at 39@42c. No. 3 at 41@43c. No. 3 Yellow at 43½@44½c. No. 3 White at 41½c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Active and greatly unsettled, the close showing gains of ⅝@1c.

MARCH—Inactive; closed about 49¾c.

MAY—Sold at 50@52⅜c. Opened at 51⅜c to 51⅝c, and sold at 51⅛c, to 51¼c, to 51¼c, to 51⅜@51½c, to 51¼c, to 51⅛c, to 50½c, to 50⅝c, to 50¼c, to 50½c, to 50c, to 50¼c, to 50⅜c, to 51⅛c, to 51c, to 51¼c, to 50⅞c, to 51⅞c, to 51⅞@51⅝c, to 52⅜c, to 52c, to 52¼c, and closed at 52¼c sellers.

JULY—Sold at 48⅝@50½c. Opened at 49½c to 49⅝c and sold at 49⅛@49¼c, to 49½c, to 49¼c, to 49¾@49⅞c, to 49c, to 49⅜c, to 48⅝c, to 48⅝c, to 49⅛c, to 49¾c, to 49¼c, to 50¼c, to 50⅛c, to 50⅜c, to 49⅞c, to 50⅜c, to 50⅛c, to 50½c, and closed at 50½c asked.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 48⅛c and 49⅝@49¾c. Opened at 48¾c to 48⅞c and sold at 48½@48⅝c, to 48¾c, to 48⅛c, to 48¾c, to 48⅞c, to 49⅛c, to 48¾c, to 49⅜c, to 49¼c, to 49⅝@49¾c, to 49½c, to 49⅝c, and closed at 49⅝c.

OATS—Were excited and prices extremely irregular. There was a selling movement in May early—a renewal of that of yesterday—and prices receded ⅝c in sympathy with Corn. Other months at the same time lost ¼@⅜c. There was good buying on the break by early sellers, also covering by "shorts" and good support from "bulls" who sold out previously and were taking back their lines. There was also buying in anticipation of a "bullish" report on farm reserves. Prices advanced ⅞@1¾c, May leading, and closed strong at net gains of ⅝@1c. There was wet weather and smaller estimates for to-morrow—145 cars, against 261 cars to-day. From private to public houses there were transfers of 3 cars and 9,700 bu. Seaboard clearances 12,000. Car lots to go to store were ½@1c lower. Standard in store closed about 40⅜@40¾c as to location. No. 4 White sold at 39c. No. 3 at 39c for white. No. 3 White at 39@39½c.

Oats by sample were in good request for the better grades, but prices weakened ½@1c. A feature was the liberal offerings of common Barley mixed, which are slow sale, the trade here not caring for country mixtures. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 at 37c. No. 4 White at 37@40½c. No. 3 at 37@39c. No. 3 White at 39½@42c. Standard at 42½@43½c. No. 2 at 39½c. Billed through: No. 4 White at 38½@40c. No. 3 White at 40@41c. Standard at 41½c. No. 2 at 39½c. At the river. No Grade at 33c. No. 4 at 36c. No. 4 White at 34@39c. No. 3 White at 38@40c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were unsettled, selling lower, but reacting and closing higher.

MARCH—Inactive, closed at 40⅝c.

MAY—Active and irregular. Sold at 39¾@41½c. Opened at 40¼c to 40½c, sold to 39¾c, to 41½c, and closed at 41⅜c.

JULY—Active. Sold at 38¼@39⅛c. Opened at 38⅝c to 38⅝c, sold to 38¼c, to 39⅛c, to 39⅛c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 33@33⅞c. Opened at 33⅜c to 33½c, sold to 33c, to 33⅞c, to 33¾c at close.

RYE—Was steadier. There was a little more disposition to purchase both cash and futures. Offerings moderate. The receipts were eight cars. No withdrawals from store here and no export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store nominally 69½c and fresh arrivals free on board sold at 70c. No. 3 sold at 61c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Steady. March nominally 69½c. May sold at 68½c and closed at 68½c bid and 69c asked. July nominally about 67c.

BARLEY—The market ruled very dull to-day. It was a dark day, bad for judging quality. The offerings were small, and then again buyers were scarce. Being a dull, slow market, a weak feeling prevailed. No material change in prices noted. Some good weight, clean, at the same time dark, damaged Barley on sale, and no demand. It was not wanted for malting and was not suited for mixing. To-day's postings were 16 cars in. Screenings were quoted, poor, dirty to choice at 37@41c. Barley, feed or mixing, at 36@40c local, depending on soundness and color, some poor musty sold 36@37c. Malting—low grade, 41@42c; common, 43@44c. Fair was about 45@46c; good, 48@50c; choice, 52@55c; fancy possibly higher; not offered.

SEEDS—Were quiet. The weather was cloudy and too dark to handle such lines as are sold by sample. There were no price changes for Grass Seeds. Flax however, was firmer and was salable at 1c advance.

Timothy—Considerable cash Seed was offered, and only a portion of it was sold. It was so dark that value could not be properly judged by examining samples. Futures were hardly so much as mentioned. Tone of the market easy except for high grade cash Seed. There were, however, no evidences of change. Country lots remained at a quotable range of $2.25@3.25 for poor to fancy, fair to good at $2.50@2.70; choice $2.75@2.80 unhulled, clean, bright $3.00@3.25, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2.40@2.50; tailings lower. Futures nominal. March delivery about $3.05. May possibly $3.10.

Flax—There was 1c advance all around in prices, and it was due to improvement in the Northwest. The market was exceedingly quiet; in this respect as it has been for some time. Nineteen cars or 16,400 came in, and 5 cars or 5,182 bu were taken out. No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest sold sparingly at $1.13. No. 1 remained $1.09 bid. Rejected nominally $1.06@1.09, outside for choice Northwestern. March quotable at $1.09 bid and May nominally $1.11.

Clover—Was quotably steady. Salable at late prices. Market without offerings, hence inactive. Contract spot and March delivery $11.05. Country lots, common to choice $8.25@11.40; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds $8.00@9.50, poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3.00@6.00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $9.00@10.75.

Other Seeds—A little Millet carried over was sold. Nothing else offered. All were quotably steady and salable. Prices were not disturbed. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark at $1.60@1.90. Common Millet $1.00@1.55 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1.00@1.40. Siberian, 85c@$1.05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c. Mustard, 85c@$1.05. Buckwheat, good milling, salable at $1.35@1.40.

HOG PRODUCTS—Considerable interest was manifested in the market for Hog Products and the feeling was somewhat unsettled. Offerings were moderately free early, with a rather light inquiry, and an easier feeling prevailed, accompanied with lower prices in all the leading articles, due to fairly good receipts of Hogs and a decline in prices. At the reduction, the demand was more active. "Shorts" were inclined to purchase, and there was fairly good buying by parties who think the decline is sufficient for the present. A little more steadiness in the Grain markets had a little influence, and the fact that the returns of the packing of the West showed a decrease of 10,000 Hogs compared with the corresponding week in 1903, also was a factor and encouraged some buying. Prices advanced considerably all around, and extreme figures were fairly well supported to the close. Fair trading in transferring contracts from May to July at the current differences. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 62,500, compared with 43,400 one year ago. Foreign markets were quiet and rather easy. Cumberland Sides quoted 6d lower. Domestic markets quiet. Receipts of Products were fair—of Lard and Meats about 24 cars. Shipments were moderate—of Lard and Meats about 23 cars. Shipping demand was light, and offerings were moderate. Sales small, and prices without material change.

Mess Pork—Quite a good business was transacted in Mess Pork, and the feeling was unsettled. Offerings were moderately free, and the demand was rather active. Market opened with a little pressure to sell, and prices ruled 7½@12½c lower, and prices irregularly receded 10@15c more. At the reduction, the demand improved, while the offerings were moderate, and prices rallied 32½@35c. Toward the close the feeling was not so strong, and prices receded 2½c, and the market closed comparatively steady. Demand on shipping account was light and offerings were moderate. Cash lots quotable at $13.85@13.87½.

MAY—Offerings were fair and the demand was rather active. Sales were made at $13.55@13.90. Opened at $13.65 to $13.70, sold to $13.75, to $13.67½, to $13.70, to $13.60, to $13.62½, to $13.57½, to $13.62½, to $13.55, to $13.67½, to $13.65, to $13.80, to $13.77½, to $13.90, to $13.82½, to $13.87½, to $13.85, to $13.87½, and closed steady.

JULY—In rather good demand, with fair offerings. Sales were made at $13.77½@14.12½. Opened at $13.92½, sold to $13.95, to $13.77½, to $13.87½, to $13.82½, to $14.12½, to $14.07½, to $14.10@14.12½, to $14.10 and closed steady.

Lard—Trade was fairly active in the Lard market, and feeling somewhat unsettled. Offerings were fair and the demand rather active. Foreign advices were unchanged. Market opened rather easy, and prices ruled 2½@5c lower, which was followed by a further reduction of 12½@15c. At the decline, there was quite a good general demand, while offerings were lighter, and prices rallied 17@20c, and the market closed steady. Demand on shipping account light and offerings very moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $7.15@7.17½. Loose lots called for sparingly and offerings were rather light. Prices were steady at about 62½c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in light request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotable lower at $6.50@6.62½. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably lower at $7.87½@8.00 for No. 1 and $7.62½@7.75 for No. 2.

MAY—Offerings were fair and the demand was moderately active. Sales were made at $7.15@7.32½. Opened at $7.27½, sold to $7.25, to $7.27½, to $7.22½, to $7.25, to $7.15, to $7.30, to $7.27½, to $7.30, to $7.27½, to $7.32½, and closed steady.

JULY—In fair request and offerings were not very free. Sales were made at $7.27½@7.47½. Opened at $7.40, sold to $7.42½, to $7.37½, to $7.47½, to $7.45, to $7.47½, and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—A fairly good trade was reported in Short Rib Sides, and the feeling was unsettled. Offerings were fairly liberal and the demand was moderately active. Market opened rather easy, and prices ruled 2½c lower, which was followed by a further reduction of 5@7½c. At the decline, the demand improved and prices rallied 15@17½c, with fair trading at the advancing scale. Market not quite so strong at the close, but the market closed steady. Shipping demand was light, and offerings were small. Cash lots quotable at $7.00@7.12½ according to weight.

MAY—In rather good request, and offerings were fair. Sales were made at $7.07½@7.22½. Opened at $7.12½, sold to $7.07½, to $7.10, to $7.07½, to $7.15@7.17½, to $7.15, to $7.22½, to $7.17½@7.20, to $7.22½, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were not very large, and the demand was fairly active. Sales were made at $7.17½@7.35. Opened at $7.25, sold to $7.20@7.22½, to $7.25, to $7.17½, to $7.35, to $7.32½, to $7.35, and closed steady.

Other Meats—Trade was only moderate and the feeling rather steady. Offerings were only fair. Demand was moderate for the home trade. Export inquiry very limited. Green Meats in moderate supply and rather light demand, and prices were unchanged. Pickled Meats were in fair request to fill moderate orders and prices were unchanged. Dry Salted Meats were in fair demand in a quiet way and prices ruled steady. Smoked Meats called for in fair quantities, especially in a jobbing way, and prices were steady. Closing prices as follows:

SUPPLY OF BREADSTUFFS

Stocks in Europe and America.

According to the special cablegram from Broomhall's Corn Trade News, Liverpool, to the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN, the supplies of Breadstuffs—Flour and Wheat—in second hands in store in the principal countries of Europe, in Argentina, and afloat for Europe on March 1, 1904, exhibited an increase equal to 1,186,000 bu. during February, as compared with a decrease of 4,852,000 bu. during January, and a decrease of 4,852,000 bu. during February, 1903. The aggregate quantity of Breadstuffs afloat for Europe on March 1, 1904, exhibited an increase of 10,200,000 bu. during February, compared with an increase of 16,400,000 bu. during January, and an increase of 6,720,000 bu. during February, 1903. Supplies on passage to the United Kingdom were reduced 15,000,000 bu., those for the Continent increased 2,800,000 bu., and those "for orders" increased 6,600,000 bu. The aggregate supplies afloat for Europe on March 1, 1904, were 6,920,000 bu more than reported one year previous, and 8,320,000 bu more than reported two years previous. During February, 1904, the aggregate supplies in store in the principal countries of Europe were decreased 10,650,000 bu., compared with a decrease of 12,350,000 bu. during January, and a decrease of 7,710,000 bu. during February, 1903. Stocks in the United Kingdom were reduced 15,000,000 bu., those in France increased 1,100,000 bu., those in Germany, Belgium and Holland decreased 2,200,000 bu., those in Russia increased 1,000,000 bu., and those in other countries of Europe decreased 500,000 bu. Stocks in Russia were reported 7,350,000 on hand January, and were decreased 1,250,000 bu. during February, 1904. Supplies in Argentina, which were about 2,720,000 bu less than reported one year ago, and 4,000,000 bu more than reported two years ago. The aggregate stocks in store in Europe on March 1, 1904, were 27,200,000 bu more than reported one year previous. Compare with the returns of one year ago the supplies of Breadstuffs, in store and afloat for the United Kingdom, on March 1, 1904, were 7,800,000 bu more, those for the Continent 1,240,000 bu more, and those "for orders" 3,600,000 bu more. The aggregate supplies of Breadstuffs credited to Europe in the Argentina, on March 1, 1904 were 10,240,000 bu more than reported on March 1, 1903. Advices from abroad in reference to the Wheat crop are a little conflicting, but not generally satisfactory. In the United Kingdom, the outlook is rather poor. In France, Austria, Roumania and Bulgaria the prospects are fairly good. In Russia the indications point to a moderate crop and the spring area may be reduced. If farm employes are drawn upon to enlarge the army. In Germany, the weather is cold and backward, and the crops are very poor. In other portions of Europe the outlook is only fair. Argentina and Australia are still shipping Wheat freely, and India is furnishing fair supplies.

DOMESTIC SUPPLIES OF BREADSTUFFS.

The aggregate supplies of Breadstuffs—Flour and Wheat—in the United States and Canada on March 1, 1904, as compiled by the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN and the Minneapolis Journal, exhibited a decrease during February equal to 7,543,000 bu, compared with an decrease of 1,834,000 bu during January, and a decrease of 8,112,000 bu during February, 1903. The decrease was widespread throughout the country, though more marked through the East than elsewhere. Reductions were moderate in the Central West, but somewhat heavy, owing to rather free delivering of Wheat during the latter part of the month. Farmers rather inclined to sell at the advanced prices. The aggregate supplies of Flour in the United States and Canada were reduced 115,000 bris during February, compared with a reduction of 35,000 bris during January, and an increase of 93,000 bris during February, 1903. Supplies of Wheat were reported in the Eastern markets, and slight decreases elsewhere. The following table exhibits the stocks of Flour in the principal cities of the United States on the dates named:

Cities.	March 1, 1904. Bris.	Feb. 1, 1904. Bris.	March 1, 1903. Bris.
Philadelphia	155,000	186,000	169,000
New York	72,000	69,500	86,100
Chicago	34,250	20,350	37,295
St. Louis	58,800	51,000	44,500
Toledo	6,000	6,000	5,500
Baltimore	26,000	51,000	45,000
Detroit	12,000	15,000	8,000
Boston	67,100	63,185	75,350
Milwaukee	19,600	45,800	20,900
Duluth	31,000	30,000	37,000

Stocks of Flour at the points were reduced 54,277 bris during February, compared with a decrease of 2,196 bris during January, and an increase of 66,434 bris during February, 1903. The aggregate supplies of Flour at these markets on March 1 were 111,796 bris less than reported one year previous. Stocks of Flour at the Atlantic seaboard markets on March 1, 1904, were 34,500 bris. compared with 368,785 bris on February 1, and 341,659 bris on March 1, 1903. The aggregate supplies of Flour in the United States and Canada on March 1, were 91,069 bris less than reported on March 1, 1903.

During the month of February the supplies of Wheat in the United States and Canada decreased 7,470,000 bu, compared with a decrease of 1,672,000 bu during January, and a decrease of 1,431,000 bu during February, 1903. Supplies were reduced moderately in the Atlantic seaboard ports, the United States, and slightly enlarged in Canada. Farmers rather free to forward the close, but millers rather slow to purchase. Stocks in the Northwest increased 2,500,000 bu, compared with an increase of 310,000 bu in February, 1903. Stocks in the interior elevators of the Northwest were reduced 2,500,000 bu during February, compared with a reduction of 578,000 bu during January, and a reduction of 180,000 bu during February, 1903. The stocks on hand are reported at 5,184,000 bu on March 1, compared with 7,684,000 bu on February 1, and 4,357,000 bu on March 1, 1903. The aggregate supplies of Wheat in second hands in the United States and Canada on March 1, 1904, were 5,500,000 bu less than one year ago, and 36,619,000 bu less than two years ago.

SUPPLIES AT HOME AND ABROAD.

The aggregate supplies of Breadstuffs afloat for Europe, and in store in Europe and Argentina, and in store in the United States and Canada on March 1, 1904, including a larger number of points than in any other compilation, were equal to 163,361,000 bu, against 169,710,000 bu on February 1, and 153,485,000 bu on March 1, 1903. The decrease during February was equal to 6,349,000 bu, compared with a decrease of 3,120,000 bu during January. The aggregate supplies in all positions in America Europe and Argentina on March 1, 1904, were 5,157,000 bu more than reported one year previous, and 9,876,000 bu less than reported two years ago.

POSITION OF WHEAT IN THE UNITED STATES.

The movement of Wheat in the United States at the primary markets from July 1 to March 1 was 80,401,000 bu, compared with 282,340,000 bu for the corresponding period in 1903. The exports of Flour and Wheat during the same period were about 102,000,000 bu, compared with 149,000,000 bu for the same time last year—a decrease of 47,000,000 bu, or 31.5 per cent. The official visible supply is about 12,000,000 bu smaller than one year ago. Estimating the Wheat crop of the United States at 675,000,000 bu—which is the most conservative figure that could be placed on the advices of the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN—and allowing 78,000,000 bu for supplies in all positions on July 1, 1903, the aggregate supply for the twelve months would be approximately 753,000,000 bu. Allowing 410,000,000 bu for domestic consumption, 72,000,000 bu for seeding purposes, 10,000,000 bu for exports to date, and 90,000,000 bu for supplies on hand July 1, 1904, making an aggregate accounted for of 674,000,000 bu, and would leave for export during the remaining four months 79,000,000 bu, or an average of 19,700,000 bu per month, against the average from March 1, 1903, to July 1, 1903, were about 51,000,000 bu, or equal 12,700,000 bu per month.

FLOUR TRADE DURING FEBRUARY.

Flour trade in the United States and Canada was rather active during the past month. With the declaration of war in the far East, and the advance in Wheat, the domestic demand was quite good, particularly early in the month. Mercantile distributing centers and in the large manufacturing districts were inclined to enlarge their supplies, and the small consumers were disposed to lay in additional stocks. The export trade on the general situation would warrant a further appreciation. The export demand was meager, as merchants abroad could obtain their supplies under more favorable conditions in other quarters. The production was fairly liberal, and the demand in the aggregate was sufficient to absorb it, and made fair inroads upon the stocks on hand. The lack of rail ad facilities in some quarters checked business to some extent. In New England, trade was moderate as buyers were slow to pay the prices demanded. Receipts were light. In Central New York, there was a fairly good trade reported early in the month, but it slackened considerably in the latter part. In Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and Kansas, the majority of millers reported a good trade, and almost exclusively to meet the wants of the domestic trade. In Oklahoma and Texas, the demand for Flour was quite good, but only a few export orders were provided for. In Iowa and Nebraska there was a good general trade, chiefly for home wants. In Wisconsin, trade was moderate, and chiefly on domestic account. In the Northwest, the production was only fair, and the demand was a little slow, especially during the latter part of the month. In the Rocky Mountains district, trade was quite good to supply local wants On the Pacific Coast, trade was fair, with some inquiry for export. In Canada, millers reported a fairly good trade, chiefly to supply home wants.

WHEAT MOVEMENT DURING FEBRUARY.

The movement of Wheat from the interior of the United States was not very large during February—about 35,000,000 bu, compared with 36,000,000 bu the corresponding month in 1903. Prices were advanced considerably, and farmers were willing to sell fair quantities, though some are holding for still higher prices on the strength of the war news, and the not very favorable prospects for the growing Wheat crop. Millers and interior warehousemen were slow to follow the advance, consequently more than the usual proportion made its appearance in the larger primary markets. The slackening in the Flour trade did not warrant millers in paying the prices demanded, and the decline near the close tended to curtail the offerings. Farmers are not disposed to sell Wheat under 67 @ 68 at present. Lack of transportation checked business to some extent. The export demand for both Wheat and Flour was light, and the aggregate exports for the month were the least in some years. Cut rates on freight ought to enlarge the movement from the larger markets. If facilities are extended. The quantity in farmers' hands, according to the returns to the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN, are about 148,000,000 bu, compared with 171,000,000 bu last year—our estimate last year being 7,000,000 bu in excess of the Department of Agriculture. Reports received in the Spring from the conditions of the country proportionately than in other sections. In New England, the receipts of Wheat were moderate and trade comparatively light. In New York, the offerings were moderate. In Pennsylvania, the movement was quite good, but there are a good many farmers holding for higher prices. In Maryland, the movement was fair, and in Virginia was rather free. In Kentucky and Tennessee, the offerings were light—only small quantities remaining. In Ohio, the offerings were fair, but not sufficient to move current wants. In Michigan, the movement was rather good. Advices from Indiana indicated only a moderate movement. In Illinois, offerings were somewhat larger. In Missouri, there was a little pressure to sell, and in Kansas the offerings were fairly liberal—at some points the largest on record. In Oklahoma, the offerings were moderate, and in Texas were relatively light. In Iowa, the movement was not very free, and in Nebraska was fairly liberal. In Wisconsin, the offerings were fairly good. In the Northwest, the movement was rather active, and the supplies at the leading markets were fairly well maintained. In the Rocky Mountains district, the offerings were fair. On the Pacific Coast, the movement was comparatively small. In Canada, the movement was fair, but stocks were larger, owing to increases at lake ports awaiting the opening of navigation.

WINTER WHEAT OUTLOOK.

Reports regarding the outlook for the Winter Wheat crop are conflicting and unsatisfactory. Summed up in the aggregate, correspondents cannot tell at the present time. They judge or imagine that the condition is so and so. And State reports are made up on about the same basis. Reports to the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN in the aggregate are decidedly unfavorable as those received by individuals through private sources, or who may be interested in the speculative market, but so far as not indicate a very good yield. In most cases the plant is covered with snow, and where it is bare it appears to be thin on the ground The great majority of the reports state that the plant appears to be well rooted, and that much will be determined by the weather during the next two months. Rain is needed in some portions of the Southwest and South, and the prospects have been improved by recent rains in California.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

For the first time in weeks the map this morning shows rains in Kansas —.32 inch at Wichita and .02 at Concordia. There are rains through Missouri and Illinois. Snows through Nebraska, Minnesota, Dakotas and Manitoba

Temperatures in the Northwest again under zero, but through the Corn States the mercury is still high—raining still. Colder weather, however, is indicated generally.

Indications are the Western storm will move over the Central Valleys accompanied by rain or snow Temperatures will rise in this district, but will fall before Friday. Cold weather will move southward over the Upper Mississippi and Missouri Valleys to-night.

The Modern Miller says: "In answer to inquiries covering Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, Missouri, Kansas, Texas and the Territories, regarding present conditions and prospects for Winter Wheat, and whether there was any damage by freezing and thawing weather, the returns indicate there was little or no winter killed, but the damage from lack of moisture is thought by many to have been considerable. Kansas reports high winds and drouth working damage and rains urgently needed. The need of moisture is felt in nearly all parts of the Winter Wheat belt, yet in most sections reports state that, while the plant is backward in top growth, the root growth is good and favorable weather will improve the condition greatly. In Southwest the crop has been damaged by dry weather and the acreage reduced. Only reference to field pests come from Illinois and Texas. In Illinois, the Hessian fly is in some Wheat and green bugs numerous in Texas."

REGULAR WHEAT—A very good trade and stronger market, closing prices showing May just 2c higher, while the July gained 1⅜c and the September about ⅞c. Government report and Southwest weather were the two chief "bull" influences, though the stronger cables and cash situation were also strengthening factors. May touched 96c and old July 92⅜c before the demand, which was general, was satisfied. Locals led in the buying, there being some replacing of lines liquidated the first of the week, and "shorts" covered freely. Part of the buying was credited to St. Louis "shorts" At the advance "long" property came out and prices reacted. The Government report showed 132,000,000 bu in farmers' hands against 164,000,000 bu a year ago. Percentage of crop, 20.8, is the smallest since 1897. Stocks of three Northwestern States is 9,000,000 bu; a year ago 16,000,000 bu Liverpool was ⅛d lower to ⅛d higher, and futures ⅝@⅞d higher. Receipts there past three days 200,000 bu London ⅜@1⅛d higher, Paris was off ⅛c and Buda Pesth ⅜c Antwerp unchanged and Berlin ⅜c higher Primary receipts were 135,000 bu larger than in 1903. Kansas City and St. Louis received 131,000 bu, against 82,000 bu one year ago, and shipments 213,000 bu. Primary receipts July 1 to March 7, 189,534,000 bu, against 215,588,000 bu in 1902-3. Argentine shipped 2,760,000 bu, since Jan 1, 22,880,000 bu, against 13,258,000 bu in 1903 Visible there 3,680,000 bu, last week, 4,672,000 bu; year ago, 3,016,000 bu India shipments (unofficial) 856,000 bu Cloudy, warmer weather was predicted for Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa and Missouri. Exports were small and 13 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Cash sales here were 100,000 bu Reports from the Northwest regarding the prospective movement were conflicting. Tax assessments will shortly be made in that section and receipts are in consequence expected to increase Minneapolis stocks decreased 175,000 bu for the week. The Modern Miller crop summary was construed as moderately "bullish." Receipts at Duluth 19 cars and at Minneapolis 303 cars, a total of 322 cars, against 344 cars yesterday, 258 cars a week ago, and 284 cars last year. Local receipts included 11 cars Winter, 6 cars Spring and 1 car mixed, a total of 18 cars, against 9 cars last year. Included in the above was none of contract grade. There were 4 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 30 cars Withdrawals were 13,950 bu. Receipts at Western points were 346,673 bu, against 411,393 bu last year. At Eastern points 40,857 bu, against 93,091 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 336,100 bu, against 161,230 bu last year, and from Eastern points none, against 270,000 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 28,440 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 126,020 bu

CORN—The Corn market was active and broad with prices very irregular, the close showing the May ¾@⅞c higher, while July gained ½c and September ⅝c. Opening was excited and initial trades ⅜@1⅝c higher, the Government report being the "bull" incentive. Unfavorable weather in Argentina and strength abroad, too, were factors Elevator interests were credited with purchases and "shorts" covered freely, many of yesterday's sellers being on the buying side. At the advance "long" Corn came out and "short" selling was more conspicuous, part of which was credited to Wall Street and Provision people. Government report showed 839,000,000 bu on the farms; last year, 1,050,000,000 bu Percentage of crop, 37.4 Stock in surplus States, 459,000,000 bu; year ago, 760,565,000 bu; in 1902, 228,652,000 bu. Argentine shipped 847,000 bu, and total since Jan 1, 7,121,000 bu against 542,000 bu a year ago. OATS—Were active and unsettled. There was an advance of ¼@⅜c on the farm reserves. Prices yielded ½@1⅛c on selling by local traders and Northwestern hedgers, but rallied with other Grains and closed ½c lower for May, but practically unchanged for other months The Government report on farm reserves March 1 were 274,700,000 bu, or 34 9 per cent of the last crop. This compared with 385,000,000 bu, or 36 9 per cent last year and 30.6 per cent in 1902. Commission-house buying of May was scattered, but in July and September it was fair. Cash demand improved and 80,000 bu sold for Eastern shipment, Arrivals 147 cars, with 130 cars estimated for to-morrow. There was 27 cars Standard transferred from private to public houses. Seaboard clearances 9,000 bu. Car lots to go to store were steady to 1c higher. No. 3 White sold at 41@42¼c. Standard in store closed at 40⅛@40½c as to location.

Oats by sample were in fair request with offerings lighter and prices ½@1c higher. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade at 30@35c No. 4 at 37@38c No. 4 White at 35@41½c No 3 at 39c. No. 3 White at 40½@42¼c Standard at 43½c. No. 2 at 39½c. Billed through: No. 4 White at 37@41c No 3 White at 41@42¾c. Standard at 42½@42¾c. At the river: No. 4 at 34@37c No. 4 White at 31@39c No 3 White at 38@39½c

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were unsettled and closed irregular

MARCH—Inactive, closed at 40⅛c.

MAY—Irregular, with good trading Sold at 40⅝@41¾c Opened at 41½c to 41¾c, sold to 40⅝c, to 41½c to 41⅛c at close

JULY Active Sold at 38¾@38⅞c and at 39⅛c. Opened at 39⅛c to 39½c, sold to 38¾@38⅞c, to 39⅛c, to 39⅛c at close

SEPTEMBER Sold at 33½@34c Opened at 33⅞c to 34c, sold to 33⅝c, to 33⅝@33¾c at close.

RYE—The market was stronger and prices were advanced 1@2½c under a better demand and only moderate offerings. Trading almost wholly speculative The receipts were eight cars. There were no withdrawals from store here and no export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store nominally 68c, and fresh receipts to go to store sold at 70c Damp No. 3 sold at 62c

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—In better demand and prices 1@2c higher. May sold at 68½c to 70c and closed at 70½c bid. July sold at 69½c and closed at 70c sellers

BARLEY—For low grade Barley the market was simply flat Little demand for feed and mixing account Buyers disposed also to take only sweet goods of good color. Dark damaged, musty neglected. Even good weight but dark or not sweet hard to sell, neither mixers nor maltsters wanted it Low grade malting without special demand. More or less cars of all of these grades held over Feeling very weak. Demand for fair, good and better grades was tame. Of these so few cars were offered that buyers for them could be found. They were quotably unchanged Nice, bright Barley could be said to be salable and steady. Posted to-day 31 cars received Screenings were quoted, poor, dirty to choice at 33@42c, some sold at top; there was however, some poor seedy obtainable down to 30c Barley, feed or mixing at 36@39c local, depending on soundness and color; poor musty 36@37c. Malting—low grade, 40@41c common, 42@43c. Fair was about 45@46c; good 48@50c; choice,52@55c; fancy possibly higher; not offered

SEEDS—An easier Timothy market developed; Clover and Millet quoted weaker Flax was steady; slightly improved

Timothy—Was again dull and weak Several cars were sold, but on only a part could prices be learned. Most of the Seed offered had been held over. Considerable again went over unsold Demand tame There was reported in some quarters a congestion owing to difficulty in securing cars to take Seed out which has been sold At the close prices were quoted 5c lower; some thought there was more of a decline. It was difficult to tell much about values March sold sparingly to $3 0?, or at 2½c decline; closed at $3 0 bid For September $3 15 was bid; there were no offerings Country lots quotable at $2 25@3 10 for poor to fancy: fair to good at $2 55@2 70, choice $2 75@2 85 unhulled, clean, bright above, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 45: tailings lower.

Flax—There were only nominal quotations, for there was no trading, and the only change was ½c quoted advance for Northwestern cash Seed But one car or 914 bu received and 2 cars or 291 bu taken out. There were no offerings of any kind. Minneapolis reported 31 cars in and Duluth 3 cars No. 1 Northwestern or No 1 from the Northwest quoted at $1 13½. No 1 remained $1 09 bid. Rejected nominally $1 06@1 09, outside for choice Northwestern. March quotable at $1 09 bid and May nominally $1 11 bid.

Clover—Was a shade weaker for the contract grade Advices from outside a little weaker. Country lots not essentially changed. Order trade a little quiet. Contract spot and March delivery $11 50. Country lots, common to choice, $8 25@11 40; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $5 50@9 50; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 10. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $9 50@10 75.

HOG PRODUCTS—Rather a good trade was reported in Hog Products Outside orders were larger, and local trading was fair. Offerings were moderately free, with a portion credited to packers. "Shorts" were rather anxious to purchase. Course of the market in a general way was governed by the changes in Grain Market opened rather steady, and, in a few instances slight advances were gained. Later a weaker feeling was manifested, and prices receded all around. At the decline, the demand improved generally, and prices rallied to outside figures and the appreciation was fairly well supported to the close. Hogs were in liberal supply, and prices ruled lower early, but steadier toward the close. Receipts at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 63,700, compared with 47,500 one year ago. Foreign markets were quiet, and Hams quoted 6d lower. Domestic markets steady. Receipts of Products were good—of Lard and Meats about 28 cars. Shipments were light of Lard and Meats about 82 cars. Demand on shipping account was limited, and offerings were moderate. Sales were light, and prices unchanged

Mess Pork—Rather a good business was transacted in Mess Pork. Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderately active. Market opened rather steady, with fair trading temporarily Later, there was a little pressure to sell, and prices declined 1@17½c Toward the close, the feeling was stronger, with fair miscellaneous buying and prices were advanced 17½@20c, but settled back again 2½@5c, and the market closed steady. Little inquiry for shipment and offerings small Cash lots quotable at $13 87½@14 00

MAY Offerings were fair and the demand was rather active. Sales were made at $13 80@14 00. PORK PACKING AND PROVISIONS.

There has been a decided falling off in the marketing of Hogs. Total Western packing for the week 390,000, compared with 565,000 the preceding week, and 515,000 two weeks ago. For corresponding time last year the number was 340,000, and two years ago 395,000. The quality runs from fair to good. Prices are higher, prominent markets indicating at the close an average of about $5 50 per 100 lbs, compared with $5 30 a week ago, $5 35 two weeks ago, $7 40 a year ago, $6 25 two years ago, $5 60 three years ago, and $4 85 four years ago.

The speculative Provision market was an unsettled affair and at the close prices are lower than a week ago. The action of prices during the week indicated that the speculative element is still under the influence of the war news and the action of the Grain markets, but with the latter showing such heavy declines as they have in the past few days, the Provision market has been less active and easier in tone. A falling off in the receipts of Hogs and an advance in prices for same helped to sustain prices, however, so that the close was comparatively steady. The export clearances of Product were fair, and show an increase over the preceding week and a gain over the corresponding week last year.

The stocks of Cut Meats at centers making monthly returns show the comparisons as to totals, in pounds, according to Cincinnati Price Current compilations, as follows:

	Mar. 1, 1904.	Feb. 1, 1904.	Mar. 1, 1903.
Chicago	150,017,000	131,315,000	119,601,000
Kansas City	43,368,000	33,218,000	32,616,000
Omaha	42,544,000	34,249,000	43,013,000
Milwaukee	21,384,000	17,955,000	12,803,000
St. Joseph	25,259,000	19,842,000	31,311,000
Total, lbs	281,557,000	236,579,000	239,376,000

This indicates an increase of 45,000,000 lbs in the total, compared with a month ago, while the stocks were increased 30,000,000 lbs last year for the corresponding period. The total at these points is now 42,000,000 lbs more than a year ago and 36,000,000 lbs less than two years ago. The total stocks of Lard at the five centers named in the foregoing table on March 1 were 110,000 tcs, compared with 49,000 tcs a month ago and 38,000 a year ago.

The total stocks of Cut Meats, of Short Rib Sides, of Sweet Pickled Hams, in pounds, and of Lard in tierces, at Chicago, Kansas City, Omaha, Milwaukee and St. Joseph, compare as follows, for dates indicated:

GRAIN TRADE AND CROPS.

[From the Cincinnati Price Current, March 10.]

The general tenor of reports on the condition of the growing Wheat crop received the past week are slightly more cheerful than previously. But there is still considerable uncertainty and difference of opinion as to the actual status of the crop and the effect that warm growing weather may have upon the plant. The past week has been mild on the whole, and a few correspondents report that the plant has begun to green up favorably. A shortage of moisture on the topsoil continues to exist in Southern Nebraska, Kansas and part of Oklahoma, but elsewhere there is ample moisture for the present. Up to this time the dry weather has had no serious effect in the drouthy region, there being sufficient subsoil moisture to keep the plant through the semi-dormant period of winter, but if rains do not come with the warm developing weather of spring serious drying up of the plant is likely, ample rains on the other hand will make the condition favorable for good yields. The wind and dust storms of last week apparently did slight damage.

In the eastern part of the winter Wheat sections the marketings have lately increased some, but the movement is still moderate to small, and not much is believed to be held back. In the western portion of the Winter Wheat section the movement has been above the average, but shows signs of diminishing. The Corn shipping business is rather under the average. Not much Oats moving from Illinois and most parts of Iowa.

There is general uniformity in reports that Live Stock has wintered well, with little sickness and with ample to abundant rough feed, and that fat Hogs have been marketed up closely.

In Ohio and Indiana reports on the growing Wheat crop are rather mixed, even from the same localities, but generally range from fair to poor; early sown looks well, late poor; crop was generally late sown. The trouble is the brown tops and barren appearance of many of the fields. It is hoped that a week or two of good growing weather will make the fields show up better. Supplies of old Wheat seem to be small; there has been some increase in movement, but it is again moderate to rather limited. Corn is moving slowly to moderately. Oats movement is light. Live Stock doing well; fat Hogs pretty closely marketed.

In Illinois the growing Wheat is reported more favorably than from Ohio and Indiana and somewhat better than previously, but still the reports are mixed; on the whole they show a fair promise. The movement of Corn is moderate and of Oats is small. Ground is in good condition for spring plowing and seeding. Live Stock is in good condition.

In Iowa autumn-sown Grain crops wintered fairly well. The winter was an open one, with little snow and few storms. Live Stock has done well and there is still plenty of rough feed, but supplies of Corn are comparatively small, and at many points Corn is being shipped in. Some points are still shipping Hogs rather actively, although at most places fat Hogs have been pretty well sold.

In Missouri a few days of warm weather has brought the Wheat plant out favorably, and while reports are still more or less variable and irregular, the general situation admits of satisfactory outcome. Considerable preparation is now being made for spring crops. Live Stock has wintered well. Grain movement of all kinds moderate.

In Kansas drouthy conditions prevail; situation still regarded as uncertain. Slight damage by high winds and dust storms reported. Wheat movement up to the present has been rather liberal. Corn moving in fair quantities. Live Stock wintered well.

GRAIN IN FARMERS' HANDS.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The March report of the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Agriculture shows the amount of Wheat remaining in farmers' hands on March 1 to have been about 132,000,000 bu, or 20.8 per cent of last year's crop, as compared with 24.5 per cent of the crop of 1902 on hand on March 1, 1903, and 23.2 per cent of the crop of 1901 on hand March 1, 1902.

The Corn in farmers' hands is estimated at about 839,000,000 bu, or 37.4 per cent of last year's crop, against 41.6 per cent of the crop of 1902 on hand March 1, 1903, and 29.2 per cent of the crop of 1901 on hand on March 1, 1902.

Of Oats there are reported to be about 273,700,000 bu, or 34.9 per cent of last year's crop, still in farmers' hands, as compared with 36.9 per cent of the crop of 1902 on hand on March 1, 1903, and 30.6 per cent of the crop of 1901 on hand March 1, 1902.

The following table shows the percentages of last year's crop of Wheat, Corn and Oats on hand on March 1 for each of the principal Grain producing States:

	Wheat.	Corn.	Oats.
New York	28	30	45
Pennsylvania	28	32	41
Texas	17	41	19

United States	20.8	37.4	34.9

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows clear in Kansas and Oklahoma and there has been no moisture in that territory for the past 24 hours—nothing in addition to the light rains Kansas had yesterday. There is quite general precipitation outside of the Southwestern drouth area. There are light snows in Dakotas, Minnesota and Eastern Nebraska.

Over the whole of Iowa, Eastern Missouri, through Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Tennessee and Kentucky, from the Mississippi Eastward, there is general and a good deal of moisture. Temperatures are some higher than yesterday and it is thawing through Illinois and Eastward.

Indications are for threatening weather over the greater part of the district. Precipitation will be quite general in the northern part. Temperatures will rise in the Northwest to-night and in this section Saturday.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The Fort Dearborn National Bank, Chicago, has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent, payable April 1 to stockholders of record March 31.

Hogs at Kansas City the first week of this month averaged 214 lbs, the lightest since the third week of last November. Average the previous week, 217 lbs, and a year ago, 218 lbs.

Directors of the Chicago Title and Trust Company, yesterday declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent payable April 1. Books close March 20 and reopen April 1.

In the annual report of the Missouri Pacific the statement was made that the control of the Wabash, through the ownership of a large block of Wabash preferred, is in the hands of the Missouri Pacific Company.

The United Shoe Machinery Company has declared the regular quarterly dividends of 1½ per cent on its preferred stock and of 2 per cent on its common stock, payable April 15. Books close March 19, reopen March 28.

The approval by the directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company of the construction and equipment list for 1904 calls for expenditures of slightly under $20,000,000. The estimated cost of new work this year is only about $3,000,000.

The directors of the Pennsylvania Salt Manufacturing Company announce that they will increase the capital stock from $3,000,000 to $4,000,000. Stockholders of record of March 28, 1904, will have the privilege to subscribe for the stock at $75 00 per share.

The last copy received of the Review of the River Plate, dated Feb. 6, contains reports from several districts affirming that the Corn crop was practically lost, owing to the prolonged drouth. Since that day the cables received have, however, mentioned beneficial rains.

Reserve of the Bank of England increased $3,010,-000. Bullion increased $1,725,000. Proportion of Bank of England reserve to liabilities this week is 40.93 per cent, against 48.88 per cent last week, and compares with an advance from 45⅞ per cent to 47 per cent in this week last year.

The order for 30,000 tons of Steel rails for Harriman lines was accepted by the Illinois Steel Company at $24 50 per ton. This fact, and the acceptance of an order from the Canadian Pacific at $17 50 per ton, are the reasons other roads will not place orders for Steel rails at current rates.

American Can Company has declared dividend of 2½ per cent on preferred stock, payable April 1. Books close March 21 and reopen April 2. This is the same rate as was paid on Sept 30 last, which was the initial dividend on the stock. The company does not state whether or not it is semi-annual dividend.

At the suggestion of Banking Commissioner McAfee an action was begun to-day by Attorney-General Carson against the Union Surety and Guaranty Company of Philadelphia to compel it to show cause why its business should not be closed, and a receiver appointed because of mismanagement of capital.

At the meeting of the directors of the Equitable Trust Company, Chicago, held Tuesday, the usual 4 per cent semi-annual dividend was declared, payable March 15, and $25,000 was carried to the surplus account, making it now $300,000. The undivided profits are $27,000 making the book value of the stock 165, after the dividend is paid.

The net earnings of the International Paper Company this winter have been 50 per cent less than a year ago, which condition is due to the fact that the mills have been shut down a large portion of the winter, owing to weather conditions, and the increased cost of wood pulp has added $4 00 to $5 00 per ton to the cost of news print.

It is understood that while all of the Western mills desired have not yet been taken into the Paper Products selling agreement, yet good progress has been made in straightening out the trade situation in the West. There are still some troublesome factors in the East but it is hoped the situation can be quickly harmonized there, now that the Western situation is in much better shape.

The Directors and the Flax Seed Inspection Committee of the Chicago Board of Trade are trying to devise plans by which business in Flax Seed in Chicago can be increased. Chicago had the lead of the Flax Seed business up to two years ago, when it went to Minneapolis and Duluth. A large majority of the Flax is tributary to the Northwestern markets, as it is raised in the Northwest, near Duluth.

According to figures of the United States Investor bond sales for the month of February amounted to $6,785,350, not including temporary loans. Of the above amount $5,724,636 were issued by cities and towns and $1,058,400 by counties. This amount shows a decrease of $16,783,381 from the $23,568,731 reported for the month of January, and a decrease of $106,941 from the $7,692,291 reported for the month of February, 1903.

The Canadian Pacific has decided to build nearly 400 miles of track during the coming summer in Northwest Territory. The Pleasant Hill branch will be extended for 200 miles. Branches, each twenty five miles long, will be built from the Calgary and Edmonton Line, one starting from Wetaskiwin and the other from La Combe. In addition the Arcola branch will be extended to Regina, a distance of 115 miles.

The annual report of the Missouri Pacific, showing gross earnings of more than $43,000,000 on 6,174 miles of road operated, states that $2,248,282 from the surplus was expended during the year for grade reductions, new side tracks, detour line, new shops and new ballast. It is also stated that the territory served by the road is prosperous, and provided there are average crops, a continued large tonnage should be expected during 1904.

Although other roads have not met the present rates of the Great Western, they are advising shippers to send their Grain over the Northwestern and Great Western Roads. There is such a demand for cars for freight paying good rates that no Western road wants to use its cars for Grain traffic at present rates. The Great Western and Northwestern do not want a monopoly of the Grain business under the circumstances, and they find it impossible to furnish as many cars as are needed by Grain shippers.

A cut from 33c to 28c per 100 lbs in the freight rate on Sugar from New York to Missouri River points, via Galveston, was made, Wednesday, by the Mallory Steamship Company and allied railroads. A meeting of traffic officials of all interested lines will be held in Chicago, March 10, to try to effect a settlement of the Sugar rate war. The rates now in effect via the Gulf ports practically prevent the all-rail routes from getting any Sugar traffic from New York to points on and west of the Missouri River.

Sheepmen on the ranges of the far West say that they never had a more favorable winter than the one they have just passed through. This is a sort of a compensation for the rough one they had a year ago. It has been necessary to feed but comparatively little Hay, though the wiser flockmasters were well provided with it in case of emergency. Very few Sheep were lost in Idaho and Utah and a big crop of Lambs is reasonably expected. There has been about enough snow to furnish the necessary moisture and prospects are more favorable than they were a year ago.

A prominent official of the Standard Oil Company says: "The net earnings of the United States Steel Corporation for the present quarter will be about $12,000,000. Since the preferred dividend is cumulative, many directors are in favor of maintaining the rate, but my opinion is that a reduction will be made either at the April meeting or the July meeting. No matter what decision is handed down in the Northern Securities case, the stock is worth what it is selling for. A straight decision against the company, however, would have an unfavorable effect upon the general market."

The Chicago Inter Ocean says: "No further cuts in Grain rates were made, Wednesday. The Great Western is determined to adhere to the policy which forced a fight with the Northwestern. The roads which do not go west of the Missouri River are in sympathy with the Great Western, while those which run into the agricultural territory beyond the Missouri want the Northwestern to win. From present indications the meeting of traffic officials to be held, Friday, to consider the Grain rate war will prove a fizzle. Some of the most important Western roads do not expect to be represented."

The official statement of the Northwestern regarding the new tariff is as follows: "In line with the proposition suggesting a settlement of the controversy over Grain rates submitted by the chairman of the Western trunk line committee to the Chicago-Omaha lines, the Chicago and Northwestern road has reissued its tariffs applying on Grain from Nebraska, taking effect on March 12, making its rates to Chicago 3c per 100 lbs above the rates to St. Louis and to other Mississippi River points. The minimum rates in its Nebraska tariff to Chicago are 11c on Wheat and 9c on Corn. The tariff provides that the Grain from all Nebraska stations can be shipped through Omaha and Council Bluffs, to mill in transit, or be handled through elevators, at the direct rate."

Among the Securities listed on the New York Stock Exchange, Wednesday, were: An additional $1,100,000 4 per cent mortgage bonds, due 1947, of the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, making the total amount listed $14,735,-000. An additional $500,000 of the general mortgage 4½ per cent bonds, due 1992, of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, making the total amount listed $37,573,000. An additional $549,000 of the first mortgage 6 per cent bonds, an additional $549,000 of the second mortgage 5 per cent bonds, and an additional $235,000 of the third mortgage 4 per cent bonds of the International and Great Northern Railroad Company, making the total amount listed $11,291,000 of first mortgage bonds, $10,391,000 of the second, and $2,959,500 of the third.

Banks hold $9,,37 075 in excess of legal requirements.

The Chicago Union Traction plan of reorganization, according to a New York report, will not be issued until May, and will provide for an assessment on both classes of stock. New securities will be amply sufficient in value to recompense stockholders for the assessment, and the assessment when paid will be added at once to the price of the shares by those concerned in the market movements of the stock.

Export clearances for the past week from Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, New port News, New Orleans, and Galveston included 168,000 brls of Flour and 263,000 bu Wheat, against 159,000 brls of Flour and 178,000 bu of Wheat the preceding week, an increase of 9,000 brls of Flour and an increase of 85,000 bu of Wheat. For the corresponding week last year the exports were 211,000 brls of Flour and 1,375,000 bu of Wheat.

THE FLOUR SITUATION.

[From the Northwestern Miller, March 9.]

The Minneapolis Flour output last week increased 23,000 brls. The quantity turned out (week of March 5) was 336,795 brls, against 286 520 brls in 1903, and 300,660 brls in 1902. There were eighteen mills in operation Tuesday, and they are likely to make 340,000 brls or over, compared with 3 0,790 brls for the same week in 1903. The car shortage continues to be a most difficult condition to contend with, though it has so far not been the actual cause of any mill shutting down.

Minneapolis mills last week sold comparatively little Flour. The week was even duller than was the preceding one, sales being much short of the output. With the declining Wheat market, the trade was loth to buy more Flour. Then millers, having plenty of orders on their books, did not urge customers to take Flour, instead, they held their prices pretty high, so that too many orders would not come in. Shipping directions on old orders were received as freely as was cared for. The mill making any foreign sales was the rare exception. Even first clears appeared to elicit no interest, and was very dull; business was impossible at prices asked by millers. Nevertheless, millers express more faith in being able to do a moderate foreign business than for a long time. They simply consider the signs more hopeful. Were they on an equal basis with Kansas City as to through rates to foreign markets, they declare that business would now be practicable.

Most mills have during the week reduced the price of Patent 10c per barrel. This leaves the range of quotations at $4 85@5 10 per 196 lbs in wood f. o. b. Minneapolis.

The range of Eastern prices to-day, March 8, asked by Minneapolis mills for Patent in wood was: Boston, $5 05@5 90; New York rate points, $5 80@5 70; Pittsburg points, $5 40@5 65; Baltimore, $5 50@5 75; Philadelphia, $5 55@5 75; Albany, $5 60@5 85; Buffalo, $5 40@5 65; Michigan. $5 15@5 40, Iowa, Illinois and Wisconsin, $5 10@5 35; Missouri points, $4 95@5 20; Rochester and Syracuse rate points, $5 55@5 70.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Market quiet but firm. Sales in the Northwest reported heavy.

WINTER WHEAT—Was in good demand and market unchanged for soft and firmer for hard winter. No. 2 Red in store quotable at 94@98c and fresh receipts to go to store sold at 98c. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals free on board sold at 95@98c. No. 2 Hard local sold at 91½c, and at the river quotable at 87@90c. No. 3 Hard at the river quotable at 80@88c. No. 4 Hard sold at 72@79c.

SPRING WHEAT—In good demand on milling and on shipping account and market firm. No. 1 Northern in store sold to the extent of 105,000 bu, and was quotably 1½@1½c under May prices, with special bin lots commanding a premium: quotable at 93½@94½c, and fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 96c@$1 00. No. 3 Spring local sold at 80c for poor, and ranged at 82@96c. No. 4 Spring local sold at 65@75c, and ranged at 67@90c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—A fair trade and while the market was a little unsettled, the undertone was firm, and the close ½c better for May, ⅞c higher for the July, and ¾c for the September. The irresponsive cables, and prediction of rains for Kansas and the West generally, caused moderately free offerings early in the session. Later, on the adverse crop news from the Southwest, "bullish" advices from the Northwest, and unfavorable reports from Russia caused a reversal of sentiment and a stronger tone prevailed. "Bull" interests were credited with selling May and buying old July. Liverpool quoted spot steady and futures ⅛d higher. London came unchanged to 1½d better. Paris was ¼@1c lower and Berlin off ⅛c. Buda Pesth was up ⅜c, and Antwerp unchanged. London quoted cargoes on passage firm, with a good Continental inquiry. Odessa cabled the Wheat market there was strong, owing to scarcity. Shipments light and stocks small—prospect new crop causing anxiety. Minneapolis reported 290,000 brls of Flour sold yesterday and to day, and Duluth claimed millers were buyers of May Wheat in that market. About news was among the "bull" helps. English farmers' deliveries this week were 392,000 bu, and the price advanced 1½c, to 8?c, which is now 12½c higher than a year ago. Receipts in the Northwest this week were 2,2 9 cars, against 2,093 cars last week and 2 158 cars one year ago. Local weekly receipts were 223 0 0 bu, and shipments 250,000 bu. Primary receipts this week 2,687,000 bu, last week 3,.87 000 bu, a year ago 2,703 000 bu. Australian shipments were large at 1,056,000 bu. Broomhall estimated the world's shipments at 8,800,000 bu and predicted a moderate change in the quantity on ocean passage. Kansas City and St. Louis received 135,000 bu, last year 51 600 bu; shipments 110,000 bu. Clearings were limited, and 8 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Cash sales here to day and late yesterday 105,000 bu. Covering "shorts" for Southwestern account was one of the prominent late features. St. Louis reported the sale of 2,0 000 bu Red Winter Wheat. Receipts at Duluth 51 cars and at Minneapolis 262 cars, a total of 313 cars, against 322 cars yesterday, 399 cars a week ago, and 355 cars last year. Local receipts included 18 cars Winter, 4 cars Spring and 1 car mixed, a total of 23 cars, against 16 cars last year. Included in the above was 2 cars of contract grade. There was 1 car and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for Monday are 20 cars. Withdrawals were 4,100 bu. Receipts at Western points were 461,123 [illegible] 362,486 bu last year. At Eastern [illegible] 64,100 bu, against 41,755 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 48,645 bu, against 249 065 bu last year, and from Eastern points 4,100 bu, against 111,346 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 15,315 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 73,267 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Active trade and prices higher.

MARCH—Entirely nominal; closed about 95c.

MAY—Sold at 95@96¼c. Opened with sales at 95¾c to 95½c; sold to 95⅞c, to 95c, to 96¼c, to 95¾c, to 96¼c, to 96⅛c, to 96½c, and closed at 96½c.

JULY—Old Style—Sold at 91⅜@93⅛c. Opened with sales at 91⅞c to 91⅝c, sold to 91¾c, to 91⅝c, to 92¼c to 91⅞c, to 92c, to 91⅜c, to 92⅜c, to 92⅛c, to 92⅝c, to 92⅛c, to 92¾c, to 92½c, to 93⅛c, to 93c, and closed at 93c.

JULY—New Style—Sold at 89⅝@91½c. Opened at 90⅝c to 90c; sold to 91⅛c, to 90⅝c, to 89⅝c, to 90½c, to 90¼c, to 90⅝c, to 91c, to 90¾c, to 91⅛c, to 91¼c, to 91¼c, to 91⅜c, and closed at 91⅝c.

SEPTEMBER—Old Style—Sold at 85⅝c and 87⅜@87½c. Opened with sales at 85⅞c to 85⅝c; sold to 85¾c, to 86⅛@86¼c, to 85⅝c, to 86⅜c, to 86¼c to 86¾c, to 86⅝c, to 87½@87⅜c, to 87½c, and closed at 87½c.

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 84½@86¼c. Opened with sales at 84⅞c to 84½c; sold to 84⅝c, to 85c, to 85¼c, to 85c, to 85⅛@85¼c to 85c, to 85½c, to 86¼c, and closed at 86¼c sellers.

CORN—A fair trade and comparatively firm market, the close being 1@1⅛c higher for May, ¾c better for July and ¾@⅞c higher for September. Offerings of May were only moderate and came chiefly from floor traders, while commission houses led in the buying, part of which was credited to the "bull" party. Receipts were small, 148 cars, with 73 cars low grades, and rains were generally indicated for the West, which will probably retard the movement and interfere with the grading. Last year 240 cars were received, and 2 5 cars are estimated for Monday. Liverpool quoted spot steady and futures ⅛@¼c lower. The local weekly receipts were 1,213,000 bu and shipments 911 000 bu. Southwestern markets were firm and primary movement for the week 2 331 000 bu, against 3,404 000 bu last week and 3,951,000 bu in 1903. Exports small at 44 000 bu, against 905,000 bu and 35 boat loads were accepted at the seaboard. Transfers from private to public elevators 144 cars. Shipping demand moderate and sales 50,000 bu. Some buying on the theory receipts will fall off with wet weather and spring work. Car lots were in good demand and small supply. Prices steady to ¼c higher. No. 2 closed about 51½c. No. 2 Yellow closed at 52½c. No. 3 closed at 44@51c. No. 3 Yellow closed at 46@52c. No. 4 sold at 43c for yellow.

Corn by sample—Was steady to ½c higher, except for No Grade, which was 1@2c higher. Offerings moderate and the demand improved. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 3 @39c. No. 4 at 42@43c. No. 3 at 44@45c. No. 3 Yellow at 45½@48c. No. 2 at 52¾@53c. No. 3 White at 44 48c. Billed through: No Grade at 38c. No. 4 at 40@42c. No. 3 at 42½@43c. No. 3 Yellow at 44½@44½c. No. 3 White at 42½@43c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Active and stronger closing ¾@⅞c to 1@1⅛c higher.

MARCH—Inactive; closed at 51¼c.

MAY—Sold at 52¾@54¼c. Opened at 52¾c to 53⅛c, sold to 53¼c to 53c, to 53⅛@53¼c to 52⅞c, to 53¾c, to 53⅝c, to 54⅛c, to 53⅞c, to 54¼c, to 54⅛c and closed at 54⅛c asked.

JULY—Sold at 50⅜@51¾c. Opened at 50⅞c to 51⅛c and sold to 51⅛c, to 50¾c, to 50⅝c, to 51⅛c, to 51¼@51⅜c, to 51⅛c, to 51⅜c, to 51¾c, and closed at 51¾c asked.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 49¾@49⅞c and 50⅞c. Opened at 50c to 50¼c, and sold at 50c, to 50⅛c, to 49¾@49⅞c, to 50½c, to 50¼@50½c to 50¼c, to 50⅜c, to 50⅞c, to 50¾@50⅞c, and closed at 50¾@50⅞c.

OATS—Were moderately traded in and prices receded ⅛c early, but advanced ½@⅝c, and closed steady at net gains of ⅜@⅝c. There was moderate buying by the recent sellers of late, also considerable buying of May and selling of July by commission houses. The strength in other Grains had a good effect toward the last. Cash sales here were 50,000 bu and at the seaboard 100 0 0 bu. Export clearances 9,581 bu. Receipts were 111 cars, and 220 cars are expected for Monday. There were 11 cars Standard changed from private to public elevators. Car lots to go to store were steady. No. 4 White sold at 40c. No. 3 White at 42c. Standard in store closed about 40@40⅜c.

Oats by sample were steady for good, but easy for common. Trading was fair, but not large enough to absorb the offerings, and a good part of the samples which came up late had to be carried over. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 White at 38@41½c. No. 3 at 37½@39¼c. No. 3 White at 40@43c. Standard at 43¼c. No. 2 at 39½c. Billed through: No. 4 White at 40½c. No. 3 White at 41¾@44c. No. 2 at 39½c. At the river: No. 4 White at 3.½@39½c. No. 3 White at 38@40½c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were unsettled early, but advanced and closed higher.

MARCH—Inactive; closed about 40⅜c.

MAY—Moderately traded in. Sold at 40⅞@41½c. Opened at 41c to 41⅛c, sold to 40⅞c, to 41½c, to 41⅜@41½c at close.

JULY—Active. Sold at 38⅞@39½c. Opened at 39c to 39⅛c, sold to 38⅞c, to 39½c, to 39⅜c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 33⅜@33¾c and to 33¾@33⅞c. Opened at 33½c to 33⅝c. sold to 33⅜@33½c, to 33¾@33⅞c, to 33¾c at close.

RYE—Was quiet and firm. The offerings were light—in fact no round lots offered and demand fair. Only 4 cars received and none withdrawn from store. No export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store nominally 68c, and fresh arrivals sold to go to store at 70c. No. 3 fresh receipts sold at 63@67c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Firm. For May 70c was bid and for July 70c was bid—no offerings.

BARLEY—The market was quiet and without special change. Offerings were only moderate, and the demand was also light. Barley, feed or mixing, at 36@40c local, depending on soundness and color; poor musty 36@37c. Malting—low grade, 40@41c; common, 42@43c. Fair was about 45@46c; good 48@50c; choice 52@55c; fancy possibly higher; not offered.

SEEDS—There was little or no change in the markets except Clover which was 15c lower for contract.

Timothy—Choice to fancy Seed was scarce and firm. Offerings of cash Seed were quite liberal, and mostly low grade. There was no change in prices for cash and future deliveries were nominally the same as yesterday. March was quotable at $3 0½ and September at $3 15; there were no offerings. Country lots quotable at $2 .5@3 10 for poor to fancy: fair to good at $2 5 @2 70; choice $2 75@2 85. unhulled, clean, bright above, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 45; tailings lower.

Flax—Was entirely nominal. There were no offerings of cash Seed and futures were neglected. Receipts were 32 cars at Minneapolis and 19 cars at Duluth. Local movement was 9 cars or 7,630 bu received and 1 car or 1,046 bu taken out. No 1 Northwestern or No 1 from the Northwest was nominally $1 13½. No. 1 was $1 09 nominal and Rejected ranged at $1 06@1 09. March delivery was called $1 09 nominal, and May $1 11 nominal.

Clover—The market was heavy and nominally 15c lower for contract. Offerings of cash Seed were small and sold at former prices. Contract spot and March delivery $11 35. Country lots, common to choice, $8 25@11 40: fancy above, mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $8 00@9 50, poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 06. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $1 00@10 75.

Other Seeds—There was a sale of Millet which was the only business reported. Prices were unchanged and the feeling was steady. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark at $1 80@1 90. Common Millet $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 10. Siberian, $1 00@$1 05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c. Mustard, 85c@$1 65. Buckwheat, scarce; a shade firmer; good milling, salable at $1 10.

HOG PRODUCTS—Trade was fair and the undertone to the market stronger. General demand somewhat improved, credited partially to packers. Offerings were moderate. Hogs were in fair supply and higher. Larger supply estimated for the coming week. Receipts at the leading Western packing points estimated at 31,000 compared with 30 3 0 one year ago. Foreign markets quiet and steady. Domestic markets quiet. Receipts of Product were fair—of Lard and Meats about 24 cars. Shipments were the smallest in months of Lard and Meats about 54 cars. Speculative market was stronger and prices ruled considerably higher on all the leading articles, and extreme figures were fairly well supported to the close. Shipping demand was moderate, and offerings were rather light. Buyers and sellers apart in their views, and trading light.

Mess Pork—Quite a good business was transacted in Mess Pork, and the feeling was stronger. Offerings were not very free, and the demand was fairly active. Prices were advanced 25@30c and the market closed comparatively steady. "Shorts" accepted fair quantities. Shipping demand was light, and offerings were moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $14 12½@14 25.

MAY—In good request with fair offerings. Sales were made at $13 97½@14 25. Opened at $13 97½ to $14 00, sold to $14 02½, to $14 00, to $14 05, to $14 00, to $14 20, to $14 15, to $14 25, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were not very large, and the demand was fairly active. Sales were made at $14 20@14 50. Opened at $14 25, sold to $14 22½, to $14 27½, to $14 20, to $14 30, to $14 25, to $14 40, to $14 50, to $14 47½, and closed steady.

Lard—Less interest was manifested in the Lard market, and the feeling was steadier. Foreign advices were unchanged. Offerings were moderate, and the demand was somewhat limited. Prices were advanced 5@7½c, and the market closed comparatively steady around outside figures. Demand on shipping account light and offerings very moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $7 20@7 22½. Loose lots called for sparingly and offerings were rather light. Prices were steady at about 62½c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in light request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotable steady at $6 62½. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $7 87½@8 00 for No. 1 and $7 62½@7 75 for No. 2.

MAY—Inquiry rather light, and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $7 32½@7 37½. Opened at $7 35, sold to $7 32½, to $7 37½, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderately active. Sales were made at $7 47½@7 52½. Opened at $7 47½@7 50 to $7 50, sold to $7 52½, to $7 50, to $7 52½, and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—Trade was fair in the market for Short Rib Sides and the feeling was steadier. Offerings were only fair, and the demand was moderately active. Prices ruled 7½@10c higher, and the market closed steady. "Shorts" bought moderately. Shipping demand was moderate, and offerings were comparatively small. Cash lots quotable at $7 0 @7 25, according to weight.

MAY—In fair request and offerings were not very free. Sales were made at $7 25@7 35. Opened at $7 25, sold to $7 3 , to $7 27½, to $7 30, to $7 2., to $7 35 and closed steady.

WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW

CHICAGO, FRIDAY EVENING, March 11, 1904.

There is dullness in the local money market and occasionally concessions are made to large borrowers who get a rate of 4½ to 4¾ per cent on call, while the ordinary business is at 5 per cent. The greater part of demand at Chicago is for Mercantile and manufacturing loans, the stock business being too slow. There was a great deal of money used as margins by the Grain traders owing to the severe decline in prices. A fair amount of money is going to the country. In New York there was steadiness in both the call and time market, rates in the former being 1¾ to 2 per cent, and the time money was slow at 4½ to 5½ per cent. Argentina continues to take Gold in New York for the movement of its crop.

New York exchange was easy at 5c premium to to 20c discount and closed at 5c premium.

Foreign exchange was firm with the offerings of Grain and Cotton bills lighter than usual for the season Shippers 60 day documentary sterling bills on London ranged at 483 to 483¼.

In the mercantile trade business is not progressing as fast as was anticipated earlier in the season This is due to recent unfavorable weather and to the breaking up of roads in the interior, which has restricted the movement of all kinds of merchandise and building materials. The buying of dry goods was of fair volume although below last year's. With the clothing and shoe houses the trading was fair. There was a lack of snap to the general run of business. Consumers of pig Iron are taking supplies constantly and market is steady, although all furnace men are not meeting the low prices made by some of the urgent sellers of the South. Northern Irons are steadily held, as supplies are light. The buying of finished material is moderate, but specifications on old orders are coming forward freely. Prices are holding firm and for Iron Wire and Nails are $1 00 per ton higher. Railroads are taking fair quantities of rails, but are not buying track supplies with an urgency that would indicate their disposition to spend large amounts of money for improvements Most of the roads have large amounts of money borrowed that have to be taken care of and some are renewing loans made last summer, which it was expected they would be able to pay off this month. An unsettled feeling exists in the Coal trade over the future of labor, a strike being threatened in the bituminous regions of the East and Middle West. The lodges are to vote within the next two weeks on the question of calling a strike. The possibility of a strike has increased buying of Coal and created a firmer market. The scarcity of cars has restricted shipments of Coke from Eastern furnaces and supplies here are light. In other lines only a moderate business transpired. Collections were fair.

The New York Stock market was entirely a professional affair. The changes were moderate and mostly in the way of declines The governing influences were rather of a "bearish" nature. Railroad earnings are not showing up satisfactorily The general business lacks snap. The railroads borrowed large amounts of money last year and have been forced to renew their loans. Gold is being shipped to Argentina to move the Wheat crop Money on the other hand is easy, but no one is disposed to enter into an extensive "bull" campaign for the present, and on all the good rallies there is a disposition to realize by holders and they supply stocks as fast as they are wanted. The bond market was slow. Total sales on the New York Stock Exchange for the week were 940,000 shares, against 898,000 shares the previous week and 3,831,000 shares last year

The principal Stocks traded in on the New York Stock Exchange and the number of shares disposed of during the week was as follows:

Local securities were slow with the exception of Biscuit shares which contributed toward making the greater part of the trading. They were weak at times and averaged slightly lower than during the previous week there being a disposition on the part of recent buyers to realize profits. All the other industrials were irregular within very narrow limits. Boxboard averaging lower. Arrangements are being made to put the Boxboard interests in better shape and the mills are to be operated more generally. Traction and elevated shares were neglected and although weak early, had a fair recovery. The bond market was slow and uninteresting.

The Cotton market in New York was active with the "bull" interest in full control and a higher level of values was established. Spot markets were more active and stronger; receipts moderate. Liverpool manufacturers bought more freely, and conditions were such that the leading "bull" interests were active buyers and assisted in the upward movement. Closing prices were at gains of 61@71 points as compared with a week ago.

COMMERCIAL.

Another active week was witnessed in commercial circles, the feeling manifested again being most unsettled Outside orders were numerous for both Grain and Provisions and local speculators traded with the freedom lately noted. The general undertone was somewhat easier and support not so pronounced the first of the week, but later the leading markets displayed more steadiness. The war talk apparently lost its influence and more consideration was given present and prospective supplies, also the probable production of Grain this year. Money is plentiful and ruling at reasonable rates of interest and there is more disposition to invest in speculative ventures. Grain and Provisions are attracting the attention of investors to the expense of Stocks, Securities, Cotton and Coffee. The steady advance in Board of Trade memberships, which are now quoted at $3,625, is indicative of the satisfactory business passing and there is as yet no sign of any diminishing in the volume of the same. Interior speculators should keep their trades well margined, as sudden fluctuations are inevitable with conditions like the present.

There is no particular change to note in the foreign crop situation the past week. Cable advices from Roumania, Bulgaria and Austria-Hungary reported rains and further snows, and outlook on the whole favorable. The weather in Germany continues cold, but as yet no serious complaints of damage are reported. Reports from Russia note the return of Winter weather, but temperatures have not been severe. The crops are said to be under snow cover. In France climatic conditions were improved, and the crops are said to be in favorable condition. Advices from the United Kingdom indicate the crop outlook is extremely poor. Latest mail reports from Spain claim crop conditions are still fairly satisfactory, and this is also true in Italy. The outlook for the Wheat crop in India is most promising. Weather conditions in Argentina were less favorable for the Corn crop. Flax Seed surplus estimated at 36,000,000 bu.

There was no pronounced change in the crop situation in this country during the past week. Beneficial rains occurred in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and parts of Missouri, and the outlook is on the whole fairly favorable. In Kansas, Oklahoma and other sections of the Southwest moisture is urgently needed and reports as to the condition of Winter Wheat quite conflicting. Complaints of damage were numerous, the plant in many important growing districts being reported brown, though the roots are supposed to be sound. The recent rains on the Pacific Coast were timely and no doubt will prove of great benefit to the newly planted crop. Reports from the East and Southeast were fairly satisfactory. Corn planting is progressing favorably through Texas and plowing further North

The movement of Grain from the farms and interior elevators the past week was fair of Wheat and moderate of Corn and Oats. Arrivals of Wheat at distributing points in the Northwest were fair and compared favorably with those of a year ago Through the West the movement was moderate and liberal in the Southwest. Corn and Oats were marketed with only moderate freedom and the movement to primary centers was less than a year ago. Receipts of Rye, Barley and Seeds were also very moderate. The movement of Grain toward the seaboard was just fair, the car situation still being a hindrance to shippers. Exports of Flour and Wheat were limited and fair of Corn. The new business booked at the Atlantic seaboard was larger. According to the monthly report of the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN the world's supply of Breadstuffs on March 1 was equal to 163,361,000 bu, compared with 169,718,000 bu Feb. 1 and 170,558,000 bu March 1, 1903. The decrease during February was equal to 6 357,000 bu, against 8 556,000 bu decrease during January and 3,120,000 bu decrease in February, 1903. The Government report showed 132,600,000 bu Wheat on the farms March 1, against 164,000,000 bu in 1903; 836,000,000 bu Corn, against 1,050,600 000 bu last year, and 273,700,000 bu Oats, against 344,906,000 bu one year ago. According to the weekly report of the visible supply of Grain in the United States and Canada, as compiled by the Secretary of the Chicago Board of Trade, there was a decrease in the stocks of Wheat, Rye and Barley and an increase in Corn and Oats.

Speculative trading on the Chicago Board of Trade was again of immense volume the past week, the coarse Grains as well as Hog Products sharing in the activity. Outside orders were numerous and local speculators and professionals operated on an extensive scale. The business transacted was of such proportions and the leading commodities so greatly unsettled that individual transactions were difficult to follow. Early news and influences at hand appeared to favor the "bear" or selling side of the market and liquidation of "long" property and "short" selling more conspicuous than for several weeks. Wheat as well as coarse Grains, also the Provision list declined sharply under the aggressive selling of the "bear" leaders and many stop-loss orders were uncovered on the break adding to the demoralized condition of the leading markets. At the declines established "shorts" accepted fair quantities and a moderate recovery in prices was established all round, the week closing comparatively steady. The movement to distributing points, exports and prospective supplies, as well as the Government report on farm reserves, were among the important governing influences. Provisions were affected to some extent by the action of coarse Grains. Receipts of Hogs were moderate and prices rather weak. Receipts of Product were quite liberal and shipments fairly large. Packing of the West for the week was reported at 330,000 Hogs, against 340,000 in 1902-3, a decrease of 10,000 Hogs.

There was just a fair trade in cash Grain this week. Demand continues about the same as of late and there was no material increase in the offerings. Wheat was in fair demand at very irregular prices, all grades ruling weak and lower. Milling inquiry was nothing urgent Corn and Oats were in moderate request on local and shipping account, but as yet there is little doing in cargoes for shipment at the opening of navigation. The prospective labor troubles in marine circles and Eastern car situation were the factors that interferred with shipping operations. Rye was quiet and easy and not much doing in Seeds. Hay was dull. Receipts are large and demand slow Prices weak. Hog Products were in moderate demand and offerings rather small. Sales limited and prices inclined to favor buyers. Exports for the week, compared with the corresponding week in 1903, exhibited increases of 1,960 brls Pork, 1,968,000 lbs Lard, and 4,311 boxes Meats.

FREIGHTS—The car situation on Eastern and Western roads has been slightly improved by continued mild weather, but it is still far from normal. Rates from west of the Missouri to Chicago are down to a point where the more Grain handled the more money the roads engaged in the rate war lose. East-bound rates are steady. The tariff is as follows:

To—	From Chicago. Domestic.	From Chicago. Export.	From Miss. River. Domestic.	From Miss. River. Export.
Boston..........	22	15	25	17½
New York....	20	15	22	17½
Philadelphia	18	14	20	16½
Baltimore	17	13½	19	16
Newport News...	17	13½	19	..
Buffalo.	13	..	15	..

Flour rates are 20c domestic and 16½c for export. Provision rates are 30c per 100 lbs, Chicago to New York

Rail rates at and east of Buffalo are lower on Grain now there at 1.40c per bu on Wheat, 1.15c on Corn, with the usual differentials to other points.

Ocean rates on Grain easy with a limited demand. Rates on Grain are ¾@1d per bu from New York and ¾d from Boston. Through rate on Wheat from Chicago to Liverpool is 11¾c per bu and Corn 11¼c. Flour 24.91c per 100 lbs and Provisions 44.06c per 100 lbs.

FLOUR—This market while unsettled the past week was weaker on the whole, and at the close prices show declines of 10@15c. All classes of buyers purchased only as actual wants necessitated, owing to the lower tendency of Wheat values Sales were confined almost exclusively to the local and domestic trade as foreign bids are still prohibitive and in most instances 25c below the ideas of millers. Manufacturers of Flour locally as well as at outside points were reluctant in shading prices, but as the week advanced and Wheat scored a further break, they were obliged to grant concessions in order to effect sales. Offerings at the same time were only moderate and there was no pressure on the part of sellers. Stocks are fair in some quarters and light in others. The large consumers of Flour were not in the market. Local millers, however, are all running on full time and the production at the principal Spring Wheat centers reported at 535,000 brls, compared with 463,000 brls for the corresponding week in 1903. According to the monthly statement of the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN the stocks of Flour in the United States and Canada on March 1 were 1,767,000 brls, compared with 1,872,000 brls Februery 1 and 1,848,000 brls March 1, 1903. Millers are expecting the cash situation and adverse crop reports from the West and Southwest to maintain values. The large Argentine surplus, and brilliant crop outlook in India are among the "bear" factors in foreign markets. Dornbusch's Buda Pesth correspondent, writing under date of Feb. 20 describes conditions in that market as follows: "Not only was Flour offered by dealers much below millers' prices, but a number of Austrian and Bohemian merchants put their recent purchases on the market in order to secure a handsome profit. This seems to confirm the impression that recent heavy purchases were largely of a speculative character, and that the Russo-Japanese crisis has made no difference in the extent of Austro-Hungarian consumption." The week closed steady as follows:

MILLSTUFFS—What few cars of Millstuffs were offered on the market met with good sale the past week, and late prices were well maintained. The receipts have really been short of requirements. More could have been easily sold. Bran in sacks, sacks included, sold at $19 00, and on an outside road at $18 50, and in bulk quotably $17 50 @18 00

WINTER WHEAT—An easy feeling has existed in the market during the past week, and prices declined 4@6c and then rallied some 2@4c and closed rather strong. The decline has been irregular, the soft Wheat not sharing in the weakness so readily as the Hard. At the decline, however, the demand for the fresh arrivals kept up pretty well and when bottom prices were reached the demand improved and caused a reaction in prices. The Wheat was taken by the usual buyers, but more particularly by the speculative class of buyers. Millers were a little slow the first days and bought rather reservedly, fearing the decline might continue, but later when a steadier feeling developed millers bought more liberally. All descriptions, whether Hard or soft Winter, taken if choice, while the poor Wheat was slow. The grade Wheat or the contract grade in store followed the fluctuations of the speculative market and held at fair premium over the Spring Wheat. No round lots reported sold. Receipts for the week aggregated 123 cars, against 125 cars the previous week. There were withdrawn from public elevators 41,050 bu and from private warehouses 63 cars. No 2 Red in store ranged from 2c under to 2c over May prices, and ranged at 94½c@$1 00⅜, down to 89¾@94½c, and up again to 93¼@99c, and closed rather firm. Fresh arrivals free on board quotable early in the week at $1 00@1 04 and later down to 95@97c, and up again to 98@99c. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals sold early in the week at $1 01@1 03 and later at 91½@97c. No. 4 Red sold at 72@90c, and No Grade sold at 73c. No. 2 Hard fresh arrivals, local, sold at 9 @97c, down to 87½@90c: sales at the river at 90 @92c, down to 85@89c. No. 3 Hard local sold at 83@95c, down to 78@88c, and at the river ranged at 80@90c, down to 78@87c. No. 4 Hard sold local at 65@87c, and at the river at 75c. No. 3 White sold at $1 02, down to 95c.

SPRING WHEAT—Prices declined some 4@5c during the week, with a steadier closing. The market was a little slow at the start, and all class of buyers held off, but later, even at the declining prices a fair demand existed, but it was not until the full decline was established and the market gave signs of having reached bottom that millers commenced to take hold more freely. Some shipping demand also developed at the lower prices and several round lots of No. 1 Northern were sold. Receipts continued small; this prevented a larger business being done. There has not been enough fresh arrivals to make a market and the quotations for the most part have been nominal. The hard variety was mostly wanted and sold quite well. Of the poor Wheat there have been a number of cars received, and while ordinary Wheat was salable there has been no special call for it, and low prices had to be accepted to make sales. The receipts of the week aggregated 70 cars, against 71 cars the previous week. There were withdrawn from public elevators 31,950 bu, and only 47 cars were taken from private warehouses. No. 1 Northern in store ruled about 1¾@2c under May prices and ranged from 93½@95⅝c, down to 88½@90c, up later again to 93¼@99 ½c; fresh arrivals free on board were quotable at 96@98c, down to 90@93c, and up to 95@98c No 2 Spring sold during the week at 90c No. 3 Spring local sold at 81@91c, and ranged at 80@87c for poor to very choice, with a sale at the river at 78c No 4 Spring local sold at 55@73c for poor to fair, and at 75@82c for medium to choice and a few fancy cars sold at 88@89c; a sale at the river was made at 74c.

REGULAR WHEAT—Was nervous and erratic the entire week, the trade being of immense volume. Closing prices showed a net loss in the May of 1c, while the old July declined 1¼c and the September 1⅛c. May ranged between 90¾@98⅜c and rested at 96c. July sold at 88⅜@94⅝c and closed at 92⅛c. The situation the opening days was weak, with a pronounced "bearish" sentiment prevalent, and "long" property came on the market from all directions. Stop loss limits were reached and pyramids toppled over in the rush of selling such as was seldom witnessed in this cereal. "Bear" interests were most aggressive on the selling side of the market, which lacked support from the "bull" element. The Government report showed 132,600,000 bu still on the farms March 1, compared with 164,000,000 bu bu March 1, 1903. The stock in the Northwest was reported 39,000,000 bu, against 46,000,000 bu one year ago. The decline the first of the week was attributable chiefly to the weakness abroad, quite general rains through Illinois, Missouri, Indiana and Ohio and "bearish" statistics. World's shipments were 10,112,000 bu, against 10,800,000 bu last week and 10,232,000 bu one year ago. The quantity on ocean passage increased 2,232,000 bu, and is now 39,624,000 bu, or 7,288,000 bu larger than a year ago. The visible supply decreased 941,000 bu, against 1,050,000 bu decrease one year ago Total is now 34,658,000 bu, against 46,757,000 bu in 1903 and 53,155,000 bu in 1902. Local public stocks decreased 15,000 bu, to 2,900,000 bu, against 7,641,000 bu one year ago. There are now in Chicago houses 5,667,000 bu, compared with 11,225,000 bu a year ago. Contract stocks here are 1,721,428 bu, a decrease of 2,894 bu for the week. The total a week ago was 1,724,322 bu, and a year ago 3,502,047 bu. Bradstreet's showed a decrease of 429,000 bu for the week, compared with a decrease of 2,477,000 bu a year ago. Stocks of Wheat in store at Fort William, Port Arthur, Keewatin, Winnipeg and interior country points are approximately 10,947,000 bu, against 11,021,000 bu a week ago, 20,053,000 bu a year ago, 18,400,000 bu two years ago, 5,750,000 bu three years ago, 8,500,000 bu four years ago, and 8,900 000 bu five years ago. The following table, compiled by the DAILY TRADE BULLETIN, shows the supplies of Breadstuffs afloat for Europe and in store in Europe and Argentina on the dates named:

	Mar. 1,'04. Bu.	Feb. 1,'04. Bu.	Mar. 1, '03. Bu.
Afloat for Europe...	37,390,000	27,190,000	31,370,000
In store in Europe..	38,620,000	49,290,000	31,280,000
In store-Argentina..	5,336,000	3,680,000	2,680,000
In store-America....	82,015,000	89,558,000	105,228,000
Total...............	163,361,000	169,718,000	170,558,000

The decrease during February equalled 6,357,000 bu, compared with a decrease of 8 556,000 bu during January, and a decrease of 3,120,000 bu during February, 1903. Foreign markets, both English and Continental, became weak though Liverpool and London were indirectly helped by the prolonged railway strike in Argentine. Foreign crop news was in a more favorable strain and this has acted as a "bear" influence. In the United Kingdom the crop conditions continue extremely poor. French Wheat is looking better. Russian crops under snow cover, recent improved weather having again changed to wintry conditions. Outlook in Bulgaria, Roumania and Hungary favorable, owing to recent rains and snow. No serious crop complaints in Germany. The Orange Judd Farmer made the Wheat reserves March 1 157,000 000 bu, against 190,000,000 bu last year. The Government last year made the reserve 164,000,000 bu. The percentage of the crop thus held is 22.3, or the smallest reported in ten years. With the exception of 1901 the aggregate is the smallest since 1897. May broke to 90¾c and July to 88⅜c before the decline was checked. Around these figures "shorts" covered freely and the price reacted to 97c and 92⅝c respectively. The movement to distributing centers was larger than a year ago and the total between July 1 and March 7 foots up 189,534,000 bu as compared with 215,568,000 bu for the same period in 1902-3 and 202,206,000 bu in 1901-2. Exports for the week were again very moderate at 1,854,000 bu and total since July 1 aggregates 113,985,000 bu, as against 166,070,000 bu for the same period in 1902-3. The following table exhibits the exports of Breadstuffs from the following countries from July 1, 1903, to March 5, 1904, compared with the corresponding period in 1902-3:

Countries—	1903-4, bu.	1902-3, bu.
America....................	124,888,000	175,415,000
Russia.......................	99,864,000	84,576,000

Bookings at Atlantic and Gulf ports were moderate. Receipts at Liverpool the past week were fair and the stock on hand reported 1,928,000 bu, against 1,856,000 bu the week previous and 2,032,000 bu one year ago. Lack of moisture in the Southwest, Kansas and Oklahoma was one of the hopes of the "bull" leaders, and private reports from these sections were quite "bullish." The following are a sample of the advices received the first of the week: Rexford, Kan., said: "A light snow fell last night and will help the Wheat for a short while." Osborn, Kan., said: "Wheat all right yet, will stand ten days longer without moisture" Canton, Kan., said: "Out of the question to make a guess on Wheat. It looks rather poor. No rain since November. In January about ⅛-inch of snow." Galva, Kan., said: "Acreage about the average. Farmers sowed the Wheat late and late sown is in fine condition, but small for the season." Turon station said: "Unless rains come soon the crop will be much damaged." Almena, Kan., said: "Much uneasiness felt as to condition of Wheat. No moisture for five months. Warm weather has caused Wheat to start. Extreme winds this week, with dust. Without moisture we fear a loss of the Wheat crop." Smith Center said: "General opinion of farmers is that the Wheat plant is all right up to this time. A rain soon would put the Wheat in good condition." Topeka: "The growing Wheat has greened up the past week and the plant in most fields is good." Lebanon, Kan.: "The prospect of Wheat is good Farmers think they are going to have a good crop." Newton, Kan.: "Wheat very small, just to the top of the ground. We have had a light snow. If followed by more moisture within a week or ten days will come out in fair shape" Preston, Kan.: "Wheat started nicely, no rain, but has a good root. Without doubt some damage, but can't say to what extent." Argentine shipments this week were 2 760 000 bu, making the total since January 1 22,880,000 bu, as against 13,258,000 bu one year ago. The visible was reported 3,680 000 bu, compared with 3,016,000 bu the corresponding date in 1903

CORN—Another active week was witnessed under th's head, the market being most sensitive and nervous at times. Fluctuations covered 4¼@5¼c range and the close shows the May ⅛@¼c lower, while the July lost 1¼c and the September ⅞c May touched 55⅛c and closed at 53@53¼c July closed at 51c sellers and September at 50¼c asked. The Government report showed 836,000,000 bu on the farms March 1, or 37.4 per cent, against 1,050,000,000 bu one year ago. The amount in the surplus States was reported as follows:

Ohio...............	29,000,000	48,643,000	24,094,000
Indiana..........	54,000,000	73,672,000	37,004,000
Illinois.,.........	108,000,000	171,820,000	59,408,000
Iowa	69,000,000	107,167,000	71,882,000
Missouri	73,000 000	137,400,000	11,959,000
Kansas	62,000,000	93,578,000	8,61[illegible]
Nebraska	64,000,000	128,785,000	26,194,000
Totals..........	469,000,000	760,565,000	228,652,000

Early in the week sentiment leaned to the "bull" or buying side of the market and the tendency of values was upward. Foreign market were strong the weather in Argentina reported as unfavorable to the growing crop and private estimates as to farm reserves were construed as "bullish." The mild weather and poor grading likewise acted as stimulating factors, the fear of congestion in contracts for May causing "shorts" no little amount of uneasiness. The commission house demand became most urgent and before the demand was satisfied May touched 55⅛c and the July 52⅞c. There was buying on the theory that May was likely to be controlled by one of the large elevator interests here, and "shorts" hastened to provide for outstanding contracts. Outside orders as a rule favored the "long" side of the market, the demand being supplied chiefly by the professional element. The people in Provisions who have adhered to the "bear" side of Corn for some time were on the buying side in a liberal manner and the room trading element took on Corn in large amounts. The market at the start was temporarily influenced by the Orange Judd Farmer report on farm reserves on March. It made the Corn farm reserves 816,000,000 bu, or 36.5 per cent of the crop. The farm reserve last March was 1,050,000,000 bu. It said of the Corn: "The present supply is the smallest with a single exception since 1898 and shows the consumption during the past twelve months the largest on record, or more than 200,000,000 bu in excess of the crop grown in 1903 which was the second largest on record. The heavy consumption is accounted for by the length and severity of the winter, the increase in Cattle and Hog feeding and the inferior feeding quality of the crop. The reserve in the surplus States is 515,000,000 bu, against 783,000,000 bu last year. Iowa and Missouri have less than half last year's crop." Routine statistics were given but casual consideration. World's shipments larger at 3 937,000 bu, against 2,473,000 bu the previous week and 4,581,000 bu one year ago. The quantity on ocean passage increased 901,000 bu to 10,329,000 bu, as against 8,488,000 bu same date in 1903. The visible increased 354,000 bu, while a year ago the increase was 1 072,000 bu. Present total 9,177,000 bu, compared with 11,291,000 bu in 1903 and 10,085,000 bu in 1902. Local public stocks increased 252,000 bu to 3,020,000 bu, compared with 3,946,000 bu same date in 1903. Total stocks in Chicago houses 7,638,000 bu, against 7,571,000 bu a year ago. Contract stocks in Chicago increased 209,000 bu for the week and are now 2 284,640 bu, compared with 2,339,000 bu a year ago. The world's available supply decreased 234,000 bu for the week, against an increase of 1,242,000 bu a year ago. Receipts this week were moderate at 1,087 cars and 64 per cent were No. 4 and No Grade, as against 1,522 cars last week when 69½ per cent were low grades. One year ago 1,945 cars were inspected in and 42 per cent No. 4 and No Grade. Transfers from private to public elevators were again fair this week, showing the dryers are still busy turning out the contract article. Another "bull" theory advanced this week was the prospective demand for the cash article upon the opening of navigation. It is expected the same will be confined to the better grades this season and the supply of contract Corn in consequence keep within moderate limits. Both the London and Liverpool markets were firm at the start, influenced by the Argentine strike and adverse weather there Receipts at Liverpool were moderate this week and the stock on hand in public warehouses March 5 reported 711,000 bu, as against 694,000 bu the week previous and 323,000 bu same date in 1903. Around 55⅛c for May and 52⅞c for July "long" Corn came out and a good many stop-loss limits were reached before the selling pressure was checked. May declined to 50c and July to 48⅝c, at which figures "shorts" purchased freely and turned the market. May selling to 53⅞c and the July to 51½c, the Government report being the "bull" influence. The sharp break in Wheat started the liquidation and the room trading element shifted from the "long" to the "short" side of the market. The Western movement this week fell considerably short of that of 1903. Exports were very fair at 2,027,000 bu and the total since July 1 aggregates 41,616,000 bu, compared with 35,805,000 bu the same period in 1903. Bookings at the Atlantic seaboard were liberal. Argentine shipments were 847,000 bu and total since Jan. 1 7,121,000 bu, compared with 542,000 bu same time in 1903. The visible there is now 394,000 bu, as against 236,000 bu same date in 1903. Car lots were in moderate supply this week and the low grades met with more ready sale and prices relatively more satisfactory to receivers.

OATS—Were actively traded in within a wide range. Prices advanced sharply in the early trading, but weakened and declined 1½@3⅜c May took the lead in the advance and on the break. The highest price was made on purchases for some of the heaviest operators and the selling was on realizing sales by another set of holders. May sold between 39¾@43⅛c, and closed at 41⅛c, a net loss of ⅛c. July sold between 38¼@40⅜c, and closed at 39⅛c, a net loss of ⅝c. September was fairly steady, ranging between 33@34⅝c, and closing at 33⅝@33¾c, a decline of ½c. The buying support after the decline was fairly under way became poor, but at the inside prices there was a liberal absorption by scattered commission houses and covering by "shorts" and a quick rally. Cash business was moderate despite the low prices. The sample market was well supplied and prices receded 2@3c, the latter on poor and bin burnt lots. Export clearances were 91,700 bu, against 116,000 bu the previous week and 311,000 bu last year. Receipts for the week were 1,463 cars, against 1,429 cars the previous week and 1,161 cars last year. There was also 387,000 bu of Standard transferred from private to public houses. Stocks in public houses increased 440,000 bu last week, and in all positions increased 365,000 bu, being 5,056,000 bu. The visible supply increased 440,000 bu and was 1,023,000 bu, against 7,002,000 bu last year.

RYE—Following the break in the other Grains, the market for Rye has ruled easier and prices declined 5@5½c, but recovered 1½c of the decline before the close Naturally with other Grains declining and almost panicky, buyers of Rye held aloof of the market, while holders felt more anxious to sell and willing to meet buyers' views if their bids were any way reasonable at all. Speculative interest seemed to be almost entirely out of the market. No shipping business was transacted and no round lots were sold. The cash business was confined to the few car lots of fresh arrivals, part of which were taken for manufacturing purposes, and some on speculative account evidently for mixing. The poor Rye ruled dull; it was only the good to choice lots which were wanted. The receipts were a little larger than last week, and aggregated 53 cars, against 40 cars the previous week. There were no withdrawals from public elevators and 5 cars from private warehouses. Export clearances from the seaboard none. Visible supply decreased 1,000 bu and was reported at 1,151,000 bu, against 1,153,000 bu the previous week and 1,031,000 bu one year ago. The increase in store was 240,000 bu and for the year 450,000 bu. No. 2 in store early in the week was quotable at 71½@72c and later down to 65½c; sales of fresh arrivals to go to store were made early in the week at 73@73½c, and they are heard at 73@74c early, down to 68½@70c later. No. 2 sold at 69@68c. No. 4 sold at 48@49c for poor to choice. Future deliveries of No. 2 Rye sold lower, May sold early at 74c, then at 72c, at 71½c, down to 69½c, and closed at 70¼c bid. July sold at 72c, and later was 69c bid and 67c sellers.

BARLEY—There was a heavy market for Barley the past week. It was so especially for ordinary and low grades. A drop in the price of Oats made the feed and Mixing demand smaller. Early there was considerable of this Barley on sale, and sellers managed to get rid of a good deal before the market became so heavy. Low grade and common malting was without demand, and finally some of the best offerings reduced their bids. They did this in an indifferent way; they did not not care to purchase except at easier prices. There was no decline. Of good to choice Barley there were only scattered offers on sale. No. 2 were salable, and yet the demand was tame. To arrive lots were neglected. Offerings were meager and no special demand existed; no transactions to speak of were reported. Arrivals during the week were fair, not much different than they have been according to inspection postings. More or less Barley comes in, and to-day there was a arrive sale without showing in the postings. There were inspected in 333 cars, compared with 394 cars the previous week and 322 cars two weeks ago. Withdrawals, 3,000 bu; a week ago 60,000 bu were taken out. Visible supply decreased 223,000 bu and was given as 4,085,000 bu, against 1,771,000 bu the same time last year. Local stock decreased 18,000 bu and was 321,000 bu; a year ago it was 1,251,000. Screenings sold at 32@34c for poor to fancy. Barley, feed or mixing, quotable at 38@40c local, depending on soundness and color, occasional choice light cars up to 42c; that was ruled nearly fancy for and mixing Barley sold at 34@39c for musty to nice sweet. Malting—low grade, 40@42c; common, 43@44c. Fair was about 45@46c; good, 47@50c; choice, 52@55c; fancy possibly higher, but not offered.

SEEDS—Considerable Timothy came on the market during the week, but of other Grass Seeds few consignments were seen. Timothy of a high grade was wanted and ruled some firmer, but common at the same time was easy and the entire market at the close was very heavy. Clover, Hungarian and Millets were all steady, with former prices maintained. There was the late customary dullness in Flax Seed, an easy feeling prevailed early with a slight decline, but there was a partial recovery with a steady and slightly better closing.

Timothy—The market was well supplied with country lots. A considerable portion of these consisted of poor to only fair quality. For fair to fine grades an easy and slow market was experienced. There was at the same time usually a good demand for the better grades Choice to fancy Seed became in very good request, and there was an improvement for best grades was obtainable, though at the close the entire market was heavy. Early $4.00 was about an outside quotation, while later on mailed, prompt, clean Seed was quoted up to $3 10@3 25 and finally $3 90@3 10 was again the top. Poor Seed ranged down to $2 80; in fact tailings in some cases sold at rates below this. Common, rough Seed was usually $2 20@2 45; some of a little better $2 50. Fair to good lots were $2 55@2 60 to $2 55@2 65 later, and choice quoted at $2 70@2 85. There was nothing done in a wagon way, and March 15th was quoted usually at $3 05 and May at $3 15, but there was very little desire manifested to either buy or sell. At the close March sold at $3 02½. Receipts were 2,000 bags, a little more than a week ago and in excess of last year; also larger than the shipments, which, by the way, fell short of those for the corresponding week a year ago. Movement was as follows:

Receipts the past week, lbs	2,450,445
The previous week	1,338,696
Two weeks ago	1,185,600
Same time last year	1,580,300
Shipments the past week, lbs	872,429
The previous week	853,086
Two weeks ago	642,875
Same time last year	1,042,800

Flax—There was a continuation of the very slow and very quiet market experienced not only for weeks but for some months past. Early the feeling was weak and prices declined 2c, but later in the week a stronger feeling developed, with 1@2c reaction. This left the market finally at a very small improvement, but the fluctuations after all were too small to be at all material. Receipts are moderate, not only a few cars came on sale. A little more Flax was taken from store; it did not appear as though any was purchased on the open market. Speculation was neglected. Prompt and future deliveries only nominal quotations could be obtained. The small changes which occurred here were influenced by fluctuations in primary northern markets. There was about 70,000 bu increase last week in total Western stocks. Local stock did not change. Minneapolis decreased 19,000 bu and Duluth gained 89,000 bu. There was no export sales. Prices as follows: Chicago stock was 18,722 bu, against 18,544 bu last year. Minneapolis reported 1,589,645 bu and Duluth 2,278,000 bu. Receipts during the week were 92 cars, the week before 108 cars and two weeks ago 46 cars. Taken out 12,893 bu, compared with 8,138 bu the previous week and 4,050 bu two weeks ago. No cash sales were quoted at 98½@99c to $1 05, but no transactions reported. A car or two of No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from this Northwest would sell daily, at first at $1 14½, then at $1 14, and later at $1 13½. Shipments reported at $1 16½. March delivery was nominal at $1 09@1 09½, opened at $1 09. May quotations were at $1 10@1 11; opened at $1 10¾ and closed at $1 11.

Clover—Has ruled firm. Often during the week the market was little or no better than nominal, owing to samples at times being sparingly offered. Order trade was quiet, but prices were very fair. Receipts, although not quite so large as a week ago, still extended those of the corresponding week last year. No material change was made in the quotations from day to day and prices were ranged as follows: Contract spot and March delivery quotable at $11 50@12 00. Country lots common to choice, $8 25@11 40. Seeds, mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $8 50@9 50; poor, cleaned out of Timothy by tool, down to $7 00@8 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $9 50@10 75. Movement for the week was as follows:

Receipts the past week, lbs	249,163
The previous week	542,676
Two weeks ago	370,982
Same time last year	160,720
Shipments the past week, lbs	635,5 8
The previous week	239,000
Two weeks ago	318,700
Corresponding week last year	37,200

Other Seeds—A steady market for Hungarian and Millets continued. No spot offerings to speak of, of either kind. Movement under the head of Other Seeds heavy, especially shipments. It might be assumed that this would mean Hungarian and Millets, since the others are specified. The reports of trade condition do not indicate that there is so much of these kinds going out, and shipments must include other lines. Some possibly getting under this instead of their own classification. No prices were made in the quotations. Prices are elsewhere given.

Receipts—The past week, lbs..... 686,460
A week ago..... 678,960
Two weeks ago..... 1,078,800
Same time last year..... 467,054

Shipments—The past week, lbs..... 2,472,004
A week ago..... 1,406,310
Two weeks ago..... 1,372,020
Same time last year..... 52,040

Buckwheat has remained salable. It was very scarce and had a quotable value of $1 35@1 40 for good milling Wheat; closed at $1 40.

RYE—The receipts for the week were 4,902 tons, against 5,712 tons for the previous week. Shipments for the week were 308 tons, against 262 tons for the previous week. The quotations for both Timothy and Prairie Hay ruled dull during the early part of the week. Only a light inquiry existed and the arrivals were large. A weak feeling was established and prices declined lower for poorer grades. Toward the close of the week, the demand improved somewhat, and the receipts became smaller. The market closed firmer, but prices were not particularly better. Quotations at the close ranged as follows: Choice Timothy, $11 50@12 00; No. 1 Timothy, $10 50@11 00; No. 2 Timothy, $9 00@9 50; No. 3 Timothy, $8 00@8 50; Choice Prairie, $10 00@10 50; No. 1 Prairie, $9 00@9 50; No. 2 Prairie, $8 00@8 50; No. 3 Prairie, $6 00@7 00; No. 4 Prairie, $5 00@5 50. Inside prices on Prairie Hay are for State and outside are for Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa Hay. Rye Straw sold at $4 50@5 50, Wheat Straw at $7 00, and Oat Straw at $6 50@7 00.

CHICAGO LEAGE—Very little interest was manifested in the market for Cooperage during the past week, and the volume of business was light. Buyers and sellers were apart in their views. Offerings were moderate, and the demand for all descriptions was limited. Local packers were holding off, and outside orders were small. Ash Pork Barrels were quiet and steady at 31 20@1 24½. Oak Pork Barrels were dull and slow sale at $1 43@1 50. Lard Tierces were in moderate request and prices favored buyers at 31 65@1 70. Iron-bound Lard Tierces were quiet and easy at 31 42½@1 45 for sixty hoops, and 31 47½@1 50 for eight hoops.

HOGS—The supply of Hogs during the past week was moderate—some less than generally anticipated—and the quality was slightly improved. Market in a general way was rather easy. Shippers purchased rather freely considering the supply and packers bought moderately. Prices were advanced 25@30c on the whole range, but toward the close, with a little better supply, the market was easier and prices receded 15@20c, and the market closed comparatively steady. Sales during the week were made at $4 75@5 50 for light, 45 10@5 45 for rough packing, $5 05@5 30 for mixed and $5 35@5 82½ for heavy packing and shipping lots, with the bulk of the sales at $5 10@5 70 for fair to good assortment. At the close about 7,000 Hogs remained in the pens unsold. Pigs were in fair supply and in moderate demand, with sales at $4 05@4 55, according to size and quality. The receipts of Hogs at the other large Western packing points were only fair, with no particular change in the quality.

PACKING—Only a fair business was transacted in packing circles during the past week. Hogs were in moderate supply, and prices higher, and packers were slow to follow the advance in prices, in view of the downward tendency in the market for Products. The feature was the better call on a moderate scale, and chiefly of articles most in request. Mess Pork made in fair quantities. Other cuts of Pork made moderately. Lard produced in fair quantities, the average quality being rather light. Bulk of the production placed in tierces. Domestic cuts of Hams made moderately, and chiefly of medium average sizes. Shoulders packed in moderate quantities, and a fair proportion delivered from the block. Skinned Hams made in fair quantities, and largely packed by manufacturers. Foreign cuts of Hams were neglected. Shoulders cut in moderate quantities, and a fair proportion delivered from the block. Picnic Hams made in limited quantities. Long Clear Sides and Extra Long Clear Sides were neglected. Short Clear Sides made very sparingly. Extra Short Clear Sides made in moderate quantities. Short Rib Sides made in fair quantities by the larger houses. Extra Short Rib Sides made in small quantities. Rough Sides made moderately, and chiefly of medium average weights made sparingly. Backs made moderately. Loins cut in fair quantities to provide for current wants. Foreign fancy and special cuts of Meats made in very small quantities.

PROVISIONS—There was a fairly good trade in Hog Products during the past week—not as active as during the two previous weeks. Outside orders were not as liberal, and trading on local account was on a more moderate scale. An unsettled feeling prevailed during the greater portion of the week, and prices fluctuated within a wide and wildly as during the previous week. A fair proportion of the trading was in transferring contracts from May to July at the current differences. Early in the week the feeling was rather firm, and of the week and prices ruled higher, and weaker later with a larger supply, but this feature had no material effect on the market. The Grain markets were easy and prices receding, and the market for Hog Products followed in sympathy. Prices were somewhat higher early in the week, with moderate local speculative trading, but the feeling weakened with considerable realizing, and prices declined irregularly to inside figures all around. Toward the close, quite a reaction set in and the feeling was stronger, with moderate trading in quantities, and investors who regard the recent decline as sufficient for the present were inclined to take hold, especially as Grain markets were firm. Prices were advanced moderately on all descriptions, and the market closed rather steady. Packers were credited with fair purchases toward the close. Returns of the movement of Hogs West for the week exhibited a decrease of 10,000 Hogs compared with returns for the corresponding week in 1903. Foreign markets were quiet and dull, with prices favorable for buyers. Receipts were large at points and slow. Receipts of Products from the interior were moderately large, and the shipments were lighter than usual. The demand on shipping account was very light. Buyers for the domestic trade accepted small quantities, and exporters were virtually out of the market. Holders were not forcing sales, and those in the West for the week exhibited a decrease of 10,000 Hogs compared with returns for the corresponding week in 1903. Foreign markets were quiet and dull, with prices favorable for buyers. Receipts were large at points and slow. Receipts of Products from the interior were moderately large, and the shipments were lighter than usual. The demand on shipping account was very light. Buyers for the domestic trade accepted small quantities, and exporters were virtually out of the market. Holders were not forcing sales, and those in the West for the week rather slow to grant concessions. Sales were rather light, and prices ruled lower on some descriptions.

Pork—Trade was not quite as active in Mess Pork during the past week, yet a fairly good business was transacted. An unsettled feeling prevailed during the greater portion of the time, and fluctuations in prices were frequent, and at times within quite wide ranges. Considerable realizing at times. "Shorts accepted fair quantities around inside figures. Trading was confined to July and May contracts, with considerable business in transferring at the current differences—at 17½@30c. Early in the week, the demand was rather active from miscellaneous sources, while offerings were only fair. Prices were advanced 25@30c on the whole range. At the advance, offerings were enlarged and the demand slackened. Prices irregularly lower on moderate trade. Reaction encouraged a little more general buying and a stronger feeling was manifested. Prices rallied 15@20c from the lowest point. Market closed steady. Very little demand on shipping account. Buyers backward. Offerings moderate and holders slow to grant concessions. At the close cash lots were quoted at 17 00@17 50 per barrel, according to weight.

Green Meats—Nothing of consequence was transacted in the market for Green Meats during the past week. There was no part cular demand from any sources—and prices were nominal. Local and outside orders were small. Offerings were moderate and held rather steadily. Buyers slow to bid. Stock on hand slightly enlarged, though the production was moderate. Fair trade on outside account. Early in the week, the feeling was stronger in general and while offerings were moderate. Prices were advanced 20@22½c. At the improvement there was some inclination to realize, while the demand was only fair. Prices irregularly receded 30@32½c. Sales reported brought buyers into the market again, and a firmer feeling was developed. Prices rallied 20@25c on the whole range, and the market closed comparatively steady. Demand on shipping account was limited, and offerings were moderate, as holders have generally sold ahead. A few small lots were occupied at 17½c for Hams, and 16½c for Shoulders. Bellies ruled steady at 17½@17 75. Refined in moderate request in small packages, and offerings not very large. Prices entirely nominal. Loose lots were in light request and offerings were moderate. Prices nominal at 20@22½c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard was in good request with fair offerings, and prices ruled lower. Sales were made at 15 50@16 25, and closed at 15 62½. Neutral was in fair demand and offerings were rather free. Market easier, and prices lower, closing at 17 87½@17 90 for Jan. and 17 62½@17 75 for No. 2.

Short Rib Sides—Rather a good trade was transacted in the market for Short Rib Sides and the feeling was unsettled. Offerings were fair and the demand was moderately active. Trading confined to May and July deliveries, with considerable business in transferring contracts at the current differences—2@15c. Stock on hand continued to be gradually enlarging. "Shorts" accepted fair quantities. Early in the week, the demand was rather active from miscellaneous sources, while offerings were only fair. Prices were advanced 25@30c on the whole range. At the improvement there was some inclination to realize, while the demand was only fair. Prices irregularly receded 30@32½c. Sales reported brought buyers into the market again, and a firmer feeling was developed. Prices rallied 20@25c on the whole range, and the market closed comparatively steady. Demand on shipping account was limited, and offerings were moderate, as holders have generally sold ahead. A few small lots were occupied at 17½c for Hams, and 16½c for Shoulders. Bellies ruled steady at 17 12½@17 75. Refined in moderate request in small packages, and offerings not very large. Prices entirely nominal. Loose lots were in light request and offerings were moderate. Prices nominal at 20@22½c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard was in good request with fair offerings, and prices ruled lower. Sales were made at 15 50@16 25, and closed at 15 62½. Neutral was in fair demand and offerings were rather free. Market easier, and prices lower, closing at 17 87½@17 90 for Jan. and 17 62½@17 75 for No. 2.

Short Rib Sides—Rather a good trade was transacted in the market for Short Rib Sides and the feeling was unsettled. Offerings were fair and the demand was moderately active. Trading confined to May and July deliveries, with considerable business in transferring contracts at the current differences—2@15c. Stock on hand continued to be gradually enlarging. THE WEATHER CONDITIONS

The weather map shows no precipitation in the Southwest this morning—no rain in Kansas, Oklahoma or Texas. Temperatures are getting summer-like in that section—90° at Fort Worth yesterday. There are a few light showers in the Ohio Valley—traces in most instances; a shower in Southern Missouri, 02 at Springfield, and a trace at Chicago. There is very little precipitation shown anywhere. Temperatures are about seasonable. In the Corn States temperatures are generally above freezing.

Indications are for threatening and unsettled weather over greater portion of the district and rain or snow in southern portion.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

A fire Wednesday at Montreal, Can., caused a loss of $75,000; insured.

Fire, Wednesday, at York, Pa., destroyed the Hoover Wagon Company, with a loss of $65,000; insured.

The Union Bag and Paper Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on preferred stock.

The Chesapeake and Ohio statement for six months ended Dec. 31 shows a surplus of $609 354 over all charges.

The Great Northern annual report for the year ended Dec 31 shows a surplus of $2,582 after deducting all charges.

A committee of creditors has accepted a plan for the reorganization of the New England Brick Company, now in the hands of a receiver.

The Fifth Avenue Bank has declared regular dividend of 25 per cent, payable April 1. Books close March 24. Reopen April 1.

The National Licorice Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent on preferred stock, payable March 31. Books close March 26, reopen April 1.

The American Iron and Steel Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent on preferred stock, payable April 1 to holders of record March 21.

The Virginia Carolina Chemical Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent on the preferred stock, payable April 15. Books close April 1 and reopen April 15.

At public auction in New York, Wednesday, $188,000 par value of United States Ship Building first mortgage bonds were sold at $260 for each $1,000 bond. Five hundred shares of preferred stock sold for $50 00 in all and a like number of common shares sold for $10 00 in all.

The Otis Elevator Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent on its preferred stock, and a dividend of 2 per cent on common stock, payable April 15. Books close March 30, reopen April 16.

The Pennsylvania Railroad announced, Thursday, its intention of making another cut in Grain rates from Buffalo to Philadelphia, to become effective March 15. The cut is made to maintain the established differential as between New York and Philadelphia.

Official returns from Bengal state that the season has not been altogether favorable for the Cotton crop. The normal area under this crop in the whole province is 50,200 acres. This year's area is estimated at only 39,000 acres, against 42,000 acres sown last year. The total yield is expected to be 2 377,100 lbs, as compared with 2,543,100 lbs last year.

The production of Coal in China is estimated at not more than 1,500,000 tons yearly, but this will be increased by the late concessions for the opening of two Coal mines in Manchuria to the Chinese Eastern Railway if war operations do not interrupt the development of the territory. Japan produced 5,300,000 metric tons of Coal in 1902, of which 3,000,000 tons were exported.

The contract for the great Pennsylvania tunnel under the North River has been let to the O'Rourke Engineering and Construction Company for $20,000,000. The task that will be undertaken by the contractors will be the greatest tunneling feat ever projected, as its presents some features never yet attempted by engineers. Work will begin at once, and is to be completed in two years.

The Northwestern Elevated Railroad Company has made regular payment to the City of Chicago of 10 per cent of the gross receipts for the half year ended Dec. 31, 1903. The amount of the check was $16,511, and indicates gross receipts for the half year of $165,110. This compares with gross receipts of $146,335 in the six months ended Dec. 31, 1902, and $159,258 for the six months ended July 1, 1903.

Official announcement is made that under the agreement of Oct. 1, 1895, the Morton Trust Company holds for distribution to the holders of the stamped stock of the Fort Worth and Denver City Railway Company an amount equivalent to $4 00 on each share of this stock. The distribution will be made April 1 to stock of record March 18. This is the full amount to which this stock is entitled. Last year the full rate was paid. In 1898 and 1899 2 per cent was distributed. No further payment was made until April, 1902, when 2 per cent was ordered.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, through the board of directors, has approved expenditures for improvements east of Pittsburg in 1904 to aggregate at least $20,500,000—not including money to be spent upon the New York tunnels and terminal. Of this sum $5,000,000 will be spent upon new work, including the improving and enlarging of the track facilities in and about Broad Street Station Philadelphia, and $13,500,000 will be spent upon work as laid out in the annual report. The additional $2,000,000 is needed for improvements that are called for from time to time.

It is estimated that it will cost the United States $144,000,000 to complete the Panama Canal. About 40,000 workmen will be employed and it will not be completed until 1912. It will be 49 miles long, 35 feet deep, and have a width of 150 feet at the bottom and between 250 and 500 feet at the surface. When completed it will cost $2,000,000 per annum to maintain it. The Panama Canal route was first surveyed in 1813. The DeLesseps Company expended $260,000,000 upon it. About 12 miles have been excavated on the Atlantic side and 5 miles on the Pacific side. So far 15,000 lives have been lost in the work.

The Agricultural Gazette of Feb. 29 says: "The weather last week was the best we have had for months, except in those parts of the country where the downfall of snow was considerable. Where it was only a sprinkling, not enough to lie on the ground, plowing was carried on under tolerable conditions for the season, and it was even possible to get in some Beans and Peas. The soil, however, is extremely tough, and it is impossible to get any fair depth of moulds by harrowing. A hard frost is indispensable for the proper working of fields for Barley or Oats. Unless this comes speedily, sowing will be late, even if the rainy weather does not return."

Official notice is given of a special meeting to be held in New York on March 21 of the stockholders and the debenture bondholders of the Wabash Railroad Company to vote upon the following matters: The increase of the authorized common stock by $70,000,000; the ratification of the execution of the trust agreement between the Wabash Railroad Company, the Bowling Green Trust Company and others as trustees to secure $10,000,000 first lien fifty-year 4 per cent terminal Gold bonds in pursuance of the resolution adopted at the last annual meeting, and the issue of the bonds as provided. For the purpose of this meeting the transfer books of both the stock and debenture mortgage bonds were closed Feb. 20 and will reopen March 23.

The facts in regard to the acquisition of the Locomotive and Machinery Company, Limited, of Montreal by the American Locomotive Company are as follows: The Montreal company has outstanding between $500 000 and $600,000 6 per cent bonds and indebtedness of about $1,000,000. These bonds will be cancelled and will be replaced by $500,000 4 per cent bonds, covering the company's plant and guaranteed by the American Locomotive Company. The American company will also assume the $1,000,000 of indebtedness. The duties on a locomotive imported into Canada from the United States run all the way from $3,000 to $6,000, and therefore it was impossible for a company in the United States to compete with the British manufacturer, who had the preferential tariff in his favor.

If the Northern Securities decision is favorable to that company there is a strong probability that immediately following this a Gould holding company will be organized which will take over considerable of Missouri Pacific, Wabash, St. Louis and Iron Mountain, Western Maryland and other lines which are under control of the Goulds and their associates. There is no intention, however, of forming such a company until there is a decision in the Northern Securities case. If the Northern Securities decision is adverse to the company there will then be no change in the holdings of the Gould stocks. Missouri Pacific will continue to hold the block of Wabash stock, which gives it control of that system, though, as has been pointed out, this block of stock is by no means a majority of the outstanding issue. It is so large a block, however, that there is no probability of any combination of other interests to take control out of the hands of the Goulds.

NORTHERN SECURITIES MERGER DECISION

WASHINGTON, March 14.—In its decision, the Supreme Court holds that the Anti-Trust law applies to all combinations, in whatever form, which directly restrain trade and commerce. It is held, that in order to prove that a combination or monopoly exists within the meaning of the act, it is not necessary to show that the immediate effect is to suppress competition or establish a monopoly. So far as may be judged as the Court decision is being read, the decision seems to be very sweeping in character. The Court is very vindictive in its charge against the Company. The court says: "In our opinion we must affirm the decision of the lower Court, unless the special exceptions urged by the defendants are upheld. The Court is now discussing these special exceptions."

WORLD'S EXPORTS OF BREADSTUFFS.

The following table exhibits the exports of Breadstuffs from the following countries from July 1, 1903, to March 12, 1904, compared with the corresponding period in 1902-3:

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

New York Exchange par.

Documentary Sterling steady at 483¼.

Chicago Bank Clearings to-day, $30,038,064.

Estimated receipts for to-morrow are: Wheat, 30 cars; Corn 250 cars; Oats 275 cars. Hogs, 27,000.

Ten packers purchased 25,000 Hogs to-day; shippers, 11 000; left over, 3,500. Market closed steady.

Reported that 120,000 bu Wheat, 72 000 bu Corn and 85,000 bu Oats were taken at the seaboard today for export.

The output of the St. Louis Flour mills for the past week was 70,200 brls, against 65 500 brls for the previous week.

The packing at Milwaukee since March 1 is estimated at 20,404 Hogs, against 16,811 for the corresponding time in 1903.

Union Traction of Indiana has declared a dividend of 1½ per cent on preferred stock, payable on April 1, on stock registered March 21.

The quantity of Flour and Wheat on passage to Europe during the past week increased 1,712,000 bu, and the quantity of Corn increased 737,000 bu.

The injunction obtained by the "shorts" in Wheat for December delivery at St. Louis, has been dissolved by the Court, and they will be required to settle at 0.c.

The New Haven and Hudson River Railway Company has declared its regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent, payable March 31 to holders of record March 15.

Exports of Flax Seed from India the past week were 248,000 bu, compared with 120,000 bu for the week previous, and 80,000 bu for the corresponding week in 1903.

The exports of Flour and Wheat from the United States during February was 7,722,000 bu—the smallest since April, 1896—compared with 11,610,000 bu in February, 1903.

The average weight of the Hogs received at Chicago last week was 210 lbs, against 199 lbs the previous week, 215 lbs the corresponding week in 1903, and 217 lbs in 1902.

The average price of Hogs at Chicago the past week was $5 45, against $5 48 the previous week, $7 10 a year ago, $6 29 two years ago, $5 52 three years ago, $4 85 four years ago, and $3 75 five years ago.

A large Seed firm at Bloomington, Ill., says: "Reports from all over the Corn belt received at our office concerning seed Corn reserved by farmers for their own use show an average germination of less than 65 per cent."

Cotton in New York was unsettled. There was less foreign "bull" news, and better receipts and rains in Texas and Mississippi. "Bull" leaders were buyers of July and sellers of May. The market closed 18@25 points lower.

Stocks of Wheat in public warehouses in Liverpool reported at 1,904,000 bu, against 1,028,000 bu one week ago and 2 168,000 bu one year ago. Stocks of Corn reported at 748,000 bu, against 711,000 bu one week ago, and 110,000 bu last year.

Consols closed ⅝ to 9-16 higher at 86 7-16 for money and 86½ for account. The sharp advance in Consols was not due to any change in the situation in the Far East, but to buying by the English Government for the sinking fund.

Average price of good Beef Cattle at Chicago the past week was $4 65, against $4 70 the previous week, $4 75 a year ago, $5 85 two years ago, and $4 85 three years ago. Top for the week $6 00, against $5 75 a year ago and $7 00 two years ago.

Local Securities were slow. The feature was Metropolitan Elevated preferred, which suffered from a renewal of the liquidation started last week. It made a low record, declining to 41 and reacted fairly. Can and Biscuit shares were steady.

On the reverse page will be found the detailed report of the visible supply of Grain. Compared with the previous week there were decreases of 1,262,000 bu Wheat, 116,000 bu Rye and 308,000 bu Barley, and an increase of 690,000 bu Corn and 141,000 bu Oats.

The Louisiana Boll Weevil Convention has declared 132 out of 173 Cotton producing counties in Texas infested with boll weevil, and has declared quarantine against Cotton, Cotton Seed, Straw, Corn shucks, and other articles liable to harbor the boll weevil and bring it into Louisiana.

East-bound rail shipments from Chicago and Chicago junction points compare as follows:

	Flour, brls.	Grain, bu.	Prov., tons.
Past week	214,953	2 671,000	26,781
Previous week	200,846	2,146 000	27,832
Last year	149,684	2,625,000	19,861

Stocks in New York, although weak and decidedly lower in the early trading, rallied and a majority of the active shares closed with slight gains. The merger decision in the Northern Securities, although in favor of the Government, had little effect on the general market. The curb price for Northern Securities broke sharply, but later rallied 2 points. Money 1¾@2 per cent.

The Westinghouse Air Brake Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent and an extra dividend of 2½ per cent, both payable April 11. Books close April 1 and reopen April 11. The extra dividend is 1 per cent less than was declared in the previous quarter. The treasurer of the Air Brake Company says the extra dividend has always been regulated in accordance with the earnings of the company for the quarter for which the dividend is declared.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR Market quiet and sales only moderate. Prices steady.

WINTER WHEAT—Was steady and there was a moderate demand. Receipts continue small. No. 2 Red in store ranged at 94@99c and fresh arrivals free on board at 98@99c. No 3 Red fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 95@98c. No 2 Hard Winter fresh receipts free on board sold at 93c, and at the river quotable at 84@92c. No. 3 Hard local sold at 87@88c, and ranged at 80@89c. No. 4 Hard sold at 55@69c.

SPRING WHEAT—Was steady to firm. Demand fair, but trading limited and in fresh arrivals confined to a few cars. No. 1 Northern in store ranged at 93½@95¾c, and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 96c@$1 00. No. 3 Spring fresh arrivals quotable at 82@97c for poor to very choice hard variety. No 4 sold at 72@75c and ranged at 67@90c for poor to choice hard variety.

REGULAR WHEAT—A good trade and choppy, unsettled market, fluctuations covering 1⅝@2¼c range. Last prices showed the May up ⅜c, the July up ⅛c and the September unchanged. Sentiment at the start leaned to the "bear" side, the snows in the Southwest and foreign statistics being the chief factors. The bidding up of the May by the "bull" party caused "shorts" to cover and situation turned stronger, but the weaker closing cables and higher consols caused prices to recede. The pronounced strength in the Northwest and showing of the visible brought about a moderate recovery in prices. World's shipments were 9,192 000 bu, against 10,112,000 bu the previous week and 8 498,000 bu one year ago. The quantity on ocean passage increased 1,712,000 bu to 41,346,000 bu, compared with 33,164 0 0 bu in 1903. Private Liverpool cable stated Europe would require but 1,600,000 bu weekly from this country. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ⅛d lower and futures unchanged to ⅛d higher. Stocks there 1,911,0 0 bu, decreased 24,000 bu. Stock year ago 2 168,000 bu. London came ⅛@¾d lower. Paris declined ⅛@¼c and Berlin 1 ⅛c. Buda Pesth was off ⅛c and Antwerp up ⅝c. The visible decreased 1,262,000 bu, compared with 691,000 bu decrease same week in 1903; total is now 33,394,000 bu, against 40,066 000 bu in 1903 and 51,997,000 bu in 1902. Local public stocks decreased 41,000 bu, to 2,600,0 0 bu, compared with 7,713 000 bu same date in 1903. Primary receipts were 11 000 bu ahead of last year. Receipts in the Northwest 17 cars larger. Kansas City and St. Louis received 191,000 bu, against 148 000 bu in 1903, and shipments 182,000 bu. Wichita had 93 cars, last year 137 cars. The Southwest reported country acceptances small. One to four inches of snow were reported in Nebraska. Generally fair weather predicted for the West. London quoted cargoes on passage firm and held 1½d higher. The Northwest was credited with free purchases in this market. New York reported acceptances of Hard Winter from Antwerp at the best prices on the crop. Exports were small, and officially reported for February at 7,722,000 bu, the smallest since February, 1896. New York at the close reported 15 boat loads accepted. New York reported Minneapolis canceling Flour sales. It was rumored late in the session that 100,000 bu cash cash had been bought in the Southwest to go to Minneapolis. Receipts at Duluth 41 cars and at Minneapolis 581 cars, a total of 622 cars against 313 cars Saturday, 600 cars a week ago, and 628 cars last year. Local receipts included 11 cars Winter, 5 cars Spring and none mixed, a total of 16 cars, against 27 cars last year. Included in the above was none of contract grade. There was 17 cars and 8,000 bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 30 cars. Withdrawals were 15,700 bu. Receipts at Western points were 806,030 bu, against 797,645 bu last year. At Eastern points 37,000 bu, against 103,841 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 307,500 bu, against 117,497 bu last year, and from Eastern points 76,914 bu, against 10,007 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 35,513 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 227,717 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Good trade and the market, after declining, closed up strong.

MARCH—Entirely nominal; closed about 95⅜c.

MAY—Sold at 95@97¼c. Opened with sales at 95½c to 95c; sold to 95¼c, to 97¼c, to 96½c, to 96¾c, to 96⅜c, to 97c, to 96⅞c, and closed at 96⅞c.

JULY Old style—Sold at 92⅜@93⅞c. Opened with sales at 92⅝c to 93¼c; sold to 93⅛c, to 92⅞c, to 93⅝c, to 92⅞c, to 9 c, to 92⅝c, to 93⅞c, to 93⅜c, to 93⅝c, to 93¼c, to 93½c, and closed at 93½c sellers.

JULY—New Style—Sold at 90⅞@92⅛c. Opened with sales at 91⅜c to 91c; sold to 90⅞c, to 91⅝c, to 91¼c, to 9 ⅝@92c, to 90⅞c, to 91¾c, to 91⅝c, to 92⅛c, to 91¾c, to 92⅛c, to 91⅝@91¾c, and closed at 91⅝@91¾c.

SEPTEMBER—Old Style—Sold at 86⅞@88c. Opened at 87c to 86⅞c; sold to 88⅛c, to 87⅞@88c, to 87c, to 88c, to 87½c, and closed at 87⅝c.

SEPTEMBER New Style—Sold at 85½@86¾c. Opened with sales at 85⅝c to 85½c; sold to 86½c, to 86⅝c, to 86⅜c, to 85¾c, to 86⅜c, to 86¾c, to 86⅝c, to 86½c, to 86¼c, and closed at 86¼c.

CORN—A fair trade and unsettled market in Corn with last prices ⅛c lower for May, while the July gained a fraction and the September 1 16c. The situation at the start was rather "bullish," the stormy weather, lack of bad roads and smaller movement together with the strength in the cash market for the low grades, were among the "bull" helps. Offerings for a while were light and buying led by some interests which purchased Saturday. Later on, the selling pressure became more pronounced and market declined, the reaction in Wheat and showing of the visible being among the "bear" factors. Receipts were 227 cars, last year 309 cars, and 250 cars are estimated for tomorrow. World's shipments were 3 76,000 bu; previous week, 3 937,000 bu, and 4,4 9,000 bu one year ago. The quantity on ocean passage increased 737,000 bu to 11,036,000 bu, compared with 11,761,000 bu one year ago. The visible increased 690 000 bu as against 479,000 bu decrease one year ago. CROPS IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

[From Broomhall's Corn Trade News, March 1.]

United Kingdom—The weather of the past week has been finer and colder, but with occasional falls of snow. On the whole it has been much more agreeable than the continuous rains of the early part of February and January, and besides it has been much more favorable for agriculture in light lands in the South of England. Farmers started drilling seed as early as last Tuesday, and as the week progressed the work became almost general, and, on the whole, the seed bed appeared to be satisfactory. On heavy soils seeding has continued to be impossible and the sharp frosts experienced the last night or two may cause further delay, but few will grumble at the severity of the weather follows the rains, for the improved condition of the land will amply make amends for a little extra work. The smallness of the area under Wheat in the United Kingdom continues to attract attention, and we fancy that when the official figures are published it will be found that the total is sensationally small. There will certainly be a reduction of 5 per cent, and possibly much more.

Russia—Mail advices continue to mention very mild weather in the South, and the rivers are reopening to navigation. So far as can be judged the crops would appear to have somewhat improved, but it is evident that if the mild period is followed by a sudden return of severe frosts the latter state would be worse than the first. The shipping movement is well maintained, but mainly at the expense of stocks; however, some arrivals are already coming of new by barge and it will soon keep free of ice, supplies by these routes will soon increase and do something towards replenishing the stock. Reports have now little to say about the weather, it does not seem likely that it will interfere actively with the export movement.

Roumania—After some rain, a good deal of snow fell last week, and the crops are in a satisfactory condition. Spring seeding has been commenced, but of course the return of winter will have stopped the work. Exports fell off sharply last week and, although rather more Grain is now coming forward at the shipping ports, the quantities are still light.

Austria-Hungary—The weather last week was variable, the temperature falling sharply towards the end, but the crops in many districts have still a good cover of snow.

Argentina—Our cables continue to report favorably of the Corn crop, but a number of damages has been circulated in America. Shipmental movements are still on a liberal scale, and the stocks further increased. Attention is now centered on the railway men's strike, which is said to be spreading, and threatens to cut off the arrivals at the ports, which in turn will affect the shipments. A telegram received to-day says that the efforts of the Government to arrange a settlement with the strikers have ended in failure, and business is paralyzed.

Australasia—Good rains have fallen in Australia, and the should ensure plenty of Winter pasturage, and enable farmers to make a start with ploughing and seeding under favorable conditions. Shipments continue on a liberal scale

India—We hear of no complaints concerning the crop, harvesting of which should now be in progress. A belated official report of Bengal says that also there the area under Wheat increased by 84,000 acres condition 9 per cent. We fear that not much new crop is being offered, but there is no lack of old, and shipments may increase.

France—The weather has turned drier and colder, being much more favorable for the crops. The weather will also favor threshing, and if it lasts farmers will soon be able to resume seeding. Growers are offered very sparingly on country markets, but the recent rapid advance has been followed by a reaction, for millers found it more difficult than ever to sell their Flour, and as a consequence would buy little or no Wheat.

Italy—Wet weather continued to prevail from Feb 10 to Feb. 20, and some damage was done; generally speaking, however, crop conditions continue favorable.

Spain—The weather continues rainy, and there are fears that the crops may suffer from excessive moisture.

Germany—The weather has been changeable, sharp frost having followed a mild period. The crops have snow cover in some parts, but others are bare—the weather is cold and comparatively very favorable for the crops but so far there have been no serious complaints. Only small quantities of native Wheat are offered, and buyers have, in consequence, made liberal purchases of foreign sorts.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows no precipitation in Kansas or Oklahoma this morning and the only precipitation shown on the Sunday map in this territory was 02at Concordia. There are snows or rain this morning from Western Texas and Western Missouri Eastward, but Kansas and Oklahoma miss the moisture as usual

There are light snows in the Northwest. There are heavy snows through Iowa, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. Temperatures are moderate.

Indications are the storm will be followed by fair weather. Temperatures will fall some, but will rise West. Another storm is overspreading the Pacific Coast States.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

Negotiations are under way to organize the McKinley National Bank of New York with a capital of $200,000 and a surplus of $100,000.

The Homestake Mining Company has declared the regular monthly dividend of 25c per share for February, payable March 15, books close March 10.

The American Surety Company's directors have declared the regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent, payable March 31. Books close March 17 and re-open April 1.

The Southern Railway Company has declared the regular semi-annual dividend of 2½ per cent on the preferred stock, payable April 18. Books close March 26 and reopen April 19.

The American Agricultural Chemical Company has declared the regular semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent on the preferred stock, payable April 1, Books close March 15 and reopen April 2.

The American Sheet and Tin Plate Company of the United States Steel Corporation are preparing for a reduction of 10 per cent in wages when the present scale expires, in the latter part of June.

The Union Switch and Signal Company announces that it will anticipate the redemption of the bonds falling due July 1 next. This is part of the sinking fund which matures at the rate of $50,000 per year.

American Steel Foundries Company, with which Western interests are allied, will shortly make application to the New York Stock Exchange for the reinstatement of its shares, which were excluded several weeks ago.

The Union Switch and Signal Company's directors have declared the regular quarterly dividends of 2½ per cent on the preferred and 2 per cent on the common stock, payable April 10 to stockholders of record April 1.

Chicago Bank Clearings to-day, $26,024,691.

Consols closed 2-16 to 3-16 higher at 86⅝ for money and 86 5-16 for account.

Reported that San Francisco has sold 210,000 bu Barley to the Russian Government

Shipments of Hogs from Chicago yesterday, 12,128, were the largest since March 24, 1902.

Estimated receipts for to-morrow are: Wheat, 15 cars; Corn 110 cars; Oats 115 cars. Hogs, 31,000

Reported that 126,000 bu Wheat, 24,000 bu Corn and 50,000 bu Oats were taken at the seaboard to-day for export

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago, Monday, was $5 41, against $5 41 Saturday, $5 41 a week ago, and $7 43 a year ago.

Seven packers purchased 5,900 Hogs to-day; shippers 6,500; left over, 5,000. Market closed steady. Receipts for to-day, about 15,000. Heavy sold at $5 70.

The stock of Flax Seed at Duluth on March 12 was 6,354,000 bu, compared with 6,278,000 bu the previous week—an increase of 16,000 bu. Stock last year, 3,871,7.9 bu

The receipts of Wheat at Liverpool during the past three days were 461,000 bu, of which 18,000 were American. Receipts of Corn 123,000 bu, of which 60,000 bu were American.

The average price of Calcutta Flax Seed on the spot in London during the month of February was 3s 9d against 48s in the same month last year, 57s 7½d in 1901, and 49s 0d in 1900.

Cotton in New York was unsettled and lower early, but advanced. At the low point prices were off 5c per lb from yesterday's top figures. Cables were lower and liquidating sales were a feature. The market closed 1.23 points lower.

Local Securities were moderately traded in and averaged higher. There was less pressure on Metropolitan Elevated preferred, and it advanced ½. Can and Biscuit preferred also made fair gains. North and West Chicago Railway Bonds were also advanced.

The weekly snow map shows up to Monday no snow covering in Kansas, except a trace in extreme northeast corner. There is a light covering in Eastern Nebraska. Iowa is well covered with good snows. There are snows over Northern Illinois, Northern half of Missouri and over Indiana and Ohio. Over the Northwest the snow covering is substantial.

Stocks in New York were more active, stronger and higher. It was a relief to Wall Street to have the Northern Securities out of the way. London and strong operators bought from the start, and prices responded more readily to the improved buying. Railway shares gained 1 to 3½ points, Industrials ½ to 3¾, and Coppers were up 1¼. Money, 1¾ per cent.

The Indianapolis correspondent of the Modern Miller says under date of March 10: "More favorable reports are coming from the Wheat fields. The plant is universally top-killed in this State, but there is general belief that sunshine following the heavy rains we have had in this State the last week will result in new blades poking their green points above the ground."

Bradstreet's report of the available supply for the past week shows the following changes:

	1904. bu.	1903. bu.
Wheat east of Rockies	Dec. 1,875,000	Dec. 2,222,000
Europe and afloat	Inc 1,300,000	Dec. 600,000
Total	Dec 575,000	Dec. 2,822,000
Corn	Inc. 1,032,000	Inc. 351,000
Oats	Inc 1,214,000	Inc 404,000

After years of controversy the freight officers of the roads operating between Chicago and the Atlantic seaboard have agreed upon a uniform bill of lading—a contract form of receipt that will more effectually bind both shipper and transportation company. The new bill was agreed upon at the recent meeting of the freight representatives in Chicago, and now is to be presented to the shippers for their consideration.

The Nashville correspondent of the Modern Miller, under date of March 11, says: "The growing Wheat crop is in better condition than at any time since it first appeared above ground. Reports from all directions are much more favorable. In some localities it has come out wonderfully and for the first time in a month there are no reports of the probable plowing under of fields. The prediction is made freely that for the first time in three years a fair crop will be harvested."

Persons interested in the Fore River Ship and Engine Company have been in consultation the past few days in relation to raising additional quick capital needed to carry the large amount of work that is now on hand in the shipyard. The contracts that have been taken are large in amount and require a large amount of capital to carry, especially in view of the large reserve held back upon certain government work. It is expected that the various interests involved will reach some decision in the course of the next few days.

The Liverpool Corn Trade News in its weekly foreign crop summary says: "United Kingdom—Winter Wheat prospects continue poor; during past week there has been some seeding of Spring Wheat. France, Hungary, Roumania, Italy. The condition of Wheat crop continues satisfactory. Russia. The crop situation as a whole shows no change from a week ago. Navigation on the Sea of Azoff has reopened. This is about fifteen days earlier than usual. Germany. The recent changeable and cold weather caused fears of damage to the Winter Wheat, but conditions have now taken a turn for the better. India. The recently reported rains have ceased and crop reports are of a favorable tenor. Australia. Latest advices confirm earlier fears that the rains during the period of harvesting caused some damage, reducing the exportable surplus."

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Market quiet, but steady.

WINTER WHEAT—Was in good demand and market firm; prices quoted ½@1c higher. No. 2 Red in store quotable at 99½@99¾c, with a sale of 25,000 bu out of store free on board at 99c; fresh arrivals quotable at 96@99c. No. [illegible] Red fresh receipts sold at 94½c and ranged at 94@98½c. Of No. 2 Hard there was a sale of 75,000 bu on private terms, and at the river quotable at 94@91c. No. 3 Hard was sold at 88@91c and at the river quotable at 87@90c. No. 4 Hard 1 car sold at 82@90—outside choice. No. 3 White sold at 97c.

SPRING WHEAT—In fair demand and closing firm with prices ½@1c higher. A sale of 25,000 bu No. 1 Northern reported for shipment. No. 1 Northern in store quotable at 94@96c and fresh arrivals free on board at 105½@99c. No. 3 Spring sold at 96c for choice and quotable down to 83c for poor. No. 4 Spring sold at 80@91c for fair to good and quotable 75@90c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—The trade in Wheat was more moderate in volume but sentiment again quite divided. Early the tone was weaker, but lower prices rallied, and extreme figures were fairly well maintained, the close showed gains of ⅜@½c to ¾c. The down-turn at the start was influenced to a great extent by the lower cables, reports of the Argentine strike being ended, large Northwest receipts and predictions of moisture for the Winter Wheat States outside of Kansas. Liverpool quoted spot ½@¾d lower, and futures off ⅛d. Receipts there the past three days were 464,000 bu, of which 48,000 bu came from America. London ⅛d higher to ⅛d lower, Paris ⅛@¼c higher, Antwerp and Berlin unchanged, while Buda Pesth was ⅛c lower. Local stocks in all positions were reported 5,817,000 bu, an increase of 60,000 bu, but are 6,022,000 bu smaller than one year ago. Contract stocks decreased 32,259 bu, and now include 1,089,169 bu, compared with 3,528,189 bu the corresponding date in 1903. Bradstreet's world's available supply decreased 575,000 bu, against 2,822,000 bu decrease for the corresponding week one year ago. The rally was attributed partially to the buying by the "bull" party and was helped along by the cash situation. St. Louis claimed the entire stock of Hard Winter there—about 300,000 bu—had been sold to go to Minneapolis, and Duluth reported the sale of 70,000 bu to go to Eastern mills. Sales of 100,000 bu were made here on milling account. Crop news from the Southwest was "bullish" and acceptances still to be small. St. Louis reported a farmer there from St. Charles, Mo., who had 2700 acres in Wheat and claimed he has plowed up 1900 acres and buying Oats to replace same. Showers were predicted for Illinois and Missouri, rain or snow for Iowa, and cloudy, warmer weather for Kansas and Nebraska. The snow map up to Monday showed only a trace in Kansas and light covering in parts of Nebraska. Iowa well covered; also Northern Illinois and all over Indiana and Ohio and substantial in the Northwest. Primary receipts 11,000 bu, about ½ of last year. Kansas City and St. Louis received 0,000 bu, last year 110,000 bu; shipments 275,000 bu. Northwest cars 155 larger. Winnipeg 121 cars, against 74 cars two days last year. Minneapolis stocks have decreased 100,000 bu so far this week. Navigation on the Sea of Azoff was reported opened and said to be about fifteen days earlier than usual. Foreign crop conditions were reported little changed. San Francisco reported the sale of 5,000 tons (about 250,000 bu) of Barley to the Russian Government. A sale of 50,000 bu Barley for export was reported here. Receipts at Duluth 100 cars and at Minneapolis 294 cars—a total of 410 cars, against 625 cars yesterday, 290 cars a week ago, and 215 cars last year. Local receipts included 32 cars Winter, 12 cars Spring and 9 cars mixed—a total of 43 cars, against 25 cars last year. Included in the above was none of contract grade. There was 6 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 15 cars. Withdrawals were 11,050 bu. Receipts at Western points were 196,012 bu, against 453,114 bu last year. At western points 71,878 bu, against 117,77 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 403,291 bu, against 231,2.0 bu last year, and from Eastern points 4 0.0 bu, against 101,000 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 9,112 bris. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 45,130 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Good trade at irregular prices. Closing higher.

MARCH—Entirely nominal; closed about 96c.

MAY—Sold at 95½@97½c. Opened with sales at 96⅝c to 96¼c; sold to 91c, to 97½c, to 96⅝c, to 96¾c, to 96¾c, to 95¾c, to 96¾c, to 96¾c to 97⅜c, to 97c, to 97½c, to 97¼c, to 97½c, and closed at 97½c sellers.

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 85¼@86¾c. Opened with sales at 85¾c to 85½c; sold to 85⅜c, to 85½c, to 85¾c, to 85½c, to 85⅞c, to 86½c, to 86⅛c, to 86⅝c, and closed at 86⅝c.

CORN—Was only moderately active, still there was a fair trade, and rather unsettled feeling prevalent. Closing prices were ½c better for May, while July gained ⅛@⅜c and the September ¼c. Market was inclined to follow Wheat at the start, the increasing stocks and lower cables being indirect "bear" factors. Commission houses had considerable for sale, and July was offered freely, floor traders getting "short" on the decline. The May was taken by the "bull" party and the "shorts" covered when Wheat rallied. Liverpool quoted spot ¼@½d lower and futures ¾d lower. Receipts there the past three days, 123,000 bu. Local stocks in all positions were reported 8,155,000 bu, an increase of 518,000 bu, and are 3,200,000 bu larger than a year ago. Contract stocks increased 114,164 bu and now include 2,7 8,126 bu compared with 2,347,519 bu the corresponding date in 1903. Bradstreet's available supply increased 1,032,000 bu, compared with an increase of 351,000 bu for the same week in 1903. Receipts were 300 cars, against 382 cars last year, and 110 cars estimated for to-morrow. Receipts at Western distributing centers were 5 7,000 bu, against against 760,000 bu one year ago. Shipments 762,000 bu and 572,000 bu respectively. Local arrivals 325,000 bu, and shipments 1,7,000 bu. Exports were 270,000 bu and 3 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Transfers from private to public elevators 1.7 cars. Shipping demand fair and sales 50,000 bu. Car lots were in good demand and prices were steady. Offerings small. No. 2 closed at out 51¾c. No 2 Yellow closed at 52¼c. No 3 sold at 44¼c, and closed at 44½@44¾c. No. 3 White sold at 44½c. No. 3 Yellow sold at 44@46, outside for damp and closed at 45½@46¼c. No. 4 sold at 42c.

Corn by sample. Demand was good and the offering small. Feeling easier and prices steady to ½c lower for all grades except No Grade, which ruled a little higher. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 39@41½c. No. 4 at 41@43c. No. 3 at 44½@44½c. No 3 Yellow at 45½@48½c. No. 3 White at 44½@50c. Ears at 38c. Billed through, No. Grade at 36@0. No. 4 at 41½@42¾c. No 3 at 44½@4. No. 3 Yellow at 40@64½c. No. 2 Yellow at 3. No. 3 White at 42½@43c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Moderately active and prices rather irregular, closing with moderate advance.

MARCH—Inactive; closed nominally at 52½c.

MAY—Sold at 53½@54⅜c. Opened at 53½c to 53⅝c, sold at 53⅞@54¼c, to 54c, to 53⅞c, to 54⅛c, to 53⅞c, to 53¾c, to 54½c, to 54c, to 54⅛c, to 54⅜c, to 54⅛c, and closed at 54⅜c asked.

JULY—Sold at 51@52¼c. Opened at 51⅜c to 51⅝c, sold to 51½c, to 51⅜c, to 51½c, to 51¼c, to 51⅝c, to 51c, to 51⅝c, to 51⅞c, to 51¾c, to 51½c, to 52¼c, to 52⅛c, and closed at 52⅛c asked.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 50⅜@51⅜c. Opened at 50⅞c to 50½c, and sold to 50½c, to 50¾c, to 50⅝c, to 50⅞c, to 51c, to 51¼c, to 51c, to 50⅞c, to 51⅛c, and closed at 51⅛c.

OATS—Were sold off with other Grains early and lost ⅜@½c. About all was recovered later on buying by early sellers and because Wheat advanced. Closing sales were at net losses of ⅛@¼c. Commission house business was fair. Cash sales were 50,000 bu here and 50,100 bu at New York. Contract stocks increased 191,600 bu, and are 2,737,000 bu. Private elevator stocks increased 20,000 bu, and in all positions are 5,610,000 bu, an increase of 548,000 bu. Bradstreet's available increased 1,214,000 bu, against 418,000 bu last year. Arrivals were 290 cars, with 115 cars estimated for to-morrow. There were no Standard transferred from private to public houses. Seaboard clearances were 11,500 bu. Car lots to go to store were steady. No 3 White at 39c. Standard in store closed about 39¾@40¼c.

Oats by sample were in fair request and steady, with offerings lighter. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade at 31c. No. 4 at 39½c. No 4 White at 37@42c. No. 3 at 39@39½c. No. 3 White at 41½@43c. Billed through, No. 4 White at 38½@39½c. No. 3 White at 40½@42½c. Standard at 42¼c. At the river: No. 4 White at 32@33c. No. 3 White at 38@40½c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were weak and lower early and stronger later, closing a shade lower.

MARCH—Closed about 39¾c.

MAY—Fair trading. Sold at 40⅛@41¼c and at 41c. Opened at 40⅝c to 41c, sold to 40⅛@40¼c, to 41c at close.

JULY—Moderately active. Sold at 38½@39⅛c. Opened at 38⅞c to 39c, sold to 38½c, to 39⅛c, to 39c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 33⅛@33⅜c. Opened at 33½c to 33½@33⅝c, sold to 33⅛c, to 33⅜c; closed at 33⅝c.

RYE—Was firm and for May prices about ½c higher, while July was practically same as yesterday. There was a good speculative demand and trading centered in future delivery. No demand for cash to speak of. The receipts were 11 cars. There were no withdrawals from store here and no export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store nominally 74½c and fresh arrivals free on board nominally 72@75c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—May sold at 75c, and closed at 74½c bid and 75 asked. July sold at 70½c, and closed at 70½c bid and 71c asked.

BARLEY—Demand and offerings both were large. Good, bright Barley of all weights was salable. Maltsters would buy it when heavy and mixers when thin. Such goods steady. When Barley was off color maltsters were indifferent, trade slow and market easy in tone. Poor discolored and perhaps musty, not suitable for malting, was very dull and weak, even feed buyers and mixers did not care for it. Supply in the aggregate was very moderate. Maltsters have only urgent wants to fill. They were reported well supplied. Some said to be short of room, for it has been slow getting out malt owing to slack shipping accommodations. Fifty-three cars were inspected in. Wires from the Pacific Coast reported Russia having purchased 5,000 tons of Barley and would be likely to take the surplus remaining. There also were reported 50,000 bushels and some small lots sold for export in this market. Screenings sparingly offered, few sold, demand slow and values quotable at 35@45c, the outside for fancy. Barley feed or mixing at 37@40c, depending on soundness and color, poor, musty, etc. Malting, low grade, 41@42c; common, 43@45c. Fair was about 45@46c, good, 48@49c; choice, 52@53c, fancy possibly higher; not offered.

SEEDS—There was a little life about Timothy, but none in other lines. No price changes were displayed in any part of the market.

Timothy—The market was about steady. Only cash Seed was accorded any attention; futures were entirely neglected. Spot offerings were moderate. A few lots were very nice, none fancy, mostly fair to good, and some lots of low grade also on sale. Demand was fair. Values about steady, for better grades particularly. Sales were at $2 00@2 80. Country lots quotable at $2 25@3 10 for poor to fancy; fair to good, $2 5@2 70, choice, $2 75@2 85; unhulled, clean, bright above, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 40@2 10; tailings lower. March remained nominally at $3 05, May at $3 10, and September at $3 15.

Flax—There was no trading. The market was entirely nominal and it was unchanged. Postings showed increased receipts, but there were no cash offerings. Cash and futures were salable at last quotations. There were 31 cars, or 30,000 bu, received; 1 car, or 1,003 bu taken out. At Minneapolis the receipts were 22 cars and at Duluth 10 cars. No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest sold at $1 10. No. 1 was $1 10 bid and rejected quotable at $1 06@1 09. Futures salable as follows. March at $1 10 and May at $1 12; September held at $1 13.

Clover—Was called about steady and no change to note from the slight depreciation shown in yesterday's market. Consignment offerings very small. Quotable: Contract spot and March delivery $11 25. Country lots, common to choice, $8 25@11 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $8 00@9 25; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $100 10 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $9 25@10 25.

Other Seeds—There were no offerings especially. Late sowing Seeds were said to be easy. No change quotable. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark at $1 00@1 00. Common Millet $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 40, Siberian, $ 0@$1 05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c. Mustard $5@$1 65. Buckwheat was a shade weaker; good milling sold at $1 35.

HOG PRODUCTS—A fairly good speculative trade was reported in Hog Products. Outside orders were fair, and local trading was moderately active. The feeling in a general way was somewhat unsettled, and fluctuations in prices were frequent but not within very wide ranges. Hogs were in moderate supply and prices higher, and this feature had a little influence on the market early in the day, and prices were advanced. Later, a weaker feeling was developed, and prices receded again. At the decline the demand improved, and prices rallied slightly, but gradually receded again. Toward the close, the feeling was stronger, with prices higher, and the market closed rather steady around medium figures. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 67,700, compared with 51,800 one year ago. Foreign markets were quiet and rather easy. Liverpool quotations were reduced 6d on Backs and 3d on Lard, and advanced 6d on Hams. Domestic markets were quiet. Receipts of Products were liberal—of Lard and Meats about 37 cars. Shipments were fairly good—of Lard and Meats about 137 cars. Inquiry on shipping account was somewhat improved, and offerings were fair. Sales were slightly larger, and prices without material change.

Mess Pork—A fairly good business was reported in Mess Pork and the feeling was a little unsettled. Offerings were moderately free and the demand was fair. Market opened 5@10c higher on the filling of a few orders, but after these were provided for an easier feeling prevailed and prices receded 15@17½c. At the decline the demand improved and prices rallied 5@7½c but settled back again. Toward the close rallied again 7½@10c, and the market closed steady around medium figures. Shipping demand was light and offerings were limited. Cash lots quotable at $13 87½@14 00.

MAY—Offerings were moderately free and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $13 90@14 10. Opened at $14 05 to $14 10, sold to $14 12½@14 07½, to $14 07½, to $13 97½, to $14 01, to $14 0.., to $14 00, to $13 90, to $14 00@14 02½, and closed steady.

JULY—In fair request and offerings were rather liberal. Sales were made at $14 12½@14 30. Opened at $14 30, sold to $14 20, to $14 22½, to $14 17½, to $14 20, to $14 12½, to $14 17½ to $14 22½, to $14 12½, to $14 22½ and closed steady.

Lard—Only a moderate business was reported in the Lard market and the feeling was easier. Offerings were fair and the demand was only moderate. Foreign advices were unfavorable to holders. Trading mainly local. Prices ruled 2½@5c lower on whole range and closed steady around medium figures. Trading chiefly in July contracts. Demand on shipping account light and offerings moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $7 05@7 10. Loose lots called for sparingly and offerings were rather light. Prices were steady at about 62½c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in small request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotable steady at $6 62½. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably lower at $7 75@7 87½ for No. 1 and $7 50@7 62½ for No. 2.

MAY—Demand rather light and offerings were fair. Sales were made at $7 22½@7 27½. Opened at $7 27½, sold to $7 22½, to $7 25, to $7 2½, to $7 25, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were moderately free and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $7 37½@7 42½. Opened at $7 42½, sold to $7 37½, to $7 40, to $7 37½, to $7 42½, to $7 40, to $7 42½, and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—Trade was fairly active in the market for Short Rib Sides and the feeling was easier. Offerings were fairly liberal, and the demand was moderately active. Early, the feeling was rather steady, with slight changes in prices. Later, a weaker feeling was developed, and prices receded 10@12½c, but rallied again 5@7½c, and closed rather steady around medium figures. Shipping demand was moderate and offerings were rather light. Cash lots quotable at $7 00@7 12½ according to weight.

MAY—Offerings were moderately free, and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $7 17½@7 30. Opened at $7 30, sold to $7 25@7 27½, to $7 27½, to $7 30, to $7 22½, to $7 17½ to $7 25, to $7 20, to $7 22½, and closed steady.

JULY—In fair request and offerings were not very large. Sales were made at $7 30@7 40. Opened at $7 40, sold to $7 3., to $7 32½, to $7 30, to $7 35 to $7 30, to $7 35 and closed steady.

Other Meats—Trade was somewhat larger and the feeling rather steady. Offerings were only fair. Demand was better from the home trade. Export inquiry very limited. Green Meats in moderate supply and rather light demand and prices ruled steady. Pickled Meats were in better request to fill moderate orders and prices were unchanged. Dry Salted Meats were in fair demand in a quiet way and prices ruled steady. Smoked Meats called for in fair quantities, especially in a jobbing way, and prices were steady. Closing prices as follows:

BREADSTUFFS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

Wheat The Wheat markets up North here have all undergone no decided change during the week under review Sales of small lots have been made daily and prices are slightly lower. Millers and exporters have been able to increase their holdings and stocks remaining unsold are becoming quite small A large quantity of Wheat is under negotiations of the countries will hardly grade for shipping, not alone for milling purposes. At the present time we have six ships in port loading for Wheat, and from present appearances it does not look as if many more will go abroad after these have finished their cargoes Considerable good Wheat has been going East, and some large orders received recently will shortly be shipped As exporters have no pressing need for Wheat, they can wait for the market for the same unless they can secure it on an export value. Markets are not as firm abroad as the previous week, and no new business has been announced Wheat to arrive which is now in port chartered is in the warehouses here, thus vessels will receive prompt dispatch. Quotations range, for club, 79 to 79c; bluestem, 80 to 82c; valley, 78c per bushel. There are no changes to report as to crop conditions; everywhere reports come to us indicating that the outlook was very good, and growing Grain was doing very well.

Flour—The demand for Flour at present is quiet, and sales reported are only in small lots. Some business will be done on all grades, but millers cannot afford to take same, as Wheat is difficult to procure at a reasonable figure; holders do not care to sell unless they would get about 3 per bbl. only profit at present is in export trade to California, who is buying considerable Flour from Northern millers. The Central and South America trade is quiet at present, and these countries are only buying Flour as in actual necessities. From the Orient no new business has been reported. Stocks are large and the same will have to be considerably reduced ere very much new business can be done. Of course there are buyers constantly on the market to purchase Flour if the same can be bought at their price. There is nothing new in reference to United Kingdom trade, outside of a vessel loading at Tacoma for that destination. She will probably take about 30,000 brls. Quotations show no change from the previous week, and for export brands of millers are asking from $3.55 to $3.65 per brl; patents from $4.25 to $4.50 per brl

WINTER PACKING AT MILWAUKEE.

(From the Milwaukee Sentinel, March 14.)

The Packing of Hogs from Nov. 1, 1903, to Feb. 29, 1904, in Milwaukee and Cudahy shows a material increase over that of the corresponding period in 1902-3, the gain in the number of animals killed being 122,627, the gain in average live weight 4.82 lbs, and the gain in the yield of Lard per Hog 0.57 lb. The gain in the number of Hogs packed in the result of a rapid increase in the country during the last year under the influence of high prices current, together with a liberal supply of Corn from the crops of 1901 and 1903, the Hog crop of the main producing States having increased 10 per cent.

The increase in weight and Lard is moderate, as during the last two months of the season high prices of Corn and other feedstuffs caused the making of considerable Stock Hogs, so that the total number cut last season is the largest of any preceding winter since those of 1898-9 and 1897-8, though the weight and the yield of Lard exceeded only that of 1901-2 and of 1900-1. The total packing of the last winter and of the preceding summer is 866,287, against 883,723 in the preceding year and 796,333 in 1901-2. The packing facilities of Milwaukee and Cudahy combined are equal to about 1,500 0 0 Hogs per annum and in two preceding years 1,022,000 and 1,103,000 animals were disposed of.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The plant of the Maritime nail works at St. Johns, N. B., was burned, Friday, with a loss estimated at $50,000.

The price on refined Sugars was advanced 5 points, Monday, in New York and is 4.85c, less 1 per cent for granulated.

The Western Trust and Savings Bank, Chicago, has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1% per cent, payable March 31.

The Blue Island avenue car barns of the Chicago Union Traction Company were damaged by fire, Monday, to the extent of $75 000.

Fire at Frederick, Oklahoma, Friday, destroyed an entire block of business buildings, causing a loss estimated at $100,000; insurance one-third.

The car ferry Shenango No. 1, owned by the Pere Marquette and Bessemer Company, was destroyed by fire on Grand Haven, Mich., Friday. Loss, $350,000

At a meeting of the directors of the Yokohama Specie Bank, limited, held at Yokohama March 1, a dividend of 12 per cent per annum was declared.

The regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent will be declared on the shares of the American shipbuilding Company this week. The disbursement is payable April 15.

The interests controlling the leading packing companies of Chicago have secured control of the Sperry & Barnes Company of New Haven, Conn. It will probably be added to the National Packing Company.

The Price Paucoast Company's Coal breaker at Throop, Pa., was destroyed by fire, Friday. The mine employed 920 men and boys, and was the only industry of the village. The fire loss is $185,000; insurance, $100,000.

The sale of a New York Stock Exchange seat at $83,000 was announced Monday on account of which and the dullness the market for seats has been a declining one, and the price compares with $95,000 on the occasion of the last sale.

Ocean freight men report a material increase in the booking of cereals in port The business, however, is small, and Flour is paying only 5c per 100 lbs, which about pays the expense of loading and unloading, and leaves nothing in the way of freight. Tonnage is available. Monday, said: "Men at a meeting decided to continue the strike. Tonnage abundant. Sellers firm." Another cable said: "Demand for cereals unchanged and weak. Nothing of consequence in port is being constructed increased by fresh arrivals."

A New York banking interest through local connections says: "Conditions in the Northern industries approved to the extent that one would be willing to believe The earnings of the United States Steel Corporation are not showing material improvement."

The shipments of Flax Seed from India from April 1 to date amounted to 13,181,000 bu (Calcutta 11,994,000 bu and Bombay 6,280,00 bu), against 12,890,000 bu (Calcutta 6,850,000 bu and Bombay 6,040,000 bu), and 14,448,000 bu in 1901-2 (Calcutta 10,576,000 bu and Bombay 3,872,000 bu).

A Berlin dispatch says: "The Barmen Bankverein and Ritzeberg, Prusche & Co., will absorb the Dortmunder Bankverein, exchanging shares at their par value and increasing the capital from $2,500,000 to $11,535,000. The absorbed bank will continue business as a branch of the Barmen Institution."

The Consolidated Rubber Tire Company announces that on and after April 1 next interest will be paid on the company's 4 per cent five year sinking fund income bonds at the rate of 1½ per cent upon presentation and surrender to the Colonial Trust Company of New York of the coupon maturing on that date.

A circular has been issued to the stockholders of the Compressed Air Company setting forth the needs of a reorganization in order to provide the company with sufficient working capital. The organization of the company is declared to be impractive, and plans outlining one are to be soon submitted to the stockholders for approval.

At a meeting of the Steel Rail Pool of which Judge Gary, the price of Steel bars was increased $1 00 all around. Bessemer Steel bars were advanced from $26.00 to $27 00 per ton, and open hearth from $28.00 to $29 00. The Rail mill will be kept busy expected on account of unusually heavy orders during past two weeks, and a further advance is looked for within a month.

Judge Anderson of the Federal Court at Indianapolis, Ind., Friday, appointed two receivers for the Chicago and South Shore Railroad Company, which operates an electric line from Chicago to Michigan City, on the ground that the company is insolvent. The receivers were appointed upon the petition of the of Royal Trust Company of Chicago and the bondholders. The bonds involved amount to $960,000.

Judge Dobler of the Circuit Court in Baltimore has signed an order authorizing the receiver of the Maryland Trust Company to borrow $1,000,000 on the securities of the Vera Cruz and Pacific Railway for the purpose of completing the construction and equipment of that road, and to meet obligations falling due January 1 next. The receiver is ordered to issue receiver's certificates bearing 6 per cent interest as a first lien on the securities of the railroad.

The Liverpool Corn Trade News of March 3 says: "The weather in France the last seven days has been just what growers wanted for their crops, and the outlook is considered by the manufacturing interests very favorable. In many districts, giving the young crops a good protective covering. The cool weather will also do good in destroying vermin, which are now in their full vigor. The Government intends to devote $50,000 to their destruction."

Bornhuch of March 2 says of the Italian crops: "During the past week, in Southern Italy the weather was generally fairly mild and along the Adriatic Coast really springlike, so much so as to cause some apprehension as to the effect of any cold snap on the blossoms. Rain has fallen almost nearly everywhere, and caused frequent interruptions to field work. Bad weather did occasional damage to Wheat in the low lying parts of Tuscany, but on the whole it is in good condition."

An official of the Illinois Steel Company says between 50 and 50 per cent of the United States Steel Corporation's output is disposed of before the full calendar year. There are said to be several fairly large-sized orders pending among railroads and it is expected these will be placed before summer. Not counting what business may develop after the election next fall, the official predicts that the trust will probably roll in the neighborhood of 75 or 80 per cent of last year's total tonnage this year.

The Ohio elevator Company earned the last fiscal year between 8 and 9 per cent on the common stock. Out of the earnings dividends will probably be pay a 2 per cent dividend on the common shares, the same amount that was paid last year. For practical purposes this is an annual dividend, although is is the intention of the Ohio company's business is now being done in the South and West, building operations in the East being on a rather small scale. The company's business in Chicago has more than doubled in the recent past. The London contract amounting to $1,500,000 will keep the company's plants running for several months.

The following announcement in regard to the United States Shipbuilding Company was made, Thursday: "The time for the deposit of bonds under the modified plan and agreement expired March 10. The counsel for the reorganization committee announces that of the $14,500,000 first mortgage 5 and 6 per cent bonds there have been deposited with the committee $13,924,000 and the holders of over $750,000 have been offered for deposit and are under quarantee by the committee; also all that of the $10,000,000 Bethlehem bond issue has already been deposited. The time for deposit has not been extended. The success of the committee's plan is thus fully assured."

A director of the Southern Pacific Thursday, denied the published story that bankers representing the company had for the first time taken up seriously the question of refunding the bonded indebtedness of the Southern Pacific. It was reported that the details of a refunding mortgage of between $50,000,000 and $60,000,000 were in the course of preparation and that the outstanding bonds of the Southern Pacific and subsidiary companies and lines. "This must be the time for the reappearance of the silly season," said the director "There is nothing new in that story. As everybody interested in he subject knows, the Southern Pacific has bonds to refund in 1905, but as to how it will be done not even the managers have decided now. The figures and facts given are purely guess work, and nothing else."

A dispatch from New York says: "The report from the Pacific coast that the Northern has practically obtained an option on the Bellingham Bay and British Columbia Railroad, the Washington railroad controlled by D. O Mills and his associates for the Northern Pacific. The company has outstanding $1,000,000 of common stock and $500,000 first mortgage bonds. This line has under operation about fifty miles of road in the northern part of the State, running from New Whatcom to Maple Falls. Last year an extension through to Spokane was planned, to make a new route to the Pacific Coast, and it was generally rumored that the B. B. & Northern intended to use the line as a North Pacific route, letting the Union Pacific through Spokane to the Pacific. The practical purchase by Hill involves the possibility of this."

Traffic officials of all railroads terminating in Chicago, Friday, received from the Inter-State Commerce Commission an order to file with it, not later than March 15, a statement showing all their divisions of rates with, and other allowances to, so-called terminal roads. The order of the commission mystified railway officials. To comply with the order will compel railroads to furnish a mass of information, as, in addition to all financial arrangements with them, the railroads must describe exactly the points at which their lines connect with the terminals, belt, or switching roads. The commission says that "it is apparent that an investigation of the arrangements with terminal lines should be made," and their divisions of rates will be asked to furnish by March 30 is to form the ground-work for the investigation.

The Buenos Ayres Standard of Feb. 7 says: "The Argentine crop is not proving to be so abundant as it was thought to be, but the exportation will largely exceed that of last year, and there will be a bumper crop of Corn. Many people, interested in agriculture, are very much disgusted with the low prices for the new Wheat, but console themselves with the idea that in case of a war between Russia and Japan prices will go sky-wards. Of course, the man who keeps his Grain on such an uncertain issue deserves to lose—and lose heavily. The Wheat this year is of a far superior class to that of last season, at least as far as it has been reached this city up to date. It is reported that several large French firms have bought large lots in Santa Fe and in the south of Cordoba, which will be shipped direct from there. Corn is not very plentiful, nor is the quality very good. Of course, the Grain is old and until the end of May we will have very little of the new crop sent to market."

The Chicago Inter Ocean says: "The rumor that the American Trust and Savings Bank would change its times of paying dividends from semi-annual to quarterly and increase its dividend rate from 6 to 8 per cent per annum has again been revived, and this time there seem to be more than the usual reasons for giving credence to it. The bank has been earning more this year than last. In spite of the fact that banking conditions are not so favorable for large profits Last year the rate of earnings per annum was 12 per cent above the dividend rate, but it was decided to put the greater part of the profits into surplus account. The surplus was increased at the close of the year to $1,000,000 by the addition of $250,000 of undivided profits. With the surplus now one-half of the capital, and with the undivided profits in the neighborhood of $250,000, it appears that the times for increasing the disbursements to stockholders has about arrived."

"Evidently some railroad has complained to the commission that it is being hurt by a secret arrangement between another road and one or more terminal lines," said an executive officer of one of the big Western lines. "There has always been more or less mention of the existence of switching arrangements, and it is possible that it is being practiced more than ever since the passage of the Elkins amendment to the act to regulate commerce and the injunctions by the Federal Courts against the railroads. There may be some very sensational developments." "I am inclined to think the proposed investigation is an outgrowth of the commission's recent inquiry into the relations between the Salt trust and certain railroads in Kansas," said a traffic official of an Eastern railroad. "There are scores of so-called railroads, which in reality are nothing but private switches, that have been used as clubs to beat down the rates which should have been received by the railroads. Under the guise of so-called terminal lines, have demanded a portion of the through rates from the railroads. Any railroad refusing to make the divisions demanded would find its freight business ruined by the interests controlling the alleged terminal lines."

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

New York Exchange par.

Documentary Sterling steady at 483¼.

Chicago Bank Clearings to-day, $27,315,051.

Consols closed 3-16 higher at 86 12-16 for money and 86⅞ for account.

Gold engagements at New York for Argentina are $1,500,000 to go this week.

Estimated receipts for to-morrow are: Wheat, 15 cars; Corn, 160 cars; Oats, 115 cars; Hogs, 35,000.

Reported that 200,000 bu Wheat, 96,000 bu Corn and 100,000 bu Oats were taken at the seaboard to-day for export.

Nine packers purchased 18,000 Hogs to-day; shippers, 10,000; left over, 6,500. Market closed weak and 5c to 10c lower than yesterday.

A Rosario cable says: Very meager shipments of Wheat from here. Strike dominating railway traffic much improved. A favorable change in the weather.

An official of the National Biscuit Company is quoted as saying that the gross business thus far in March has been 15 to 20 per cent larger than a year ago.

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago Tuesday was $5 48, against $5 41 Monday, $5 47 a week ago, $5 12 a month ago, $4 89 two months ago and $7 20 a year ago.

The Rochester, N. Y. Railway Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent on preferred stock, payable April 1 to stock of record March 19.

Exporters forwarded 240 car loads, or about 4,000 head, of Cattle from Chicago, Monday, being the largest day's shipments of export Cattle on record. Most of the export Steers sold at $4 80@5 00.

Cotton in New York was active, weak and lower despite "bull" support. Cables were lower and there was an increased selling pressure. Closing sales were 45@55 points lower on near and 21@25 points lower on deferred deliveries.

Comptroller Grout, of New York, has invited bids for $3,000,000 of 3½ per cent Gold bonds of the city. The bids will be opened March 24. The sum of $1,000,000 of the issue is for dock purposes, $1,200,000 for new schoolhouses and sites, and the remainder for miscellaneous public work.

In Local Securities there was a decided improvement in the speculative tone and in values. There was less pressure to sell and prices responded more readily to moderate buying. Metropolitan Elevated preferred advanced 3 points. Cable shares were stronger, and Industrials made fair advances.

Following the announcement of an advance of $3 00 a ton in hoops and $1 00 a ton in scrap Steel and in bar Iron, the advance in Steel bars was made, Tuesday, at a meeting of large manufacturers of merchant Steel bars at Pittsburg. This action was generally expected and was, therefore, no surprise.

Northern Securities, during the first half hour on the curb in New York was traded in to the extent of over 4,000 shares. Opening sales were made at 90, but subsequently the price fell to 89¾, but on excellent support rose sharply to 90⅞. Some realizing took place at the high figure, and a reaction to 90 followed.

Stocks in New York were more active and advanced during the morning. Commission house buying was better, and "shorts" were good buyers, and helped advance prices. In the last hour selling for profits carried prices off, and part of the advances disappeared, fair losses being recorded on a few Stocks, while small gains were made in others. Money 1¾ per cent.

Corn Trade News of March 3 says of the Argentine exports during 1903: "Official returns give the total Wheat as 65,270,000 bu and Flour 567,000 sacks, equaling together 65,552,000 bu. The total reported by our agent at Buenos Ayres in his weekly cables, for Argentina and Uruguay, was 65,432,000 bu, which shows a fairly close agreement. The official total for Corn is 77,328,000 bu and for Flax Seed 25,144,000 bu, these articles and Breadstuffs showing large increases on the year previous."

Another cut in export Grain rates was announced, Tuesday, by the Lehigh Valley and Reading Railroads from Buffalo to Philadelphia in their effort to maintain the differentials of 4 mills per bushel in favor of Philadelphia. This is the tenth cut announced since the differential was begun on Feb. 1. The new rate goes into effect on March 21. The following table shows the rate at the beginning of the fight, the rate which went into effect to-day, and the new rate which goes into effect on March 21:

	Feb. 1.	Mar. 15.	Mar. 21.
Wheat and Flax Seed	4.16	1.00	.06
Corn and Rye	4.35	.75	.05
Barley	4.10	.05	.05
Oats	3.60	.04	.04

It will be observed that there is no change in the rate on Barley or Oats in the latest cut. Railroad officials say that so far there has been no material loss to the railroads or any special benefits to the Grain shippers as a result of the war because there has been little or no Grain at Buffalo for shipment to Philadelphia since the rate cutting began.

EXPORTS OF FLOUR AND WHEAT.

The exports of Wheat and Flour in Wheat (reckoning 4½ bu Wheat to a barrel of Flour) from all American ports as reported by the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics of the Treasury Department monthly for four years were as follows.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Market continues quiet and steady.

WINTER WHEAT—A good demand existed and cash was relatively steadier than the futures, and prices not quotably lower. No. 2 Red in store was quotable at 95⅛@99c, and fresh arrivals sold at $1 00, both free on board and at the river, and quotably as low as 97c. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals sold at 99c and ranged at 95@99c. No. 2 Hard local sold at 98c, and quotable at the river at 90@93c. No. 3 Hard at the river quotable at 85@91c.

SPRING WHEAT—In good demand and prices for cash steadier than the futures. Relatively prices were ½c higher, millers and shippers buying, and sales of 125,000 bu mostly No. 1 Northern were reported at ½@1¼c under May prices depending some on location. No. 1 Northern in store ranged at 95@98¾c and fresh arrivals free on board at 97c@$1 00. A sale of 10,000 bu Spring Wheat, grade not given, was reported at 90c free on board. No. 3 Spring local sold at 88@97c for fair to choice hard variety and sold at the river at 97c. No. 4 Spring local sold at 70@85c for fair to good, and quotable at 58@90c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—A fair trade and weaker feeling, with the close 1⅛c lower for May, while the July lost 2⅜@2¼c and the September 1⅞@2c. Selling was general early and led by local and professional operators. "Long" property came out on the decline, but around 96c for May and 92c for July the demand improved, part of the buying being credited to the Southwest. The change in sentiment from yesterday was due chiefly to the prediction of rains in the Southwest and improved crop reports from that section. The lower cables and sharp drop at outside points, too, were "bear" influences. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ½d lower and futures ⅜@½d lower. London came ½d higher to ⅜d lower. Paris was off ½c and Buda Pesth ⅝c lower. Berlin declined ⅛c and Antwerp advanced ⅝c. Receipts in the Northwest were 101 cars larger than a year ago and primary receipts 89,000 bu ahead of 1903. Kansas City and St Louis received 88,000 bu, against 77,000 bu in 1903, and shipments 138,000 bu. Winnipeg had 51 cars, against 60 cars last year. London quoted cargoes on passage quiet and lower to sell. The large millers at Minneapolis reported the demand dull, one message stating, "Flour very dull; no export demand and very little domestic." The signal service predicted rain turning into snow and colder for Kansas, and rain or snow for Nebraska, Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, and Iowa. Carthage, Mo., wired crop could not be in better condition, and Newton, Kan., wired news of like tenor. Kansas City wired that rains were becoming more general and weather milder. Rosario, Argentina, cabled: "Very meagre shipments of Wheat from here; strike dominating; there is a favorable change in the weather." Toledo reported the sale the past few days of 200,000 bu No. 2 Red to go from St. Louis to Ohio miller. Exports were small and 25 boat loads were accepted at the seaboard. Cash sales here 130,000 bu, the No. 1 Northern selling at ½@1c under the May. Liverpool reported very small offerings from Argentina. The weakness at Kansas City was one of the chief late "bear" factors. Stop orders were uncovered. Receipts at Duluth 43 cars and at Minneapolis 282 cars, a total of 325 cars, against 400 cars yesterday, 400 cars a week ago, and 235 cars last year. Local receipts included 8 cars Winter, 4 cars Spring and 1 car mixed, a total of 13 cars, against 15 cars last year. Included in the above was none of contract grade. There was 34 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 15 cars. Withdrawals were 11,750 bu. Receipts at Western points were 469,576 bu, against 401,279 bu last year. At Eastern points 37,306 bu, against 86,914 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 258,569 bu, against 151,747 bu last year, and from Eastern points 12,750 bu, against 132,025 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 44,634 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 213,603 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Active and lower.

MARCH—Entirely nominal; closed about 95⅝c.

MAY—Sold at 96⅛@97¼c. Opened at 97c to 97¼c; sold to 96½c, to 97c, to 96½c, to 97⅛c, to 96⅛c, to 96¼c, to 96⅛c, to 96⅜c, and closed at 96⅜c.

JULY—Old Style. Sold at 92@94c. Opened with sales at 93¾c to 93½c; sold to 94c, to 93⅜c, to 93½c, to 93¼c, to 93½@93⅝c, to 93⅛c, to 93⅝c, to 93c, to 93⅛c, to 92½c, to 93¼c, to 92⅜c, to 92½c, to 92c, to 92¼c, and closed at 92¼c sellers.

JULY—New Style—Sold at 90⅝@92⅝c. Opened with sales at 92⅝c to 92⅜@92½c; sold to 92¾c, to 92⅝c, to 92¼c, to 91⅞c, to 92¼c, to 91⅛c, to 91⅞c, to 90⅞@91c, to 91⅛c, to 90⅝c, to 90⅞c and closed at 90⅞c sellers.

SEPTEMBER—Old Style—Sold at 86@87½c. Opened at 87½c to 87¼c; sold to 87⅜c, to 87⅛@87¼c, to 87¼@87⅜c to 86⅞c, to 87c, to 86¼c, to 87c, to 86c, and closed at 86c sellers.

SEPTEMBER—New Style. Sold at 84½@86¼c. Opened with sales at 86¼c to 86c; sold to 85⅞@86c, to 86¼c, to 85c, to 85½c, to 84¾c, to 85c, to 84½c, to 84⅝c, and closed at 84⅝c sellers.

CORN—Was rather quiet early in the day, but as the session advanced more interest was developed. The feeling prevalent was weaker and the close 1⅛@1¼c lower for May, while July lost 1½@1⅝c and the September 1⅜c. Locals and professionals were arrayed on the selling side, the market feeling the effect of the Wheat decline. July was relatively weaker than the May, the latter at times being rather sparingly offered. The spread ranged between 2¼c and 2½c. Market started ¼@⅜c lower and considerable "long" property came out on the break. Southwestern markets were weak, notwithstanding the fact that unsettled weather was predicted—rain or snow for the Corn States. Shipments at primary markets, 292,000 bu, exceeded the receipts by 10,000 bu. Last year the receipts were reported 570,000 bu, and were 209,000 bu larger than the shipments. Local arrivals were 140,000 bu, and shipments 137,000 bu. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ¼d higher and futures up ⅛d. London quoted Corn on passage firm, with a better demand for La Plata cargoes. Receipts were only 100 cars, and but 160 cars are estimated for to-morrow. Private elevators turned out 160 cars and 15,000 bu. Exports were 264,000 bu and 12 boat loads were accepted at the seaboard. Local shipping demand moderate and sales small. Car lots were in good request and light supply. Prices without special changes. No. 2 closed about 51¼c. No. 2 Yellow closed about 52¾c. No. 3 closed at 44½@50¾c. No. 3 Yellow closed at 45½@51¼c. No. 4 sold at 42½c.

Corn by sample—In good demand and small supply. Feeling firm and prices steady to ½c higher for choice Corn and unchanged for low grades. Sales on track and free on board. No Grade sold at 38@40½c. No. 4 at 42¾@43½c. No. 3 at 44¼@51c. No. 3 Yellow at 46@51c. No. 2 Yellow at 53¼@55c. No. 3 White at 45½@53c. No. 2 White at [illegible]c. Billed through. No Grade at 38@39c. No. 4 at 41½@43c. No. 3 at 43@44c. No. 3 Yellow at 44½@45½c. No. 3 White at 43@43½c. No. 2 White at 52c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Moderately active and feeling weaker, closing with declines of 1⅛@1¼c and 1½@1⅝c.

MARCH—Inactive; closed about 51c.

MAY—Sold at 53⅛@54¼c. Opened at 54¼c to 54c, and sold at 53⅞c, to 54⅛c, to 53⅝c, to 53⅞c, to 53⅝c, to 54c, to 53⅝c, to 53¾@53⅞c, to 53⅛c, to 53¼c, to 53⅛@53¼c, and closed at 53⅛@53¼c bid.

JULY—Sold at 50½@52c. Opened at 52c to 51⅞c, sold at 51¾@51⅞c, to 52c, to 51⅝c, to 51½c, to 51¼c, to 51⅝c, to 51⅛c, to 51¼c, to 50⅞c, to 51⅜c, to 50⅝c, to 50¾c, to 50½c, to 50⅝c, to 50½@50⅝c, and closed at 50½@50⅝c bid.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 50@51⅛c. Opened at 51c to 51⅛c and sold at 51½c, to 50⅝c, to 50½c, to 50¾c, to 50¼c, to 50½@50⅝c, to 50c, and closed at 50c.

OATS—Were heavy the greater part of the day and closed at almost the bottom with a net loss ⅜@⅞c, the latter on May. Weakness in other Grains and heavy general selling of May was the depressing influence. The support was poor until bottom figures were reached when good commission house buying appeared for May and July, which checked the decline and made a small rally. The close was easy. Cash demand was better, with sales of 125,000 bu here and 100,000 bu at New York. Arrivals were 112 cars, with 115 cars estimated for to-morrow. There was 11,000 bu Standard taken out of private elevators and 800 bu from public houses. Export clearances were 18,000 bu. Car lots in store and to go to store were steady. Standard in store closed about 39½c.

Oats by sample were in better request and steady. Offerings were smaller. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 at 36¼@38c. No. 4 White at 37@42c. No. 3 White at 41@43c. Standard at 43½@44c. Billed through: No. 4 at 39c. No. 4 White at 38@40½c. No. 3 White at 41@42½c. At the river: No. 4 at 36½c. No. 4 White at 35@39½c. No. 3 White at 39@40½c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were weak and lower.

MARCH. Closed about 39⅛c.

MAY.—Offered freely. Sales were at 40@41c. Opened at 40⅞c, sold to 41c, to 40c, to 40⅛c at close.

JULY—Active. Sold at 38½c and at 39@39⅛c. Opened at 38⅞c to 39c, sold to 39@39⅛c to 38½c, to 38½@38⅝c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Moderately active. Sold at 33¼@33⅝c. Opened at 33½c to 33⅝, sold to 33¼c at close.

RYE—Ruled easier and prices show 1c decline in sympathy with Wheat. Demand light and offerings moderate. Trading limited both in cash and futures. The receipts were two cars. There were no withdrawals from store here and no export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store, round lots, entirely nominal and quotably about 72c and car lot fresh arrivals on track sold at 71½@72½c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Moderate offerings and light demand. May 1c lower and sold at 74c and closed at 74c sellers. July sold at 70c and closed at 70c.

BARLEY—There was a moderate supply of ordinary to fair malting Barley; more of this than any other kind. It was dull. Some malting demand existed for good to choice Barley and that was scarce, quotably steady to firm. Grades below were slow and easy. Good Barley, sweet and good color, for mixing, was wanted; also some export demand. Nice cars of feed Barley were firmer, perhaps 1c higher. Offerings were light. Badly stained or musty goods slow and heavy. Only 20 cars were inspected in. Screenings were slow to-day, sales were at 30@42c for poor to very choice, this covered the range of late quotations. Barley, feed or mixing, 37@40c local, depending on soundness and color; some nice feed sold at 42c, river billed sold at 37@39c. Malting—low grade, 42@43c; common, 44@45c. Fair was about 46@47c; good, 48@50c; choice, 52@55c; fancy possibly higher; not offered.

SEEDS—Outside of a moderate business in cash Timothy, little was doing, and in no branch of the market were there any material price changes.

Timothy—The market remained about steady. Nothing important developed. Late snow storm, no doubt, has checked trade somewhat. There was, however, a fair demand for the Seed offered; the quantity was not large. Sales were from $2 80 for a high grade down to $1 75 for a low grade. Sales mainly at $2 35@2 70 for common rough to good quality. Futures inactive. Contract spot or March delivery offered at $3 15 and $3 00 bid. May was offered at $3 25. September offered at $3 10, and $3 15 bid. Country lots quotable at $2 25@3 10 for poor to fancy, fair to good, $2 55@2 70; choice, $2 75@2 85; unhulled, clean, bright above, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 35@2 45; tailings lower.

Flax—There continues a monotonous state of quietude and unchangeableness. Arrivals fair, but only a car or so comes on sale. Futures also quite neglected, and only occasionally is there in evidence any desire to trade. No. 1 Northwestern sold sparingly at $1 16. No. 1 was salable at $1 10. Rejected nominal at $1 00@1 09, outside for choice from the Northwest. March was nominally $1 10 and a small lot for May delivery sold at $1 12. September was offered at $1 18. Posted to-day 23 cars or 19,550 bu received, and 1 car or 2,714 bu taken out. Minneapolis got 19 cars and Duluth 73 cars.

Clover—Market practically bare of offerings and no trading on that account. Quoted as steady at unchanged prices. Contract spot and March delivery nominally $11 25. Country lots, common to choice, $8 25@11 00; fancy above, mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $8 50@9 25, poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $9 25@10 25.

Other Seeds—Were said to be easy all the way through, but not changed particularly. No fresh offerings were seen. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark quotable at $1 00@1 90. Common Millet $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 40. Siberian, 85c@$1 05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat easy, good milling, $1 30@1 35.

HOG PRODUCTS—Trade was only fairly active in the market for Hog Products. Outside orders were not very large and local trading was fairly active. Packers were credited with selling fair quantities. "Shorts" purchased moderately. Hogs were in fairly good supply and prices were lower, while the Grain markets were easy, and these features encouraged a little selling during the early part of the session, resulting in moderate decline in prices for all the leading articles. At the reduction, there was moderate miscellaneous buying, and prices rallied slightly, and the market closed comparatively steady around nearly inside figures. A fair business was transacted in transferring contracts from May to July. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 77,000, compared with 55,000 one year ago. Foreign markets were quiet and dull. Backs were quotably 6d lower. Domestic markets quiet and without material change. Receipts of Products were quite good—of Lard and Meats about 85 cars. Shipments were fairly liberal—of Lard and Meats about 118 cars. Shipping demand was moderate, and offerings were rather light. Trading was small, and prices favored buyers.

Mess Pork—Rather a good business was transacted in Mess Pork. Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderately active. Packers sold moderate quantities. Market opened rather easy at 10@15c decline and a further reduction of 7½@10c was submitted to. At the decline, there was moderate miscellaneous buying and a steadier feeling was developed. Prices rallied 2½@5c, and the market closed steady. Shipping demand was limited and offerings were moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $13 75@13 87½.

MAY—Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderately active. Sales were made at $13 77½@13 90. Opened at $13 87½, sold to $13 80, to $13 90, to $13 82½, to $13 87½, to $13 77½, to $13 90, to $13 82½, to $13 85, to $13 82½, and closed steady.

JULY—In fair request and offerings were moderately free. Sales were made at $14 02½@14 12½. Opened at $14 10 to $14 12½, sold to $14 02½, to $14 12½, to $14 07½, to $14 10, to $14 05, to $14 07½, to $14 02½, to $14 05, to $14 02½, to $14 10, to $14 02½, to $14 07½, to $14 05 and closed steady.

Lard—The Lard market attracted only fair attention, and trading was on a moderate scale. Offerings were not very large, and the demand was only fair, and mainly from "shorts." Opening trades were made at 2½c decline, and a further reduction of 7½@10c was submitted to. Toward the close, a little more steadiness was manifested, and prices ruled 2½c higher, and closed steady. Demand on shipping account light and offerings moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6 95@7 00. Loose lots called for sparingly and offerings were rather light. Prices were steady at about 62½c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in fair request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotable lower at $6 50. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably easy at $7 75@7 87½ for No. 1 and $7 50@7 62½ for No. 2.

THE HOP SITUATION.

[New York Producers' Price Current, March 12.]

The Hop market continues in the same dull listless condition as has characterized the trade for the past few weeks. There is practically nothing doing here, but nothing offering and no indication of any weakness on the part of holders. It is doubtful if any desirable Hops could be purchased any cheaper than they are now held, and any attempt to realize would necessitate concessions. Weather continues wintry, which curtails the consumption of beer and brewers are not showing a particle of interest. Reports from Bavaria continue to are reported with merchant growers on the Coast for three to five years at 15c. The only feature of interest on the Coast is the reported sale of 1,000 bales said to be for export and stated to have been at 27c; otherwise the market on the Pacific Coast continues quiet and holders generally firm in their views. Reports from Europe are of a similar nature, it is hoped that with the advent of warmer weather and an increased consumption of beer that brewers will be compelled to take on more Hops.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET.

BOSTON, March 11—The Commercial Bulletin says: "The Wool market is quiet and business is confined to small lines of domestic, with a good business in foreign cross breeds. The latter are arriving freely and selling well at profitable prices. The undertone of the market is firm without change in quotations. The medium grades of domestic are scarce, and the supply of territory and other fine is not large. The London auction sales opened on Tuesday at from par to 5 per cent advance as compared with the previous sales. The advance of 5 per cent was in cross-breeds.

"The shipments of Wool from Boston to date from Dec. 31, 1903, are 45,338,778 lbs, against 53,447,-860 lbs at the same date last year. The receipts to date are 81,262,932 lbs, against 37,369,867 lbs for the same period last year."

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows light snows in Manitoba and in North Dakota. Trace of precipitation at Kansas City. This is the sum of the precipitation on the map. There is not a trace in Kansas Oklahoma or Texas. Temperatures are seasonable. Cold in extreme North. Mild West and Southwest. It is about at freezing point West. Under freezing generally Southwest.

The map is a favorable one for Grain movement. The continued lack of moisture in the Southwest is a decidedly unfavorable feature for the new Wheat crop.

Indications are the Southwestern snow will move eastward accompanied by rain or snow between the Middle Mississippi Valley and Rocky Mountains, and extending to the lake region. Temperature changes will be slight.

OFFICIAL INDIAN CROP REPORT.

Preliminary forecast of the Wheat crop of Bengal, 1903-4:

Character of the season—On the whole, the season has been favorable for this crop, as the soil had plenty of moisture during the sowing and also in the first part of the growing season. In Chota Nagpur the rainfall came three time, and in Bihar about double the normal during the month of October. In November, that is, at the early part of the growing season of the crop, high showers are obtained all over the Province, except in Bihar and Bhagalpur Divisions, where the crop has suffered somewhat from drouth at the latter part of the season.

Area sown—The total normal area under Wheat in the Province is now returned at 1,498,900 acres, against 1,567,100 acres reported last year. The revised figures are due to a recent order by the District officers of Mymensingh, Ranchi, and Jalpaiguri. The area planted this year is estimated 1,501,200 acres, against 1,567,100 acres last year.

Character of crop—From the abstract of the district returns, it appears that of the nineteen large Wheat-growing districts in the Province only five (Purnea, Patna, Gaya, Muldu and Hazaribagh—anticipate a normal outturn; in six the outturn is estimated at from 50 to 98 per cent; in four it varies between 30 and 39 per cent; while in the four remaining districts the out-turn of the present crop is anticipated. According to the estimates of local officers, the outturn of the whole Province works up to an 80 per cent crop, but considering that the harvest has failed in many districts, especially in Bihar and Chota Nagpur Divisions, indeed the cultivators to sow Wheat in September, and early in the first day of October has prevailed since December will not materially affect the normal outturn, and I am inclined to raise the general outturn to 91 per cent, i. e., 18 annas of a normal crop.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The First State Bank of Clark, S. D., has failed. A receiver has been appointed and is in charge.

A New York dispatch says: "One unpleasant possibility, quickly perceived by Wall Street commentators, is that the Northern Securities decision may stimulate the activity of professional bulgarists who put up the rates of railroads."

The preliminary forecast for the Bengal Oil Seed crops estimates the condition at 94 per cent of a normal crop. The area under Flax Seed has increased from 884,000 acres or 46% per cent. Rape and Mustard also show an increase of about 50,000 acres, and there is a similar increase for sundry Oil Seed crops.

The report of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company for the year ended Dec. 31 last, with a balance sheet made public Monday, shows net earnings of $2,895,961, an increase over the previous year of $387,961. After deducting $2,250,000 which expended for construction and permanent improvement There has been charged off against depreciation a total of $4,351,077 within the last three years

The Liverpool Corn Trade News of March 5 says: "Our Hamburg correspondent writes that very good weather conditions generally prevail, during the past month, and that in consequence the Rye and Wheat crops would be pr eeded with very soon. The marketing of Potatoes is also engaging attention, as prices are passably good, and there is not much prospect of a great increase in values. Potatoes and fodder are disappearing rapidly, and both are to be scarce before the grass comes."

The New York Financial Chronicle, in reviewing railroad gross earnings for February, says: "It is gratifying to find that our preliminary statement of railroad gross earnings for February makes a very much better showing than did the similar statement for the month of January. In this last-mentioned month we were obliged to report a decrease in gross in the sum of $1,827,417, this loss being due to the circumstance that any monthly return had been distinguished in that way since the early part of 1899 For February, however, the loss is comparatively small—that is, no more than $247,000, or only 2 per cent—and this is more substantially the same roads being represented in the February statement as in the January statement."

The Weekly Commercial News of San Francisco, under date of March 10, says: "While there is a continued lack of demand in the Hop market there is little weakness in prices except in the case of new crop, for which buyers are steadily reduced their bids. Stocks in the East and on this coast are very light, and the market is a waiting one, brewers being poor buyers on account of the cold weather, and holders awaiting a warmer period. The increase in the new acreage promises to be heavy. In this State about 5,000 to 3,500 acres will be added to the old acreage, the exact figures of which will be in the Sonoma district There will be an increase of about 3,500 acres in Oregon, and 2,500 to 3,500 acres in Washington. Prices on new crop in Washington range from 15c to 17c in Oregon new business has been done at 18c. In California 19c to 20c is still the ruling rate."

A telegram from New York says: "Following closely upon the news of the passing of the control of the International Mercantile Marine Company into British hands comes the information from the highest authority that all the preliminaries in view for the 1904 year and $50,000 of Atlantic freight and passenger traffic have been settled at a conference of the representatives of all steamship lines doing business between New York and European ports, held last Tuesday in Vienna. This information is contained in a cablegram from Vienna addressed to the agent of one of the continental lines, and which is to the effect that the entering of the Cunard line into an agreement with the steamship lines in the Atlantic conference. This amounts practically to a consolidation of all the principal trans-Atlantic lines under a on form working agreement."

What amounts to practically an official statement of the reasons for continuing the voting trust in the Northern Securities by a director are as follows: "The voting trustees were approached by certain holders of Erie stocks and requested to propose extension of the trust to the stockholders. The holders who were of the opinion that the conference in their action by what they considered the great importance of completing the work of improvement upon the Erie Road without interruption as far as possible, and which, as is well known, calls for the expenditure of over $20,000,000 and will take several years for its execution. In order that this work shall be pushed to the plan expeditiously carried out, it is absolutely necessary that the company's future, in so far as the management is concerned, should be as-ured. This can be done by the extension of the present voting trust. The voting trustees as such have no interest in the matter either way. They receive no remuneration. It is for the stockholders themselves to decide what is to be done in their own way. On May 1, if a majority have not decided in favor of an extension of the voting trust, the chances are that the proposal will drop, unless it be a question of a few days, when the time may be extended a little. As a matter of fact, this improvement plan has been delayed simply by the fact that no good way of financing it could be found until the convertible bond was devised. It would have been executed long ago but for this. There is no interior motive in the proposed trust, and the extension will be in no made in the interest of any other property or of any clique, but in the interest of the general body of Erie stockholders."

Argentine agent of Liverpool Corn Trade News estimates the week's exports at 2,800,000 bu Wheat and 800,000 bu Corn.

The death of LEANDER E. MURPHY, Esq., for many years a member of the Chicago Board of Trade, was announced to-day.

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago, Wednesday, was $5 42, against $5 48 Tuesday, $5 41 Monday, $5 59 the high day a week ago, and $7 20 a year ago.

The Cincinnati Price Current estimates the packing of the West for the week at 350,000 Hogs, compared with 315,000 for corresponding week in 1903.

Michigan farmers marketed 2,981,805 bu Wheat from Aug. 1, 1903, to March 1, 1904, compared with 2,807,110 bu for the corresponding period in 1902-3.

The Northwestern Miller says: "As to the Winter Wheat crop, late advices by wire are favorable and there are none of appreciable damage to the young plant."

Advices from Kansas to-day indicated rather good rains in the eastern portion of the State, and only slight rains in sections of the western portion.

A traveling man in the Southwest reports the prospects are for an average Wheat crop in Kansas, and for an increase of 20 to 25 per cent in the area of Oats in Kansas and Oklahoma.

A wire from Newton, Kan., Wednesday, said: "All along the line of the Santa Fe, through Oklahoma, the fields look green and fine; the heavy rains late last fall soaked the soil and furnished ample moisture."

Local Securities were more active, stronger and higher. Metropolitan Elevated gained ¾ to 1 point. Title and Trust Company advanced 2 points. Can and Biscuit also made good gains. Northwestern Elevated common lost ½.

The Cincinnati Price Current in its weekly crop summary says: "Wheat prospects maintained or somewhat bettered. Continued poor top appearance and uncertainty of root vitality. Medium crop outlook. Season late for spring seeding."

Stocks in New York were more active and stronger with an upward tendency There was a better tone to the buying, and material advances were recorded. Railway shares gained ½ to 1¾, Coalers 1¼ to 1½, and Industrials ⅝ to 1½. Money 1¾@2 per cent.

Secretary of War Taft appeared before the House Committee on Insular Affairs to-day and advocated that the United States Government should guarantee a loan of $25,000,000 or $30,000,000 to the Philippine Government at 4 per cent to be used in railway construction in the Philippines

Cotton in New York averaged lower, despite the Liverpool cables coming better than expected. There was good "bull" support early, but they were filled up by profit takers and selling on stop loss orders. Closing sales were 43@50 points lower on near and 25@28 points lower on deferred deliveries.

The full report on farm reserves of Corn, received Wednesday, shows that Illinois has shipped out 40 per cent of its crop of 204,000,000 bu from the locality in which it was raised, and 75 per cent is merchantable. Iowa has shipped only 6 per cent, Missouri 11 Kansas 24, Nebraska 40 As farm reserves in these States range from 30 to 41 per cent of the crop, it shows enormous consumption.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Market is ruling quiet, with no essential change in the situation.

WINTER WHEAT—Was in fair milling demand and market steady Choice Wheat wanted and fresh arrivals commanded former prices No. 2 Red in store quotable at 94@97½c, and fresh arrivals quotable at 97@99c, with a car selling at 99c No. 3 Red—a choice car free on board sold at $1 00, and was quotable at 94@98c No 2 Hard local sold at 94c, and at the river at 92c and ranged at 92@94c No 3 Hard local sold at 93c and ranged at the river 85@93c. No. 4 Hard sold local at 72c and at the river at 81c

SPRING WHEAT—The demand was fair on milling account and choice Wheat sold all right and held steady at yesterday's prices Poor Wheat weaker No 1 Northern in store sold to the extent of 10,000 bu at ½c under May prices and ranged at 94@95c. No 3 Spring local sold at 91c and at the river at 93c, and ranged at 88@97c for fair to choice. No 4 local sold at 73@89c, and quotable at 60@90c for common to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—A better trade than yesterday, though more on the spasmodic order The feeling was very much mixed and final figures 1½c lower for the May, while July lost 1¼c and the September about 1⅛c. Selling was general at the start, the breaking of the Southwest drouth being the "bear" factor and a good many stop-loss orders were uncovered on the break Commission houses generally arrayed on the selling side, but "shorts" came in freely and the decline was checked. Provision interests were credited with covering and the Southwest purchased good-sized quantities The comparatively steady cables and cash situation were among the sustaining influences Liverpool was steady to ⅛d lower for spot and futures ¼@⅜d lower. London came ⅛d higher to ⅜d lower Broomhall cabled the action at Liverpool was due to the rise in foodstuffs in Russia and fact of no Argentine offers Paris came ⅛c higher to ⅛c lower Antwerp was off ⅛c, Berlin ⅜c, and Buda Pesth declined ⅜c Kansas City wired "Heavy rains here and in this vicinity all night—Great Bend, Wichita and Manhattan, Kansas, and Oklahoma City report good rains." Perry, Oklahoma, wired "Rainfall last night assurred Wheat crop in this territory" Rain was predicted for Illinois, Indiana and Missouri, and fair and colder for Kansas and Nebraska. Snow and colder for Iowa Odessa cabled: "Even if you should decline it is doubtful if we would follow Undertone strong. Any unfavorable reports would cause advance—Wheat receipts small and market sensitive." Primary receipts were 67,000 bu ahead of last year. Kansas City and St. Louis received 115,000 bu, against 69,000 bu in 1903, while the shipments were 152,000 bu. Arrivals in the Northwest 82 cars smaller. The Price Current was rather non-committal in this week's crop summary. Flour output for the week was 534,000 brls, against 499,000 brls same week in 1903 Exports were very moderate and only 5 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Argentine shipments were estimated at 2,800,000 bu. St. Louis near the close reported the sale of 625,000 bu No. 2 Red to millers. Cash sales here were reported at 25,000 bu Flour news from the Northwest was fully as "bearish" as reported yesterday. Receipts at Duluth 12 cars and at Minneapolis 262 cars, a total of 274 cars, against 326 cars yesterday, 344 cars a week ago, and 356 cars last year. Local receipts included 6 cars Winter, 9 cars Spring and 1 car mixed, a total of 16 cars, against 15 cars last year. Included in the above was 2 cars of contract grade. There were 6 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 15 cars. Withdrawals were 20,000 bu. Receipts at Western points were 512,476 bu, against 445,436 bu last year At Eastern points 47,676 bu, against 94,362 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 300,740 bu, against 106,568 bu last year, and from Eastern points 169,600 bu, against 26,263 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 39,920 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 340,210 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Good trade at further decline in prices.

MARCH—Entirely nominal; closed about 94⅝c.

MAY—Sold at 94½@95½c. Opened with sales at 95½c to 94½c, sold to 95¼c, to 95½c, to 94½c, to 95⅜c, to 94⅞c, to 95⅜c, to 95c to 95¼c, to 95c, to 94⅞c, and closed at 94⅞c

JULY—Old Style—Sold at 90@91¾c—sparingly at 90c Opened with sales at 91¾c to 91¼c; sold to 91½c, to 91⅛c, to 91⅜c, to 90¾@90⅞c, to 91⅛c, to 90⅞c, to 91½c, to 91⅛c, to 91⅜c, to 90⅞c, to 91½c, to 90⅝c, to 90⅞c, to 90½c, to 90⅝c, to 90c, to 91c, and closed at 90⅞@91c.

JULY—New Style—Sold at 88¾@90½c Opened with sales at 90½c to 90¼c; sold to 89½c, to 90¼c, to 90c, to 90¼c, to 89½c, to 90¼c, to 89¼c, to 89⅝c, to 89c, to 89¼c, to 88¾c, to 89¼c, and closed at 89⅝@89¾c.

SEPTEMBER—Old Style—Sold at 84⅛@85¼c and at 85⅝c. Opened with sales at 85¼c to 84¾c; sold to 85c, to 84¾c, to 85½c, to 85c, to 85⅝c, to 85c, to 85½c, to 84⅝c, to 84⅞c, to 84⅛@84¼c, to 85c, to 84⅞c, and closed at 84⅞c.

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 83@84¼c. Opened with sales at 84¼c to 83⅜c; sold to 83⅞c, to 83½c, to 84⅛c, to 83⅞c, to 84⅛c to 83¾c, to 84⅛c, to 83c, to 83⅝c and closed at 83⅝c.

CORN—Was only moderately active, still there was a fair trade and rather unsettled feeling. The close was shade lower for the May, unchanged for July and the September Early sentiment was "bearish" and on miscellaneous selling prices were weak and lower. The decline in Wheat was the "bear" circumstance On the break the leading "longs" gave the market good support and prices rallied ¾@1c, but again declined later in the session The weather was against the movement and there was more talk of a late spring. Receipts 144 cars, against 156 cars last year, and 190 cars are estimated for to-morrow. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ¼d lower and futures ¼d lower. Southwestern markets were comparatively steady. Western receipts 381,000 bu, against 375,000 last year, and shipments 336,000 bu and 501,000 bu respectively. Local arrivals were 174,000 bu and shipments 135,000 bu. Exports were 466,000 bu; last year, 687,000 bu. Shipping demand only moderate and sales small At the seaboard, 12 boat loads were accepted. Transfers from private to public elevators, 23,100 bu and 137 cars. Further rains were predicted for Illinois, Indiana and Missouri, and snow and colder for Iowa—a condition against the movement Railway people predict a moderate movement this spring. Professional "shorts" and Provision interests were good buyers on the late decline. Country offerings were small. Toledo was reported very strong for May. Argentine shipments were estimated at 800,000 bu. Car lots were in fair demand and prices were little changed. Spot offerings slightly enlarged. No 2 closed about 52c No. 2 Yellow at 53c. No 2 White sold at 50c for new. No 3 closed at 44½@51½c No. 3 Yellow sold at 52¼c for old and closed at 45½@52½c. No. 4 sold at 43c and No Grade at 42c.

Corn by sample—Offerings were moderate and the demand good. Feeling steady and prices unchanged for all grades except No Grade, which was about ½c higher. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 35@41c. No. 4 at 42¼@49c. No 3 at 44½@49c. No. 3 Yellow at 46½@50c No. 2 at 52¾c. No. 2 Yellow at 53c. No. 3 White at 45@49c No 2 White at 52¾@53c. Billed through No Grade at 38@41c No 4 at 41¼@43¼c No 3 at 43@44½c. No. 3 Yellow at 41½@45½c. No 3 White at 43¼@43½c. No. 2 White at 51¼c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Moderately active and prices very irregular, closing with very little change.

MARCH—Sold at 51@51¼c and closed at 51⅛c.

MAY—Sold at 52½@53½c Opened at 53c to 52½c, being quite irregular; sold at 52½c, to 53c, to 52½c, to 53¼@53⅜c, to 53c, to 53½c, to 52⅞c, to 53⅛c, to 52½c, to 52⅝@52¾c, to 52⅝c, to 53⅛c, and closed at 53⅛c

JULY—Sold at 50@50⅞c Opened at 50½c to 50⅛c, sold at 50c, to 50½c, to 50¼c, to 50⅜c, to 50⅛c, to 50⅝@50¾c, to 50½c, to 50⅜c, to 50½c, to 50⅞c, to 50⅜@50½c, to 50¾c, to 50¼c, to 50½c, to 50¼c, to 50⅝c, and closed at 50⅝c sellers

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 49⅜@50⅛c. Opened at 49⅝c to 49⅜c and sold at 49⅝c, to 49⅝c to 49½c, to 50c, to 49¾c, to 50⅛c, to 49⅝c, to 50c, and closed at 50c asked.

OATS—Were erratic Prices declined ⅜@¾c in sympathy with Wheat and on general selling, but reacted on covering by "shorts" and advanced ⅝@⅞c the close being ¼c lower for the day on May and ⅛c higher for other futures Distant months had better support than May and were not sold as freely. There was a report at the close that 100,000 bu Standard had been ordered out of store. Cash sales were 25,000 bu Arrivals were 105 cars, with 120 cars estimated for to morrow There was 18,000 bu 39 cars Standard withdrawn from private, and 2,200 bu from public houses Seaboard clearances were 19,000 bu. Car lots to go to store were steady. Standard in store closed about 38⅞@39⅜c

Oats by sample were in fair request and steady Offerings were not large Sales on track and free on board No. 4 at 36@38¼c. No 4 White at 36@41½c No. 3 at 39c No 3 White at 40½@43¼c. Standard at 43½@43¾c. No. 2 at 39½c. No. 2 White at 43½c. Billed through: No 4 at 38¼c No 3 White at 41@42c Standard at 42¼c. At the river. No. 4 White at 37@39¼c. No. 3 White at 39@40c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were weak and lower, but closed at a good reaction with distant futures higher

MARCH—Inactive, closed at 38⅞c

MAY—Active. Sold at 39⅜@40¼c. Opened at 39⅞c to 40c, sold to 39⅝c, to 40¼c, to 39⅞c at close.

JULY—Active trading Sales at 38¼@38⅝c and at 38⅝@38¾c Opened at 38⅝c to 38½c, sold to 38¼@38⅜c to 38⅝@38¾c at close

SEPTEMBER Sold at 33⅛@33½c Opened at 33⅛c to 33¼c, sold to 33½c; closed at 33⅜c.

RYE—Ruled about 1c lower for May delivery and easier for cash and July Trading light and offerings moderate. The receipts continue small—only three cars—and there was one car withdrawn from store No export clearances reported. No 2 in store round lots nominally 70c, and car lots fresh receipts sold at 70c to go to store, and at 71@72½c free on board and on track No 3 sold at 65c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet May sold early at 73½c and closed at 72c bid and 73c asked July nominally 70c.

BARLEY—Little of interest about the market Malting demand very limited Some buyers present would take high grades, but such goods practically absent in the supply For other grades there was hardly any malting demand Offerings small also. A few cars were taken for pearling Demand from mixers very tame owing to Oats being rather scarce. Common, musty Barley very weak, sweet about steady, more especially if it had good color, at the same time the entire trade was dull. No essential change in prices developed Thirty-one cars inspected in Screenings were very quiet, few spot cars offered; some on sale to arrive and very dull. Quotable at 30@42c for poor to very choice Barley, feed or mixing, 38@41c local, depending on soundness and color; river billed sold at 38@39½c. Malting—low grade, 42@43c, common, 41@45c. Fair was about 46@47c; good, 48@50c, choice, 52@55c; fancy possibly higher; not offered.

SEEDS—Quietness prevailed. Stormy, unseasonable weather operates against the trade in Grass Seeds, all were dull, but no changes appeared. Flax easier, a shade lower, due entirely to dullness.

Timothy—On account of bad weather trade is retarded. On the regular market there was not much interest shown. Moderate offerings appeared and some lots remained unsold Better grades of Seed in some request and steady, common lots dull and heavy. Futures were not so much as mentioned. There remains for country lots a quotable range of $2 35@3 10 for poor to fancy; fair to good, $2 55@2 70; choice, $2 75@2 85; unhulled, clean bright above, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 35@2 45; tailings lower. Contract spot or March delivery was $3 00 bid. May nominally $3 10 September, according to last quotation, $3 40 asked and $3 15 bid

Flax—There was 1c decline in prices Decline was without anything of account being done or any special interest shown, and easiness attributed to small demand Offerings as they have been for some time, very small. Eleven cars or 9,350 bu received and 2 cars or 1,707 bu taken out Minneapolis got 26 cars and Duluth 18 cars No 1 Northwestern sold, a couple of cars, at $1 15 No. 1 was quotable at $1 10 Rejected nominal at $1 06@1 09, outside for choice from the Northwest. March was nominally $1 09. May delivery $1 11 bid and offered at $1 12. September was offered at $1 17

Clover—A few lots offered on sale, the quantity however was small. Demand very tame. Stormy weather keeps trade backward. Tone of the market heavy, but no change to note. Contract spot and March delivery remain nominally $11 25. Country lots, common to choice, $8 25@11 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $8 50@9 25; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $9 25@10 25

Other Seeds—Remain inactive. There were no consignments noted on sale. A nominally easy feeling was quotable with no change Quotable Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark at $1 60@1 90. Common Millet $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 40. Siberian, 85c@$1 05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c Mustard, 85c@$1 05 Buckwheat easy, good milling, $1 30@1 35.

HOG PRODUCTS—Only a fair trade was reported in Hog Products, and the undertone to the market was comparatively easy. All the surroundings of the trade were favorable to the "short" interest. The Grain markets were rather easy, and the receipts of Hogs were liberal and sold at lower prices. The returns of the packing of the West for the week exhibited an increase of 35,000 Hogs compared with the corresponding week in 1903. Receipts at the leading Western packing points estimated at 71,100, compared with 51,100 one year ago. Foreign advices indicated a quiet and dull feeling in that quarter, and Liverpool quotations were reduced 6d on Lard, Hams and Cumberland Sides. Domestic markets were slow The receipts of Products were fair—of Lard and Meats about 23 cars. The shipments were not very large—of Lard and Meats about 128 cars. Outside speculative orders were fair, and local trading was moderately active "Longs" were inclined to realize, and packers sold fair quantities while "shorts" were disposed to enlarge their lines Buying mainly by parties who were willing to accept small profits. Prices declined on all the leading articles, with fluctuations within narrow ranges, and the market closed steady around inside figures Shipping demand was moderate, and offerings were only fair. Sales were comparatively light, and almost exclusively to the domestic trade. Prices inclined in favor of buyers, especially for Dry Salted Meats

Mess Pork—A fairly good trade was reported in the market for Mess Pork, and the feeling was easier. Offerings were moderately free, and the demand was only fair Considerable miscellaneous selling, and the market lacked general support Opening trades were made at 10@12½c decline, and a further reduction of 5@10c was submitted to. COTTON CROP SITUATION MARCH 4, 1904.

The world's visible supply of Cotton on March 4, as reported by the New York Commercial and Financial Chronicle, was 3,618,376 bales, as compared with 3,848,961 bales at a corresponding date last year. Of this the total amount of American Cotton was 2,392,761 bales, against 2,766,683 bales at a corresponding date in 1903, and of all other kinds, including East Indian, Egyptian, Brazilian, etc., 1,225,615 bales, against 1,082,400 bales at the same time last year.

Of the world's visible supply there is now held in Great Britain and Continental Europe 1,440,000 bales, against 1,230,000 bales last year. In East India (Bombay) the stocks are estimated at 561,000 bales, as against 600,000 bales last year; in Egypt at 285,000 bales, against 250,000 bales last year, and in the United States, including stocks at ports and interior towns, at 2,392,544 bales, against 2,138,-107 bales last year.

The total visible supply on March 4 shows a decrease of 230,094 bales, as compared with the same date in 1903.

The net port receipts for the week ended March 4 were 223,313 bales and since Sept. 1, 1903 6,485,866 bales. The receipts for the corresponding week of last year were 141,305 bales, and from the beginning of the season to March 4, 1903 5,702,759 bales.

The total foreign exports for the week were 64,-905 bales, and since Sept. 1, 1903, 3,092,750 bales. For the corresponding week of last year the exports were 96,905 bales, and for the season 3,290,210 bales, a decrease of 197,460 bales.

The receipts at thirty-three interior towns for the week were 47,641 bales, against 45,000 bales last year, 5,055,610, and the shipments for the week were 88,099 bales. Last year the receipts for the same periods were, respectively, 82,456 bales and 5,187,-766 bales, and the shipments 84,879 bales. The total net overland movement since the beginning of the season to March 4 is 752,015 bales, as compared with 957,581 bales for the corresponding period in 1903.

The Southern consumption for the week is estimated at 42,000 bales, and since Sept. 1, 1903, at 1,865,000 bales. At corresponding dates last year these estimates were, respectively 41,000 and 1,982,-000 bales. The takings of Northern spinners for the week are estimated at 66,661 bales, and since Sept. 1, 1903, at 1,776,685, as compared with 58,573 bales the same week in 1903 and 1,668,382 bales from Sept 1 to March 4, 1903. According to these estimates the spinners of the country have taken 109,161 bales more to the date named than in 1903.

The stocks held at ports at the close of the week amounted to 629,743 bales as compared with 829,478 bales last year, showing decrease for the year of 199,735 bales, and at 33 interior towns were 352,320 bales, as compared with 368,820 bales the same week of last year. There came into sight during the week 423,344 bales, as compared with 387,241 bales in 1903, and since the beginning of the season to March 4, 1904, 8,686,831 bales, as compared with 8,910,643 bales the same period last year. This shows a decrease of 257,862 bales in the total amount of cotton held at the end of season (to March 4) as compared with the total amount marketed during the same period last year

THE FLOUR PRODUCTION.

*Kansas, Dakota and Iowa mills outside of Minneapolis and Duluth.

"Flour made by mills outside of St. Louis, but controlled at that city.

The Minneapolis Flour output last week was practically unchanged, being 3,700 brls smaller than in the week before. By a small margin some of the mills, owing to inability to secure cars, caused the output to fall under the figures expected to be realized. There were seventeen mills running today, and they promise to produce approximately 339,000 brls of Flour. For the same week in 1903 the production was 335,310 brls.

Minneapolis mills last week experienced a spotted trade Some sold their output and others did not. The bulk of the orders booked were taken Thursday and Friday, when Wheat took its upward turn. In these days, good sales were made but usually millers had to accept about 10c under full quotations. With the exception of one small lot of Flats, worked by a Scotch market, no export business was heard of. A couple of cargoes seemed to show no interest whatever, and even Cleara had no attraction for them Domestic buyers are "heartily" inclined, and with a good deal of Flour in transit, usually are making new purchases very sparingly Though Minneapolis mills have plenty of old orders on their books, some of them are receiving shipping directions none too freely.

FLAX SEED STATISTICS.

The Duluth Commercial Record has issued its annual chart, giving prices of Flax Seed in that market.

From the high price of $1.88 in August of 1901 to the low point of 91c last fall was a far stretch, and from the high point on the next year to the low point of 94½c in November last was also a long reach. The average price of Seed at Duluth which during September and October was something over $1.00 per bu., in November and December the average had dropped to 96c and 97c respectively, but the bulk of the crop was marketed during September and October, and it is altogether likely that the average cost of last year's crop at Duluth was close to $1.00 per bu. Under the most favorable circumstances, Seed cannot be carried for much less than 3c per bu per month, and in some cases it can cost 1c per month. The average cost is an important item to bear in mind

The chart also gives the monthly prices of Calcutta Flax Seed in London, and the monthly average prices of Cake and Oil.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET.

BOSTON, March 15.—The Wool market holds in a steady position, with a fair demand in evidence. There is however, a decided lack of snap in the trading. Dealers are inclined to sell as much as possible of the old Wool in advance of getting the new clip and because higher values are not looked for. Fleece Wools are steady Fine price for Ohio washed delaines holds firm at 36c, while for unwashed and unmerchantable Ohio delaines about 29@30½c is the price, with unwashed clothing grades at 27c. Michigan delaine is quotable at about 32@33½c. For one-quarter and three-eighths blood unwashed Wools the price is firm at 29½@ 26c for Ohio and 27c for others Half blood unwashed Wools are scarce and firm, with Ohio 25½@26c, and Michigan at 24@24½c.

UNITED STATES HEADS THE LIST.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The United States now leads all the countries of the world in the value of its exports of domestic products. The statistical abstract, just issued by the Department of Commerce and Labor, shows that the exports from the United States amounted to $1,392,241,001, against $1,359,263,000 from the United Kingdom, $1,113,313,000 from Germany, $820,671,000 from France, and $727,000,000 from the Netherlands. The imports the United States stands third, the world's largest importer being the United Kingdom, with $1,871,000,000; Germany, $1,391,000,000; United States third, $1,025,719,000; the Netherlands fourth, $867,368,000, and France fifth, $818,046,000 The above figures in the case of the United States are for the year ending June 30, 1903; the others the calendar year 1902.

The abstract shows that 72 per cent of the United States exports were sent to Europe, 15 per cent to North America, and the remainder distributed in much smaller percentages to South America, Asia, Oceania and Africa. The total value of the exports from the United States to Europe in 1903 was $1,019,2 2,000, to North America, $215,483,000; South America, $44,138,000; Asia $58,939,000; Oceania, $31,464,000, and Africa, $34,437,000. Considering the exports by countries, the largest total is to the United Kingdom, $581,263,000; the next largest to Germany, $193 817,000, and to Canada, $123,267,000 Comparing conditions in 1903 with those of 1873 the exports have grown from $642,136,000 to $1,392,241,-000 including domestic products and foreign merchandise re-exported.

As to agricultural products, of course, still form the largest group of exports, amounting to $873,000,-000 in 1903, or 63 per cent of the total, while manufactures amount to $467,000,000, or 29 per cent of the total. Agricultural products are increasing rapidly upon agricultural products. In 1880 agricultural products formed 83 per cent and manufactures but 12½ per cent of the tot al exports. The value of domestic manufactured exports had never reached so much as $100,000,000 prior to 1876, and in 1893 for the first time crossed the $200,000,000 line. Since 1896, however, the growth has been rapid, the total exceeding $300,000,000 in 1899 and the $400 00,000 line in 1900 and remaining above $400,000,000 constantly since that date, with a prospect that the total exports of manufactures for the fiscal year 1904 will exceed in value those of any previous year.

AN ENGLISH VIEW.

The London Statist of Feb 27 contains a 52-page supplement devoted entirely to the railroads of the United States, and introduced by an interesting review of the state of the country.

This is strictly a financial review of large place which the United States fills in the markets of the world, but also of the keen interest which foreign capitalists evidently have in American investments, in spite of the reaction which the movement has set in. The Statist, it is important to observe, believes that this reaction will be moderate in volume and short in duration, a judgment from a foreign observer which coincides with the prevailing opinion on this side of the water. The Statist says on this point:

"The prosperity of the United States has grown so wonderfully and rapidly in recent years that fears have arisen lest the improvement has been too great to be permanent and lest the immense volume of trade of the country could not be kept for many years Experience, it is said, clearly points to a great reaction after so rapid and mar velous an advance, and the shrinkages of the seventies, the crisis and the years after the boom forward as proof that a great reaction will occur. Everyone now recognizes that the volume of American trade has been greatly increased in wealth, and that a setback is at hand—indeed, has in some directions already commenced. But the important thing to be ascertained is, will the reaction be in proportion to the recent improvement? Will it be as great as that of the seventies and nineties, or will it rather resemble that of the eighties, and be relatively slight and of short duration? In our opinion the latter will be found possible that of the eighties it will be comparatively small, and it will not last very long."

UNCERTAINTY IN COAL TRADE.

[From the Black Diamond.]

In Western Coal circles the probability of the miners accepting or rejecting the ultimatum of the operators decided upon at the convention last week at Indianapolis is the subject of most interest. Miners in Central and Western Pennsylvania, Maryland, the Kanawha district of West Virginia, Western Kentucky and Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Iowa will vote upon the ultimatum next Tuesday, and the vote will be counted the following Thursday at Indianapolis. Upon that vote will depend the future of the Coal trade in the Mississippi fields To attempt to predict what the vote will be is out of the question. There is no operator who would venture with any degree of certainty, and even the miners' officials are very closely in touch with local conditions, are uncertain as to what the result will be.

The feeling that may be heralded by the placing of orders for April delivery with some of the large shipping companies It is probable that the volume of this business will be in excess of a year ago. Last April the trade neglected to place orders for delivery until after the 5th of the month were unable to have their requirements filled Much of the business placed in early April was not filled till May and June, owing to the very urgent demand that existed. Dealers realize the force of these conditions, and for that reason are likely to place their orders early. The hope is that the Coal will be forwarded to them at the minimum price Practically all the largest shipping companies report these conditions the present week.

FREIGHTS AT SAN FRANCISCO.

[From the Commercial News, March 10.]

The Grain freight market has been very dull, with rates entirely nominal in the absence of new business on the spot For August loading however, a French vessel, of a large size, has been taken up at 20s 6d from this port to the United Kingdom or Continent, also a French vessel, of a large size, has been taken for Portland loading at 20s. The last spot fixture done here was 20s 6d and last one in the North was at 20s. The outlook for vessels for new-crop loading in the North is now very good; the disengaged list is said to be pretty well cleaned up, and the list of vessels loaded that way is extremely light There is still a long list of disengaged ships at this port, and it is now definitely decided that a good many of them will lay up until next season. The list headed for this port however, is much smaller than for two or three months past, and the improved crop prospects the outlook for the freight market is much brighter tone than at any time for the last six months.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The Southwest this morning has a good deal of moisture more than on any day in months. There is a rainfall of .80 at Wichita, .98 at Kansas City and .30 at Oklahoma. Eastern Kansas evidently had a wetting down. There are heavy rains all over Missouri.

There are rains or snows all over Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Texas. Practically the entire Winter Wheat belt has either snow or rain this morning. Temperatures are moderate.

The storm will continue its Northeast course, accompanied by rain and snow in Middle West today and to-night. Temperatures will be somewhat lower.

CRANBERRY CROP.

The Cranberry crops of the United States for a series of years, as estimated by the American Cranberry Growers' Association, are as follows:

	Crop in bushels—
	New England.	New Jersey.	West.	Total.
1895	430,000	200,000	10,000	640,000

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The Detroit United Railway Company has declared a quarterly dividend of 1 per cent, payable May 2.

The American Telephone and Telegraph Company reported its net output of instruments for the month ended Feb. 29, 47,399, a decrease of 9,347 from Dec. 31 to Feb. 29. The total outstanding is 3,858,604, an increase of 37,089

Contracts for the next six months' supply of milk were made at Elgin, Ill., Tuesday, by the Illinois factories of the New York Condensed Milk Company. The average price for the period is 1 0125 per hundred weight as compared with 81 90 last year. The prices for May, June and July are no lower than last year. Milk is plentiful and the dairymen are offering more than the factories can use. The abundance of farm help where it was scarce last year is also given as a cause for the reduction.

The third annual meeting of the United States Steel Corporation will be held at the Hudson Trust Company's, Hoboken, April 18 The transfer books of this meeting will close March 5 and will reopen April 8. Stockholders will have the right to hold office for three years and independent auditors to pass upon the corporation's accounts at the end of this fiscal year. Stockholders will also vote upon the amendments to by-laws and all the actions of the directors and executive committee or finance committee since the last annual meeting.

"The Hop market continues weak," says a Portland press dispatch, "with a downward tendency in prices, and 2c is considered the top notch for choice quality to-day. Yesterday sold to the amount 20,000 bales of Hops on hand on the Pacific Coast, and this amount, it was thought a few months ago, would be needed by the London brewers, but these are not the days of 1902, and there will be no next season opens. English brewers also say that bad times throughout Great Britain have curtailed the consumption of beer, and that their business is therefore not so prosperous as it was in 1903."

While current prices for Hogs are about $2 00 below prices paid here at this time last year, they are far more satisfactory to the average farmer than current prices for Cattle, which show much less discount from the prices paid for Cattle at this time last year. The reason is natural as much less cost for feed than are Beef Cattle of the same class, and yet current prices for the bulk of Hogs stand considerably above the prices at which the bulk of Cattle sell at to-day. The profitable feeding of Beef Cattle involves a much larger investment and much longer time to realize on the investment than the production of either fat Hogs or Sheep. Present conditions are likely to continue since when the price of Hogs is so much higher than the price paid for a good class of Beef stock.

The outlook for the Grain crop in the Northwest is far from promising, and the Spring of 1902 is the ground, says a St. Paul report. It is doubtful if the small Grain crop will be planted before May 1 or May 15. The Northwest has experienced the severest winter for many years. The United States Bureau of Agriculture has issued a warning to farmers in Nebraska, suggesting that they conserve the water supply in the rivers and use it for irrigation at the earliest possible date, because the streams will go dry early in the spring for lack of snow in the mountains. In the Red River Valley the heaviest snow for years has fallen and instead of a drouth it is very likely that these districts will be overflowed during the spring, a possibility which is causing apprehension among the Grain growers.

It was said, Tuesday, that serious disagreements have arisen between the dominant interests in the Northern Securities Company. The order to dissolve the corporation directly affects the peace between the Hirriman-Kuhn-Loeb group of capitalists and the Morgan-Hill group precisely where they came to the organization of the Securities Company, which was one of the specific purposes of harmonizing the conflicting interests of the two hostile factions The Harriman-Kuhn-Loeb group, which also includes Rockefeller capitalists, is said to be in control fully as much as the Morgan-Hill group. Mr. Harriman, it is said, has practically put Northern Pacific stock in exchange for his Securities Company stock, the Morgan-Hill combination, on the other hand, is opposed to giving the Harriman interests any special advantage.

The annual report of the St. Louis Transit Company for the year ended Dec 31, 1903, has been issued (The report says: "The company is restricted by law to the Granite Bimetallic Company interest on outstanding bonds and a few years ago its issued stock to the amount of $2,759,741. It also has to make all the necessary extensions and improvements of the property, resulting in purchased securities of the United Railways. The expenditures for these purposes last year aggregated $1,869,201. Contracts have been let for 450 new motor cars, to be delivered before the Fair gates are opens. The company controlled 358.6 miles of track Dec 31, of which 343.06 were in operation, 15.54 leased and 11.06 not in use. Extensions which are being built at the World's Fair. The company estimates that it will be able to handle 60,000 passengers to the World's Fair daily, and an equal number in the opposite direction. Deficits after fixed charges for the year amounted to $62,787, against $58,033 in 1902 and $25,330 in 1901.

A number of the stockholders of the late Lake Superior Mosfly reorganization committee have issued circulars two respects in which the new plan of reorganization of the Consolidated Lake Superior Company by the Canadian Improvement Company will differ from that of the Moffly committee, and they are both comparatively unimportant. The Moffly plan, had it been carried out strictly as announced, would not have provided $1,000,000 working capital over and above all indebtedness Under the plan of the Canadian Improvement Company proposes to buy at about 71 enough of the $2,857,-000 first mortgage bonds, which under the Moffly plan would be issued, to leave in the treasury future requirements, to supply at least $1,000,000 new capital. The Moffly committee had not intended to give a new first mortgage on the property of the company to any one. The loan of the Ontario Government, if it voted, will compel the imposition of a first mortgage on the Algoma Central Railway in order to properly secure the $2,000 000 loan.

The Chicago Record-Herald says: "Boston is still expressing its amazement that a single Chicago bank was able to lend the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad $5,000,000 with which to pay off the same amount of notes due March 15 and largely held by Boston institutions. One of the Hub financial papers says: 'It is a remarkable development of the times that the Burlington road pays its $5,000,000 loans to Boston banking institutions and borrows the same lump sum from a single Chicago bank. It seems note brokers report that they are selling paper with ease in the West which was formerly placed in the East. In fact, they are selling paper in St. Joseph, Mo., and other towns in the Missouri and Mississippi River Valleys where formerly 10 per cent was paid to Boston on municipal loans.' If Boston would take the trouble to look at the deposit accounts of the Chicago banks it would see no cause to wonder at the making of a loan of $5,000,000 by a single institution. The bank that made the loan last week could make it over again now, and it could be duplicated in three or four other Chicago institutions."

Exports from July 1 reported at 116,501,000 bu, compared with 168,165,000 bu for the corresponding time in 1902-03.

Cotton in New York was weak and lower, despite higher Liverpool cables. The selling movement was resumed, liquidation by the South being a feature demoralizing to the market for a time, and fluctuations wide. Prices were forced off by the failure of the "bull" leader and showed losses of 158 to 256 points at the low point, but rallied, and closed 128@188 points lower.

The Modern Miller says: "Crop prospects are improving in the southwest and southeastern sections of the Winter Wheat belt, where drouth conditions have been the most prolonged and where the appearance of the plant was poorest at the close of the winter Late rains have greatly benefitted the crop in these sections, as well as elsewhere Reports from the territories, where growing weather has set in, indicates that a good start has been made and that the plant has a healthy color."

In the New York Stock market there were strong interests at work on both sides making an interesting trade. London buying, although firm was less active The "shorts" keep fighting the advance. The "bull" interest was a good buyer but the demoralization in Cotton and rumors affecting the financial condition of the "bull" leader in that market, unsettled confidence among holders at the last. A selling movement started that carried prices off, and they lost their advance, and with few exceptions closed lower Money 1¾ per cent.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—The market is little changed. Demand moderate Prices steady except for Winters, which are 5@10c lower

WINTER WHEAT—Very little doing, owing partly to the very small receipts. Soft Wheat ruled steadier than the hard winter, the latter being quotably 1@2c lower. No. 2 Red in store quotable at 9 @97¼c, and fresh arrivals free on board quotably 98@99c No. 3 Red quotable at 9-@98c No. 2 Hard local quotable at 90@91c. No. 3 Hard local sold at 89c and quotable at 86@92c No. 4 White sold at 89c

SPRING WHEAT—The market was quotably 1 @2¼c lower, but choice hard variety fresh arrivals did not show quite as much decline and held steadier than the grade Wheat and ordinary samples. No 1 Northern in store ranged at 91¾@94¾c, and fresh arrivals free on board quotably 9 @98c, No 3 Spring quotable at 86@90c No 4 Spring sold at 70c and quotable at 58@88c for common to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—A good trade and excited market at times, with sentiment much mixed. Final prices showed the May down 2⅝c, while July was 2⅝c lower and the September off 2½c. Early, the feeling was firm, the strength in the Southwest, comparatively steady cables and the fact that Kansas and Oklahoma were without further moisture tending to create a stronger undertone Professionals were good buyers and market for a time ruled quite firm, the action of Corn being an indirect "bull" help. Liverpool quoted spot ½d lower to ½d higher and futures unchanged to ⅛d higher. Receipts there the past three days 410,000 bu and only 56,000 bu from America. London came ⅛d higher to ⅛d lower. Paris was ¼c higher, while Antwerp was off ⅛c. Berlin and Buda Pesth declined ⅛c. The report that the Argentine strike was settled, fair movement and light exports among the "bear" factors. The Northwest sold considerable new July and the Southwest turned seller and many of the early local buyers liquidated, causing a complete change in sentiment The break in Cotton and failure in New York added to the demoralized condition of the market. Primary receipts were 95,000 bu ahead of last year, arrivals in the Northwest being 77 cars larger Kansas City and St. Louis received 104,000 bu; last year, 65,000 bu; shipments, 131,000 bu. Clearings for the week, 2,606,000 bu; last year, 2,395,000 bu The Modern Miller was bearish and the Argentine shipments 2,944,000 bu, making 25,824,000 bu since Jan 1, against 16,610,000 bu in 1903. Visible there reported at 4,344,000 bu, last week, 3,680,000 bu; year ago, 2,576,000 bu The Argentine correspondent of the London Times confirmed the report of the settlement of the railway strike No rain was indicated for the Southwest and Western Kansas weather dry and windy. Winnipeg had 112 cars; last year, 95 cars Minneapolis stocks are expected to decrease 75,000 bu this week Philadelphia reported the milling demand there as urgent. Seaboard at the close reported no boat loads accepted. St. Louis early reported acceptances in the Southwest small London quoted cargoes on passage slow, with no bidding. Receipts at Duluth 43 cars and at Minneapolis 292 cars, a total of 335 cars, against 274 cars yesterday, 322 cars a week ago, and 258 cars last year. Local receipts included 7 cars Winter, 6 cars Spring and 1 car mixed, a total of 14 cars, against 15 cars last year. Included in the above was no cars of contract grade. There were 11 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow are 20 cars Withdrawals were 13,900 bu. Receipts at Western points were 495,125 bu, against 400,418 bu last year. At Eastern points 26,263 bu, against 56,428 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 260,658 bu, against 177,658 bu last year, and from Eastern points 800 bu, against 77,591 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 24,917 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 112,061 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Trade good and prices lower.

MARCH—Remains entirely nominal and closed about 91¾c.

MAY—Sold at 92¼@95¼c Opened with sales at 95¼c to 94⅞c; sold to 94½c, to 95⅛c, to 94¾c, to 95c, to 93¼c, to 93½c, to 93⅛c, to 93⅞c to 93c, to 93¼c, to 92½c, to 92⅝c, to 92¼c, and closed at 92¼c bid.

JULY—Old Style—Sold at 88¼c and at 91¼@91⅜c. Opened with sales at 91c to 90⅝c; sold to 90¾c, to 90½c, to 91¼@91⅜c, to 90½c, to 90⅞c, to 90c, to 89½c, to 90c, to 88½c, to 88⅝c, to 88¼c, and closed at 88¼@88⅜c.

JULY—New Style—Sold at 87c and at 89⅞@90c. Opened with sales at 89⅞c to 89¼c; sold to 89⅜c, to 89⅛c, to 89⅞@90c, to 89¼c, to 89½c, to 88⅞c, to 89c, to 88⅝c, to 88⅝c, to 88¼c, to 87⅞c, to 88c, to 87⅜c, to 87½c, to 87c, and closed at 87@87⅛c.

SEPTEMBER—Old Style—Sold at 82@84⅞c. Opened with sales at 84¾c to 84½c; sold to 84⅝c, to 84⅞c, to 81c, to 84⅛c, to 82c, to 82⅜c, and closed at 82⅜c.

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 81@83¾c. Opened with sales at 83⅝c to 83¼c, sold to 83⅛c, to 83¾c, to 82½c, to 82¾c, to 81c, to 81⅛c, to 81¼c, and closed at 81⅛c.

CORN—Was moderately active, and while the feeling was rather unsettled the undertone was easy and the close was 1½@1¾c lower. Early in the session sentiment was quite "bullish," the firm cables, soft weather through the Corn belt and light receipts being among the "bull" influences. Offerings at the time were small and under a scattered commission house demand for May and buying of July by the Provision people the market advanced to 53⅞c and 51¼c respectively. Market was influenced some by the opinion of the attorney of the Exchange disapproving of the proposed amendment making No. 3 deliverable Liverpool quoted spot steady to ⅛d higher and futures ⅜d higher Receipts there the past three days were quite liberal—440,000 bu Liverpool was reported as steadied by the fact that Corn had arrived from Gulf ports in a heated condition Receipts were 165 cars, making 990 cars for the week, with 47 per cent of low grades Last year 1,520 cars were received and 50 per cent low grades. Estimates for to-morrow 160 cars. Market was affected later in the day by the weakness in Wheat, break in Cotton and reported failure in New York. Argentina shipped 806,000 bu, making 7,927,000 bu since Jan 1, against 558,000 bu in 1903. Visible there, 789,000 bu, last week, 704,000 bu; year ago, 197,000 bu. Southwestern markets were rather weak Western receipts 384,000 bu; last year, 377,000 bu. Shipments 318,000 bu and 406,000 bu respectively. Local arrivals 211,000 bu and shipments 135,000 bu Exports, 112,000 bu; total for week, 1,573,000 bu; last year, 3,072,000 bu At the seaboard no boat loads were accepted Sales here small Transfers from private to public elevators only 10 cars. Car lots were in small supply and good demand. Prices were easier. No 2 closed about 50¾c No 2 Yellow closed at 51¼c No. 3 closed at 41@50¼c. No 3 Yellow closed at 45@50¾c.

Corn by sample—Offerings were very moderate and the demand fair. Feeling easier and prices unchanged on local billed, while through billed was ½@1c lower. Sales on track and free on board. No Grade sold at 40@41c No 4 at 42@44c No 3 at 45@49c No 3 Yellow at 44@49c. No. 2 at 5 ¼c No 2 Yellow at 5 @5 c No 3 White at 45@49c No 2 White at 52½@5 5c. OATS—Displayed more strength than other Grains in the morning and advanced 1⅛@¾c, but broke ¾@1⅛c at the last with other markets and closed at a net loss of ⅜@½c There was good buying at the start from commission houses and "shorts," offerings being light. Later they increased as liquidation set in and the close was at the bottom on distant months and at ⅜c reaction from the low point on May. Cash demand was moderate and prices steady, sales being 35,000 bu. Arrivals 115 cars with 115 cars estimated to-morrow. Withdrawals were 6 0 bu from public houses and 16 cars Standard from private elevators. Export clearances 29,000 bu. Car lots were steady early, but closed lower No 3 White sold at 42c. Standard in store closed at 38⅝@39c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were higher early, but closed lower

MARCH—Offered at ¼c under May, closed at 38⅛c.

MAY—Active and irregular. Sold at 39@40⅝c. Opened at 40⅛c to 40¼c; sold to 40⅝c, to 39c, to 39⅜c at close.

JULY—Active. Sales at 38⅛@39⅛c Opened at 38¾c to 38⅞c, sold to 39⅛c, to 38⅛c, to 38¼c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Active. Sold at 32¾@32⅞c and at 33½c. Opened at 33⅜c to 33½c, sold to 32¾@32⅞c, to 33c at close.

RYE—The market was quiet and weaker; quotably about 1c lower There were moderate offerings and little demand. The receipts were ten cars. There were no withdrawals from store and no export clearances from the seaboard No. 2 in store, round lots nominally about 69½@70c and car lots fresh arrivals sold at 70c No. 3 fresh arrivals sold at 66@68c, and No. 4 at 56c

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Light trade and market weaker May sold at 72c and closed at 72c bid. July 69c asked.

BARLEY—There was some call for good, sweet Minnesota Barley Very little offered. Buyers did not seem to care for it mixed with Dakota. It was said that goods mixed will not malt so evenly as if straight, either one kind or the other. Common grades of malting were dull; little demand. For mixing or feed purposes only good cars were wanted—good color, thin, but clean. Heavy, dark or musty dull and weak; cars considerably mixed with Wheat, Oats or chaff slow Nice bright, clean Screenings in demand and steady; poor not cared for especially. In a general way, prices were without essential change Forty-one cars came in. Screenings quotable at 30@42c for poor to very choice Barley, feed or mixing, 38@41c local, depending on soundness and color. Malting—low grade, 41@43c; common, 44@45c. Fair was about 46@47c; good, 48@50c, choice, 52@55c, fancy possibly higher; not offered.

SEEDS—A brisk business in Timothy was witnessed, with no material change in prices, but Clover was a shade lower Other Grass Seeds quiet and unchanged. Cash Flax was easier

Timothy—Trading in cash Seed was rather brisk—3,000 bags, 5 cars, spot contract and 2 cars March delivery were sold. Cash offerings of country lots were liberal Some very good lots among them, no fancy, and Seed was mainly ordinary to good. No snap especially to the demand, and it was well along in the session before Seed got to selling. The market seemed to favor buyers, and yet no essential change in prices noted. Contract stored Seed sold by sample at $3 12½, or about the late quotation, at the same time March delivery sold at $3 00 the recent bid price May was nominally $3 10 For September $3 20 was bid. Country lots had a quotable range of $2 25@3 10 for poor to fancy; fair to good $2 55@2 70; choice, $2 75@2 85; unhulled, clean, bright above, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 35@2 45; tailings lower

Flax—The little cash Seed offered had to be sold at 1c decline. There was little inquiry and that was all that buyers would do. The market was dull and very quiet, no change in that respect Futures inactive and nominally unchanged Local receipts 11 cars or 9,750 bu, and output 2 cars or 1,707 bu. There were 22 cars received at Minneapolis and 55 cars at Duluth No. 1 Northwestern sold sparingly at $1 14. No. 1 was quotable at $1 08½. Rejected nominal at $1 06@1 08, outside for choice from the Northwest, some sold at $1 07, but it was not the best grade March was nominally $1 08½ May delivery $1 11 bid and offered at $1 12. September was nominal at $1 17.

Clover—Was weaker and prices quoted a shade lower Continued backward weather is restricting trade, and a little more Seed coming into the different markets causes an easier feeling all around. Contract spot and March delivery were nominally $11 00. Country lots, common to choice, $8 25@10 75, fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $8 00@9 00; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $9 00@10 00

Other Seeds—Were quotably unchanged Some Hungarian and German Millet offered The former sold, but latter did not. Values quotable as follows: Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark at $1 60@1 90. Common Millet $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 40. Siberian, 85c@$1 05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat easy; good milling, $1 30@1 35.

HOG PRODUCTS—A fair trade was transacted in Hog Products, and the feeling was somewhat unsettled. Outside orders were fair, and local trading was moderately active Hogs were in fair supply, and prices steady, and this feature encouraged a little buying early on outside account After the early orders were provided for, there was some pressure to sell influenced to some extent by an easier feeling in Grain and prices receded sharply on all the leading articles touching the lowest figures for some time past "Longs" realized very freely late in the session, and market closed rather unsettled at about inside figures Considerable business in the way of transferring contracts from May to July at the current differences Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 51,000 compared with 30,700 one year ago. Foreign markets were quiet and easy, and Lard was quoted 6d lower Domestic markets quiet and easy Receipts of Products were fair—of Lard and Meats about 21 cars Shipments very light of Lard and Meats about 69 cars Very little demand on shipping account and offerings were moderate. Buyers backward, and insisting on lower prices, and sellers slow to grant concessions Sales were moderate, and prices favored buyers

Mess Pork—Rather a good business was transacted in Mess Pork, and the feeling was somewhat unsettled Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderately active Early, the feeling was rather steady, with a fair miscellaneous inquiry and prices ruled 5@7½c higher Later, the demand slackened, while the offerings were free and an easier feeling was manifested and prices declined 45@47½c, and closed steady at about inside figures Shipping demand was light, and offerings were moderate Cash lots quotable at $13 25@13 37½

MAY Offerings were fair and the demand was moderately active. Sales were made at $13 25@13 70. Opened at $13 60, sold to $13 65, to $13 62½, to $13 70, to $13 55 to $13 57½, to $13 50, to $13 52½, to $13 50, to $13 55 to $13 40, to $13 47½, to $13 35@13 37½, to $13 37½, to $13 35, to $13 37½, to $13 25, and closed steady.

JULY—In fair request, and offerings were moderately free. Sales were made at $13 45@13 92½. Opened at $13 80, sold to $13 90 to $13 87½, to $13 92½, to $13 77½, to $13 80, to $13 70, to $13 75 to $13 62½, to $13 70 to $13 55 to $13 60, to $13 45 and closed steady

Lard—Trade was fairly active in the Lard market. Offerings were moderately large, and the demand was fair. Foreign advices unfavorable to holders Market was rather steady early, with fair miscellaneous buying, and prices ruled 2½@5c higher Later there was a little pressure to sell, and an easier feeling prevailed Prices receded 17½@22½c, and the market closed rather steady Demand on shipping account light and offerings moderate Cash lots were quotable at $6 65@6 67½ Loose lots called for sparingly and offerings were rather light Prices were steady at about 60 discount on May figures Leaf Lard in small request and offerings were moderate Prices were quotable steady at $6 37½. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings Prices quotably lower at $7 50@7 62½ for No. 1, and $7 25@7 37½ for No. 2.

MAY Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderate Sales were made at $6 82½@7 05 Opened at $7 00, sold to $7 02½, to $7 00, to $7 05, to $6 95 to $6 97½, to $6 87½, to $6 95, to $6 82½, and closed steady.

JULY In fair request, and the offerings were not very large Sales were made at $7 02½@7 20. Opened at $7 15 to $7 17½, sold to $7 15@7 17½, to $7 20, to $7 17½, to $7 20, to $7 12½, to $7 15 to $7 05, to $7 10, to $7 07½, to $7 10, to $7 02½, and closed steady.

SEPTEMBER—Quiet, with small sales at $7 20.

Short Rib Sides—A fairly good business was transacted in Short Rib Sides, and the feeling was somewhat unsettled Offerings were free, and the demand was moderately active Early, the market was stronger in a general way, with fair buying, and prices were advanced 2½@5c At the advance, there was some pressure to sell, and prices declined 20@22½c and the market closed steady around inside figures Shipping demand was light and offerings were small. Cash lots quotable at $6 50@6 62½, according to weight.

MAY—In fair request and offerings were moderately free Sales were made at $6 75@6 97½. Opened at $6 90@6 92½, sold to $6 95@6 97½, to $6 85, to $6 87½, to $6 80, to $6 82½, to $6 80 to $6 85, to $6 80, to $6 82½, to $6 75@6 77½, and closed steady.

PORK PACKING AND PROVISIONS.

[From the Cincinnati Price Current, March 17.]

There has been a fair total marketing of Hogs the past week for the time in the year. Total Western packing for the week 350,000, compared with 330,000 the preceding week, and 565,000 two weeks ago. For corresponding time last ye r the number was 315,000, and two years ago 380,000. From March 1 the total is 785,000, against 760,000 a year ago. The quality is running from fair to good. Prices are reduced from the previous advance, prominent markets at the close averaging about $5 35 per 100 lbs, compared with $5 60 a week ago, $5 30 two weeks ago, $7 15 a year ago, $6 30 two years ago, $5 80 three years ago, and $4 90 four years ago.

The Price Current expects to be able to present next week the completed statement of Pork packing operations in the United States for the year ending March 1, with comparisons, and usual data as to stocks of Product, exports, consumption, prices, etc.

The speculative Provision market was not so active as last week, still there was an unsettled feeling and wide fluctuations. The influence of the changes in the Grain markets was the most important factor in shaping trade sentiment, although toward the close the Hog market and supplies of Hogs had some weight with the trade. Business was quiet in the regular channels. Domestic markets were slow and unchanged, foreign markets dull, and export buyers were practically out of the market. The export clearances of Product were light, showing a decrease compared with the preceding week and a falling off as compared with the corresponding week last year.

The week's export clearances of Hog Products compared with corresponding time last year:

	Past week	Last year.
Pork, pounds	858,000	628,000
Bacon, pounds	10,010,000	9,407,000

INDICATED WHEAT RESERVES.

[From the Cincinnati Price Current, March 17.]

The March report of Grain reserves held by farmers invites some attention, especially with reference to Wheat. In the light of past records it may be said that such estimates have been uniformly below actual conditions, as disclosed by subsequent distribution, and apparently the present exhibit will prove to be no exception in that particular.

Turning to the reported situation a year ago, and on July 1 following, to see what was the comparison of distribution from the supplies in March, we find the following: Farmers' stocks, 164,000,000 bu; other supplies, as reported by the Chicago DAILY TRADE BULLETIN, 86,000,000 bu—total supply, 250,000,000 bu. The indicated disposition of supplies for four months subsequent to March 1 was as follows: Consumption, 140,000,000 bu, seeding, 25,000,000 bu, exports, 53,000,000 bu; remaining July 1 in farmers' hands, 42,000,000 bu; other stocks, 33,000,000 bu—these quantities making an aggregate of 293,000,000 bu, or 43,000,000 bu in excess of the apparent resources.

On July 1, 1902, the reported farmers' stocks were 52,000,000 bu; other supplies, 41,000,000 bu; crop of 1902 670,000,000 bu—making an apparent supply of 766,000,000 bu for the year. The disposition of supplies for the year was as follows. Seeding, 65,000,000 bu; exports, 203,000,000 bu; remaining at end of the year in farmers' hands, 42,000,000 bu; other supplies, 33,000,000 bu, a total of 75,000,000 bu—making 278,000,000 bu appear as the distribution other than for consumption, and leaving 473,000,000 bu against this account. If this quantity were actually consumed for all domestic purposes other than seeding the per capita rate would be 5.35 bu, which compares with 5.25 bu as the generally accepted rate applicable to recent years. The analysis makes the year's factors appear reasonably consistent.

For the current year conditions as reported are as follows. Farmers' and other supplies July 1, 1903, 75,000,000 bu; crop, 637,000,000 bu—making the apparent total supply 712,000,000 bu. For the eight months to March 1 the distribution may be accepted as about as follows: Seeding, 45,000,000 bu; consumption, 285,000,000 bu, exports, 108,000,000 bu—amounting in the aggregate to 438,000,000 bu. The difference between this and the apparent supply is 274,000,000 bu. According to the Chicago TRADE BULLETIN Wheat and Flour stocks out of the hands of farmers on March 1 were 68,000,000 bu. Adding the official estimate of 132,000,000 bu for farmers' stocks makes a total of 200,000,000 bu thus accounted for, as against 274,000,000 bu apparently representing the consistent position. This supports the view that the estimate of Wheat held by farmers is largely below the actual conditions. And such may be expected to have verification in the distribution which will be shown for the ensuing four months. The difference may not appear to be as much as the 74,000,000 bu, but it is quite certain that the increased consumption which has been claimed by some has not been equal to accounting for this quantity by a considerable amount.

GRAIN TRADE AND CROPS.

[From the Cincinnati Price Current, March 17.]

The prospects for the growing Wheat have been fully maintained or probably somewhat bettered by the past week's weather conditions. Light to heavy snows have fallen over most of the territory north of the Ohio River, in Missouri, Nebraska and Eastern Kansas. The area lacking in moisture has been lessened by recent rains and snow. In Kansas some precipitation covered nearly the entire State, but it was insufficient except in the Eastern counties. The crop has not suffered much from alternate freezing and thawing weather, a few complaints are being received, but in the aggregate there are fewer complaints than usual at this time of year. There has been almost no growing weather, and the predominating feature of the crop situation continues to be the poor top appearance, but the possibility of good root growth, and more than usual uncertainty as to probabilities. Late sown Wheat looks more poorly than early sown. Roughly generalized the prospects favor a medium crop, not a very large one nor an especially small one.

The season is a late one, and not much spring work has been done. Oats seeding has started in Kansas and Missouri, but it has not advanced much. The ground is generally reported as in good condition for spring crops. Iowa reports especially comment on the good condition of the soil. Large area of spring crops will be sown.

As usual at about this time of year reports are being received of bad roads, restricting the interior movement of Grain. Until recently there have been very few such complaints.

The president of the Standard Trust Company, of New York, has written to State Bank Superintendent Kilburn opposing a law to compel the Trust Companies to keep cash reserves of 5 per cent. He says this would withdraw $45,000,000 from the channels of trade and be a serious menace to the country.

Chicago local bankers say the elements of firmness that come with the beginning of the week still characterize the money market. Ordinary loans, including the bulk of commercial paper, are made at 5 per cent, and in some instances 5½ per cent. Concessions of the former figure are now made only in rare cases.

Acute weakness in St. Louis United Railways preferred stock, Wednesday, was accompanied by an unconfirmed report to the effect that the directors of the company may temporarily suspend dividends at their next meeting, set for March 21. The dividend calls for an outlay of $209,439 on the outstanding stock, amounting to $16,755,400.

A New York news bureau sends out the following: "We understand that a large institution in this city has bought the subscription rights on a large amount of Delaware and Hudson stock, with the view of subscribing for the new shares. We also understand that it is the intention of the purchaser to hold all the stock for permanent investment."

The Rock Island Railroad will, on April 1, absorb the Choctaw, Oklahoma and Gulf Railway, which will be known in the future as one of the divisions of the former system. There are nearly 1,000 miles of track in the present Choctaw, Oklahoma and Gulf Railway lines, and thousands of freight and passenger cars and engines that will lose the identity at this time.

The American Straw Board Company will shortly retire $50,000 of its 6 per cent bonds under the operation of its sinking fund. This will reduce the outstanding bonds to $114,982. The floating debt of the company is pretty well cared for. With the improved condition of the trade, the company should be about ready to pay dividends on its stock whenever the United Box Board Company so directs.

The Chicago Inter Ocean says: "The retrenchment policy of the Barber management in the United Box Board and Paper Company is evidenced in the general offices of the American Straw Board Company in this city. Where there were formerly nearly twenty persons employed, there are now just four. A part of the desks and office furniture of the American company has been sold, and the offices are greatly reduced from their former importance."

The president of the United States Rubber Company, in speaking of the business for the year 1903, is quoted as follows: "Our company did the biggest business in its history last year. We sold almost $80,000,000 worth of Rubber shoes and boots, and that is a very large business. It is $3,000,000 more than our sales for the year 1902 and $5,000,000 more than our sales for 1901. Since Jan. 1 we have sold all that our factories had in stock, and the orders that have been pouring in for future delivery indicate that the country has disposed of its stocks very thoroughly and will start the new season with a clean slate."

It is claimed among electrical experts, according to a dispatch from New York, that it will require from $12,000,000 to $14,000,000 of new capital and the energy of a great force of skilled mechanics to make successful the electrical combination proposed by the Allis-Chalmers Company. It is estimated that the manufacture of electrical machinery as heavy as that made by the General Electric and Westinghouse Companies and to correspond to the heavy engines now built at Milwaukee will require at least $1,000,000 for patent rights and designs, fully $500,000 for new patterns and $2,000,000 more for new equipment and tools. In addition it will require $3,500,000 of new working capital and $4,000,000 for material entering into electrical machines that will require two years to build.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Governing Committee of the Chicago Stock Exchange, Wednesday, the preferred and common stocks of the Illinois Brick Company were admitted to the unlisted department. There is $4,000,000 of the preferred stock authorized, of which on Dec 31, 1903, there was $449,500 unissued and $128,000 "held in the treasury" of the company. The authorized issue of the common stock is $5,000,000, of which $610,500 was unissued on Dec. 31 and $128,000 held in the treasury. The company has $300,000 of bonds which have never been sold to investors, but have been used by the company to furnish collateral for loans. The committee also admitted to the regular list the issue of $1,000,000 series F bonds of the Pearsons-Taft Land Credit Company.

Cotton in New York closed 46 to 70 points higher for the day—at about the best prices. Trading was heavy and the market extremely nervous. There was only one failure announced. Sully facilitated settlements by indorsing down margins until legal complications restrained them partially. Spot interests gave good support to the market and "shorts" were heavy buyers for profits.

Stocks in Wall Street advanced on a broadening of the trade and made decided gains. The Cotton failure was taken as of material benefit to the trade interest; it will allow the market to seek its natural channels and increase exports. Better crop news from the West and Southwest were important factors. The bank statement had little effect. "Shorts" were large buyers The Railway shares gained ¾@2 points, Tractions ¼@3¼, and Industrials 1@1¾ Sales, 352,400 shares.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Market is quiet and easy as quoted on the second page.

No 3 Spring fresh arrivals quotable at 85@97c for fair to choice hard variety. No 4 Spring sold at 85@94c for good to choice hard variety and ranged down to 80c for poor

REGULAR WHEAT—A large trade and nervous, sensitive market, with last prices 1c higher for May, while July gained ½@⅝c and September ⅜c. The feeling at the start was firm and prices advanced under an active demand from "shorts." Cables did not show the weakness expected, the Southwest was without moisture and receipts were moderate. Later, however, liquidation again set in and prices receded sharply, stop-loss limits being reached, the fear of further financial troubles in the East causing great uneasiness At the decline many of yesterday's sellers covered and situation became more settled, a substantial advance being gained all round. Liverpool quoted spot steady and futures ⅜@½d lower. London came ¾@1½d lower. Paris advanced ½@¾c, while Antwerp declined about ⅜c. No rain was indicated for the Southwest Receipts in the Northwest for the week were 2 275 cars, against 2,239 cars last week and 1,831 cars last year. Australian shipments were 1 048 000 bu Broomhall estimated the world's shipments at 10,000,000 bu and predicted a moderate increase in the quantity on ocean passage. Primary receipts this week 3 361,000 bu, against 3,087,000 bu last week and 2,874,000 bu last year. English visible supply increased 544 000 bu, against 158,000 bu decrease in 1903. Northwest markets acted weak and Flour news from that section continues "bearish." Kansas City and St Louis received 95,000 bu and shipped out 205 000 bu Arrivals in the United Kingdom this week were 4,400,000 bu, against 3 00,000 bu one year ago. Cash sales here included 150,000 bu No. 2 Red at 2¼c over May. Exports were moderate and 11 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Duluth stocks are expected to increase 150,000 bu and Minneapolis decrease 55,000 bu. Berlin closed ¾c lower, and the Buda Pesth market was ⅜c higher. Receipts at Duluth 45 cars and at Minneapolis 271 cars, a total of 316 cars, against 334 cars yesterday, 322 cars a week ago, and 179 cars last year. Local receipts included 14 cars Winter, 6 cars Spring and none mixed, a total of 20 cars, against 18 cars last year Included in the above was no cars of contract grade. There were 14 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for Monday are 15 cars Withdrawals were 22,800 bu. Receipts at Western points were 479,259 bu against 335,561 bu last year. At Eastern points 52,823 bu, against 189,704 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 265,[illegible]85 bu, against 2[illegible]5,815 bu last year, and from Eastern points 91,315 bu, against 57,024 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 47,632 brls. CORN—A good trade and rather unsettled market with the close 1⅛c higher for May and 1½@1⅝c higher for July. Early the feeling was rather "bullish" and offerings were small "Shorts" bought with considerable freedom and prices were advanced ⅞@1¼c. Later, however, July liquidation set in and prices settled back 1c. The break in Wheat and fears of further financial troubles East was the "bear" influence. A sharp rally followed and prices were advanced ⅞@1¼c and closed at the top prices of the session. The weather was not as unfavorable as yesterday, but receipts were small at 157 cars, and but 170 cars are estimated for Monday. Liverpool quoted spot steady and futures ⅜d lower Rosario, Argentina, cabled that should the unfavorable weather continue, serious damage to Corn crop would result The May-July spread ranged at 2⅜@2½c. Local weekly receipts were 1,227,000 bu and shipments 79 ,000 bu Primary receipts this week 2 412,000 bu, against 2 031 000 bu last week and 3 248,000 bu one year ago Transfers from private to public elevators were 15,401 bu and 124 cars. Exports were 2 0,000 bu and 8 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Local arrivals were 221 000 bu. Southwestern markets were steady to firm Private estimates showed 38 per cent of the Nebraska crop in farmers' hands. Shipping demand moderate and sales 20,000. Car lots were in fair demand with moderate offerings Prices irregular. No 2 closed about 51½c and No. 2 Yellow at 52½c. No. 3 sold at 43@48½c and closed at 41½@51c. No 3 Yellow sold at 48½c and closed at 41½@52c. No. 4 sold at 42¼c

Corn by sample Was slow and the demand only fair. Offerings little larger and some carried over. Good grades steady to ½c lower and poor grades unchanged to 2c lower. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 38@41c. No 4 at 40@45c No 3 at 44@48c No. 3 Yellow at 47@52½c. No. 2 at 51⅝c. No. 2 Yellow at 52c No. 3 White at 43 @45c. No 2 White at 5[illegible]¾c. Billed through: No Grade at 39@40c. No 4 at 40½@43c. No 3 at 42@44½c. No. 3 Yellow at 44½@52¼c. No. 3 White at 41½@42½c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Active and very unsettled, closing about 1½c higher.

MARCH—Inactive and closed at 50⅞c.

MAY—Sold at 51⅜@52⅞c Opened at 51⅝c to 52¼c, being greatly unsettled, sold to 52⅝c, to 51¾c, to 52c, to 51¾c, to 52⅝@52½c, to 51⅝c, advanced steadily to 52⅞c, and closed steady at 52⅞c.

JULY—Sold at 49@50¾c Opened at 49c to 49⅞c and sold at 50c, to 49⅞c, to 50c, to 49½c, to 49¾c, to 49⅞c, to 49½c, to 50⅜c, to 50⅝c, to 50¾c, to 50⅝c, to 50⅝@50¾c, and closed at 50⅝@50¾c.

SEPTEMBER Sold at 48¾@50c Opened at 48¾c to 49¼c sold to 49⅜c, to 49¼c, to 49½c, to 49c, to 49⅜c, to 48⅞c, advanced to 50c, and closed at 50c asked.

OATS—Were unsettled. There was not the selling pressure expected from the weakness displayed at the close yesterday. At the start there was good commission house buying and during the day cash houses bought moderately, as futures are lower than the cash lots in the sample market. Prices failed to get below yesterday's closing figures and advanced ⅝@1¼c; the close was at net gains of ¼@⅞c. Cash sales were 25,000 bu. Arrivals 145 cars, with 165 cars estimated for Monday. There was 85,200 bu and 14 cars Standard withdrawn from private elevators, and 64 0 bu from public houses. Seaboard clearances 13 000 bu Car lots to go to store were steady to ½c lower. No. 3 at 39¼@40½c No 3 White at 40½@44½c Standard at 42¾c. Billed through: No 4 White at 40½@41½c No 3 at 39¾c No. 3 White at 41@42c. Standard at 42¼@42c. No 2 at 39¾c. At the river. No. 4 at 37c. No 4 White at 3 @38½c No 3 White at 40@40c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were stronger and closed higher.

MARCH—Closed about 39½c.

MAY Fair trading Sold at 39¼@40⅜c. Opened at 39¼c to 39⅝c, sold irregularly to 40⅜c, closed at 40⅛@40¼c.

JULY Active. Sold at 38¼@39c. Opened at 38¼c to 38⅝c sold irregularly to 39c, to 38⅞c at close.

SEPTEMBER Sold at 33⅛c and at 33⅜@33½c. Opened at 33⅛@33¼c, sold to 33⅜@33½c, to 33¼c at close.

RYE—Was quiet and steady A light demand existed and offerings small. No new feature to note There were six cars received and three cars withdrawn from private warehouse No export clearances from the seaboard No. 2 in store round lots nominally 70@71c and fresh arrivals free on board sold at 70@71c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye Some trading and market firm. March nominally 71c May sold at 72c, and closed at 72c bid July 70c sellers

BARLEY—There were fair offerings of common to low grade More or less of this went over unsold. Good, sweet malting of fair to good color was salable and about steady, but everything below that very dull. Maltsters did not care for low grade. There also was little demand for mixing or feed Barley. Better grades of latter kind would not bring prices lately obtained; quotably at least 1c lower. Twenty-eight cars came in. Screenings were dull and easy, with a quotable range of 3@4½c for poor to very choice. Barley, feed or mixing, 38@40c local, depending on soundness and color. Malting—low grade, 41@42c; common 43@44c. Fair was about 45@47c; good, 48@50c; choice, 52@55c; fancy possibly higher.

SEEDS—There was a liberal decrease in Timothy offerings and beyond that there was no important feature in Grass Seed market, except that Clover was a shade lower again. There was a dull, slightly easier, Flax market.

Timothy—Offerings were materially smaller than yesterday on the cash market. Seed was held firmly Buyers were on the market at former prices, but not at any improvement. Mostly common to fair quality on sale; no fancy noticed. Sales were at $2 40@2 75, only a small lot at the outside. Country lots had a quotable range of $2 25@3 10 for poor to fancy; fair to good, $2 55@2 70; choice, $2 75@2 85; unhulled, clean, bright above, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 35@2 45. Futures were neglected, inactive, with March nominally about $3 00, and May about $3 10 September was offered at $1 25 and $3 15 was bid.

Flax—There was a further shrinkage of ½c in prices The market remained in a very quiet and slow state. There really was no feature of interest in it. Local receipts 21 cars or 17 851 bu Minneapolis got 29 cars and Duluth 61 cars. No 1 Northwestern sold sparingly at $1 13½. No. 1 was quotable at $1 08 bid. Rejected nominal at $1 06@1 07, outside for choice from the Northwest March was nominally $1 08 May delivery sold at $1 10½. September was offered at $1 17.

Clover Small lots of poor to only fair Seed came on sale. The offerings did not cut much of a figure. Late bad weather has unsettled trade and caused a weak feeling. Prices were quoted about 2c easier again. Contract spot and March delivery nominally $10 75. Country lots, common to choice, $8 0@10 50; fancy above, mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $7 50@9 00; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@10 0

Other Seeds—Were quotably easy all around, but no changes noted. The market was inactive for there were no offerings. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark at $1 00@1 90 Common Millet $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy German Millet, $1 00@1 40 Siberian, $1 00@$1 05 Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c Mustard 8½@$1 05. Buckwheat easy, good milling, $1 0@1 35

HOG PRODUCTS—Rather a good business was transacted in Hog Products for the closing day of the week. Offerings were rather free and the demand was fair Hogs were in fair supply, and prices lower. Good supply estimated for the coming week Receipts at the leading Western packing points estimated at 30,800, compared with 21,010 one year ago Foreign markets quiet for Meats at unchanged prices, while Lard was weak and is lower. Domestic markets quiet. Receipts of Products were fair—of Lard and Meats about 23 cars. Shipments were comparatively light of Lard and Meats about 30 cars. Speculative markets opened at slightly reduced figures, but rather good miscellaneous buying tended to a stronger feeling temporarily, and a moderate rally in prices Later, there was some pressure to sell in sympathy with easier Grain markets, and prices receded somewhat Toward the close a little more steadiness was manifested in sympathy with Grain with a fair rally in prices, and the market closed steady Shipping demand was limited, and offerings were moderate Sales small and prices unchanged

Mess Pork—Trade was fair Market somewhat unsettled, and prices irregular. Offerings were fairly liberal and the demand was moderately active Market opened rather easy and prices ruled 2½@5c lower. On the filling of moderate orders, the feeling was stronger and prices rallied 15@17½c. Later, there was a little pressure to sell, and prices receded 22½@25c. Toward the close, a little more steadiness prevailed, and prices rallied 15@17½c, and closed steady. Shipping demand was light and offerings were small. Cash lots quotable at $13 25@13 37½.

MAY—In fair request and offerings were moderately free. Sales were made at $13 07½@13 32½. Opened at $13 15 to $13 20, sold to $13 27½, to $13 25, to $13 32½, to $13 25, to $13 27½, to $13 15, to $13 17½, to $13 07½@13 10, to $13 15, to $13 07½, to $13 25, and closed steady.

JULY Offerings were fair and demand was moderately active. Sales were made at $13 27½@13 52½. Opened at $13 40 to $13 45, sold to $13 42½, to $13 50, to $13 47½, to $13 27½, to $13 37½, to $13 30, to $13 47½, and closed steady

Lard—A fairly good business was reported in the Lard market, and the feeling was stronger. Offerings were not very free, and the demand was fair. Foreign advices decidedly unfavorable to holders. Prices were advanced 12½@15c on the whole range, but receded again 5@7½c Toward the close, rallied 5@7½c, the market closing steady Demand on shipping account light and offerings moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6 80@6 82½. Loose lots called for sparingly and offerings were rather light. Prices were steady at about 60 discount on May figures Leaf Lard in small request and offerings were moderate Prices were quotable lower at $6 25. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $7 50@7 62½ for No 1, and $7 25@7 37½ for No. 2.

MAY—In rather good demand, with fair offerings. Sales were made at $6 82½@6 97½ Opened at $6 82½, sold to $6 92½ to $6 9 , to $6 95, to $6 92½, to $6 97½, to $6 92½, to $6 97½ and closed steady.

WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW

CHICAGO, FRIDAY EVENING, March 18 1904.

The demand for loans from the commercial interests in holding up fabric and yarn values is said to are also moderate borrowers Rates are called steady with the greater part of the loans at 5 per cent, although it was occasionally shaded to 4 per cent. Currency is moving to the country in a moderate way. Deposits are increasing fairly, and some of the larger country banks are carrying good balances here, while others are drawing it down. Supplies of paper are fair and it brings 4½ to 5½ per cent. Rates in New York were easy at 4½ to 5½ per cent on the call and money brought 1½ to 2 per cent on the Stock Exchange Gold continued to go to Argentina from New York and London to move the Grain crops.

New York Exchange was steady at par to 15c premium, and closed at the premium.

Foreign Exchange was without new features. Shippers sixty day documentary sterling bills on London ranged at 483 to 483½, and remained steady.

In the mercantile trade increased activity was noticeable in nearly every line. Jobbers of dry goods reported large purchases and made liberal shipments on previous orders. The feature of the Cotton goods was still one of firmness as the action of the Cotton market did not warrant any weakening on the part of sellers of goods. Woolens held firm but left reflecting the dullness in the Wool market An improved tone was noticeable in finished Iron and Steel products The Bar Steel Association advanced prices 5c per ton, and bar Iron raised $2 to wrap steel 81.50 per ton, and bar Iron prices advanced $1.00 last week, and there is a strong feeling all round with an increasing volume of business being reported. Pig Iron is also being bought in fair sized lots. Pig Iron is coming in for more attention the output of the furnaces is increasing, but the past thirty days has failed to show any gain in the stocks on hand, the fact they have decreased steadily despite the large output. Buying of pig Iron increased to 50,000 tons in this district and prices advanced 25@50c. The movement of Lumber and Building Material was restricted by unfavorable weather, but indications point to an increased business with normal conditions. Groceries, paints, and oils and Naval stores all taken in good volume Sugars advanced 5 points and Turpentine 1c a gallon. Collections were fair.

Interest in New York is unsettled with the "bull" interests in control, satisfying the demand of buyers on sharp advances, and supporting the market on the breaks. There was a large "short" interest and an extremely sensitive market. Crop reports are not increasing and spot demand is enlarging. Prices started to decline about the middle of the week on heavy continuous selling and closed the "bulls" leader to the wall on Friday, when prices receded 158 to 216 points for the day, and a net loss of 98 to 318 for the week, or 8 9-16 to 8 15-16 per share.

In New York the crop situation was relieved after the long period of dullness and decline by the final settlement of the Northern Securities suit, the Supreme Court deciding in favor of the Government. It lifted the cloud that had been over Wall Street for some time, and instead of having a depressing influence, as was expected, it developed that the effect of the decision had been discounted by Wall Street, and there was a large and larger number of strong operators in the market on the buying side and induced better buying by London and covering by "shorts" in this country, for this assisted in creating a more confident feeling. was the announcement from Washington that there is no danger of other corporations being prosecuted against the Sherman anti-trust laws, and they have practically had notice that it behooves them to put their house in readiness to comply with the court decision An acceptance of the proposed sale by the Northern Pacific Directors was also a good feature. Closing sales were at good advances for the week. Total sales on the New York Stock Exchange for the week were 2,915,300 shares, compared with 940,000 shares the previous week and 3,881,000 shares last year.

Local Securities were weak and lower in the first three days' trading, but developed a decided reaction and recovered all the loss and made an additional gain. The feature was the liquidation in Metropolitan Elevated preferred, which forced it to 91. The selling has been on for over a week, being 2,000 shares sold on margins. Its completion and the decline brought in better support and a recovery of over 6 points was recorded. Traction shares were also fairly on a belief that the reorganization will put the shares on a better basis and prices averaged higher. Industrials were taken fairly and showed higher. Bonds were in fair request and steadier.

COMMERCIAL.

The past week witnessed considerable interest in Grain and Provisions, and the Cash trade remained fairly active and the volume of business transacted was very satisfactory. Outside orders were fairly numerous and trading on local account was quite extensive. Price changes were frequent in the Grain as well as the Provision markets. Weather conditions and probable future supplies were important factors in shaping the course of the markets and Flour and Provisions were inclined to sympathize with the action in Grain. Rather more disposition on the part of "bull" interests to liquidate in a scrappy way, and there resulted in many instances. Prices were quite irregular "Bear" interests were rather more aggressive in their operations. "Shorts" accepted the situation on reactionary spots. Short selling was generally of better character than the buying. The break in Cotton and failure in New York had a tendency to demoralize all commodities for a time, but the effect was not lasting. Sharp choppy markets are likely to be witnessed during the next few weeks as the period for crop scares is close at hand. The speculators in expectation should keep on the conservative side. Cash money plentiful in most sections of the country, particularly through the South and West, there is little doubt that the movement of the crops will be large. Provisions will continue and the advent of spring should offer many opportunities for speculative ventures.

Cable advices from abroad did not indicate any particular change in the crop outlook. In France, Hungary, Roumania and Italy the condition of the Wheat crop continues satisfactory. The crop situation in Russia is reported to show no change from a week ago. Navigation on the Sea of Azoff has reopened, which is about fifteen days earlier than usual. Recent changeable and cold weather in Germany is said to have done no damage, but conditions this week are said to be better. The recently reported rains in India have ceased and crop reports are of a favorable tenor. Latest advices from Australia confirm the earlier reports that the rains during the period of harvesting caused some damage, reducing the exportable surplus. Shipments from Australia to the United Kingdom continue poor; during the past week there has been some seeding of Spring Wheat. The weather in Spain continues rainy, and there are fears that the crops may suffer from excessive moisture.

Reports regarding the condition of the Winter Wheat crop in the United States less pessimistic. Advices from Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska were in a less sensational strain Many conservative authorities in that section claim the crop is looking better and with favorable weather in the near future will make a fair crop. Reports from Illinois, too, were improved in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Nebraska by the snows which fell the past week. In the more northern sections of the belt it is reported to venture predictions, but it is generally believed the roots are sound. The outlook in California and on the Pacific Coast have been improved by the recent rains. Reports from the Southern Winter belt would indicate that a larger area will be planted this spring at the expense of Flax Seed. Corn planting is progressing through the South and will be pushed forward as rapidly as weather conditions will permit.

The movement of Grain from the farms and interior elevators was moderate the past week. Weather conditions were not of the best, storms and unfavorable conditions being reported over the wide area of the West and Central West. Country roads are in bad shape in many sections and the movement from farms was in consequence restricted. In the Northwest the movement of Wheat and Flax Seed was fair, and larger than for the corresponding week in 1903. The increased receipts of Wheat in this way was attributed to the fact that tax assessments on Grain are made on April 1. Through the West and Central West the movement was small, particularly corresponding with the week a year ago, when it was rather liberal The movement toward the seaboard was only moderate Storms through the East have again caused shippers considerable trouble. An embargo is likely to be put on the receipt of cars for spring shipment. Exports of Flour and Wheat were very moderate, fair of Corn and light of Oats. Stocks in public elevators were only moderate According to the weekly report of the visible supply of Grain in the United States and Canada, as compiled by the Secretary of the Treasury from data received by mail from the stocks of Wheat, Rye and Barley and an increase in Corn and Oats.

The leading speculative markets on 'Change were fairly active the past week. Transactions, however, were more of a professional character than of late, outside orders as a rule coming from the local professional element. Sentiment, at the same time, was greatly divided and the fluctuating developed quite unsettled. Fluctuations were sharp and frequent, the coarse Grains being inclined to follow the action of Wheat to a large extent. Wheat was easy at the start, foreign statistics and improved crop advices from the Winter Wheat belt being among the "bear" influences Northern markets were weak and lower. Choppy in the cash situation, but another reaction set in and prices again receded. Foreign markets did not follow the decline, domestic markets turned weak. Corn was affected to some extent by the soft weather and fear of congestion in May early in the week, but the advance was not held. Oats were governed from day to day by the action in Corn, though the increasing supplies and the lack of support by "bull" leaders was a feature. Hog Product were fairly active and a little unsettled, but closed easier. Provisions were governed by contracts for May and July, with considerable business in the way of transfers Hog values were a little irregular, but closed with a downward trend. Cash wares were fair. Receipts of Products were quite liberal and shipments were fair. Packing of the West for the week was reported at 350,000 Hogs, against 370,000 the week before and 335,000 the week before.

There was a very fair demand to Grain of all descriptions the past week. Offerings which were quite liberal, particularly coarse Grains. Wheat was in fair request and readily absorbed the choice samples and the shipping demand for round lots was improved, the No. 2 Northern selling within 1c of the top of May. Choice dry Corn was wanted and that from Nebraska commanded considerable premium A good demand existed for Oats and prices were irregular. Rye was quiet, and little doing in Seeds. Hay was dull, but a little firmer. Receipts not as large. Hog Products were in moderate demand and the offerings were quite liberal. Quality enlarged and prices on certain descriptions easier. Cattle were in fair supply and prices favored buyers. Sheep were marketed in liberal quantities, but prices held quite steady

FREIGHTS—Eastbound roads are still slow to furnish cars and the movement of Grain is slow. The tariff is as follows:

To—	From Chicago. Domestic.	Export.	From Miss. River. Domestic.	Export.
Boston	22	15	23	17½
New York	18	14	19	16½
Philadelphia	18	14	23	16½
Baltimore	17	13½	19	16
Newport News	17	13½	19
Buffalo	13		15

Flour rates are 20c domestic and 16½c for export. Provision rates are 30c per 100 lbs. Chicago to New York.

Rail rates at east and east of Buffalo are lower on Grain and on March 21 will be 3c per bu on Wheat, also on Corn and 2½c on Oats.

Ocean rates on Grain steady with a limited demand. Rates on Grain are 3¾@4d per bu from New York and 4d from Boston. Through rates via Montreal-Chicago to Liverpool is 11¾c per bu and Corn 11¾c. Flour 24.9d per 100 lbs and Provisions 44.6c per 100 lbs.

FLOUR—There is no essential change to note in this market. The demand continues moderate, as also the offerings, and the general undertone is one of strength. In some quarters a little improvement was reported in the inquiry for Flour, but in most cases it was where buyers were obliged to replenish stocks. Many jobbers have kept out of the market now for weeks, expecting to purchase Flour at lower prices, and their stocks have become depleted and in such shape that purchases were actually compulsory. Millers are still "bullish" in their views and not disposed to make concessions from the point to the advancing tendency of cash Wheat in all the leading accumulating centers and the very moderate Flour stocks in the leading markets. Spring wheat millers are firm in their views. The agents of the larger Northwestern mills are asking $5.70 for the best hard Spring Wheat Patents, while some of the jobbers are selling it at $5.60 and others at $5.65 to $5.60. Foreign bids are still out of line. In most instances by 25c per sack. Buyers abroad are indifferent. the liberal Wheat supplies afloat, glowing accounts received from the Argentine Republic in Argentina all having a tendency to create a "bearish" sentiment on the other side. At the same time considerable Flour is being consigned and ocean freights reported an increase in the booking of Flour. Business, however, is small, and Flour is paying only 5c per 100 lbs. which about pays the expenses of loading, unloading, and leave nothing for the ocean freight. The output at the principal Spring Wheat points the past week was fair at 134,000 brls, compared with 129,000 for the previous week. Mills this week closed quiet, but steady, at following quotations:

WINTER WHEAT FLOUR.

MILLSTUFFS—The demand has not been so urgent during the week and the feeling was easier. There have only been small receipts, but buyers were less inclined to purchase for some reason and prices about 25@50c per ton lower Bran sold at $17 for Spring and $16.50 for Winter. Middlings sold at $18.50 on an outside road and at $19.00 on more desirable road.

WINTER WHEAT—A firm feeling existed during the past week, and while prices for soft Red Winter Wheat did not show much of any improvement, the Hard Winter was advanced 2@3c, due to reduced cash offerings and the fact that there has been a good demand on local milling account, and there has also been some shipping inquiry, and a few round lots were sold besides the different grades of Wheat to arrive. The bulk of the soft Wheat has not been taken up as eagerly as heretofore. The grade Wheat or the contract grade in store followed the fluctuations of the speculative markets and the cash premium over the May Spring Wheat. Receipts for the week aggregated 72 cars, against 123 cars the previous week. There were withdrawn from public elevators 10,200 bu and from private warehouses 17 cars. No. 2 Red in store ranged from ½ under to 2c over May prices, and ranged at 94@96c. No. 2 Hard local sold at 91¼@91c, and at the river ranged at 87@93c. No. 3 Hard local sold at 87@89c, and at the river ranged at 89@92c. No. 4 Hard local sold at 86@87c. No. 2 Red for good and at 96c for very choice. No. 3 White sold at 97c.

SPRING WHEAT—The market has ruled steadier during the past week and prices were advanced 1@2c, and closed quoted at an advance of 2@3c lost. A good demand has existed on milling and shipping account and besides the car lots of fresh arrivals, there were sales of round lots made. The receipts have been liberal, however, and while the effect of bringing prices for No. 1 Northern closer to the May figures The receipts have been somewhat scanty, and fresh arrivals are coming to make a market, and quotations for the most part have been nominal. The hard variety was mostly wanted and sold quite well. Of the poorer grades there have been more than enough, and there has been no special call for it, and low prices had to be accepted to make sales. The receipts of the week aggregated 37 cars, against 70 cars the previous week. There were withdrawn from public elevators 76,350 bu. and 5,000 bu and 80 cars taken from private warehouses. No. 1 Northern in store ruled about ½@1c under May and ranged at 93½@96¾c, and fresh arrivals free on board ranged nominally 96@98 00. No. 3 Spring local sold at 80@86c for poor to fancy hard variety. No. 4 Spring local sold at 80@84c for poor to good and ranged 87@90c for very poor to fancy hard variety.

REGULAR WHEAT—The market closes with the May about 3¾c lower, while the old July declined 3¾@3½c and the September 3½c. Transactions were of good volume and sentiment more bearish than at any time for weeks, there being more of a professional character and outside orders confined more exclusively to the larger speculative centers The break in Cotton equal to 2¾c per pound on Friday and failure of a prominent operator in New York was principal weakening factor at close. The week started out with local tempor leaning to the selling side of the market, the snows through several of the important Winter Wheat States, "bearish" foreign statistics and rather liberal movement to distributing centers being among the weakening and depressing influences. "Short" selling was more in evidence and "bear" leaders were quite aggressive in their operations, believing the "bull" party in May had liquidated, and it was well out of its line The report that the strike among the railway employes in Argentine had been settled, declining tendency of values in Great Britain and on the Continent, and indications of further moisture through the Wheat belt on this side also added to the "bearish" sentiment. May sold from 1¼ to 2¼c lower, or 2¾@3c from the top, at which prices notive covering by "shorts" and support from "bull" interests brought about a rally to 97½c and 98¼@98½c respectively. Export purchases were reported, and the condition of the growing crop, and more active demand for the cash articles from milling centers, tended to impart strength to the market. The sale of a large quantity of Hard Winter at St. Louis the same to go to Minneapolis was a "bull" help, also the sales here and at Duluth. Large sales of Barley were reported from the Pacific Coast, the same supposed to be for the Russian Government and was an indirect supporting influence. Liquidation followed and the May touched 95¾c, and the July sold down to 89¾c. The world's shipments last week were 9,192 000 bushels, against 10,112,000 bushels the previous week and 8,816,000 bu one year ago. The quantity on ocean passage was 17,152,000 bu to 11,336,000 bu, compared with 30,664 000 bu in 1903 Private Liverpool cables stated Europe would require but 4,000,000 bushels of Wheat and Flour from the Sea of Azoff to Liverpool 1,904,000 bu, decreased 24,000 bu. Stock year ago 2,168 000 bu. The visible decreased 1,292,000 bu, compared with 691,000 bu decrease same week in 1903. The amount in sight, including 48,965,000 bu in 1903 and 51,997,000 bu in 1902. Points gaining 50 000 bu or over were: Duluth, 143,000 bu, and Kansas City, 50,000 bu. Points losing: Buffalo, 51,000 bu, principally sold to the Pacific Coast; Milwaukee, 145,000 bu; Boston, 114,000 bu, and New Orleans, 93,000 bu. Exports of Wheat last week were 2,000,000 bu less than for corresponding week in 1903. Exports of Flour and Wheat were 1,000,000 bu larger than for the same week last year. In spite of these small clearances and the large world's shipments there was a large decrease in the visible. It was taken as illustrative of the queer situation, of the remarkable domestic demand, which more than offsets the small clearances and the liberal foreign supplies. Local public stocks decreased 49,000 bu, to 2,650,090 bu, compared with 7,713,000 bu same date one year ago. Local stocks in all positions were reported 10,907,000 bu, against 13,363,000 bu. Stocks 2,456,600 bu smaller than one year ago. Contract stocks decreased 32,259 bu, and now include 1,689,189 bu, compared with 3,538,189 bu the corresponding date in 1903. Contract stocks in Minneapolis alone decreased 575,000 bu, against 2,822 000 bu decrease for the corresponding week one year ago. The snow map up to Monday showed that the snow was largely confined to parts or Nebraska. Iowa well covered; also Northern Illinois and all over Indiana and Ohio and substantial in the Northwest. The reports from the Winter Wheat belt were conflicting as to actual conditions, advices from the Northwest were most favorable. Duluth claimed that conditions were excellent this spring for a big crop of Spring Wheat. Grading in Minnesota and the two Dakotas More plowing was done in the Grain region of the Northwest last fall than ever before. There is plenty of snow all over the Spring Wheat belt, and the frost will be out of the ground in time for seeding. Moisture in the soil will act as fertilizer. The farmers figure on the biggest Grain acreage in the Northwest in the history of the region. There will be something of a decrease in the Spring Wheat acreage, because of the increase sown to Wheat in some districts. The foreign crop advices were not particularly different from those of a week ago. The report of Corn Trade News in its weekly foreign crop summary said: "United Kingdom — The Winter Wheat prospects continue poor; during the past week there has been some seeding of Spring Wheat. France, Hungary, Roumania, Italy—The condition of Wheat crop continues satisfactory. Russia—The crop situation as a whole shows no change. Navigation on the Sea of Azoff has opened about fifteen days earlier than usual. Germany—The recent changeable and cold weather caused fears of damage to the Winter Wheat crop, but conditions have taken a turn for the better. India—The recently reported rains have ceased and crop reports are of a favorable tenor Australia—Latest advices confirm the earlier reports that the rains during the period of harvesting caused some damage, reducing the exportable surplus." Bookings at the Atlantic ports for the week ending with Wednesday were 2,606,000 bu, compared with 2,393,000 bu a year ago. The total since July 1 aggregates 116,591,000 bu, as compared with 93,465,000 bu for the same period in 1902-3, an increase of 23,126,000 bu. Stock a year ago and the total July 1 to March 14 foot up 193,148,000 bu, compared with 218,277,000 bu in 1902-3 and 208,852,000 bu in 1901-2. Argentine shipments this week were 2,944,000 bu and last week 3,040,000 bu, and since January 1 aggregates 45,824,000 bu, compared with 16,610,000 bu last year. The visible there is now 4,344,000 bu, as against 3,680,000 bu last week and 1,744,000 bu one year ago. The Buenos Ayres Standard of Feb. 7 says: "The Wheat crop is not proving to be so abundant as it was thought to be, but the exportation will largely exceed that of last year. The Wheat shipped so far approximates to class to that of last season, at least that part of it that has reached this city up to date. It is reported that when the transference there was bought large lots in Santa Fe and in the south of Cordoba, which will be shipped direct from Rosario." The following table exhibits the exports of breadstuffs from the principal countries since July 1, 1903, to March 12, 1904, compared with the corresponding period in 1902-3:

Russia	102,464,000	85,952,000

FUTURES—A good speculative business was transacted under this head the past week. The trade, however, was more on the professional order and not as general or widely distributed as during the previous week. The feature was the very much mixed and fluctuations frequent within the established limits. May sold between 51¼@51¾c and rested at 51¾c, showing a loss of 1¾ @1⅞c. July sold between 52¼@52⅝c and closed at 49⅝c sellers, or about 1⅞c under final figures of last Friday. September sold at 48½c and 49c and closed at 48½c bid. The week started out with underlying tone to the situation, most of the "long" interest in May attracting considerable attention. The small receipts, stormy weather and the fact that a good deal of Wheat was tied up with the breaking up of the country roads all tending to create distrust among the "shorts" in May and many outstanding lines were provided for on the upturn. The better demand and relatively higher values prevalent for the low grades which are working closer to the price of futures was also one of the "bull" helps. May advanced to 54¾c and July to 52¾@52⅝c before the buying was satisfied At this improvement in prices there was general liquidation and prices settled back to 51¾c and 49c respectively. The break in Cotton and failure in New York was the "bear" feature on the opening of the week. The receipts in Wheat, coupled with the increasing stocks and additions to the contract supply, were among the weakening influences. Bradstreet's reported an increase in the available supply last week of 1,539,000 bu, while for the corresponding week in 1903 there was an increase of 3,440,000 bu. Contract stocks were enlarged by 141,500 bu and now foot up 2,730,000 bu, or 2,000,000 larger than a year ago. Local stocks in all positions were reported 8,158,000 bu, an increase of 548,000 bu, and are 3,200 bu larger than a year ago. Receipts and clearances by public elevators were again liberal, and many people in the elevator business are said to be getting in dryers. The grading of this week's arrivals was of the best quality of the season, and the country warehouseman is keeping the low grades in the West and this is being put through the process of the dryer instead of being sent here and sold as what it naturally is, feed. This in a measure explains the advance in low grade values. The better export demand was something of a help the opening days of the week, but the general May suggestion, was the principal "bull" incentive. Receipts this week were 990 cars, with 47 per cent low grades, as against 1,687 cars last week when 52 per cent were off grades. One year ago the arrivals were 1,320 cars and 50 per cent low grades. The world's shipments last week were 3,776,000 bu, previous week, 3,987,000 bu, and 4,459,000 bu one year ago. The world's quantity on passage decreased 737,000 bu to 11,068,000 bu, compared with 11,761,0 0 bu one year ago. The visible increased 560 000 bu, as against 479,000 bu decrease one year ago. Total visible now stands at 31,412,000 bu, compared with 10,412,000 bu in 1903 and 4,686,000 bu in 1902. Points gaining 50,000 bu and over: Baltimore, 141,000 bu; Galveston, 101,000 bu; Boston, 84,0 0 bu; Minneapolis, 70,000 bu and Duluth, 7,017,000 bu, compared with 858,000 bushels one year ago. The Buenos Ayres Standard of February 7 says: "The Wheat crop is not proving to be so abundant as it was thought to be, but the exportation will largely exceed that of last year, and there will be a bumper crop of Corn. This cereal is not sold yet, but the Grain is old and until the end of May we will have very little of the new crop sent to market." The visible supply there on March 18 was 7,000,000 bushels, compared with 7,917,000 bu last week and one year ago. The attorney of the Chicago Board of Trade has rendered an opinion that the proposed amendment to the rules to make No. 3 Corn and Oats deliverable on contracts for No. 3 at a penalty is impracticable, and would be a violation of the warehouse law.

OATS—The market for Oats was unsettled and irregular the past week, but closed with a fair advance. Trade was good selling on all the strong spots and for supporting orders around 39½c for May and 38½c for July. The selling came largely from local interests and from houses who have been fairly well supplied with the "bull" side. There are two sides to the market. There is no concentration of holdings and an aggressive "bear" party who were inclined to think that the large crop would not been considered too high as compared with Corn selling about the same price as the commercial grade. They have a large following and a "short" sentiment to some extent. It is claimed that the market was oversold, resulting in fair rallies on the attempts to cover. May delivery ranged between 39¼@39⅝c, compared with 39⅛@39½c the previous week and 1,279 cars for the same time last year. Export clearances were 88,034 bu, compared with 91,700 bu the previous week and 113,000 bu a year ago. In the visible supply there is an increase of 441,000 bu, and the supply was 10,241,000 bu, against 7,317,000 bu last year. Stocks in public elevators increased 16,358 bu, and are 2,650,090 bu, against 7,713,000 bu, against 2,102,000 bu a year ago. Stocks in public and private elevators increased 548,000 bu, and were 5,501,000 bu.

RYE—The first days of the week there was displayed a decided weakness feeling, but later a stronger tone pervaded and higher prices were paid. May advancing nearly 3c and July 3½c over the closing prices of the week before. Trading was confined to 3c and 4c. Trading has been of a moderate character and confined principally to futures. There was a demand for May, the offerings of which were light, but the best inquiry was for cash lots and advanced to the higher figures. Buyers were unable to purchase and had to bid up sharply, carrying the premium for May over the July delivery 4c to 5c. Offerings for July were fair, but the best market trading was confined to the car lot fresh arrivals, no round lots being inquired for or sold. The fresh arrivals were taken mostly for manufacturing purposes, but some were sold for feed. The receipts were a little smaller than last week, and aggregated 53 cars the previous week. There were no withdrawals from public elevators and one car from private warehouses. Export clearances from the seaboard none Visible supply decreased 116,000 bu and was reported as 1,326,000 bu, against 1,134,000 bu the previous week and 1,047,000 bu one year ago. The local stock in store was 245,000 bu and a year ago was 301,000 bu. No. 2 in store was nominally 68c, and later 69c was bid for No. 2 Fresh sales of No. 2 were made to store at 70@72½c, and free on board at 70@ 72½c. No. 3 fresh arrivals sold at 65@67c. No. 4 sold at 56c. Future deliveries of No. 2 Rye met with moderate and May opened 3c higher and no offerings, later 2½@c, and sold later at 75c and then back to 72c, and closed at 72c. July sold at 70@72c.

BARLEY—The demand for malting Barley was tame during the past week. Maltsters reported ample supplies on hand, that is of the ordinary grades, and the demand was also very much poorer on account of not being able to get malt out on orders as fast as desired. Of choice to fancy Barley they had no surplus, and for such there was a fair demand, but of low grades, however, were in excess hence nothing of consequence doing in them. Ordinary stained malting Barley was dull. Not very much doing in sale, yet a good quantity offered, but few buying. Consignments were placed, but sellers as a rule had to rather yield to the views of buyers. Low grade malting, either that or feed Barley was in fair demand for sale early in the week, was helped later by an export demand. There were reported about 50,000 bu taken here, and a large lot of Barley was reported taken on the Pacific Coast for Russian account. This started a better feeling for feed Barley and brought about le advance. Offerings became small. Dark and musty grades ruled slow and easy and hard to sell first, but taken a little more readily afterward To arrive lots remained neglected; offerings and demand both were small. Damage by fire to a large local malt house affected the demand to the cient of the quantity such a house might desire. Arrivals were smaller than for several weeks, and the supply became light finally. The market closed slow, except that there was a demand for good sweet Minnesota barley. Buyers defined things in preference to mixed with Dakota, because where Barley is mixed it does not mesh so uniformly as when of one kind. Posted prices are in specific in, contract with 350 cars the previous week and 394 cars two weeks ago. There were taken out 9,052 bu. the week before 3,650 bu. and two weeks ago 600 bu. Receipts here and at outports were light, and generally good in condition and color; some nice feed at 49½47½c; other billed sold at 37½39c. Malting—low grade, 41@43c; common, 44@45c. Fair was about 46@47c; good, 46@48c; choice, 52@55c; fancy possibly higher; not offered.

SEEDS—There has not been so good a business in Grass Seeds as the trade has had reason to look for. Inquiry has been a busy time. It however has been a week of all kinds of bad and unseasonable weather Condition which prevailed had the effect of checking orders. Timothy was in good demand for spot sale, but of the other kinds offerings were small. An easy feeling naturally followed at the same time values developed little change. In Flax there was over, and the late quietness and there was a shade easier of sing.

Timothy—The weather was very much against the best interest of the trade in this line of Seed Snow rain and generally bad weather tended to retard spring trade and make demand light. In turn on the regular market there was but a mild inquiry. Buyers were willing to take high grade lots when any were offered; ordinary and common grades at the same time were without special demand. Values were not essentially changed, though the final quotations for contract grade spot and this month's delivery show about a decrease. Receipts were liberal again and slowness of trade caused consignments often to no bad over from one day to another. Output was increased over a week ago, at the same time it fell short of the arrivals and was less than the shipments for the corresponding week last year. Trade at this time should be brisk, but the weather seems to become more spring-like before it can get to where it should be. Cash prices for country lots were not subject to variations, but remained about the same all the week, having a nominal range of $2.55@3.10 per bush for fancy; fair to good, $2.55@2.70; choice, $2.75@2.85; unhulled, clean, bright above, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2.35@2.85; things lower. Contract spot of this month, which was quoted nominally $3.02½@3.05 early and later bills were reduced to $3.00. May was several times quoted as nominally $3.10. September not yet traded in. Thursday's bids of $3.05@3.20. May, nominal for week, with comparisons, was as follows:

Receipts the past week, lbs.	1,871,015
The previous week	1,350,405
Two weeks ago	1,336,566
Same time last year	1,112,130
Shipments the past week, lbs.	1,046,170
The previous week	872,429
Two weeks ago	845,064
Same time last year	1,000,000

Flax—Steadiness prevailed. There was no important change in prices. About 1c advance appeal, followed by a reaction and ½@2c lower closing. Hardly any Flax was offered, usually a car or so daily, and very rarely was anything done in futures, then only small lots. The situation simply was dull and uninteresting, the same as it has been for a long time. There were 106 cars reported received, against 92 cars the week before and 108 cars two weeks ago. Output was 8,607 bu., the previous week 8,093 bu. Sales taken out and two weeks ago 8,138 bu. Some decrease in stocks appeared in the last report. There was no change here, and Duluth gained 100,000 bu. and Minneapolis 97,000 bu., the total making net decrease of 91,000 bu. Chicago reported 18,722 bu. against 57,787 bu last year. Duluth reported 8,381,000 bu. and Minneapolis 1,531,807 bu. No. 1 cash is nominally in range of $1.03½@1.10; closed at $1.08½. No 1 Northwestern or No 1 from the Northwest sold at $1.05@1.06½ usually at $1.16, and finally at $1.14. Rejected was quoted at $1.03@1.09, and closed choice Northwestern. March delivery was nominally $1.03½@1.10; closed at $1.08½. May was $1.11 early and $1.12, a little sold at $1.12; closed at $1.12 asked and $1.11 September was offered at $1.11.

Clover—There was a slightly easier feeling in the Clover market. Output was little changed from a week ago. It indicated a smaller trade than last year. Receipts were about the same. There were no developments at all important, for open markets business was very small. At the close a slight decline was quoted. Future deliveries receive no mention.

Receipts the past week, lbs.	271,012
The previous week	249,163
Two weeks ago	344,263
Same time last year	399,967
Shipments the past week, lbs.	219,000
The previous week	281,000
Two weeks ago	318,000
Corresponding week last year	247,000

Final quotations were as follows: Contract spot and March delivery $11.90. Country lots, common to choice, $8.50@10.75; fancy as over; mixed with Buckwheat or mixed Timothy, 90 lbs. to the bag, poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3.00@5.00. Such lots as usually come to hand when ordinary to good quotable at $7.00@9.00.

Other Seeds—Little was done. There was no increase in offerings, they were small. No change noted in prices for Hungarian or Millet, the feeling was reported as heavy, rather than strong. Output under this head continues light-ish, and it must be that early planting Grass Seeds are going on to a large extent, as is understood, so they came under this head. Arrivals were smaller than of late. Movement for the week was as follows:

Receipts—The past week, lbs.	558,320
A week ago	986,140
Two weeks ago	676,965
Same time last year	1,141,000
Shipments—The past week, lbs.	1,660,675
A week ago	1,170,094
Two weeks ago	1,406,310
Same time last year	481,200

Prices quoted from day to day are in the table elsewhere shown.

Buckwheat was sparingly offered. The season is getting over, and demand subsided somewhat. Some concessions had to be made to cool billing sold at $1.85 and quoted finally at $1.30@1.35.

Rye—The receipts for the week were 3,578 tons, against 4,092 tons the previous week. Shipments for the week were 296 tons, against 538 tons for the previous week. A better feeling existed in this market during the past week than for some time past. The arrivals show quite a falling off and the local demand was more active, especially toward the close of the week. The inquiry for shipment continues very light. Prices during the early part of the week ruled steady, but later advanced 2c@$1.00 per ton, and the market closed firm. Quotations at the close ranged as follows: Choice Timothy, $12.50@13.00; No. 1 Timothy, $11.00@12.00; No. 2 Timothy, $9.00@10.00; No. 3 Timothy, $7.50@8.50; Choice Prairie, $10.00@10.50; No. 1 Prairie, $9.00@9.50; No. 2 Prairie, $8.00@8.50; No. 3 Prairie, $6.50@7.00; No. 4 Prairie, $5.00@5.50.

Prices on Prairie Hay are for State and outside are for Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa. Timothy ranged at $7.00@13.50 for fair to fancy Timothy; $9.50@7.00 for Mixed Hay, and $6.00@10.00 for Upland. Kansas, Nebraska, Dakota and Minnesota Prairie Hay. Rye Straw sold at $9.00@10.0, Wheat Straw at $7.00, and Oat Straw at $7.00.

COOPERAGE—Nothing of consequence doing in Cooperage. Buyers seem aware of the fact. Offerings were moderate, and the demand was limited. Local packers not inclined to purchase, as they have quite a good number packages contracted for on hand, on maturity contracts. Receipts were small. Ash Pork-Barrels were in fair supply, with a moderate demand. Prices ruled lower, and closed at $1.06@1.12½. Oak Pork Barrels were dull and draggy and prices were nominal at $1.10@1.15. Lard Tierces were called for sparingly, and offerings were moderate. Prices ruled lower, and closed nominally at $1.09@1.15. Iron bound Lard Tierces were quoted for sale at $1.20@1.22½ for six hoop and $1.15@1.17½ for eight-hoop.

HOGS—There was a moderate increase in the supply of Hogs during the past week, but not up to general expectations, and the quality was fairly good Market in a general way was moderately active. Packers accepted a fair proportion of the offerings, and shipping trade was represented from the Eastern markets. Early in the week, the feeling was rather firm, and prices were advanced 5@10c on the whole range. Later, the supply was larger, and buyers were a little backward about taking hold. Prices declined 10@15c, and the market closed rather steady. Sales during the week were made at $4.75@5.55 for light, $5.02½@5.45 for rough packing, $5.05@5.55 for mixed, and $5.30@5.70 for heavy packing and shipping lots, with the bulk of the trading within the range of $5.25@5.60 for fair to good averages At the close about 1,000 Hogs remained in the pens unsold Pigs were in fair supply and in rather good demand, and sold at $4.30@5.10, according to size and quality. The receipts of Hogs at the other large Western packing points were fairly liberal, and the quality more suitable to the general wants of the trade.

PACKING—A little more activity was manifested in packing circles during the past week. Hogs were in fair supply, and packers were inclined to purchase and manufacture certain articles of Product. Mess Pork made moderately. Other cuts of Pork made in limited quantities. Lard produced rather freely, and the average yield was a rifle larger. Only a small proportion delivered in tanks. Dampness out of Hogs was fair quantities and only a small prop rtion delivered from the block. Skinned Hams made with a little more freedom, and the bulk packed by manufacturers. Boneless cuts of Hams executed. Shoulders made moderately, and a fair proportion sold from the block to the retail trade Picnic Hams made in fair quantities, and the bulk packed by manufacturers. Long Clear Sides and Extra Long Clear Sides were neglected. Short Clear Sides made in limited quantities. Extra Short Clear Sides cut moderately Short Rib Sides made in fair quantities, and packed by the larger houses. Extra Short Rib Sides made in moderate quantities. Rough Sides made with a little more freedom, and chiefly of medium averages. Bellies made sparingly. Backs cut and made crate quantities. Loins cut in fairly liberal quantities to provide for current requirements. Foreign fancy and special cuts of Meats made sparingly.

PROVISIONS—A fairly good trade in a speculative way was reported in Hog Products during the week just closed. Outside of this there was very little doing in the local trading. There appear to favor the selling side of the market, and "longs" realized on fair quantities. "Shorts" were a little cautious about their ontstanding contracts, and accepted moderate quantities early in week, but toward the close were disposed to enlarge their lines again. Hogs were in moderate supply early in the week, and packers bought freely. Later offerings later a material decline was established This feature had some influence on the market in a general way, but the changes in the grain markets were a much stronger factor and attracted the attention of outside speculators. The general surroundings of the trade were favorable to the "bear" side of the market Hogs were in larger supply in the aggregate, and the packing of the West for the week exhibited an increase of 35,0 0 Hogs compared with the corresponding week in 1903. The advices from abroad were decidedly unfavorable to holders. Receipts of Hogs at points from the interior were fairly liberal, and the shipments were moderately free. Exports for the week were larger of Pork and Meats, and smaller of Lard. Early in the week, there was fair miscellaneous buying, while the demand slackened, and a weak feeling was developed. Prices declined materially all around, and the market in a general way closed quiet and weak at about inside figures Considerable business transacted in the way of transferring contracts from May to July at the current differences. The demand on shipping account was moderate, and the speculative demand was on a limited scale Exporters are virtually out of the market, owing to the dullness abroad. Merchants in the domestic distributing markets are buying in a very conservative way to a very great extent—merely supplying current wants. A few lots were accepted for mid-summer delivery. Offerings were only fair, and sellers were to make concessions in prices Sales were comparatively light. Prices ruled lower on all descriptions, especially on Dry Salted Meats

MESS PORK—Trade in Mess Pork met with fair speculative attention during the past week, and the volume of trading was fairly large An unsettled feeling prevailed, and fluctuations in prices were somewhat irregular and sharp. Quotations ranged from May to July were made at 20@22½c difference. Supply on hand fairly liberal. Early in the week, the market ruled rather firm, with fair miscellaneous buying, and quotations were advanced 25@30c on the whole range This advance tended to enlarge the offerings and demand slackened. The market became unsettled, and prices settled back irregularly $; 00@1.05 and the market closed rather steady at about inside figures. Demand on shipping account was moderate, and offerings were only fair, with sales reported and quotable at about May figures—closing at about $13.25@13.37½. Other cuts of Pork were in moderate demand, and offerings were only fair. Prices rather inclined in favor of buyers, with ample stocks on hand.

Lard—Trade was only moderately active during the past week. Operators confined themselves to small lots, and the call was generally for moderate quantities. Foreign advices decidedly unfavorable to holders Supply on hand is fair, and the distribution is moderate. Offerings were fair, and the demand was not particularly urgent. Some realizing by "longs." Early in the week, the feeling was rather firm, with fair miscellaneous buying, and prices advanced 5@12½c. At the advance there was considerable realizing, especially by holders of small quantities, while the demand was moderate. Prices regularly declined during the whole range, and the market closed rather steady at about inside figures. Transfers of contracts from May to July were made at 15@17½c difference. More doing in July contracts. The demand on shipping account was limited, and the offerings were moderate, as holders have generally sold ahead. A few small lots were accepted at 17½c discount on May figures, and closed at 16.85@6.87½. Reflect the moderate request in small packages, and offerings not very large Prices entirely nominal. Loose lots were in light request and offerings were moderate. Prices nominal at 6@6.12½c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard was in fair request with moderate offerings, and prices ruled lower. Sales were made at $6.37½@6.62½, and closed at 6.37½. Neutral was in small demand and offerings were rather free. Market easier, and prices lower, closing at $7.50@7.62½ for No. 1, and $7.25@7.37½ for No. 2

SHORT RIB SIDES—Considerable interest was manifested in the market for Short Rib Sides during the past week, and trading was fairly active, and mainly on local account. Supply on hand rather liberal Offerings were fairly large, and the demand was moderately active in a general way "Longs" realized on fair quantities. Quite active trading in July, and transferred from May to July at 10@12½c difference. During the early part of the week, the feeling was rather firm, and prices were advanced 12½@15c. At the advance, there was considerably property for sale, while the demand was moderate, and the market weakened Prices irregularly declined 8 @25c on the whole range, and the market closed rather steady at about inside figures. Demand on shipping account was somewhat limited, and there was no particular pressure to sell. At the close, cash lots were quotable at $6.80@6.85c according to weight.

Green Meats—Rather a light business was transacted in Green Meats during the past week. There was no particular pressure to sell, and there were enmaratively few orders from any source. Local curers were not inclined to purchase, and outside orders were limited Holders rather firm in their views, and slow to meet the views of buyers. Hams were in moderate request and prices ruled easier. Skinned Hams were in light demand and prices without material change. Shoulders were in small request and prices 4c lower. Picnic Hams called for sparingly, and prices ruled easier. Bellies quiet and prices nominally unchanged.

Smoked Meats—On y a moderate trade was reported in the market for Smoked Meats during the past week, and the feeling was rather easy Orders were generally for small quantities. A few car load lots were accepted Jobbing trade was fairly good. Stocks of all kinds are fair. Hams were in moderate request and prices ruled easier @½c decline. Skinned Hams in rather light demand and prices ruled ½@1c lower. Shoulders were called for moderately, and prices favored buyers. Picnic Hams were in fair request for small quantities, and prices ruled ½@1c lower. Breakfast Bacon in moderate demand, and prices without material change.

Beef Products—Trade was somewhat limited in the market for Beef Products during the past week, and there were very few changes to note. Orders were comparatively small, and offerings were moderate. Foreign inquiries a little easier, and domestic markets were quiet. Cattle were in fair supply, and prices without material change. Manufactures of Products was only fair. Shipments reported viewed Beef were rather light. Hams were in moderate demand and prices were unchanged Extra Mess Beef in fair request and prices well supported. Plate Beef in rather light request and steady Extra Plate Beef quiet at former figures. Tallow dull and draggy. Offerings were fair, and the demand was rather light. Prices ruled lower on all grades. Oleo-Stearine quiet and slow sale at 6¾@7c.

Greases—Trade was moderate in the market for Greases and the feeling was weak. Offerings were only fair, and the demand was on a moderate scale. Prices ruled about ½@¾c lower on all grades, and the market closed rather easy.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows no moisture in Kansas, Oklahoma or Texas. There are light general snows in Manitoba, and in Dakotas and Minnesota, and traces of rain generally through Iowa and in Northern Illinois. There is not much precipitation anywhere and none where it is needed. Temperatures seasonable although some lower in the extreme North.

Indications are for cloudy weather. The storm on the lakes will disappear. The Pacific Coast storm will cause unsettled conditions as far east as Missouri Valley.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The Corn Products Company has advanced the price of Glucose and Grape Sugar 25c per 100 lbs.

A large portion of the Patson oil field in Hardin County, Texas, was burned over, Wednesday. Loss $50,000.

Fire Thursday, at San Angelo, Texas, destroyed business property valued at $20,000; insurance, $100,000.

The Hecker-Jones Jewel Milling Company has declared a dividend of 3 per cent on its preferred stock, payable March 31. Books close March 26 and reopen April 1.

The Trust Company of America has declared a quarterly dividend of 2 per cent, payable April 1. Books close March 21 and reopen April 1.

The Buffalo and Susquehanna Railroad Company has declared its regular quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent on common stock, payable April 1.

The American Woolen Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on its preferred stock, payable April 15 to stock of record April 1.

The 1903 expenditures of the United States Steel Corporation for improvements and extraordinary replacements were $12,939,777, distributed generally among all the subsidiary plants.

At a joint meeting of the Ohio Coal Traffic Association and Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio Coal Traffic Association it was decided to refuse the appeal of Coal dealers and others for reduced rates on Coal and other articles of commerce.

Ninety railroads reporting for January show a decrease of 4.3 per cent in gross earnings, as compared with those in the month last year and a decrease of 24 per cent in net. For seven months the same roads report an increase of 8.3 per cent in gross and 4.7 per cent in net.

The Missouri and Kansas Telephone Company (an American Telephone and Telegraph licensee) reports that from the net earnings of $264,077 for the year 1903, dividends of $180,174 were declared, being at the rate of 6 per cent. Interest charges are included in operating expenses. The surplus after dividends for the year was $64,902.

Traffic officials of the Western roads, unable to reach an agreement on Sugar rates in Chicago, have decided to go to New Orleans, March 23, and discuss the matter further there. The consent and adhesion of a number of interests centering in New Orleans are necessary to any arrangement that might be reached regarding a restoration of rates.

An official of the Illinois Steel Company says the company has not a domestic order for Steel rails on its books under $28.00 a ton. Reports that reductions are being made or rebates paid on large contracts are denounced as false. Such a policy, the official says, would mean disruption of the rail pool, which has held together only by strict adherence to firm prices.

A receiver was appointed, Wednesday, for the International Packing Company, Chicago. It was made on application of H. O. Slaughter, W. A. White, Gus A. Bluhm, and the Hibernian Bank. They hold $100,000 of the bonds, and refused to assent to the liquidating committee's plans in selling the company's assets. The National Packing is also enjoined from buying its assets.

Sales of pig Iron in the Chicago district this week are expected to approximate 50,000 tons, some lots being as much as 3,000 tons and 5,000 tons. Buying is for delivery for the second quarter, and there is said to be considerable demand for the third quarter at current prices, but little of the latter business is being closed, which denotes firm belief on the part of both buyers and sellers that prices will be higher.

The annual meeting of the Texas and Pacific Railway Company was held in New York, Wednesday. The annual report showed that the gross earnings of the company were $12,094,744, against $11,236,601 the previous year, and the net earnings were $1,508,039, against $3,481,311 for 1902. In his report President George J. Gould says that the Cotton crop will be large this year and that the road will profit by the St. Louis exposition.

In view of the fact that the vote of the Justices of the Supreme Court in the Northern Securities suit was five to four against the merger, it is of interest to know at this time that when the organizers of the holding company agreed upon the plan, now found to be illegal, the court of five corporation lawyers in the service of the promoters at the time of the Northern Securities merger stood three to two for the legality of the plan.

The Indianapolis correspondent of the Northwestern Miller says: "While many complaints regarding the growing Wheat are in circulation, originating principally from farmers and professional crop killers, the situation is by no means alarming, and there is plenty of time between now and harvest for the plant to regain its lost ground, and the chances are that we shall have an average crop in the northern portion of the Ohio Valley."

Dornbusch's Buda Pesth correspondent, writing under date of March 5, says: "The Flour market has this week again been extremely dull, without any business worth mentioning. The milling establishments have been absolutely out of the market, any sales made being from second hands. Deliveries on old contracts have been fairly good. No foreign buying orders have been received. Mill feeding stuffs are rather easier, notwithstanding attenuated stocks."

The Paris Petit Journal publishes an estimate of stocks of Wheat in farmers' hands in France on March 1, which it places at 144,000,000 bu, while the consumption from March 1 to July 31 is estimated at 121,000,000 bu, so that, with the probability of 2,800,000 bu being imported in the next five months, the season promises to close with stocks amounting to 22,800,000 bu in farmers' hands. Last year a similar calculation showed only about 12,000,000 bu in farmers' hands on Aug. 1.

The San Francisco correspondent of the Northwestern Miller says: "The prospects for the new Grain crop have been greatly improved during the last two weeks. Every section of the State has received heavy rains and no more are now needed for several weeks. All through the northern and central sections of the State the crop has a fine start and in the south the young plant is coming up rapidly. The Wheat acreage is about the same as last year, while the Barley acreage has been considerably increased."

The Lake Street Elevated Railroad Company, Chicago, reorganization plan is ready to be carried out. The securities committee held a meeting, Thursday, and decided to call at once for assessments on the stock. Holders of Lake Street stock receipts are expected to pay in $2.00 a share to the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank before April 2. They will receive the new securities under the reorganization plan about April 10. The exchange of the other securities will probably take place about the same date.

A train load of thirty-three cars of Peanuts left Suffolk, Va., this week via the Norfolk and Western for Chicago. This is the largest consignment of Peanuts ever made from the Virginia Peanut section, of which Suffolk is the center. The train is beautifully bannered and has been used as quite an advertisement for the Virginia Peanut shipping section, as well as calling attention to the fact that the nuts were shipped from Suffolk. The train carries about 8,200 sacks of Peanuts, estimated weight about 900,000 lbs, making the contents worth nearly $50,000.

The Portland, Ore., correspondent of the Northwestern Miller says: "A long-continued downpour of rain all over the Pacific Northwest is interfering with spring seeding and unless there is some sunshine in the near future the crop will be later than usual. The high prices have induced farmers to make extensive preparations for a very large acreage, and with anything like favorable weather conditions the spring acreage will reach record proportions. In the Willamette Valley there will be but little spring sowing, and the fall Grain has come through the winter in excellent shape."

A dispatch from Washington says: "The first Trust hunt of the Bureau of Corporations of the Department of Commerce and Labor will begin on Monday. The Beef Trust has been selected by Commissioner Garfield and Secretary Cortelyou as the corporation to be investigated. Special agents will leave here to-morrow to collect information regarding the methods used by the big packing houses of Chicago, Omaha, St. Joseph and other places. In addition to an investigation of the methods of the Trust these agents will see and talk with the Cattle raisers in order that the chain may be complete."

A Berlin dispatch says: "The Coal syndicate is proceeding hand in hand with the recently organized Steel syndicate. The Cologne Gazette says that a meeting of the Coal syndicate adopted a resolution not to grant a drawback on Coal used by the independent Steel works in making Steel for export. The effect will be to give the Steel syndicate ability to outbid the independents in the world's markets. It is believed the syndicate will use this advantage to compel the independents to join the syndicate. According to the latest reports the latter make only 16½ per cent of the Steel produced in Germany."

The Mark Lane Express of March 7 says: "The following is our weather record so far as the year has gone. It cannot be said to be very encouraging:

	Rain. Inches.	Sunshine. Hours.	Temperature. Degrees.
January	2.43	15	41.2?
February	3.08	39	40.?0

The averages for February are: Rain, about two inches; sun, about 47 hours; temperature, a little over 39 degrees. Last year February had only 1.1? inches of rain; there were 54 hours sun, and the temperature was 45.50 degrees. The worst sign about February, 1904, is its temperature being lower from January and its rainfall higher. The sunny hours, though few enough, are a substantial advance on January. Since March came in the days have had a mean temperature two degrees below the average in cold."

Texas Railroad Commissioners are preparing a case against the Rock Island and Southern Pacific roads and will ask Attorney General Knox to proceed against the railroads under the Sherman anti-trust act, according to report, Thursday. It is stated that the Attorney General would be asked to urge the Northern Securities decision in support of the prosecution. The Commissioners contend that both roads come within the decision of the Supreme Court in their control and ownership of parallel and competing lines in the State of Texas, and are preparing to ask that the law be enforced against the roads. That the franchises of some of the branch roads referred to have been forfeited is the contention of the commissioners, and they will apply to the courts to have their findings in that matter enforced. A Rock Island official in New York, commenting on this threatened action, declared his belief that there was no chance of government action against his company.

After a trial lasting less than a week the Rock Island Railroad has decided to withdraw its so-called cartage tariff recently issued. The tariff allowed shippers and merchants in Chicago a rebate of 3c on 100 lbs for the hauling of general freight from warehouses to the company's freight depot. The withdrawal, it is said, was the result of fear of threatened reprisals by roads most affected by the rebate. When the cartage tariff was announced by the Rock Island several Western roads declared war, and, in retaliation, one road prepared a tariff making a cartage allowance of 6c maximum. Reduction of the regular rates to equalize the tariff allowance was another plan threatened by rival roads, which insisted that an allowance of an indefinite amount was practically paying a rebate to shippers and merchants, and if complaints were entered the practice would be declared a violation of the inter-State commerce law. Declaring that such action of the Rock Island amounted practically to store door delivery, one official said the matter had been proved impractical twenty years ago when the matter was fought out in Chicago.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

New York Exchange 25c premium.

Documentary Sterling firm at 483¾.

Chicago Bank Clearings to-day $28,171,376.

Continental Wheat stocks on the reverse page.

Spain has reduced the import duty on Wheat 8c per bu., making it 40½c.

Minneapolis wired: "The Flour mills will probably shut down Thursday."

The estimated receipts of Grain for to-morrow were not compiled to-day. Hogs, 28,000.

The receipts of Lard and Meats reported to-day were somewhat in excess of the shipments.

Nine packers purchased 22,800 Hogs to-day; shippers, 11,000; left over 6 000. Market closed steady.

Reported that 48,000 bu Wheat and 21,000 bu Corn were taken at the seaboard to-day for export.

The packing at Milwaukee since March 1 is estimated at 29,565 Hogs, against 26,588 for the corresponding time in 1903.

Rosario cabled: "During the night rainfall general and will do much harm. Every appearance of present weather lasting."

The Rock Island Railway Company's special meeting at Davenport to-day is expected to ratify the plan for blanket mortgage of $160 000,000.

The quantity of Flour and Wheat on passage to Europe during the past week increased 1,224,000 bu, and the quantity of Corn increased 328,000 bu.

The break of 9-16 to 10-16 in Consols to-day is due to the placing of the new Irish land loan of $125,000,000, and not to new foreign complications.

Exports of Flax Seed from India the past week were 208,000 bu, compared with 248,000 bu for the week previous, and 296,000 bu for the corresponding week in 1903.

The average weight of the Hogs received at Chicago last week was 206 lbs, against 210 lbs the previous week, 217 lbs the corresponding week in 1903, and 217 lbs in 1902.

Local Securities were stronger and higher, with trading moderate. There were good gains in Edison, Swifts and Illinois Brick common, and declines in Metropolitan Elevated preferred and Pneumatic Tool.

On the reverse page will be found the detailed report of the visible supply of Grain. Compared with the previous week there were decreases of 471,000 bu Wheat, 356,000 bu Corn, 4,000 bu Oats, 76,000 bu Rye and 84,000 bu Barley.

Broomhall cables: "Very few of the Argentine shippers are offering Wheat. This, with the closing strength of American markets, caused an opening gain of ¼d. On the publication of world's shipments, an easier feeling followed."

A Kansas City telegram says: "Reports received from all parts of the Kansas Wheat belt show that Sunday's heavy rainfall was general. Santa Fe headquarters at Topeka have advices that Wheat everywhere is in good condition."

Stocks of Wheat in public warehouses in Liverpool reported at 1,960,000 bu, against 1,904,000 bu one week ago and 2,184,000 bu one year ago. Stocks of Corn reported at 754 000 bu, against 738,000 bu one week ago, and 104,000 bu last year.

Cotton advanced in sympathy with Liverpool, which closed 21 to 22 points higher, and on buying by the mills. Receipts were small. Prices moved up materially, but failed to hold the best prices. Closing figures were 25@35 points higher.

The Rock Island Railroad's crop report says: "There is hardly a spot in the Winter Wheat belt served by this system which has not been visited by rain. The greater part of the crop could now withstand a dry spell throughout the month of April."

The death of CHARLES COUNSELMAN, Esq., of the firm Counselman & Co., was announced on 'Change to-day. Mr. Counselman was a member of the Board of Trade for about 35 years, and of late years was connected with the elevator interests at Chicago and South Chicago.

East-bound rail shipments from Chicago and Chicago junction points compare as follows:

	Flour, brls	Grain, bu.	Prov., tons.
Past week	232,694	2,587 000	25,584
Previous week	214 953	2 071,000	26 781
Last year	183,653	3 047,000	21,688

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago, Saturday, was $5 21, against $5 28 Friday, $5 44 a week ago and $7 19 a year ago. Average cost price for the week, $5 36, against $5 45 the previous week, $7 35 a year ago, $6 41 two years ago, $5 70 three years ago, $5 00 four years ago, and $3 80 five years ago.

Broomhall cables say: "Fears in regard to condition of American Corn shipments resulted in initial advance of ¼d in Corn. Speculative offerings very scarce, but toward noon market eased off with Wheat. Some politicians in United Kingdom are talking of reimposing the import duty on cereals, but it is not likely to be done."

Stocks in New York made good advances in the morning, but yielded, and closing sales were on an irregular market, with about as many losses as advances. London bought at the start, but sold later. Commission houses had fair buying orders. Crop news from the West was more favorable. Selling by the "bears" and for profits turned prices downward and proved too much for the buying power. Money 1½@1¾ per cent.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Demand indifferent, owing to action of Wheat. Buyers expect concessions.

WINTER WHEAT—The market was ½@1c lower for grade lots in store, but rather steady for fresh arrivals of choice Wheat. Milling demand fair. No. 2 Red in store was nominally 92½@95¼c and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 97c@$1 00. No. 3 Red fresh receipts sold at 98c, and ranged at 95@98c. No. 2 Hard local fresh receipts quotable at 90@94c. No. 3 Hard local sold at 88@89c, and ranged at 85@91c—outside for choice. No. 4 Hard sold at 81c.

SPRING WHEAT—Met with a good milling demand and sales of 25,000 bu of No. 3 besides a number of car lots were reported. There were other transactions which were not made public. Prices ½@1c lower for in store grade Wheat also steady for fresh arrivals. No. 1 Northern in store ranged at 90½@93¼c and fresh arrivals quotable at 95@98c. No. 3 Spring closed at 93c and ranged at 85@94c. No. 4 sold 69@80c and quotable at 60@90c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—A good trade with liquidation the chief feature, lower prices being established, the close being 1¼c lower for the May, 1⅛c off for the July and 1¼c for the September. Many stop-loss orders were uncovered on the decline, adding to the depression. The market started lower on the rains, liberal Northwest receipts and indifferent cables. Support for a time was indifferent. British consols declined 9-16, which with the decrease in the visible caused a moderate reaction and rather better tone. Minneapolis news was "bearish," and it was rumored the mills would close down on Thursday. Receipts in the Northwest were 156 cars ahead of last year and total primary movement 215,000 bu larger. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ½d lower and futures ¼@⅜d lower. Stocks there 1,960,000 bu increased 56,000 bu last week; stocks a year ago 2,184,000 bu. London steady to ⅛d lower. Paris was ¾@1¼c higher. Antwerp unchanged. World's shipments were 10,584 000 bu, against 9,192,000 bu the previous week and 9,476,000 bu corresponding week one year ago. The quantity on ocean passage increased 1,221 000 bu, and is now 42,560,000 bu, compared with 31 024,000 bu in 1903. The visible decreased 471,000 bu, against 1 011,000 bu decrease same week in 1903. Total is now reported 32,925,000 bu, against 45,055,000 bu in 1903 and 50,948,000 bu in 1902. Local public stocks decreased 61,000 bu, to 2,796 000 bu, against 7,742,000 bu same date last year. Cloudy cooler weather was predicted for Kansas and Nebraska; showers and warmer for Illinois, Indiana, Missouri and Iowa. Liverpool cabled that Spain had reduced the import duty on Wheat equal to 8c. Topeka wired that the Kansas Agricultural Department claimed that the recent rains greatly benefited Wheat and that the plant is taking on fine new growth. The decline in Consols was said to simply reflect the effect of the Irish loan. Kansas City and St. Louis received 116 000 bu; last year 85,000 bu; shipments 200,000 bu. Exports moderate and 6 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Berlin ⅛d lower and Buda Pest was ⅛c higher. Receipts at Duluth 42 cars and at Minneapolis 504 cars, a total of 546 cars, against 316 cars Saturday, 625 cars a week ago, and 300 cars last year. Local receipts included 10 cars Winter, 17 cars Spring and 2 cars mixed, a total of 29 cars, against 29 cars last year. Included in the above was no cars of contract grade. There were 29 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow not reported. Withdrawals were 29,800 bu. Receipts at Western points were 716,194 bu, against 501,385 bu last year. At Eastern points 84,101 bu, against 61,354 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 316 468 bu, against 160,595 bu last year, and from Eastern points 161,749 bu, against 121,997 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 36 434 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 328,711 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Good trade at lower prices.

MARCH—Was entirely nominal and the closing was about 91½@92c.

MAY—Sold at 91@93¼c. Opened with sales at 92⅛c to 93⅛c; sold to 93¼c, to 91c, to 92⅛c, to 91½c, to 92½c, to 91⅝c, to 91¾c, to 92c, and closed at 92c.

JULY—Old Style—Sold at 86⅝@88⅜c. Opened with sales at 88⅛c to 88⅜c; sold to 87⅞c, to 88@88⅛c, to 87¾c, to 88c, to 87c, to 87⅛c, to 86¾c, to 87⅛c, to 86⅞c, to 87⅜c to 86⅞c, to 87¼c, to 86⅝c, to 87¼c, to 87c, to 87½c, to 87¼c, to 87½c, to 87⅜c, and closed at 87⅛c bid.

JULY—New Style—Sold at 85⅛@87¼c. Opened at 87¼c to 87c; sold to 86¾c, to 87c, to 86¼c, to 87c, to 86⅛c, to 86¼c, to 85½c, to 86c, to 85¾c, to 86½c, to 85⅞c, to 86¼c, to 85⅝c, to 86¼c, to 86c, to 86⅛c, and closed at 86⅛c bid.

SEPTEMBER—Old Style—Sold at 80¾@81⅞c. Opened with sales at 81⅞c to 81⅝c; sold to 81¼c, to 80⅞c, to 81½c, to 80¾c, to 81½c, and closed at 81½c.

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 79¾@81c. Opened with sales at 81c to 80⅝c; sold to 81¼c, to 80⅝c, to 79⅞c, to 80⅛c, to 79¾c, to 80½c, to 79¾c, to 80⅜c, to 80¼c, to 80⅜c, and closed at 80⅜c.

CORN—Was fairly active and decidedly nervous, with final figures ⅛c lower for the May, while the July lost ⅜c. Local temper leaned to the "bear" side at the start owing to the weakness in Wheat and lower prices were established. At the decline "shorts" took hold freely and the commission house demand improved, the offerings being well taken, and the situation became stronger. The wet weather, small receipts and firm cables were among the "bull" helps. The visible supply decreased 356,000 bu, compared with 175,000 bu decrease one year ago. The total is now reported at 9,511,000 bu, against 10,637,000 bu in 1903 and 9,168,000 bu in 1902. Local public stocks increased 314,000 bu and are now 3,491,000 bu, compared with 4,000,000 bu same date in 1903. Liverpool quoted futures up ⅛d, and the strength was said to be due to fears as to the condition of American cargoes in transit. Spot was ¼@½d lower. Stocks there, 754 000 bu, increased 16,000 bu last week. Stock the corresponding date year ago, 104,000 bu. World's shipments were 3,751 000 bu, against 3,776,000 bu the previous week and 4,061,000 bu in 1903. The quantity on ocean passage increased 320 000 bu to 11,392,000 bu, compared with 12 220 000 bu same date last year. Western receipts 505,000 bu; last year 518,000 bu. Shipments 290 000 bu and 325,000 bu respectively. Local arrivals 203,000 bu and shipments 91,000 bu. Exports 243,000 bu; last year 767,000 bu, and 4 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Receipts 195 cars, compared with 122 cars same day in 1903. Transfers from private to public elevators 15,400 bu and 88 cars. St. Louis was steady and Kansas City easy. Many operators inclined to act cautiously until after to-morrow's vote. Further rains and unfavorable conditions were reported in Argentina. Shipping demand moderate and sales 40,000 bu. Car lots were weak to 1c lower. Offerings liberal and demand fair. No. 2 closed at 51¼c and No. 2 Yellow at 52¼c. No. 3 closed at 43@50¾c. No. 3 Yellow sold at 45c and closed at 45@51¼c. No. 4 sold at 42c.

Corn by sample—The demand was fair, with offerings liberal. Feeling weaker and prices unchanged to 1c lower. Sales on track and free on board. No Grade sold at 38@41½c. No. 4 at 41@50c. No. 3 at 43@52c. No. 3 Yellow at 45¾@46c. No. 2 at 52@52½c. No. 2 Yellow at 52½@53½c. No. 3 White at 43@43¾c. No. 2 White at 52½@54c. Billed through. No. 4 at 41@43c. No. 3 at 41@44½c. No. 3 Yellow at 44@49c. No. 2 at 52¼@52½c. No. 3 White at 41@41¾c. No. 2 White at 52½c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Active and very unsettled and closed ⅛c to ⅜@½c lower.

MARCH—Inactive and closed at 50¾c.

MAY—Sold at 51⅞c and 53@53⅛c. Opened at 53c to 52¾c and sold to 53c, to 52½@52⅝c, to 53@53⅛c, to 52⅛c, to 52¾c, to 53c, to 52⅝c, to 52½c, to 52⅞c, to 52½c, to 53@53⅛c, off to 51⅞c, up to 52¾c, and closed at 52¾c asked.

JULY—Sold at 49⅞c and 50¾@50⅞c. Opened at 50⅝c to 50⅜c and sold at 50½@50⅝c, to 50¾c, to 50⅜c, to 50¼c, to 50⅛c, to 50¾c, to 50⅝c, to 50¾@50⅞c to 50½c, to 50⅝c, to 49⅞c, to 50⅜c, to 50¼@50⅜c, and closed at 50¼@50⅜c asked.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 49¼@50⅛c. Opened at 49⅞c to 50c, and sold at 49¾@49⅞c, to 50c, to 49⅞c, to 50c, to 49½c, to 49⅝c, to 49½c, to 50c, to 49⅝c, to 50⅛c, to 49¾c, to 50c, to 49¼c, to 49⅝c, to 49½@49⅝c, and closed at 49½@49⅝c bid.

OATS—Were traded in moderately and prices averaged lower. At the bottom figures prices were ¼@½c under Saturday's close, but at the last were only off ⅛@¼c. There were no significant features to the operations or to the statistics. Local stocks increased 153,000 bu and are 3,049,000 bu in public houses. The visible supply decreased 4 000 bu, against 135,000 bu last year. Arrivals were 233 cars. There was 4,300 bu and 41 cars Standard withdrawn from private elevators. Seaboard clearances were 25,000 bu. Cash sales were 30 000 bu. Car lots to go to store were steady to 1c lower. No. 3 White sold at 41c. Standard at 42c. Standard in store closed about 40¼@39¾c.

Oats by sample were slow and 1c lower for poor and common lots, and steady with a moderate call for good. Sales on track and free on board. No. 4 at 34@32c. No. 4 White at 35@42c. No. 3 at 34@39¼c. No. 3 White at 40@42¼c. Standard at 42½@43½c. No. 2 at 39½c. Billed through. No. 4 White at 37@40½c. No. 3 White at 30½@42c. Standard at 41@43c. No. 2 at 39½c. At the river. No. 4 at 37½c. No. 4 White at 30@39c. No. 3 White at 39@40c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were easier with moderate trading.

MARCH—Dull. Closed about 39¼c.

MAY—Unsettled. Sold at 39⅝@39¾c and at 40¼@40⅜c. Opened at 40c, sold to 40¼@40⅜c, to 39⅝c, to 40c at close.

JULY—Fairly active. Sold at 38¾@39c. Opened at 38¾c, sold to 39c, to 38¾c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 33⅛@33⅜c. Opened at 33¼c to 33⅜c, sold to 33⅛c, to 33⅛@33¼c at close.

RYE—Was quiet and easy. Trading confined to a few car lots of fresh arrivals. Nothing doing in futures. Offerings moderate. The receipts were 13 cars. The visible supply decreased 76 000 bu and local stock increased 7,000 bu. No. 2 in store round lots nominally 70c and fresh arrivals free on board sold at 70@70¼c. No. 3 sold to go to store at 65½c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet. March nominally 70c. May 72c sellers. July 69c sellers.

BARLEY—Demand to-day from all sources was very light. Maltsters did not seem to care to purchase, except it was a little of good quality, and that was scarce. Ordinary and low grade malting was dragging. Feed buyers and mixers wanted very little to-day. Screenings and low grade Barley were very slow. Supply fair of goods within these grades, and a good many cars were carried over. The day was very dark, and it got so that buyers found it almost useless finally to offer samples and they put them away, hoping another day would bring with it conditions more favorable for selling. High grade Barley steady, and all below that easy. Sixty-six cars came in. There was a small decrease in visible, which, however, remains liberal. No change in local stock. Screenings were dull and easy, with a quotable range of 30@41c for poor to very choice. Barley, feed or mixing, 38@40c local, depending on soundness and color, but market little better than nominal. Malting—low grade, 41@42c; common, 43@44c. Fair was about 45@47c; good, 48@50c; choice, 52@55c; fancy possibly higher.

SEEDS—An easy feeling pervaded the entire market. Timothy, Clover and Flax prices exhibited more or less depreciation, and the outside quotation for Clover was lowered a trifle. Demand in every case was exceedingly tame.

Timothy—There was little or no market. About 10 cars appeared on sale and only 22 bags were reported sold. Buyers did not care to take hold. Seed has been going out slowly; bad weather has hampered the railroads. Distributors were said to be crowded for room. Orders also reported as light. The general situation seemed to be unfavorable. There were obstacles in the way of output and demand, but none apparently in the way of arrivals and offerings. Cash values nominal in the main and quotably at least 10c lower; futures entirely nominal, also easier. Country lots quotable over a range of $2 00@3 00 for poor to very fancy; fair to good, $2 40@2 50; choice, $2 60@2 70; unhulled, clean, bright above, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 25@2 30. March, April and May deliveries, contract Seed, nominally $3 00. September was called about $3 10.

Flax—Easiness coupled with a dull, quiet market were the features developed. About ½c decline in prices appears. Little was done. Local movement was 11 cars or 7,350 bu received, and 2 cars or 1 667 bu taken out. Minneapolis got 56 cars and Duluth 51 cars. There was no change in local stock since a week ago; it remains at 18,722 bu; the same time last year it was 71,131 bu. No. 1 Northwestern sold sparingly at $1 13. No. 1 was quotable at $1 07½ bid. Rejected nominal at $1 03@1 07, outside for choice from the Northwest. March was nominally $1 07½. May delivery $1 10 bid and $1 10½ asked. September nominal at $1 17.

Clover—There was quoted about 25c decline in prices. Market dull and weak. The weather continues unfavorable. Advices from all points were discouraging in tone. Contract spot and March delivery $10 50 asked. Country lots, common to choice, $8 00@10 25; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $7 50@8 75; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 75.

HOG PRODUCTS—An active speculative business was transacted in Hog Products, and the feeling was unsettled. Outside orders were moderately free, and mainly on the selling side, while local trading was rather active. Hogs were in good supply and lower, and the Grain markets were easier. "Longs" were anxious to realize. "Shorts" accepted fair quantities around inside figures. Market opened rather steady, but after a few buying orders were provided for, there was considerable pressure to sell, and a weak feeling was developed. Prices declined materially on all the leading articles. At the reduction there was fair miscellaneous buying, and prices rallied considerably, and the market closed rather steady at nearly outside figures. "Stop-loss orders" added somewhat to the depression. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 83,000, compared with 80,200 one year ago. Foreign markets indicate a quiet feeling in Meats, and Backs were 6d lower. Lard was firmer, and prices were quoted 9d higher. Domestic markets were comparatively steady. Receipts of Products were quite large—of Lard and Meats about 61 cars. Shipments were very light—of Lard and Meats about 60 cars. Shipping demand was light, and offerings were small. Sales were limited, and prices favored buyers. Exports for the week, compared with the corresponding week in 1903, exhibited increases of 410 brls Pork, 1,552,000 lbs Lard, and 1,6 2 boxes Meats.

Mess Pork—Quite a good business was reported in Mess Pork, and the market was unsettled. Offerings were rather free, and the demand was moderately active. Prices ruled irregular. Market opened rather steady at 2½@5c advance, but a weak feeling was soon developed and prices irregularly receded 30@35c. At the reduction "shorts" were inclined to purchase and prices rallied 20@25c but receded again 5@7½c, and the market closed rather steady. Shipping demand was light and offerings were small. Cash lots were quotable at $13 00@13 12½.

MAY—In fairly good request and offerings were rather free. Sales were made at $12 87½@13 22½. Opened at $13 20, sold to $13 17½, to $13 22½, to $13 02½@13 05, to $13 10, to $13 12½, to $12 90, to $12 95, $12 87½, to $12 97½, to $12 90, to $13 00, to $12 97½ to $13 12½, to $13 00, to $13 15, to $13 10, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were rather liberal, and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $13 07½@13 45. Opened at $13 40 to $13 45, sold to $13 40, to $13 42½, to $13 25, to $13 27½, to $13 12½, to $13 15, to $13 10, to $13 15, to $13 07½, to $13 32½, to $13 25, to $13 27½, to $13 17½, to $13 35, to $13 30, and closed steady.

Lard—A fairly good business was reported in the Lard market, and the feeling was unsettled. Offerings were fairly liberal, and the demand was moderately active. Foreign advices were more favorable to holders. Market opened rather steady, but a weak feeling was developed and prices receded 10@12½c on the whole range. Later there was fair miscellaneous buying, and prices rallied 7½@10c, and the market closed rather steady. Demand on shipping account light and offerings moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6 75@6 77½. Loose lots called for sparingly and offerings were rather light. Prices were steady at about 10 discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in small request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably steady at $6 25. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $7 50@7 62½ for No. 1, and $7 25@7 37½ for No. 2.

MAY—Demand was fair, and offerings were moderately free. Sales ranged at $6 8 @6 97½. Opened at $6 97½, sold to $6 85@6 87½, to $6 9 , to $6 87, to $6 92½, to $6 87½, to $6 9 , to $6 92½, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were rather free, and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $7 00@7 12½. Opened at $7 10 to $7 12½, sold to $7 07½, to $7 10, to $7 05, to $7 07½, to $7 00, to $7 10, to $7 05, to $7 12½, to $7 10, and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—Trade was quite active in the market for Short Rib Sides, and the feeling was somewhat unsettled. Offerings were moderately free and the demand was fair. More trading in July. "Shorts" bought moderate quantities. Market opened rather easy, and prices receded 5@7½c, which was followed by a further reduction of 15@17½c, with rather an active business at the receding scale. At the decline the demand improved, and prices rallied 12½@15c, and the market closed comparatively steady. Shipping demand was rather light and offerings were small. Cash lots were quotable at $6 50@6 62½, according to weight.

MAY—In fair request and offerings were moderately free. Sales were made at $6 65@6 82½. Opened at $6 77½, sold to $6 82½, to $6 70, to $6 72½, to $6 65, to $6 75, to $6 72½, to $6 80, to $6 77½, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were rather liberal, and the demand was quite active. Sales were made at $6 80@6 97½. Opened at $6 92½@6 95, sold to $6 95@6 97½, to $6 85, to $6 90, to $6 80, to $6 85, to $6 92½, to $6 90, to $6 87½, to $6 90, to $6 87½, to $6 95, to $6 90, $6 92½, and closed steady.

Other Meats—Trade was somewhat limited and the feeling rather steady. Offerings were only fair. Demand was moderate for the home trade. Export inquiry very limited. Green Meats were in fair supply and rather light demand, and prices ruled steady. Pickled Meats were in moderate request to fill limited orders and prices were unchanged. Dry Salted Meats were in fair demand in a quiet way and prices ruled easier. Smoked Meats called for in fair quantities, especially in a jobbing way, and prices favored buyers. Closing ranged as follows:

CROPS IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

[From Broomhall's Corn Trade News, March 8.]

United Kingdom—To day the weather is much milder after a night of rain, but wintry conditions have generally prevailed since last Tuesday, although the frost was of short duration. Very little seeding has yet been done, except in favored localities, and, generally speaking, agricultural reports for this country tell of gloomy prospects. There is no better news of our Wheat crop; the autumn seedings are decidedly patchy, and we cannot expect the spring seeding will give anything but a small addition to the area, although we have seen at least one report which mentioned recent sowing of Wheat.

Russia—There has been a return of winter in the South. Fortunately, the frost was accompanied by snow over a great extent of the country, but some districts missed the protective covering and where this happened some anxiety is felt. The export movement is well maintained and good quantities seem likely to be forthcoming in the future, for Azoff ports are already collecting fair stocks against the reopening of navigation.

Roumania—The crops have had a good cover of snow during recent frosty weather and the cold was not severe. Interior holders of Grain are very firm, only small quantities are arriving at the ports and shipments are likewise small.

Bulgaria Our correspondents at Varna write that the crops so far are progressing favorably.

Austria-Hungary—The weather last week was rather spring-like—there are no complaints about the crops. Millers at Buda Pesth hold large stocks and complain of a poor sale for Flour.

Argentina—Heavy rains are reported, which are unfavorable for the ripening Corn crop. The railway strike was yesterday reported to be settled, and, although this has not been confirmed to-day, it is said that the situation has somewhat improved. Shipments last week were again large, but the quantities must fall off soon unless the strike is ended, or rendered ineffective by the engagement of fresh workers.

Australasia—Further rains are reported from Australia, and it is evident there will be no lack of moisture to give the new crops a start. Shipments last week were smaller, but still liberal.

India—The second official report for the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh mentions slight damage to Wheat by rust; the condition is given as 80 to 85 per cent of a normal crop. There have been further heavy rains in Central and United Provinces, which have somewhat damaged the crops.

France—The improvement in the weather, mentioned last week, has been maintained and crop conditions are considered favorable. Offers on country markets have been larger, but not abundant, and prices have dropped about 1s per quarter.

Germany—The recent frost has left its mark on the Winter Wheat crop, but there are no complaints worth mentioning. Prospects for spring seeding are fairly good, for the frost, with easterly winds, has put the land in good condition. Native Wheat has been more freely offered.

North Africa—The crops in Tunis and Algeria continue to look well.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Some rain in Southeastern Kansas, .40 inch at Wichita and .50 at Kansas City. The map this morning shows .90 at Wichita and .44 at Kansas City. There were light rains in Oklahoma and Texas yesterday. The map this morning shows rains in Missouri, Illinois, Iowa and Eastern Nebraska. There are rains all over the Ohio Valley.

There were general rains in California on the Sunday map. There were general snows in Manitoba, Dakotas and Minnesota. Temperatures are about seasonable.

Indications are that the storm will continue its movement east, with general rains and moderate temperatures. Rain, probably turning to snow, in the Northwest.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

No. 1 Mill of the Fitchburg, Mass., Paper Company was gutted by fire Friday. Loss, about $60,000.

At Beaumont, Texas, Friday, fire in the Batson Oil field destroyed seven 12,000-brl tanks filled with Oil. The loss is $100,000.

The German Consol at Odessa has reported that the autumn seedings there have come through the winter in fairly good condition.

The Division Street car barns of the Chicago Union Traction Company were destroyed by fire, Sunday. Loss, $200,000; insured.

The shaft house and machinery plant at the Gunnell mine, near Central City, Colo., were destroyed by fire, Friday, causing a loss estimated at $50,000.

Receivers have been appointed for William H. Scott, trading as "Great Scott," one of the largest retail furniture dealers at Baltimore. The receivers' bond was fixed at $300,000.

An official crop bulletin for Italy, covering the last nine days of February, says that the weather was dry and colder, the same being generally favorable for the crops and field work.

At a joint meeting of the stockholders of the Colonial National and the Union National Banks of Cleveland the consolidation of the two concerns was formally ratified. The capital of the combined banks is $1,600,000; surplus, $840,000; deposits, $10,000,000.

The annual meeting of the Corn Products Company is scheduled for March 22 in Jersey City. It is expected that the actual statement of earnings of the constituent companies for the past year will be made public. These estimated earnings were announced as $5,000,000.

Officials of Street's Stable Car line say there has been a good movement of Live Stock since the first of the year, but that delays in cold weather were abnormal, and the best results have not been obtained from equipment. The spring months appear to hold promise of a good movement of feeder Cattle, and a satisfactory year's business is looked forward to.

The Caledonian Railway Company of England has decided to issue £1,333,760 4 per cent convertible preference stock, which may be subscribed for by holders of the consolidated guaranteed ordinary and the preferred and deferred converted ordinary stocks as registered on March 27. The new stock is to be issued at a premium of £5 per centum and will carry dividends as from March 1.

The Corn Trade News of March 7 says: "The weather in France the past fortnight has been very favorable for the crops. Frost has killed off vermin, etc., but has done no damage to the young plants, which in many parts have had a good cover of snow. The gradual thaw which followed the frost has permitted farmers to start the seeding of Spring Wheat; the condition of the winter crops is said to leave nothing to be desired."

The Middlesex and Somerset Traction Company of New Jersey, which has fifty miles of track in Middlesex and Somerset counties, is reported to have been sold to the Public Service Corporation of New Jersey for $2,250,000. The latter already controls all the trolley lines in Northern New Jersey, and the purchase of the property mentioned completes its through line from New York to Philadelphia, other connecting lines and roads under construction having been purchased within a few weeks.

A Philadelphia dispatch says: "The present cut in the differential rate war may be the last. Rates are down to an absurdly low point, and some of them—Oats, for instance—have been too low for some time. The presidents of the railroad companies interested have agreed to refer the matter to the Inter-State Commerce Commission, and that body will act as arbitrator, provided the commercial bodies and shippers of New York, Baltimore and Philadelphia agree to submit the case. The Inter-state Commission will act unofficially, but its decision will be binding on all parties."

"The expense of the Grain rate war in the West is being borne by the Northwestern Railroad," says A. B. Stickney, president of the Chicago Great Western. "The cost of this war to the Northwestern I would estimate at about $1,700,000 a year. I do not think it will stand the loss much longer. I do not consider the rate troubles in the Southwest very serious. There is a craze in railroad circles just now to build up the gulf ports at the expense of Chicago and the Eastern trunk lines. An equilibrium should be established so that the hauling of empty cars could be dispensed with. The gulf craze will not last long." In Mr. Stickney's opinion, the decision in the Northern Securities case will not affect the railway situation further than to prevent the formation of similar companies.

Oats..................	Dec.	225,000	Inc.	118,000

The San Francisco Weekly Commercial News of March 17 says: "The Wheat crop outlook has improved during the past week, although considerable damage by the late storm is reported. The benefit derived from the rain, however, will more than offset any damage done. The cash market is firm, but few sales are reported; most of the vessels now in port will lay up for new crop loading and not much of an export business is expected between now and July."

Broomhall's weekly foreign crop summary says: "United Kingdom—Crop outlook somewhat better. Growing disposition to believe that the duty on cereals will be reimposed. France, Germany, Italy, Hungary, Roumania, and Bulgaria—No complaints regarding crops, the position of which is generally favorable. Spain—Dry weather is wanted. Russia—No definite news regarding crop prospects; opinion varying. North Africa Condition of Wheat crop very favorable. India—Outlook for harvest continues good."

The feature of the New York Stock market was the activity and strength in Union Pacific, Northern Securities, and Great Northern. It was reported that under the merger decision the Securities of the Great Northern road will be divided among the stockholders of Great Northern and Northern Pacific. This, it is said, will give Harriman control of the Northern Pacific. Union Pacific advanced 8⅝, Northern Securities over 9, and Great Northern 4½. This carried the balance of the list up, and good gains were recorded. Money, 1½@1¾ per cent.

On March 1, 1903, the Department of Agriculture reported the quantity of Wheat in farmers' hands in the Northwest at 40,400,000 bu, and the quantity in interior elevators was reported at 4,600,000 bu, making a total supply of 51,000,000 bu. Of this quantity 19,000,000 bu was required for seed; Minneapolis received 18,300,000 bu and Duluth 3,600,000 bu; thirty interior mills ground 8,000,000 bu and the Department of Agriculture reported 11,300,000 bu in farmers' hands on July 1, making a grand total of 60,200,000 bu. Besides this 450 more interior Flour mills probably ground 10,000,000 bu to 12,000,000 bu during the four months.

The New York railroads, having met the latest cut in export-lake freight rates from Buffalo, the railroads entering Philadelphia, Monday, announced a further cut of 4 mills to go into effect next Saturday. This applies only to Wheat, Flax Seed and Barley. A cut of 4 mills on Corn, Rye and Oats would have placed these Grains on the free list. The new rates are as follows: Wheat and Flax Seed, 2 mills; Corn and Rye, 3½ mills; Barley, 1 mill, and Oats 4 mills. Negotiations looking to a temporary agreement in the differential war pending a final settlement by arbitration are still in progress. A traffic official of the Pennsylvania Railroad said, Monday, he expected an agreement would be reached in a few days.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—The market was quiet with no particular changes to note in the situation. Prices easy.

WINTER WHEAT—Was steady. For choice milling Wheat there was a good demand and poor Wheat was dull. No special change in prices, excepting perhaps that hard Winter was firmer. No. 2 Red in store quotable at 91½@93¼c, and fresh arrivals free on board nominally 97@99c. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals quotable at 93@98c. No. 2 Hard local sold at 90c, and ranged at 90@92c. No. 3 Hard local sold at 88@90c and ranged at 84@92c. No. 4 Hard at the river sold at 75c.

SPRING WHEAT—Not enough Wheat arriving to make a market for fresh arrivals. Receipts small and choice milling Wheat in good demand. Market steady. No. 1 Northern in store quotable at 91⅛@92¾c and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 94@98c. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals quotable at 88@97c. No. 3 Spring quotable at 85@96c for common to choice. No. 4 sold 65@78c and ranged at 60@90c for poor to choice, and sold at the river at 63c.

REGULAR WHEAT—Only a moderate trade and a good deal on the professional order. The feeling developed was mixed, but the close showed the May up ¼c, while July was unchanged and September up ½c. Early local sentiment favored the "long" side of the market, the comparatively strong cables and Kentucky state report being the "bull" helps. The latter made the Wheat condition 54 per cent, against 100 per cent one year ago. The map showed no more rain in Kansas or Oklahoma but precipitation was quite general elsewhere. Professionals led in the buying, but the offerings soon increased, coming from influential sources, and many of the early buyers turned sellers, causing prices to decline. "Shorts" were fair buyers toward the close of day. Liverpool quoted spot ¼@½d lower, while futures were ¼@⅜d higher. Receipts there the past three days 424,000 bu and only 24,000 bu of the same from America. London was steady to ¼d higher. Paris declined ¼@⅜c and Berlin and Buda Pesth lost ⅝c. Antwerp unchanged. Liverpool strength was reported as due to the advance in Argentine offerings and renewed talk of an import duty. London reported cargoes on passage dull, with buyers holding off. Fair and warmer weather was predicted for Kansas and Nebraska, and fair and colder for Illinois, Indiana and Missouri. The snow map showed no snow covering in the Winter Wheat States, and light covering in the Northwest. Local stocks in all positions were reported at 5,560,000 bu, a decrease of 98,000 bu, and are now 5,731,000 bu smaller than a year ago. Contract stocks decreased 75,365 bu and now include 1,613,504 bu, or 1,500,000 bu less than a year ago at this time. Bradstreet's world's available supply decreased 598,000 bu as compared with 368,000 bu decrease same week in 1903. Primary receipts were 112,000 bu larger than last year, and Northwestern receipts 160 cars larger. Kansas City and St. Louis received 95,000 bu, against 98,000 bu last year, while the shipments were 312,000 bu. Belt shorts sold closed ¼ higher. Minneapolis stocks so far this week have decreased 15,000 bu. Exports were very moderate, and 15 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Duluth bought back Wheat from New York to-day that had been sold for spring shipment. St. Louis wired that cash Wheat was quoted 1@2c lower on best grades. Receipts at Duluth 63 cars and at Minneapolis 242 cars, a total of 305 cars, against 540 cars yesterday, 400 cars a week ago, and 145 cars last year. Local receipts included 0 cars Winter, 11 cars Spring and 1 car mixed, a total of 21 cars, against 37 cars last year. Included in the above was no cars of contract grade. There were 16 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow not reported. Withdrawals were 12,300 bu. Receipts at Western points were 478,787 bu, against 336,724 bu last year. At Eastern points 63,903 bu, against 213,242 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 423,700 bu, against 233,224 bu last year, and from Eastern points 130,000 bu, against 82,437 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 17,478 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 258,651 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Fair trade and market irregular.

MARCH—Entirely nominal and closed about 91¾@92¼c.

MAY—Sold at 91⅝@92¾c. Opened with sales at 92c to 91⅝c; sold to 91⅝c, to 92c, to 92½c, to 92⅛c, to 92¾c, to 92⅛c, to 92½c, and closed at 92¼c.

JULY—Old Style—Sold at 87¼@88½c. Opened with sales at 87¼c to 87¾c; sold to 88c, to 87⅝c, to 88¼c, to 88c, to 88¼@88⅜c, to 87⅞c, to 88⅛c, to 87¾@87⅞c, to 88⅛c, to 87¾c, to 88⅛c, to 87¼@87⅝c and closed at 87⅝c sellers.

JULY—New Style—Sold at 86@87⅛c. Opened at 86c at 86½c, sold to 86⅜c, to 86½c, to 86¾c, to 86⅝c, to 87c, to 86⅝c, to 87⅛c, to 86⅞c, to 86⅝c, to 86⅞c, to 86¼c, to 87c, to 86⅛c, to 86¼c, and closed at 86¼c sellers.

SEPTEMBER—Old Style—Sold at 81⅝@82¾c. Opened with sales at 81⅝c to 81¾c; sold to 82c, to 81⅞c, to 82¼c, to 82c, to 82¾c, to 82c, to 81¾c, to 81¾c, to 82⅛c, to 82c, and closed nominally 82c.

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 80½@81½c. Opened with sales at 80½c to 80⅝c; sold to 81c, to 80⅞c, to 81⅛c, to 80¾c, to 81¼c, to 80⅞c, to 81½c, to 80⅞c, to 81¼c, to 80¾c, to 81⅛c, to 80⅞c and closed at 80⅞c.

CORN—A fair trade and unsettled nervous market, more particularly for May which closed ⅝@¾c lower, while July lost ⅞@1c, and September ⅝@⅞c. The early tone was firm and offerings for a time were light. Wet weather through the Corn belt, and comparatively steady cables, together with the action of Wheat, tended to impart some strength to the situation. At the advance, however "long" property came out in large quantities through commission houses, and market had poor support, selling off sharply, July being particularly weak. The May-July spread at one time was only 2⅛c. Receipts were somewhat larger at 282 cars, with 16 cars low grades compared with 243 and 96 cars respectively last year. Liverpool quoted futures unchanged, while spot was down ¼@½d, due to the larger arrivals—360,000 bu in the past three days. Stocks here in all positions were reported at 8,412,000 bu, an increase of 250,000 bu and are 76,000 bu smaller than one year ago. Contract stocks showed a good-sized increase—305,219 bu—and are now 3,013,345 bu, or 616,014 bu larger than a year ago at this time. Bradstreet's available supply increased 192,000 bu, as compared with 249,000 bu increase same week in 1903. Fair and colder conditions were predicted for the Central West and fair and warmer weather for Kansas and Nebraska. Western receipts were 488,000 bu, against 485,000 bu last year. Shipments were 346,000 bu and 407,000 bu respectively. Local arrivals 284,000 bu and shipments 165,000 bu. Exports, 329,000 bu, last year, 339,000 bu. Transfers from private to public elevators, 58 cars. Shipping demand continues moderate and sales 50,000 bu. At the seaboard 5 boat loads were accepted. Southwestern markets were easy. Car lots were steady to 1c lower. Demand moderate and offerings fair. No. 2 closed at 51c and No. 2 Yellow at 52c. No. 3 closed at 43@50½c. No. 3 Yellow closed at 44½@51½c.

Corn by sample—Moderate demand and offerings fair. Feeling weaker and prices unchanged to 1c lower. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 30@40½c. No. 4 at 40½@43c. No. 3 at 46@47c. No. 3 Yellow at 45½@47c. No. 2 at 51¾@52¼c. No. 2 Yellow at 52c. No. 3 White at 42½@51c. No. 2 White at 51c. Billed through No Grade at 37@39c. No. 4 at 39@41½c. No. 3 at 41@42½c. No. 3 Yellow at 42@46c. No. 3 White at 41@41¼c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Active and weak and closed ⅝@¾c and ⅞@1c lower.

MARCH—Inactive and closed at 50c.

MAY—Sold at 51⅞@53⅛c. Opened at 52¾c to 52⅞c and sold at 53⅛c, to 52¾c, to 52⅞c, to 52¼c, to 52⅜c, to 51⅞c, to 52½@52⅝c, to 51⅞c, to 52¼c, to 52c, to 52@52⅛c, and closed at 52@52⅛c asked.

JULY—Sold at 49¼@50⅜c. Opened at 50⅜c to 50⅜@50½c, and sold at 50⅛c, to 50⅜c, to 50c, to 50⅛c, to 50¼@50⅜c, to 50⅛@50¼c, to 50¼@50⅜c, to 49⅞c, to 50c, to 49¾c, to 50¼@50⅜c, to 49¼c, to 49½c, to 49⅜c, and closed at 49⅜c bid.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 48⅜@49⅞c. Opened at 49¾c, and sold at 49⅞c, to 49¼c, to 49⅝c, to 48⅝c, to 48⅞c, and closed at 48⅞c asked.

OATS—Were strong and ⅛@¼c higher early on small offerings and moderate buying. Later, the selling became aggressive by leading "longs" and the "bear" interest and prices declined 1⅛@1⅜c and the market closed heavy at the bottom at a net loss of ¾@1¼c. Poor speculative support and a light cash demand combined with a bad break in the sample market, were the main causes for the late selling. Cash sales were 50,000 bu. Stocks in all positions decreased 88,000 bu and are 5,516,000 bu. Contract stocks are 2,893,000 bu, an increase of 162,000 bu. Bradstreet's available decreased 225,000 bu. There were 5 cars Standard withdrawn from private houses and 1,800 bu from public houses. Arrivals 193 cars. Seaboard clearances 19,311 bu. Car lots in store and to go to store were slow and closed 1@¼c lower. Standard in store closed at about 38@38¼c.

Oats by sample were steady for good but closed 2c lower for poor. Demand less and offerings were fair, with more disposition to sell. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 at 38½c. No. 1 White at 32@40c. No. 3 at 39½c. No. 3 White at 39@42½c. Standard at 41@43½c. No. 2 White at 41c. Billed through: No. 3 White at 41c. Standard at 41@42½c. No. 2 at 39½@40¼c. At the river No. 4 White at 39@40c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were stronger early, but closed lower.

MARCH—Dull. Closed at 38½c.

MAY—Fairly active. Sold at 39⅛@40¼c. Opened at 40⅛c to 40⅛@40¼c, sold at 40¼c, to 39⅛c, to 39¼c at close.

JULY—Active. Sold at 37¾@38⅞c. Opened at 38⅞c, sold to 37⅞c and closed there.

SEPTEMBER—Weak. Sold at 32c and at 33¼@33⅜c. Opened at 33¼c, sold to 33⅜c, to 32c at close.

RYE—The market was weaker and prices were 1c lower. There was only a light trade, a few cars of cash and a trade or two in May delivery comprising the day's business. Four cars were received and none withdrawn from store here and no export clearances. No. 2 in store round lots nominally 69c and fresh arrivals quotably about 70c. No. 3 sold at 63c and No. 4 at 58c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet. May sold at 71c, which was 1c lower, and closed 71c sellers. July sold at 65c, which was 4c lower than the asking price yesterday.

BARLEY—A good quality of Barley was salable steady. There was very little of it, so little that there was no use in buyers giving the market much attention. Common to poor goods dull and dragging. Very little demand. It required urging on the part of sellers and some shading of prices to work off a few cars. It was a very quiet market because good Barley was scarce and common was not wanted. Thirty-six cars came in. A heavy market for Oats operated against mixing Barley. Screenings dull and easy, with a quotable range of 30@40c for poor to very choice, and a few cars sold at such prices; sales mainly at 31@32c. Barley, feed or mixing, 37@40c local, depending on soundness and color, and some poor musty cars sold down to 31@35c. Malting—low grade, 41@42c; common, 43@44c. Fair was about 45@47c; good 48@49c, choice, 52@54c, fancy possibly higher.

SEEDS—A dull and depressed market for Timothy was experienced and Hungarian was quoted a shade lower. These were the only changes. All ruled quiet.

Timothy—Was dull and depressed again and a further decline in prices noted. There was 5@10c decline. Liberal cash offerings. A good deal of Seed left from yesterday and some again held over because bids were not satisfactory; at the same time there was more trading. Demand very tame and no competition whatever. Order trade remains slow. Speculation entirely neglected. Futures not mentioned beyond giving them nominally lower quotations. Country lots quotable over a range of $2.00@2.80 for poor to very fancy; outside would have to be extra fine, not hulled, and none like that coming; fair to good, $2.10@2.50; choice, $2.55@2.60, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2.25@2.30. March, April and May deliveries, contract Seed, nominally $2.85. September was called about $3.00.

Flax—A few cars were sold at former prices. The entire market remained in a very quiet and unchanged state. No. 1 Northwestern again sold sparingly at $1.13. No. 1 remained quotable at $1.07½ bid. Rejected quotable at $1.05@1.07, outside for choice from the Northwest, and a sale made. March was nominally $1.07½. May delivery $1.10 bid and $1.10½ asked. September offered at $1.16; this was a 1c easier quotation. Local receipts 11 cars or 7,350 bu, and output 2 cars or 1,667 bu. Minneapolis got 18 cars and Duluth 97 cars.

Clover—Was called about steady at late decline. Weather clear, more favorable, and reports from outside were slightly improved. Country lots, common to choice, $8.00@10.25, fancy above, mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $7.50@8.75; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3.00@6.00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8.50@9.75.

Other Seeds—A little more Hungarian coming in. A weaker market quoted, with 0@15c decline. Other lines all weak, but no change in these noted. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark at $1.50@1.75. Common Millet $1.00@1.40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1.00@1.40. Siberian, 85c@$1.05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c. Mustard, 85c@$1.05. Buckwheat easy; good milling, $1.30@1.35.

HOG PRODUCTS—Only a fair business was reported in Hog Products and the market in a general way was unsettled. Offerings were lighter than for several days past, and the demand was fairly active. Hogs were in lighter supply than generally anticipated, and prices ruled higher, and the receipts at the leading Western packing points were smaller than for the corresponding day last year—3,700, compared with 58,100. Foreign markets were reported weak, and Lard was 3d lower. Domestic markets were quiet. Market in a speculative way opened rather firm, and prices were advanced on all the leading articles, and the filling of a fair number of outside orders, tended to further moderate advances. Toward the close, there was considerable pressure to sell, and prices declined materially, and closed easy. Rather more doing in July. Receipts of Products were fair of Lard and Meats about 20 cars. Shipments were fairly liberal—of Lard and Meats about 175 cars. Shipping demand was moderate and offerings were only fair. Sales were somewhat limited and prices favored buyers.

Mess Pork—Trade was fair in the market for Mess Pork, and the feeling was fairly steady. Offerings not very free, and the demand was moderate, and mainly from "shorts." Opening trades were made at 5@10c advance, and a further improvement of 10@15c was gained. Later, a weaker feeling was developed and prices declined 2½@25c on the whole range. Toward the close the feeling was steadier, and prices rallied 2½@5c, but settled back again to inside figures and the market closed rather steady. Shipping demand was light and offerings were moderate. Cash lots quotable at $13.00@13.12½.

MAY—Offerings were moderate and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $13.05@13.30. Opened at $13.15 to $13.20, sold to $13.22½, to $13.20, to $13.25, to $13.20, to $13.30, to $13.05, to $13.10, to $13.05, and closed steady.

JULY—Demand was fairly active, and the offerings were not very free. Sales were made at $13.25@13.50. Opened at $13.40, sold to $13.45, to $13.42½, to $13.47½, to $13.40@13.42½, to $13.50, to $13.30, to $13.35, to $13.27½, to $13.30@13.32½, to $13.25, to $13.25@13.27½, and closed steady.

Lard—Only a fair trade was reported in the Lard market, and the feeling was stronger. Offerings were not very free, and the demand was fair. Foreign advices unfavorable to holders. Market opened rather firm, and prices were 5@7½c higher, which was followed by a further improvement of 2½@5c. Later, an easier feeling prevailed, with increased offerings, and prices settled back 7½@10c, and the market closed comparatively steady. Demand on shipping account light and offerings moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6.80@6.82½. Loose lots called for sparingly and offerings were rather light. Prices were steady at about 10 discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in small request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably steady at $6.25. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $7.50@7.62½ for No. 1, and $7.25@7.37½ for No. 2.

MAY—In good request and offerings were fair. Sales were made at $6.95@7.05. Opened at $7.00 to $7.02½, sold to $7.02½@7.05, to $7.02½, to $7.00, to $7.00, to $7.02½, to $6.95, to $6.97½, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were fair and the demand was moderately active. Sales were made at $7.12½@7.20. Opened at $7.15 to $7.17½, sold to $7.17½@7.20, to $7.17½, to $7.20, to $7.15, to $7.17½@7.17½, to $7.12½, to $7.15, to $7.12½, and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—Trade was fairly active in the market for Short Rib Sides, and the feeling was steadier in a general way. Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderately active. Market opened rather firm and prices ruled 5@7½c higher, which was followed by a further advance of 2½@5c. Later, there was a little pressure to sell and prices settled back 7½@10c, and the market closed rather steady. Shipping demand was limited, and offerings were moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6.62½@6.75, according to weight.

MAY—Offerings were fair and the demand was moderately active. Sales were made at $6.80@6.87½. Opened at $6.85, sold to $6.87½, to $6.85, to $6.87½, to $6.82½, to $6.82½, to $6.80, to $6.82½@6.85, to $6.80 and closed steady.

JULY—In rather good request and offerings were fair. Sales were made at $6.95@7.05. Opened at $6.97½ to $7.00, sold to $6.97½@7.00, to $7.02½, to $7.00, to $7.02½@7.05, to $6.95@6.97½, to $6.97½, to $6.95, to $7.00, to $6.95@6.97½, to $6.95, and closed steady.

Other Meats—Trade was somewhat limited and the feeling rather steady. Offerings were only fair. Demand was moderate for the home trade. Export inquiry very limited. Green Meats were in fair supply and rather light demand, and prices ruled easier. Pickled Meats were in moderate request to fill limited orders and prices favored buyers. Dry Salted Meats were in fair demand in a quiet way and prices ruled steady. Smoked Meats called for in fair quantities, especially in a jobbing way, and prices favored buyers. Closing ranged as follows:

GREEN Hams av 10@12 lbs, 9¼@9⅜c, 12@14 lbs, 9@9¼c, 14@16 lbs, 9@9¼c; 18@20 lbs, 9⅛@9¼c. Skinned Hams 10¼@10⅜c. Shoulders 6@6¼c. Picnic Hams, 6½@6¾c. Bellies 10@11c. BREADSTUFFS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

Wheat—The rise in Eastern and foreign markets has been the feature of the week, and largely revived interest among Wheat men and has quite a reassuring effect upon holders who felt greatly encouraged by the turn affairs had taken, and strong hopes were entertained that the movement was for the present of a permanent character; that not only would the demand be stimulated, but an opportunity would be afforded interior holders to find a market at higher prices than have ruled as yet. There is nothing more than a reaction from $1 09 to 90½c; that the market should take an upward turn and arrest the recent decline. Europe has not come to the assistance of the "bull" clique as strong as they would like to have them, and have fallen short in their calculations, for the only apparent effect upon foreign markets was a slightly firmer tone, without any increased demand either from the United Kingdom or the Continent. As for our local trade there is nothing of importance to relate. Offerings have been small, but there is practically no export demand, and sellers are not satisfied with prices offered, and in the majority of cases refuse to sell. The valley will not carry over much into the new season; east of the mountains there is considerable Wheat yet, but in the hands of holders who do not need to sell and are tenacious holders. Millers are not buying very much Wheat at present. Most of the large mills have plenty of Wheat on hand to last them for some time to come. Quotations are without change. Club Wheat is 77c per bu; Blue Stem, 81c and 82c; Valley, 83c per bu. The weather has continued favorable for growing crops, and no change can be noted. A little sunshine would be appreciated.

Flour—The market for Flour at present is exceedingly dull, and no demand from any point has come in during the week. Millers and jobbers say that they have not received a cable during the week. It is about as dull now as any in the trade care to see it. Most of the large mills are working, accumulating stock for future trade. There is no doubt that the Flour export trade will be rather quiet for a few months. Stocks are very large in all Orient ports and these will have to be decreased considerable before any new business can be transacted. Several good sized shipments have been dispatched during the week from this port, having been delayed, and were booked for shipment in February, the same aggregating about 72,000 brls. California is receiving considerable Flour from Northern ports, the shipments going down on each steamer indicating the same. Another cargo for the United Kingdom was dispatched during the week. This one was loaded at Tacoma. Quotations are without change, and range for export brands $3 55 to $3 65 per brl; Patents firm at $4 .5 to $4 50 per brl; valley brands are not as firm, as considerable rate cutting is being indulged in to place stock. Millers in that section of the State are not receiving what they should for their output, in fact, there are too many mills in the Willamette Valley, and one-half of them could be dispensed with, and there would be some business for the balance of the trade.

FOREIGN CROP REPORTS GOOD.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The foreign crop report of the Department of Agriculture gives the following:

Austria—Official estimate of Wheat crop of 1903 40,014,058 bu of 60 lbs each, Rye, 81,157,628 bu of 58 lbs; Barley, 73,872,512 bu of 48 lbs; Oats, 128,328,161 bu of 32 lbs, and Corn, 16,055,908 bu of 56 lbs.

Australasia—Wheat crop of 1903-4 undoubtedly very large, and will leave an unusual quantity available for export.

Argentina—Visible Wheat supply about 56 per cent greater than a year ago, and double that at a corresponding date in 1902. The surplus available for export out of the 1903-04 crop is unofficially estimated at over 90,000,000 bu.

Roumania—Wheat area sown in the fall of 1903 officially estimated at 4,110,719 acres; Rye area, 326,923, Barley, 81,404, and Rape, 145,557.

Russia—Official estimate Wheat area for 1903, 57,266,718 acres, production 621,457,670 bu of 60 lbs; Rye, 912,007,655 bu of 56 lbs; Oats, 799,782,316 bu of 32 lbs, and Barley, 357,470 561 bu. Live Stock: Horses, 28,070,500, Cattle, 41 251,500; Sheep and Goats, 71,541 200, and Swine, 13,752,100.

Hungary—Crops officially reported satisfactory.

Turkey—German Consul General reports Grain crops of European Turkey extraordinarily good.

Italy—Crop conditions fairly good.

France—Official preliminary estimates of 1903 04 crop areas are: Wheat, 15,920,428 acres; Rye, 3,236,439; Barley, 360,099, Oats, 2,021,078. The Winter Wheat area is over 3 per cent less than a year ago. Condition of cereals stated as falling somewhat below "good."

Netherlands—Weather too mild and wet.

Portugal—Wheat crop larger than at first supposed, and requirements from abroad estimated at 3,000,000 bu.

Uruguay—Wheat crop a medium yield, but of excellent quality.

GRAIN MOVEMENT IN THE NORTHWEST.

[From the Minneapolis Market Record, March 16.]

The Wheat receipts at Minneapolis and Duluth so far, since August 1, amount to, approximately, 93,000,000 bu, and it is estimated there have been ground by mills in the interior of Minnesota and North and South Dakota about 40,000 000 bu. Stocks of Wheat in country elevators on March 1, were nearly 9,000,000 bu above what they were on August 1, last. This makes a total of 142,000,000 bu. By adding 20 000,000 bu reserved for seed, a total of 162,000,000 bu is found to have already been disposed of.

The movement during the next five months will be watched with interest. About 15 per cent, or some 11,000,000 bu of the receipts at Minneapolis, so far have been Winter Wheat.

How much Wheat has gone out of the three States is a matter of some question. A great deal has gone South out of South Dakota and Minnesota, and North Dakota has shipped some Wheat into Nebraska. The amount used to feed Stock and Poultry, if definitely known, would probably make quite an item.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows no rain in Kansas or Oklahoma. There are rains in Missouri, Eastern Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. The rains are general and heavy from Missouri and Iowa Eastward. Colder weather is indicated and this will come after very warm weather West yesterday.

Indications are for mostly fair weather. Temperatures will fall in central valleys, but no unseasonable weather.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

A fire at Milwaukee, Sunday, caused a loss of $75,000.

The Dawson Building, Chicago, was destroyed by fire, Friday. Loss, $75,000.

Fire, Sunday, at Faulkton, S. D., destroyed property valued at $45,000; insurance, $22,000.

The usual quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent will be paid on the stock of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company of New York on April 15. Books close March 24, reopen April 16.

Dornbusch of March 11 says of the Russian crops: "Spring delays its arrival and weather over most of the Empire continues cold and frosty. Nothing certain can be stated respecting Winter Wheat and Rye crops until snow clears away. Only in some districts are attempts made to carry on spring field work. Stocks at Odessa, Nicolaieff and Novorossisk are diminishing under the heavy exports."

The protective committee of minority stockholders of the National Salt Company has offered to receive further deposits of stock and act in behalf of the depositors, provided the preferred stock is turned over to the New York Security and Trust Company and a fee of $1 00 per share is paid at the time of the deposit. Depositors are required to agree to a further payment of $2 00 a share in case the results obtained are satisfactory.

The Corn Trade News of March 10 says: "Mail advices from Valparaiso, dated Jan. 28, say that prospects for the Wheat crop continued to be satisfactory, but holders were not yet offering. January is the harvest month of Chili, so it may be presumed from the foregoing that at least a good part of the crop has been secured satisfactorily, and this view is confirmed by the fact that about a dozen ships have been chartered to load Barley and Wheat for Europe."

Best Cattle received at Chicago last week sold at $5 80, against $6 00 the previous week, $5 70 a year ago, $7 35 two years ago, $6 00 three years ago, and $5 60 four years ago. Average price of good Beef Cattle for the week, $4 70. The top price last week was 20c lower and the average price of good Beef Cattle 5c lower than the previous week. As compared with a year ago top Cattle sold 10c higher, while the average the past week was 15c lower, showing the scarcity of prime, well finished Beeves at present.

Leading Eastern manufacturers of bar Iron, at a meeting in New York, Friday, have fallen into line with the recent rise in soft Steel bars at the West, and decided unanimously to advance prices $1 00 per ton. In other words, these manufacturers, who compose what is known as the Eastern Bar Iron Association, agreed to fix prices at $1 35 per per 100 lbs Pittsburg, and $1 49½ tide water. Trade conditions were discussed at length at the meeting, and the statement was made that most of the leading bar Iron interests are inclined to take a hopeful view of the future. All the mills east of Pittsburg were represented.

The financial reorganization plan of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, which has been held in abeyance for some time in the endeavor by the bondholders' protective committee to secure practically all of the outstanding debenture bonds, so that litigation may be avoided, will shortly be declared operative. It is now said that the debenture bondholders who have been holding out will undoubtedly consent to the proposed increase of the bonded indebtedness to $45,000,000, so that they may get their overdue interest and be assured o participation in reorganization.

The final report on the Madras Cotton crop of 1903-4 puts the total area sown in ryotwari villages up to the end of January at 1,606,400 acres, or about 13 per cent over the corresponding period of 1903. The present area is also in excess of the quinquennial and decennial averages by 21 and 9 per cent respectively. The increased area is due to good and timely rainfall and present condition is generally good. Including probable sowings for the remainder of the season, the total area of the crop is put at 1,791,100 acres, from which the outturn is estimated at 195,792 bales of 400 lbs each.

The Gold production of the world for 1903 is placed by the London Statist at $337,500,000, a new record; and the 1904 output still higher at $365,000,000. South African production is expected to increase over 1903 from $72,000,000 to $90,000,000, and Australian output from $96,900,000 to $105,000,000. For nearly a third of a century prior to 1890 world production held steady between $100,000,000 and $125,000,000 a year. By 1895 it reached $210,000,000; in 1903, $337,500,000. Meanwhile Silver production rose from 29,000,000 ounces in 1860 to 43,000,000 in 1870, 76,500,000 in 1880, 132,000,000 in 1890, and 173,000,000 ounces in 1903.

A Raleigh, N. C., dispatch says: "In the Federal Court, Thursday, Receiver McBee, of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad, was dismissed by Judge Charles H. Simonton, the order having been agreed on and submitted by counsel for the State and for McBee. McBee is not to receive a cent of pay for himself or for expenses as receiver, and the complainant, K. S. Finch, and his bondsmen are to pay costs of suit. The Atlantic and North Carolina Road, two-thirds of which is owned by the State, is now back in the hands of the president and board of directors and a full investigation has been ordered by the Governor and board of internal improvement."

Monthly imports and exports of merchandise and the excess of merchandise exports for the past year were as follows:

	Imports.	Exports.	Excess ex.
March, 1903	$96,230,457	$132,093,061	$35 863,507

Dornbusch of March 11 has the following on the London Flour market: "The rapid fall in American Wheat has somewhat disorganized the Flour trade and made buyers more cautious than ever, as they are led to assume that the value of the manufactured article will follow in the steps of the raw material; so far this has not come to pass, for at Minneapolis and other centers of exporting millers the rates asked continue to be 1s 6d to 2s per sack higher than the spot value here. Consequently c. i. f. business is at a standstill and importers refuse to part with their holdings, as they could not replace them with advantage. This deadlock in the trans-Atlantic situation should be a positive gain to British millers, who for years have been watching and waiting for such an opportunity and now it is to be hoped that they 'will take occasion by the hand' and work it for all it is worth before new American Wheat is forthcoming to relieve the strain and stress of supply of graded Wheat at the other side."

The United States Supreme Court, Monday, reaffirmed its decision that passengers accepting passes from railroads cannot recover damages in case of accident. Monday's judgment, however, extended the precedent so as to make it apply to passengers unfamiliar with the contract usually printed on the back of passes. The opinion was delivered by Justice Brewer, who said: "Here there was no contract of carriage, and that fact was known to the party, who was simply given permission to ride in the coaches of the defendant. Accepting this privilege the party was bound to know the conditions thereof. A carrier is not bound any more than any other owner of property who grants a privilege to hunt the party to whom the privilege is given and see that all the conditions attached to it are make known. The duty rests rather upon the one receiving the privilege to ascertain those conditions."

The San Francisco Weekly Commercial News of March 4 says: "'The Hop market is decidedly quiet and no buyers or brewers are in sight at present,' says the Portland Telegram. 'Speculators who paid as high as 20c a pound a few months ago are getting discouraged, as when they bought 30c and even 40c was talked of as among the possibilities. A sale of 130 bales of choice Hops March 7 at 24½c indicates how the demand for that product stands. The seller had paid 27½c a few months ago and thus lost 3c a pound on the transaction.' A Tacoma dealer, in a trade letter just received, states that out of a crop of 178,000 bales of Hops grown in the Pacific Coast States, there are only 1,068 bales in the hands of the growers, and only 16,000 bales in the hands of dealers. In the State of Washington there are but 97 bales in the hands of growers and 2,000 bales in the hands of dealers. It is estimated that the stock in all hands, including consumers, is only 33,000 bales. The amount in all hands is 15,932 bales smaller than at this time in 1903."

It is authoritatively asserted that an interest prominent in the transactions which eventually resulted in the wrecking of the original United States Ship Building Company is at work seeking to secure stock control of the new $30,000,000 company built out of the wreck of the first company. Its tactics are said to be about on a line with the proceedings which caused the first company to fail. In advance of the actual creation of the new company the representatives of this combination are reported insidiously working to depreciate the supposed value of the new securities so that the stock control may be more cheaply acquired. One of those identified with the litigation, the receivership and the new company puts the valuation of the new preferred stock at 80 and the common stock at 25. This would make $15,000,000 of preferred stock worth $12,000,000 and the $15,000,000 common stock worth $3,750,000, a total of $15,750,000 as against a par of $30,000,000. The Bethlehem Steel Company, a member of the armor plate combine, is to be the chief subsidiary of the new company.

By vote of the members of the Chicago Board of Trade to-day, the proposition favoring the delivering of No. 3 Corn on contracts for No. 2 at 3c penalty was defeated by a vote of 183 for and 578 against. The proposition to deliver No 3 White Oats on contracts for Standard at 2c penalty was defeated by a vote of 103 for and 563 against.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

New York Exchange 10c premium.

Documentary Sterling steady at 4.83¾.

Chicago Bank Clearings to-day, $31,658,205.

Estimated receipts of Hogs for to-morrow, 27,000.

Consols closed 6-16 lower at 86 for money and 86⅛ for account.

Board of Trade memberships are easier at $3,700 net to the seller.

Weather in France reported showery in the North and fine in the South.

Nine packers purchased 12,200 Hogs to-day; shippers 7,500; left over, 4,000. Market closed strong.

Reported that 104,000 bu Wheat and 120,000 bu Corn were taken at the seaboard to-day for export.

The total sales of Stocks on the Stock New York Exchange, Tuesday, were 1,037,000 shares, making the largest day in many months.

Local Securities were rather slow and mostly lower. The exceptions were Biscuit and Carbon common, which made fair gains.

Lake and Electrolytic Copper were advanced ⅛c per pound to-day, to 12¾@13c for the former, and 12⅝@12¾c for the latter in New York.

The stock of Flax Seed at Duluth on March 19 was 6,682,000 bu, compared with 6,484,000 bu the previous week—an increase of 203,000 bu. Stock last year, 4,000,000 bu.

The New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company has declared its regular quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent, payable April 15 to stock of record March 31.

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago, Tuesday, was $5.24, against $5.17 Monday, $5.21 last Saturday, $5.48 a week ago and $7.03 the corresponding Tuesday a year ago.

Cotton in New York was unsettled, with liberal trading. Stocks in New York are increasing and there was a good deal of pressure at times. At the close prices were 40@54 points higher.

Shipments of Hogs from Chicago, Monday, were 13,960, the largest since March 10, 1902. Last week's shipments were the largest in over five years. The shipping demand promises to continue large.

At a meeting of the Chicago Board of Trade Directors, Tuesday, the Mann bill now before Congress was indorsed. The bill provides for a lowering of tunnels in the Chicago River, as they are an obstruction to navigation.

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool: "The closing decline in America of Wheat and spring-like weather caused opening decline. Tone steady, but trading very dull. Later, the market became more active and sellers more scarce. Corn easier, with America, and cheap offerings of cash Corn. Large resales."

Stocks of Wheat in store at Fort William, Port Arthur, Keewatin, Winnipeg and interior country points are approximately 11,421,000 bu, against 11,361,000 bu a week ago; 19,875,000 bu a year ago; 18,800,000 bu two years ago; 5,133,000 bu three years ago; 9,000,000 bu four years ago, and 8,850,000 bu five years ago.

Owing to the fact that a quorum of the board of directors of the Central Trust Company of Illinois, Chicago, could not be secured, the meeting scheduled for Tuesday to declare the second quarterly dividend of 1 per cent was not held. The meeting will take place in a few days and the dividend will be payable April 1.

Reports from fifty-two stations in Illinois tributary to Chicago to a Chicago commission firm show the amount of Oats in elevators to be 20 per cent less and in farmers' hands 10 per cent less than the average year. Twenty seven stations report none on hand, and none in the country beyond seed requirements. Reports from twelve stations in Wisconsin tributary to Chicago show stocks of Oats in elevators to be 31 per cent less, and in farmers' hands 49 per cent less than average year.

All the Flour mills of Minneapolis have decided to close down indefinitely. Some of them will close March 21 and the remainder the following week. It is claimed by the millers that the cause of the close-down is the prevailing high price of Wheat and the small demand for Flour. While these conditions certainly prevail, it is intimated that the real reason is that the millers are determined to fight the railroads on account of the switching charges, about which the millers for some time have complained.

Stocks in New York were as sensational as yesterday in some respects. The market was decidedly ragged. The "bear" interest was active in buying early, and selling fresh lines later, while those who had profits were getting them. Union Pacific broke 2 points under the latter. Southern Pacific advanced 2⅛ and broke 1⅛. The entire list sold off from early prices, but closing sales were mostly at small gains. Great Northern, however, after 3 points advance, showed a 3-point loss. Money, 1½@1¾ per cent.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Corn Products Company, held in Jersey City, Tuesday, the Matthiessen interests proved to be in full control, as previously, and the election of directors and officers apparently went off exactly as President C. H. Matthiessen desired. J. Ogden Armour and E. T. Bedford, whose terms as directors expired, were not re-elected. In their places T. B. Wagner and W. W. Heaton were elected. Benjamin Graham and Joy Morton, whose terms also expired, were re-elected for three years.

Chicago, Kansas City and St. Louis received 4,655 car loads of Texas Cattle for the first eleven weeks of 1904, showing 2,016 cars decrease compared with a year ago. Chicago received 95 cars, against 613 cars a year ago; Kansas City 832 cars, against 1,601 cars a year ago, and St. Louis 3,728 cars, against 4,454 cars a year ago. While receipts of Texas Cattle decreased over 2,000 cars at the three leading Western markets the number of car loads received at the Fort Worth, Texas, Yards thus far this year increased nearly 2,000.

The new plan of the Northern Securities Company was made public, Tuesday. In substance it provides for a stock dividend of 99 per cent, this to be effected by a reduction of that amount in the capital stock of the Securities Company. For every share of the Northern Securities stock surrendered the company will deliver $39.27 stock of the Northern Pacific Railway Company and $30.17 of the Great Northern Railway Company. The shares of the Northern Pacific, which were taken over by the Northern Securities at 115, and those of the Great Northern at 180, will be distributed on this basis.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—The market is reported as very dull, though there is no quotable change in prices.

WINTER WHEAT—The market was quiet and steady. Sales of 10,000 bu of No. 2 Red in store, besides the few cars of fresh arrivals, were made. Demand fair on milling and shipping account and receipts small. Scarcely enough Wheat coming to establish a market. No 2 Red in store nominally 91¼@95¼c, and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 97@99c, with sale of a car load at 99c. No. 3 Red fresh receipts quotable at 92@97c. No. 2 Hard local quotable at 89@91c. No. 3 Hard sold local at 83c and ranged at 82@90c. No. 4 Hard sold at 80c.

SPRING WHEAT—A moderate demand existed and the market was steady. Receipts small and not enough fresh arrivals to make a market, quotations being almost wholly nominal. No. 1 Northern in store quotable at 91¼@92¼c and fresh arrivals free on board at 94@98c. No 2 Northern quotable at 90@97c. No. 3 Spring sold at 84c and ranged at 80@95c for poor to choice hard variety. No. 4 sold at 65@67c and quotable at 62@90c for poor to choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—Was active and weak early in the session, but later on there was a sharp recovery. Liquidation by tired holders was the early feature, "long" property coming out as the session advanced, and numerous stop-loss orders were executed on the break. Later on influential buying the market ruled stronger. May sold off to 91¼c and closed with ¼c loss. July declined to 85⅜c and closed ½@⅝c lower, while the September showed an advance of ⅛c. The indifferent cables, which came lower in face of the strength on this side yesterday, coupled with the heavy rains in California, which will no doubt greatly improve crop conditions on the coast, started the market easier. The closing down of four of the large Mills at Minneapolis, too, had its effect, though expected for several days. Primary receipts were 55,000 bu more than a year ago. Arrivals in the Northwest were 80 cars larger. Kansas City and St Louis received 47,000 bu, against 69,000 bu last year, and the shipments were 136,000 bu. The more spring-like weather in this section likewise had a "bearish" tendency, though no further moisture was reported in the Southwest. London again quoted cargoes on ocean passage dull, with buyers holding off, and futures at London came ½@¾d lower. Liverpool was unchanged on spot and futures ⅛@¼d lower. Paris came steady to ¼c lower. Berlin declined ⅛c and Buda Pesth ⅛c. Antwerp was unchanged. Around 91¼c for May and 85¾c for July the decline was checked on buying by "shorts." British consols closed 5-16 lower. Exports were small and but 15 boat loads were accepted. The Liverpool market was affected by the spring-like weather in the United Kingdom. Cloudy, warmer weather was predicted for Kansas; showers and warmer for Illinois, Indiana and Missouri; showers, colder Thursday for Iowa; snow and colder for the Dakotas; showers and colder for Nebraska. Cash sales, 25,000 bu. Receipts at Duluth 32 cars and at Minneapolis 236 cars, a total of 268 cars, against 305 cars yesterday, 325 cars a week ago, and 188 cars last year. Local receipts included 7 cars Winter, 1 car Spring and 1 car mixed, a total of 9 cars, against 17 cars last year. Included in the above was no cars of contract grade. There were 15 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow not reported. Withdrawals were 12,700 bu. Receipts at Western points were 401,054 bu, against 348,977 bu last year. At Eastern points 111,650 bu, against 187,004 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 2?8,836 bu, against 305,188 bu last year, and from Eastern points 1,600 bu, against 291,807 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 27,277 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 124,346 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Good trade and market weak early and stronger later.

MARCH—Entirely nominal and closed about 92c.

MAY—Sold at 91¼@92¼c. Opened with sales at 91⅝c to 91½c; sold to 91⅝c, to 91¼c, to 91¾c, to 91¼c, to 92¼c, to 92c, and closed at 92c bid.

JULY—Old Style—Sold at 85¾@87⅛c. Opened with sales at 87⅛c to 86¾c; sold to 87⅛c, to 86¾@86⅞c, to 87⅛c, to 86½c, to 86⅞c, to 86¼c, to 85¾c, to 86¾c, to 85⅝c, to 87⅛c, to 86¾@86⅞c, and closed at 86¾@86⅞c sellers.

JULY New Style—Sold at 84¼@86c. Opened with sales at 85⅞c to 85⅝c; sold to 85½c, to 85⅞c, to 85⅜c, to 86c, to 85¼c, to 85⅝c, to 85¼c, to 85⅝c, to 84¾c, to 86c, to 85⅝c, and closed at 85⅝c sellers.

SEPTEMBER—Old Style—Sold at 81⅛@82¼c. Opened with sales at 81⅞c to 81¾c; sold to 81⅝c to 81⅞c, to 81⅝c, to 81⅛c, to 82¼c, to 82⅛c, and closed at 82⅛c.

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 80@81⅛c. Opened with sales at 80¾c to 80½c; sold to 80⅞c, to 80⅞c, to 80½c, to 80¼c, to 80⅝c, to 80c, to 81¼c, to 80⅝c, to 81⅛c, to 81c, and closed at 81c.

CORN—Was active and weak early, but rallied sharply toward the close, the close being a shade lower for May, while July gained 1-16c, and September unchanged. Locals and professionals favored the selling side from the start and market had very poor support, many stop loss limits being uncovered on the decline. The spring-like weather appeared to be one of the chief "bear" influences, the absence of any good buying early in the day. Provision interests were credited with covering on break. The efforts of the "bear" element to dislodge local holders was apparently quite successful, though there was no evidence of the principal May "long" liquidating, and in doing so became heavily "short" and were run in on the late advance in prices. Liverpool was ⅛d lower on futures, and spot unchanged to ¼d higher. Receipts small, only 65 cars and 31 cars of these were low grades. Bad country roads and spring work are expected to curtail the movement. Western receipts, 365,000 bu, were about in line with last year 360,000 bu, while the shipments, 242,000 bu, were 154,000 bu smaller. Southwestern markets were all easy. Local arrivals were 207,000 bu and the shipments 137,000 bu. Exports fair, 280,000 bu; last year, 240,000 bu and 15 boat loads were accepted at the seaboard. Transfers from private to public elevators 15,401 bu and 77 cars. Shipping demand continues very moderate and sales were 40,000 bu. Car lots were quoted ½@1c lower. Demand moderate and offerings only fair. No 2 closed at 50½c and No 2 Yellow at 51½c. No. 3 closed about 42@50c. No. 3 Yellow quotable at 44@51c.

Corn by sample—Was weak and dull, with prices ½@1c lower. Offerings were moderate, but the demand was inclined to be a little slack. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 34@39c. No. 4 at 41@48c. No 3 at 42@49½c. No 3 Yellow at 44½@51c. No. 2 at 50½c. No. 2 Yellow at 50½@52c. No 2 White at 5 @5 ¼c. Billed through. No Grade at 37@39c. No. 4 at 39½@41c. No 3 at 40¾@43c. No. 3 Yellow at 43@44c. No 3 White at 40¾@41c. No. 2 White at 51¼c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Active and weak early, but rallied sharply and closed unchanged to a trifle lower.

MARCH—Inactive; closed about 50c.

MAY—Sold at 50½@50⅝c and 52c. Opened at 51⅝c to 52c, and sold to 51c, to 51½c, to 50⅞c, to 51¼c, to 50⅝c, to 51⅝c, to 51⅛c, to 50½@50⅝c, up to 51⅝c, to 51⅝c, to 52c, and closed at 52c sellers.

JULY—Sold at 48½@49¾c. Opened at 49¼c to 49c, and sold to 49⅛c, to 49¼c, to 49@49⅛c, to 49¼c, to 49c, to 49¼@49⅜c, to 49c, to 49¼c, to 48⅞@49c, to 49⅛c, to 48⅞c, to 49, to 48½c, to 49, to 49¼c, to 49⅜c, to 49⅜@49½c, and closed at 49⅜@49½c asked.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 48@49¼c. Opened at 48⅜c to 48½c, and sold at 48⅜c, to 48⅝c, to 48½c, to 48⅝c, to 48⅜c to 48⅝c to 48¼c, to 48⅝c, to 48c, up to 49¼c, to 48⅞c, and closed at 48⅞c asked.

OATS—Were weak and ⅜@⅞c lower early, but advanced and closed ⅜@⅝c lower. Prices were influenced by the action of Wheat, which induced liberal liquidation early, as there was poor support. Later active covering by "shorts" made an advance of ⅜@¾c and a steady close. On the break the market showed evidence of being oversold. Arrivals were 102 cars. There was 51 cars and 18,000 bu Standard from private elevators. Seaboard clearances were 6,500 bu. Cash sales were light and car lots to go to store were slow and ½@1½c lower. No 1 White at 39¼c. No. 3 White sold at 39@39½c. Standard in store closed about 38⅝@38¾c as to location.

Oats by sample were slow, weak and ½@1½c lower, the latter on poor and light weight. There were fair offerings but the demand was so poor that part of samples had to be carried over. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 at 38c. No. 4 White at 38@39c. No 3 at 37c. No 3 White at 38¾@40c. Standard at 40@41c. No 2 at 39¼@39½c. Billed through: No. 4 White at 36@38¼c. No. 3 White at 39@40c. Standard at 41@41c. No 2 at 39c. At the river: No. 4 White at 34@37c. No. 3 White at 39c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were active and unsettled and lower.

MARCH—Closed at 38⅞c.

MAY—Irregular. Sold at 38⅝@39¼c. Opened at 39c to 39⅛c; sold at 39¼c, to 38⅝c, to 39⅛c at close.

JULY—Good trading. Sold at 37@37¾c. Opened at 37⅛c, sold to 37c, to 37⅝c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 31¼@32c. Opened at 31⅞c to 32c, sold to 31¼c, to 31½@31⅝c at close.

RYE—Ruled easier and 1c lower, excepting for July, which was firmer. Demand light and market quiet. Only one car received and no withdrawals from store here and no export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store round lots nominally 6?c, and fresh arrivals free on board about 69c. No. 3 sold at 65c, and No. 4 at 64c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet. May sold at 70c and that the closing. July 65c bid and 66c sellers.

BARLEY—There was not much to the market from the fact that offerings were very small and demand was little if any better. As has been the case lately, good to choice or fancy malting Barley was salable and steady; of the former there were a few cars, but of latter kinds none. Feed and mixing Barley met with but the minutest demand. A little bright, clean mixing Barley would sell, but dark, dirty or musty was not wanted, and a heavier grade, feed Barley, was little called for and would not bring values asked. Postings to-day gave only 12 cars inspected in. Under grades weak and about 1c decline quoted. Screenings quotable at a range of 30@39c for poor to very choice. Barley, mixing, 37@39c local, depending on soundness and color; fancy bright possibly a shade over, and poor musty cars down to 31@33c. Feed Barley about 38c—that was about all that was bid for good. Malting—low grade, 40@41c; common, 42@44c; fair was about 45@47c; good, 48@50c; choice, 52@55c.

SEEDS—No important changes occurred. Northwestern cash Flax was quotably 1c better, but otherwise there were no price changes. Timothy heavy. Clover steady and late sowing Seeds generally easy, but not changed.

Timothy—Not quite so much on sale as there has been lately. There was at the same time a good supply, plenty of Seed for the demand. Inquiry moderate. The weather was much improved, but it has not been right long enough to have much influence. Market heavy for all ordinary cash lots, steady for high grades as there are few of these, and contract steady with late quoted prices obtainable. Country lots quotable again over a range of $2.00@2.80 for poor to very fancy; outside would have to be extra fine, not hulled, and none like that coming; fair to good, $2.40@2.50; choice $2.55@2.60, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2.25@2.30. March, April and May deliveries, contract Seed, nominally $2.85 this was bid for March and April; later offered at $3.00. September was nominally about $3.00.

Flax—There was a nominal advance of 1c for Northwestern cash Flax. Otherwise there was no change in values. The market was without trading. More Flax reported in, 20 cars being posted, but none came on sale. There were withdrawals of 2,3?5 bu. Minneapolis reported receipts of 10 cars and Duluth 35 cars. No. 1 Northwestern was $1.14 bid. No 1 remained nominally $1.07½ bid. Rejected quotable at $1.05@1.07, outside for choice from the Northwest. March was nominally $1.07½. May delivery $1.10 bid and $1.11 asked. September about $1.16.

Clover—Was called steady at late reduced prices. Offerings limited to a few small lots or ordinary to poor quality. Nothing nice on the market. Weather clear and nice. If this continues better business is looked for. Country lots, common to choice, $8.00@10.25; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds $7.50@8.75; poor cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3.00@6.00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8.50@9.75.

Other Seeds—There were both Hungarian and Millet offerings. An easy market quotable, with no essential change. Sales are elsewhere given. Quotable prices were as follows: Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark at $1.50@1.75. Common Millet $1.00@1.40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1.00@1.40. Siberian, $1.00@1.05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@90c. Mustard, $1.00@1.15. Buckwheat easy: good milling, $1.40.

HOG PRODUCTS—A fair speculative business was transacted in Hog Products and the feeling was easier. Outside orders were fair and largely on the selling side and local trading was moderately active. Hogs were in fair supply, and sold at higher prices, and the receipts at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 62,300, compared with 68,800 one year ago, but these features had no perceptible influence on the market. Grain markets were weak, especially Corn, and this factor encouraged a little selling, especially by "longs." Demand was moderate, and partially from the "short" interest. Prices ruled lower on all the leading articles but rallied somewhat toward close, and ruled steady. July delivery met with most favor. Foreign advices indicated a quiet feeling in Meats at former prices, while Lard was steadier and 6d higher. Domestic markets were quiet. Receipts of Products were good—of Lard and Meats about 25 cars. Shipments were fair—of Lard and Meats about 112 cars. Very little demand on shipping account, and offerings were moderate. Sales were limited, and prices inclined in favor of buyers.

Mess Pork—Trade was fairly active in Mess Pork and the feeling was easier. Offerings were moderately free, and the demand was only fair. "Longs" realized on fair quantities. Prices on the whole range declined 30@32½c but rallied again 15@17½, and the market closed rather steady. Shipping demand was light and offerings were small. Cash lots quotable at $12.87½@13.00.

MAY—In moderate request and offerings were fair. Sales were made at $12.75@13.07½. Opened at $13.07½, sold to $12.95, to $13.00, to $12.92½, to $12.95, to $12.90, to $12.92½, to $12.75, to $12.80, to $12.75, to $12.82½, to $12.80, to $12.92½, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were moderately free, and the demand was only fair. Sales were made at $12.95@13.27½. Opened at $13.25 to $13.27½, sold to $13.22½, to $13.25, to $13.12½, to $13.15, to $13.10, to $13.12½, to $13.15, to $12.97½, to $13.02½, to $12.95, to $13.02½, to $13.00, to $13.05, to $13.02½, to $13.12½, and closed steady.

Lard—Only a moderate business was transacted in Lard. Offerings were fair, and the demand was not urgent. Feeling was rather easy. Foreign advices more favorable to holders. Opening trades were made at 2½@5c decline and a further reduction of 7½@10c was submitted to. Toward the close, the feeling was steadier, and prices ruled about 2½@5c higher. The market closed steady. Demand on shipping account light and offerings moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6.72½@6.75. Loose lots called for sparingly and offerings were rather light. Prices were steady at about 60 discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in small request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably steady at $6.75. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $7.50@7.62½ for No 1, and $7.25@7.37½ for No. 2.

MAY—In moderate request and offerings were only fair. Sales were made at $6.85@6.92½. Opened at $6.92½, sold to $6.87½, to $6.90, to $6.85, to $6.90, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were fairly liberal and the demand was moderate. Sales were made at $6.97½@7.10. Opened at $7.10, sold to $7.05, to $7.07½, to $7.02½@7.05, to $7.07½, to $6.97½, to $7.05, and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—A fairly good trade was reported in the market for Short Rib Sides and the feeling was easier. Offerings were moderately free, while the demand was only fair. Holders a little anxious to realize and trading mainly on local account. Prices on the whole range ruled 10@12½c lower, but rallied 7½@10c toward the close, and the market closed steady. Shipping demand was light and offerings were moderate. Cash lots quotable at $6.50@6.62½ according to weight.

MAY—In moderate request and offerings were fair. Sales were made at $6.67½@6.80. Opened at $6.80, sold to $6.72½, to $6.75, to $6.72½, to $6.75 to $6.67½, to $6.77½, to $6.75@6.77½ and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were fairly liberal and the demand was moderately active. Sales were made at $6.82½@6.92½. Opened at $6.92½, sold to $6.87½, to $6.90, to $6.87½, to $6.90, to $6.82½, to $6.90, and closed steady.

Other Meats—Trade was somewhat limited and the feeling rather steady. Offerings were only fair. Demand was moderate for the home trade. Export inquiry very limited. Green Meats were in fair supply and rather light demand and prices ruled steady. Pickled Meats were in moderate request to fill limited orders and prices favored buyers. Dry Salted Meats were in fair demand in a quiet way and prices ruled steady. Smoked Meats called for in fair quantities, especially in a jobbing way, and prices were unchanged. Closing ranged as follows:

GREEN—Hams, av 10@12 lbs, 9¼@9⅜c; 12@14 lbs, 9⅛@9¼c; 14@16 lbs, 9@9⅛c; 18@20 lbs, 9⅛@9¼c. Skinned Hams, 10¼@10⅜c. Shoulders, 6¼@6⅜c; Picnic Hams, 6@6⅜c; Bellies 9¼@11½c. AGRICULTURE IN GREAT BRITAIN.

[From the London Agricultural Gazette, March 7.]

Snow sleet and rain have added to the hindrance to field work during the past week, when the frost was out of the ground. In some districts the snow has not nearly all melted, and where it has disappeared the soil is very wet. It is, however, somewhat loosened on the surface through the action of frost, so that a few days would set it in good condition for the early Spring crops of Pulse crops and Oats, though not, perhaps, for Barley. Hardly a gleam of sunshine was to be seen last week, and the bitterly cold and cheerless wind rendered work out of doors extremely trying. In the early part of the week the land was hard enough for carting to be carried on over it, so that it was possible to get on to some areas of field work; but since Wednesday morning, in spite of the extreme coldness of the wind, there has not been any frost worth mentioning, and the snow on the ground in most parts of the country prevented sowing or even plowing. Thus the first week of March will have passed without a start in sowing having been made in the greater part of the country.

THE HOP SITUATION.

[New York Producers' Price Current, March 19.]

A continued slow, dragging market with scarcely anything doing here is about all that can be reported regarding the Hop market. Brewers cannot be interested in view of the continued cold weather and light consumption of beer, though it is known that many have allowed their stocks to run down very closely. We notice one small sale to a brewer at eight cents for prime stock, but had to be removed from the dock and the holder simply sacrificed the cost of freight rather than put in store. Dealers still claim little if anything in the situation to worry over, and maintain strong values and not disposed to urge business at any concession. On the coast holders are beginning to show a little more anxiety and inquiries for sale. This continued absence of business for a period now covering eight consecutive weeks has, however, caused a somewhat unsettled feeling, and that we expect to hurry parties would require a no-estate considerable concessions, and we feel warranted in making some reduction from late quoted figures.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET.

BOSTON, March 18.—The Commercial Bulletin says: "The Wool market is dull and featureless. The demand is still for what is in small stocks. Medium grades generally are in moderate supply. Recent importations of Australian and South American cross breds have been cleaned up closely and are sold to arrive. In sympathy with London, the local market is firmer, but dealers do not consider blood is no higher than 36c, and foreign cross breds are selling at the same old prices. Merchants are uncertain how to act upon the new clip question. There is a conservative feeling because of Presidential year and not very favorable trade reports. It is doubtful, however, if the clip will be bought any cheaper than last year.

"The shipments of Wool from Boston to date from Dec 31, 1903, are 51,162,735 lbs, against 57,027,-282 lbs at the same date last year. The receipts to date are 36,310,180 lbs, against 43,472,892 lbs for the same period last year."

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The Southwest is without moisture this morning no rains in Kansas or Oklahoma. There is practically no moisture anywhere in Texas or Mississippi, but there are heavy rains in Southern Illinois and heavy rains all over the Ohio Valley, in Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee. Temperatures are moderate. Mercury is above freezing in all the Corn States

Indications are the Western storm will continue its movement East, accompanied by showers in the greater portion of the district, turning to snow flurries and colder in Northwest Temperatures will rise in central valleys to-night.

A dispatch from Gary says: "A reduction of 20 per cent in the wage scale of members of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers will be voted on this week. President Shaffer has hinted that the reduction will be accepted by the men."

During the last year the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company has spent over $1,300,000 in the purchase of minority stock of the United States Court, Monday, and assigned for argument next October.

The report that the Dolcath and Great Western Railroad Company, a subsidiary company of the Chicago Great Western, would build a line about 120 miles long from some point on the Chicago Great Western in Ogle County, Illinois, to Peoria, was contrary to the general offices of the company in St. Paul Friday.

Dornbusch of March 11 says: "Weather was unsettled in France this week, but mainly favorable for Wheat and Rye. Business in Wheat was poor and doing as well as can be expected. Provincial markets share in the dullness and supplies are small, as farmers are busy on the land There is scarcely any inquiry for foreign Wheat and prices are lower."

A called meeting of the stockholders of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company at Davenport, Iowa, March 30, will vote on the $163,000,00 bond issue, and indorsed the lease of the Choctaw, Oklahoma and Gulf Railroad and the purchase of the following lines: Minneapolis and St. Paul Terminal Railway, Choctaw, Oklahoma and Western Railroad, Searcy and Des Arc Railway, and the Hazen and Northern Railway.

Indications are that there will be comparatively little new railway building in the United States this year. The construction will be principally in the way of finishing projections started. There has not been a complete recovery from the check in new work which followed the disturbance in the financial world last summer, and while a large amount of work has been planned, much of it is being held up until money conditions are more favorable.

"A marked improvement," says an official of the Republic Iron and Steel Company, "is noticeable in the Iron and Steel trade, and I believe that the Steel and Iron trade will do a fair business during the current year The railroads are not buying, except on a very limited scale, but the past winter has not been severe, and I think we shall be surprised if they do not appear as buyers of materials in good volume during the spring or summer."

The creditors of the Paris, Ill., Gas Light and Coke Company, now in the hands of receivers, have petitioned in the Circuit Court for an order of foreclosure, and Judge Craig has appointed a special Master in Chancery to take testimony in the matter. The principal creditors of the insolvent company are the American Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago and the First National and Edgar County National Banks of Paris. The plant is valued at $90 000.

United States Federal Judge Thayer in St. Louis, Saturday overruled the demurrer of St. Louis ticket scalpers to injunctions restraining them from selling railroad tickets, and delivered a strong opinion on the rights of railroads to enforce the validity of contracts on non-transferable tickets. This is the first opinion in the country on the subject. Several Courts conceding rights to enjoin all ticket scalpers from dealing in all forms of non-transferable tickets.

At an important meeting in Indianapolis, Ind., Saturday, of representatives of six Telephone companies operating trunk lines extending from Philadelphia to Texas, having connection with the United States long distance lines, viz: Postal, Topeka, Kan., and Minneapolis, Minn., on the west and northwest, an agreement was reached providing for a uniform toll rate over all lines. To formulate a specific agreement a committee was appointed.

The world's Cotton crop for 1902 3 is estimated by the Department of Agriculture at 17,179,765 bales, valued at $757,087,335. This is based on the latest data available, the figures in most instances representing the Cotton appearing in commercial channels. With this crop of 10,787,183 bales of the East India crop which averages 400 lbs per bale, the bales, given are of an average weight of 500 lbs The total includes estimates of the Chickasaw and Choctaw crops.

Shareholders of the Cleveland and Pittsburg Railroad will hold a special meeting May 19 to vote on a proposition of the directors to increase capital stock by $15,000,000, making the $61,250,000 stock now outstanding is guaranteed a 7 per cent dividend by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. The new shares, if authorized, will be guaranteed an annual 6 per cent dividend. The profits from the sale of the new securities will be used to pay for improvements perfected and planned.

Dornbusch of March 11 says: "Wintery conditions in Germany during the week given way to finer weather. Crops may be rather backward, but they are reported to have come through the winter with but little damage. There has been a downward tendency in Wheat in consequence of the weakness in America. Consumptive demand has slackened, and 'term' business is only a shadow of what it was two or three weeks ago. Rye partic pates in the dullness, and feedingstuffs are all weaker."

Justice Holmes, of the United States Supreme Court, Monday, delivered judgment in the case of the American Express Company vs the Auditor of the State of Indiana, declaring invalid the Indiana law of 1901 providing for the taxation of express companies and telegraph companies. The express company claimed the effect of this law was to tax its outside property, and thus interfere with interstate commerce. Two circuit courts upheld this view and reversed the decision of the lower court.

In the report of the Otis Elevator Company for the fiscal year ended Dec. 31, resulting in showing a small decrease in net earnings, is yet so good as to amply justify the dividend declared on the common stock. Net earnings for the year were $906,054, a decrease of $70,396 over those of the preceding year. After the payment of the preferred dividends of 8 per cent, there remained $575,584, or 9 65 per cent on the $5,850,00 common stock outstanding. The earnings the previous year amounted to nearly 11 per cent on the common.

A crop expert has returned from a thorough inspection of the Southwest in Winter Wheat belt. He carefully examined the growing Wheat in the four principal States—Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, and Missouri—and nowhere observed much fall. Wheat had been winter killed. The top growth, however, is very small, owing to the lack of moisture, but with a good root growth in almost every locality. With a continuation of dry weather damage will appear later on, but with an average spring the Southwestern Wheat crop will not be materially lessened.

If the earnings of the Steel Corporation for the current quarter are as small as reported, the surplus at the close of March 31 will be the smallest reported by the combine in many months. The surplus at present aggregates $90,000,000, and if the regular provision is made for the preferred dividends, sinking funds, interest on bonds, etc., the surplus will be in the neighborhood of about $57,000 000 if earnings don't exceed $11,000,000 Deducting the $25,000,00 with wh ch the corporation started in business, leaves a surplus of $32,000,000 actually earned since the company was organized.

The Union Pacific and Burlington Roads, Monday, announced a joint rate on Grain from Nebraska points to St. Louis and East St. Louis, taking the rate i. The same roads in conjunction with the Northwestern, Milwaukee and Great Western Roads, also announce new rates from Nebraska points to intermediate stations between the Missouri River and Chicago, taking the tariff to these points. The Chicago-Missouri River lines are given a free hand in adjusting the Chicago Grain tariffs east of the river. This practically clears up the Grain rate war which has existed for several months.

A New York dispatch to the Chicago Inter Ocean says: "The Beef Trust has advanced the wholesale price of fresh Beef in New York, Brooklyn and Jersey City from 4c to 5c per lb, according to quality, making the wholesale price of fresh Meat up to 9½@12c. The advance is arbitrary. There is no scarcity of Beef and Mutton. On the contrary, there is a tremendous glut of fresh Meat here and in the warehouses of Chicago and other Western points. The cold storage warehouse in Jersey City is loaded to the limit and the enormous cold storage plant of the Merchants' Refrigerating Company, Jersey City, contains many car loads of fresh Beef. The manager of the latter company declined to tell how much it had. The plant has a capacity of 3,000 car loads."

The Inter-State Commerce Commission, Monday, announced its decision in the case of the Central Bakers' Association of Kansas City, Kansas, and the Chicago Live Stock Exchange, intervener, against the Chicago Burlington and Quincy and other railroad companies running into Kansas City and Chicago. The commission holds that the statute of limitation does not apply to the suit of the members of the association for damages, and denies the procedure to the Commission for reparation through the commission The complainant and the intervener are given leave to show to what territory the through rate reduction of 1898 applied, and if it was applied to any such territory to which such reduction did not apply, and from which no reduction has been made, defendants will be allowed to show, since conditions may have changed sufficiently to justify them in the original order, that the through rate from that territory is reasonable, notwithstanding the addition of the terminal charge of $2 00 per car in Chicago.

Peace is in sight in the fight over assets of the International Packing Company, Chicago, according to representations made to Judge Dunne, Monday. As a result Judge Boore, in charge of the company's property at the Stock Yards, was not held in contempt of court for refusing to turn over the property to Receiver John C. McPherson. An agreement was reached between the attorneys for the opposing bondholders of the International company, that the names of the officers of the company will be made known to both sides at an early date. This will avert the threat to mandate possession of the company's books and assets by Receiver McPherson if the Appellate Court decides not to discharge him from his post. A part of the peace plan a stipulation was filed, in which it was agreed that Boore will not deliver to any person property of the International company save at the order of the Court. The injunction is for one week, during which time McPherson is to cease efforts to take the Stock Yards property in dispute between the contending parties of bondholders.

As more of the depositary banks are now transferring their quotas of the Panama Canal money to New York, national bank circulation tends to increase somewhat rapidly. During the week 1,491,-000 issued during the past week was $1 818,950, and the amount destroyed was $3,542 057, making the net increase for the week $1,291,893, and making the total circulation outstanding on Saturday last $398,838. The net reduction in the amount of bonds held by the Treasurer to secure public moneys during the past week was $1,625,350. Of this amount $1,625,000 were 2 per cent consols deposited to secure circulation and the remainder in other classes of United States bonds held as security for circulation indicates that the banks which had them on deposit to secure public moneys are disposed to take out additional circulation on them, notwithstanding the higher tax, rather than sell them at the present state of the bond market.

Since the decision in the merger case by the United States Supreme Court a great deal of speculation has been indulged in regarding the exact nature of the dissenting opinions rendered by Justices Fuller, Holmes, Peckham and White. In some quarters it has been understood that the dissenting opinion held in effect that the Sherman Law was operating contrary to the Constitutional limit., and that the four Justices concurring in the minority were of the opinion that the act of 1890 was illegal. This view of the case, however, is not agreed to by leading constitutional authorities in Congress who are studying the decisions It is held that there was no declaration, direct or implied, that the Sherman Law as a whole is unconstitutional, and that the minority members of the court simply held that the merger per se did not come within the scope of the law as an offense. The four minority Justices held to the simple ground of lack of application of the law rather than that the law itself was without constitutional authority. Prominent constitutional lawyers in the Senate and the House are practically united in this deduction

A New York foreign exchange firm says: "Gold exports to Buenos Aryentina Republic this week amount to $1,220,000, making a total of $3,000 so far this year. We believe that the movement to South America is near an end, and from now on the balance will favor exchange on France. The present rate of exchange is so close to where exports can be made that the question rests more now with the price of sterling in Paris than anything else. How much Gold is to be exported is now the question of the hour. Will most of the Panama payments be made in Gold? We think not, and believe that Europe is again becoming interested in American securities. Unless more 'war panics' occur upon the European bourses public confidence will return, and they will buy our bonds and stocks. Certainly this should be plausible, the situation abroad is better, and now that our security market has had a shock it is to be people will see that the whole world is not to be set afire, but that the war will be confined to a small area. Owing to these circumstances, we do not look for any more large exports of Gold, and think by the firmness of the exchange market that it is possible France will receive her share of the Panama payments before Wall Street is aware of the fact."

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Lake Street Elevated Railroad Company, Chicago, to be held March 24, which has been considerable talk of a further postponement, but this is not likely. The plan of reorganization is now being carried out by the securities committee and it is highly probable that the stockholders' meeting will be asked to vote on the new leases, change of name, or whatever may be necessary to carry out the plan. It is stated no further postponement will be asked. A generous response has already been made to the call of the securities committee for the payment of assessments on the stock, but only a small per cent of the total expected under the call has yet been paid. The money is payable at the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank before April 2. The fact of payment will be indicated by a receipt on the margin of stock that are presented with the assessments. The new securities will be ready about April 10. It is presumed the receipts thus stamped will sell for 90 cents on the dollar in the open market for a time As there is likely to be trading in both classes of receipts on the local Exchange between now and the final winding up of the reorganization, it is probable that the Board will make room for the unlisted department of the local Exchange within a few days. There will then be five classes of Lake Street Elevated securities traded in on the Chicago Stock Exchange, as follows: Old and new mortgage bonds, income bonds, stock, receipts for stock, and stamped receipts for stock

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

New York Exchange 10c premium.

Documentary Sterling firm at 483¾.

Chicago Bank Clearings to-day, $26,172,071.

Estimated receipts of Hogs for to-morrow, 17,000.

Consols closed unchanged at 86 for money and 86 1-16 for the account.

Reported that 88,000 bu Wheat and 24,000 bu Corn were taken at the seaboard to-day for export.

Six packers purchased 7,400 Hogs to-day: shippers, 9,000; left over, 2,000. Market closed strong.

Top Cattle at Chicago, Wednesday, sold at $5 75, against $5 00 at Kansas City, St. Joseph and St. Louis.

Hogs received at Sioux City last week averaged 232 lbs, against 230 lbs the previous week, and 214 lbs a year ago.

The New York Coffee and Cotton Exchanges have voted to close Good Friday, April 1, and the Saturday following.

Broomhall's Argentine agent estimates the exports for the week at 3,200,000 bu Wheat and 400,000 bu Corn. Weather favorable.

The Kansas City weather man says it will 8 to 10 degrees below freezing in Kansas to-night and to-morrow, following to-day's rain.

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago, Wednesday, was $5 23, against $5 24 Tuesday, $5 17 Monday, $5 42 a week ago, and $7 50 a year ago.

Local Securities were moderately traded in with an unsettled feeling. There were small gains and losses in most Industrials, and good declines in Elevated shares.

Weekly statement of the Bank of England shows an increase in Bullion of $597,625. Proportion of reserve to liability 49.27 per cent, against 50.55 per cent last week.

All reports from the interior tell of a breaking up of the roads and reduced farmers' deliveries of Grain and all kinds of Produce, so that receipts are expected to be small for some time.

At the special meeting of the stockholders of the Choctaw, Oklahoma and Gulf Railway, held to-day, it was unanimously voted to lease the road to the Rock Island system for a term of 999 years.

Bank of England has reduced the semi-annual dividend to 4½ per cent. This makes the annual basis below 10 per cent for the first time in many years. The last dividend declared was 5 per cent.

The Governors of the New York Stock Exchange have decided to close on Good Friday, April 1, but have refused to agree to the request for a double holiday, and the Exchange will be open Saturday, April 2.

Cotton in New York was active and irregular. "Shorts" were good sellers at one time and buyers to cover at higher prices. The South was a good buyer. The market closed 20@27 points higher on near futures and 2@5 points up on deferred deliveries.

The Cincinnati Price Current in its weekly crop summary says: "It has been a favorable week for Wheat. Crop prospects are improving in the Southwest, but still unpromising in the Ohio Valley, and actual condition uncertain. Bad roads restricting interior Grain movement. Land generally favorable for spring seeding."

Broomhall cables from Liverpool: "The afternoon rally in the American Wheat markets and private advices of unfavorable outlook in the Ohio Valley, caused a steady Liverpool opening. Later, both lost a little on poor spot demand. The late strength in America caused opening gain in Corn, but remainder of session was very dull."

The Cincinnati Price Current reports the packing of the West for the week at 370,000 Hogs, compared with 350,000 for the week previous, and 290,000 for the corresponding week in 1903. Aggregate packing since March 1 reported at 1,155,000 Hogs compared with 1,050,000 for the corresponding time last year—an increase of 105,000 Hogs.

Stocks in Wall Street were advanced early on London's buying and covering by "shorts," but sold off on realizing. Union Pacific broke 1½ and other Railway shares lost ½ to 1 point. Great Northern lost 8 points. There is said to be a shortage in Pennsylvania and Steel preferred of over 300,000 shares. Industrials were unsettled and mostly lower. Money 1¾ per cent.

The Cincinnati Price Current estimates the summer packing of the West at 12,877,000 Hogs, compared with 12,147,000 Hogs in 1902, an increase of 730,000. Winter packing ending March 1, 1904 estimated at 9,499,000 Hogs, compared with 8,456,000 in 1902-3—an increase of 1,040,000. Total packing for twelve months 22,376,000 Hogs, compared with 20,606,000 in 1902-3—an increase of 1,770,000.

The Northwestern Miller says: "Kansas reports good rains over a greater part of the Wheat belt, which have worked appreciable benefit to the growing crop. In Michigan and the Ohio Valley there has been too much rain and snow, and that the resultant floods have done a good deal of harm to the new Wheat can scarcely be questioned, though the extent of it is problematical at the present time."

Indications are that a storm will move Eastward over the Central Valleys, accompanied by general showers and thunderstorms. Snow will continue in the Northwestern States. The cold wave will overspread the entire trans Mississippi region during to-night and Friday. Temperature will rise in this section to-night, but will fall by Friday night. There are to be showers in Kansas, Nebraska, Illinois, Indiana, Missouri and Iowa, but this moisture is to be followed by a cold wave.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—The market is quiet and a little easier, last week's figures being shaded 5c in some instances.

WINTER WHEAT—Was in good demand and prices 1@2c higher. Receipts small and offerings light. No. 2 Red in store sold to-day at 5c over May, the price being 98½c, and the range 92@98⅜c, depending on quality and location. Fresh arrivals were quotable at 98½c@$1 01. No. 3 Red fresh receipts quotable at 95c@$1 00. No. 4 Red sold at 85c. No. 2 Hard local free on board quotable at 90@98c, and No. 3 Hard at 86@92c. No. 4 Hard sold at the river at 75½@77c.

SPRING WHEAT—A good demand existed—chiefly on milling account and prices were advanced 1@2c. No. 1 Northern in store quotable at 91¾@94⅛c and fresh arrivals free on board at 95@99c. No 3 Spring sold at 95c and was quotable 85@97c for ordinary to very choice hard variety. No. 4 sold at 67@70c for ordinary, and at 82c for good and was quotable at 60@92c for very poor to very choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—Was fairly active, with a good trade. Sentiment changed about from the "bear" to the "bull" side, and the close showed the May up 2c, while July gained 1⅛@1¼c and the September 1⅜c. The weather and crop news was the chief "bull" incentive, and commission house buying was better than for several days. Cables were firm, a cold wave was predicted West, and the Price Current crop summary was construed as moderately "bullish." Crop advices from Indiana were unfavorable. The Price Current stated the week had been a favorable one for the Wheat crop. Prospects improving in the Southwest but in the Ohio Valley is still unpromising and it's actual condition uncertain. Showers and thunderstorms were predicted for Illinois, Indiana and Missouri; showers and thunderstorms for Kansas this afternoon; fair to-night and cold wave for Friday. Kansas City wired: "Our weather man says it will be 8 to 10 degrees below freezing in Kansas to-night and to-morrow, following to-day's rain." Liverpool quoted spot unchanged and futures ⅛d higher. London came ⅛d higher to ⅛d lower. Cargoes on ocean passage was reported steady. Paris was ½c higher to ½c lower and Antwerp unchanged. Berlin was up ⅛c and Buda Pesth ⅜d lower. A sale of 20,000 bu No 2 Red was reported here at 5c over May and No 1 Northern sold ¼c under the May. St Louis reported the sale of 60,000 bu No 2 Red to go to Detroit mills yesterday, and it is estimated St. Louis stocks will decrease 400,000 bu this week. Minneapolis stocks have increased 75,000 bu so far this week. Primary receipts 53,000 bu ahead of 1903 and Northwest arrivals 3 cars larger. Kansas City and St Louis received 63,000 bu, against 67,000 bu last year, and the shipments were 184,000 bu. Some buying of September for foreign account was reported. Flour output for the week was 543,000 brls, compared with 539,000 brls last year. Part of the early buying was credited to the Southwest. Local Provision interests also made fair purchases. Kansas had rain in the South and East and there was also rain in Oklahoma. California, too, had more moisture. Minneapolis reported 29 cars of Winter Wheat in to-day's arrivals. Clearings were small and 11 boat loads were accepted at the seaboard. Argentine shipments this week were estimated at 3,200,000 bu. Minneapolis predicted a large decrease in country elevator stocks in the Northwest this month. Receipts at Duluth 31 cars and at Minneapolis 266 cars, a total of 297 cars, against 268 cars yesterday, 274 cars a week ago, and 242 cars last year. Local receipts included 7 cars Winter, 7 cars Spring and none mixed, a total of 14 cars, against 24 cars last year. Included in the above was 1 car of contract grade. There were 4 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow not reported. Withdrawals were 20,200 bu. Receipts at Western points were 416,378 bu, against 362,794 bu last year. At Eastern points 82,260 bu, against 70,912 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 352,663 bu, against 196,591 bu last year, and from Eastern points none, against 87,226 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 27,632 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 124,394 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Active trade and prices higher.

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 80⅞@82⅛c. Opened with sales at 80⅞c to 81c; sold to 81¼c, to 82¼c, to 81⅝c, to 82c, to 81½c to 82⅜c, to 82½c, to 82⅛c, to 82¼c, and closed at 82¼c.

CORN—Just a fair trade and moderately active market, fluctuations covering ¼@1c range. The tone, while a little mixed, was firm on the whole and the close was ⅜c higher for the May, while the July gained ⅛c and the September ⅛c. Receipts were small, cables firm and Wheat higher and were the principal strengthening influences. Commission houses and "shorts" were fair buyers and locals sold, part of the July offerings being credited to Provision interests. Receipts were 138 cars, with 76 cars low grades. Liverpool quoted futures ¼d higher and spot ¼@½d lower. Southwestern markets were stronger. Unsettled conditions were indicated east of the Mississippi River, and a cold wave for Kansas and Nebraska. Western receipts were 319,000 bu, or 19,000 bu ahead of last year, and shipments 315,000 bu were 1,6,000 bu larger. Exports were 200,000 bu. 3 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Indianapolis complained that there was some difficulty being experienced in Indiana in obtaining Seed Corn. Local arrivals were 199,000 bu and the shipments 128,000 bu. Transfers from private to public elevators 23,100 bu and 128 cars. Shipping demand continues moderate and sales small. Argentine shipments were estimated this week at 400,000 bu. Car lots were in good demand and moderate supply. Prices about ½@1c higher. No. 2 closed about 50¾c and No 2 Yellow at 51¾c. No. 3 closed 43@50¼c, and No 3 Yellow at 45@51¼c.

Corn by sample—Was in better demand and the offerings were moderate. Feeling firmer and prices unchanged to 1c higher. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 36@39½c. No. 4 at 41@42¼c. No 3 at 43@49c. No. 3 Yellow at 45@47c. No. 2 at 51@51½c. No. 2 Yellow at 52c. No 3 White at 42½@45½c. Billed through: No Grade at 38½@39c. No. 4 at 40@41½c. No 3 at 41½@42½c. No 3 Yellow at 42½@45c. No 3 White at 41½c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Moderately active and firmer, closing ⅛@⅜c higher.

MARCH Inactive and nominal closed at 50⅜c.

MAY—Sold at 51½@52½c. Opened at 52c to 51¾c and sold at 52¼c, to 52⅛c to 52¼@52⅜c, to 52c, to 52⅜c, to 51½c, to 52½c, to 52⅛c, to 52½c, to 52¼c, to 52⅜c, and closed at 52⅜c asked.

JULY—Sold at 49⅛@49⅞c. Opened at 49½c to 49¼@49⅜c, sold to 49¾c, to 49½@49⅝c to 49⅜c@49¼c, to 49½@49⅞c, to 49⅜c, to 49½c, to 49⅞c, to 49½@49⅝c, to 49⅜c to 49½@49⅝c and closed at 49½@49⅝c bid.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 48¾@49¼c. Opened at 48⅞c, and sold at 49⅛c to 48¾c, to 49@49⅛c, to 49c, to 49¼c to 49c, and closed at 49c bid.

OATS—Were traded in moderately. Prices were influenced part of the time by the advance in Wheat and Corn, but despite the irregularity the close was easy at a net loss of ⅛@¼c. There was good selling on all strong spots. Theories as to the acreage this year are at variance, some reports suggest a large increase, others a decrease. Cash business was slow, the East getting Oats that have been delayed in transit. Sales here were 25,000 bu. Arrivals were 123 cars. There was 14 cars Standard from private elevators. Seaboard clearances were 22,000 bu. Car lots to go to store were firmer to ½c higher. Standard in store closed about 38@38½c.

Oats by sample were taken more readily and prices were steady to ½c higher despite weakness in futures. Sales on track and free on board. No 4 at 32@37¾c. No. 4 White at 33@39c. No. 3 at 38c. No. 3 White at 39@41½c. Standard at 41@42c. No 2 at 39@39¼c. Billed through: No. 4 White at 36@39½c. No. 3 White at 39@40¾c. Standard at 40¾@41¼c. At the river: No 4 White at 32@38c. No 3 White at 38½c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were moderately active and closed lower.

MARCH—Closed at 38c.

MAY—Liberal trading. Sales were at 38⅝@38⅞c and at 39⅛@39¼c. Opened at 39¼@39⅛c, sold to 38⅞@38½c, to 39c, to 38¾@38⅞c at close.

JULY—Active. Sold at 37⅛@37⅞c. Opened at 37½@37⅝c, sold to 37⅞c, to 37½@37⅝c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 31⅜@31⅞c. Opened at 31½@31⅝c to 31⅝c; sold to 31⅞c, to 31⅜c, to 31⅝c at close.

RYE—The market was very quiet and without change in prices. Demand limited; offerings also light, and there was general indifference shown to trade. There was only one car load received and there were no export clearances. No 2 in store nominally 68c and fresh arrivals quotably 70c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet—no trading. May 70c bid and 71c asked. July 66c bid and 68c asked.

BARLEY—Of good malting Barley, the kind buyers were willing to take, there was little or none offered. Such a kind was quotably salable and steady. Only a very small quantity of any grade of malting on sale. The poorer qualities had very little demand. Lower grade goods, feed and mixing, almost entirely neglected. Now and then a buyer would take just such a car as would suit and for the rest there were almost no bids. For these low grades the market was very sick. Even with arrivals very small, some cars go over unsold every day. Inspected in to-day, 19 cars. Screenings dull, especially when poor, almost no sale for them; quotable over a range of 30@39c for poor to very choice. Barley, mixing, 37@39c local, depending on soundness and color; fancy bright possibly a shade over. Feed Barley about 38@39c for good. Malting—low grade, 40@41c; common, 43@44c; fair was about 46@47c; good, 48@50c; choice, 52@55c.

SEEDS—There was a fair trade in Timothy, with ordinary grades in good supply, but market bare of choice. Other lines quiet and Grass Seeds showed no marked change, but there was in Flax some improvement.

Timothy—A very good supply appeared. There was nothing of a high grade in the offerings. Some Seed was very nice, only that it had a good deal of plantain in it. High grades wanted and quotably strong. There was plenty of common to good. Such grades sold at unchanged prices, seemed to be heavy, and yet at the late reduction in values there was a fair demand. In futures nothing was done. Cash sales were at $2 00@2 50 for poor to good, and country lots quotable over a range of $2 00@2 80 for poor to very fancy; outside would have to be extra fine, not hulled; none like that coming; fair to good, $2 40@2 50; choice $2 55@2 60, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 25@2 35. March, April and May deliveries, contract Seed, nominally $2 85, this was again bid for March and April. September offered at $3 25, with no regular bids.

Flax—Without any trading being done values were again quoted as improved. Nominal quotations, compared with yesterday, were ½@1c higher. The market was without offerings. Fourteen cars or 11,901 bu reported in, and 1 cars or 1,019 bu taken out. Minneapolis got 18 cars and Duluth 48 cars. For No. 1 Northwestern $1 15 was bid. No 1 nominally $1 08½. Rejected quotable at $1 01@1 08, outside for choice from the Northwest. March was nominally $1 08½. May delivery $1 11 bid. September offered at $1 17.

Clover—The tone of the market was about steady for good qualities. There perhaps has been a little improvement in this respect. Common and low grades, however, rule dull; no special demand for these. Outside business as yet remains quiet. Country lots, common to choice, $8 00@10 25; fancy above, mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $7 50@8 75; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 75.

Other Seeds—Were quotably dull, slow and easy. Offerings small and there is but the same thing to be said of the demand. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark at $1 35@1 75. Common Millet $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 40. Siberian, 85c@$1 05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@85c. Mustard, $ 00@1 05. Buckwheat easy; good milling, $1 30.

HOG PRODUCTS—Less interest was manifested in the market for Hog Products. Outside orders were smaller than for several days past, and local speculators and packers were not inclined to do much business. Hogs were in smaller supply than generally anticipated, and prices ruled higher, and this feature had a little influence in strengthening the market, especially as the Grain markets were stronger in a general way. Trading was on a moderate scale, and prices ruled slightly higher, though not fully supported to the close. Offerings were moderate, and the demand was only fair and not for very large quantities. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western markets were rather light, owing to the bad roads, estimated at 46,000 compared with 61,900 one year ago. Returns of the packing of the West for the week exhibited an increase of 80,000 Hogs compared with the returns for the corresponding week in 1903. Foreign markets were quiet. Meats were neglected and prices nominally unchanged, while Lard was easy and ruled 6d lower. Domestic markets were quiet and prices rather steady. Receipts of Products were good—of Lard and Meats about 30 cars. Shipments were moderate—of Lard and Meats about 69 cars. Shipping demand was limited, and offerings were moderate. Sales were small, and prices without material change.

Mess Pork—Only a moderate business was reported in Mess Pork, and the feeling was steadier in a general way. Offerings were rather light and the demand was moderate. Prices on the whole range averaged 17½@20c higher, but receded again 5@7½c, and the market closed rather steady. Transfers from May to July were made at about 20c difference. Demand on shipping account was light and offerings were limited. Cash lots were quotable at $13 00@13 12½.

MAY—In fair request and offerings were not very large. Sales were made at $12 95@13 10. Opened at $12 97½, sold to $13 00, to $12 95, to $13 00, to $12 97½, to $13 00, to $12 95, to $13 10, to $13 05, to $13 07½, to $13 02½, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were fair, and the demand was rather active. Sales were made at $13 15@13 30. Opened at $13 20, sold to $13 25, to $13 15, to $13 20, to $13 17½, to $13 22½, to $13 17½, to $13 20, to $13 17½, to $13 30, to $13 25, to $13 27½, to $13 20@13 22½, and closed steady.

Lard—Trading was moderate in the Lard market, and the feeling was steadier. Offerings were not very large, and the demand was moderate. Foreign advices rather unfavorable to holders. Manufacture rather light. Prices advanced 5@7½c on the whole range early, but receded again 2½@5c. Toward the close, rallied again 5@7½c, and the market closed comparatively steady at medium figures. Demand on shipping account was light and offerings were moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6 80@6 82½. Loose lots called for sparingly and offerings were rather light. Prices were steady at about 10 discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in small request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably steady at $6 75. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $7 37½@7 50 for No. 1, and $7 12½@7 25 for No. 2.

MAY—Called for moderately and offerings were only fair. Sales were made at $6 92½@7 00. Opened at $6 95, sold to $6 97½, to $6 95, to $6 97½, to $6 92½, to $6 97½@7 00, to $6 97½, and closed steady.

JULY—Demand only fair, and offerings were moderate. Sales were made at $7 07½@7 12½. Opened at $7 07½, sold to $7 12½, to $7 07½, to $7 12½, to $7 10 and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—Only a moderate business was transacted in Short Rib Sides and the feeling was steadier. Trading was mainly local. Offerings were not very large and demand was fair. Prices were advanced 5@7½c, and market closed steady at outside figures. Shipping demand was limited and offerings were small. Cash lots quotable at $6 62½@6 75, according to weight.

MAY—Demand was fair, and offerings were moderate. Sales were made at $6 77½@6 85. Opened at $6 80, sold to $6 82½, to $6 77½, to $6 85, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were fair and the demand was moderately active. Sales were made at $6 92½@7 00. Opened at $6 92½, sold to $6 97½@6 97½, to $6 92½, to $7 00, to $6 97½, to $7 00, to $6 97½@7 00, and closed steady.

Other Meats—Trade was exceedingly small and the feeling rather steady. Offerings were only fair. Demand was moderate for the home trade. Export inquiry very limited. Green Meats were in fair supply and rather light demand, and prices ruled steady. Pickled Meats were in moderate request to fill limited orders and prices favored buyers. Dry Salted Meats were in small demand in a quiet way and prices ruled steady. Smoked Meats called for in fair quantities, especially in a jobbing way, and prices were unchanged. Closing ranged as follows:

*Minnesota, Dakota and Iowa mills outside of Minneapolis and Duluth.

The Flour made by the mills outside of St. Louis, but controlled in that city.

There was little change in the Flour output last week; it was 1,025 brls smaller than in the week before. This week the mills, like those at outside points, will run only about half time. There were fifteen mills in operation to-day, and they will shut down either Wednesday evening or Thursday morning. The market is dull and the millers are doing as other sensible manufacturers do when unable to sell their products. The output is for an output this week of about 175,000 brls. The output for same week in 1903 was 350,481 brls.

Last week was a disappointing one to Minneapolis mills. The sales of Flour were a great deal less than the output, and those made were practically all to the nearby trade. Export business was hardly thought of. Orders for Flour are not coming from abroad. However, up to the present time, local mills have been pretty well supplied with old orders for these grades. Mills are now beginning to make foreign quotations on the basis of lake shipment.

Minneapolis mills are catching up on old domestic orders, and with heavy production are becoming more Flour. there is occasion to run less strongly. With milled $4.50 per ton lower, millers are compelled to ask relatively higher prices for Flour.

Most mills have during the week advanced prices of patent 10c per brl, and then reduced them 20c. The range of quotations now is $4.85@5.10 per 196 lbs in wood f o b Minneapolis.

The range of Eastern prices, March 22, asked by Minneapolis mills for patent in wood was: B ston $5.75@6.00; New York rate points, $5.70@5.90; Philadelphia, $5.50@5.75. Buffalo, $5.40@5.60; Pittsburg points, $5.50@5.75. All any, $5.70@5.90. Rochester and Syracuse rate points $5.80@5.90; Buffalo, $5.60@5.80; Michigan, $5.70@5.90. In sacks to Illinois and Wisconsin, $5.20@5.40 in sacks; Missouri points $5.05@5.25 in sacks.

The situation at and east of Buffalo is not showing material improvement, while the lack of transportation facilities is very general at milling centers.

TEST THE SEED CORN.

[By C. G Williams, Agriculturist Ohio Experiment Station.]

Seed Corn should never be planted until it has been possible to determine what per cent will germinate While this is always advisable, perhaps it is more necessary this year than common for the reason that Corn was slow in drying out last fall and the entire crop will weather unusually early.

Examination of a good many samples of Corn in different parts of the State and of some lots of selected Corn purchased in the West leads the ohio Experiment Station to believe that there will be considerable more trouble than usual this year in getting a satisfactory stand The safe thing to do is to see that you have plenty of time to look elsewhere for seed of greater vitality, if occasion demands.

The station has recently tested eight different lots of Corn including five of home grown. All these tests were made with the same variety of Corn, the selected seed of which had been carried through the winter in different ways, viz: In a large crib of Corn six feet wide overhead in the spread out in a thin layer on the floor; in a room where the temperature was from 60 to 72 degrees.

Of the eight Corn (selected ears) only 60 kernels out of 1 0 germinated; of a similar Corn kept overhead in crib, 81 kernels germinated; of that subjected to artificial heat, 95 out of 100 germinated. This Corn which seemed quite mature at husking time

Of the other Corn tested, choice ears sent to the station in the pink of condition (supposedly so until the kernels were examined) showed as low as 80 per cent germinated

It is quite probable that the low temperature of the early fall weather, coming while the ear and cob yet contained much moisture, is responsible for this state of affairs.

A convenient way to test Corn is between sheets of moist paper or cloth, placed in a box of suitable size. Several lots may be tested at once and examined much more easily and quickly than when planted in sand. Simply keep the paper moist and where the temperature does not fall below 60 degrees. It should all germinate in from 4 to 8 days, depending upon the sort of Corn weather furnished.

Handled in this way it is possible to examine it daily and note the progress of germination.

There are different degrees of v tality in Corn that will germinate. Many of the weak, spindling stalks which produce a small nubbin, or nothing at all, spring from seed of barely enough vitality to get the plant above the ground and that will grow fairly well when conditions are favorable. If seeding time will not fit cold, damp weather happens to appear.

If possible use only such seed as has large, bright looking germs. Wrinkled and dull-colored germs have likely been injured by freezing. Plumpness of the Corn is an evidence of vitality. Thin, shrunken kernels having sharp pointed tips should be rejected, as well as those having an excess of soft, white starch at either crown or tip.

The station hopes that the suggestions given last fall have been followed by the Corn growers of the State and that all have supplied themselves with the best seed from obtainable and have taken good care of it Choice seed Corn is worth much more than anyone thinks of asking for it. Poor seed should be classed with the luxuries (?) which no Corn farmer can afford

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows rains in Eastern and Southern Kansas—1.70 inches at Wichita, trace at Dodge, and .08 and raining at Kansas City There are rains over Iowa and in the Ohio Valley. The Southwest is getting a little moisture each day now. There is a trace at Oklahoma. Mercury is lower in extreme North, but seasonable West and Southwest.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET.

BOSTON, March 22.—Though the general tone of the Wool market is quiet, there is a large quantity of Wool changing hands The demand is fairly well distributed at firm prices. There is a steady market for fleece Wools. The price for Ohio washed delaines holds firm at 35c, while for unwashed and unmerchantable merino delaines about 26@29c is the price, with unwashed clothing grades at 27c. Michigan delaines are quotable at about 33@33½c. For one-quarter and three-eighths blood unwashed Wools the price is firm at 25½@26c for Ohio and 24c for others. Half blood unwashed fleeces continue scarce and firm, with Ohio at 25½@26c and Michigan at 24@24½c.

SEASONABLE WEATHER PROVERBS.

The following lines and couplets are copied from Weather Folk Lore, recently published by the United States Weather Bureau Pick out the proverbs that suit you best. They are all good—when they are verified:

The sunset that comes in good will go out bad
A favorable January brings us a good year.
January warm, the Lord have mercy!
If grass grows in January, it grows the worse for it all the year.
Always expect a thaw in January.
If there is no snow before January, there will be no more in March and April.
A warm January, a cold May
There is always one fine week in February.
If February gives much snow,
A fine summer there will be.
February rain is only good to fill ditches.
Thunder in February or March, poor sugar (maple) year.
Heavy rains in March and rains in April promise great blessings in May.
As it rains in March so it rains in June.
A dry and cold March never buys its bread.
March flowers make no summer bowers.
March comes in like a lamb and goes out like a lion.
March comes in like a lion, goes out like a lamb.
March in January, January in March, I fear.
March damp and warm will do the farmer much harm
If warm March has April weather, April will have March weather.
March winds and April showers bring forth May flowers.
A cold April the barn will fill.
Mold-t April, clear harvest.
Till April's dead, change not a thread (of clothing)
Dry May brings nothing.
May damp and cool fills the barns and wine vats.
A hot May brings a fat churchyard.
A dry May is followed by a wet June.
Wet May, dry June.
Calm weather in June sets Corn in tune.
A late spring, no great blessing.
If a spring is cold and wet, then the autumn will be cold and dry
A dry spring, rainy summer.
Early thunder, early spring.
Who drills his seed on a winter's day will gladly put it on in May.

JAPAN'S FOREIGN TRADE.

According to an official statement, the foreign trade of Japan in 1903 amounted to 290,502,482 yen, an increase of 31,109,407 yen over that of 1902. The principal increases were in Cotton yarns, 11,517,191 yen; Copper, 4,251,000 yen, and Tea, 4,451,000 yen. The total imports were of the value of 317,108,984 yen, an advance of 45,377,705 yen, as compared with the year preceding. Rice showed an increase of no less than 34,240,210 yen, and Sugar a gain of 6,498,218 yen, but the imports of raw Cotton fell to the extent of 10,268,877 yen, while shirtings and Cotton yarns fell off to a lesser extent than in 1902. The Gold exports amounted to 16,698,278 yen, compared with 453,312 yen in the preceding year, and those of Silver to 2,302,969 yen, compared with 1,724,139 yen. The excess of imports over exports in the case of Gold was 8,657,137 yen, as against 29,730,334 yen in 1902, and in that of Silver 49,132 yen, as against 462,52c yen in 1902. [The yen is equal to about 50c in American money.]

The Cleveland Electric Railway Company, claiming it has not $300,000 in earnings since last July, when the purchase was made, has also abandoned the sale of six tickets for 25c and will limit transfers to one for each fare. Eleven tickets will be sold for 50c.

Receivers were appointed, Monday, for the Miners and Merchants' Savings Bank of Lonsconing, Md., which has $500,000 on deposit, its failure being consequent upon that of the City Trust and Banking Company of Cumberland. Both organized the Lonsconing institution.

Notice has been received in Chicago to the effect that the Iowa House has passed a bill requiring railroads to grant return passes to Live Stock shippers and also to provide their freight cabooses with sanitary appliances. The bill is said to be certain of passage through the Senate.

Among current reports about United States Steel preferred while the Pittsburg selling was in progress was one that the company has decided to reduce wages 20 per cent, and another that the price of Steel billets had been cut by independent mills and that the United States Steel Corporation had met the cut.

The Illinois Secretary of State, Tuesday, licensed the Joliet, Newark and Southwestern Railway Company, with principal office at Newark, Ill. The capital stock is $10,000. The road is to be constructed from Joliet to Newark, a section to run through the counties of Will, Kendall, and La Salle, to Dimmick, La Salle County.

A dividend of 8 per cent has been declared by the Farmers' Union Grain Dealing Association. It represents $1,000 in Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and Oklahoma. The association is incorporated under the laws of Kansas and has an authorized capital of $100,000. The association has elevators and buys Grain from farmers at forty-seven stations.

The great Broom merger is at last an accomplished fact, a charter having been secured in Maine for the National Broom Company, with a capital of $13,000,00 Among the companies said to be in the combine is the United States Broom Company, of Chicago, and it is rumored also that the main offices of the new company will be in Chicago

The plant of the Eastern Tube Company of Zanesville, Ohio, was sold, Tuesday, by a master commissioner to Edward Nugent of New York for $170,000 The plant was built three years ago at a cost of $610,000, and after running two years went into the hands of receivers. It was purchased by the Ohio Tube Company, organized in New Jersey a few weeks ago

The postponed meeting of the stockholders of the Lake Street Elevated Railroad Company scheduled for March 24 will be again adjourned for one week until March 31. It is presumed that the new leases and agreements are not quite ready for submission to the stockholders However, the fact that the meeting was postponed for only one week is taken as evidence that the plans are about completed

The Chicago Inter Ocean says: "Crop killers in Illinois, Indiana and the Southwest are getting very busy. There were more reports in Wednesday, and they are expected to come along rapidly from now on. There has been no growing weather in the soft Winter Wheat belt to permit of the crop making much progress until within the last few days. There has been plenty of moisture east of the Missouri River, but in Western Kansas there is still a heavy deficit."

The report from Pittsburg that the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers has agreed to the Steel Corporation's demand for an immediate reduction of 10 per cent in wages of tin plate workers is expected to be followed by an order for a reduction of 10 per cent in wages on April 1 and June 30, when the yearly wage scale for 1903 will be put into operation. The association has considered the 10 per cent asked for in the sheet schedule, which makes 18 per cent reduction since Jan. 1.

The Cincinnati, Hluffton and Chicago Railroad Company which is building from Huntington to Union City, Ind., several miles, put in operation on Jan 29 the portion of its line extending from Bluffton southeasterly via Nottingham to Pennville, Jay County, nine miles. Construction company was in financial difficulties last fall, but secured its late came to its assistance. Huntington Township, Huntington County, Indiana, will vote soon on the proposition to grant aid by a subsidy of $125,000 The capital stock of the company is $1,125,0.0, all of one class.

A run was made on the Orange Growers' Bank, of Riverside, Cal Wednesday, although the bank was able to meet every demand, closed its doors at noon, when the following notice was posted: "This bank is closed by order of the board of directors. All proper and legal demands will be made. Depositors will be paid in full." President Rouse made the following statement: "The bank is perfectly solvent, with assets largely in excess of liabilities. The shortage in funds was made good by the directors out of their private money, so that depositors will not lose a single dollar."

Chicago railway traffic officials are somewhat disturbed over the decision of the Inter State Commerce Commission to the effect that the Cattle shippers are entitled to reparation on the carload rate charges in Chicago, according to the decision any charge above $1 00 for switching the cars into the Stock Yards is excessive, and the shippers can recover the excess charged since 1891, when the Commission decided the matter. There are about 400,00 cars of Live Stock annually handled in and out of Chicago, and if the shippers recover the $1 00 per car from a term a time ago the railroads of between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 The matter will undoubtedly be taken into the courts.

Although there has been two weeks of good open weather, Eastbound roads are still congested with traffic, and there is no definite time as to when they will get cleaned up. They have had no much delayed traffic to move since mild weather set in that it has overwhelmed them with a flood of business. Two of the large systems a few days ago were short 5,000 cars. Grain shippers are afraid to sell Corn and Oats to the East, as there is no certainty as to when they can get cars to load. Those who have to move Grain East spend a good part of their time among the railroad offices begging for cars.

The Chicago Drovers' Journal says: "The long, cold winter has been a serious handicap to Cattle feeders, who had to use more Corn to produce the finish demanded of Beds as the season on in other years. This made the Steer cost his owner more money in two ways—more feed and at a higher price. In some localities there was much complaint about the poor quality of the Corn which failed to make the fat, though large quantities were consumed. In one respect the winter was favorable to feeders, and was because of the weather being less changeable and fairly cold and not muddy. Taking all things into consideration, however, not many feeders have made money this year, and the great majority have lost considerable"

The Boston News Bureau says of the Bay State Gas situation: "In the attempted final winding up by the Bay State Gas Company, Hemenway, and the supplanting of J Edward Addicks by receiver, an honest man was inadvertently dropped into the game the books and records of the Bay State Gas appear to have been kept in a careful and unobstructed, and the receiver finds himself in possession of an absolutely solvent corporation, with a capital stock expanded from $500,000 to $2,500,000, and such a record of financial loot, chicanery and juggling as was never dreamed of in corporate the out West. Corn and Oats from Nebraska annals. The late Senator James J. Edward Addicks, Thomas W. Lawson and Henry H. Rogers, each individually, for many millions, but the suit now in progress is that of the receiver for an adjudication of the claims of the Bay State Gas Company of Delaware in four Boston Gas companies"

The agreement between the Union Pacific and Burlington Railroads to advance rates 1c per 100 lbs on Wheat, Corn and Oats from Nebraska points to St Louis has nothing to do with the fight between the Northwestern and Great Western as to Grain rates between Omaha and Chicago. Neither road shows any disposition to give up the struggle. The last aggressive move was made by the Northwestern, in increasing the number of points in Iowa from which it would reduce rates. The reductions in most cases were so slight that the Great Western will ignore them. Wherever its interests are affected by reductions made by the Northwestern further cuts will be made by the Great Western. Practically no Grain is now moving from Omaha proper to Chicago, and the Northwestern is having a heavy Grain traffic from trans-Missouri territory, which it is carrying at rates which yield little profit. Officials of the Great Western say that the Line of Omaha where all the traffic they can handle and that they are willing to let the Northwestern do all the Grain business on the present rates.

Negotiations charges against the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe and the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railways are made by the State Railroad Commission of Texas. In its annual report just issued the commission says that it is safe to say when the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe and Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railway Companies have been forced to disgorge the amounts which we believe that those companies have pinnacled, by one device or another, for years, that the summary of the income accounts of Texas railroads will show a handsome balance on the right side of the ledger to what it does now. It is simply an imposition on the credulity of the public and of this commission that the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad Company of Texas, on a mileage of 1,309.18 hauled in the 2,638,363 bales of Cotton hauled in Texas during the year ended June 30, 1902, should have reported an income from operation of only $754,890 for that year, and the second highest Cotton originating road, the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe, with 425,537 bales, comes out that year, according to the reports, with a deficit, after paying operating expenses, taxes and interest on bonds Cotton is regarded by all the railroad traffic men in Texas as the cream of the freight business. They handle harder propositions than the freight rates on it than on any other commodity. Yet the two companies which enjoyed the greatest share of this business figure out in their reports to us that they have to borrow even the credit balance of the remainder of the railroad companies in the State of Texas."

On the 15th, the average depth of snow in the southern counties was 9.94 inches, and on the 29th 6.40 inches." Must have turned an X ray on that crop.

Stocks in New York averaged higher, but failed to hold the top prices. Traders were "bullish," and the general disposition was to buy. On the advances, selling proved strong enough to check a further rise. Traders are looking for a favorable bank statement, but uncertainty over the Northern Securities settlement took the edge off the favorable factors Closing sales were at fair gains. Money, 1¾ per cent

The Modern Miller says: 'Weather conditions for the week have been the most favorable for the Winter Wheat since it was seeded. General rains have fallen through the territory devoted to raising that cereal including the Pacific Coast, and in the country in the Southwestern part of the Winter Wheat belt, where moisture was most needed Improved prospects are reported from nearly all sections, though in some localities, notably the Ohio Valley, growth is not up to the average for this season of the year. In the Southwest and Southeast, where the crop has been most backward, improvement in condition is most marked. There are some complaints of Hessian Fly in early sown Wheat in Southern Illinois."

The International Harvester Company, now completing its first full year of operations, has made a novel departure by advertising and sending out notices to stockholders offering them permission to examine all the records of operation of the company for the past year. According to the official notices, the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors and of the executive and finance committees of the company, together with all contracts entered into, and the records of all elections and appointments, are open for the inspection of stockholders at the general offices of the company in Chicago This privilege of inspection will be extended until the annual meeting, at which the stockholders will be asked, as usual, to vote on a resolution to ratify the actions of the board and committees during the past year The stockholders will be thus able to vote intelligently on the resolution, instead of its being the pure matter of form it usually is.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—The market is quiet and sales are small. Prices without special change.

WINTER WHEAT—Was in good demand and market firm, with prices ½@1c higher Millers made fair purchases and offerings light. No. 2 Red sold to the extent of 35,000 bu, part of it 5c over May in store, and ranged at 94¼@$1 01, and fresh arrivals were nominally $1 00@1 03. No. 3 Red sold at $1 00 and ranged down to 95c for ordinary. No. 2 Hard local quotable at 92@95c and No. 3 Hard at 87@93c. No. 4 Hard local sold at 78c.

SPRING WHEAT—A good demand existed and sales of 121,000 bu of No. 1 Northern were reported at May price. Feeling firm and prices ½@1c higher. Millers were the principal buyers. No. 1 Northern in store ranged at 93¾@96c and fresh arrivals free on board at 97c@$1 00. No. 3 Spring ranged at 86@95c for ordinary to very choice hard variety No 4 Spring sold at 60@73½c for poor to fair, and ranged up to 90c for choice.

REGULAR WHEAT—A fair trade and stronger market all round, the close being ¼@1c higher than yesterday. The Northwest was a good buyer, and the Southwest also purchased quite freely, early crop news, firm cables bulge in Corn and cash situation being the dominant factors Liverpool quoted futures up ⅝@¾d and spot ¼d higher to ¼d lower London came ½@⅝d better, while Paris was weak and ½@1¼c lower. Berlin lost ⅞c and Antwerp was unchanged. Cash sales here aggregated 121,000 bu, the No 1 Northern selling at May price Cash Wheat at Minneapolis was reported up 1¾c notwithstanding the fact that the mills were closed The crop report of a local statistician was construed as quite "bullish," while the Modern Miller was quite "bearish," and was one of the late weakening factors. Northwestern receipts were 125 cars larger than a year ago. Map showed heavy rains in Eastern Kansas, Texas and other sections of Winter Wheat belt, but temperatures were not as low as predicted More rain is probable in Illinois and Indiana; rain or snow for Kansas and Missouri; snow in parts of Nebraska. Realizing set in toward the close and forward futures closed at inside figures. San Francisco wired "Overflow of Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers over levee lands will cut our California Wheat and Barley acreage this year materially." Argentina shipped 3 672 000 bu, making 29,496,000 bu since Jan 1, against 19 034,000 bu for the same period in 1903. Clearings were moderate and total for the week 1,802,000 bu, against 2,904,000 bu for the same week in 1903. Seaboard reported 22 boat loads accepted. India shipments (unofficial) were reported 736,000 bu Primary receipts July 1 to March 21, 186,486 000 bu, against 221,173,000 bu in 1902-3 and 207,831,000 bu in 1901-2. Receipts at Duluth 53 cars and at Minneapolis 285 cars, a total of 338 cars, against 297 cars yesterday, 335 cars a week ago, and 213 cars last year. Local receipts included 5 cars Winter, 3 cars Spring and none mixed, a total of 8 cars, against 20 cars last year. Included in the above was none of contract grade. There were 15 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators The estimated receipts for to-morrow not reported. Withdrawals were 38 100 bu. Receipts at Western points were 415,841 bu, against 365,731 bu last year. At Eastern points 52,439 bu, against 84,679 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 295 144 bu, against 174,339 bu last year, and from Eastern points 18,720, against 223 051 bu last year Shipments of Flour were 7,154 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 50,913 bu. Reports from the East not complete owing to wire troubles.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Good trade and market rather firm.

MARCH—Entirely nominal, closed about 94½ @95c.

MAY—Sold at 94¼@96c. Opened with sales at 94¼c to 94½c; sold to 94⅞c, to 94½c, to 95¼c, to 94¾c, to 96c, to 95⅛c, to 95⅝c, to 94⅞c, to 95⅛c, to 95c, and closed at 95c.

JULY—Old Style—Sold at 88@89⅝c Opened with sales at 88c to 88¼c, sold to 88⅜c, to 88¼c, to 88⅞c to 88⅝@88¾c, to 88⅞c, to 88⅝c, to 89⅜c, to 88⅞c, to 89⅝c, to 89c, to 89¼c, to 88½c and closed at 88½c

JULY—New Style—Sold at 87@88⅜c Opened with sales at 87c to 87¼c: sold to 87⅛c, to 87¾c, to 87⅝c, to 87⅞c, to 87⅜c, to 88⅛c, to 88c, to 88¼c, to 87¾c, to 88⅜c, to 87¾c, to 88⅛c, to 87⅜@87½c, and closed at 87⅜@87½c

SEPTEMBER—Old Style—Sold at 83½@84⅝c. Opened with sales at 83½c to 83⅝c, sold to 83¾c, to 84⅛c, to 84c to 84⅛c, to 84¼c, to 84c, to 84⅜c, to 83½c, and closed at 84⅛c

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 82⅜@83¼c. Opened with sales at 82⅜c to 82½@82⅝c: sold to 82¾c to 8 ⅝c to 83⅛c to 82¾c, to 83¼c, to 8_⅜c, and closed at 82⅝c

CORN—A better trade and active market, with the feeling manifested much stronger. May sold to 54c and the July to 50¾c, the former closing with ⅝c gain and the latter about ⅝c higher than yesterday Liberal purchases by the principal "long" was the feature and tended to create an uneasy feeling among "shorts," who covered freely on the upturn Realizing followed with the decline in Wheat market. Considerable "bull" news was at hand from Illinois points regarding the condition of the crop, claiming it would not grade contract The map showed rains quite general through the Corn belt and further moisture was indicated, which will tend to curtail the movement Receipts were 111 cars, making 948 cars this week, with 46 per cent low grades, against 890 cars last week, when 47 per cent were off grades. One year ago 746 cars were received and 46 per cent were low grades. Liverpool quoted spot ¼d lower to ½d higher and futures ⅛d higher. Receipts there past three days, 424,000 bu Argentina shipped 505 000 bu, making 8,432,000 bu since Jan 1, against 590 000 bu one year ago. Corn harvest there is now on and the exportable surplus placed at 104,000,000 bu Southwestern markets were strong and higher. The strength in car lots was a feature and "bull" interests were credited with taking hold of the choice dry Corn, such as would make contract. Local arrivals were 108,000 bu and shipments 53,000 bu. Exports 222,000 bu, and total for the week 1,528 000 bu, against 3,618,000 bu last year. Transfers from private to public elevators 23,200 bu and 167 cars Shipping demand moderate and sales 40,000 bu. Car lots were in good demand and moderate supply Feeling firm and prices 1@2c higher. No 2 sold at 53½c and closed at 53c. No 2 White sold at 53¼c No 2 Yellow closed at 53c No. 3 sold at 47@53c and closed at 44@51½c. No. 3 Yellow sold at 50@53c and closed at 46@52½c.

Corn by sample—Good demand and not much on sale Feeling stronger and prices 1@2c higher. Sales on track and free on board No Grade sold at 35@42½c. No. 4 at 42@51c. No 3 at 44@51½c. No. 3 Yellow at 47½@48½c. No 3 White 40@52½c. No 2 White at 53½c Billed through: No Grade at 38½@40c. No. 4 at 41½@44c No 3 at 42½@45c. No. 3 Yellow at 45@50c. No. 3 White at 42½@43c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Active and very strong early, but reacted and closed ⅝c higher.

MARCH—Inactive, closed at 51¼c

MAY—Sold at 52⅜@54c Opened at 52⅜c to 52⅝c and sold at 52⅞c, to 52¾c, to 53¼c, to 53c, to 54c, to 53⅛c, to 53¾c, to 53c, and closed at 53c bid.

JULY Sold at 49⅝@50¾c Opened at 49⅝c to 49¾c sold at 49⅝@49¾c, to 49⅝c, to 50⅛c, to 49⅞@50c, to 50¼@50⅜c, to 50⅛c, to 50⅜c, to 50¼c, to 50¾c, to 50⅛c, to 50⅛@50¼c; closed at 50⅛@50¼c asked.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 49⅛@50c Opened at 49⅛c, sold at 49⅛@49¼c, to 49⅛c, to 49⅝c, to 49½c, to 49¾c to 49⅝c to 50c to 49⅝c, to 50c, to 49⅝c, and closed at 49⅝c

OATS—Were more actively traded in and advanced ¾c, but closed ¼@½c higher. There was a "bullish" sentiment among most traders, due to sympathy with the strength in other Grains and on bad weather and a stronger cash market The buying was of a good character, but it met equally strong selling which forced prices off ⅜@½c from the top. Cash sales were 25,000 bu Arrivals 111 cars with 9,300 bu and 16 cars Standard withdrawn from private elevators Withdrawals from public houses 21,000 bu Seaboard 27,100 bu. Car lots to go to store were ½@1c higher. Standard in store closed at 38⅝@38¾c, as to location

Oats by sample were in active request, with offerings lighter and prices ½@1c higher. Sales on track and free on board No. 4 at 36¾@37¼c No. 4 White at 30@41c. No 3 White at 39½@43½c Standard at 43c. No. 2 at 39½c Billed through: No. 4 White at 37@39c No 3 White at 38¼@41½c. Standard at 40½@42c No. 2 at 39¼c At the river No. 4 at 35c. No. 4 White at 30@38½c No 3 White at 38¼@39¼c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were higher with liberal trading

MARCH—Sold at 38⅝@38¾c; closed at 38⅝@38⅝c.

MAY—Active. Sold at 38⅞@39¼c. Opened at 39c, sold at 38⅞c, to 39⅛c, to 39⅛c, to 39⅛@39⅛c at close

JULY Active. Sold at 37⅝@37¾c and at 38⅛c. Opened at 37⅝@37¾c to 37¾c sold to 37⅞c, to 38⅛c, to 37¾c to 37¾@37⅞c at close

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 31¾@31⅞c and at 32⅜c. Opened at 31¾@31⅞c sold to 32⅜c, to 32⅛c at close

RYE Was quiet and firm There was some demand and the offerings were light Trading limited to a few cars of fresh arrivals One car was received and there were no withdrawals from store, and no export clearances from the seaboard. No 2 in store round lots nominally 69c, and car lot fresh arrivals quotably about 70c. No 3 fresh arrivals sold at 62½@69c No 4 at the river sold at 52½c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye Quiet May 71c bid and 72c asked. July 68c bid and 70c asked. No trading

BARLEY—As for the last few days the only regular demand was for a little good malting Barley All other grades very dull There were some parties who would take other grades, provided sellers would accept their views of value, otherwise they would not buy For feed mixing Barley or Screenings there was no demand, aside now and then for a car of clean and good color; low grades entirely neglected. Thirteen cars came in grading No 4 and No. 5 Screenings dull, especially when poor; little better than nominal and quotable over a range of 30@38c for poor to very choice Barley, mixing, 37@39c local depending on soundness and color, fancy bright possibly a shade over. Feed Barley about 40@43c for good. Malting—low grade, 40@41c, common, 42@44c, fair was about 45@47c, good, 48@50c, choice 52@55c

SEEDS—On account of the wires working badly the market was without much news from outside and it had to depend mostly on local conditions. Values were generally maintained and there was a fair business in Timothy, though the rest ruled quiet.

Timothy—There were very good offerings again, though they were not so large as they have been Demand seemed to be fair and no special change in the market was noticeable There was little news from outside to-day on account of the wires being down, so the market was governed by local conditions Cash sales were at $2 00@2 05 for poor to a high grade country Seed. In futures nothing was done. March and April deliveries about $2 85 @2 90; inside figure bid May nominally $2 90 and September held at $3 15. Country lots of cash Seed quotable over a range of $2 00@2 80 for poor to very fancy; outside would have to be extra fine, not hulled none like that coming, fair to good, $2 40@2 50; choice $2 55@2 60, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 25@2 35.

Flax—No change developed. There was little to the market. A couple of cars of spot Flax was all there was sold. Values, both in sales and nominal quotations, were unchanged Movement unimportant Local receipts only 4 cars or 3,400 bu, and taken out 1 car or 1,019 bu. Minneapolis got 17 cars and Duluth 72 cars No. 1 Northwestern sold sparingly at $1 15. No 1 at $1 08½ Rejected quotable at $1 04@1 08, outside for choice from the Northwest. March was nominally $1 08½ May delivery $1 11 bid. September $1 17 nominal.

Clover—Was about steady. A few lots of fairly good Seed offered. High grades scarce. Country lots, common to choice quotable $8 00@10 25, fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $7 50@8 75; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 75

Other Seeds—Were quotably easy There now appear daily offerings of one kind or another Demand tame. Prices easy over a range as follows Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark at $1 15@1 65. Common Millet $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 40 Siberian, 85c@$1 05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c Mustard, 85c@$1 05 Buckwheat easy, good milling, $1 50

HOG PRODUCTS Considerable interest was manifested in the market for Hog Products, and the feeling was stronger Outside orders were larger, and local trading was fairly active "Shorts" bought moderately Some inquiry on investment account Packers were credited with fair purchases. Hogs were in fair supply and lower, but this feature had little influence on the market The strength in Grain tended to encourage buyers to take hold Prices ruled higher on all the leading articles early, but extreme figures were not supported to the close July delivery met with considerable favor. Supply of Hogs at the leading Western packing points estimated at 42,100 compared with 48,300 one year ago. Foreign markets indicated a quiet and dull feeling in Meats with reductions of 1s on Cumberland Sides and 6d on Hams, while Lard was steadier and quoted 3d higher. Receipts of Products were good of Lard and Meats about 28 cars. Shipments were very light—of Lard and Meats about 69 cars Inquiry on shipping account was small, and offerings were moderate Sales were light, and prices without material change

Mess Pork—A fairly good business was reported in Mess Pork and the feeling in a general way was stronger Offerings were not very free, and the demand fairly active "Shorts" bought moderately. Prices on the whole range were advanced 20@22½c, but settled back 12½@15c, and the market closed steady Shipping demand was light and offerings were small. Cash lots were quotable at $13 00@13 12½

MAY—In fair request and offerings were moderate. Sales were made at $13 00@13 22½ Opened at $13 00, sold to $13 20, to $13 15, to $13 20, to $13 15, to $13 20, to $13 17½, to $13 22½, to $13 07½ and closed steady

JULY—Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderately active Sales were made at $13 22½ @13 42½ Opened at $13 22½, sold to $13 40, to $13 35, to $13 42½, to $13 40, to $13 42½ to $13 35, to $13 40, to $13 27½, to $13 30, and closed steady.

Lard—Only a moderate trade was reported in the Lard market, and the feeling was stronger in a general way Offerings were moderate, and the demand was fair. Foreign advices were more favorable to holders. Prices were advanced 7½@10c on the whole range but settled back 5@7½c and the market closed comparatively steady Demand on shipping account was light and offerings were moderate Cash lots were quotable at $6 8 @6 87½ Loose lots called for sparingly and offerings were rather light. Prices were steady at about 10 discount on May figures Leaf Lard in small request and offerings were moderate Prices were quotably steady at $6 75 Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings Prices quotably steady at $7 37½@7 50 for No 1, and $7 12½@7 25 for No 2

MAY—In moderate request, and offerings were fair Sales were made at $6 97½@7 07½ Opened at $6 97½, sold to $7 07½, to $6 97½, to $7 00, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderately active Sales were made at $7 12½@7 22½. Opened at $7 12½, sold to $7 22½ to $7 1.½ to $7 15 and closed steady

Short Rib Sides—Trade was moderately active in the market for Short Rib Sides and the feeling was stronger Packers credited with buying fair quantities Offerings were not very free, and the demand was rather active Prices were advanced 10@12½c on the whole range, but settled back 5@7½c, and the market closed steady Demand on shipping account was light, and offerings were small. Cash lots were quotable at $6 62½@6 87½, according to weight.

MAY—Offerings were fair, and the demand was rather active Sales were made at $6 85@6 97½ Opened at $6 85, sold to $6 90, to $6 87½, to $6 97½, to to $6 92½, to $6 95 to $6 90, and closed steady.

PORK PACKING AND PROVISIONS.

[From the Cincinnati Price Current, March 24.]

The current offerings of Hogs are well maintained in numbers. Total Western packing 370,000, compared with 350,000 the preceding week, and 330,-000 two weeks ago. For corresponding time last year the number was 290,000, and two years ago 385,000. From March 1 the total is 1,155,000, against 1,050 000 a year ago. The quality is generally good. Prices are lower, prominent markets at the close averaging about $5 20 per 100 lbs, compared with $5 35 a week ago, $5 50 two weeks ago, $7 40 a year ago, $5 90 two years ago, $5 15 three years ago.

The speculative Provision market has been moderately active the past week, but values have had a drooping tendency under rather strong pressure to sell. With the declining tendency in the Grain circles and an easier tendency in Hog values the market lacked support, and there were a number of stop loss orders to be executed, which assisted in forcing values lower. As the week drew to a close the feeling was somewhat steadier, but compared with a week ago the leading articles are lower at the close at Chicago. The export clearances of Product were fair, and show an increase over the preceding week and a gain as compared with the corresponding week last year.

The week's export clearances of Hog Products compared with corresponding time last year:

	Past week.	Last year.
Pork, pounds	700,000	612,000
Bacon, pounds	10,121,000	9 310,000
Total, Meats	10,891,000	9,922,000
Lard, pounds	11,429,000	9,877,000
Total, Product.	22,210,000	19,799,000

Special reports to the Cincinnati Price Current show the number of Hogs packed since March 1, at undermentioned places, compared with last year, as follows

GRAIN TRADE AND CROPS.

[From the Cincinnati Price Current, March 24.]

The entire area from Eastern Kansas eastward to the Atlantic has been well covered with rains during the past week and temperature is mostly spring-like—on the whole, a favorable week for the growing Wheat crop. In Western Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas there have been sufficient showers to break the drouth and improve the prospects, though the rainfall was not generally heavy in that region. In a general way the prospects west of the Mississippi River are about up to an average. In the Ohio Valley there have been no drawbacks in weather conditions lately, but reports are unfavorable, the Wheat plant being thin on the ground and very short growth. There has not yet been enough forcing weather to test the vitality of the roots and the possibility of the plant stooling, and thus the better covering the ground. So that while the present appearance of the plant is unpromising there is still much uncertainty. Not much complaint is made of the plant being pulled up by freezing and thawing.

The recent rains, in addition to the frost coming out of the ground, have generally made roads bad for hauling, and the interior marketing of Grain is thereby restricted. East of the Mississippi River supplies of Wheat continue to be reported light. In Iowa Corn supplies are relatively scarce.

Rather slow progress has been made so far in the seeding of Oats. In the southern part of the Oats section some increase in the acreage over last year is expected. The ground generally is regarded in good tilth for spring seeding.

KANSAS WHEAT CROP.

[From the Kansas City Star.]

A report on Kansas at the present time probably would show a percentage around 80. In the eastern and southern part of the State good rains have fallen, but about three-fourths of the State's Wheat area has been without rain except a very few small showers or snowfalls for four months. There are no serious complaints of present conditions. The Wheat has started to grow and the fields generally look promising. The State, with favorable weather, can probably raise a crop nearly equal to last year. But there is a feeling of anxiety, not on account of present conditions, but because the storm areas that move across the country do not produce precipitation until they get beyond the Kansas Wheat belt.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows heavy rains in Eastern Kansas, Texas, and some rain in Oklahoma. There are heavy rains in Missouri, Iowa, and Illinois. There are snows in Manitoba, Minnesota, and the Dakotas. Temperatures up to this morning were not very low—still above freezing in Kansas, Missouri, Illinois and the Southwest. It is some under freezing in Nebraska at 7 A. M., about freezing in Iowa. Colder weather is indicated.

The Ohio Valley is missing because of poor wire service. So far as moisture is concerned the map is a favorable one and temperatures not yet severe in Winter Wheat belt.

Indications are for cloudy weather, with rain or snow in southern portion and some snow in Northwest. Temperatures will fall still further in central valley and southern lake region.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

A fire at Bristol, Tenn., Wednesday, caused a loss of $50,000.

The Mexican Telegraph Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent, payable April 14.

It is reported that the American Locomotive Company will take $1,000,000 of cash out of its treasury to pay, when it falls due, the floating debt of the Montreal company, which was purchased recently.

The Reading Company has not made any announcement as to the prices for Coal after April 1. Some of the New York companies are semi-officially announcing a reduction of 50c a ton on that date, as usual.

The aggregate reports of 101 railroads for January show a decrease of 4.2 per cent in gross and 23.9 per cent in net earnings. The same roads show for seven months an increase of 8.4 per cent in gross and 4.5 per cent in net.

Northern Securities interests were credited with having purchased a large block of Union Pacific stock, Tuesday. The extent of the purchase was not generally known in Wall Street, but it was estimated as high as 100,000 shares.

The Mercantile Trust Company, trustee for the bondholders of the United States Shipbuilding Company, was given permission to file a supplemental bill in its foreclosure proceedings, adding five subsidiary companies as defendants.

There is a pretty definite expectation that General Electric will soon give stockholders the right to subscribe at par for new stock to the extent of 10 per cent of their present holdings. The purpose to which the proceeds are to be applied has not been made known.

During the season of 1903, extending from April 9 to Dec. 6, the fleet of the Pittsburg Steamship Company of the United States Steel Corporation carried 9,722,059 tons of all kinds of freight and made gross earnings of $8,066,863. This record compares with a total tonnage in the season of 1902 of 10,956,853 and total gross earnings of $9,059,-999.

The Niles-Bement-Pond Company's general balance sheet as of Dec. 31, 1903, shows: Assets—Real estate and machinery, $3,617,026; merchandise, $1,392,711; cash and debts receivable, $2,152,-581; New York office and fixtures, $4 317; investments, $4,702,652; total, $11,869,317. Liabilities—Capital stock, $7,000,000; accounts payable, $470,017; surplus, $3,845,301; profit and loss, $553,999; total, $11,869,317.

The newly incorporated Pacific Steel Company, which has a capital of $100,000,000, has an option on the immense Iron ore deposits at the mouth of the Balsas River, on the Pacific Coast, in the State of Guerrera, Mexico. There it is planned to erect a large Iron and Steel plant. The chief object of the company in building a plant in Mexico is to supply Iron and Steel products for the Panama Canal and to supply the trade of the Central American and South American countries.

The Great Lakes Engineering Company has filed a trust mortgage to the Union Trust Company of Detroit, as trustee, to secure a bond issue of $500,-000 5 per cent Gold bonds. The bonds are to provide working capital for the company, which is a new concern, manufacturing steamships and engines. The works are located in River Rouge, and the capitalization of the company is $1,500,000. The company is one of the principal rivals to the American Ship Building Company.

The International Salt Company has made an offer to the minority stockholders of the National Salt Company to receive their stock on deposit under the original reorganization plan, with an assessment of $1 00 a share now and $2 00 a share on demand. The offer carries the right to sell the stock at not less than $10 a share, any price in excess of that amount to go equally to the stockholders and the committee. If the stock is exchanged for the new securities under the original plan the committee and the depositors are to decide its value.

In the United States Circuit Court at Pittsburg, Pa., Wednesday, arguments were made in the case of the Union Trust Company of New York vs. the South Pennsylvania Railroad Company and the South Pennsylvania Railway Company. Judge Buffington rendered a decree at the close of the arguments, finding for the plaintiff. The decree orders that the South Pennsylvania Company within twenty days pay to the Union Trust Company of New York the sum of $9,927,120, or that its property be sold by the master.

For the fourth week of February the gross earnings of forty-five railroads aggregated $9,240,704, against $8,496,567 in the corresponding period last year, an increase of $744,137, or 8.75 per cent. For the month of February the gross earnings of seventy-one railroads aggregated $51,305,806, against $51,177,132 in the corresponding period last year, an increase of $128,674, or 0.24 per cent. For the first week of March the gross earnings of thirty-eight railroads aggregated $6,830,367, against $6,969,987 in the corresponding period last year, a decrease of $139,620, or 1.99 per cent. For the second week of March the gross earnings of seven railroads aggregated $1,551,206, against $1,474,364 in the corresponding period last year, an increase of $76 842, or 5 21 per cent.

It will be interesting to observe what changes in the quarterly statement of net earnings of the Steel corporation will be brought about by its new system of accounting. Heretofore the quarterly statements have shown net earnings based on the combined results for both the United States Steel Corporation and all its subsidiary companies. In the conduct of the business of the organization, reports of sales of materials and services performed are made and rendered by one subsidiary company to another. The prices charged are such as, generally speaking, return a profit to the companies furnishing such materials and services. Up to January the profits of the subsidiary companies from these transactions have been included in their earnings at the time the materials were delivered and were currently reported in statements of earnings of United States Steel Corporation and subsidiary companies. As was explained by the corporation in its annual report it has decided to segregate the profits in question in combined accounts of all companies, and not to let them show in quarterly reports until such profits shall have actually been realized by the sale of the finished products to customers outside of the organization. The present quarterly report, due April 5, will be made up under the new system. It will give the first practical illustration of how the new system works. It is expected to show net earnings much smaller than under the old plan.

Banks hold $27,-468,875 in excess of legal requirements.

Stocks in New York closed strong with moderate gains, although prices were under the top figures. There was a light trade—96,000 shares. The bank statement was, on the whole, satisfactory and helped the market. There was a belief that the leading financial interests in Northern Securities will soon reach a harmonious agreement.

Export clearances for the past week from Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Newport News, New Orleans, and Galveston included 130,000 brls of Flour and 371,000 bu Wheat, against 201,000 brls of Flour and 255,000 bu of Wheat the preceding week, a decrease of 61,000 brls of Flour and an increase of 16,000 bu of Wheat. For the corresponding week last year the exports were 278,000 brls of Flour and 1,688,000 bu of Wheat.

A Denver dispatch says: "That the Stockmen of the West, backed by the National Live Stock Association, mean to carry out their project of establishing an independent packing plant to fight the Beef trust is evidenced by the option that has been taken upon the packing plant of Jacob Dold of Kansas City. This option is now in the hands of Vice President L. F. Wilson and Treasurer F. W. Flato of the organization. The option carries with it a lease for ten years on the property. The Dold packing house has been one of the strongest competitors of the trust. Its capacity is sufficient to kill 2,000 head of Cattle, 4,000 Hogs, and as many Sheep daily."

The Chicago Inter Ocean says: "The agreement of the Western railroads not to give return passes to shippers of Live Stock has proved a failure. All the lines, by their executive officers, pledged themselves not to issue any free transportation for the return trip of shippers of Live Stock after Jan. 1. It has been ascertained that some of the roads have never stopped the practice. During this week detectives have obtained evidence that watchmen at the gates of certain depots have passed without question persons holding passes issued on account of shipments of Live Stock. The laws of Missouri and rulings of the Iowa railroad commission require the railways to furnish free return transportation to persons who have accompanied shipments of Live Stock to market. It is expected the railroads found guilty of violating the agreement will make the excuse that they had to do so in order to comply with the law."

The Chicago Record-Herald says: "Evidence is said to have been gathered by the agents of the Inter-State Commerce Commission tending to prove that the railroads have paid big rebates to shippers since the passage of the Elkins law. The rebates were not paid as such but were 'allowances' for switching charges which, in many instances, amounted to as high as 30 per cent of the entire rate charged. The disclosures which will be made when the commission investigates the matter in Chicago probably will result in a report to the Attorney General charging wholesale payment of rebates by a device within the meaning of the statute. Unable to obtain rebates through the regular channels many of the large manufacturing interests have constructed switching roads connecting their plants with the railroads over which they ship. For the service of delivering their cars over these alleged railroads to the road over which they ship they are allowed $3 00 a car in many cases. Some of the Western roads are said to allow as high as $15 00 a car."

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—The market continues quiet, buyers still being indifferent. Prices steady as quoted on the second page.

WINTER WHEAT—Was in good demand and market firm. The offerings were light and difficult to buy except by paying large premiums. Millers were the principal buyers. No. 2 Red in store quotable at 95½c@$1 01 and fresh arrivals free on board at $1 01@1 03. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals quotable at 95c@$1 01. No. 2 Hard local quotable at 93@94c and No. 3 Hard at 87@92c.

SPRING WHEAT—Ruled steady. A good milling demand existed and sales of 95,000 bu No 1 Northern were reported at May price. Fresh receipts small and quotations for such almost nominal. No 1 Northern in store quotable at 95¼@96c, and fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 95c@$1 01. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 92c@$1 00. No 3 Spring quotable at 85@98c for ordinary to very choice hard variety. No. 4 Spring sold at 65@83c, and ranged at 60@90c for poor to choice, with a sale at the river at 78c.

REGULAR WHEAT—Just a moderate trade, but rather firm market, the close being ½c higher for May, ⅛c better for the July and unchanged for September. Distant futures are becoming more in favor. The stronger tone early was attributable chiefly to the freezing conditions West, strength displayed at Minneapolis and cash situation. There was general buying by local professionals and "shorts," but at the advance considerable "long" property came out. Cables did not follow yesterday's upturn on this side and milder weather was indicated. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ½d higher and futures ⅛d lower. London came ⅛d lower to ⅛d higher. Paris was ⅛c higher to ⅛c lower and Antwerp unchanged. London quoted cargoes on passage firm and held 3d higher. Fair and colder weather to-day and warmer Sunday was predicted for Kansas, Nebraska, Illinois and Indiana. Broomhall estimated the world's shipments at 10,000,000 bu and predicted some increase in the amount on ocean passage. Imports into the United Kingdom this week 3,600,000 bu, against 4,400,000 bu the previous week and 5,200,000 bu one year ago. English farmers' deliveries were 440,000 bu and the average price 65¼c; was 1c lower than last week and 2c higher than one year ago. Argentine cables stated offerings from first hands were small. The English visible supply increased 367,000 bu, against 1,141,000 bu increase same week in 1903. Primary receipts this week were 2,900,000 bu compared with 4,300,000 bu last week and 3,249,-000 bu same week in 1903. Receipts in the Northwest were 1,957 cars, against 2,275 cars last week and 1,358 cars for the corresponding week in 1903. Local weekly receipts 201,000 bu, and shipments 252,000 bu. New York wired that cables stated situation in the Balkan States was threatening, and that maneuvers would be conducted by Russian troops on the frontier. Map showed moisture in Kansas and Oklahoma, notwithstanding the cold snap. Australian shipments were 672,000 bu. Crop advices from the Southwest were conflicting. Cash sales here include 95,000 bu No. 1 Northern at May price. Kansas City and St. Louis received 45,000 bu, last year 34,000 bu, and shipments 1,8,000 bu. Receipts at Duluth 38 cars and at Minneapolis 155 cars, a total of 203 cars against 338 cars yesterday, 316 cars a week ago, and 180 cars last year. Local receipts included 6 cars Winter, 11 cars Spring and none mixed a total of 17 cars, against 19 cars last year. Included in the above was none of contract grade. There were 22 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow not reported. Withdrawals were 55,300 bu. Receipts at Western points were 315,957 bu, against 386,257 bu last year. At Eastern points 21,698 bu, against 55,434 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 251,384 bu, against 128,248 bu last year, and from Eastern points 5,598, against 178,232 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 23,271 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 111,317 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Fair trade and closing easy.

DECEMBER—Sold at 83c to 82¼c.

CORN—Was only moderately active, but firm under continued support from the "bull" party in May. Closing prices showed the May about ¼c higher and July ⅛c better than yesterday. Small receipts rains through the Corn belt and further talk of scarcity of seed Corn and light offerings were among the chief strengthening influences. There was only 128 cars received and 67 cars were low grades, against 157 cars last year when 59 cars were off grades. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ½d higher, futures unchanged. Early strength in Wheat was something of a help also the showing in the Southwestern markets. Realizing by "longs" was a late feature. The exports were smaller, 71,000 bu, last year, 518,000 bu. Transfers from private to public elevators 7,800 bu and 73 cars. Primary receipts this week 2,322,000 bu compared with 2,412,000 bu last week and 2,370,000 bu the corresponding week in 1903. Local weekly receipts were 1,014,000 bu, and the shipments 698,000 bu. Shipping demand a little slow and sales small. At the seaboard 2 boat loads were accepted. Fair and colder weather to be followed by fair and warmer conditions were predicted. Corn was firm in good demand and small supply. Feeling firm and prices were higher. No. 2 sold at 53½@53⅝c; closed at 53¾c. No. 2 Yellow sold at 53⅝c; closed at 53¾c. No. 2 White sold at 53⅝c. No. 3 sold at 49½c and closed at 45@52¼c. No. 3 Yellow sold at 49@50c; closed at 46½@52¼c. No. 3 White sold at 49½c. No. 4 sold at 42c.

Corn by sample—Was steady to 1c higher. Offerings were small and demand good. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 36@43c. No. 4 at 42½@45c. No 3 at 43¼@49½c. No. 3 Yellow at 49@50c. No 2 Yellow at 53½@54½c. No 3 White at 46c. Billed through: No. 4 at 41@44c. No 3 at 43¼@43½c. No. 3 Yellow at 46c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Moderately active and stronger, closing with ¼c advance.

MARCH—Inactive and nominal, closing at 51¾c.

MAY—Sold at 53¼@53⅞c. Opened at 53½c to 53⅞c and sold at 53½c, to 53¼c, to 53⅜c, to 53¾c, to 53¼c and closed at 53¼c bid.

JULY—Sold at 50⅜c and 50¾@50⅞c. Opened at 50⅜c to 50¾c and sold at 50¾c to 50⅝@50¾c to 50⅝@50¾c, to 50⅜c, to 50¾@50⅞c, to 50⅜c to 50½c, to 50⅜@50½c, and closed at 50⅜@50½c asked.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 49¾c and 50¼@50⅜c. Opened at 49⅞c to 50c, and sold to 50⅛c, to 49⅞c, to 50¼@50⅜c, to 49¾c, to 49⅞c, and closed at 49⅞c asked.

OATS—Were traded in moderately within ⅜c range, and closed fairly strong and ⅛@¼c higher. There was some commission house support and liberal selling for profits. There were prospects of better weather, which were to some extent offset by a stronger and higher sample market, prices being ½c higher and cash sales of 25,000 bu. Arrivals were 150 cars. There were 8,500 bu and 26 cars Standard from private elevators. Withdrawals were 37,800 bu. Car lots to go to store were slow. No 3 White sold at 40½c. Standard in store closed about 38½@39c as to location.

Oats by sample were in good demand and ½c higher for the best and slow and steady for poor. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 at 35@39c. No. 4 White at 38@40½c. No. 3 at 38½@40c. No. 3 White at 37@43c. Standard at 43c. No. 2 at 39½c. Billed through: No. 4 White at 41c. At the river: No. 4 White at 31@37¾c. No. 3 White at 36@40c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were stronger with fair trading.

MARCH—Slow; closed at 38⅛c.

MAY—Moderately active. Sold at 39⅛@39¼c and at 39½c. Opened at 39⅛c to 39½c; sold at 39½c to, 39⅛@39¼c, to 39¼c at close.

JULY—Active. Sold at 38@38¼c. Opened at 38⅛c to 38¼c, sold at 38¼c, to 38c, to 38⅛c, to 38@38⅛c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 32¼@32⅜c. Opened at 32⅜c, sold at 32½c, to 32¼c at close.

RYE—Very quiet and firm. Nothing in futures—offerings light and cash trading restricted to one car. Only 4 cars received. There were no withdrawals from store here and no export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store round lots nominally 69c, and fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 71@72¼c, with a choice car selling at 72¼c. No. 3 fresh receipts quotable at 65@69c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Nothing doing. Feeling steady. May 71c bid—none offered. July 67c bid and 68c asked.

BARLEY—There was only a small business. No essential change developed. Demand and offerings both were restricted. Only an occasional car of high grade appears. Good qualities of malting salable and steady. Low grade, as of late, dull. Offerings of latter smaller than they have been. Demand for mixing account very limited. There were posted 20 cars inspected in. Malting barley was at 40@49c for common to good malting. Screenings dull and quotable over a range of 30@38c for poor to very choice. Barley, mixing, 37@40c; local depending on soundness and color; fancy bright possibly a shade over. Feed Barley about 35@38c for good. Malting—low grade, 40@41c; common 42@44c; fair was about 45@47c; good, 48@50c; choice, 52@55c.

SEEDS—Dullness prevailed for Grass Seeds. Since yesterday it has turned cold and unseasonable. This had an unfavorable influence on the market. The Flax market was quiet, steady and slightly improved for cash.

Timothy—For cash country lots there was a weak market. A fairly liberal quantity offered on sale and more or less held from the market because its condition did not appear satisfactory. A turn to colder weather influenced the market unfavorable. About 5c decline in spot goods quotable, with country lots given a quotable range of $2 00@2 75 for poor to very fancy; outside would have to be extra fine, not hulled; fair to good, $2 35@2 45, choice, $2 50, and rough dark and foul lots about $2 00@2 30. For contract March or April delivery $2 85 remained bid, being steady and unchanged. $3 00 was asked. September held at $3 25 and $3 00 was bid.

Flax—Cash Flax prices were ½c higher. Very little was done. Sellers remain scarce. There were increased arrivals, but the Flax did not come on sale. March was nominally ½c better and deferred futures unchanged. Nothing of much interest in the market. Posted inspected in 10 cars or 34,000 bu, and taken out one car or 1,000 bu. Minneapolis got 17 cars and Duluth 32 cars. No. 1 Northwestern sold sparingly at $1 1½. No. 1 nominal at $1 08½c. Rejected quotable at $1 01@1 08, outside for choice from the Northwest. March was nominally $1 09. May delivery $1 1, bid. September $1 17 nominal.

Clover—Quiet and dull. A turn to colder, unfavorable weather caused some disappointment to be felt. Unless Clover is of high grade and there seldom is any such, it rules very dull and weak. Quotable: Country lots, common to choice, $8 27@10 25, fancy above, mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds $7 50@8 75; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 75.

Other Seeds—Some samples of Siberian and common Millet submitted for value, but a real cash offerings were lacking. A very quiet, slow and easy market was quotable for all lines. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, bulk about $1 15@1 65. Common Millet $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 40. Siberian, 85c@$1 05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c. Mustard, 80c@$1 05. Buckwheat easy, good milling, $1 50.

HOG PRODUCTS—Only a limited business was transacted in the market for Hog Products, and the feeling was stronger. Not much property for sale, and holders rather independent, while the demand was limited. Outside orders were small, and local trading rather light. Hogs were in moderate supply—considerably less than anticipated—with prices higher, and this feature, in conjunction with stronger Grain markets, tended to more steadiness in Hog Products. Fair supply of Hogs expected the coming week. Receipts at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 24,500, compared with 21,700 one year ago. Foreign and domestic markets were quiet and unchanged. Receipts of Products were fair of Lard and Meats about 22 cars. Shipments were very small of Lard and Meats about 6 cars. Prices ruled slightly higher on the leading speculative articles early, but settled back again toward the close, and the market closed steady. Very little doing on shipping account. Demand was limited, and offerings were small. Buyers and sellers apart in views. Sales very light, and prices unchanged.

Mess Pork—Trade was moderate in the market for Mess Pork, and the feeling was stronger. Demand was rather light, and offerings were small. Prices ruled 10@12½c higher early, but settled back again, and the market closed steady around inside figures. Shipping demand was light and offerings were small. Cash lots quotable at $13 10@13 15.

MAY—Inquiry rather light and offerings were moderate. Sales were made at $13 12½@13 20. Opened at $13 20, sold to $13 12½@13 15, to $13 20, to $13 12½, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were moderate, and the demand was rather light. Sales were made at $13 32½@13 42½. Opened at $13 40, sold to $13 32½, to $13 35, to $13 32½, to $13 42½, to $13 35, to $13 40, to $13 35, to $13 37½, to $13 32½, to $13 35, and closed steady.

Lard—Very little business transacted in Lard and the market was steadier in a general way. Offerings were small and the demand was moderate. Foreign advices unchanged. Prices ruled 2½c higher early, but settled back again 2½c, and the market closed rather quiet. Demand on shipping account was light and offerings were moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6 85@6 85. Loose lots called for moderately and offerings were rather light. Prices were steady at about 60 discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in small request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably steady at $6 75. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $7 50@7 62½ for No. 1, and $7 25@7 37½ for No. 2.

MAY—Demand rather light and offerings were small. Sales were made at $6 97½@7 02½. Opened at $7 02½, sold to $6 97½@7 00, and closed quiet.

JULY—Called for moderately, and offerings were rather small. Sales were made at $7 15@7 17½. Opened at $7 17½, sold to $7 15@7 17½, to $7 17½, to $7 15 and closed rather steady.

Short Rib Sides—Little interest was manifested in the market for Short Rib Sides, and trading was light. Offerings were somewhat limited, and the demand was moderate. Prices ruled about 2½c higher early but receded again 2½@5c and the market closed steady. Trading chiefly in July. Shipping demand was light, and offerings were small. Cash lots quotable at $6 62½@6 87½ according to weight.

MAY—Inquiry light, and offerings were small. Sales were made at $6 90@6 92½. Opened at $6 92½, sold to $6 90, and closed quiet.

JULY—Offerings were moderate, and the demand was rather light. Sales were made at $7 02½@7 07½. Opened at $7 07½, sold to $7 05, to $7 07½, to $7 02½, to $7 02½@7 05, and closed steady.

Other Meats—Trade was unusually small and the feeling rather steady. Offerings were moderate. Demand was limited for the home trade. Export inquiry very small. Green Meats were in moderate supply and rather light demand, and prices ruled steady. Pickled Meats were in moderate request to fill limited orders and prices were unchanged. Dry Salted Meats were in fair demand in a quiet way and prices ruled steady. Smoked Meats called for in fair quantities, especially in a jobbing way, and prices were unchanged. Closing ranged as follows:

WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW

CHICAGO, FRIDAY EVENING, March 25, 1904.

The Chicago money market was without new features. Deposits are accumulating. The demand for loans is not of the urgent character and rates are steady at 4½ to 5½ per cent, with most of the business at 5 per cent. Commercial paper sells at 4½ to 5 per cent for 6 months or over. In New York money was easy on the Stock Exchange at 1¼ to 1¾ per cent. In the time money market, the demand was fair and mainly for short maturities which brought 3 per cent for 60 days, 2¾ per cent for 90 days and 3½ per cent for 4 months with 6 months loans at 3¾ to 4 per cent. The commercial paper market in the East is broadening, although offerings of high grade paper are light. In London there was an easy market with British consols irregular, owing to the new floating loan of $1 ...,000,000.

New York Exchange was steady at 5 to 15c premium and closed at 10c premium.

Foreign Exchange was firm, rates are approaching an export basis. Argentina has taken $2,-500,000 of Gold so far this year and there are indications of the movement in that direction nearing its end. Shippers' 60 day documentary sterling bills on London ranged at 483½ to 483¾.

Cotton in New York was excited and erratic, sharp advances being followed by good declines. The trade was uneasy over the Sully failure and was not disposed to accept his offer of settlement. Outside business in futures had been reduced to normal figures and there was a disposition to go slow on both sides. On the declines spinners and exporters were good buyers. The final report of the ginners was issued March 25. It made the total crop 10,014,000 round bales. This started active buying, especially by "shorts," and made a sharp advance. Closing sales were at gains of 142 to 15c on old crop futures and 5 points on September for the week.

Local Securities were comparatively slow, except for Biscuit and Illinois Brick. These shares furnished a large part of the trading and averaged higher. Metropolitan Elevated was offered more sparingly and responded to moderate buying of an investment character, prices showing an advance over 9½ points from the recent low figures. Traction shares were neglected. Bonds were slow but steady.

The New York Stock market was a most remarkable one. Business increased so that Tuesday witnessed transactions of 1,070,000 shares, or more than has been traded in for a week's time for some time past. The sensational feature was the activity in Union Pacific there being 778,300 shares traded in; also 618,700 shares of Southern Pacific. Great Northern was also more extensively handled. Under the recent decision in the merger case Northern Securities will divide up its holdings by declaring a dividend of 99 per cent, this to be effected by a reduction of that amount in the capital stock of the Securities Company. For every share of the Northern Securities stock surrendered the company will deliver $39 27 stock of the Northern Pacific Railway Company and $30 17 of the Great Northern Railway Company. The shares of the Northern Pacific, which were taken over by the Northern Securities at 115, and those of the Great Northern at 180, will be distributed on this basis. There was heavy buying of Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and Great Northern by insiders on the material advances, although the best prices were not held owing to extensive selling for profits. The activity in these shares stimulated trade and the whole market was more attractive to speculators. Crop news from the West was more encouraging. The railroad earnings are showing up better. The "short" interest was forced to cover at the advance, but were aggressive sellers again. At the close moderate advances on all active stocks were recorded. From the low points of late prices are up 6 to 10 points. Total sales on the New York Stock Exchange for the week were 4,642,000 shares, compared with 2,915,000 the previous week and 2,705,000 last year.

In the mercantile trade business increased moderately, the feature being the enlarged buying of pig Iron by local consumers, which aggregated about 60,000 tons last week at an advance of 50c. The advance in Steel products the previous week was maintained, with increased sales in nearly all lines. There was a large movement of delayed tonnage over Eastern roads and buying of all kinds of goods in the West which has been delayed until now owing to unfavorable weather was noticeable for its activity the past week. Conspicuous in this line was dry goods, clothing and shoes. There is uncertainty over the crop situation and the disposition is to take supplies in small quantities until the situation brightens. The failure in Cotton last week was taken as a favorable feature for Cotton goods manufacturers and for business interests generally, as it will, it is believed, put prices for Cotton down to a point where it can be exported and consumed in larger quantities. The movement of building materials and lumber was increased, but sales were mostly to local builders. Supplies of lumber at Northern and Southern mills are low and prices well maintained. A cut of 50c a ton will be made in Anthracite Coal April 1, the usual summer schedule becoming effective. Bituminous Coal was easier as the miners have voted to accept reduced wages. Orders for groceries, drugs, chemicals and paints were somewhat improved, but sales were in small lots. Collections are generally better.

COMMERCIAL.

A good business was transacted in commercial circles the past week and prices on the leading articles were again quite irregular. Outside orders were fairly numerous, while the trading credited to local and professional operators was quite liberal in the aggregate. Crop conditions here and abroad were watched closely and were important governing influences. "Bear" interests appeared more aggressive in their operations the first part the week, and "long" lines were dislodged, causing values to weaken all around. Later "shorts" accepted liberal quantities and on fresh investment buying the general tone became more "bullish." The forthcoming Government crop report which will shortly be issued, is awaited with keen interest and will no doubt form a basis for future operations. The collapse in Cotton market last week in the East had but temporary effect on the leading markets. The outlook is still bright for continued activity in Grain and Provision cereals and the next few months should offer many opportunities for speculative ventures. The proposition favoring the delivering of No. 3 Corn on contracts for No. 2 at 3c penalty was defeated this week by a vote of 183 for and 578 against. The proposition to deliver No. 3 White Oats on contracts for Standard at 2c penalty was also defeated by a vote of 193 for and 563 against.

Cable advices from abroad this week indicated fairly satisfactory crop conditions. The outlook in Great Britain is somewhat better, and the position of the crops in France, Germany, Italy, Hungary, Roumania and Bulgaria is generally favorable. Dry weather would be welcome in Spain. No definite news regarding conditions in Russia were received the past week, opinions varying greatly as to the probable results. In Northern Africa conditions are said to be very favorable. Too much rain was reported in Argentine and the Corn crop has in consequence suffered. The outlook for the Wheat harvest in India continues good.

The prospects for the Wheat crop in this country were improved in many sections the past week. Rains were general East of the Mississippi River and Kansas and Oklahoma have had considerable moisture since our last review. Copious rains on the Pacific Coast have broken the drouth in that section and all small Grains were greatly benefitted by the same. Temperatures in most sections of the Winter Wheat belt this week were more spring-like and indications are for growing weather in the near future. The season, however, as a whole is late and farm work not as far advanced as customary at this time of the year. Oat seeding has commenced in some sections of the West. Advices from the Northwest indicate that with seasonable weather the Spring Wheat area will be large.

The movement of Grain from the farms was restricted the past week, but that is usually the case at this season, when country roads are breaking up and spring work is under way. The shipments to distributing centers were in consequence at the expense of stocks held at country stations. In the Northwest, however, the movement of Flax Seed and Wheat exceeded that of the corresponding period last year. Through the West and Central West the marketing of all Grain fell off considerable, though Corn receipts compared favorably with those of 1903. In the Southwest there was also a shrinkage in the Wheat movement. Shipments of Grain toward the seaboard were moderate and there is as yet nothing doing in the way of cargoes for spring shipment upon the opening of navigation. Shippers are still fearful lest a strike in marine circles will tie up their Grain and prove annoying in fulfilling contracts in the East. Exports of Flour and Wheat continue very moderate and bookings at the seaboard for Europe were meagre. Corn clearances made a fair showing but exports of Oats were light. According to the weekly report of the visible supply of Grain in the United States and Canada, as compiled by the Secretary of the Chicago Board of Trade, there was a decrease in the stocks of Wheat, Corn, Oats, Rye and Barley.

Speculative operations were of fair volume the past week, the leading markets attracting a good deal of attention. Sentiment in Grain was again greatly divided and this was also the case in Provisions. "Bear" interests were quite aggressive on the selling side the first of the week and prices on the leading articles ruled lower. Liquidation was general and "long" property came out in large quantities, stop loss selling being a conspicuous feature. The spring-like weather, generally "bearish" statistics, indifferent shipping demand and apathy of foreigners to conditions on this side appeared to be the chief dominating influences. At the declines established, "shorts" accepted liberal quantities and the situation turned stronger. The leading markets acted oversold and the reaction in prices was rather sudden. Hog Products were weaker, influential interests being credited with favoring the "bear" side. Hogs, however were only in moderate supply, but prices were irregular. Packing of the West for the week was reported at 370,000 Hogs, against 290,000 in 1903, an increase of 80,000 Hogs. The Price Current estimates that the total of the Hog Product in the West is 103,100,000 lbs in excess of last year, and that the total Product at the seaboard and in Eastern cities is 9,0 0 000 lbs in excess of last year.

There was only a moderate trade in cash Grain the past week, speculators as well as shippers apparently curtailing their operations. Offerings showed some falling off, and the volume of business was not as heavy as lately reported. The demand for Wheat on milling and shipping account was very fair and the offerings were small. Corn was not as ready sale, though the quality of the offerings were somewhat improved. Prices favored buyers. Oats too were a little slack and prices were lower. Rye was dull and weaker. Seeds were quiet and depressed. Hay was a little stronger under the influence of smaller receipts and improved demand. Hog Products were in moderate request and the offerings only fair. Sales were somewhat limited and prices favored buyers. Receipts of Products were liberal. Exports for the week, compared with the correspond week in 1903, exhibited increases of 440 brls Pork, 1,652,000 lbs Lard and 1,612 boxes Meats.

FREIGHTS—Traffic conditions East and West have somewhat improved, but Eastern roads are still unable to furnish cars. The tariff is as follows:

To—	From Chicago. Domestic.	From Chicago. Export.	From Miss. River. Domestic.	From Miss. River. Export.
Boston	22	15	25	17½
New York	20	15	22	17½
Philadelphia	18	14	20	16½
Baltimore	17	13½	19	16
Newport News	17	13½	19	..
Buffalo	13	....	15	..

Flour rates are 20c domestic and 16½c for export. Provision rates are 30c per 100 lbs, Chicago to New York.

Rail rates at and east of Buffalo were again lower on Grain and are 2 mills per bu on Wheat, 3½ mills on Corn and Rye, and 4 mills on Oats.

Ocean rates on Grain steady with a limited demand. Rates on Grain are ⅞d@1d per bu from New York and ¾d from Boston. Through rate on Wheat from Chicago to Liverpool is 11¾c per bu and Corn 11½c. Flour 24.01c per 100 lbs and Provisions 44.05c per 100 lbs.

FLOUR—The local Flour market was quiet the past week, still the undertone was steady and no essential change has occurred in prices. Buyers as a rule are inclined to hold off, as they have done now for the past few weeks, no doubt believing prices are destined to a lower level. By pursuing this course stocks have become depleted in many instances and it is now only a matter of time when the same will be obliged to be replenished. Millers were not disposed to grant concessions, as milling Wheat keeps relatively strong compared with futures and is rather scarce. The comparatively moderate stocks, too, is another argument in favor of the millers. Sales to the East were moderate, still considerable Flour is being consigned to the seaboard. The foreign demand is quiet and bids still out of line in a majority of instances by 25c. City mills are not all working full time, but are not entirely closed down, as is the case in the Northwest. Consignments are small, and the offerings by Southwestern mills only moderate. Output the past week at the principal Spring Wheat points was 543,600 brls, compared with 539,-000 brls the corresponding week one year ago. Dornbusch of March 11 has the following on the London Flour market: "The rapid fall in American Wheat has somewhat disorganized the Flour trade and made buyers more cautious than ever, as they are led to assume that the value of the manufactured article will follow in the steps of the raw material; so far this has not come to pass, for at Minneapolis and other centers of exporting millers the rates asked continue to be 1s 6d to 2s per sack higher than the spot value here. Consequently c. i. f. business is at a standstill and importers refuse to part with their holdings, as they could not replace them with advantage." The week closed quiet and steady at the following prices:

MILLSTUFFS—Ruled easier during the past week and prices declined 75c@$1 25 per ton. The receipts have been more liberal. Bran sold at $16 25 per ton in bulk and at $17 00@17 75 in 100-lb sacks, sacks included. Middlings sold at $17 50 per ton in 100-lb sacks.

WINTER WHEAT—Taken on the whole, the market has ruled rather steady during the past week, although prices touched a slightly lower level. A good demand has existed and several round lots were taken as well as the daily arrivals. The demand has been on milling and on shipping account. All choice milling Wheat, whether soft or hard, was wanted and brought a good premium. The grade Wheat or the contract grade in store followed the fluctuations of the speculative market, with a greater premium over May paid for choice special lots. Sales of 225,000 bu No. 2 Red were made. The receipts have been small and scarcely sufficient to establish a market. For the week the receipts aggregated 52 cars, against 72 cars the previous week. There were withdrawn from public elevators 35,800 bu and from private warehouses 65 cars. No. 2 Red in store ranged from ½c under to 5c over May prices, depending on location, and ranged at 91⅛@99⅜c; fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 97c@$1 03. No. 3 Red fresh arrivals ranged at 93c@$1 01. No. 2 Hard local sold at 89@95c. No 3 Hard local sold at 88@90c, and ranged at 82@93c. No. 4 Hard local sold at 80@81c and at the river at 75@77c.

SPRING WHEAT—Prices during the week touched a lower level, but the market has ruled steady at the current prices. A good demand has existed on milling and shipping account and besides the car lots of fresh arrivals, there were sales of round lots made. The improved demand on shipping account had the effect of bringing prices for No. 1 Northern closer to the May figures. The receipts have been small and scarcely enough fresh arrivals coming to make a market, and quotations for the most part have been nominal. The hard variety was mostly wanted and sold quite well. Of the poor Wheat there have been a number of cars received; there has been no special call for it, and low prices had to be accepted to make sales. The receipts of the week aggregated 49 cars, against 52 cars the previous week. There were withdrawn from public elevators 130 100 bu, and some 95 cars were taken from private warehouses. No. 1 Northern in store ranged from the same as May to ½c under, depending on location, and was quotable at 90½@96c, and fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 93c@$1 00. No. 2 Northern fresh receipts nominally 88@97c. No 3 Spring fresh receipts sold at 81@97c for ordinary to choice hard variety. No. 4 Spring local sold at 65@91c for ordinary to choice and was quotably as low as 60c for poor, with a sale at the river at 63c.

REGULAR WHEAT—A very good trade was witnessed under this head the past week, but business at the same time was not as general as of late, being more concentrated, with the professional element rather conspicuous. Sentiment was, on the whole, "bullish" and the close shows the May up 2¼c, while July gained ⅛@¼c, and September ⅞c. The situation the first of the week was weak and liquidation of "long" property the chief feature. The rains through the Winter Wheat belt, rather liberal movement compared with last year and generally "bearish" domestic and foreign statistics were among the governing influences. Rains were general over the greater portion of the Winter Wheat belt, but more would have been welcome in Kansas and Oklahoma. The indifferent foreign demand and moderate exports, too, were influential factors. Northwestern news regarding the Flour situation was unfavorable to holders and likewise had a depressing effect on values. May weakened to 91c, while old July sold off to 85¾c and old September 80⅝c. Stop-loss limits were uncovered on the decline, which added to the general demoralized condition of the market. Around 91c for May and 85¾c for the July "shorts" came in and checked the break. Fresh investment buying set in and a recovery to 96c and 89⅝c followed. The improved cash demand and adverse reports from Indiana and Ohio Valley were late "bull" helps. The Minneapolis Flour millers made another demonstration against the Wheat market the first of the week. They announced, Monday, they would close down on Thursday temporarily. The shut-down was expected to last about three days, as the last one was. It was thought country mills would also close down for three days. The understanding is that terminal and country mills with an aggregate capacity of about 400,000 brls act together in these shutdowns. There is no open concert, and the country mills do not always shut down simultaneously with the mills at Minneapolis. But they all agree to take so much out of the production, and the three days' shut-down by mills having an aggregate capacity of over 400,000 brls a week makes quite a hole in stocks, over 200,000 brls. World's shipments were about as expected at 10,584,000 bu, against 9,192,000 bu the previous week and 9,776,000 bu corresponding week one year ago. Russian shipments amounted to 1,784,000 bu, compared with 2,600,000 bu the previous week and 1,640,000 bu a year ago. Danubian shipments increased from 464,000 bu to 1,032,000 bu. A year ago they were 1,068,000 bu. The quantity on ocean passage increased 1,224,000 bu, and is now 42,560,000 bu, compared with 31,024,000 bu in 1903. The visible decreased 471,000 bu against 1,011,000 bu decrease same week in 1903. Total is now reported 32,025,000 bu, against 45,055,000 bu in 1903 and 50,948,000 bu in 1902. The points gaining 50,000 bu or over were: Fort William, 217,000 bu; Duluth, 107,000 bu, and Milwaukee 66,000 bu (afloat). Points losing: Buffalo, 306,000 bu; St. Louis, 302,000 bu; New Orleans, 85,000 bu; New York, 80,000 bu; Milwaukee, 58,000 bu, and Minneapolis, 56,000 bu. Local public stocks decreased 64,000 bu, to 2,796,000 bu, against 7,742,000 bu same date last year. Local stocks in all positions were reported at 5,509,000 bu, a decrease of 93,000 bu, and are now 5,731,000 bu smaller than a year ago. Contract stocks decreased 75,305 bu and now include 1,613,584 bu, or 1,555,014 bu less than a year ago at this time. Bradstreet's world's available supply decreased 694,000 bu, as compared with 368,000 bu decrease same week in 1903. Stocks of Wheat in public warehouses in Liverpool were reported at 1,960,000 bu, against 1,904,000 bu one week ago and 2,184,000 bu one year ago. Primary receipts from day to day were larger than a year ago and the total between July 1 and March 21 aggregates 196,468,000 bu, as compared with 221,-173,000 bu in 1902-3 and 207,831,000 bu in 1901-2. The Minneapolis Market Record reported that the Wheat receipts at Minneapolis and Duluth so far, since August 1, amounted to, approximately, 93,000,000 bu, and it is estimated there have been ground by mills in the interior of Minnesota and North and South Dakota about 40,000,000 bu. Stocks of Wheat in country elevators on March 1, were nearly 9,000,000 bu above what they were on August 1, last. This makes a total of 142,000,000 bu. By adding 20,000,000 bu reserved for seed, a total of 162,-000,000 bu is found to have already been disposed of. The DAILY TRADE BULLETIN of March 22 said: "On March 1, 1903, the Department of Agriculture reported the quantity of Wheat in farmers' hands in the Northwest at 46,400,000 bu, and the quantity in interior elevators was reported at 4,600,000 bu, making a total supply of 51,000,000 bu. Of this quantity 19,000,000 bu was required for seed; Minneapolis received 18,300,000 bu and Duluth 3,600,000 bu; thirty interior mills ground 8,000,000 bu and the Department of Agriculture reported 11,300,000 bu in farmers' hands on July 1—making a grand total of 60,200,000 bu. Besides this, 480 more interior Flour mills probably ground 10,000,000 bu to 12,000,000 bu during the four months." The official Kentucky report made the Wheat condition only 54, compared with 100 last year. The low Wheat condition in the Ohio Valley States is one of the crop mysteries this year. Ohio had an abundance of moisture, but its Wheat condition is only 69. Kentucky has had about as much moisture as any part of the country, but its Wheat condition is only 54, compared with 100 last year. The above showing was one of the "bull" helps. Spain remitted 8c of its Wheat duty, making it 40½c per bu instead of 48½c and was expected to improve the demand from that quarter. Domestic crop news was generally satisfactory, but many private reports were quite conflicting. The San Francisco Weekly Commercial News of March 17 said: "The Wheat crop outlook has improved during the past week, although considerable damage by the late storms is reported. The benefit derived from the rain, however, will more than offset any damage done. The cash market is firm, but few sales are reported; most of the vessels now in port will lay up for new crop loading and not much of an export business is expected between now and July." Foreign crop conditions were on the whole fairly favorable. Broomhall's weekly foreign crop summary said: "United Kingdom—Crop outlook somewhat better. France, Germany, Italy, Hungary, Roumania, and Bulgaria. No complaints regarding crops, the position of which is generally favorable. Spain. Dry weather is wanted. Russia—No definite news regarding crop prospects; opinion varying. North Africa—Condition of Wheat crop very favorable. India—Outlook for harvest continues good." Argentine shipments this week 3,072,000 bu, making 29,496,000 bu since Jan. 1, compared with 19,034,000 bu for the same period in 1903. The settlement of the strike there is expected to increase the exports in the near future. Exports the past week from Atlantic and Gulf ports were only 1,802,000 bu and the new business booked at Atlantic and Gulf ports was somewhat limited. The following table exhibits the exports of Breadstuffs from the following countries from July 1, 1903, to March 19, 1904, compared with the corresponding period in 1902-3:

America	128,896,000	182,047,000
Russia	164,248,000	87,992,000
Danubian	47,488,000	44,976,000
India	34,104,000	12,768,000
Argentina	42,421,000	18,704,000
Australasia	13,832,000	....
Austria-Hungary	4,848,000	2,272,000
Chili, North Africa	8,398,000	14,340,000
Totals	384,2.8,000	362,699,000

Continental Wheat stocks March 1 were 22,380,000 bu, compared with 32,136,000 bu Feb. 1 and 30,472,000 bu March 1, 1903.

CORN—The Corn market was active and sensitive the past week, fluctuations being most frequent, with final figures showing the May 1⅝c higher, while July gained 1@1⅛c and the September 1⅛c. May ranged at 50½@54c and July at 48½@51⅞c. Speculative operations were a good deal on the professional order and sentiment greatly divided. Early in the week the tone was weak and liquidation quite pronounced. "Long" property came out in large quantities and support was of the indifferent sort, under which May declined from 53⅛c to 50½c and July from 50⅝c to 48½c. The liberal addition to the contract stock the past week was one of the "bear" factors, and the transfers from private to public elevators were again rather free the past week, indicating that the dryers are busy turning out the standard article. The market had fair support around 50½@50¾c for May, the wet weather through the Corn belt and comparatively firm cables being factors which were productive of strength. The price rallied to 51c, while July sold to 50⅜c. Liverpool was influenced to some extent owing to the fact that some of the Corn arriving from Gulf ports was in bad condition. Argentine crop news, too, was not of the best, continued rains causing considerable anxiety among growers there. There is the fear that there will be about such a Corn crop, as a result of the untimely rains, as was gathered in this country last fall. It is especially necessary that the Argentine Corn be dry to withstand the high temperatures of the voyage across the equator. Late cables, however, placed surplus at 104,000,000 bu. The attitude of the "bull" party in May was watched closely and at times signs of congestion were noticeable. May ruled comparatively firm, while the July was easy. Receipts were moderate and the breaking up of the country roads, it was argued, will tend to cause a further curtailing of the movement. Spring work, too, is under way and this fact also should tend to restrict the marketing from first hands. Through the West, however, receipts at distributing centers were about in line with last year and the shipments smaller. Routine statistics were generally construed as moderately "bearish." The visible decreased 356,000 bu, compared with 175,000 bu decrease one year ago. The total is now reported at 9,511,000 bu, against 10,637,000 bu in 1903 and 9 ... 000 bu in 1902. Points losing 50,000 bu and over: Peoria, 320,000 bu; New Orleans, 121,000 bu; Galveston, 115,000 bu, and Kansas City 50,000 bu. Local public stocks increased 314,000 bu and are now 3,491,000 bu, compared with 4,000,000 bu same date in 1903. Stocks here in all positions were reported at 8,412,000 bu, an increase of 256,000 bu, and are 76,000 bu smaller than one year ago. Contract stocks showed a good-sized increase—305,219 bu—and are now 3,043,345 bu, or 610,... larger than a year ago at this time. Bradstreet's available supply increased 192,000 bu, as compared with 249,000 bu increase same week in 1903. World's shipments were 3,751,000 bu, against 3,776,000 bu the previous week and 4,061,000 bu in 1903. The quantity on ocean passage increased 326,000 bu to 11,5.. 000 bu, compared with 12,220,000 bu same date last year. Receipts at Liverpool this week were quite liberal and the stock of Corn reported at 754,000 ... against 738,000 bu a week ago and 104,000 bu last year. Local receipts this week were 948 cars, and 43 per cent were low grades, against 990 cars last week, when 47 per cent were low grades. One year ago the arrivals were 746 cars, when 41 per cent consisted of low grades. Local outward movement moderate and indications are for another addition to local stocks. As yet there is nothing doing in cargoes for shipment upon the opening of navigation. Shippers are fearful lest the contemplated strike will tie up the boats. Exports at Atlantic and Gulf ports were fair. Total for the week 1,528,000 bu and since July 1, 44,717,000 bu, compared with 41,775,000 bu the same period in 1902-03. Bookings on the coast for future shipment moderate. Argentine shipments were 50,000 bu, and the total since Jan. 1 aggregates 8,432,000 bu, as compared with 590,000 bu for the same period in 1903. The demand for car lots this week was not as good as usual; in fact, at times the trade was a little slack. Offerings were fair and prices were inclined to favor buyers until Friday, when the demand was noticeably improved and the declines recovered. Considerable "bull" news was at hand from Illinois points regarding the condition of the crop, claiming that it would not grade contract.

OATS—The market for Oats was weak and prices averaged lower. There was pressure from tired holders and from the "bear" interests due to improved weather and to a belief that an unusually large acreage will be put in in the West. The shipping demand was none too good and other Grains weak and declined early, but reacted later and influenced Oats. The tendency was to sell Oats every time they were strong. May ranged between 38⅜@41⅜c, and closed at 39⅛@39¼c, a net loss of ⅛c. July was down to 37c, and closed at 37¾@37⅞c, a loss of ⅝c. September was pressed on sale by the "bears" to greater advantage and they suffered a more severe loss than the May, declining to 31¼c, and closing at 32⅛c, a net loss of ⅞c. The cash business was slow. The East is getting Oats bought some time ago which have been tied up in the railroad blockade and were extremely indifferent about buying, which retarded shipping business. A scarcity of cars also made it difficult to load out Oats already sold. In the sample market there was slowness, weakness and a net decline of 1½@2c, followed by a small reaction. Receipts for week were 910 cars, compared with 961 cars the previous week, and 1,407 cars last year. Export clearances were 1..,-9.0 bu, against 88,064 bu the previous week, and 98,701 bu last year. Stocks of Standard Oats in public houses increased 168,000 bu last week and were 2,898,000 bu, compared with 525,000 bu last year. Stocks in all positions decreased 98,000 bu and are 5,416,000 bu. The visible supply decreased 4,000 bu and was 10,690,000 bu, compared with 7,182,-000 bu last year.

RYE—The market has ruled quiet during the past week, and prices 2c lower for May and 1c lower for July, but closed steadier. Trading has been restricted both in cash and futures. There has been nothing of special importance developed in the market and interest has been lacking. A few cars of cash fresh receipts were sold, and now and then a lot for May and July delivery was dealt in. There has been no shipping demand and no round lots sold. The fresh arrivals were taken mostly for manufacturing purposes, but some went to carriers. The receipts were small and aggregated 4 cars, against 33 cars the previous week. There were no withdrawals from public elevators and three cars from private warehouses. Export clearances from the seaboard none. Visible supply decreased 76,000 bu and was reported at 959,000 bu against 1,035,000 bu the previous week and 9..,-000 bu one year ago. The local stock in store was 2,3,000 bu and a year ago was 370,000 bu. No. 2 in store ranged nominally 70@71c, down to 68c, and fresh arrivals free on board sold at 70@71c. No. 3 fresh arrivals sold at 62½@69c and No. 4 at 55@5.. with a sale at the river at 57½c. For future deliveries of No. 2 Rye the trading was light. May sold at 72c to 70c and closed at 71c bid. July sold at 65c, and closed at 65c bid.

BARLEY—A slow, quiet market was experienced. Trade was dull for the main part of such Barley as was offered. The malting demand remained very tame. Maltsters as a rule appeared to be well supplied, some claimed to have about enough to carry through the season. Good to choice color, sound, clean, heavy Barley was salable and steady. There were small offerings of good, but seldom was there anything choice offered. Common and low grade malting was dull and dragging. There were few buyers for it. Gradually bids were lowered, and the common grades declined 2c. Barley out of the malting class, feed and mixing was very dull and weak. Feed Barley, that is good weight but off color, damaged or dirty, had hardly any demand; it did not sell so well as mixing, provided the latter was thin, clean and good color. There was some little demand for this, but there was dirty, poor color or musty Barley on sale which no one wanted and to sell low prices had to be accepted. Screenings also became very slow and easier. The Oats market was weaker and this was unfavorable for such goods as are used for mixing. Low grades generally sustained about 2c decline. The arrivals were very moderate, smaller than for some weeks. It was not the extent of the offerings, but rather a lack of demand which caused the dullness and weakness which was experienced. There were posted 174 cars inspected in, compared with 270 cars the previous week and 338 cars two weeks ago. No output reported; the week before 9,125 bu were withdrawn and two weeks ago 3,650 bu. New York gave no account of exports; a week ago clearances of 8,724 bu appeared. In the visible there was 84,000 bu decrease, but 3,696,000 bu remained, compared with 1,708,000 bu in sight the same time last year. No change appeared in local stocks; 303,331 bu was shown to be in regular houses here, last year this stock was 1,223 bu. The market got settled down to where there was a range as follows: Screenings had a range of 30@39c for poor to very choice. Barley, mixing, 37@39c local, depending on soundness and color; fancy bright possibly a shade over, and poor, musty cars down to 34@35c. Feed Barley about 38c—that was about all that was obtainable for good. Malting low grade, 40@41c; common, 42@44c; fair was about 45@47c; good, 48@50c; choice, 52@55c.

SEEDS—A fairly active business in cash Timothy over a lower range of prices was witnessed but in the other lines there was only a small trade. That was because of Timothy there was a liberal supply while of the others the offerings were very moderate. There did however appear more Hungarian and Millet on sale with an easy feeling and the former showed a small decline. Clover broke and was very weak for common quality, finally steady for good Seed. The weather so far this spring, with the exception of a few days, has not been favorable for Grass Seed trade, and has caused a retarded demand. The Flax market continues quiet with no increase in interest and there were only small price changes.

Timothy—There was 15@30c break in prices the past week. A very weak feeling prevailed early. The market for ordinary and common grades was heavy all the time, but the decline in prices gave Seed better sale finally. There continued a free forward movement. The offerings were at all times quite liberal. There were at the same time few high grade to choice lots. Main part of the supply comprised rough and fair to good quality, with some very poor lots. There was quite a large business done, after the break in prices, not much before. The weather so far this spring has been unfavorable; it has retarded trade and made prospects less favorable for the future. It was said that so far spring business has not come up to expectations. Some attributed also to the fact that in some sections there has got to be more fall planting than there used to be and hence possibly less spring planting. In futures nothing was done. Bids were reduced 15@25c for near futures. Little desire, however, to sell manifested, and the bids were not accepted. There was a fair gain in the output during the week; it did not quite come up to the arrivals. Shipments much smaller than the same time last year. Following table exhibits the movement for the week, with comparisons:

Receipts the past week, lbs.	1,649,833
The previous week	1,874,015
Two weeks ago	2,460,445
Same time last year	563,520
Shipments the past week, lbs.	1,389,100
The previous week	1,156,730
Two weeks ago	872,429
Same time last year	2,290,820

Fair to good quality of country lots ranged early at $2 55@2 70, and declined to $2 40@2 50. Poor to fancy was quoted over a range of $2 25@3 10 at the opening to $2 00@2 80 afterward; only fine, bright, unhulled Seed would bring the outside, and none of this offered. Choice in the quotations declined from $2 75@2 85 to $2 60@2 70. Common rough lots were $2 35@2 45 early and $2 25@2 35 later. March delivery declined nominally from $3 00 to $2 85. April had a similar nominal range; late in the week the inside quotation was bid. September was offered at $3 25 and at one time $3 15 was bid; there was nothing done.

Clover—A weak feeling prevailed. Prices for Clover sustained about 25c decline. The trouble has been that bad weather curtailed demand from outside. The output was small. Arrivals and offerings not large but fair. There was nothing like a high grade in the Seed offered on sale. There were reported for the week receipts and shipments as follows:

Receipts the past week, lbs.	386,793
The previous week	271,012
Two weeks ago	249,763
Same time last year	464,340
Shipments the past week, lbs.	250,178
The previous week	293,320
Two weeks ago	280,678
Corresponding week last year	278,559

After the decline in prices noted the market at the close had a range as follows: Country lots common to choice, $8 00@10 25; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $7 00@8 75; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 75.

Other Seeds—There has been an easy feeling in all lines. Hungarian prices sustained 10@15c decline. A little more of this line on sale. There also was some Millet. At this season there is usual but a small demand and it has been so recently. Arrivals under the head of Other Seeds keep up well and shipments were liberal. Movement runs much ahead of last year, as the following shows:

Receipts—The past week, lbs.	992,460
A week ago	635,370
Two weeks ago	586,430
Same time last year	200,650
Shipments—The past week, lbs.	1,869,445
A week ago	1,626,875
Two weeks ago	2,173,864
Same time last year	263,681

Prices at which the several lines were quoted during the week are in the table elsewhere given.

Buckwheat has been inactive. Market was almost without offerings. It is so late in the season that milling demand also has nearly ceased. There was a nominal quotation of $1 30@1 35 for good milling closed at $1 30.

Flax—The Flax market remained in an inanimate condition. It was devoid of interest. Some increase in arrivals over recent weeks was witnessed but it made no difference in cash offerings. They remained limited to a few cars. An occasional small trade in future delivery Flax would take place, usually May delivery, but this part of the trade was to a large degree neglected. Values were not subject to much change, the fluctuations being confined to ½@1c range. There was a good increase in last visible Northwestern supply over 433,000 bu. Duluth having gained 298,000 bu, and Minneapolis increased 124,552 bu. No change in local stock reported. Chicago had 18,722 bu, against 71,131 bu a year ago. Duluth reported 6,642,000 bu and Minneapolis 1,516,139 bu, this gave a total of 8,217,261 bu. Local receipts were 146 cars compared with 106 cars a week and 92 cars two weeks ago. There were taken out 6,080 bu, the previous week withdrawals was 8,867 bu and two weeks ago 12,883 were taken out. For No. 1 cash there were nominal quotations of $1 07½@1 08½; closed at $1 08½. No. 1 Northwestern or No. 1 from the Northwest ranged with small sales at $1 13@1 15, closed at $1 15. Rejected was quoted at $1 05@1 08 depending on quality, outside always for choice from the Northwest. March delivery was nominally $1 07½@1 08½. May sold early, only a little of it, at $1 10½ and afterward $1 11 was bid. September was quoted early at $1 17 later at $1 16 but nothing was done.

HAY—The receipts for the week were 4,467 tons against 3,578 tons for the previous week. Shipments for the week were 339 tons, against 29 tons for the previous week. The market for both Timothy and Prairie Hay ruled rather firm during the past week. Prices for choice grades advanced about 50c per ton. The arrivals were somewhat larger than during the previous week, but the demand was better, local dealers taken hold a little more freely. No inquiry for shipment. All choice grades sold readily and market closed firm. The San Francisco Commercial News says: "Hay crop prospects continue most encouraging, and from present indications we will have one of the heaviest yields throughout the State for several years." Quotations at the close ranged as follows: Choice Timothy, $12 50@13 00; No. 1 Timothy, $11 00@12 00, No. 2 Timothy $9 50@10 50; No. 3 Timothy, $7 50@9 00; Choice Prairie, $10 00@11 00; No. 1 Prairie, $9 00@9 50; No. 2 Prairie, $8 00@8 50; No. 3 Prairie, $6 50@7 00; No. 4 Prairie, $5 50@6 00. Inside prices on Prairie Hay are for State and outside for Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa Hay. Sales ranged at $7 00@14 00 for poor to fancy Timothy, $6 00@8 00 for State and $7 00@11 00 for Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska Prairie Hay. Rye Straw sold at $9 25@10 00. Wheat Straw at $7 00, and Oat Straw at $7 00.

COOPERAGE—Very little interest was manifested in the market for Cooperage during the past week. Buyers and sellers were part in views and sales were limited, and in a quiet way. Local packers were backward, and outside orders were small. Offerings were moderate, but holders slow to grant concessions. Ash Pork Barrels were in small request and easy at $1 00@1 05. Oak Pork Barrels were dull and slow sale at $1 25@1 30. Lard Tierces were called for sparingly, and prices favored buyers. Quotable at $1 15@1 50. Iron-bound Lard Tierces were dull and slow sale at $1 22½@1 25 for six-hoop and $1 30@1 32½ for eight-hoop.

HOGS—The receipts of Hogs during the past week were moderate—less than generally anticipated—and the quality was fairly good. Roads in the interior in rather bad condition. The market was rather active, especially for the better qualities. Packers were not very anxious to purchase, owing to the easy feeling in Provisions, but shippers bought quite freely on orders from the East. Prices on the whole range averaged slightly higher, and market closed steady. Sales during the week were made at $4 75@5 45 for light, $4 85@5 30 for rough packing, $4 90@5 52½ for mixed, and $5 15@5 55 for heavy packing and shipping lots, with the bulk of the trading within the range of $5 05@5 45 for fair to good averages. At the close about 3,500 Hogs remained in the pens unsold. Pigs were in fair supply and in rather good demand, and sales were made at $4 25@5 10, according to size and weight. The receipts of Hogs at the other large Western packing points were moderate, owing to the rather bad condition of the roads, and the quality was only fair.

PACKING—Rather a light business was transacted in packing circles during the past week. Hogs were in moderate supply, and packers not very anxious to purchase. Manufacture of Products was rather light. Mess Pork made sparingly. Other cuts of Pork made in limited quantities. Lard produced moderately, and the average yield was fair. Very little delivered in tanks. Domestic cuts of Hams made moderately, and only a small proportion delivered from the block. Skinned Hams made in limited quantities. Foreign cuts of Hams neglected. Shoulders made sparingly, and a portion delivered from the block to the retail trade. Picnic Hams made moderately and chiefly packed by manufacturers. Long Clear Sides and Extra Long Clear Sides neglected. Short Clear Sides made sparingly. Extra Short Clear Sides made in limited quantities. Short Rib Sides made moderately. Extra Short Rib Sides made sparingly. Rough Sides cut in moderate quantities, and chiefly of medium averages. Bellies cut in small quantities. Backs made moderately. Plates and Butts made in limited quantities. Loins cut rather freely for present wants. Foreign fancy and special cuts of Meats made very sparingly.

PROVISIONS—Trade was only moderately active in the market for Hog Products during the past week, and the feeling was considerably unsettled and prices irregular. Outside orders were not quite so free, especially during the latter part of the week, and local trading was only fair. Trading as a rule was in moderate quantities. At times, "longs" were inclined to realize, and when sufficient reductions in prices were made, "shorts" accepted fair quantities. Hogs were in lighter supply than generally anticipated, owing to the break up in the country roads, and prices ruled higher at the Yards. This feature had a little effect on the market for Products, but the course of prices was governed to a great extent by the changes in the Grain markets. Returns of the packing of the West for the week exhibited an increase of 80,000 Hogs compared with the corresponding week in 1903. Foreign markets were dull and prices favored buyers, and the domestic markets were quiet. Receipts of Products from the interior were fair, while the aggregate shipments were only fair. Exports were moderately free—larger than returned one year ago but understood to be mainly of goods consigned to agencies. Early in the week, there was a fair miscellaneous inquiry, and prices ruled higher on all the leading articles. At the advance, there was considerable realizing, especially by outside parties, and a weaker feeling was developed, accompanied with a fair decline in prices. Fair buying to provide for outstanding contracts tended to strengthen the market generally, with a moderate rally all around in prices. Weakness in the Grain markets at this time was reflected in Provisions, and there was considerable pressure to sell, with a marked decline in prices. Toward the close, rather more steadiness was manifested, and prices rallied to medium figures and closed steady. Considerable business in transferring contracts from May to July. The demand on shipping account was unusually light, and trade was on a limited scale. Exporters are virtually out of the market owing to the dullness abroad. Merchants in the domestic distributing markets were not inclined to enlarge their stocks to any extent, barely supplying current wants. Offerings were only fair, and holders slow to make concessions in prices. Sales were comparatively light. Prices ruled lower on all descriptions.

Pork—The market for Mess Pork was only moderately active during the past week, and the feeling was somewhat unsettled. Outside orders were fair early in the week, but comparatively light toward the close. Local trading was only fair. Considerable business in the way of transferring contracts from May to July at the current differences. Rather more doing in July contracts. Stock on hand fair. Manufacture was comparatively small. Early in the week, there was considerable pressure to sell, and prices irregularly receded 40@45c on the whole range. At the decline, the demand improved, with fair miscellaneous buying, and prices rallied 40@42½c. This advance brought considerable property on the market, and a weak feeling developed. Prices declined 50@55c. Toward the close, the market exhibited more steadiness, and prices rallied 4@15c, and the market closed comparatively steady. Demand on shipping account was light, and offerings were moderate. Holders generally asked May figures. Cash lots at the close were quotable at $13 00@13 12½. Other cuts of Pork were called for sparingly, and offerings were moderate. Supply fair. Prices inclined in favor of buyers.

Lard—Trade was fairly active in the market for Lard during the past week. Offerings were not quite so free, and the demand was fair. Prices were irregular. Supply on hand is fair, and the production was only moderate. Feeling a little unsettled and prices irregular. Foreign advices were rather unfavorable to holders. Early in the week, the feeling was rather firm, with very little pressure to sell, and prices were advanced 20@25c. This advance encouraged a little more selling and a weak feeling was developed. Prices settled back again 17½@20c. Toward the close, the market was steadier in a general way, and prices rallied 15@20c, and the market closed steady. July delivery met with more favor. The demand on shipping account was limited, and offerings were moderate, as holders have generally sold ahead. A few small lots were accepted at 15@17½c discount on May figures, and closed at $6 85@6 87½. Refined in moderate request, and offerings not very large. Prices entirely nominal. Loose lots were in light request and offerings moderate. Prices nominal at 60c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard was in fair request with moderate offerings, and prices ruled lower. A few sales were made at $6 25@6 37½, and closed at $6 25. Neutral was in small demand and offerings were rather free. Market easier, and prices lower, closing at $7 37½@7 50 for No. 1, and $7 12½@7 25 for No. 2.

Short Rib Sides—A fairly good trade was reported in the market for Short Rib Sides during the past week, and the feeling somewhat unsettled. Supply on hand quite liberal and production was fair. Offerings were moderately free, and the demand was moderately active. Prices fluctuated considerably. Rather more doing in July contracts. Early in the week, the feeling was stronger, with fair miscellaneous buying, and prices were advanced 12½@15c. At the advance, there was a little pressure to sell, while the demand was only moderate. An easier feeling was manifested, and prices receded 15@17½c. This decline brought buyers into the market, and a stronger feeling prevailed. Prices rallied 20@22½c. Again the market showed signs of weakness, with considerable realizing and prices settled back 17½@20c. Toward the close, the feeling was steadier, with moderate trading, and prices were advanced 15@20c, and the market closed rather steady. Demand on shipping account was somewhat limited, and there was no particular pressure to sell. At the close, cash lots were quotable at $6 62½@6 87½ according to weight.

Green Meats—Only a small business was transacted in Green Meats during the past week, and the feeling was easy. Offerings were moderate in a quiet way, and the demand was on a limited scale. Local curers not inclined to purchase to any extent, and outside orders were small. Hams were in only moderate demand and prices ruled about ⅛c lower. Skinned Hams were in rather light demand and prices declined ⅛c. Shoulders were called for sparingly and prices ruled ⅛c lower. Picnic Hams were rather slow sale and prices were quotably ⅛@¼c lower. Bellies were quiet and slow sale at former figures.

Pickled Meats—A comparatively light trade was reported in Pickled Meats during the past week. Offerings were not very large and the demand was rather small. Buyers were backward, and merchants at the larger distributing points depending to a great extent on supplies being delivered on maturing contracts. Feeling rather weak. Hams were in limited request and offerings were moderate. Prices ruled about ⅛c lower. Skinned Hams were in rather light request and ruled about ⅛@¼c lower. Shoulders were quiet and dull and prices were about ⅛c lower. Picnic Hams were in moderate demand and sold slowly at ⅛c decline. Bellies were in small request and prices inclined in favor of buyers.

Dry Salted Meats—Only a limited business was transacted in Dry Salted Meats during the week just closed. Offerings were moderate, and the feeling rather easy in a general way. Advices from abroad indicated an easy feeling in that quarter, and export orders were very small. Shipments abroad were moderately large, but understood to be largely on consignment. Orders from the domestic trade were light, and generally for small quantities. Smokers bought sparingly. Supplies of the leading descriptions are fairly large, and manufacture moderate. Shipments were fair, and mainly of Products accepted on contracts. Foreign cuts of Hams neglected, and prices entirely nominal. Shoulders in small request, and prices favored buyers. Long Clear Sides inactive and prices nominal. Extra Long Clear Sides neglected. Short Clear Sides were quiet and prices nominally unchanged. Extra Short Clear Sides were in small request and prices favored buyers, closing at 6⅝@6¾c. Extra Short Rib Sides were in small demand, and prices were slightly lower, closing at 6⅝@6¾c. Rough Sides were in moderate request with fair offerings and prices were without material change, closing at 6½@6¾c. Plates quiet and dull, and prices inclined in favor of buyers. Butts in small request and prices ruled slightly lower. Bellies called for sparingly, and prices favored buyers. Backs were called for sparingly, and prices were slightly lower. Foreign fancy and special cuts of Meats were quiet, and prices without material change.

Smoked Meats—Trade was moderate in the market for Smoked Meats during the past week, and the feeling was not very strong. Offerings were rather light, and inquiry was somewhat limited. Car lots rather slow sale, and jobbing trade was fair. Stocks of all kinds rather liberal. Hams were called for moderately, and prices favored buyers. Skinned Hams in rather light demand, and prices were slightly lower. Shoulders were quiet, and prices about ⅛c lower. Picnic Hams were in moderate demand, and prices declined about ⅛c. Sides of all kinds were in rather light demand, and prices favored buyers. Breakfast Bacon in fair jobbing demand at about former prices.

Beef Products—A fair trade was reported in Beef Products, chiefly in small quantities, and there were no particular changes to note. Orders were moderate, and offerings were only fair. Foreign markets were quiet and without material change. Domestic markets quiet. Cattle in fair supply, and prices rather steady. Manufacture of Products was moderate. Shipments of Dressed Beef were fairly large. Beef Hams in moderate request and prices ruled steady. Extra Mess Beef in fair demand at former prices. Plate Beef in light request and prices steady. Extra Plate Beef in small request and prices unchanged. Tallow

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The Pittsburg, Cleveland, Chicago and St. Louis Railroad net earnings in February decreased $40,616, the decrease from Jan 1 being $62,555.

The business of the National Carbon Company so far this year is said to be 10 per cent in excess of that in the corresponding period last year.

At the annual sale of telephone privileges, Thursday, $655 was secured by the Chicago Board of Trade in premiums, as compared with $250 last year.

The Twin City Rapid Transit Company reports $158,606 net for February, an increase of $11,455. From Jan 1 the net was $328,500, an increase of $23,100.

The Distillers' Securities Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1 per cent, payable April 26. Books close April 5 and reopen April 27.

Fire, Wednesday, destroyed the Miller-Clark Grain Company's four-story brick elevator, building and stock, at Fairmount, W. Va. Loss, $80,000; insurance, $30,000.

The Illinois Auditor of Public Accounts has issued a call for statements of condition as of March 22 of the banks doing business under the banking laws of Illinois.

From Russia and the Danube the exports of Flax Seed from Aug. 1 to March 5 have amounted to 3,916,000 bu, against 4,304,000 bu in the previous year, and 2,184,000 bu in 1901-2.

The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent, payable April 1. Books close March 26 and reopen April 4.

A Chicago man who has been through the West of late said he found the cribbed Corn very wet, particularly that cribbed during the cold weather, the cobs being water-soaked.

Fire in Jones Bros.' department store, Kansas City, Mo, Thursday, caused a loss estimated at $130,000; fully insured. Of the loss, $40,000 is on the building, owned by a Chicago party.

The Reading, Pa., $545,000 3½ per cent improvement bonds have been withdrawn from the market, owing to the failure of the public subscription plan. They are now offered as 4 per cents.

A report from a traveling man, Friday, said: "Three-fourths of the Wheat in Custer County, Oklahoma, abandoned Balance one-third if we get rain. No indications." Other reports said Custer County had rains.

The city clerk of Duluth, Minn, will receive bids until April 11 for $50,000 4 per cent thirty-year Gold bonds, principal and interest payable in New York. Bidders must deposit 1 per cent of the amount of bonds bid for.

Out of fifty reports received at Kansas City, Friday, from Kansas and Oklahoma, there were but three or four complaints regarding the growing Wheat crop. All said the present condition was favorable, rains having been a great benefit.

The Commissioners of the Public Debt of the City of Milwaukee will receive sealed bids up to March 28 for $200,000 school bonds, $100,000 street improvement bonds, $6 ,000 park bonds and $50,000 sewerage bonds. The bonds bear interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum.

The shipments of Flax Seed from India from April 1 to date amounted to 18,432,000 bu (Calcutta 11,944,000 bu and Bombay 6,488,000 bu), against 12,978,000 bu last season (Calcutta 8,800,000 bu and Bombay 4,176,000 bu), and 14,760,000 bu in 1901-2 (Calcutta 10,672,000 bu and Bombay 4,088,000 bu).

The independent telephone companies of Pittsburg, Cleveland, Indianapolis, St. Louis, Louisville, and Kansas City have arranged for the co-operative use of the trunk lines from Philadelphia to Minneapolis, Topeka, and Texas points. The combination will spend $3,500,000 in making changes in the connections.

The bill introduced in the New York Legislature against making the new Rock Island bonds an investment for savings banks has been reported favorably by the committee to which it was referred. The bill limits the investment of New York savings banks in Rock Island bonds to the issues now existing. This shuts out the $163,000,000 new 4 per cents authorized, Monday, at the special meeting in Davenport.

Resolutions have been adopted by the New York Board of Trade and Transportation formulating a letter to Secretary Cortelyou of the Department of Commerce and Labor asking that official to cause a thorough investigation into the present methods of doing fire insurance business in the United States, in an endeavor to correct alleged abuses. The belief is expressed in the letter to the Secretary that methods now prevalent act in many instances to the detriment of the insured party.

It was stated that a dividend will be declared on Lehigh Valley stock before July 1 of the present year, by one of the New York directors. Asked as to the amount to be declared, he replied: "I do not know. The matter has not been formally taken up by the board We have talked of it informally among ourselves and are favorable to such a distribution. We have the money to pay it, and there is no advantage in allowing it to be idle in the bank. The company will unquestionably resume its position among the dividend payers by July 1 next."

The receiver of the United States Ship Building Company will be instructed by the court on April 4 to permit foreclosure under the suits brought by the New York Security and Trust Company and the Mercantile Trust Company without further litigation This will be followed later by the sale of all the properties of the subsidiary companies except the Bethlehem Company, which is not included in the first mortgage of $16,000,000. Foreclosure is absolutely essential to the plans of the reorganization committee, so that the $45,000,000 of stock of the failed company may be legally wiped out.

A Minneapolis dispatch says: "Eighteen Minneapolis Flour mills shut down, Thursday, indefinitely A thousand people are out of work. The shutdown is far more sweeping than had been looked for The two big companies had previously announced that not more than one or two of the mills of each company were likely to be closed. At the offices of the two firms it is confidently stated that the mills will resume grinding the early part of next week. A few may be started Monday. The shutdown is said to be due to the poor condition of the Flour trade."

A message from Professor P. G. Holden, of the agricultural college at Ames, Iowa, says: "Condition of seed Corn throughout Iowa causes gravest apprehension. Low temperatures last September either killed the germ or greatly weakened it. Never saw so large a percentage of seed Corn killed. It will be extremely difficult to secure supplies." The Secretary of the State Board of Agriculture of Iowa sends practically the same report and says: "Vitality is uncertain and there is no doubt that it will severely affect production in the next crop." Reports from Illinois and Indiana are practically of the same character.

Judge Humphrey, Thursday, entered his final decree in the case of the Peoria Gas and Electric Company vs. the City of Peoria. The decree follows the opinion rendered by the court some weeks ago. It does not pass upon the validity of the 75c gas ordinance, nor upon the reasonableness of the rate so fixed, but merely denies the complainant any relief in a court of equity on the ground that it has violated the anti-trust laws of Illinois. The injunction heretofore issued, restraining the City of Peoria from enforcing the ordinance, will, by the terms of the decree, remain in force, pending an appeal to the United States Supreme Court, and the business status of the company, therefore, will not be affected thereby.

Officers of the Wabash Railroad express the belief that there will be very material additions to the earnings of the road as a result of its entry into Pittsburg. One of them figures that an estimate of $1,000,000 as to the increase in net earnings as a result of the Pittsburg extension is extremely low. For several years the management of the road has devoted its surplus revenue over and above fixed charges to the improvement of the property. On account of these expenditures officers of the company claim that the road is now in a position to be operated at a cost of 65 per cent of its gross earnings. On that basis the company would have earned a good surplus last year over the full interest on its debenture "B" bonds. An official states also that the increase of a few millions in gross as a result of the Pittsburg extension operated at that ratio will swell the earnings above the full requirements of the debenture "B" issue and provide also for the 6 per cent to which the preferred stock is entitled when the dividend is earned.

The United States Telegraph and Telephone Company, backed by Chicago capital, will be incorporated at Springfield, Ill., and soon will enter the field as a competitor of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies in the transmission of messages over a circuit embracing Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Minneapolis, St Paul, Duluth and Milwaukee. The promoters of the enterprise hope eventually to invade the Eastern territory, with wires leading into New York City. Already bids have been made for business, and it is said that the company has promises of liberal support. The nominal capitalization at the start will be only $2,500, but the men backing the company are said to represent more than $3,000,000. The new company has absorbed, or will absorb, the National Telegraph News Company of Chicago, operators of what is known as the "wide tape" ticker system; the Empire Clock Company of St. Louis, operating an electric telegraph clock system, and the Chicago and Milwaukee Telegraph Company, which operates between the two cities, carrying principally Grain and stock quotations and information.

The Wall Street Journal publishes the following interesting story: "It is said that a capitalist associated with the controlling interest in Rock Island recently visited certain bankers with a view to obtaining a loan of something less than $5,000,000 for the company He offered excellent collateral and every condition connected with the proposition was so reassuring and satisfactory that the bankers at once offered to advance the money at 5 per cent. The Rock Island representative declined to pay such a rate, saying his company was in such a position that it could get money on much easier terms. The bankers urged that certain roads whose credit is of the highest not long ago paid 6 per cent for similar loans, but to this the only reply was: 'The Rock Island does not have to.' The bankers gave assurances that if no better terms could be made on behalf of the company their offer would still be found open, but the representative of the road said that he stood ready to advance the money himself at 4½ per cent. This he did, so the story runs, and certain bankers have since been favorably impressed with the interest which the group in control of Rock Island takes in its property."

Nine packers purchased 21,300 Hogs to-day; shippers, 7,000; left over, 5,000. Market closed strong.

Reported that 72,000 bu Wheat, 48,000 bu Corn and 80,000 bu Oats were taken at the seaboard to-day for export.

The output of the St. Louis Flour mills for the past week was 69,000 brls, against 68,200 brls for the previous week.

The packing at Milwaukee since March 1 is estimated at 38,500 Hogs, against 31,812 for the corresponding time in 1903.

The quantity of Flour and Wheat on passage to Europe during the past week increased 672,000 bu, and the quantity of Corn decreased 717,000 bu.

Exports of Flax Seed from India the past week were 240,000 bu, compared with 208,000 bu for the week previous, and none for the corresponding week in 1903.

The average weight of the Hogs received at Chicago last week was 201 lbs, against 203 lbs the previous week, 213 lbs the corresponding week in 1903 and 215 lbs in 1902.

The Associated Merchants' Company of New York has declared a regular quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent on its first preferred stock and 1½ per cent on its second preferred stock, payable April 15.

The Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent on preferred stock, payable April 20. Books close April 9 and reopen April 21.

Stocks of Wheat in public warehouses in Liverpool reported at 2,376,000 bu, against 1,960,000 bu one week ago and 2,272,000 bu one year ago. Stocks of Corn reported at 934,000 bu, against 751,000 bu one week ago, and 153,000 bu last year.

Cotton in New York was depressed by easier cables and liberal unloading, buyers who took hold on the Census report letting go. Prices receded under this selling, and closed 23@54 points lower. On the break there was fair support.

On the reverse page will be found the detailed report of the visible supply of Grain. Compared with the previous week there were decreases of 414,000 bu Wheat, 334,000 bu Oats, and 16,000 bu Barley, and increases of 539,000 bu Corn and 21,000 bu Rye.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—Demand moderate, but market has a firm undertone, and millers are "bullish."

WINTER WHEAT—Ruled firm and prices quotably 1@2c higher. There was a good demand and little Wheat offered. No 2 Red in store quotable at 155⅝@$1 02 depending on location - outside prices generally for special bin lots; fresh arrival sold at $1 05 free on board and quotable at $1 02@1 05. No. 3 Red fresh receipts free on board sold at $1 01 and ranged at 95@$1 01. No 2 Hard sold at 96c, and ranged at 94@96c. No. 3 Hard local sold at 88@93c and quotable at 86@93c.

SPRING WHEAT—Met with a good milling demand and prices 1@2c higher. Offerings small and not enough fresh arrivals to make a market. No. 1 Northern sold in store to the extent of 25,000 bu at May price and ranged at 96⅝@97c, and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 98c@$1 02. No. 2 Northern fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 93c@$1 00. No 3 Spring fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 85@98c for poor to choice hard variety. No 4 Spring sold at 68@73c for common to fair and at 80@85c for good and ranged at 63@82c for poor to choice hard variety.

REGULAR WHEAT—A very fair trade and stronger market resting prices showing May 1¼c higher while July gained 1¼c, and the September 1⅛c. The news at hand was in the main "bullish" and "shorts" covered freely. Commission houses were quite prominent on the buying side while the offerings the start were very moderate. The firm cables, cash situation, foreign and domestic statistics and crop advices were the principal "bull" helps. Northwest advices were favorable to holders, country elevator stocks in that section being estimated to have decreased 2,500,000 bu this month. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ½d higher and futures ¼d better. Stocks there increased 416,000 bu last week to 2,376,000 bu, against 2,27 ,000 bu last year. London come steady to ⅛d higher. Paris ¼c lower. Antwerp unchanged. Berlin lost ⅜c and Buda Pesth ⅛c. Liverpool strength was partially due to the smaller Russian shipments, and report of damage to Argentine crop in stock owing to unfavorable weather. London quoted cargoes on ocean passage firm, with a better Continental demand. English country markets were firm, supplies small and prices 6d dearer. Broomhall cabled: "Chancellor Exchequer says it is the present intention to reimpose the duty on imports of cereals into the United Kingdom." A leading Northwestern elevator operator reported the sale of the balance of his Wheat to country mills. The Southwest was without moisture, but rains from Illinois Eastward. Fair weather was predicted for Kansas, Illinois Indiana and Missouri. World's shipments were 9,312,000 bu, previous week 10,584,000 bu, year ago 9,616,000 bu. The quantity on ocean passage decreased 672,000 bu. to 48,232,000 bu, compared with 29,618,000 bu in 1903. The visible decreased 414,000 bu, against 1,763,000 bu decrease same week last year. Primary receipts were 24,000 bu larger than one year ago. Arrivals in the Northwest were 53 cars larger. Kansas City and St. Louis received 77,000 bu, last year 136,000 bu; shipments 201,000 bu. Minneapolis stocks estimated to have increased 100,000 bu in two days. Northwestern elevator interests were credited with purchases of cash Wheat at Kansas City. Cash sales here included 25,000 bu No. 1 Northern at May price. Clearances were limited, and 9 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Crop advices from Kansas and Nebraska were unfavorable. There was further talk of late seeding in the Northwest, and scarcity of seed Wheat in the Red River Valley. Milwaukee reported the sale of 55,000 bu Turkish Hard Wheat at 19. Receipts at Duluth 23 cars and at Minneapolis 311 cars, a total of 510 cars, against 203 cars Saturday, 546 cars a week ago, and 487 cars last year. Local receipts included 1 car Winter, 8 cars Spring and none mixed, a total of 9 cars, against 11 cars last year. Included in the above was none of contract grade. There were 6 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow not reported. Withdrawals were 45,600 bu. Receipts at Western points were 679,789 bu, against 64 ,783 bu last year. At Eastern points 18,221 bu, against 1 3,555 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 3 3,038 bu, against 141,360 bu last year, and from Eastern points 40,800, against 175,895 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 24,270 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 149,015 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Good trade at higher prices.

CORN—Was very active and stronger, the close showing 1¼c to 1¾c gain. The attitude of the "long" interest, which was prominent on the "bull" side, small receipts, talk of poor quality of seed Corn, and bulge in Wheat were the chief influences. Liverpool was unchanged, though the stock there, 934,000 bu, increased 80,000 bu last week. Liverpool reported that Argentine crop advices were not good and that Russia and Roumania were not offering freely, and that the United Kingdom would be obliged to look to America. The director of the Iowa crop bureau confirmed the reports of poor quality of Corn in that State, and Illinois advices continue "bullish." Southwestern markets were strong. World's shipments were 3,369,000 bu, against 3,751,000 bu previous week and 4,061,000 bu one year ago. The quantity on ocean passage decreased 717,000 bu to 10,615,000 bu, compared with 12,787,000 bu corresponding date one year ago. The visible supply increased 539,000 bu; last year decreased 465,000 bu. Total now 10,095,000 bu; in 1903 it was 10,262,000 bu and in 1902 8,799,000 bu. Local public stocks increased 307,000 bu, to 3,798,000 bu; last year 4,240,000 bu. Receipts 76 cars, 32 cars being low grades. Last year 91 and 31 cars respectively. Weather conditions present and prospective were more favorable. Western receipts 201,000 bu, last year 426,000 bu. Shipments 296,000 bu and 236,000 bu respectively. Local arrivals 90,100 bu and 128,000 bu respectively. Exports 378,000 bu and 6 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Local shipping demand a little better, but sales small. Transfers from private to public elevators 23,400 bu and 193 cars. Car lots were strong and 1@2½c higher. Offerings small and demand good. No. 2 sold at 54⅜@54½c, and closed at 55c. No. 2 Yellow sold at 54⅜@54½c, and closed at 55c. No. 2 White at 54⅜@55c. No. 3 sold at 50½@51c and closed at 46@54½c. No. 3 White sold at 51c. No. 3 Yellow at 50@51c, and closed at 48@51½c.

Corn by sample—Was in urgent request, while the offerings were small. Feeling was very strong and prices ½@2½c higher and closed at outside figures. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 37@45c. No. 4 at 43@47½c. No 3 at 47½@51½c. No 3 Yellow at 49@51c. No. 2 at 53½@55c. No. 2 Yellow at 54@55c. No 3 White at 47@51c. No. 2 White at 54@55c. Billed through: No Grade at 42½@43½c. No. 4 at 43½@46c. No 3 at 45@46c. No. 3 Yellow at 47½c. No 2 Yellow at 54c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Active and strong and closed 1¼@1¾c higher.

MARCH—Inactive and closed at 53¾c.

MAY—Sold at 53½@55c. Opened at 53½c to 53⅞c, and sold to 53⅝c, to 53¾c, to 53⅝c, to 54¼c, to 54⅛c, to 54⅛c, to 54c, to 54¼c, to 54⅛c, to 54½c, to 54⅛c, to 54⅝c, to 54c, advanced to 55c; closed at 55c sellers.

JULY—Sold at 50½c and 51⅞@52c. Opened at 50½c to 50¾c and sold to 50½@50⅝c, to 51¼c, to 51c, to 51⅝c, to 51⅜@51½c, to 51¾c, to 51¼@51⅜c, to 51⅞@52c, and closed at 51⅞@52c.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 50@51⅛c. Opened at 50c to 50⅛c, and sold to 50c, to 50⅝c, to 50¾c, to 50⅝c, to 50½c, to 51c, to 51¾c, to 51c, to 51⅛c, and closed at 51⅛c.

OATS—Were active, stronger, and advanced ⅞@1½c and, although receding from the top prices, they rallied and closed at about the top prices, with net gains of ⅞@1½c. The advance was in sympathy with Wheat and on light receipts. The fact that stocks failed to show any increase also had a strengthening effect. Commission house buying was better and "shorts" covered freely. Cash lots were stronger, with samples ½@1c higher, which helped futures. Cash sales were 25,000 bu. New York reported 80,000 bu sold. Visible supply decreased 334,000 bu and local stocks decreased 5,000 bu. Arrivals 110 cars, with 30 cars Standard taken out of private elevators. Seaboard clearances were 70,000 bu. Of car lots to go to store the only sales were of No 3 White at 41½c. Standard in store closed about 40@40½c.

Oats by sample were in better request and advanced ½@1c, offerings being light. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 at 37½@38c. No 4 White at 31@41c. No. 3 White at 41@43½c. Standard at 42½@43c. No 2 at 39½c. Billed through: No 4 at 38¼c. No. 4 White at 31@40c. No. 3 White at 40@42¼c. Standard at 42¼@41c. No. 2 at 39¼@39½c. At the river: No 4 at 6½c. No 4 White at 41½@38½c. No. 3 at 38c. No. 3 White at 39@40½c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were active and higher.

MARCH—Closed about 40c.

MAY—Active. Sold at 39⅝@40½c and at 40¾c. Opened at 39½c, sold to 40¾c, to 40⅝c, to 40¾c at close.

JULY—Increased trading. Sold at 38@38⅛c and at 38⅞@39c. Opened at 38@38⅛c to 38⅛c, sold to 38⅞@39c, to 38⅝c, to 38½@38⅞c at close.

SEPTEMBER—Active. Sold at 32½@33⅛c. Opened at 32½c, sold to 33⅛c to 32¾c to 32⅞@33c at close.

RYE—The market was firm under small offerings and moderate demand. Holders apparently not at all anxious to sell. There were two cars received. There were 8,000 bu withdrawn from private warehouse. No export clearances from the seaboard. The visible supply increased 21,000 bu and the local stock increased 15,000 bu. No. 2 in store round lots nominally 70c, and fresh receipts to go to store sold at 71c. No. 3 fresh receipts sold at 68c, and No. 4 at 59c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet and firm. May 72c bid and 73c asked. July 67c bid and 68c asked.

BARLEY—There were no new developments. A quiet state of trade was experienced. The offerings were small, mainly of fair to good malting, which was taken at former prices. There also were a few choice cars which were disposed of without difficulty. The market was not burdened with low grade Barley as at times last week. The demand for such also limited; at the same time for Screenings there was a little more inquiry, sales were a little more easily brought about and the feeling perhaps was a little stronger. Posted to-day 31 cars inspected in. Visible decreased slightly and local stock unchanged. There was reported a little more negotiating for to-arrive lots. Buyers and sellers could not quite agree and few sales reported. It was said that up to 60c was bid for some fancy, and 56c for very choice, while a lot not so good yet fair sold at 45c. Screenings were quotable over a range of 30@39c for poor to very choice, and sales made at 31@36c. Barley, mixing, about nominal at 37@39c. local, depending on soundness and color; fancy bright up to 41c. Feed Barley about 38@40c for good. Malting—low grade, 40@41c; common 41@44c; fair was about 45@47c; good 48@50c; choice 52@55c.

SEEDS—There was a weaker Clover market, with values a shade lower. With this exception there was no change. Timothy and Flax were quotably steady. Late sowing Grass Seeds heavy.

Timothy—There was a steady market. Moderate offerings were present but supply not so large as recently it has been. There was enough for the demand. Inquiry rather tame. Cold weather was not favorable, and the market did very well considering this. Cash sales were at $2 50@2 52½ for common to very nice quality. No fancy Seed offered. Country lots quotable over a range of $2 00@2 75 for poor to very fancy, outside would have to be extra fine, not hulled. fair to good, $2 35@2 45; choice $2 50@2 52½, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 00@2 30. For contract March or April delivery $2 90 was quoted as the nominal market. September was $3 00 bid.

Flax—The week opened with a steady market. No essential change in prices. Offerings small all around. Prices the same as quoted Saturday were obtainable. Receipts fair, but the Flax is not coming on sale. Twenty-one cars of 17,853 bu posted received, and 3 cars or 2,074 bu taken out. Minneapolis got 39 cars to-day and Duluth 42 cars. No change in local stock last week: it remains at 18,722 bu; a year ago it was 83,036 bu. No. 1 Northwestern sold sparingly at $1 15½. No 1 nominal at $1 09 bid. Rejected quotable at $1 05@1 10, outside for choice from the Northwest, a car sold at the outside figure. March was quotably $1 09 bid. May delivery $1 11 bid. September $1 17 nominal.

Clover—Was weaker. Prices were quoted 10@15c lower. Trade slow and cold weather was an unfavorable condition. Offerings light. Advices from elsewhere were also weak in tone. Contract spot Seed nominally $10 40. Country lots, common to choice, at $7 50@10 00; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $7 50@8 50; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 50@9 50.

Other Seeds—Were quotably easy. There was no change especially noted. Offerings of Hungarian and Siberian Millet were on the market and sold as elsewhere shown. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark about $1 15@1 65. Common Millet $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 40. Siberian, 85c@$1 05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat easy: good milling, $1 30.

HOG PRODUCTS—Only a fair business was reported in Hog Products. Outside orders were larger, and local trading was fair. The feeling was stronger in a general way, influenced by the advance in prices of Hogs and Grain. Offerings were moderate, while the demand was fair and credited to outside parties. Prices ruled higher on all the leading speculative articles, but the improvement was not fully supported to the close. Hogs were in fair supply, and prices ruled higher. Receipts at the leading Western packing points estimated at 59,400, compared with 58,700 one year ago. Foreign markets were quiet and prices unchanged. Domestic markets steady. Receipts of Products were good—of Lard and Meats about 31 cars. Shipments were light—of Lard and Meats about 78 cars. Demand on shipping account was light, and offerings were moderate. Buyers and sellers apart in views. Sales limited and prices without material change. Exports for the week compared with the corresponding week in 1903 exhibited an increase of 630 brls Pork, and decreases of 638,100 lbs Lard and 6,840 boxes Meats.

Mess Pork—Trade was only fair in the market for Mess Pork, and the feeling was stronger. Offerings were not very large, and the demand was moderately active. "Shorts" bought moderately, and there was a little inquiry on outside account. Prices were advanced 25@27½c on the whole range, but settled back 7½@12½c, and closed steady. Shipping demand was light and offerings were small. Cash lots were quotable at $13 25@13 37½.

MAY—Demand was only moderate, and offerings were only fair. Sales were made at $13 15@13 40. Opened at $13 15, sold to $13 32½@13 35, to $13 27½, to $13 40, to $13 30, to $13 35, to $13 32½, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were not very large and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $13 35@13 60. Opened at $13 40, sold to $13 35, to $13 52½, to $13 47½, to $13 52½, to $13 50, to $13 60, to $13 57½, to $13 60, to $13 47½, to $13 55, and closed steady.

Lard—Little interest was manifested in the Lard market, and trading was rather light. Feeling stronger. Foreign advices were unchanged. Offerings were limited, and the demand was moderate. Prices were advanced 7½@10c on the whole range, but settled back again 2½@5c, and the market closed steady at medium figures. Demand on shipping account was light and offerings were moderate. Cash lots were quotable at $6 90@6 92½. Loose lots called for moderately and offerings were rather light. Prices were steady at about 60 discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in small request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably steady at $6 75. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $7 50@7 62½ for No. 1, and $7 25@7 37½ for No. 2.

MAY—In rather light demand, and offerings were moderate. Sales were made at $7 00@7 10. Opened at $7 00, sold to $7 07½, to $7 05, to $7 07½@7 10, to $7 05 to $7 05@7 07½, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were moderate and the demand was only fair. Sales were made at $7 17½@7 25. Opened at $7 17½, sold to $7 25, to $7 20, to $7 22½, to $7 20, to $7 22½, and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—Trade was fair in the market for Short Rib Sides, and the feeling was stronger. Offerings were moderate and the demand was fair. "Shorts" accepted fair quantities. Prices were advanced 10@12½c on the whole range, but receded 2½@5c, and closed steady at medium figures. Trading chiefly in July contracts. Demand on shipping account was light and offerings were small. Cash lots were quotable at $6 85@6 87½ according to weight.

MAY—Demand was only moderate, and offerings were only fair. Sales were made at $6 90@7 02½. Opened at $6 90, sold to $7 00, to $6 97½, to $7 02½, to $6 95, to $6 97½@7 00, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were moderate, and the inquiry was fairly active. Sales were made at $7 05@7 17½. Opened at $7 05, sold to $7 10, to $7 07½, to $7 15, to $7 12½, to $7 15, to $7 15, to $7 17½, to $7 10, to $7 15, to $7 12½@7 15, and closed steady.

Other Meats—Trade was comparatively light and the feeling rather steady. Offerings were moderate. Demand was limited for the home trade. Export inquiry very small. Green Meats were in moderate supply and rather light demand, and prices ruled steady. Pickled Meats were in moderate request to fill limited orders and prices were unchanged. Dry Salted Meats were in fair demand in a quiet way and prices ruled higher. Smoked Meats called for in fair quantities, especially in a jobbing way, and prices were unchanged. Closing ranged as follows:

CROPS IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

[From Broomhall's Corn Trade News, March 15.]

United Kingdom—The weather has been of a decidedly improved character during the past week and we have seen several reports as to the sowing of Spring Wheat, owing to the impossibility of preparing a proper seed-bed for Barley and also owing to the rise in the price of Wheat, but nothing can alter the certainty of there being a greatly reduced area under the premier cereal this season as compared with last or even with that of the record season, 1895, when the acreage fell to 1,450,000. The growing Wheat is of very poor appearance thin and patchy and nowhere likely to make a crop, except in a few favored localities.

Russia—The weather is still very mild in the South, and navigation has reopened on the Sea of Azoff, this being ten days or a fortnight earlier than usual. Much snow is still reported from interior districts. Shipments last week were again of good size, and as Azoff ports will now be available the quantities should be larger at no distant date.

Roumania—The crops are progressing favorably, but growers would like to see a good fall of rain. Shipments last week were larger, but not much Grain is moving in the interior.

Bulgaria—We hear from Sofia that crop conditions are quite satisfactory.

Austria-Hungary—Rain and snow fell in the first part of last week, but later the weather was bright and spring-like. Crop prospects are favorable. Offerings of Wheat in Buda Pesth are not heavy, but holders are free sellers.

Argentina—One cable advice received in Liverpool to-day again reports that the railway strike is settled, but another reports the situation unchanged. As a result of the strike arrivals at the ports last week were reduced and shipments fell off to the extent of 600,000 bu. The Corn crop is reported to be damaged by the recent rains.

Australasia—Mail advices confirm that the rains which fell in Australia at harvest time reduced the exportable surplus of Wheat. The export movement is well maintained and chartering continues.

India—We have heard no more of the rains, so presume the unwelcome fall stopp'd in time to prevent any serious injury. Latest advices indicate that harvest prospects are bright and a big surplus is still expected. Shipments last week were liberal.

France—Weather conditions generally continue favorable and crop conditions are satisfactory. Country markets have received larger supplies during the past week and prices have further declined in some districts, but in others growers have held very firmly. This, of course, has checked business, and as it is believed farm reserves are large, some people think prices may rule low towards the end of the season, unless something unexpected happens in the meantime.

Italy and Spain—Latest reports were fairly good.

Germany—At the beginning of last week the crops experienced a period of successive frosts and thaws, which caused some fears of crop damage to be entertained, but later the weather turned wet and mild. Offerings of native Wheat vary as regards quantity in different parts of the country, but speaking generally they are rather meagre.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows no moisture in the Southwest on the Sunday map and there is no moisture in that territory on the map this morning. There are light general rains shown this morning from Illinois eastward. The Sunday map showed some rains east of the Mississippi, with some good rains in the Ohio Valley.

For the past 48 hours there has been no additional relief to the Southwest drouth. The mercury this morning is some higher, although it is only 22 above in Northern Kansas and about freezing through the Ohio Valley. Milder weather, however, is indicated.

Indications are the western storm will move eastward, but it is not probable it will cause any precipitation in this district during the next 24 or 48 hours. Moderate temperatures indicated.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

Wabash gross earnings in the third week of March were $100,000, an increase of $5,500. From July 1 the gross was $16,728,000, an increase of $1,541,600.

The Fitchburg Railroad Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent on its preferred stock, payable April 1 to stockholders of record March 1.

The directors of the Commercial National Bank, Chicago, Friday, declared the regular quarterly dividend of 3 per cent, payable April 1 to stockholders of record March 31.

The Salt Lake Railroad has given the Western Union Telegraph Company wire privileges and the right to handle all commercial telegrams along the line of the new road.

The American Locomotive Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on its preferred stock, payable April 21. Books close March 31 and reopen April 21.

An official of the Allis-Chalmers Company said: "The company has no intention of creating an additional issue of stock, as it has ample funds to carry out its extension plans. The new working capital of the company is $7,500,000.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company's freight station at Twenty Ninth and Market streets, West Philadelphia, was destroyed by fire, Friday, entailing a loss estimated at $35,000. The depot was filled with freight which was destroyed.

During the month of February Belgium imported 2,902,000 bu Wheat, and exported 654,000 bu. The net imports in the seven months ending February were 27,776,000 bu, compared with 24,764,000 bu in the corresponding seven months of last season.

During the month of February, France imported for home consumption 161,000 bu Wheat, and in seven months ending February, the total was 8,632,000 bu, compared with 7,120,000 bu in the first seven months of last season, and 4,384,000 bu in 1901-2.

The Liverpool Corn Trade News of March 15 says: "From India, there remains 10,000,000 bu to be shipped in the ensuing twenty weeks, which appears to be a reasonable quantity, for by June and July shipments may be proceeding on a liberal scale."

The Pocahontas Collieries Company of New Jersey reports for February a total income of $23,659; charges $6,785; preferred dividend, $7,500; leaving a surplus of $9,404. From Jan. 1 total income, $51,453; charges, $13,795; preferred dividend, $15,000; leaving a surplus of $22,658.

The Jersey City board of finance has sold $740,000 4 per cent thirty year refunding bonds as follows: To the Providence Institution for Savings, $250,000 water bonds at 100.50; to the Yorkville National Bank, $20,000 general bonds at 110.59; to New York banks $440,000 general bonds at 100.55.

The Union Trust Company, Chicago, Friday, touched the highest point in its deposits ever reached in the history of the bank. The figure was well above $9,000,000. The bank has little country business, and the bulk of deposits is made up of commercial paper and savings.

Bonded stocks in French ports at the end of February last included 1,496,000 bu Wheat, compared with 1,932,000 bu the month previous and 1,344,000 bu a year ago. Besides the bonded stocks, 1,608,000 bu Wheat were held on temporary admission account, against 2,520,000 bu on Feb 28, 1903.

There is a big demand on the New York curb for Northern Securities "stubs," which represent one share of the company's reduced capital after the distribution of the Northern Pacific-Great Northern stock. A small lot sold for $200 a stub Friday, and $200 was bid for any part of 100 stubs, which represents the remainder of 10,000 shares.

The Inter-State Commerce Commission in Washington, Thursday, refused to sustain the protest of the Detroit Salt interests, which alleged that the Manistee and Ludington Salt interests were juggling transportation rates. The Commission holds that it is no part of its duties to equalize differences in natural advantages of localities.

A message from Clinton, Ky., Friday, said: "Hickman County, which raised 500,000 bu of Wheat last year, will not have over half a crop of Wheat this year. Our crop last year was only half a crop. We had a hard winter." [The area of Wheat in this county in the census of 1900 was 31,000 acres, and yield 380,000 bu—average 12.3 bu.]

The Liverpool Corn Trade News of March 14 says: "Fine weather prevails in France and farmers are pushing on with field work as fast as possible. There are to be heard occasional complaints, but on the whole, the condition of the growing crops is regarded as satisfactory. Provincial markets have been weaker with larger offerings."

The situation in the Steel trade is growing better slowly, but unmistakably, and the Steel corporation is profiting in proportion. It is known that the net earnings for the quarter will show poorly, first, because of poor business, and second, because of the new accounting system, whereby profits between companies will not show until the finished product has been sold to a third party.

"In spite of two advances in price since the first of the year," said an official of the American Steel and Wire Company, "the sales for March will show a liberal increase over those of the corresponding period in last year. It would take until June to exhaust orders now on the books, and more are being received daily. Fair crops will make the present year about the best in the company's career."

The final report of the census bureau on Cotton ginning, showing the total Cotton production for 1903, gives the following. Number of commercial bales including linters, 10,389,558, against 11,275,105 for 1902. The distribution of the crop, exclusive of linters, in the United States is as follows: 10,295,073 commercial bales, 9,359,472 square bales, 770,208 round bales, and 75,393 sea island bales. The total crop reduced to a common basis as to size of bales is an equivalent of 9,851,129 bales of 500 lbs. as against 10,630,945 bales of 500 lbs in 1902.

A dispatch from Kansas City says: "The option on the Kansas City plant of the Dold Packing Company was secured by the projectors of the independent packing organization ten days ago, and runs till May 1. The treasurer of the organization said, Friday: 'It has not as yet been decided whether the deal for the lease on the Dold plant shall be closed. Not until $500,000 has been subscribed, however, will the deal for the Dold plant be consummated. A meeting of stockmen of the Southwest is to be held at Dodge City, Kan., on March 31, when an endeavor to raise a part of the desired amount will be made.'"

The receipts of Wheat at Liverpool during the past three days were 200,000 bu, of which 56,000 were American. Receipts of Corn, 184,000 bu, of which 120,000 bu were American.

Cotton was advanced despite the weakness in Liverpool, which closed 12 points lower. "Shorts" were good buyers toward mid-day and gave the market a rally. Closing sales were 10@17 points higher.

Next Monday, April 4, a proposition to advance the membership fee of the Butter and Egg Board to $50 00 will be voted on There is no doubt the vote will carry and the membership fee will be made $50 00. There are now 68 members

The New York Market News says: "A report from Buffalo states that a committee of Grain members of the Chamber of Commerce has been appointed for the purpose of organizing a separate Exchange, specifically for Grain dealing purposes"

The Government report to be issued April 10 will show the percentage of condition of Winter Wheat and Rye April 1, the effect of snow and winter on Winter Wheat, and condition of soil. It will also deal with the condition of Farm Animals for the preceding twelve months.

The Minneapolis Journal says: "The weather has put a check to seeding in localities far advanced. Inquiry in the country brings out conditions somewhat more favorable than at this date last year as regards moisture and soil conditions. With a few days later of fine weather will come renewed seeding on high land."

Broomhall Liverpool cable said: "A fair inquiry for Wheat cargoes, a good spot demand and very small Argentine offerings caused a firm opening. Corn opened ⅛d higher, affected by the American strength. Considerable pressure of spot stuff, and this, with liberal tenders on contracts, caused easier feeling later."

Bradstreet's report of the available supply for the past week shows the following changes:

	1904, bu.	1903, bu.
Wheat east of Rockies	Dec 851,000	Dec 2,105,000
Europe and afloat	Inc. 400,000	Dec. 2,800,000
Total	Dec. 451,000	Dec. 4,905,000
Corn	Inc 249,000	Dec. 121,000
Oats	Dec 245,000	Inc. 110,000

Broomhall's weekly foreign crop report says: "United Kingdom—Crop conditions continue to improve slowly France, Germany, Hungary, Roumania, Italy—No change from favorable tenor of crops. Russia—Situation of crops uncertain; some complaints. Arrivals at ports expected to increase soon. India—Reports continue favorable. Australia—Good increase expected in acreage sown to Wheat this season."

A Chicago commission man who is in the Southwest wired, Monday, from Oklahoma City: "Arkansas and extreme eastern part of territory has plenty of moisture, but when you reach the Wheat belt it is very dry. Farmers and merchants talk discouragingly Wheat very small and not stooling properly. Think rains yet could do much good, but every day endangers crop. The Government estimate April 1 must be very low. Weather clear and cool"

Stocks in New York were lower at the close with the exception of a few Trading was larger and in a few Stocks there was good buying, the general support was poor and sellers more aggessive There is uncertainty over the action of the directors on the dividend on United States Steel, and it broke 1 point Union Pacific had good support and gained 2½ St Paul was strong, but other Railway shares mostly lower. REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—The market is holding quiet, but firm, with no noticeable betterment in the domestic or foreign demand

WINTER WHEAT—A good demand existed and fresh arrivals ruled rather firm and 1c higher early, but eased off some later. The in store market was also strong, but eased off before the close. Millers picked up all the desirable Wheat. No 2 Red in store quotable at 95¾c@$1 0.7s depending on quality and the location; fresh arrivals car lots free on board quotably $1 00@1 05. No 3 Red sold at $1 01, and ranged at 98c@$1 02 No 2 Hard quotable at 95@98c. No. 3 Hard local sold at 88@88c for poor to fair, and at 96@97c for choice—outside for yellow Wheat. No 4 Hard sold at 70c.

SPRING WHEAT—The demand was good on milling account and feeling relatively firm, as compared with futures Receipts small. No 1 Northern in store quotable at 95¾@98⅜c, and fresh arrivals quotable at 98c@$1 03 No 2 Northern quotable at 95c@$1 01 No. 3 Spring fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 85c@$1 00 for ordinary to very choice hard variety. No 4 sold at 85c and quotable at 65@94c for poor to choice hard variety.

REGULAR WHEAT—The trade in the aggregate was large and the market somewhat nervous Early tone was strong, but later broke badly. Final figures showed the May ⅞c lower, while the July lost 1@1⅛c and the September 1⅝c Sentiment at the start was "bullish" and market for a while displayed a decidedly strong undertone. The moderate receipts in the Northwest and Southwest, strength in coarse Grains and in all outside markets, particularly in the Northwest, and rather firm cables all combined to create a strong tone. The bulge was helped along by the rumor that the Missouri State report was out, showing a very low condition, but was later denied This denial and the showing of the available supply induced unloading by local "longs" and prices reacted Heavy selling, credited to a prominent St. Louis professional, added to the depression Liverpool quoted spot steady and futures ¼@⅜d higher. Receipts there the past three days 200,000 bu, of which 56,000 bu came from America. London came ¼@1¼d higher, while Paris was unchanged to ¼c higher. Antwerp steady. Berlin gained ⅜c and Buda Pesth ¼c. London quoted cargoes on passage firm Primary receipts were 140,000 bu smaller than a year ago. Arrivals in the Northwest 48 cars less. Kansas City and St. Louis received 67,000 bu, against 202 000 bu one year ago and the shipments were liberal at 159,000 bu Map showed practically no moisture in the Southwest and temperatures were higher Showers were predicted for Nebraska, Illinois, Indiana and Missouri and possibly for Eastern Kansas The snow map showed the only snow remaining was in the Northern tier of States, depth considerable in Upper Michigan and North Dakota, but elsewhere less than three inches. Stocks here in all positions were reported at 5,207,000 bu, a decrease of 302,000 bu, and are 5,605,000 bu smaller than a year ago. Contract stocks were reduced 177,714 bu to 1,436,150 bu, as compared with 3 248,317 bu same date one year ago Bradstreet's world's available supply decreased but 451 000 bu, as against 4 905,000 bu decrease the corresponding week in 1903. Mexico, Mo, where the Grain Dealers' Association is in session, reported the Wheat crop in fine condition. Part of the early buying was credited to foreign account Clearings were moderate and 7 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Minneapolis stocks are said to have increased 240,000 bu the past three days. Duluth reported the outlook better for business in Manitoba grades. Cash sales here 30,0.0 bu. Foreign crop indicated no essential change in the situation abroad. Receipts at Duluth 54 cars and at Minneapolis 178 cars, a total of 232 cars, against 540 cars yesterday, 301 cars a week ago, and 280 cars last year. Local receipts included 9 cars Winter, 8 cars Spring and 2 cars mixed, a total of 19 cars, against 28 cars last year. Included in the above was 1 car of contract grade. There were 8 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevatore. The estimated receipts for to-morrow not reported. Withdrawals were 39 450 bu. Receipts at Western points were 376,254 bu, against 516,193 bu last year. At Eastern points 32,712 bu, against 69,819 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 337,633 bu, against 265,967 bu last year, and from Eastern points 50,237, against 133,346 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 53,356 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 289,204 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Good trade at irregular prices; closing was lower

SEPTEMBER—New Style—Sold at 81¾@84⅛c. Opened with sales at 83⅝c to 83⅞c; sold to 84⅛c, to 83½c, to 83¾c, to 83⅝c, to 84⅛c, to 83¼c, to 83⅞c, to 81⅞c, to 82c, to 81¾c, to 81¾@81⅞c, and closed at 81¾@81⅞c.

CORN—A more moderate trade and largely professional The feeling prevalent was somewhat mixed, but undertone generally firm, and the close unchanged for May, ⅛c lower for July and ⅛c for the September. "Bull" interests were again conspicuous in the market, buying openly and credited with selling through brokers. The moderate receipts, talk of poor quality of the Corn held back in the interior and strength in the cash market were among the sustaining influences. Showers were generally predicted through the Corn belt. Cables, however, did not respond to yesterday's advance on this side Liverpool quoted spot steady to ⅛d lower and futures only ⅛d better Action there was attributable to large tenders on contracts. Receipts at Liverpool past three days were 184,000 bu 120,000 bu from America. Considerable "long" property came out the closing hour. Local arrivals were 202 cars, with 74 cars low grades, compared with 160 cars and 48 cars respectively last year Southwestern markets were firm. Stocks here in all positions were reported at 8,462,000 bu, an increase of 70,000 bu, and are 815 000 bu smaller than a year ago. Contract stocks were enlarged by 282,523 bu and now include 3 325,868 bu, against 2,527,285 bu same date one year ago Bradstreet's available supply increased 249,000 bu, compared with 2,544,000 decrease same week in 1903. Western receipts were 335,000 bu, compared with 461,000 bu last year; shipments 333,000 bu and 543,000 bu respectively. Local arrivals 173 000 bu and shipments the same—173,000 bu Exports 254,000 bu, and 5 boat loads accepted at the seaboard. Transfers from private to public elevators 31,400 bu and 148 cars Shipping demand was reported fair, but late advance is checking sales Car lots were in good demand and the offerings small. Feeling was firm and prices 1@2c higher. No. 2 closed at 55c No. 2 Yellow sold at 55¼@55⅜c, and closed at 55c No. 3 sold at 52c, and closed at 48@52c. No. 3 White sold at 52c No 3 Yellow sold at 52c, and closed at 50@52c.

Corn by sample—Continues in good demand and small supply Feeling stronger and prices ½@2c higher. Sales on track and free on board. No Grade sold at 39@45¼c. No 4 at 46@50c No 3 at 48@55½c. No. 3 Yellow at 52@53c. No. 2 Yellow at 55½c No 3 White at 47c. No. 2 White at 53c. Ears at 44c Billed through No 3 at 47½c. No. 3 Yellow at 48½c • No 3 White at 47½c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Moderately active and stronger early, but reacted and closed unchanged to ⅛c lower.

MARCH Inactive and closed at 53¾c.

MAY Sold at 54⅝@55½c Opened at 55¼c to 55⅜c, and sold at 55⅛c, to 55⅜c, to 55¼c to 55½c, to 55c, to 55⅛c, to 55c, to 55⅜c, to 55⅛c, to 55½c, to 55c, to 54⅞c, to 55½, to 54¾c, to 55c to 54½c, to 55c, and closed at 55c

JULY—Sold at 51½c and 52⅜@52½c Opened at 52c to 52¼c, and sold to 52⅛c, to 52⅜@52½c, to 52⅛c, to 52⅜c, to 52c, to 52¼c, to 52⅛c, off to 51½c, to 51¾c, to 51½c, to 51⅞c, to 51¾@51⅞c, and closed at 51¾@51⅞c.

OATS—Were unsettled There was an advance of ¼@¾c early on general commission house buying and bidding by the "bull" interest in Corn, but prices receded ⅞@1c and closed at about the bottom, with a net loss of ¼@½c The break was in sympathy with other Grains and on profit-taking by some of the largest buyers of late Cash business was poor and sales only 25,000 bu. Receipts were 205 cars, with 20 cars Standard from private elevators Contract stocks increased 38 000 bu and are 2,937,000 bu Stocks in private elevators decreased 110 000 bu and are 2,257,000 bu, and in all positions stocks are 530,000 bu, a decrease of 115,000 bu Seaboard clearances were 45,000 bu Car lots to go to store were steady to ½c higher. No. 3 White sold at 42½c. Standard in store closed about 39¾@40¼c as to location

Oats by sample were in smaller supply and met a fair demand, prices being steady to ½c higher Sales on track and free on board No Grade at 35c No 4 at 37@39½c No. 4 White at 31½@43c No. 3 at 40@43½c. Standard at 42½c No 2 at 40c Billed through No 4 White at 38@40½c. No 3 White at 41⅛@42¼c. Standard at 42½c At the river No 4 White at 31@39¼c No. 3 White at 39@40c

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were higher early and lower later.

MARCH—Inactive, no trading.

MAY—Sold at 40⅜c and at 41⅛@41½c Opened at 40⅞c to 41c; sold to 41⅛@41¼c, to 40⅝c, to 40½c at close

JULY—Active Sold at 38⅜@38½c and at 39⅛@39¼c. Opened at 38⅞@39c, sold to 39⅛@39¼c, to 38⅜@38½c, to 38¾@38⅞c at close

SEPTEMBER—Good trading. Sold at 32¼@33⅜c and at 33¼c. Opened at 33@33⅛c, sold to 33¼c, to 32¼@32⅜c, to 32⅜@32½c at close.

RYE—Ruled firm and prices 1c higher for May and also better for July. There was more doing in futures, with only a light cash trade, which was confined to the cars of fresh arrivals. The receipts were 11 cars, and there were withdrawn from private elevators 8,000 bu and 10 cars. No export clearances from the seaboard No. 2 in store, round lots, nominally 71c, and fresh arrivals, car lots free on board, sold at 73c. No. 3 sold at 69c, and part car No 4 sold at 50c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye In fair demand and offerings moderate. May sold at 73c and closed at 73c bid July sold at 68c to 68¾c and closed at 68c bid and 68½c sellers

BARLEY—Only 18 cars were inspected in. Arrivals have been running very small for some days and offerings on the market showed it, being limited Nothing new occurred. Demand was very light on mixing account Maltsters looking somewhat for good to choice Barley. Little of either kind offered. Common and low grade malting without demand especially. As to prices there was no change to quote. It is said that country elevators do not contain much Barley, some perhaps well cleaned up, and farmers in the Northwest are getting busy with their field work Small sales of Screenings were over the late range of 30@39c for poor to very choice—outside usually for city recleaned. Barley, mixing, about nominal at 37@39c local, depending on soundness and color; fancy bright up to 40c, but so little doing that the market was almost nominal. Feed Barley about 38@39c for good; musty below. Malting—low grade, 40@41c; common, 42@44c fair was about 45@47c; good, 48@52c; choice, 53@55c' fancy above.

SEEDS—The weather remains cool and backward, unfavorable for Grass Seeds and there was a generally dull, heavy market Clover prices a shade lower, and other lines unchanged Nothing doing in Flax, for there were no offerings

Timothy—Market slow and quiet. There were moderate offerings, but quantity of Seed on sale much less than it has been for some time Some of the usual buyers were not taking Seed, still there did exist a light demand Quality of offerings was fair to good; no high grades. Futures not mentioned. No material change from previous prices was quotable. Country lots quotable at $2 00@2 75 for poor to very fancy; outside would have to be extra fine, not hulled fair to good, $2 40@2 45; choice, $2 50@2 55, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 25@2 35. For contract March or April delivery $2 90 was quoted as the nominal market. September about $3 00 bid

Flax—Was lifeless. There was no Flax offered for sale, either present or future delivery and yet 21 cars or 17,850 bu were received. Output was 3 cars or 2 074 bu. Minneapolis got only 8 cars today, while at Duluth receipts of 64 cars were reported. No. 1 Northwestern quotably salable at $1 15½. No. 1 remained at $1 09 bid. Rejected quotable at $1 05@1 10, outside for choice from the Northwest. March was quotably $1 09 bid May delivery $1 11 bid September $1 17 nominal.

Clover—Lower prices were quoted There was at least 15c decline. Orders have been small so far this spring, and as yet the weather remains too cool to be favorable. This influence causes a weak feeling. Contract spot Seed nominally $10 25 Country lots, common to choice, at $7 50@9 85; fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds, $7 00@8 00; poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 25@9 25.

Other Seeds—Were inactive. No offerings today. Prices unchanged, but a weak undertone to the entire market was said to exist. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark about $1 15@1 65. Common Millet, $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 40 Siberian, 85c@$1 05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat easy, good milling, $1 30

HOG PRODUCTS—There was a little more interest manifested in the market for Hog Products, and the volume of business was fairly large. Outside orders were fair, and local trading was moderate. Offerings in a general way were rather free, and the demand was moderately active The market was stronger early in the day, with a fair inquiry, and prices ruled higher mainly in sympathy with the strength manifested in Grain. "Shorts" accepted moderate quantities At outside figures there was a little pressure to sell, owing to an easier feeling in Grain and prices receded to inside figures, and the market closed steady Considerable business in transferring contracts from May to July Hogs were in only fair supply, and prices well maintained Receipts at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 65 000, compared with 18 600 one year ago Foreign markets were reported steady for Meats at unchanged prices, while Lard was steadier at 6d advance Domestic markets were steady Receipts of Products were fair—of Lard and Meats about 21 cars. Shipments were quite large of Lard and Meats about 2o3 cars. Demand on shipping account was moderate, and offerings were only fair Exporters out of the market. Sales were moderate, and prices ruled slightly higher on some descriptions.

Mess Pork—Trade was fair in Mess Pork. Offerings were moderately large, and a fair miscellaneous demand prevailed. "Shorts" bought moderately Early, the feeling was rather firm, and prices were advanced 12½@15c on the whole range Later, there was a little pressure to sell and the feeling was weaker temporarily Prices settled back 7½@10c About the middle of the session rather more steadiness prevailed, and prices rallied 5@7½c but toward the close declined 35@40c, and the market closed rather steady Shipping demand was light and offerings were moderate Cash lots quotable at $13 00@13 12½

MAY—Demand was fair and the offerings were rather free. Sales were made at $13 07½@13 47½ Opened at $13 35, sold to $13 32½, to $13 47½, to $13 42½, to $13 47½, to $13 37½, to $13 42½, to $13 40, to $13 45, to $13 07½ and closed steady

JULY—Offerings were free, and the demand was moderately active Sales were made at $13 25@13 70. Opened at $13 57, sold to $13 67½, to $13 60@13 62½, to $13 67½@13 70 to $13 65, to $13 70, to $13 57½, to $13 65, to $13 25, and closed steady

Lard—Rather more doing in Lard and the feeling was unsettled Offerings were fairly large and there was a little improvement in the demand Foreign advices were more favorable to holders. Market opened rather firm at Monday's closing figures and a firmer feeling was developed. Prices were advanced 5@7½c on the whole range Toward the close, there was some pressure to sell and prices declined 12½@15c and closed steady There was little demand on shipping account and offerings limited. Cash lots quotable at $6 87½@6 90 Loose lots called for moderately and offerings only fair Prices steady at about 55@60c discount on May figures Leaf Lard in small request and offerings were moderate Prices were quotably steady at $6 25@6 37½. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings Prices quotably steady at $7 62½@7 75 for No 1, and $7 37½@7 50 for No. 2

MAY—In moderate request, and offerings were somewhat limited Sales were made at $6 97½@7 12½ Opened at $7 05 sold to $7 12½, to $6 97½, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were only fair and the demand was rather active Sales were made at $7 12½@7 27½. Opened at $7 22½, sold to $7 27½, to $7 25 to $7 27½, to $7 25, to $7 27½, to $7 12½, and closed steady

SEPTEMBER—Quiet, with small sales at $7 35@7 40, and closed at $7 35

Short Rib Sides—A fairly good trade was reported in Short Rib Sides. Offerings were rather large, and the demand was moderately active "Shorts" bought moderately Market opened rather steady, and an improvement of 2½@5c was gained later Later, there was considerable pressure to sell and prices receded 12½@15c, and the market closed steady Shipping demand was light, and offerings were moderate Cash lots were quotable at $6 75@6 87½ according to weight.

MAY—Called for moderately, and offerings were fair. Sales were made at $6 90@7 02½ Opened at $7 00, sold to $6 97½ to $7 0.½ to $6 90, and closed steady

JULY—Offerings were fair, and the demand was moderately active. Sales were made at $7 05@7 20. Opened at $7 17½ sold to $7 15 to $7 17½@7 20 to $7 17½ to $7 20 to $7 17½ to $7 .0, to $7 17½, to $7 20, to $7 05, and closed steady

Other Meats—Trade was only moderate and the feeling rather steady Offerings were only fair. Demand was moderate for the home trade Export inquiry very small Green Meats were in moderate supply and rather light demand, and prices ruled steady. Pickled Meats were in rather better request to fill fair orders and prices favored sellers Dry Salted Meats were in fair demand in a quiet way and prices ruled steady Smoked Meats called for in fair quantities, especially in a jobbing way, and prices were unchanged. Closing ranged as follows:

BREADSTUFFS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

[From the Portland Commercial Review, Mar. 24.]

Wheat and flour were no material changes in the local Wheat market during the past week. Cables were of a dull and easy trend, with very little inquiry for prompt shipment cargoes Prices are firm. Sellers are not very anxious to make sales as they have sufficient stock on hand to cover wants of spot loading fleet, and recent purchases were mostly to provide for future needs. For milling purposes the demands from interior mills are all well supplied for present and future demands. It looks now as if the shipping season for 1903-4 will practically close at the end of March. There may be a few cargoes in the next three months shipped, but prices will have to decline to induce the shipper to purchase Wheat and run the risk of exporting the same, with present values. Wheat in farmers' hands east of the mountains in the Willamette stocks are very low; in a great many places millers are compelled to ship in Eastern or going East to keep their mills running or supply their local trade In the Cascade country it is the contrary Wheat remains, and as soon as it can get to the sound or river it is forwarded to tide water. About 20 per cent of the crops still in Umatilla and Walla Walla counties In the Palouse country about 12½ per cent remains. In other sections of the Northwest very little Wheat can be had. Unless sellers dispose of their holdings soon we look for a very large carry-over on July 1 into farmers' hands. In the weather recently has given the farmers a chance to do their spring work, and reports from all over the Wheat districts are that farmers are sowing spring Grain and doing the acreage over of winter grain. There is no doubt that fully 3,500,000 acres have been sown to Wheat this season, and without mishap up to the growth of the same this ought to be the banner year for a crop. We quote Club at 72c; bluestem 81c and valley 82c per bushel.

Flour Very little change has undergone the Flour market since our last report. Conditions remain about the same, with practically no demand from the Orient Many of our large mills have closed down, and some of them have laid off their night crews. Some mills are busy on Europe, but, as we formerly stated in these columns, only one firm in the Flour trade has any call for their output in this country. A better feeling exists for Central and South American trade and shipments will be for a time larger. California has kept up her demand, and millers have their assigned parcels to ship that way. We can look for a dull period for the next sixty days. Probably by the expiration of that time some new crops will be had with the Orient, as stocks ought to be considerably reduced by that time A great many millers have some local orders to fill, and we look for a general closing down by most of this month. Prices are very low in this territory. Millers have no cause to complain as they have been very busy for the past ten months. We quote export brands, $3.55 to $3.65 per barrel. Patents are steady at $3.75 to $4.50 per barrel, quality and brands considered.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather map shows one little rainfall at Kansas City this morning—0.02 inch—and 0.06 A M., but this is the only precipitation shown. There is no moisture in the Southwest. Temperatures are some higher everywhere. Conditions are favorable for farm work and Grain movement.

Indications are for general showers. Temperatures will rise still further, but will fall West.

Fire, Sunday, at East Brady, Pa., destroyed property to the extent of $100,000; insurance, $50,000.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

A Trenton, N. J., dispatch says: "After a hot debate the bill presented in the interests of the Steel trust and other trusts to practically prevent minority stockholders from starting suits against the corporations, by compelling plaintiffs to disclose their causes before their days in court, was beaten badly, receiving only seven votes, while twenty-nine were against it."

The fortnightly Argonaut says: "Nothing is doing in Hops, although there are considerable for sale in Oregon still Some dealers look for a weakening in prices within the next few months, while others hope to see Hops sell at from 20c to 30c before the next crop is in the bale. As Hops depreciate 10 per cent in value after the first year, holders will probably try to work off what they have before September next."

In order to provide additional capital for the removal in St. Louis of overhead wires, the connection of Southwest Missouri lines, extension of toll service to Chicago, and the betterment of the western portion of the State, and the betterment of its urban properties, the shareholders of the bell Telephone Company of Missouri will, on May 2, vote on increasing the capital stock of the company to $ 0,000,000. The treasurer states that the action simply means that the directors will be given power to issue new stock from time to time as previous occasions, the privilege will be offered present holders of stock to subscribe to the new issue at par.

The report which was presented to the executive committee of the American Steel Foundries Company at its meeting, Friday, is understood to have been considered highly satisfactory by the officers of the company. It was learned from an official source that the business of the company is showing much improvement. The gross orders thus far in March are stated to have exceeded those of the corresponding time last year by a handsome margin, while the deliveries in the same time were 51 per cent above those of last year for the period This general improvement in business has led the officials of the company to consider proposals for other plant, and it is not improbable that such will be done within a few weeks.

Leading officials of Western railroads are trying to induce the Wisconsin Central to discontinue the practice of paying cartage charges of its patrons not located along or near its terminals in Chicago. The Great Western declares it will not withdraw its new tariff of cartage allowances in Chicago so long as any competing line pays cartage If all the roads pay similar allowances to shippers the annual sum would exceed $1,000,000 Its demand in this is fruitless unless the cartage tariffs are canceled. The Rock Island yielded to the pressure of other lines and canceled its cartage tariff, and it is believed the Wisconsin Central and Great Western will be induced to annul theirs.

A New Orleans telegram says: "So heavy have become the importations of Sugar into New Orleans since the reduction in the duties levied on the Cuban products went into effect that the customs service here is swamped, and on an appeal to the treasury service extra help has been allowed. The new duties went into effect Dec. 25, 1903 The importations for January have been 6,177,502 lbs, against none in the same month last year; for February, 28,858,242 lbs, against 4,8 0,4 0 lbs, and for 23 days of March, 20,000,000 lbs. The 1ower levee is crowded with freighters bringing in Cuban Sugar, most of which is consigned to the American Sugar Refining Company."

A telegram from Scottdale, Pa., says: "The Coke trade is growing stronger with each week and with the constantly increasing demand the largeness of the trade is simply a question of the ability of the railroads to supply the need of the ovens While the car supply was somewhat better last week, allowing an increased shipment of over 8,000 cars, there is still a shortage of 15,000 tons in excess of shipments. Operations at several plants were increased slightly last week and 850 ovens were added to the active list. Reports from the different districts are to the effect that several ag-nts of the United Mine Workers are still at work, but it is understood that they will be called home at an early date on account of the difficulties encountered in the attempt to organize the Coke workers."

The exports of domestic manufactures in February, 1904, were greater in value than they have ever been in the history of the country, the value of domestic manufactures exported in the eight months of the fiscal year were also in excess of the corresponding eight months of the preceding year. The fiscal year 1903 was the banner year in the export of domestic manufactures, but from present indications the exports of this year will go beyond that record. These are the estimates of the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Labor, based on the detailed reports of the exports for the last eight months In the eight months ending with February, 1904, the exports have reported $ 58,000,000 worth of domestic manufactures and in the last eight months $285,000,000 The Bureau of Statistics says that the present fiscal year will be the greatest ever had in the exports of domestic manufactures.

The Chicago Drovers' Journal says: "Average price of good Beef Steers for the week was $4 03, against $4 00 the previous week, $4 85 a year ago, $5 45 two years ago, and $5 00 two and three years ago Top cattle for the week, $5 80; previous week, $5 90; a year ago, $6 40; two years ago, $6 40; three years ago, $6 05, and four years ago, $5 2. Native Beef Cattle sold during the past week at a range of $2 60, against a range of $1 65 the corresponding week last year, and a range of $3 60 a year ago. The wider range this year is the fact that so many thin and half-fattened Steers have been forced on the market Two weeks ago the bulk of good to best Steers sold at $7 10 common lots sold at $4 25, showing a range of $2 85 At that time Chicago received very few choice Cattle, while this Steers on the feeder order were the principal kind. It is expected that from now on the proportion of light Cattle will decrease and that the range of prices for common to choice will narrow considerably."

Calcutta advices of Feb 20 say: "The Wheat of India the Wheat harvest has already begun in the Central Provinces and Bengal, where a small outturn is anticipated, although by no means so small as yet to frame estimates. A flagging of the present agricultural reports the Wheat harvest of 1903-4 ought to be an excellent one all round. The forecast of the Indian Corn crop is also good, and puts the total area at 1,037,000 acres, representing an increase of 62,000 acres, or 6 9 per cent, over the area of the crop last year. The present year's area is also more than any year since the famine year of 1900, and richer than the scarcity year of 1896 7. The outturn is estimated at 85 per cent of the normal, as against 85 per cent in the year previous. Barley cultivation would appear to be making great strides in Bengal, where the area devoted to the crop in 1903 was as much as 1,456,600 acres, or 10,700 acres more than the previous year's figures. Under cereals and pulses grown in Bengal Barley now occupies third place, Rice and Corn alone exceeding it in area."

The San Francisco Commercial News of March 24 says: "While the recent heavy rains in the south have been of inestimable benefit to the growing Grain, there are some sections in the Sacramento Valley and the northern part of the state that too much has been received. In some sections of the Sacramento it is feared that the crop will be considerably curtailed on account of the incessant rainfall unless warm weather comes along soon. In the San Joaquin Valley, however, both Wheat and Barley are making rapid growth and the outlook in the South is better than at any time this season With normal weather conditions during the remainder of the spring there is no doubt but that a crop much exceeding that of last year will be reaped. Stocks in the State are now down to a very low point, save in the case of permits of any further heavy shipments. Millers are compelled to draw on the North for both Wheat and Flour, and on Kansas for Wheat, and the Dakotas and Minnesota for Flour. These are left in port but two chartered Grain vessels, both of which will load Barley chiefly, and it is doubtful if more than two or three others will be dispatched before the new crop arrives."

Deep water improvements for the Buffalo, N. Y., harbor were urged before the House committee on rivers and harbors, Fr day, by a delegation including James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railroad; General F V Green, former police commissioner of New York; J. G. Milburn, president of the Pan-American Exposition Company; John Goodell, Attorney-General of New York State; George P. Sawyer, Captain J. J. H. Brown of Buffalo, and others. The committee wanted to know if Mr. Hill did not consider costly water transportation a good thing for the railroads. His reply was that he was interested in both water and rail transportation. "If you would provide me with a railroad between New York and Buffalo," he remarked, "for the exclusive transportation of freight, I would make the proposed barge canal look like a lily pond." The improvement asked for at Buffalo is regarded as necessary, and authorized by a previous appropriation of $ 80,000 The first cost for its completion is estimated at $4 500, 000.

So far as March earnings have been compiled, the railroads report a small decrease in gross. The reports for February show a loss of slightly more than 1 per cent in the net for that month. The decrease in the gross earnings for the month of the fiscal year as a general rule show increases. For the first week of March the gross earnings of forty-five railroads aggregated $7,582,765, against $7,504,491 in the corresponding period last year. This was a decrease of .89 per cent. For the second week of March the gross earnings of forty railroads aggregated $7,403,871, as compared with $7,518,898 in the corresponding week last year, a decrease of 1.50 per cent. For the third week of March the gross earnings of five railroads show a decrease of .05 per cent. The gross earnings of 125 railroads for the month of February increased 2.91 per cent, operating expenses increased 9.62 per cent, and net earnings decreased 13.17 per cent The gross earnings of these roads for the four months increased 8.51 per cent, operating expenses increased 10.08 per cent, and net earnings increased 6.49 per cent.

An official of the Allis-Chalmers Company is quoted as follows: "You may state that the Allis-Chalmers Company has no intention of making any increase in its capital stock, and is amply able to take care of the electrical business. As it has ac pired. The Bullock Electric Manufacturing Company came into our possession March 1, fully equipped, and we have been operating it as usual since that time. For the present the company owes no money. There are no liens ahead of the preferred stock, and the company has $7,500,000 net capital. We expect that the electrical business we do which we have not been in a very profitable branch of our industry." The Bullock Electric Manufacturing Company has been in successful operation since 1890 It is equipped with modern appliances and is the largest factor in the manufacture of the largest class of electrical apparatus. Its capital stock is $2,500,000, half common and half preferred. On the preferred stock 8 per cent dividends have been paid since 1901. The Allis-Chalmers Company has taken over "the whole outfit from president to office boys," as an official of the company expressed it, and is now operating the concern. It is one of the three largest electrical manufacturing plants in the country.

It is authoritatively denied that the International Salt Company has made an offer to the minority stockholders of the National Salt Company to receive their stock on deposit under the original reorganization plan with an assessment of $ 00 a share in cash and $ 00 in shares of the new stock. It is said that the proposition is that received made by Mr. Terry, counsel for the preferred stockholders' committee, who offers to act as counsel for the holders of the common stock on the following terms: That they deposit their certificates at once with the New York Security and Trust Company, receiving therefor receipts of deposit and also pay at the time of deposit $ 00 per share for every $ 00 per share, but Mr. Terry to have the privilege of disposing of said stock for money or value to the amount of $ 00 per share or over, or exchanging each share of common stock for such securities—bonds, stock or both—of the market value of $ 00 or over, or which the depositor and Mr. Terry shall agree are worth $ 00 or over. Any sum or value in securities received above $ 00 per share or any amount which said stock may be worth over $ 00 per share shall be divided equally between the depositor and Mr. Terry. This agreement may be terminated by any depositor at any time, and the deposited stock withdrawn upon payment by the depositor of $ 00 for each share of stock withdrawn.

HOLIDAY, FRIDAY, APRIL 1.

The Directors of the Chicago Board of Trade have voted to adjourn over Friday, April 1—Good Friday. The Stock Exchange also will be closed.

New York Exchange—no market.

Documentary Sterling steady at 484.

Chicago Bank Clearings to-day, $27,184,726.

Estimated receipts of Hogs for to-morrow, 33,000.

Consols closed ⅛ higher at 86⅛ for money and 86 5-16 for account.

Rains reported in Kansas to-day in sections where most needed.

Reported that 96,000 bu Wheat and 24,000 bu Corn were taken at the seaboard to-day for export.

Nine packers purchased 24,600 Hogs to-day; shippers, 11,000; left over, 10,000. Market closed very weak at the decline.

Spring Wheat seeding reported in progress as far north as Mitchell, S. D., in Jim River Valley. Ground in good condition.

The stock of Flax Seed at Duluth on March 26 was 6,971,736 bu compared with 6,682,867 bu the previous week—an increase of 288,869 bu Stock last year, 4,196,110 bu.

In the New York Cotton market there were weak cables, which were offset by small receipts and an effort on the part of the "bulls" to force in the large "shorts." Prices were moved up readily and closing sales were at 2@7 points higher.

A move has been made by the Chicago Board of Trade Directors to secure the estimated receipts of car lots of Grain for the preceding day. The question was brought up in the directory, Tuesday, and referred to a committee.

Average cost price of Hogs at Chicago, Tuesday, was $5 53, against $5 50 Monday, $5 24 a week ago, and $7 65 a year ago. Tuesday's average was within 6c of the high day—March 9—when best heavy sold 15c above Tuesday's best.

It is proposed to have the manager of the Chicago Board of Trade Clearing House handle the margin checks instead of the Secretary's office. The rules will have to be amended, and the Directors have ordered that the amendment be posted for ballot.

Local Securities were irregular, with moderate trading. The feature was the advance of ⅝ in Metropolitan Elevated preferred, 1 point on Pneumatic Tool, ½ on Diamond Match and ⅜ on Biscuit preferred. The losses were small, Swift's declining ½.

White's paper mill, near Waldwick, in Bergen County, N. J., the first to make and use wood pulp in the manufacture of paper, was burned, Monday. The mills covered nearly one acre of ground. There was no insurance. Machinery valued at not less than $30,000 was destroyed with the building.

The Montreal Trade Bulletin says: "Our special London correspondent cables us a sharp decline of 8s per cwt. owing to further heavy arrivals of Danish Bacon in England; and as Denmark has large quantities of Hogs to kill, it is feared that very little improvement can be expected in the Bacon market until these are worked off."

The Chicago Drovers' Journal says. "Two members of the Live Stock Exchange were brought to trial before the Board of Directors, Tuesday, for a violation of the new meal rule, which went into effect Feb 1. They were accused of signing tickets for customers without accompanying them to dinner. They were found guilty and fined $50 00 each. This is the first case brought up for an infraction of the rules."

Professor Hicks' annual weather predictions for the year 1904 say: "The Easter full moon will cause severe squalls and probably killing frosts in early April. Very general and severe storms are probable latter part of this month. May promises the heaviest rains and most violent storms of the present season. Rains in central part of June will be sufficient for a time, but many western parts will need more: drought will be felt over much of the Western Grain belt before the season ends."

Stocks in New York were well supported in the morning by the Standard Oil interests. Good advances were made on the entire list. St. Paul, Union Pacific and Southern Pacific were readily absorbed, and the first named roads made substantial gains, while the others sold off. There is a belief in Wall Street that a community of interest is gradually working into control of leading Western roads, and some buying is centering in them on this theory. Good recessions were made from early advances, but the list closed fairly strong. Money, 1¾ per cent.

DETAILS OF PIG IRON PRODUCTION.

[From the Daily Stockholder, March 22]

Pig Iron produced in this country last year, figuring up to 18,009,252 tons, shows but a small increase over 1902, in which connection, however, it must be remembered to how great an extent output expanded in 1902 over 1901 and 1900 namely, 2,000,000 tons and 4,000,000 tons respectively. Details are quite interesting as regards comparisons for the first two years, showing as they do how close the items approximate for both periods

Grades gross tons	1902.	1903.
Bessemer and low phosphorus pig Iron	10,393,168	9,989,908
Basic pig Iron made with mineral fuel	2,038,590	2,040,726
Forge pig Iron	833,093	783,016
Foundry and high silicon pig Iron	3,851,276	1,409,023
Malleable Bessemer pig Iron	311,458	473 781
White and mot. and other grades	180,741	120 137
Spiegeleisen	168,468	156,700
Ferro-Manganese	44,573	35,961
Total	17,821,307	18,009,252

Results given are those published by the American Iron and Steel Association and are therefore to be relied on for accuracy.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—The demand is tame, and sales slow. Prices steady. Kansas millers advanced prices to-day 15c

WINTER WHEAT—Ruled strong, especially for choice Wheat. Demand good. Poor Wheat is slow. No. 2 Red in store quotable at 93½c@$1 01 for ordinary to choice depending on location; fresh arrivals free on board ranged at $1 00@1 05—outside for fancy. No 3 Red sold at $1 02 for choice and quotably $1 00 for good. No 2 Hard local was quotable at 93@97c free on board. No. 3 Hard fresh receipts free on board sold at 92@94c for good; a very fancy car Illinois Wheat sold at 97½c and there was some poor Wheat offered down to 88@90c which was not sold and a number of cars were carried over. No 4 Hard sold at 74c.

SPRING WHEAT—A good demand existed and the feeling was firm for choice, while poor Wheat was dull. No. 1 Northern in store sold to the extent of 10,000 bu at ¼c over May price and ranged at 93½@96¼c, and fresh arrivals free on board quotable at 97c@$1 02. No 2 Northern fresh receipts free on board quotable at 92c@$1 00. No. 2 Spring sold at 96c. No. 3 Spring was quotably 88c @$1 00 for ordinary to very choice hard variety. No 4 sold at 70@76½c for ordinary to fair, at 83@85c for good, and a choice car sold at 93c.

REGULAR WHEAT—A good trade and active market with the close ⅜c lower for the May, ⅛c higher for the July, and unchanged for September. Early the sentiment was "bearish" and locals sold freely, quite a few stop-loss limits in May being uncovered which hastened the break. The easy cables, improved weather conditions in the Southwest and more favorable crop advices, were the "bear" factors. On the break "shorts" came in and market rallied sharply. The small receipts in the Southwest, bulge in Corn and cash situation were strengthening influences and many of the early sellers covered. The map showed heavy rains at Kansas City and light rains throughout Missouri. General light rains in Illinois, Nebraska and the Ohio Valley. Little change in temperatures. Signal service predicted showers for Illinois, Indiana and Missouri; fair for Kansas: showers possible in Nebraska. Liverpool quoted spot steady and futures ½d lower. London came ¼@1⅛d lower. Paris was steady to ¼c higher. Antwerp was unchanged. Berlin gained ⅜c and Buda Pesth ¼c. Broomhall cabled that the English financial budget in which the import duty will be taken up would be issued about April 18. Minneapolis wired that "seeding was in progress to-day as far North as Mitchell in the Jim River Valley; ground there in good condition; this is early seeding, but northern counties in three States covered with heavy snows." Primary receipts were 24,000 bu smaller than last year. Arrivals in the Northwest were 77 cars less. Kansas City and St. Louis received 23,000 bu, against 108,000 bu last year, and the shipments 172 000 bu. Exports were small and 12 boat loads were accepted at the seaboard. Minneapolis wired that stocks there had increased 250 000 bu the past four days. Cash demand there reported good. Rumors of a "bullish" Ohio report helped along the rally. Kansas millers were said to have advanced the price of Flour 15c. Liverpool cabled that Argentine Wheat was held very firmly. A local concern sold 100,000 bu cash now at Galveston to Texas millers equal to about 7c over export parity. Buying July by prominent elevator interests was a late feature. Receipts at Duluth 37 cars and at Minneapolis 223 cars, a total of 260 cars, against 232 cars yesterday, 268 cars a week ago, and 153 cars last year. Local receipts included 4 cars Winter, 6 cars Spring and 4 cars mixed, a total of 14 cars, against 27 cars last year. Included in the above was none of contract grade. There were 2 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow not reported. Withdrawals were 66,200 bu. Receipts at Western points were 334,880 bu, against 358 914 bu last year. At Eastern points 14,688 bu, against 69,517 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 274,080 bu, against 233 640 bu last year, and from Eastern points 24,000, against 322,772 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 15,291 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 92 823 bu.

Future Deliveries of Regular Wheat—Good trade at irregular prices.

MARCH—Entirely nominal; closed about 95½c.

MAY—Sold at 93½@96c. Opened with sales at 95c to 93¾c; sold to 93½c, to 95½c, to 95c, to 95⅜c, to 94¼c, to 96c, to 95¼c, to 95½c, and closed at 95½c.

CORN—Was very active and stronger, the close showing the May up ¾@⅞c, while the July gained 1⅛@1¼c and the September ⅞c. The "bull" party was again conspicuous on the buying side, which had much to do with the advances established. Commission houses had considerable for sale on the bulge and part of the same was credited to the principal "long." Soft weather through the Corn belt and renewed talk of smaller receipts and poor grading continues one of the principal supporting influences. Receipts were only 65 cars, of which 20 cars were low grades. Argentine cables again reported the Corn crop seriously damaged by unfavorable weather. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ¼d lower and futures ⅛d lower. Southwestern markets were again strong. Bloomington, Ill., reported Iowa buying seed Corn. Western receipts were only 258 000 bu, against 384,000 bu last year. Shipments 186,000 bu and 355,000 bu. Local arrivals were 135,000 bu and shipments 64,000 bu. Exports were 151 000 bu and 3 boat loads were accepted at the seaboard. Transfers from private to public elevators 31 400 bu and 140 cars. Shipping demand was moderate and sales small. Car lots were in good request and prices 1c higher. Offerings were small. No 2 sold at 55¾c, and closed at 55¾c. No 2 Yellow sold at 54@55¾c, and closed at 55¾c. No 2 White sold at 55¾c. No. 3 sold at 52c, and closed at 48½@53½c. No 3 Yellow closed at 50@55½c.

Corn by sample—In good demand and light supply. Feeling strong. Prices unchanged to 1c higher. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 44@46c. No 4 at 47@49½c. No 3 at 48@53c. No. 3 Yellow at 50@53¼c. No. 2 at 55@55⅝c. No. 2 Yellow at 55⅝c. No 3 White at 51@53½c. No. 2 White at 55½@56c. Billed through: No Grade at 42@44c. No 4 at 45½c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Corn—Active and stronger closing ¾@⅞c to 1⅛@1¼c higher.

MARCH—Quotable ⅞c under May and closed about 55c.

MAY—Sold at 54⅞@56c. Opened at 55c to 54⅞c, and sold at 55⅛c, to 55c, to 55⅜c, to 55½c, to 55⅞c, to 55¼c, to 55⅞c, to 55⅝c, to 56c, to 55⅝c, to 55⅞c, to 55¾c, to 55¾@55⅞c, and closed at 55¾@55⅞c.

JULY—Sold at 51⅞c and 53@53⅛c. Opened at 52c to 51⅞c and sold to 52c, to 51⅞c, to 52⅛c, to 52¼c, to 52½@52⅝c, to 52¾@52⅞c, to 52¾c, to 52⅝c, to 53@53⅛c, to 52¾c, to 53c and closed at 53c sellers.

SEPTEMBER—Sold at 51@52c. Opened at 51c to 51¼c, sold to 51c, to 51⅜c, to 51½c, to 51¼c, to 51⅝c, to 52c, to 51¾c, to 51⅞c, and closed at 51⅞c asked.

OATS—Were active, being affected by wet weather, small receipts—56 cars—and by the advance in Corn. "Shorts" investors and shipping interests were all active on the buying side. May took the lead and advanced 1¼c, and other months ⅝@¾c. The close was at the best prices. Cash business was 160,000 bu. Duluth sold 60,000 bu to go out at opening of navigation. There was 16 800 bu and 56 cars Standard taken out of private elevators. From public houses withdrawals were 1,500 bu Standard. Export clearances were 16,800 bu. Car lots to go to store were steady to 1c higher. Standard in store closed at 41⅛c to 41¾c as to location.

Oats by sample were in active supply for good and prices advanced 1c, but poor were slow and steady. Offerings light. Sales on track and free on board: No. 4 White at 33@43c. No 3 at 39@41½c. No 3 White at 42¼@44c. Standard at 44c. No 2 at 40c. Billed through: No. 4 at 39¼c. No. 4 White at 41½c. No. 3 at 37½c. No 3 White at 42½@42¾c. Standard at 43c. No 2 at 40c. At the river: No Grade at 31c. No 3 at 31@38½c. No. 4 White at 37½@40c. No. 3 White at 38½@41c.

Future Deliveries of Contract Oats—Were active and higher.

MARCH—Inactive; closed about 41⅛c.

MAY—Increased trading. Sales were at 40½@41¾c. Opened at 40½c to 40⅝c, sold to 41⅛c, to 41½c, to 41⅝c at close.

JULY—Active. Sold at 38½@39⅜c. Opened at 38½c to 38⅝c, sold to 39⅛c, closed at 39¼@39⅜c.

SEPTEMBER—More trading. Sold at 32⅜@32½c and at 33⅛c. Opened at 32⅜@32½c sold to 33⅛c, to 33c, to 33⅛c at close.

RYE—Ruled firm. A fair demand existed and offerings small. No higher prices were established. The receipts were six cars. No withdrawals from store here and no export clearances from the seaboard. No. 2 in store sold at 71c and fresh receipts free on board sold at 73c. A poor car of No. 3 sold at 62c.

Future Deliveries of No. 2 Rye—Quiet. March nominally 71c. May 73c bid and 74c asked. July 68c bid and 69c asked.

BARLEY—Only 11 cars posted inspected in. So little was offered that no business of consequence was possible. Demand as well as supply limited. All but the very low grades salable and steady, but poor, badly damaged Barley, also dirty Screenings dull and easy. Transactions in spot goods were of unusually small volume. Late yesterday a round lot to arrive June delivery sold at 49c. For cash Barley there was a quotable range as follows. Screenings 30@39c for poor to very choice—outside for city recleaned. Barley, mixing, about 37@39c local, depending on soundness and color; nice bright up to 40c: little doing. Feed Barley about 38@39c for good; musty below. Malting—low grade, 40@41c; common, 42@44c; fair was about 45@47c; good, 48@52c; choice, 53@55c, fancy above.

SEEDS—There was a steady market for Timothy and this was the only line in which there was any business done. In none of the several lines was there any change in prices.

Timothy—There were a number of cars and some small lots on the market. Something like three cars were sold and the rest held over. It could not be learned what prices were paid, but it was said that values were steady and without quotable change. Futures were not mentioned any more than to be given nominal quotations at former prices, which made them about $2 90 for March and April delivery and $3 00 bid for September with $3 25 asked. Country lots quotable at $2 00@2 75 for poor to very fancy; outside would have to be extra fine, not hulled; fair to good quotable at $2 40@2 45; choice $2 50@2 55, and rough, dark and foul lots about $2 25@2 35.

Flax—Was again inactive and there were no price changes. This makes the second day of a market devoid of offerings and trades with prices stationary and nominal. Only 1 car or 850 bu received and 1 car or 1,068 bu taken out. Northwestern receipts were 21 cars at Minneapolis and 48 cars at Duluth. Following prices obtainable: No. 1 Northwestern quotably at $1 15½. No 1 at $1 09. Rejected quotable at $1 05@1 10, outside for choice from the Northwest. March nominally $1 09. May delivery salable at $1 11. September $1 17 nominal.

Clover—There was no change from reduced prices quoted yesterday, though from the outside reports were said to have come in a little better. Very little Clover offered. Contract spot Seed quotable at $10 25. Country lots, common to choice, at $7 50@9 85, fancy above; mixed with Buckhorn or other weed Seeds $7 00@8 00, poor, cleaned out of Timothy, very foul, down to $3 00@6 00. Such lots as usually come to market when ordinary to good quotable at $8 25@9 25.

Other Seeds—Were lifeless and nominally unchanged. The market was without offerings, so far as noticed. Hungarian, common and light color to choice, dark about $1 15@1 65. Common Millet, $1 00@1 40 for poor to fancy. German Millet, $1 00@1 40. Siberian, 85c@$1 05. Broom Corn and Early Fortune Millet, 80@95c. Mustard, 85c@$1 05. Buckwheat easy, good quality $1 30.

HOG PRODUCTS—Only a moderate trade was reported in Hog Products. Outside orders were light, and local trading was moderately active. The receipts of Hogs were liberal and prices decidedly lower, and this encouraged a little selling early in the day. With a little more steadiness manifested in the Grain markets, there was fair miscellaneous buying of the leading descriptions with a moderate rally in prices. "Shorts" accepted fair quantities. "Longs" realized moderately. Market closed steady at outside figures. Receipts of Hogs at the leading Western packing points were estimated at 91,600, compared with 61,600 one year ago. Foreign markets were quiet and easy, and prices were reduced 6d on Backs and 3d on Lard. Domestic markets were quiet. Receipts of Products were quite liberal—of Lard and Meats about 43 cars. Shipments were moderate of Lard and Meats about 114 cars. Shipping demand was moderate, and offerings were rather light. Sales limited, and prices without material change.

Mess Pork—Trade was fairly active in the market for Mess Pork, and the feeling was easier in a general way. Offerings were fairly large, and the demand was moderately active. Prices were irregular within a smaller range. Market opened with a little pressure to sell and prices ruled 7½@12½c lower, which was followed by a further reduction of 2½@5c. Later, a little more steadiness prevailed and prices rallied 7½@10c, and the market closed comparatively steady. Shipping demand was light, and offerings were small. Cash lots were quotable at $12 95@13 00.

MAY—In fair request, and offerings were moderately free. Sales were made at $12 90@13 0 . Opened at $12 95 to $13 00, sold to $12 90, to $12 95, to $12 90 to $12 97½, to $12 95, to $12 97½, to $12 92½ to $12 97½, to $12 92½, to $13 00, to $12 95, to $13 00, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were moderately free, and the demand was fair. Sales were made at $13 07½@13 22½. Opened at $13 07½ to $13 10, sold to $13 15, to $13 10 to $13 17½, to $13 12½, to $13 15, to $13 20, to $13 15, to $13 22½, and closed steady.

Lard—Only a moderate trade was reported in the Lard market, and the feeling was not quite so strong. Offerings were fair, and the demand was only moderate. Foreign advices rather unfavorable to holders. Market opened rather easy, and prices ruled 2½@5c lower. Later, rather more steadiness prevailed, and prices rallied 2½c and closed comparatively steady. Very little demand on shipping account and offerings limited. Cash lots quotable at $6 85@6 87½. Loose lots called for moderately and offerings only fair. Prices steady at about 65c discount on May figures. Leaf Lard in small request and offerings were moderate. Prices were quotably steady at $6 25. Neutral in only moderate demand, with fair offerings. Prices quotably steady at $7 62½@7 75 for No. 1, and $7 37½@7 50 for No. 2.

MAY—In moderate demand, and offerings were fair. Sales were made at $6 92½@6 95. Opened at $6 92½, sold to $6 95, to $6 92½, to $6 92½@6 95, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were fairly liberal, and the demand was moderately active. Sales were made at $7 07½@7 12½. Opened at $7 07½ to $7 10, sold to $7 07½@7 10, to $7 10, to $7 07½, to $7 10, to $7 07½, to $7 12½, to $7 10, and closed steady.

Short Rib Sides—A fair trade was reported in Short Rib Sides and the feeling was easier in a general way. Offerings were moderately free, and the demand was fairly active. Market opened easy and prices receded 5@10c. Later, the feeling was stronger and prices rallied 2½@5c and the market closed comparatively steady. Shipping demand was limited and offerings were light. Cash lots were quotable at $6 62½@6 75 according to weight.

MAY—In fair demand, and offerings were moderate. Sales were made at $6 80@6 82½. Opened at $6 82½, sold to $6 80@6 82½, to $6 82½ to $6 80, to $6 85, to $6 82½, and closed steady.

JULY—Offerings were moderately free, and the demand was fairly active. Sales were made at $6 95@7 02½. Opened at $6 95 to $7 00, sold to $6 97½@7 00, to $7 00, to $6 97½, to $7 00, to $7 02½, to $7 00, and closed steady.

Other Meats—Trade was only moderate and the feeling rather steady. Offerings were only fair. Demand was moderate for the home trade. Export inquiry very small. Green Meats were in moderate supply and rather light demand, and prices ruled steady. Pickled Meats were in only fair request to fill small orders and prices were unchanged. Dry Salted Meats were in fair demand in a quiet way and prices ruled easier. Smoked Meats called for in fair quantities, especially in a jobbing way, and prices were unchanged. Closing ranged as follows:

THE HOP SITUATION.

[New York Producers' Price Current, March 28.]

On the Hop market scarcely anything is doing between dealers, and brewers are all holding off. It is well known that many brewers have run down their stock of Hops very low, and sooner or later will be compelled to purchase, but they are waiting until the last moment in hopes of a turn in prices in their favor. The general situation remains the same, as holders of only fine Hops are confident and show no disposition to hurry matters, though some holders of poorer grades are showing some nervousness. On the Coast trading continues quite dull, holders there also showing increasing anxiety and seeking fliers. In this State the snow is off the ground in most producing sections, and growers, judging from past experiences, think the roots have wintered very well indeed. On the Coast there has been abundant rain, which is beneficial except in the low lands and river bottoms, where they have been bothered some by bugs—what in Oregon and California work is starting up in the yards wherever possible.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET.

BOSTON, March 28.—The Commercial Bulletin says: "The Wool market is steady and there is a fairly active business in small lots. The increased demand for fine grades, including domestic fleeces, Territory and Australian, is a feature of the week. There has been no shading of prices as yet, to any extent, but dealers are anxious to clean up stocks as closely as possible, making way for the new clip. Boston buyers are leaving the West, but important operations have not yet been closed. The London auction sales closed firm at prices 5 to 10 per cent higher for cross breds and at par to 5 per cent lower for merinos than the January rates.

"The shipments of Wool from Boston to date from Dec. 31, 1901, are 56 614,021 lbs, against 61,767,-355 lbs at the same date last year. The receipts to date are 70 172 lbs, against 75,342 483 lbs for the same period last year."

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

There is a trace of rain at Dodge, Kan., and there is no rain in Oklahoma. There are good rains in Missouri, light rains in Iowa and Northern Nebraska and light rains over Illinois and the Ohio Valley. Where the rain is most needed there is no rain—in the Southwest. Temperatures are spring-like everywhere.

Indications are for continued unsettled weather.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

Fire in New York Saturday destroyed the Adams Express and adjoining buildings, causing a loss of $250 000.

The newspaper advertising agency of Pettingill & Co., Boston, have failed. Liabilities, $1,000,000; assets $2,0,0,0.

Mississippi builders in session at Mexico, Mo., Tuesday, went out reports that the Wheat crop was looking excellent.

The Ohio Fuel Supply Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent, payable April 15. Books close April 7.

A Boston party estimates dividend disbursements for March to be $12,,8 0 0, against $12,,75,133 six months ago and $10,2,9,41 in April, 1901.

Stockholders of the New York, Chicago and St. Louis Railroad Company will hold their annual meeting on May 4. Books close April 6 and reopen May 8.

Directors of the First National Bank, Chicago, Tuesday, declared the regular quarterly dividend of 3 per cent, payable March 31 to stockholders of record March 20.

Broomhall's London cable: "The Chancellor of the Exchequer says that the present intention is to reimpose the duty on imports of cereals into the United Kingdom."

Colonel Lambs sold at Chicago this week at 86 1/8, being within 10c of the high point of the season, which was Jan. 25, when the first Colorado-Mexican Lambs received this year sold at 86 25.

Director Sage of the Iowa weather crop bureau is quoted as saying: "I have made no personal examination, but personal reports show clearly that Professor Hadden is right about the poor germinating quality of Kansas Corn."

According to an official bulletin, in the first ten days of March Italy experienced rainy weather in the North and Centre, fine elsewhere. The condition of Wheat crop was satisfactory, although rather too forward for the season. Cultivation for Corn planting was proceeding.

The Philadelphia Record says that the freight congestion on the Pennsylvania Railroad prevents us from the closing down of some of the mills of the Glasgow Iron Company at Pottstown, Pa., which are out of Coal, and that other plants are also in danger.

The London Stock Exchange has granted an application of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway for a quotation of $40,000,000 twenty-five year 4 per cent gold bonds. Application is made for a quotation of Mexican Central Railway Company $4 132,000 additional consolidated mortgage 4s of 1911.

According to one of the reorganization committee, the adjourned annual meeting of the Lake Street Elevated to be held Thursday will be a very formal affair. Everything has been agreed to and nearly all the securities have been exchanged. Deposits of stocks are enough to assure that the small assessment called for will be paid.

The Listing Committee of the New York Stock Exchange is considering the advisability of listing interim certificates representing new Northern Securities stocks, though no formal application has been made and it is expected that the Northern Securities Company is expected shortly to submit to the Stock Exchange, in this connection, a statement of its condition.

A message from Governor Cox, Ill., Tuesday, said: "The grading of Corn in April, May and June will be worse than at any time during the winter. Soft and rotted leaves the ear Corn it is nearly impossible to shell it, and the Corn is poor next to the cob. There is some good Corn but a great deal that will not be better than No. 4 and No 5 grade. Shipping Corn is going to be scarce."

The American Car and Foundry plant at Madison, Ill., has almost completed its repair contracts, and will commence the manufacture of new cars on April 1. The first order received is for 500 cars for the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific Railway, for whom 450 Coke and 500 Coal cars will be completed in five days, according to contract. This order will be followed by one of 1,000 box cars for the 'Frisco system.

The following are the export returns from Argentina the 30th of the month, Department of the Ministry of Agriculture, the National Statistical Department, and the River Plate Review:

All indications point to a late opening of lake navigation this season. Not only because the severe winter will in all likelihood keep the Straits of Mackinac closed by ice much longer than usual, but also because vessel owners, particularly of the large fleets, such as the Pittsburg Steamship Company, which operates the vessel fleet of the United States Steel Corporation, are bent on a thorough understanding with labor before the season's work is commenced.

Dornbusch's Buda Pesth correspondent, writing under date of March 12, says of Flour: "Dealers and consumers being overstocked, the market has this week been quite lifeless; even second-hand sellers could not make progress, notwithstanding their extremely low offers, and the week closes with a weak and depressed tone. Reports on old contracts have been irregular, some mills reporting fair progress, others complaining of a heavy shortening. Feeding stuffs ruled quiet in the absence of stock."

A Dupont International Powder interest says: "Out of a total of 180,000 shares of International company common stock, 160,0 0 shares have now been exchanged, and the Dupont Powder Company owns all but about 20,000 shares. The quarterly dividend just declared by the International Smokeless Powder Company of three-fourths of 1 per cent puts the Dupont funds in the treasury of the International Powder Company for the payment of the first quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent on its preferred stock in April."

President Thomas of the Lehigh Valley is quoted as saying in reference to the discussion of dividends this summer, that the matter has not come before the board in any way. The earnings to March 1st are about 1½ per cent in excess, but it is doubtful whether for the remaining months there can be earned anything like the $2,500,000 realized last year. It is probable that about 2,000,0 0 tons of Coal will be accumulated for Western consumption and it takes considerable capital to carry this Coal until sold and paid for.

John Waterman, president of the Manhattan Trust Company, has been elected the third member of the committee which was appointed by the bondholders of the Fore River Ship and Engine Company to examine into the matter of the raising of $1,400,0 0 additional capital needed by the company to pay off the floating debt, complete the plant, and provide working capital. Mr. Waterman represents the New York interest of about $300,0 0 of the bonds of the Fore River Company.

The Commercial Trust Company, Indianapolis, Ind., closed its doors Monday, in pursuance of a suit brought in the Superior Court by the State Auditor for the appointment of a receiver. The president of the company said that his company would be able to pay depositors in full next year, though the stockholders would suffer losses. The company has nearly 2,0 0 depositors, only five or six having more than $10 0 0. The company has $150,000 paid up stock. Judge Carter appointed the Union Trust Company receiver.

One of the stockholders and former managers of the Heela Portland Cement and Coal Company has filed a sensational bill in the United States Circuit Court at Detroit, Mich., asking for a change of receiver. The bill alleges all sorts of lapses on the part of directors. It states that they have been worried by the bad condition of affairs, and wants that amount returned to the treasury. It asks to have the Detroit Trust Company removed as receiver on the ground that it is an interested party. The Heela Portland Company's buildings represent $2,8 0,0 0 of investment.

With Oregon Short Line participating is selling at 84¾, with coupon off last month. It is interesting to observe that the underwriting syndicate that underwrote the $10,0 5,000 of Common Stock 5 per cent notes at 88½ retains an option on $13,500,-000 of these Corn bonds at 92½ and interest. There is a rather handsome profit in the underwriting of this option under present market conditions. Since the right to purchase the bonds does not go into effect until March 1, 1903, and since the bonds are operating in the country on the corresponding basis of prices paid here. Sales of car lots within the past few days have transpired at 66c to 66c and 65c on track here, with offerings of fair to considerable quantity of our Postoffices to be had for shipment across the border."

The receiver of the Tennessee Oil, Gas and Mineral Development Company, which filed in the Court of Chancery at Trenton, N. J., Thursday, a bill of complaint against William A Dunn and other directors of the company, saying that they be required to give security for the preservation of the value of the company's property. The receiver claims he has been unable to find any property representing anything like the $1,000,000 worth of stock issued. He further charges that the lands acquired by the company have not been productive and that the company was organized purely for speculation.

The directors of the Detroit United Railway made the quarterly dividend of 1 per cent on the common stock recently declared, payable May 1, instead of April 1. It is explained that more than a year past the active officers of the company have been urging the board of directors to change the dates of the payment of the dividend from January, April, July and October to second months, so that it would not fall due on the same date that the coupon interest is due. The board of directors has had this matter on its calls matter until the present time, when they decided to make the change.

It is understood that the American Pneumatic Service Company is in negotiation with the New York Central company and that there will be no acquisition of that property, and that the negotiations are based upon an exchange of stock for such acquisition. Inquiries have been demanded a year or more ago, when the American company sought the control of the New York company. By April it is expected that the American Pneumatic Service Company will be actively engaged both in St. Louis and Chicago under Government contracts, as construction work upon the pneumatic tubes in both cities is about completed.

The Southern Railway is said to be arranging to fund into five-year bonds the $4 0 0,0 0 collateral trust bonds due Dec 1, 1902, and various certificates of indebtedness aggregating $4,0 0,0 0 from time to time since 1897 for the purchase of railway and other property, collateral trust bonds and certificates of indebtedness aggregate about $14,0 0,0 0. The president of the company says: "The funds for the proposed negotiations does not increase the fixed charges of the company, but really diminishes them. The purchased properties are earning interest on more than they cost. The company is not seeking additional money and does not need it."

A special, Monday, from Hunsboldt to the Des Moines Register and Leader said: "Humboldt County farmers are having a hard time to get seed Corn this year. That tested has shown itself to be poor, only a small per cent of that which ought to grow, and this fact makes it very important that the farmers should make a thorough test before planting, or else they have good chances of wasting their time and labor. The tests at Humboldt College recently on Corn show that only about two-fourths of that planted will grow at all. There seems to be an advantage in the seed Corn for seed purposes that was not allowed to freeze."

The annual report of the Bell Telephone Company of Philadelphia, for the year ended December 31, 1902, shows that at the end of the year the number of instruments in service was 67,268, a net gain of 8,271 Receipts from all sources aggregated $2,857,-703, an increase of $297,717. The year's expenses amounted to $1,927,583, an increase of $256 218. The net earnings were $930 210, an increase of $101,499. Out of the total net earnings, dividends were declared and paid for 1902 to the amount of $838 908 greater than in 1901. The balance, which was added to the surplus fund, was $77,783, while in the preceding year there was a deficit after dividends of $9,9,6,0. The total of surplus is now $9 8,5 0.

A comparative decrease in the amount of Grain brought to Chicago last week by the Western railroads is attributed to bad country roads. The total receipts of Grain last week were 3,81 0,0 0 bu, while the previous week's receipts were 4,068,0 0 bu, and in the corresponding week of last year to 2,171,0 0 bu. The Illinois Central leaped into first place last week as a grain carrier, having 4 per cent of the total traffic. The St. Paul system was second with 29 per cent, and the Northwestern third with 17 per cent. The Burlington, which was the leader among the lines last month, had but 13 per cent of last week's traffic The Rock Island had 7 per cent and the Great Western, Alton, and Eastern Illinois each had 3 per cent.

In F. Loudoun's annual report of the Corn Products Co. of own $65,000 of preferred stock and $250,000 of common stock, but I claim that if I only owned one share of stock I should have the same right to information as the largest individual holders. The earnings for the past year amounted to $5,0 0,-000 net, an amount sufficient to pay the regular 4 per cent dividend on the common stock and leave a handsome surplus for the year. This is the best for two unfortunate fires at Chicago and Oswego, N. Y., necessitating the expenditure out of net earnings of $1,2 0,0 0 1. If the stockholders had been informed of these circumstances and the amount involved, the same as the directors, they would not have sacrificed their stock at these low prices."

According to the Tacoma Ledger, large quantities of Barley are being bought for the very Oriental steamship from that port in the last few weeks having taken its share. Besides that taken directly from Tacoma, local and San Francisco steamers have been carrying Barley to the Canadian side to be transshipped to the Orient on the Empress line of steamships The steamer Ping Suey, of the Liverpool-Tacoma line, has loaded more than 2,000 tons of Barley, and the Empress has took out about 1,000 tons last month, and the next big liner, the Shawmut, will carry about 1,000 tons. During the past three months quantities have been shipped to Victoria and Vancouver to be transferred to the Oriental liners touching at these ports.

Bernhelm of March 15 says: "In France the weather is favorable for field work, and there are not many complaints about the growing crops. According to the Petit Journal of Paris, which has made a special inquiry regarding stocks of Wheat in farmers' hands in France, the amount on hand on March 1 was 60,02,0 0 hectolitres, or 168,0 0,0 0 bu, this being about 6 per cent of the last crop. The ordinary consumption (for food and seeding seed) is about 2 ,6 0,0 0 bu per month, so that 122,-600,0 0 bu would be required from March 1 to July 31 (five months), thus indicating, if the Petit Journal's calculation is approximately correct, that there will be about 46,000,0 0 bu to be carried forward into the new season. Last year the quantity carried forward was estimated at only 12,0 0,0 0 bu."

A telegram from Wichita, Kan., to Kansas City heats rumors of a coming fight for control of the Union Pacific in connection with the settlement of the Northern Securities case. Two loans, one for $7,0 0,0 0 and the second for $10,0 0,0 0, with Union Pacific stock as collateral, have been made in Wall Street, and the prevailing belief is they were made on behalf of interests associated with James J. Hill. Wall Street believes the Argonaut Hill interests are trying to secure a large interest in Union Pacific, with a view to influencing it to accept their plan for distributing the merger assets. The Hill interests are also reported trying to be used to buy Union Pacific stock, and that a friendly settlement is impossible. There is talk of replevin and restraining suits.

There are all kinds of reports coming from the Southwest regarding the Wheat crop. Monday, three different reports came from one station. One said a rain of the Wheat was killed; another only 10 per cent, and a third that they would get 75 per cent of a crop. One report for Texas estimated the Wheat crop of Texas and Oklahoma as per cent, and the Texas and Oklahoma winter wheat counties in Indian Territory and Oklahoma showed a condition of 83.1 on an acreage of 95.5 of last year's, and said with a reasonable supply of moisture the crop will be 25,000,0 0 bu. Reports from twenty-six counties of Central-Western and Southern Kansas, extending into Oklahoma and Indian Territory, showed a fair average prospect, the worst being for the north part of the crop and the best for 85,0 0 per cent of last year's.

All reports continue to indicate that extraordinary precaution will have to be taken by the farmer this year in selecting seed Corn. A report was going around, Monday, that in one test only 65 per cent had shown germinating properties. Seed man of wide experience said: "Seed Corn is scarce in some sections. Germ test in some varies from 75c to $2 00 per bu All the farmers' institutes in the various States have sent out warning to farmers to be careful about seed planting. The trouble appears to be that the Corn was very wet and was frozen hard by the cold weather last November and remained frozen all winter. Instead of freezing out the germ, as it usually does, it has in previous years. The hard freeze appears to have weakened the germ, and that is the only explanation I can see. It will be necessary for farmers this year to plant more seed than usual, and age to provide for the loss in the quality of their Seed."

The president of the Cleveland and Pittsburg Railroad Company, leased to the Pennsylvania, makes the following explanation to the stockholders regarding the new issue of stock: "The general mortgage bonds provide that the proceeds of bonds issued, shall be used for the purpose of reimbursing the Pennsylvania Railroad for expenditures on your line, as now practically exhausted and further issues cannot be legally made Pennsylvania Railroad is willing that all future expenditures and betterments which shall be necessary shall be represented by a further issue of stock upon which the Pennsylvania will guarantee a dividend of 4 per cent per annum. The law provides that either stocks or bonds may be issued, but it is clearly to your interest that stocks should be issued instead of bonds, as no time limit is fixed for seeking additional money and does not need it."

Creek, Mich. The Chicago plants have never been used for much more than experiments During the last few months we have introduced "the cereal foods known as 'Zest' and 'Appetite,' and the popularity of the new brands has made it necessary to find ample facilities for manufacturing them. Such have been secured at Battle Creek. The company simply has made temporary arrangements there, and plants may be built later. The new plan will, of course, reduce the working force in Chicago plants, but no reduction in the further experimental work is taken up. The new brands of goods mentioned have a large sale in the New England States. The new Michigan location will be in the heart of the largest labor and cereal products, and also is nearer to the largest market for the new goods."

A New York dispatch says: "It is a matter of common comment in the financial circles in New York that a powerful interest in the Stock market has been terribly squeezed last week on the 'short' side by combined interests even more powerful. The transactions are supposed to be in addition to the identity of the principal or principals behind these commitments and of the extent of their losses and their 'short' lines. Wall Street has a fair knowledge of the situation of the kind and seldom makes mistakes. It is not generally known, but it nevertheless is a fact, that the Moore-Reid interest, after considerable trouble, has got back for two unfortunate fires at Chicago and Oswego, N. Y., necessitating the expenditure out of net earnings of $1,2 0,0 0 1. If the stockholders had been informed of these circumstances and the amount involved, the same as the directors, they would not have sacrificed their stock at these low prices."

The declaration of a 4 per cent annual dividend by the Conard Steamship Company, following the 6 per cent declaration by the Hamburg-American line, raises the question of what will be shown by the Mercantile Marine Company in June. Up to this time the Mercantile Marine Company has made no statement as to whether earnings exceed interest requirements and operating expenses.

In Local Securities trading was light, but prices moved irregularly. City Railway and Illinois Brick preferred gained 1 point, and Biscuit preferred ⅛. Diamond Match was steady and other shares lower Cotton in New York averaged higher. Spinners bought the near crop months and "shorts" evened up for the holidays. The New Orleans "bull" leaders were buying on small receipts. Closing sales were at gains of 20@27 points.

A Salt Lake, Utah, special says: "The Majestic Copper Mining and Smelting Company has been placed in the hands of a receiver. A petition to have the company declared an involuntary bankrupt has been filed in the Federal Court by creditors."

Stocks in New York were bid up in the first hour, with Steel preferred and People's Gas leading, the latter gaining 2⅝ points London did a little buying, but traders were mostly "bearish," and in later dealings sold the market off The close, however, was irregular, with about as many gains as losses. Money, 1½ to 1¾ per cent

The Cincinnati Price Current, in its weekly crop summary, says: "It is too cool for Wheat growth. There is ample moisture, excepting in extreme West. Condition is practically unchanged. There is a basis for medium results, with fairly favorable future. Bad roads restrict Grain movement. Oats seeding delayed"

The Cincinnati Price Current reports the packing of the West for the week at 300,000 Hogs, compared with 370,000 for the week previous, and 355,000 for the corresponding week in 1903. Aggregate packing since March 1 reported at 1,455,000 Hogs, compared with 1,405,000 for the corresponding time last year—an increase of 50,000 Hogs.

A Boston dispatch says: "A steady demand holds in the Wool market, both domestic and foreign. The call for medium and low Wools is active, but the scarcity of the domestic product has turned the attention of buyers to the finer Wools, or foreign cross breds Pulled and Territory Wools are firm, with supplies moderate Foreign Wools are steady and firm."

The Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company, Tuesday, issued a circular to all Coal dealers in Philadelphia and along its lines reducing the price of domestic sizes of anthracite 50c, the reduction to take effect April 1. No change is made in lump, pea or buckwheat sizes The Pennsylvania Railroad Coal companies will not issue a circular, but will follow the action of the Reading company.

REVIEW OF TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

FLOUR—The market is ruling quiet, with no quotable change in prices

WINTER WHEAT—Was steady. A fair demand existed on milling account and the receipts small and not sufficient to establish a market, which was nominally same as yesterday No 2 Red in store quotable at 98c@$1 01⅛ depending on location, and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at $1 00@1 05 outside for fancy No 3 Red fresh receipts free on board quotable at 95c@$1 03 for dark to choice bright soft Wheat. No. 2 Hard local sold at 97c and was quotable at 94@97c. No. 3 Hard local sold at 90c and was quotable at 87@95c.

SPRING WHEAT—The market was not so firm and the top prices were quotably about 1c lower than yesterday's extremes. A fair demand existed on milling account and sales of 30,000 bu of No 1 Northern were made at ¼c over May price. A few cars of fresh arrivals of the lower grades were also sold. No 1 Northern in store quotably 95⅞@96⅞c, and fresh arrivals free on board ranged at 98c@$1 01. No. 3 Spring, fancy hard variety, sold at 98c and ranged down to 88c for ordinary. No 4 Spring sold at 71@83c for ordinary to fair and ranged at 65@93c for poor to very choice

REGULAR WHEAT—A good trade and much stronger tone early, but later on became easier with the close ⅛c higher for the May, ¼c better for July, while the September lost a fraction. The firm cables, strength in the Northwestern markets, cash situation and bulge in the coarse Grains were the "bull" helps at the start, also the moderate receipts. "Shorts" covered May quite freely and the Southwest was also credited with buying. At the advances established offerings increased and prices settled back. The financial troubles at Cleveland and Boston, rains through the Winter Wheat belt and more favorable reports from the Southwest were among the "bear" influences. Argentine shipments were estimated at 3,040,000 bu. Minneapolis claimed the mills would close down indefinitely again to-morrow night. Primary receipts were 130,000 bu smaller than a year ago Receipts July 1 to March 28 aggregate 199,813 000 bu, against 233,401 000 bu in 1902-3 and 210,021,000 bu in 1901-2. Flour output the past week 323 050 brls; year ago, 343,160 brls. Liverpool quoted spot steady to ¼d higher; futures ¼@⅜d higher. Paris was steady to ½c higher. Antwerp was unchanged Berlin advanced ⅜c and Buda Pesth 1½c. London quoted cargoes on ocean passage firm, with buyers more disposed to meet sellers Map showed rains in Eastern Kansas and heavy rains in Missouri Nebraska, Illinois, Iowa, and Ohio Valley—no rain in Oklahoma Predictions are for showers in most of the Winter Wheat States Advices from the Northwest stated farmers' deliveries continue very light. Sydney, N S W estimated that 17,000,000 bu Wheat was available for export Price Current claimed weather was too cool for Wheat growth but that there was ample moisture except in the extreme West; there is a basis for medium results with fairly favorable future Kansas City and St Louis received 34 000 bu, against 123,000 bu last year, and the shipments 185,000 bu Duluth stocks are expected to increase 150,000 bu this week, and Minneapolis increased 150,000 bu in five days Exports were most limited and but 8 boat loads taken at the seaboard Local sales 30,000 bu No 1 Northern at ¼c over May. Receipts at Duluth 50 cars and at Minneapolis 152 cars, a total of 202 cars, against 360 cars yesterday, 297 cars a week ago, and 221 cars last year. Local receipts included 9 cars Winter 3 cars Spring and 7 cars mixed, a total of 19 cars, against 24 cars last year Included in the above was none of contract grade. There were 13 cars and no bu taken from unlicensed elevators. The estimated receipts for to-morrow not reported Withdrawals were 81,900 bu. Receipts at Western points were 289,078 bu, against 419,462 bu last year At Eastern points 136,731 bu, against 28,450 bu last year. Shipments from Western points were 279,391 bu, against 221,832 bu last year, and from Eastern points 4,173 bu, against 16 000 bu last year. Shipments of Flour were 14 340 brls. Exports of Wheat in Flour were equal to 68,683 bu

CORN—Was fairly active, but the trade was not as large or general as yesterday Feeling, however, was stronger and local temper "bullish," and while extreme figures were not maintained, the close showed gains of ⅛c and ⅝@¾c. The "bull" party was again prominent on the buying side of the market, but part of the commission house selling was credited to the same interest. Professional "longs" also sold on the advance Trade mainly in July, the May acting nervous and congested. The wet weather through the Corn belt, adverse Argentine crop news and further claims of poor Corn in Illinois and Iowa were the "bull" helps. Receipts were 121 cars, making 4 657 cars for March, against 6,332 cars last year Liverpool spot ¼d lower to ½d higher and futures ¼d higher Omaha wired No. 3 Corn was selling there at 50c Receipts at primary markets were small, 224,000 bu, against 345,000 bu last year. Shipments 246,000 bu and 356,000 bu respectively. Southwestern markets were all higher, and more rain indicated for Corn belt. Exports 176,000 bu; last year 172 000 bu. Acceptances at the seaboard 3 loads Local shipping demand moderate and sales 40,000 bu. Transfers from private to public elevators 6,200 bu and 77 cars Car lots again strong and ½@1c higher. Offerings small and demand good. No 2 sold at 56½c and closed at 56½c No. 2 Yellow sold at 56¼@56½c, and closed at 56½c. No 2 White sold at 56½c. No. 3 sold at 53¼c for Nebraska and closed at 48@54c. No 3 White sold at 53¼c. No. 3 Yellow closed at 51@54c.

Corn by sample—Was in good demand with the offerings small Feeling strong and prices unchanged to 1c higher. Sales on track and free on board: No Grade sold at 43@47½c. SEPTEMBER—Sold at 51⅞@52⅜c. Opened at 52⅛c to 52c and sold at 52½c, to 52⅛c, to 52¼c, to 52c, to 52¼c to 52c, to 52⅜c, to 51⅞c, to 52c, and closed at 52c asked.

OATS—Were affected by the bulge in Corn and by heavy rains over the West. Small receipts—130 cars—also had a good influence Prices advanced ⅛@½c early, May leading, and declined ⅜@½c on general taking of profits. But a rally came late in the day, and closing sales were at almost the same as yesterday's. Trading was active and general. "Shorts" evened up for the holidays. There were 26 cars Standard out of private elevators. Withdrawals from regular houses were 13,300 bu Standard. Seaboard clearances were 11,000 bu. Cash sales here were 25,000 bu and New York sold 60 000 bu Car lots to go to store were steady. Standard closed about 41@41½c as to location.

BARLEY—For good malting Barley there continued some inquiry. Steadiness of prices quotable; former prices obtainable. Market sparsely supplied with good, and no high grades in the spot offerings. Low grade malting without special demand. Only a light inquiry for feed and mixing account. Offerings small also; badly damaged, musty, very hard to sell. To arrive lots of good to choice malting firmly held and some demand exists, but prices asked were a little above the views of buyers. Posted inspected in 12 cars. Screenings were quotable at 30@39c for poor to very choice outside for city recleaned, and small sales made at 30@38c. Barley, mixing, about 37@39c local, depending on soundness and color, nice bright, suitable for some special want up to 40c; little doing Feed Barley about 38@40c for good; musty below. Malting—low grade, 40@41c, common, 42@44c; fair was about 45@47c; good, 48@52c; choice, 53@55c, fancy above

SEEDS—Were generally steady. On account of warm weather the feeling in Grass Seeds was a little stronger. Clover, the only kind showing any change, was a shade higher. Flax was nominally firm

Timothy—Was quotably steady. Offerings were not so large as they have been and comprised Seed of good to poor quality, there were no high grades Latter no doubt would sell well and such lots as were offered were placed without much trouble No change in prices developed Future deliveries remain neglected and nominal. There were cash sales over a range of $2 20@2 75 for common rough to good Seed, and country lots quotable at $2 00@2 75 for poor to very fancy; outside would have to be extra fine not hulled fair to good quotable at $2 40@2 45, choice $2 50@2 55, and rough dark and foul lots about $2 25@2 35 Contract spot or April delivery nominally $2 90 September salable at $3 00; not on sale under about $3 25

*Minnesota, Dakota and Iowa mills outside of Minneapolis and Duluth.

†Flour made by mills outside of St. Louis, but controlled in that city

Last week the mills ran only about half time. The result was that the Flour output was about cut in two, it being 163,000 brls smaller than in the week before. There were seventeen mills running to-day, and they were grinding at a rate to produce about 310,000 brls for the current week. However, with Flour the dullest since last summer, conditions are ripe for a further curtailment at any time.

Minneapolis mills last week experienced a very dull business in Flour With the production only about half as large as at the same time in other years, sales probably did not much exceed the quantity turned out Buyers, having little faith in present high prices of Wheat, bought accordingly. Then shipping directions on old orders failed to materialize as fast as millers needed them. As it is, the mills are running mainly on old business and are fast catching up on old orders.

Foreign trade is dead. Resellers seem to be doing what business there is going, and importers fail to even answer cables. Clears appear about as slow of sale as is Patent.

Under such conditions, it is a difficult matter to understand why Wheat should steadily advance.

Mills almost unanimously pronounce the past week one of exceedingly dull trade, with not much demand and orders confined to small lots to fill immediate wants Export business was scarcely worth mentioning, as foreigners' views continue to range lower than the basis on which Flour values may be named with the price of Wheat at its present high point There is little more to be said of a very unsatisfactory market. Many mills suspended operations last week and others contemplate doing so. Lack of orders and of good milling Wheat are the chief causes. In Michigan and the Ohio Valley country quite a number of millers are protecting their property against damage by floods and have little time to devote to making or selling Flour. The railway blockade is easing and much stuff has been loosened up to go Eastward. This had an appreciable effect on the supply of Flour and millfeed available for use in Eastern markets.

LATE PLANTING OF WHEAT.

[Correspondence of New York Evening Post.]

The Wheat belt south of Central Nebraska is devoted to Winter Wheat. The farmers of the West are generally attempting to handle a larger area than they can easily till. As a result, they have in the past few years prolonged their Wheat sowing until very late in the season. While the 1st of October is considered a proper time for sowing, it is no unusual thing to see the drills running in the early days of December, and out on the Western plains where Wheat raising has become a speculation, it even continues until after the holidays. The result is that the plant is very small, having little opportunity for fall growth.

Harvest comes in early June. In ninety days there must be a full development from the root to the tall, heavy laden Grain At present the Wheat in Oklahoma is high enough to cover the ground, and except that the ground is very dry, it is doing well. In Kansas and Nebraska the plant is small but healthy, and light moisture during the past ten days has given it a start which, with a continuation of rains or late snows, will bring it into the spring rain season. But it is the weather which will settle the fortunes of the Winter Wheat farmer

REPORT OF STATE BANKS OF CHICAGO.

Deposits of State Banks and Trust Companies in Chicago increased nearly $17,000,000 from Dec. 30 to March 22, but loans were expanded only a little over $250,000. There was a consequent increase of $13,700,000 in cash resources of the banks, and an addition of about one-third of that amount to the investment accounts of the banks The following table shows the aggregate changes of thirty State Banks and Trust Companies in the city in their items of deposits, loans and cash means:

	Mar. 22, 1904.	Dec 30, 1903
Deposits	$250,360 319	$233,432,347
Loans and discounts	155,092,843	154,834,052
Cash resources	83,501,941	69,785,000

FRENCH WHEAT RESERVES.

In most of the Eastern provinces and in some parts of the North the area under Wheat this year is rather less than last year, but in other parts of the country the acreage is about the same or rather more Field labor has been carried out under fairly favorable conditions, but it is somewhat behindhand There has this year been comparatively little damage done to the growing plants, although the excessive wet, and rats, mice, and slugs have made appreciable ravages. The crop situation, however, can be generally considered satisfactory.

Below is given the estimated reserves of Wheat in bushels in farmers' hands on March 1:

District—	Bushels.	Percentage of last crop.
Northwest	17,056 000	47.13
North	39,772 800	42 08
Northeast	8,384,000	31.80
West	30,709 600	52.47
Central	23,477,000	52.12
East	14,504,000	38.12
Southwest	17,110 400	51.28
South	8,787,000	49.52
Southeast	6,820,000	39.38
Total	166,464,000

This gives a total estimate, on the lowest basis, of 166,400,000 bu Taking the consumption for the remaining five months of the cereal at 9 000,000 hectolitres per month there would be a surplus of about 15,000,000 hectolitres (40,000,000 bu) to carry over into the next campaign. These figures do not take into consideration the stocks in the hands of dealers and millers or the remnants of former crops.

THE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Unsettled weather is probable for the next 24 hours Temperatures will be somewhat lower in this district Friday.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

Wabash net earnings decreased $153,800 in February.

The private banking firm of E. O. Miller & Co., at Providence, Iowa, failed. It is believed it can pay 50c on the dollar

The Pittsburg Oil and Gas Company has declared a dividend of 2 per cent, payable April 15. Books close March 31 and reopen April 16.

Directors of the Pullman Loan and Savings Bank, Chicago, have declared the regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent, payable April 1.

The New York Journal of Commerce estimates the April dividend disbursements of industrial corporations at $22 300,000 over those of April, 1903.

The Philadelphia Company of Pittsburg has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent on the common stock, payable May 2, as registered April 1.

The sheds, office, and entire stock of the Cahill & Lampert Lumber Company, Janesville, Minn., were destroyed by fire, Tuesday. The loss is $50,000; partly insured.

Erie earnings for February show a decrease of $354,000 in gross and $681,000 in net. This decrease in the net makes the total decrease for eight months from July 1, 1903, $2,085,000.

An Omaha, Neb, dispatch, Wednesday, said: "We have not had a single damage report from any of our stations in Nebraska. Rains all over the State. Movement is increasing "

The bonded stocks in the French seaports on March 1 were 1,511,600 bu (1,502,720 bu Wheat and equal to 8,880 bu Flour), compared with 1,351,930 bu March 1, 1903, and 740,000 bu on March 1, 1902.

In the period between Dec. 30 and March 22 savings deposits of the Chicago banks increased $4,572,909. This is 4.1 per cent, and compares with 7 25 per cent that the total deposits increased in the same period.

The Pennsylvania Supreme Court has perpetually enjoined the Jones & Loughlin Steel Company from such operation of its furnaces in Pittsburg as to produce clouds of ore dust that would injure surrounding property.

The directors of the American Locomotive Company have approved the purchase of the Montreal plant The $1,000,000 indebtedness of the Montreal company will be paid, as it falls due, with cash out of the treasury of the American company.

Messages from Minneapolis, Tuesday, said the millers there will probably close down some of the mills again until next Monday. Friday is a holiday, and at this time of the year it is always customary to have some of the mills close down. It is nothing unusual.

Regarding the matter of dividends, it is confidently expected by many Box Board people that the Straw Board Company will make some disbursement on its stock before the present year is out for the benefit of the United company The latter holds 97 per cent of the stock and will absorb the bulk of the payment

The following companies have applied to the New York Stock Exchange to list the following securities: New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company, $1,098,000 additional capital stock. Central of Georgia Railway Company, $150,000 additional Chattanooga division purchase money mortgage 4 per cent bonds of 1951.

A Rosario cable to a Chicago firm, Wednesday, said: 'Corn gathered so far is wet and in a damaged condition. The Corn plant is 15 per cent cobs and is sprouting. Harvest is going on slowly, owing to scarcity of bands, and too much rain will delay one month. All depends on the state of the weather. Cold and dry weather much wanted. The general estimate of surplus of the crop is 80,000,000 bu. My estimate, 60,000,000 bu "

A New York telegram says. "It is about the period now for the declaration of dividends on Great Northern and Northern Pacific, and if the holdings of those stocks in the Northern Securities treasury are distributed before the closing of the books, the new holders will receive the dividend in usual course, but if the stocks remain pledged as they are it will be a matter of doubt whether this coming dividend can ever be paid."

One of the organizers and a director of the Allis-Chalmers Company was, Wednesday, quoted as saying that he believed the board of directors would suspend payments on the preferred stock for a while The departure recently made in the electrical line, he said, would necessitate more money, and as the company did not care to go into the street for funds, earnings above operating charges would be used for the extensions planned

"From the Live Stock returns of the Transvaal," says the London Live Stock Journal, "it appears that at the end of 1903 there were 1,537,154 Horses and 6,701,610 Cattle in the colony, representing increases of 32 365 and 148,634 on the year respectively. The number of Sheep was returned at 25,630,797, or 125,309 fewer than were enumerated a year before. The total of Pigs is put at 2,686,529. Evidently the Transvaal, in spite of the drain caused by the war, is a well stocked country."

The manufacturers of railroad spikes are trying to form a pool in order to maintain present prices The Illinois Steel Company, the Tredegar Iron works, and Dilworth, Porter & Co of Pittsburg are said to be the leaders of the movement to form the pool. Spikes are selling now from $1 40 to $1 45 per hundredweight at the mills. It has been customary for the manufacturers of spikes to reduce prices during the summer months. If the pool is perfected it will mean considerable to the railroads planning much new or repair work during the summer. About 6,200 lbs of spikes are necessary to lay one mile of track.

As bearing upon the rumor that the General Electric Company will shortly declare a stock dividend to stockholders, comes the statement by the company that a special meeting of the stockholders will be held at Schenectady, N. Y., on Tuesday, May 10, 1904, for the purpose of voting upon a proposition to increase the capital stock by $3,325,500, so that the capital stock shall be increased from $45,000,000 to $48,325,500. The transfer books will be closed at 12 o'clock noon on Saturday, April 9, 1904, and will remain closed until Wednesday, May 11, 1904 The annual meeting of the company will be held the same day.

A correspondent of the Duluth Commercial Record at Hannaford, N. D., says: "Anent the discussion as to the amount of Wheat to still come forward, the following may be of interest: During the past month some 20,000 bu of Wheat has been shipped from this branch to Bozeman Milling Company They want all they can get. Several cars of seed Wheat have been shipped to Montana points. A representative of the Valley City mill spent several days looking for Wheat without much success. This mill, which is nearing completion, will use upwards of 3,000 bu a day, or over 500,000 bu before the new crop moves. Not much chance for terminals to get very much from this corner of the compass."

The present net earning capacity of the Bethlehem Steel Company is figured by United States Shipbuilding reorganization interests at not less than $2,500,000 yearly By next year it is expected to be increased to nearly $3,000,000 In 1903 the net earnings of the company were over $2,000,000, and it was operated under adverse conditions. For the year ending April 30, 1903, the net earnings were $2,518,261. It paid fixed charges underlying bonds of $517,550; depreciations to plant, $242,478; dividends to United States Shipbuilding Company, $250,000; adjustment of inventories, $146,872, and an additional adjustment of $250,000, besides adding to its surplus over $1,100,000. The company will enter the new combination with a working capital in excess of $1,000,000 and with contracts on hand figured as in excess of $10,000,000.

Heavy loss in traffic during the winter months and the increased cost of operating resulting from bad weather will probably cause stockholders of the North and West Chicago Street Railroad companies the loss of their quarterly dividends for the second time since the companies ratified amended leases with the Union Traction Company last summer. The North Chicago Company dividends, amounting to $118,400, are due April 15, and the West Chicago Company dividends, amounting to $99,893, are due May 15. While Judge Grosscup might order their payment, there is little probability that he will do so owing to the small earnings of the past quarter. During the winter the Union Traction Company has expended nearly $100,000 for the removal of snow in the downtown district alone. The total cost of removing snow almost equals the amount of the dividends.

The Chicago Inter Ocean says: "The reorganization of the Chicago General Railway Company of Chicago is now assured Some months ago a circular letter was sent to the holders of the bonds of the Chicago General Railway Company and of the West and South Towns Company, making an offer of 50 for the West and South Towns bonds and 10 for the Chicago General bonds. The source of this offer was not revealed, but the offer has been pretty generally accepted. At first it was looked on with considerable suspicion by the protective committees in the two classes of bonds, but since then both committees have indorsed the offer as being genuine and fair, and the bonds controlled by the committees will be bought under its terms. Over 90 per cent of both classes of bonds have been pledged under the offer, and the reorganization scheme is therefore declared to be assured."

A dispatch from Washington says: "Information has reached certain administration officials that the interests represented in the Northern Securities Company are formulating plans for the organization of a giant merger of all railroads in the United States. This new organization, it is said, will take the name of either the American Securities Company or the National Securities Company. The basis for this gigantic project is the decision of the Supreme Court, which did not abridge the right of any individual, or group of individuals, to control various railroad interests. It is maintained that a merger embracing thousands of miles of railroad not in competition would destroy the effect of the decision and that the argument that the merger was in restraint of trade would no longer be applicable. It is hinted that it is the intention eventually to merge all American shipping and water transportation."

The total Beet Sugar production of the United States for the season 1903-4 amounted to 208,135 tons, compared with 195,463 tons in the previous year, an increase of 12,672 tons. Nine new factories were established, making the total number in operation fifty-three, as against forty-four for the season of 1902-3. In volume of production, California leads, with an output of 60,608 tons from seven factories, although Michigan stands first as to the number of Beet Sugar plants operated, having twenty, whose production was 57,064 tons. Colorado comes next, with eight factories, producing 39,565 tons, and Utah next with seven factories, producing 20,670 tons. Nebraska has three factories, New York two and Wisconsin, Ohio, Minnesota, Oregon, Washington and Idaho one each. New factories are in the process of construction at Mount Pleasant and Charlevoix, Mich., and at Phoenix, Ariz. Work has begun also on a new factory at Sugar City, Idaho, and another one at Chippewa Falls, Wis.

Traffic officials of Western railroads are becoming alarmed over the agitation among Cattle raisers for lower freight rates and the abolition of many of the restrictions placed around Live Stock shipments. At a meeting of freight agents of Western roads, Wednesday, the principal topic discussed was the call for a meeting in Denver in May of representatives of all the associations of Cattle raisers and dealers in Live Stock. The railway officials fear the Live Stock interests may be powerful enough to secure national legislation as to the manner in which Live Stock traffic shall be handled by the railways. The consensus of opinion among officials attending Wednesday's meeting was that the railways should immediately adopt measures to placate the Live Stock shippers, without making any reduction in rates The first step probably will be a return to the custom of giving free return transportation to persons accompanying shipments of Live Stock. Although officially denied, certain railroads have been giving such transportation during the last month, contrary to the agreement of all the Western railroads.

The New York Times says: "In the small talk of Wall Street there have of late been many references to the somewhat amusing outcome of the deep laid plan to wrest control of the Greene Consolidated Copper Company from the hands of the men who had formed the company and transfer it to individuals who were thought to be more familiar with the ways of Wall Street, and who probably were, but who on this occasion were beaten at their own game. The incident seems to be one that shows that in Wall Street even the initiated are not safe from disappointment, and that the proverbial lamb is by no means the only loser. It is current gossip that when the pool broke up and each man began to look out for himself, only one member of the combination got out whole. It is said that the losses of the others followed in amount the order in which they withdrew from the Greene Copper market, leaving the original owners still in control, and ran from $100,000 to over $700,000. These figures, even if somewhat exaggerated, suggest very strongly that the way of the speculator is by no means always a path of roses."

A Boston firm, in a study of United States Leather Company stock as an investment, reach the following conclusion: "The company has an earning capacity in excess of the 6 per cent now being paid on the preferred stock. It has added materially to working capital from undistributed profits, the amount added during the last five years being about $4,000,000. The company is strong in assets, the fixed assets being equal to the current and bonded liabilities and to approximately $112 a share on the preferred stock. Owing to the dividends in arrear on the preferred stock, that issue has a prior lien on assets up to about $140 a share. The undivided surplus is steadily growing year after year, and if divided will be distributed to preferred stockholders. The common stock has no value apart from its voting power, the preferred stock having a prior lien on all present earnings and assets, and on practically all future prospects. It may be added in conclusion that the company's business is very stable. People must wear shoes, whether it be good times or bad. The company has little to fear from competition, because it has a practical monopoly of the available bark lands in the United States. On the present market price of the preferred stock the 6 per cent dividends yield the investor approximately 8 per cent."

The decline in Mexican Central reflects the belief current in well-formed circles that a $10 assessment will be levied on the stock in reorganization.

The machine shops of the Pittsburg, Pa., Valve, Foundry and Construction Company, were destroyed by fire, Tuesday. The loss will probably reach $200,000.

The Standard Oil Company, Tuesday, reduced quotations on all crude oils. The cut in the Pennsylvania product amounted to 3c, making the quotation $1 68. Other credit balances, including both high and low grades, were cut in proportion This is the fourth cut of 3c since March 1.

STREET PRODUCE MARKETS.

BUTTER—The receipts at Chicago (not including through shipment) for the days mentioned were as follows:

	This week. Tubs.	Last week. Tubs.	Last year. Tubs.
Monday............	4,085	3,051	5,992
Tuesday....	3,879	5,184	4,925
Wednesday........	2,768	3,277	4,864
Thursday..........	3,374	3,920	3,186
Friday.............	4,078	4,081	3,871
Total	18,184	19,513	22,838

A steady feeling exists all round. The situation remains practically unchanged, with fine and fancy makes taking the lead and the under grades sympathizing to some extent. There is good sale for all choice and fancy goods, which are wanted by home dealers for local use, and also to fill outside local orders. They keep well closed out, and receivers find ready sale for all consignments. Any goods off from fine or fancy, however, are meeting with only moderate sale. The receipts are fair and slightly less than last week and smaller than a year ago, which was partly due to the bad country roads, which kept farmers from getting to the factories with their milk.

Extras in Creameries are quotably firm at 24½c Demand is fair and offerings are only moderate.

June Creameries are dull. They can be bought at 16@19c, depending on quality.

Firsts in Creameries are quotably 19@20c. They are slow sale and unless very fancy holders find it slow work to clean up.

Seconds in Creameries are quiet and quotable at 14@16c.

Thirds in Creameries quotable at 14c.

Imitation Creameries in light supply and in light demand. Quotably about 16¼@17c.

Process Butter (renovated) is quotable at 16@17c per lb.

Ladles are quiet. Offerings light. Demand light. Quotably about 14@14½c for No. 1

Dairies are steady. The demand is fair and offerings moderate. Fine makes quotably 21c Firsts are quotable at 16@17c. Seconds or such goods as lack flavor and not of uniform color are quotably 12½c—occasional lots sell in with packing stock.

Packing stock is in moderate supply and in moderate demand. Fresh, sweet, solid stock is salable at 11@11½c, and ranges down to 8@10c for soft, cheesy drawing and rancid stock.

Roll Butter is meeting with moderate sale. Supply is fair, and fresh sweet stock is quotable at 11@12c—outside for solid stock; and when nicely put up, each roll wrapped separately and all sweet, uniform color, it sells in a small way above current quotations. Stale stock quotably 8@10c.

BEANS—Were quoted a shade lower again, for Pea Beans. Demand so tame that trade is dull. Stocks do not appear to be important and with trade slow and feeling weak no one seems to care to stock up to any extent. It seems it is easy enough to secure Beans, so that dealers have no difficulty in keeping supplied to extent of their wants. Some lots offered on the open market were reported as slow and weak. Of Red Kidney Beans there are few. They rule about steady, at the same time they are quiet.

Pea Beans—
- Hand-picked, new..................$1 70 @....
- Off color .... 1 60 @1 65
- Screened and low grades.......... 1 25 @1 50
- Mediums—none offered: nominally about 5c under Pea Beans

Red Kidney, per bu.................. 2 90 @3 10
Limas, California, per 100 lbs .. .... 4 25 @4 37½

CHEESE—There was quoted a heavy market. Trade remains of a quiet slow order. It is getting late and it is doubtful if any one will care to take in much stock. Fall made goods remain in fair stock, and more new appear, but these are not offered yet to an important quality General supply though is good. Feeling weak.

DRESSED LAMBS—For fine fresh-killed Lambs, 35-lb weight and heavier, fat white kidneys, there was a fair demand, but the ordinary thin and not nicely handled stock was slow. Receipts large, and consisted mostly of 28 to 35-lb weights, with some very small, 22 lbs and under, received, which were dull. Yearlings and Mutton slow sale.

Spring Lambs, pelt on, 35@45 lbs each...	$5 00@5 50
Spring Lambs, 25@35 lbs, good, not fancy	3 50@4 50

Yearlings pelt off, poor to choice, per lb.	3@ 7
Mutton, pelt off, poor to good, per lb....	3@ 6

EGGS—The receipts at Chicago (not including through shipments) for the days mentioned were as follows:

	This week Cases.	Last week. Cases.	Last year. Cases.
Monday............	12,572	11,547	10,411
Tuesday...........	11,057	15,576	13,071

Totals..........	53,632	59,881	59,709

The market was again easy and prices were marked down ¼c. Trade was fair, but not as good as during the previous days of the week, and holders were more anxious to sell. Most of the demand during the week has been to supply active retail trade wants, and to fill some interior orders, but as this demand has been well supplied, trade began to slacken up somewhat, and the tension on the market being loosened, a reaction was natural. The smaller receipts for the week were attributed to the bad roads in the country, and as these improve, larger receipts are looked for.

The sales on the Butter and Egg Board to-day were 400 cases prime Firsts new cases at 16¾c, 50 cases do. old cases at 16½c, 1 car shipping cases to arrive the 4th at 16½c.

Fresh Eggs at mark, as received, cases returned, are quotable at 16c per dozen.

Fresh Eggs at "mark" general receipts, new cases included, quotably 16½@16¾c, and shipping cases included at 16¼@16½c. Small miscellaneous lots do not sell for as much as large lots of straight packing.

"Prime Firsts" are quotable at 16¾c. To meet this classification the Eggs must be fresh gathered, be packed in new white wood 30-dozen cases, unless otherwise specified, shall be reasonably clean, of good average size, and between Feb. 15th and May 15th shall contain 85 per cent of fresh, reasonably full, strong, sweet Eggs; the balance, other than the loss, may be defective in strength and fullness, but must be sweet There may be a total average loss of one dozen per case, but if the loss exceeds this amount by not over 50 per cent the Eggs shall be good delivery upon allowance of the excess.

"Extras" are quotably 18c. This is a very high grade of Eggs, put up by some of the city merchants to meet the requirements of a particular high class of trade. It requires going through a good many cases to get one case up to this standard, as nothing but large, full, strictly fresh-laid Eggs are taken.

Dirties very quiet; few of them; quotable at $4 50 @4 65 per case of 30 dozen, depending on quality.

Seconds, including small, shrunken and dirty, and there are not many on sale, quotable at $4 20@4 35 per case, depending on condition.

Storage—There were liberal offerings of April storage packed at 17c and 16½c was bid.

Duck Eggs—A few were received and they are quotably 25@30c per doz.

Goose Eggs—A few on sale and quotably about 50@60c per doz.

FRESH FISH—Only small consignments offered. Not much demand early in the week. Fish sell best about Thursday.

Fine Bass, and Pickeral will sell at all times. Carp, Buffalo and Suckers are always dull. Perch of good size will sell. Sun Fish very dull. Occasionally a consignment is received

Black Bass smaller than 11 inches in length, should not be sent to market; the State laws prohibt the marketing of Bass smaller than this. They are liable to confiscation

Medium size Bass are preferred to large. The very large ones are not as desirable as the medium size for the reason that restaurants want to serve a whole Fish, and the large ones are too large to serve—they do not care to serve half a Fish

The quotations given are for small lots received to be sold here on commission The quotations do not represent the prices obtained by the regular Fish houses.

POULTRY—Live—The market was unchanged. There were fair express runs and one car load in by freight, and sufficient stock on sale to supply the demand Trade was satisfactory retailers and dressers buying, and the Hebrews also bought some stock for their holidays next week.

Some of the young Roosters show large spurs and are staggy, and buyers discriminate against these and will not pay as much for them as they will for stock not showing spurs.

Spring Chickens—A coop of small Chickens, "Peepers" received and sold at $2 50 per dozen.

Live Turkeys were quiet; not many offered and little demand for them The Turkeys coming are rather poor.

Live Chickens in fair supply and in good demand

Live Ducks remain steady. Not many coming and the demand is moderate. Most of the Ducks are thin and poor and for that reason do not sell well.

Live Geese selling fairly well when fat, but the poor Geese are dull

Dressed Poultry—Trade is small in Dressed Poultry. The season is about over. If it is real fine and in good order it will sell, but much of it arriving shows the effects of the mild weather and does not look bright and fresh. Most of the Chickens coming are big, fat, heavy Hens and these in particular are slow Dealers are giving more attention to the live Poultry.

With the warmer weather, country shippers should be careful and not pack stock until thoroughly cooled off, to guard against it heating. Perhaps it would be better to ice stock or to send it in alive

Young Gobbler Turkeys are getting flabby and most of them sell in with old Toms or command about 14@15c.

Iced Poultry—Did not sell so readily to-day as yesterday. There were fair receipts, and the stock comes on the market rather late. Generally Fridays is a pretty good day to sell, but to-day being Good Friday and a holiday, some of the usual buyers supplied their wants earlier in the week and after 12 o'clock stock moved very slowly. Quotations formerly given were adheard to, but market may ease up to close out

The market holds strong, with enough demand to take the offerings at yesterday's prices, and a few buyers were out who were willing to pay to advance for fancy Rurals in sacks, sales being made at $1 03. There were several cars taken at $1 02, and quite a number at $1 00 for good, desirable Rurals in bulk or sacks, also cars with Rurals and Burbanks, while fair stock went at 98c, and 1 car Burbanks in sacks sold at 98c.

Seed stock is rather slow, but inquiries for small lots are increasing. Offerings are fair. Early Ohio, $1 05@1 10. Triumphs slow, $1 10@1 15. Rose, $1 00 @1 05.

VEAL—The market is ruling weak and prices favor buyers The supply on sale was heavy. There were a good many Calves left over from yesterday, and there were liberal receipts to-day Butchers were all well stocked up and trade was slow, with receivers working hard and offering every inducement to make butchers increase their holdings. The small, cheap Calves and the best Calves met with some inquiry at the late decline, but it was the medium stock. Calves weighing 75 to 110 lbs with only fair or dark kidneys, which were found to be very difficult to sell, and the offerings consisted largely of this description of stock It might be called fairly good stock and yet could not be sold at over about 6@6½c down to 5½c.

STRAWBERRIES—Arrivals were heavy from Louisiana—about 3,500 cases. There was quite a brisk trade early, and afterward there came a lull. The later market was dull and quiet Quality of the Berries was some better—they were ripe—still there were some a little green, some also mouldy or sandy.

Prices were not materially changed; they were easy, with a range as follows:

HOW TO DRESS CALVES.

Calves from three to six weeks old, and weighing about one hundred pounds, or say from eighty to one hundred and twenty pounds, are the most desirable weight for veals. The head should be sent out, so as to leave the hide of the head on the skin. The legs should be cut off at the knee joint. The entrails should all be removed, excepting the kidneys; the liver, lights and heart should be taken out of the carcass open from the neck through the entire body from head to bumper. If this is done they are not so apt to sour and spoil during hot weather. Many a fine carcass has spoiled in hot weather because of it not being cut open. Don't wash the carcass out with water, but wipe out with a dry cloth. Don't skip until the animal heat is entirely out of the body, and never tie the carcass up in a bag, as this keeps the air from circulating, and makes the meat more liable to become tainted.

It is very essential that the directions for dressing Calves be followed, especially in regard to letting the Calves cool off properly before stripping in hot weather, as hundreds of Calves are received in bad order and sold for not much more than charges and some do not bring freight. Numerous carcasses are also condemned by the health officers. They should hang up 6 to 8 hours or over night in an airy place to properly cool off before shipping.

Calves under fifty pounds should not be shipped, and are liable to be condemned by the health officers as being too young. Merchants, too, are liable to be fined, if found selling these slunks, for violation of the law. Very heavy Calves, such as have been fed on buttermilk, never sell well in our market—they are neither Veal nor Beef.

Please mark shipping tag with your name and address written plainly, and not to the blind leg.

The best selling days for Calves are Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday morning. The first and last days of the week there is not much demand, and after Friday morning—that is, Friday afternoon and Saturday—buyers generally have their wants supplied.

Of course there is some demand every day, but usually the best days to sell Calves are Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday morning.

THE HOP SITUATION.

[New York Producers' Price Current, March 28.]

On the Hop market scarcely anything is doing between dealers, and brewers are all holding off. It is well known that many brewers have run down their stock of Hops very low, and sooner or later will be compelled to purchase, but they are waiting until the last moment in hopes of a turn in prices in their favor. The general situation remains the same, as bolders of the crop are confident and show no disposition to hurry matters, though some holders of poorer grades are feeling some nervousness. A fair to good demand continues, while some holders are showing increasing anxiety and seeking flers. In this State the snow is off the ground in most producing sections and growers, judging from paper experience, think the roots have wintered very well indeed. On the Coast there has been abundant rain, which is beneficial except in the low lands and river bottoms, where they have been bothered some by high water. In Oregon and California work is starting up in the yards wherever possible.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET.

BOSTON, March 25—The Commercial Bulletin says: "The Wool market is steady and firm, with a fairly active business in small lots. The increased demand for fine grades, including domestic fleeces, Territory and Australian, is a feature of the week. There has been no shading of prices, that is, to any extent, but dealers are anxious to clean up stocks as closely as possible, making way for the new season's Fleeces, when buyers can look for the important transactions have not yet been closed. The London auction sales closed firm at prices 5 to 10 per cent higher for cross breds and at par to 5 per cent lower for merinos from the country's rule.

"The shipments of Wool from Boston to date from Dec. 31, 1902, are 56 614,621 lbs, against 61,787,-335 lbs at the same date last year. The receipts to date are 92,177 lbs, against 45,342,488 lbs for the same period last year."

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

During the month of April, 1903, the stock of contract Corn at Chicago decreased 700,000 bu.

Fire, Sunday, at East Brady, Pa., destroyed property to the extent of $100,000; insurance, $50,000.

The Ohio Fuel Supply Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent, payable April 15. Books close April 2.

A Boston party estimates dividend disbursements for April to be $17,955,047, against $17,375,133 six months ago, and $20,229,411 in April, 1903.

The business of the National Carbon Company so far this year is said to be 25 per cent in excess of that in the corresponding period last year.

Stockholders of the New York, Chicago and St. Louis Railroad Company will hold their annual meeting on May 4. Books close April 8 and reopen May 5.

Directors of the First National Bank, Chicago, Tuesday, declared the regular quarterly dividend of 4 per cent, payable March 31 to stockholders of record March 29.

Broomhall cables: "The Chancellor of the Exchequer says that the present intention is to remove the duty on imports of cereals into the United Kingdom."

Colorado Lambs sold at Chicago this week at 6@15, being within 10c of the high point of the season, which was Jan 29, when the first Colorado-Mexican Lambs received that year sold at $6.25.

The Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent on preferred stock, payable April 20. Books close April 9 and reopen April 21.

Director Sage of the Iowa weather crop bureau is quoted as saying: "I have made no personal examination, but personal reports indicate that Professor Hadden is right about the poor germinating quality of the Corn."

An official of the Allis-Chalmers Company said: "The contract for the emulsion of crearage and additional issue of stock, as it has ample funds to carry out its extension plans. The new working capital of the company is $7,500,000."

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company's freight station at Twenty Ninth and Market streets, West Philadelphia, was destroyed by fire, Friday, entailing a loss estimated at $35,000. The depot was filled with freight when the fire occurred.

Next Monday, April 4, a proposition to advance the membership fee of the Butter and Egg Board to $50 00 will be voted on. There is no doubt the fee will carry and the new membership fee will be made $50 00. There are now 88 members.

The New York Market News says: "A report from Buffalo states that a committee of Grain members of the Chamber of Commerce has been appointed for the purpose of organizing a separate Exchange, specifically for Grain dealing purposes."

The Government report to be issued April 10 will show the percentage of condition of Winter Wheat and Rye April 1, the effect of snow and winter on Winter Wheat, and condition of soil. It will also deal with the condition of Farm Animals for the preceding twelve months.

According to an official bulletin, in the first ten days of March unusually experienced rainy weather in the North and Centre, fine elsewhere. The condition of the Wheat crop was satisfactory, although rather too forward for the season. Cultivation for Corn planting was progressing.

The Philadelphia Record says that the freight congestion on the Pennsylvania Railroad threatens to compel the closing down of some of the mills of the Glenshaw Glass Company, Glenshaw, Pa., which are out of Coal, and that other plants are also in danger.

The London Stock Exchange has granted an application of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway for a quotation of $40,000,000 twenty-five year 4 per cent gold bonds. Application is made for a quotation of Mexican Central Railway Company $12,000,000 additional consolidated mortgage is of 1911.

According to one of the reorganization committeemen, the annual meeting of the Lake Street Elevated to be held Thursday no doubt a very formal affair. Everything has been approved and nearly all the securities have been exchanged. Deposits of stocks are enough to assure that the small assessment called for will be paid.

The Governing Committee of the New York Stock Exchange is considering the advisability of holding interim "open-outcrying" new Northern Securities stock, though no formal application has yet been made for such listing. The Northern Securities Company is expected shortly to submit to the Stock Exchange, in this connection, a statement of its condition.

A message from Crescent City, Ill., Tuesday, said: "The grading of Corn in April, May and June will be worse than at any time during the winter. We find as frost leaves the ear Corn is nearly impossible to shell it, and loss of it is black next to the cob. There is some good Corn, but a great deal that will not be better than No. 4 and No. 5 grades. About 10 per cent of the Corn is soft."

"In spite of two advances in price since the first of the year," said an official of the American Steel and Wire Company, "the sales for March will show a still greater increase in the quantity corresponding periods of last year. It would take until June to exhaust orders now on the books, and there are no signs of any let-up. Fair crops will make the present year about the best in the company's career."

The American Car and Foundry plant at Madison, Ill., has almost completed its repair contracts, and will commence the manufacture of new cars on April 1. The first order of new cars is that of the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific Railway Company, for whom 400 Coke and Gondola cars will be delivered daily. Fair crops will make the present year about the best in the company's career."

The Financial Chronicle Journal says: "Two members of the Live Stock Exchange were brought to trial before the Board of Directors, Tuesday, for a violation of the new meal rule, which went into force April 1st. It forbids members to solicit orders for customers without accompanying them to dinner. They were found guilty and fined $50 00 each. This is the first case brought up for an infraction of the rules."

The following are the export returns from Argentina for 1903 of the Statistical Department of the Ministry of Agriculture, the National Statistical Department, and the River Plate Review:
